Following this Eld. W. G. Cypert ably and interestingly discussed the subject "Boosts For many nice things to say for those who are progressive and boost for the upbuilding of the town and community, but mentioned many things already accomplished and made some good suggestions as to future work of the organization. He was especially commendatory of the cleanliness of our city, and commended very highly the club and those in charge of the fine road work that has been done in this community during the last year. At this time Miss Tommie Durham read two poems, which were very pleasing.

This being "Ladies Night," the very courteous and able Toastmaster, in recognition of the ladies presence, placed one of their number on the program. With hand in hand we'd keep, Mrs. L. C. Sublett at this time made one of the best addresses of the evening, speaking of the past achievements and suggesting many things that could and should be done toward improving our city. Chief among her timely suggestions for improvements was the building of a They crossed the rugged river. "Ladies Rest Room" in Merkel, which seemed to meet with the approval of many present. She also urged the planting of more trees, shrubbery and flowers. thus making our town more beautiful and attractive, which to make homes. Rev. Ira L. Parrack, who has lately moved back to our city after a sojourn of two years in Gorman, spoke very ably on the subject "If Every Knocker was a Booster, Who Could Stop Us?" Rev. Parrack, while very much an optimist, declared that without the knocker the world would progress but little. He showed that it took opposition to spur men on to do their full duty in an effort to bring about reform and improvement. His addresses You've been so true and faithful are always appreciated. Dramatic Club Notes The Dramatic Club held its first meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 13, 1925. All knew that 13 was considered an unlucky date to start anything, but we are going to make this the luckiest year that the Dramatic Club has ever experienced.

The following officers were elected: Preident, Tommie Durham; Vice-president, Gladys Deutschman; Secretary, Flora Frances Anderson; Reporter; Stell Ledger.

We decided to meet every first Thursday of every month. After the business was discussed, "Jo-Boy" candy bars were served to the following: Miss Lucy Tracy, Berdelle Adcock, Gladys Watts, Deshazo Simpson, Elizabeth Harkrider, Tommie Durham, Irene Perry, Gladys Deutschman, Flora Frances Anderson and Stell Ledger.

Reporter.

Mr. E. F. Vantreese, one of the successful and hustling farmers of the Sand Burr community, was here last Saturday and reported his crops as being especially good. He said he had already picked and turned over to the Farm Bureau 19 bales of cotton. He stated also that he would make ample feed stuff to run him another year, with some to sell. He is an enthusiastic member of and believer in the success of the Farm Bureau Cotton Association.

What do you want for a quarter? What I have to say that might be of myself I hope you will pardon; it is only that I want you to see the team is depending on you for its life and existence.

I am pleased with the local support of our few loyal fans. They stay behind us. We only wish we had more.

Let me say just a thing or two more, and I mean no slam at any one or any bunch of men. We have needed some work done on our school grounds. We need a street or two permanently closed, not only for athletics, but for the safety of the small children at school. We need a good playing field, walled in. We need the cooperation of the Luncheon Club and other organizations in town. Have we been the receipents of anything done by them? Has the city taken any steps to close any streets for our benefit? Have we had a chance to bring these things before the one forward marching organization in our town. No! I have asked Toastmasters to let me bring these things up; I've had others promise to bring these things up, but who has been left waiting? I am blind I suppose, to the things I've seen put over on me. And the reason I think of it as I do is that I've put myself in the place of the boys on the team. Things I have told them the people promised to do we have seen neglected and the "joke"-if you look at it I'm not knocking the show that
