

WHITTILIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

The time is ripe if you're interested in getting into local politics. Deadlines for filing for both the city council and school board are the first week in next month--March 5--30 days prior to the election.

Each of those governing bodies has two openings. The city term is for two years and the duration of a term on the school district's board of trustees is three years.

Whatever the city position lacks, though, in length of term it more than makes up for in pay. City councilmen draw a check for $25 per month --- that's nigh onto a dollar a day not counting Sundays and there's little counciling work that goes on on Sundays, anyway. The school job pays in satisfaction of serving your community. That's another way of saying there's no financial reward.

People who are qualified voters are qualified candidates. If, in other words, you're eligible to vote in the school election, you can seek election to a trustee position and if you're an eligible voter in the city election, you're legally qualified to be a member of the city council.

And it's not necessary to get a majority of the votes, even. If you're one of the two high candidates in either of the elections, you're elected.

Too, an individual may submit his own name as a candidate. The custom here seems to be that candidates have their names petitioned onto the ballots or their friends do the petitioning for them. And while that's kinda the custom, it certainly isn't the only way.

A person may file his own name.

The place to file for the city council ballot is at the city hall, of course, and Mrs. Zoe Clary, the school district's tax assessor-collector, will accept your filing as a candidate in the school trustee election. Her office is in the new Ridgelea Elementary building on Highway 86.

In this space in years past, we have expressed displeasure with the customary petition method of getting candidates lined up. That method is all right, your understand, and we don't mean to really knock it, but it's just as good and maybe better for a candidate to file his own name.

It just might be that a candidate who is interested enough to file his own name will make a better representative than one who has to be influenced by his friends to run and agrees to be a candidate reluctantly.

In many cases, an eager worker will make a better hand than one who is reluctant.

At the same time, we might want to know why the eager candidate is so. And therein is probably the reason that most people avoid filing their own names even when they're interested in having the job and are willing to work at it. They're afraid that the voting citizenry may feel they have a bone to pick or a score to settle when they don't.

Still, our custom of securing candidates for local government office is some behind the times and we'd like to see it abandoned. We don't think we will see it, but we'd like to.

Our Texas Tech sports fan friends are upset again. This time it's partly about the non-rehiring of their basketball coach, Gene Gibson, who has one of the best records in the Southwest Conference, but mostly about the Red Raiders 71-70 loss to the Fighting Texas Aggies in Lubbock Saturday night.

We were privileged to see the game and had just a lot of fun watching. The best part of the game was the final score, we'll admit, and it looked as though, in the final seconds, that the Red Raiders were going to come out on the long end of the score. A traveling call against the player who made Tech's last basket with two seconds remaining, giving the Red Raiders a one-point lead, nullified the shot and assured the Aggies of another one-point win on their way to the Conference championship.

The one-point verdict was nothing new for the Aggies who have five or six of their 10 SWC wins by that margin. A little luck goes a long way in making a team good.

Action of some of the fans at the A&M-Tech basketball game was bad.

Throwing of ice and eggs, even, on the floor prior to the beginning of the game as the Aggie starting lineup was being introduced was bush, we thought, and accomplished

CLEAN-UP VICTIMS --- These are examples of the junked and abandoned vehicles which the City of Bovina has agreed to have removed from property here. City officials estimate there are about 50 such vehicles that should be moved, either voluntarily by the owners or under the terms of an anti-trash ordinance which went into effect in 1967.

Council Will Host Public School Week

Texas Public School Week is March 3-7.

The week will be observed in Bovina Schools, along with those over the state, as the 115th birthday of Texas education on a full public level.

Parents are invited to visit classrooms during that week, except Friday, when school will be dismissed for the annual teacher's meeting in Amarillo, according to Bovina's three school principals, Gary Cox, Richard Roberts and Tom Templeton.

On Wednesday, the public is invited to a special day of activities sponsored by the Student Council, including lunch in the main cafeteria of Bovina Schools.

WELCOMES VISITORS -- Richard Roberts, junior high principal, paused during a mathematics class this week to emphasize Texas Public School Week, observed this year from March 3-7. Visitors are especially invited for special activities at Bovina Schools Wednesday.

Lions Slate Ladies Night

Lions Club Ladies Night will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday) in Bovina Schools cafeteria.

Tickets are on sale at $5 per couple. The dinner and program is open to the public.

Percy Mays, Hereford High School student, will present a comedy act, a "take-off" on Bill Cosby. The son of a Baptist minister, Percy is reputed to delight audiences with his antics.

Also appearing on the program is a band composed of Bovina High School boys, including Royce Sisk, Bruce Caldwell, Ronnie Dyer, Bobby Redden, Wilton Cox and Phil Sorley.

Arranging the program were Leonard Haney and J. E. Sherrill. Food committee is composed of Vernon Estes and Pat Kunselman.

At the club's last regular meeting, a report was made that $365.50 in prize money had been paid to Bovina FFA and 4-H Club Livestock Show.

Sherrill is president of the civic organization.

Industry, Programs Discussed By CAP

Reports and discussions were heard Monday night as 36 people attended the Community Action Program meeting held in St. Ann's Hall here.

Area coordinator for CAP, Meade Michael of Amarillo, discussed the importance of community involvement in carrying out the work of the program.

He told of the programs that are available through the Federal government for benefit of disadvantaged people, how to obtain the programs and how to use facilities available through local agencies.

Industry in Bovina was of particular interest to the group. Michael advised this subject be discussed with the Chamber of Commerce and several industries should be considered. He explained the possibilities of obtaining On the Job Training for small industries. OJT is a government program designed especially to train workers in certain skills.

CAP workers, Mrs. George Cervantez and Lorenzo Grando, gave reports on the work of the Bovina Center and the progress that has been made. An election of additional members to the Advisory Board was postponed until the next meeting, the last Monday in March. The board will be composed of 12 members including four city officials, four civic organization members and four low-income people.

More people are urged to attend the next meeting, Mrs. Cervantez said.

Attending the Monday night meeting were Mayor Bedford Caldwell; Jay Sherrill, president of Lions Club; Mrs. Arnold Hromas, president of Bovina Woman's Study Club; Mrs. Ben Rejino, president of Our Lady of Guadalupe Society; Mrs. Vernon Estes, Methodist Kindergarten; Roach, president of Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture; Mrs. Ovid Lawlis, First Baptist Church; Fr. Richard Roth, St. Ann's Church.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pena, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garza, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rodriguez, Mr. and Mrs. Jose Escalante, Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Garza, Mr. and Mrs. Vidal Gomez, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Trevino, Mrs. James Roach, Mrs. Jesse Walling, Mrs. Earl Stevenson, Mrs. Rita Mast, Fidencio Guzman, Joe Gonzales, Marcelina Hernandez, Esperanza Saucedo, Lucretia Gallardo, Berta Minjarez and Maria Cruz.

Four Filed For Council

Four men have been petitioned as candidates for two places in the city council in the April 5 election.

Edward Isaac and Vernon Estes, whose terms expire this year, have been petitioned to seek re-election as councilmen.

Johnie Horn and Vernon Willard have also been petitioned for the positions.

Deadline for filing in the city election is Tuesday, March 4.

Signing the petition for Isaac and Estes were J. T. Hammonds, Bill D. Lane, John Wilson, H. J. Charles, Alfred Stanberry and M. E. Ezell.

Petition for Horn and Willard was signed by Oakley D. Stevenson, A. B. Wilkinson, Pat Kunselman, H. J. Charles, Flossie Rhinehart and John Wilson.

Holdover members of the city council are Mayor Bedford Caldwell, Billie Sudderth, Charles Corn and Lloyd Gober.

Deadline March 21 --

ASCS Urges Farm Signup

"Come early and avoid the crowd" is the advice from the Parmer County ASCS Office as the seven week period for signing up in the 1969 farm programs passed midpoint and is edged toward the March 21 deadline.

Although the ASCS Office will accept applications to participate in the farm programs at any time through March 21, producers are urged to file their application as early as possible. At the present slow rate of signup there is sure to be a "last minute rush."

The programs are voluntary and farmers sign up for them in order to take part. Signup brings into focus crop plans for the year ahead. In short, farmers indicate their intentions to take part in the programs for 1969, including the extent to which they will participate in the wheat and feed grain programs. Under the feed grain program for 1969, farmers may earn diversion and price support payments as well as qualify for price-support loans on their corn, barley, and grain sorghum crops.

The wheat program provides diversion payments for reducing acreage below the farm allotment, and price support loans on all the wheat produced on the farm. It also provides marketing certificates to bring returns up to full parity on the part of the wheat crop allocated for domestic use. The cotton program provides price-support payments and loans.

Additional details on the commodity programs are available from ASCS personnel aiding in signup.

File Charges, Fine Paid

R. T. Harbour was fined $1 and court costs in county court Monday before Judge Archie Tarter on a charge of simple assault (fighting) filed by Norvell Strawn.

The incident occurred Sunday about 8 p.m. in a local restaurant, according to City Marshal Ronald Mitchell.

An assembly program will be held at 10 a.m. Campaign speeches will be made by candidates for Student Council offices. Nominations of candidates are being made this week.

Two films will be shown following the program and at other times if there is sufficient interest. L. F. Jacobs, superintendent, says. The first is on the report of the Governor's Committee on Education and the second, titled "Within Our Grasp," concerns the proposals made by Texas State Teachers Association for up-grading education. Jacobs said each film is from 15 to 20 minutes in length.

Guests will be met Wednesday by members of the Student Council who will guide them to the classrooms they wish to visit.

During the afternoon Wednesday, students will elect officers for next year's Student Council.

Jacobs pointed out that parents are welcome to eat at the cafeteria of the main school Wednesday. However, sufficient space is not available at the cafeteria at Ridgelea Elementary for visitors. A special menu has been planned by the cafeteria staff for that day.

ing to Mrs. Zoe Clary, school tax assessor-collector.

However, a petition has been submitted to that office bearing three names. It is in the process of being signed.

Names of those on the petition are Earl Whittin, Charles Smith and Thomas Rhodes, Jr., Mrs. Clary said.

The terms of school board president Grady Sorley and vice president Don Murphy expire this year.

Holdover members of the board are Dean McCallum, Lawrence Jamerson, Eddie Gayle Steelman and Leon Ware.

Meeting with the group were Johnny Jesko and F. A. Marnell, both of Hereford.

Aims and objectives of the organization, now in 43 states, were outlined. Primary goal of the Parmer organization is to assist members in getting higher prices for their grain sorghum.

NFO puts farmers in a better position to bargain for their interests, according to the Hereford men, who are assisting in organizing units in this area.

Snow, Rain Total .22 In Bovina

A light shower Sunday morning, coupled with a two and one-half inch snow last week, brought the total moisture for the week to .22 of an inch.

Added to .48 of an inch of rainfall received the week before, total for the month of February is .70.

This is the official measurement at a U. S. Weather Bureau gauge, kept by W. E. Williams.

However, areas in several directions from Bovina have received more. Nearly an inch of rainfall was recorded in several locations previously.

The Wednesday night and Thursday morning snow also left a heavier fall in some areas. One farmer reported four inches of snow 11 miles southeast of Bovina.

Accompanying the rain and snow has been fog that has blanketed the area on several mornings.

After a hard-fought, exciting win over Happy's Cowgirls, Bovina's Fillies went on to down Nazareth and win District 3-B tournament at Happy last week. The tournament win, coupled with their first place in round robin play, gave them the undisputed right to represent the district in playoff games.

Slow. That's the report on how stock sales in Bovina Swim Pool Corporation are going. In the school year 1957-'58, Bovina Future Farmers of America chapter had a total labor income of $14,710.32, a resume of the year's projects shown.

Hi Dolph, I am writing you this letter in regard to how much it would cost me to get a subscription of the Bovina Blade for the next 10 months. I would like for you to let me know so I can send you the money.

The reason I would like to read the Blade is because I would like to know what goes on in the little town of Bovina, which I miss very much. Even though it is small, I'm proud of it. So let me know the price.

Well, I guess I'll close for now. May God bless you and your family.

Man and the Universe

Brotherhood, inner calm, and improved understanding of man's life and the world are the goals of The Theosophical Society in America. Founded in 1875, the Society has U.S. headquarters in Wheaton, Illinois, with branches in over 60 countries.

A non-sectarian association, the Society encourages study of man's native abilities and his role in the universe. "Our world and our lives are complex and seem unpredictable, but close study reveals a pattern," explains Miss Joy Mills, national president, adding: "Every idea pertaining to man is worth study. Yoga, ESP, and reincarnation, examined along with science, philosophy, and ideas from all religions yield insight into man's behavior and inherent powers. Improved understanding can improve our ability to accept and work within our circumstances."

Brotherhood is both taught and practiced. Lectures and workshops are conducted by the Society here and abroad. It also publishes Quest Books, American Theosophist monthly, and several free pamphlets.

Aroused about the fact that their coach was being dismissed and possibly because they were playing the Conference-leading Aggies, the Red Raiders played a tremendous game. Bases on ab-

We don't have any apologies to make about the win. It was our turn. We saw the two schools play football last fall in College Station . . . . .

Predatory Animals --

Control Meet Set At Hub

In the last year or so there has been a buildup in the county of predatory animals that cause economic damage either to livestock, land or crops. These particular predatory animals being referred to are prairie dogs, coyotes and rats according to Ronny McNutt, Parmer County agricultural agent.

There has been an unusually large increase in coyote numbers in the past year.

As a result of an increasing number of requests for assistance a predator control meeting has been set. The meeting will be held Thursday, February 27, at 2 p.m. in the Hub Community Center, Glen Riley, who is with the Fish & Wildlife Department of Lubbock, will conduct the meeting. Riley will explain and demonstrate the proper material and equipment needed to control these predators. Riley will also have a supply of poison grain for individuals interested in purchasing for predator control.

Pretty Party Waffles

by Betty Crocker

Here's a scrumptious thought for holiday entertaining. Waffles at their party best — for brunch, late afternoon or midnight supper. You can doll up the batter with pomegranate seeds, nuts, coconut or bits of bacon. Or spices are nice, also almond extract as in the recipe below. For even more glamour, serve with Egg-nog Topping or peaches and sour cream. And if you'd like to speed things up at party time, bake your waffles several hours ahead. Before serving, place them in a single layer on a baking sheet and reheat to crispness. Just 5 minutes in 400° oven, turning once. Now read the recipes — and sigh a little.

BASIC WAFFLE RECIPE

2 cups Bisquick
2 tablespoons salad oil or melted shortening
1 1/2 cups milk
1 egg

Beat all ingredients with rotary beater until smooth. Pour batter from cup or pitcher into center of hot waffle iron. Bake until steaming stops. Lift off waffle carefully with fork. Makes three 9-inch waffles.

ALMOND WAFFLES WITH PEACHES AND SOUR CREAM

Follow basic recipe above except — stir 1 teaspoon almond extract and 1/2 cup chopped toasted almonds into batter. Serve waffles with sliced peaches and sour cream topping (mix 1 cup dairy sour cream and 1/4 cup brown sugar)

SPICY WAFFLES WITH EGGNOG TOPPING

Follow basic recipe (left) except — stir 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon each all-spice, cloves and nutmeg into batter. Serve waffles with Egg-nog Topping (below).

Eggnog Topping
2 eggs, separated
1/4 cup sugar
Dash of salt
1 tablespoon rum flavoring
1 cup whipping cream, whipped

Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat egg yolks, sugar and salt until very thick and lemon colored; stir in rum flavoring. Fold egg yolk mixture into whipped cream. Fold egg whites into egg yolk-cream mixture. Chill thoroughly. Happy holidays, Everybody!

CATTLE DRIVE -- Billy Whitecotton shows his favorite endeavor in his two and one-half years as an art student. The picture, painted in pure oils, required 54 hours of work. It is among 23 Whitecotton has painted "in his spare time."

Whitecotton Spends Spare Dime With 'Brush In Hand'

By Pat Jacobs
Bovina probably has more people who try their hands in the field of art, per capita, than any town in the United States.
Among them is Billy Whitecotton, assistant manager of Wilson's Super Market.
He began to seriously pursue painting about two and one-half years ago, even though as a child art interested him. Billy says as a youngster in his hometown of Bowie, he used to melt crayolas and try to use them as paints. And many times he sat in the classroom drawing and sketching "when I should have been studying."

Two years ago Billy began studying with Dean Merritt of Clovis, who conducts classes here. Since that time he has completed 23 paintings and sold five of them.
The most he has sold one for is $150, but his favorite, titled "Cattle Drive" is still in his private collection, although the last offered price was $350.
Those he has sold have include three landscapes and two skylines.
"Cattle Drive" expresses Whitecotton's love for painting Western subjects. He spent 54 hours on the picture. He currently is painting two others. One is a herd of sheep driven by an Indian man and woman. This is being painted in tones of pink. The second is a herd of wild horses with two fighting in the foreground.
Whitecotton has recently completed a portrait of John F. Kennedy, one of two required portraits in Merritt's art classes. The first was of an Indian.
One of his favorites is a knife painting of an Italian man, sitting on a street corner chipping stones for paving. It hangs in a Bovina home as a "loan."
Whitecotton does all his work in pure oils. He has done two in copal. He prefers realism to abstract. Whitecotton says, mainly because he likes Western scenes. "I like it to look real when I'm through."
Whitecotton is not the only male artist in town. At least three others have gained repute in that field, J. T. Hammonds, Dean McCallum and Kent Glasscock.

It has become such a fascinating hobby for Billy he paints two or three nights each week, in addition to his class lesson.
He feels it is something that will prove valuable to him in year to come as he grows older and needs diversions.
Whitecotton has been associated with Wilson's since 1961, when he moved here from Muleshoe. A graduate of Bowie High School, he came to Muleshoe in 1958, where he owned and operated a small grocery store.

Scoopin' - - -

By Pat Jacobs

The following is a "canned" editorial sent the Blade by Texas Citizens' Committee on Public School Week. We pass it on to you.

"Are law and order being thrown out the window? Are they old-fashioned? The answer to both these questions should be no.

"For 115 years, Texas has strived to give its young the kind of education that includes much more than 'book learning.' And, because this 'something more' is important, Masonic Lodges across the state banded together to implement the promotion of our schools through Public School Week. But, they need help.

"Only through you can the schools begin to teach our youngsters that authority and law and order are not necessarily synonymous with tyranny and dictatorship, but that only through education do they NOT become these things.

"Law and order is a way of life --- a good way of life, because all living things are born out of, and live out their life patterns in an order.

"Let us educate our children to the facts that they are responsible for the kind of future they and their families will enjoy. Let us help them to understand the importance books, classrooms, and study hold for them. Let us appreciate and support our public schools in Texas.

"But don't support and appreciate them silently. Speak out. Visit a public school in your community March 3rd through 7th. It will be a rewarding experience for you, and a living example for your child.

"Keep law and order in the hands, hearts and minds of our children. Support your public schools so they can support you."

And speaking of schools, Mrs. Bill Nicholus states she would appreciate your magazines for her reading class. She received a few following the first appeal, but could use more.

*****
Mrs. Patricia DiCuffa also has a request to make. In preparation for the one-act play to be presented in Interscholastic League, costumes are being made. These must be ornate. Old jewelry, scraps of gold braid, other ornate trimmings, scraps of velveteen, corduroy, satin, taffets, etc. are needed sometime between now and March 15.

And thanks, in advance, again.

"I done left everythin' in God's hands, like th' preacher-man told me, and lookit what happened!"

Read Jeremiah 18:1-6; Ephesians 6:10-20

The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to do.

--Jeremiah 18:4 (RSV)

In the museum adjacent to the Wright Brothers National Memorial at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, a statement read: "The early Wright gliders employed warped wings to maintain stability in flight. This feature... is an essential form of aircraft control today."

Aeronautical manufacturers and engineers expertly bend or twist a wing at one or both ends in order that a plane may retain, or sometimes regain, lateral balance.

Men whose lives soar to greatest heights frequently are wrenched by conditions which force them to swerve from their charted course. When an individual relies on God to reshape and remold him, he may convert weakening misfortunes into strengthening assets.

Personal and professional setbacks often serve as possible runways for successful flights. An able and wise pilot depends upon the guidance of Jesus Christ in plotting and directing the course of his life.

PRAYER: Father in heaven, I commit my life to Thy command and control. Grant to me the fortitude to withstand afflictions and the power to solve persistent perplexities. Through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Thought For The Day

We achieve and keep spiritual poise when God reshapes and steers our lives.

Rena Cheek Bland (North Carolina)

On The Farm In Parmer County

By RONNY MCNUTT
County Agent

It costs money to feed cattle lice. These parasites are among the most damaging to beef cattle.

Cattle infested with lice spend a lot of time rubbing against fences, posts or other objects due to the annoyance caused by the insects. Cattle on feed do not gain as they should and require more feed. Infested cows lose weight and their calves become prime targets for the pests. Reduced weaning weights of calves is another spot that hits the pocketbook.

Cattle lice are common over the entire state and include both the biting and sucking types. Their populations build up rapidly during cold weather and when cattle are kept in close quarters.

Sucking lice, short and long nosed, pierce the animal's skin and feed by sucking blood. They are usually found on the sides of the animal's neck, on the brisket, back, inner surface of the thighs, tail, and around the nose, eyes and ears. Chewing lice are smaller and are usually found on top of the animal's body.

Many chemicals are available for controlling lice as well as other external parasites of farm livestock. Because of restrictions and safety suggestions which apply to the use of chemicals, the county agent invites stockmen to come by the office and pick up a copy of MP-691, "Texas Guide for Controlling External Parasites of Livestock and Poultry." *****

SOME UP, SOME DOWN

There were more cattle, hogs and turkeys on Texas farms and ranches January 1, 1969, than a year ago but fewer sheep, goats and chickens, reported the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. Cattle numbers were up 5%; turkeys 6%; while sheep numbers were down 7%; goats 18% and chickens 10%. Total value of livestock and poultry on January 1 was placed at $1,696.8 million, 12% above a year ago. *****

PREDATOR CONTROL MEETING

As a result of an increasing number of requests for assistance and information on controlling some of the major predatory animals in the county a county-wide meeting has been set for Thursday, Feb. 27.

This meeting will begin at 2 p.m. in the Hub Community Center. A representative from the Fish & Wildlife Department from Lubbock will explain and demonstrate the proper material and equipment needed to control these predators. This representative will also have a supply of poison grain for individuals interested in purchasing for predator control.

The major emphasis will be put on the control of prairie dogs, coyotes, and rats.

Former Teacher --

Mrs. Rhodes Awarded Valley Forge Medal

Mrs. June Rhodes, a former Bovina teacher and now a Friona elementary teacher, has been presented the Valley Forge Teachers Medal Award by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa.

She was honored for the encouragement of the speaking talents of Mary Rando, 17-year-old Friona High School student, who has presented her rendition of a patriotic reading, "I Am the Nation," 122 times throughout the Panhandle and elsewhere in Texas.

Mrs. Rhodes began helping Miss Rando, who is one of 18 children in her family, to develop her speaking ability when the girl was doing housework for her three years ago. The teacher has accompanied Miss Rando on 115 occasions.

The presentations are made on George Washington's birthday to individuals, schools and organizations who have demonstrated "outstanding achievements in bringing about a better understanding of the American way of life."

Miss Rando last year won a Freedoms Foundation award. She also recently won second place at the State Farm Bureau Talent Find contest in Dallas.

The third-grader teacher said when she introduced Miss Rando, "This is my chance to speak about patriotism." Last summer Mrs. Rhodes won a scholarship to attend a workshop on the "Preservation of the Principles of Freedom" at the Freedoms Foundation Center.

Miss Rando, who is now a high school senior, plans to go to college next year. She has also developed variations of her presentation, and one on the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" in which she pre-

Homemaker --

Kathy Estes Award Winner

Kathy Estes has been named 1969 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Bovina High School on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls here December 3.

Kathy's achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarships. She also has been awarded a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Estes.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica by Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. The runner-up will earn a $500 educational grant.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from this state, together with those from all other states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join in an expense paid educational tour of Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va., next spring.

KATHY ESTES

The national winner -- the 1969 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow -- will be announced at an American Table dinner in Williamsburg. The choice will be on the basis of her original test score plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, and her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Second, third, and fourth ranking Homemakers of Tomorrow in the nation will have their original scholarship grants increased to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively.

WHO WEARS CONTACT LENSES?

New York (NAPS) - Each year one-half million men, women and children join the growing population of contact lens users. Who are they and what persuades them to put away their specs?

Concern for one's personal appearance is the big reason, say officials of Barnes-Hind Ophthalmic Products, makers of contact lens solutions and accessories.

Better vision, freedom to participate in sports and freedom from eyeglasses are other reasons for using the modern vision aids.

Today's lenses are 8 to 10 millimeters wide (about the size of an aspirin) and made of plastic. Covering the cornea, the part of the eye out of which we see, they float on the natural tear layer.

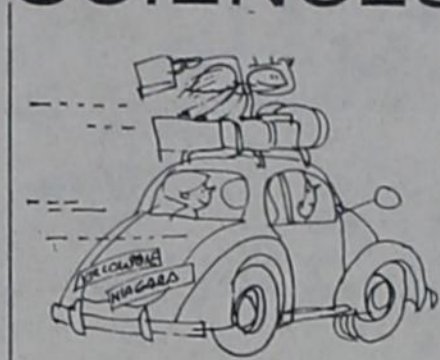

It won't come as a surprise that women head the list of contact lens users, although men are gaining ground. This may be due to newer trends in which male vanity is, unblushingly, here to stay. At least 25 percent of last year's new adult lens users were male. Other things men notice when they put on contact lenses: they can see the faces they are shaving, engage in more sports activities, and even look down gun-sights for the first time.

While women may be able to bowl or golf better, more important, they see their makeup work better. Also, hair-styling is uncluttered by eyeglass frames. Women's instinctive patience and willingness to follow instructions, ventured one contact lens specialist, is another reason they outnumber male lens users.

Teenagers and pre-teens make up about one-quarter of the new lens population. Their reasons rank close to their elders, except the term "social acceptance" appears.

What kinds of eye problems do these people have? Myopia (nearsightedness) is the number one prescription. Astigmatism (wavy, irregular vision) is another frequently corrected problem, followed by hyperopia (farsightedness) and other eye problems.

THE "BROWN RECLUSE" is a shy spider with a bite probably more toxic than that of the Black Widow. It is expanding its territory thanks to tourists who carry it home from vacations in personal belongings and can now be found in a dozen midwestern and southern states. Often a person isn't aware that he has been bitten, but later the bite becomes painful and swollen, says the American Medical Association.

Coaches Talk 'Shop' Discuss Past, Future

Bovina High basketball coaches, Truck Lusk and Bill Nitcholas, sat in their office of Willford Gym last week, reminisced about the basketball season just over, and philosophized about the years ahead.

Both felt that in spite of a losing year for both Mustangs and Fillies, the teams did "pretty good" considering the experience they had at the beginning of the season.

The Mustangs ended the year with a 3-25 record, Mentor Lusk said, but should have defeated Nazareth in the Farwell tournament for third place. The Mustangs had earlier beaten Nazareth, along with Lazbuddie and Bula.

"Even though the score was often times lopsided," Lusk said, "the kids never gave up a game." They played a good floor game all year, he continued, but that doesn't put points on the scoreboard. "They need lots of outside practice shooting. This has to be done on the barn door or garage door," he continued. Parents can help a lot in producing good basketball players, Lusk said, by encouraging their children to practice.

The Mustangs were young this year. They included seven freshmen, six sophomores, six juniors and one senior, Rodney Murphy. They'll all be back next year, with the exception of Murphy.

This was the first year many freshmen have come out for basketball. Next year there should be about 10, Lusk thinks.

"When this year's freshmen are juniors," he said, "we'll have a competitive basketball program." He predicts a better year next season "if the boys work hard on shooting this summer."

He continued that Randy Barrett, a junior this year, did a good job, but was injured in December and was unable to play in the district games. He represented the Mustangs'

Forensic Meet Set

Bovina High School students preparing for several literary events in Interscholastic League contests this year will participate in the Texas Tech Forensic Meeting Friday and Saturday.

Speakers, informative and persuasive, are scheduled to appear in the tournament Friday. On Saturday, debate teams will compete.

Under direction of Mrs. Patricia DiCuffa, the students entered the Dimmitt Forensic Tournament recently in competition with schools through Class AAAA.

Band Event Saturday

Saturday, Bovina band students go to Coronado High School in Lubbock for University Interscholastic League solo and ensemble contests, according to James Andrews, director.

The students entering the events were being determined this week.

The contest is a part of the series of events during the year, including marching, concert and solo and ensemble contests.

Date Set For Bee

Parmer County Spelling Bee has been scheduled for Wednesday, April 16, according to Mrs. Rita Mast, director of the county event.

The bee is regionally sponsored by The Globe-News Publishing Co.

Eliminations in schools of the county will be held sometime before that date, Mrs. Mast said.

height. Lusk expects him to be a big help next year.

Tony Foster and Mike Beauchamp, both sophomores, showed a lot of hustle as guards. Juniors Bruce Caldwell and Phil Sorley did good jobs this year and show promise.

"The boys acted like gentlemen on our trips away from home," Coach Lusk said, "which comes from good direction at home."

He said this year was the best basketball schedule during his time here. It consisted of 28 games. Next year's is almost the same as this season's.

"The thing that disappointed the team most was the dwindling crowd toward the end of the season. The team needs the support of the fans in losing years more than any other time."

The Fillies ended the year with a 4-22 record, winning over Hart, Three Way on two occasions and Nazareth.

The young team was composed of 15 freshmen, six sophomores, two juniors and one senior, Linda Riley, Coach Bill Nitcholas counted.

Several girls played on the varsity squad this year that had never before played high school basketball, Nitcholas commented.

"It was a building year and the girls received some valuable experience."

Five lettermen will return next year. Sophomore Toni Pinner will be the loss when the family moves to East Texas next month. This will hurt some, Nitcholas thinks. Toni lettered in her first two years of high school.

"We had a good bunch of freshmen," he continued. Twyla Hutto was a leading scorer, along with junior Jan Gromowsky, who did a good job as a forward. Sophomore Debra Kirkpatrick is another promising forward. The three were starters in that position.

Chrissy Mast, freshman guard, "was consistently our best hustler this year. She improved every game." Lea Looney, freshman, has possibilities of being an outstanding guard, the coach thinks.

Along with Meloney Marshall, sophomore, who shows much promise, things look in pretty good shape. Nitcholas also commented on guard duties of sophomore Marilyn Allen, "who is small but moves well."

The "B" team girls did a pretty good job hustling this year, Nitcholas said, even though they were handicapped by inexperience.

During off season the girls are running track, working primarily on speed. "If they come back next year with the attitude to win and the desire to be champions, we'll win more ball games," Nitcholas concluded.

SIGNS OF SPRING -- Track and baseball teams are starting through their paces at Bovina High School, marking the entry of spring sports this year. At left, cindermen go through the quarter-mile around Mustang Field, and at right, baseball coach Gary Cox puts the players through sliding practice. Fifteen boys are out for track and 20 for baseball this year.

High School --

Baseball Team In Workouts

Baseball workouts are underway at Bovina High School under tutelage of Gary Cox. Twenty boys are out for the team this year.

The schedule follows: March 13--Plainview 'B', there.

March 20--Plainview 'B', here.

April 10--Clovis 'B', there.

April 15--Canyon, there.

April 17--Clovis 'B', here.

*April 25--Silverton, here.

*April 29--Farwell, there.

*May 6--Silverton, there.

*May 9--Farwell, here.

All games will be played at 4 p.m., except the Clovis games, which will begin at 4:30. Asterisks denote district games.

Schedules Set --

Track Work-Outs Underway In Schools

Fifteen Bovina High School athletes have reported for track workouts, Coach Roy Stone said this week. Although actual practice has not begun, conditioning is underway.

Coach Bill Nitcholas has 23 girls out for track in its second year in the Bovina Schools.

Stone says Stuart McMeans, junior student, will be competing again this year in the half mile and intermediate hurdles, as well as the 220. McMeans won district in half mile and hurdles last year, and was beat out in regional about two yards.

The two boys who won first and second went on to win state. Both graduated last spring. McMeans has a good chance to win this year, Stone thinks.

Bobby Redden, a senior, will compete in discus and shot. He was winning last year in area track meets, but was ill and could not participate in district.

Other seniors out are Johnnie Hugh Horn, who will probably run the mile relay, 440 relay and quarter; Rodney Murphy, working on the half Michael Smith; Juan Gonzales; Mrs. Ernest Foreman; A. V. Davis; W. A. McCormick; Marcos Garza; Melba Floyd, Texico; Scott Carter; Amy Blankenship; Wayne Schueler; Dale Root; Camille Lacewell, Friona.

The girls track team will compete in events at Panhandle on March 22; Idalou, March 29; District Meet at Kress, April 22; and the high school and junior high meet at Coronado, Lubbock, May 3. Regional Meet is April 29 at Panhandle and State Meet on May 10 in Abilene.

Last year's mile relay team won second in state competition.

Tom Templeton reports that six boys are out for golf this year, while Coach Truck Lusk has eight girls and eight boys out for tennis.
