

"MY TURN"

By Carol
Ellis

SO THIS IS THE "Year of the Woman," eh? I have great expectations! Yet, here it is the 23rd of January and the most exciting thing that's happened to me so far is, I got to count the number of dead skunks on the road between here and Clovis when I drove back last week from picking out my new trifocals. Won't it be an uphill climb to improve on that?

"Hope" is just deferred disappointment! For instance, everytime the doorbell rings I keep expecting it to be Ed McMahon with a TV film crew out on my lawn, announcing that I have just won the Publisher's Sweepstakes. If I buy any more magazines trying to win that thing, the postman is going to have to get a bigger truck to deliver the mail to our house.

I wonder if the "think tank" folks will get down to the nitty-gritty during this "Year of the Woman" and try to solve some of the really basic problems, such as what to call us. Lately, some of the new-wave feminists have been complaining about being called names like: babes, chicks, broads, gals, fluffs, dames, dolls, skirts, and airheads. Maybe I'm just an old fashioned Southern girl, but I still think "Madam Chairman" sounds better than "chairperson," and being called a "cowgirl" is still preferable to being called a "cowperson."

My mother taught me that any girl could grow up to be a woman, but growing up to be a "lady" would be much nicer and would require quite a bit more effort on my part. I'm still hoping to someday acquire the status of a "lady."

Another problem which needs to be solved. . . I hope "they" will tackle the important problem of what to do about all those long lines in our public restrooms. I've never yet gotten to see the half-time activities or the second-half kickoff at a football game, or heard the overture following intermission at any theatrical production. And I don't really enjoy climbing over people in the dark trying to find my seat, while trailing streamers of toilet paper stuck to the bottom of my shoes.

Men always wonder why it takes us so long in there to perform such a simple body function.

They've probably never tried getting half undressed in a two by three foot tin box, while juggling a coat, binoculars, programs, packages and a 12-pound purse with no place to put it. They've probably never bent over to push the "flush" button just as the car keys fell out of their coat pocket into the rushing water. It can happen!

And speaking of the 12-pound purse. . . there's another big problem we women have. Since it is hazardous to our health, perhaps the Surgeon General will undertake a solution. Most females go through half their lives suffering with a dislocated shoulder from carrying that thing around.

We don't start out with intentions of going through life with this 12-pound burden attached to an arm, but people just keep handing us things and there's no place else to put them. Odd, isn't it. . . no one ever hands us money to hold for them.

Then we have the obligatory driver's license, social security card, voter registration card, various insurance cards, medical ID card, Visa credit card, department store cards, club membership cards, gas pump cards, long distance phone service card, automatic teller machine card, frequent flyer airline card, library card, etc. Then every clerk in every store will hand us another card with his/her name on it so that we'll remember them when we come back the next time.

So there's no place for any money in that 12-pound purse anyway. It's completely filled up with little cards.

Oh, well! Maybe some of these matters will soon be solved now that we have a baby boomer yuppie running things in the White House. I hear that she quite often lets her husband, Bill, have a say-so in things, too. ---So do I!

"School Nurse Week" Is January 25-29

Ann W. Richards, Governor of Texas, has proclaimed the week of January 25 through January 29, as "School Nurse Recognition Week"

Sarah Owen, Bovina's school nurse, plays a very important role in the educational process. As well as being dedicated to the prevention of illness in students, Sarah must focus on early detection and correction of health problems.

As the health care specialists in schools, nurses contribute to the health of the entire school community and promote staff wellness.

They provide support for administrators as trusted communicators with parents, as health specialists with policy reviews, and as resources for curriculum development and textbook selection.

School nurses assist students whose illness hinders their ability to learn and provide for students who require medication, specialized procedures, and use sophisticated medical equipment during the school day.

Sarah became school nurse for the Bovina School and Farwell School in 1977. In 1991 Farwell got their own nurse so Sarah only had the Bovina school to take care of from then on. Mrs. Owen has her B.S. degree in Nursing and is a Registered Nurse.

Fillies Top Farwell On Last-Second Shot

Bovina High School's Fillies scored their first district win of the 1993 season in dramatic fashion in their district home-opener here last Friday against Farwell.

Sally Noriega's shot at the buzzer found the basket, and brought the Bovina girls a hard-fought 69-68 win over their rivals, in a game that was close from start to finish.

NORIEGA STARTS HOT

Miss Noriega got the game off to a good start, hitting a three-point basket in the first quarter, and adding two more from two-point range, as Bovina came up a point short of the Lady Steers, 14-13, at the buzzer.

Teresa Stone began to warm up her shooting eye in the second quarter. She made a two-point basket, then two bonus baskets, and was two for two at the free throw line. Nancy Vargas got in on the act, with a pair of baskets, and turned one of those into a three-point play, fouled in the act of shooting.

This sent the Fillies and Farwell to the intermission tied up at 33-all.

Scoring slacked off a bit in the third quarter, although Misses

SALLY NORIEGA

Stone and Noriega each connected on three-point baskets, and Miss Vargas hit four of seven from the free-throw line. That enabled Bovina to take a 49-46 lead into the final period.

Baskets by Alicia Smith (35) and Becky Donaldson (33) of the visitors helped their team take over the lead, although Miss Vargas answered with seven points of her own to keep the Fillies close.

Farwell grabbed the lead at 68-67, but Bovina had the ball with one last chance. Miss Noriega made the shot count, beating the buzzer with her goal, and the Fillies had made their season record 8-10 and 1-1 in district.

The Farwell girls came into the contest with a 12-6 season record and 1-0 in district.

Miss Stone led all scorers with 20 points, and Misses Noriega and Vargas scored 16 apiece.

Kim Kirkpatrick and Miss Vargas led in rebounds with ten each, while Ione Molinar and Teresa Stone had nine each. Miss Noriega led in assists with four, and Misses Molinar and Stone each had three steals.

Each team lost starters due to fouls, as Misses Vargas, Christina Noriega and Kirkpatrick left the game for Bovina. Miss Donaldson and Jill Actkinson were disqualified on fouls for Farwell.

Bovina hit 17 of 31 from the free throw line, 54.8 per cent, while Farwell hit nine of 20, only 45 per cent.

Boys Drop Squeaker To Farwell

The Mustang varsity dropped a heart-breaker to Farwell here last Friday by a score of 44-42.

It was the team's second district loss in two games, and dropped their season record to 11-6.

Lance McClaran scored nine, and Darren Hromas eight for the Mustangs.

"It's tough to win when your team makes only 30 per cent of their shots from the field and 35 per cent from the free throw line," said Coach Bobby Ventura.

Women's Study Club Donates Building

Bovina Women's Study Club was organized in 1948 and federated with the Texas GFWC in 1950.

It was first begun as a civic organization with some of the club's projects being: beautification of the city park, assisting the medical clinic, Grace Paul fund, and the annual Christmas card project which is a fund raiser to benefit the ambulance and the fire department.

The club house was first given to the Bovina ISD by the Rhea School District and then the Bovina ISD in turn donated it to the Study Club. The building was renovated and used for many years. The club recently signed over the title to the Bovina Fire Department for their use.

Another Big Snow Received By Area

The fifth major snowfall of the winter season was received in the area on Tuesday, measuring a strong four inches for most of the immediate area.

The snow was preceded in the early morning hours by rain, which changed to freezing rain, sleet, and later snow. It all accounted for considerable moisture, with an official .72 inches registered at the Friona NWS station.

About .3 of that amount came from the rain and freezing rain, with the other .42 inches coming from the snow, which was extremely wet in nature.

The snow began falling just prior to 8 a.m., and fell until about 9:20, and stacked up that much in such a short time. Residents marveled at the extremely large flakes.

One Amarillo weatherman said the flakes falling there measured four inches across. A local resident said it looked as if "it were snowing snowballs" for awhile.

Added to the .28 inches of rain from two earlier ice storms during the month of January makes the month's moisture an even inch, and keeps the "Winter of '92-'93" going as one of the wettest on record. November rang in with 1.61 inches of moisture and 10 inches of snow, and December added nine inches of white stuff and .98 of moisture.

LOOKING UP!

BY RICHARD L. GRISHAM

Of all the traits that should characterize a follower of Christ, none is more important than a forgiving spirit. Yet, as a pastor, I see so many Christians who are struggling with feelings of hate, resentment, revenge, and hurt.

Too often such deep emotional trauma splits families and shatters relationships between people who should love each other most. Even my own extended family has at times had to deal with difficult and painful situations with the potential of devastating family cohesion.

I suppose that goes to prove that my family is normal, having to deal with relations and emotions like everyone else.

Being forgiving is essential to maintaining healthy relationships. None of us can afford to collect resentments or accumulate harsh feelings.

Forgiveness is necessary for many reasons. Not the least of these is that Christ, our Lord, has commanded that we forgive. This in itself ought to make us want to be forgiving of others. Jesus taught us to pray, "And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors" (Matthew 6:12).

Another reason to be forgiving is for our own well-being. Grudges can be devastating to our own health, affecting the physical functions of our bodies.

Negative feelings of hate, resentment, and anger may cause one's blood-pressure to escalate, one's digestion to be poor, and one's nerves to become taunt. But forgiveness brings peace of heart and mind helping us to relax and rest properly.

Perhaps the most important reason to forgive is reconciliation: the restoring of a valuable relationship.

Dr. Morris Ashcraft, my theology professor in seminary, points this out in his book, The Forgiveness of Sins. "Forgiving another is an act of creation." He goes on to show how forgiveness creates a new situation by removing guilt and restoring hope.

Forgiveness, thus, becomes a holy act of redemption as it heals hurt feelings, binds bitter wounds,

46th Annual Junior Livestock Show Set

The 46th annual Parmer County Junior Livestock Show will be held January 29-30 and February 1 at the Community Center-Showbarn in Friona.

Judging will be held on Saturday, as in recent years, with the premium auction sale on Monday.

Weigh-in and classification for pigs will be held from 1-5 p.m. on Friday, January 29. Sheep will be weighed and classified from 7-9 a.m. Saturday, January 30.

The steer show will kick off the judging on Saturday at 9 a.m., followed by heifers. The lamb show begins at 11 a.m., and barrows will be judged beginning at 2 p.m.

Judges for the county show will be Bert Williams, steers and heifers; Jamie Osborn, barrows; John Kearney, lambs, and Jess Holloway, showmanship.

Exhibitors of grand champion animals in the 1992 show were Shane Roberts of Farwell, barrow; Monty Schueler of Friona, lambs; Lori Bradshaw of Lazbuddie, steers, and Jarah Redwine of Lazbuddie, heifers.

Roberts gave his school its first barrow title in ten years, since Danna Ralston won it in 1982. It was just the sixth barrow title for a Farwell showman in the 45-year history of the show.

Although Lazbuddie showmen have dominated the barrow and sheep divisions down through the years, it was only the seventh steer title for an LHS exhibitor in county show history.

Showmanship winners in 1992 were: barrows--Holly Engelking, Lazbuddie, senior, and Greg Salyer, Friona, junior; lambs--Shana Foster, Lazbuddie, junior, and Cody Simmons, Friona, senior; beef division--Mandy Magby, Lazbuddie, junior, and Clint Hurst, Lazbuddie, senior.

Roberts' barrow was a cross-breed, which made the eighth time for a crossbred animal to win the county title. Hampshire breeds hold a wide lead in the overall history of the show with 16 titles. Durocs and crosses have won eight times apiece; Polands have been tapped six times, Chester Whites four and Yorkshire once.

Miss Bradshaw's winning steer in 1992 was an exotic cross. It was the 14th time for an exotic cross to win the county steer title.

Stock show boosters and buyers are urged to attend the premium auction sale on Monday, February 1 at 6:45 p.m. The animals placing in the upper portion of each class will be eligible for the sale.

Pot Pie Recipes

BY CARLA MCKEOWN
It seems we're always running short on time these days. So many things to do; so many more things we would do if we had more time.

One thing that seems to take up so much of my time is dish washing. My husband, Tony, says I use too many dishes when I cook, but I really try not to. I can cook the meat and spaghetti sauce together in the same pan, but I just cannot cook the spaghetti in that same pan.

One solution to too many dirty dishes is one-pot dishes, such as the following pot pies.

The recipes for the pot pies look long and complicated, but making the dishes isn't hard at all. The recipes are just a little longer than some because everything--meat, vegetables and bread--are all in one.

Pot pies are cooked until the crust is browned and the filling is hot and bubbly, making them the perfect fare for cold winter nights. To make the process easier, cook the meat, and chop the vegetables and meat ahead of time; store in the refrigerator until ready to assemble the pie.

You can use any double pastry dough recipe for the Ham and Vegetable Pot Pie. The others come with directions for making their crust.

Enjoy the following pot pie recipes:

OLD-FASHIONED CHICKEN POT PIE

- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 cups chicken stock or canned broth
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- 2 cups chopped cooked chicken
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon crumbled sage or 1-1/2 tsp. chopped fresh sage
- 1 cup whole wheat pastry flour
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons shortening, chilled
- 3 to 5 tablespoons ice water

In a medium-sized saucepan, melt the butter over medium heat. Cook the celery and onion in the butter until tender. Add the flour and cook, stirring, for 1 minute without browning. Add stock and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Add chicken, parsley and sage. Stir and set aside. In a large bowl, stir together the whole wheat and the all-purpose flour. Add the salt. With a pastry blender or two knives, cut in the chilled shortening until the mixture resembles cornmeal. Sprinkle with ice water and stir until the dough stays together. Roll the dough into a ball and divide into two parts. On a floured board, roll out one part of the dough to 1/4-inch thickness. Line a 2-quart round baking dish with the pastry, allowing the edges to extend over the sides. Add chicken filling. Roll out the second half of the dough and place over the top of the baking dish. Trim excess crust around the edge of the dish. Press the edges together to seal and crimp together. Make several slashes in pastry top. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour. Makes 6 servings.

HAM AND VEGETABLE POT PIE

- Double pastry crust for 9-inch pie
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon instant chopped onion
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon dried oregano leaves or 1 tsp. chopped fresh oregano leaves
- 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder or one fresh garlic clove, minced
- 4 medium new raw red potatoes (about 1 pound)
- 1-10 ounce package frozen chopped broccoli, thawed and drained on paper towels
- 1-2 ounce jar sliced pimentos, drained
- 8 slices (3/4-ounce each) Swiss cheese, divided
- 1/3 pound cooked ham, trimmed and cut into 1/2-inch cubes
- 1 tablespoon skim milk
- 2 teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese

Roll the pastry dough into two crusts. Line a 9-inch pie plate with one of the pastry crusts; trim to fit. Set other crust aside. In a small bowl, combine flour, onion, mustard, oregano and garlic powder. Set aside. Peel and thinly slice 2 potatoes; place on the bottom of the unbaked pastry shell. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of the flour mixture. Spoon broccoli over the potatoes. Sprinkle pimentos over the broccoli and the remaining flour over the potatoes. Place 3 slices of cheese on top of the vegetables. Break a fourth slice into quarters and use to fill in the spaces between the other cheese slices. Sprinkle the ham over the cheese. Peel and thinly slice the remaining potatoes and place over the ham. Top with the remaining cheese slices. Lift the top crust onto the filled pie. Fold the top edge under the bottom crust and flute the edge. Cut slits in the top crust. Bake at 400 degrees for 35 minutes. Remove from oven. Brush the top crust with milk and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Cover the edge of the crust with foil to prevent over-browning. Return the pie to the oven for 10 minutes. Let stand 10 to 15 minutes before serving. Makes 8 servings.

ITALIAN PHYLLLO PIE

- 1 cup sliced fresh mushrooms
- 5 tablespoons olive oil or butter,

1-26 ounce jar tomato and basil pasta sauce
1-9 ounce package frozen artichoke hearts, thawed, well drained and chopped
1-1/2 cups chopped cooked chicken
1-1/2 cup sliced pitted ripe olives
1 teaspoon sugar
10 frozen phyllo dough leaves, thawed
6 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

In a large skillet, cook mushrooms in 2 tablespoons olive oil until tender. Add pasta sauce, artichokes, chicken, olives and sugar. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer, uncovered, for 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Meanwhile, lightly grease an 11-inch tart pan with oil. Arrange 2 phyllo dough leaves in the center of the tart pan (edges will extend over the side of the pan); brush with olive oil and sprinkle with 1 tablespoon Parmesan cheese. Continue the layering process 4 more times, overlapping the edges of each layer. Spoon the meat mixture into the prepared pan; fold edges of phyllo dough leaves over the mixture. Brush the top with remaining oil and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Bake at 400 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Laney Elected As Speaker Of House

AUSTIN--State Rep. James E. "Pete" Laney, D-Hale Center, was elected unanimously Tuesday, January 12, as the 68th Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives.

Laney, 49, pledged to pass a school finance plan in the House within the next 30 days--"a plan with bipartisan support that will meet the requirements of the courts and the needs of our educational system."

He said taxes should not be raised and lawmakers must agree on a budget that stays within current revenues.

The new speaker pledged to earn the trust, respect and support of Texans for the work done by the Texas House of Representatives.

"It is a sad fact that many people have lost faith in government at all levels and for many reasons," Laney said. "We ourselves are the only ones who can change that--by the way we conduct ourselves and by the quality of legislation we pass."

Laney said he will set standards for himself and for the Speaker's Office that go beyond what is required by law.

"I am requiring my top staff members to pledge not to represent anyone before the legislature for a period of time after their employment ends. And I make that same pledge for myself," Laney said.

He endorsed numerous changes in House rules recommended by the House Select Committee on Rules to increase efficiency and accountability in the legislative process.

Laney also recommended additional reforms: requiring the Calendars Committee to conduct its business publicly; requiring every bill referred to Calendars to be acted upon within a certain time period; and establishing a 12-hour layout requirement for bill substitutes to give members time to read major revisions to bills before voting on them.

Laney said he will give House members several days to study the changes before he schedules a debate and vote on them.

Laney also will appoint an ethics advisor to help him and the House understand and follow state ethics law and produce an ethics manual as a reference for legislators and their staff members.

"I believe if all of us work hard enough and long enough, solutions can be found," Laney said.

REP. PETE LANEY

4-H, FFA Youth Need Community Support

Christmas is over, the tree is put up and it's time to go back to work and to school. That can mean only one thing for 4-H and FFA members--stock show time.

Not everyone in these organizations has an animal project, but many do, and this is their time to shine. For months now, they've been raising a pig, lamb, rabbit or steer. The stock show is a measure of how well they did.

But in the stock show and youth business, the name of the game is not supposed to be how good you do, but how well you play the game. In other words, how much does a youngster learn from having the project and entering a competition?

Both 4-H and FFA teach the skills in animal care. They learn about rations, grooming, health care and exercise with their projects.

But the youngsters learn much more than hands-on skills. They pick up leadership skills and gain self-esteem. They learn how to handle monetary transactions through the buying and selling of their animal.

And when it's all said and done, it's only natural for them to want to have a blue ribbon to say they are winners. But the blue ribbon isn't necessary to make them a winner. They're all richer for the experience. It's an experience worth repeating. Those who don't carry home the big trophy and aren't declared the big winner might have a hard time doing so.

At the end of most stock shows is a premium sale. Of course, the grand champion animals sell for large amounts and sometimes people question if this is teaching the youngsters anything.

No one is trying to say the animal is worth those large premiums paid. That money is like a reward. It's for a job well done. And, the person or persons paying the high premium use the opportunity to do a little advertising as well as say, "I believe in our youth."

The ones who aren't awarded the grand prizes, however, need community support, also. The many people who come back year after year know why they give money to be used in the auctions. But for those who haven't been, your support is needed for those individuals who did not carry away a trophy.

It's not to reward them for raising a poor animal, but to give them a second chance. A chance to try again, to work harder and learn more. There are few who would argue against investing in the education of our youth. After all, they will be the leaders of tomorrow.

Maybe they'll take home a brown or green ribbon this year, or none at all. Maybe they'll barely pay their feed bill or even have to borrow a little from Mom and Dad to take care of all the bills this year.

But, with a little help from friends--not necessarily friends of the family, but friends of 4-H and FFA--they'll get a chance to try again and do better the next time.

If you've never been to a stock show, never participated in a premium auction, take a few hours this year to attend one. Every county has one and there's no admission fee.

You don't have to buy an animal or even contribute money for the auction. Just go out and see what it's all about, talk to the youngsters and judge for yourself. It's a worthwhile investment. (Courtesy of the Amarillo Globe-News).

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

FALSE PROPHETS!

MORE THAN ONCE THE BIBLE WARNS, "BEWARE OF FALSE PROPHETS!" (MATT. 7:15). AGAIN WE NOTE, IN THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH, THAT THE LORD SAID, "...THE PROPHETS PROPHESY LIES IN MY NAME..." (CHAP. 14:14) THESE ADMONITIONS, AND MANY MORE LIKE THEM, WERE GIVEN IN EARNEST INSTRUCTION TO THE PEOPLE! YET THEY OFTEN DID NOT HEED THE ADVICE OF THE WISE MEN. THEREFORE, IT WAS NOT UNUSUAL FOR A RAGGED BEGGAR TO WANDER INTO A VILLAGES OR TOWN, PROCLAIMING THAT HE HAD JUST COME OUT OF A FAST IN THE WILDERNESS AND WAS SPEAKING WITH THE LORDS VOICE! HAVING CONVINCED A FEW OF THE MORE SIMPLE-MINDED ONES THAT HE WAS INDEED A MESSENGER FROM THE LORD, IT WAS NO BIG DEAL FOR THE BEGGAR TO START FREE-LOADING, LIVING OFF THE BEST THAT THE POOR VILLAGERS COULD SCROUNGE OUT OF THEIR MEAGRE LARDERS!

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

The Scoops sounds like a hospital report but that is the way it is this time of year. Dr. Alexander at the Friona hospital said he had been at Friona for the past 27 years and had had more pneumonia this year than any other year. The weather is a contributing factor, for sure, and seems we have one wet, cold spell after another and this week began the same way, so watch out driving on the icy roads.

NEWS AROUND TOWN...

Arnold Hromas was released from the Friona hospital on Wednesday of last week after spending a week there. He had pneumonia but is much better now. He was bragging on the new internist, Dr. Mitchell from Arizona, who is filling in for Dr. Alexander while he is on vacation. He said he was a very caring doctor and took lots of time with all his patients.

Arnold said they must have given him gold-plated pills when he left because they gave him 28 pills and charged him $271.00 for them but they were doing the job and he was feeling good.

Our sympathy to Buster Morgan, whose brother passed away. Clyde Morgan of Meridian died of cancer and services were held last Thursday. He was survived by his wife, Edith, two children and two grandchildren. He was diagnosed with lung cancer in October.

Pat and Pat Kunselman and Pat's mom, Doris Wilson, spent the weekend in Spearman with son, Arty, and Tami Kunselman and daughters, Gina and Jamie. Jamie played in a basketball tournament and their team won first place.

Pat said they had a good time and there was still lots of snow there. They left Sunday afternoon early because it began to snow.

Tom Beauchamp is hospitalized at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. I talked with his son-in-law, Daryl Kirkpatrick, and he said Tom's condition has improved and he'd probably be home by the end of the week. He entered the hospital a week ago Sunday.

Joe McWilliams of Farwell underwent heart surgery in Lubbock and is getting along real well. His wife is Buelah, Amy Hromas' sister. Even though he is eighty-one years old, according to family members, he did just fine following surgery.

Drusella Kelley, her daughter, Irma Jo Englant, and her sister-in-law, Sid Lloyd, went to Lubbock on Sunday and visited with Drusella's husband, Homer, who has been in the hospital for a month following a bout with a broken hip.

The hip was broken in six places and Homer is 93 years old but is getting along fairly well. Said he could get around on a walker. He is in occupational therapy and Irma Jo said he had made a cup for her mother with her name on it, so he's getting along just fine.

Amanda Prather, two-year-old daughter of Mike and Gina Prather, has been hospitalized for over two months at the Lubbock Methodist Hospital and has been diagnosed with Cystic Fibrosis. She is very ill and our thoughts are with the family.

Wayne McClaran was hospitalized in the Muleshoe hospital a week ago Friday. On Monday, we understand his condition had improved and he will probably be released by the time the newspaper is out. Wayne has had pneumonia and been sick for about a month.

Rose McCain is getting along fairly well after undergoing three surgeries on her eye. She is to go back to the doctor this week and hopefully things will continue to go well for her.

Wes Cockerham's family has been ill. Their three-year-old daughter, Skyla, spent a couple of days in the Friona hospital and then the baby, Shelby, was hospitalized from Monday until Friday of last week. They are all getting along better now, we understand.

Art Hunter was hospitalized in the Clovis High Plains Hospital a week ago Thursday until the following Saturday. His condition has improved.

Congratulations to Jon Lin and Brenda Riddle on the birth of a grandson, Kade Lin, born January 5. His parents are Jon and Niki Riddle of Clovis and he has two older sisters, Kylah, four, and Kassi, fifteen months old.

Mary Rose Weber was hospitalized in the Muleshoe hospital for a couple of days and had minor surgery. She is home but her mom, Ann Lee Englant, said two of the little ones were sick and Mary Rose had taken them to the doctor so they aren't all well yet.

Bob and June McMeans have recently returned from a month's vacation at the Lake Front Lodge at Zapata, Texas. They visited with Irma Bradshaw and Mace Cockerham, who are spending the winter months there.

June said they also enjoyed seeing and visiting a former resident, La Vell (Pounds) Wilson. She and her husband, Bruce Wilson, live at Ft. Stockton and he is sheriff of Pecos County.

La Vell was married to the late F.S. Pounds and lived here several years ago. June said they enjoyed playing games at the "rec hall" and also attending church services held there. The weather was nice and warm even though it was overcast most of the time.

The home was decorated with red and white poinsettias and the traditional Christmas decorations of red, white and green accented with a candleabra holding red tapers.

Music was presented by Scott and Patti Johnson and Kathy Booz-er, aunt of the groom. Scott and Patti sang "Let It Be Me" and Scott sang "Cross My Heart." Kathy sang "Theme from Ice Castles."

As the bride was ushered in by her father, Sandra Jones, aunt of the groom, played the traditional "Wedding March." The bride wore a candle white floor length gown with an ecru lace bodice and a large satin bow accented the v-cut in the back. She wore candle white flowers in her hair. A diamond necklace, a gift from the groom, completed her ensemble.

She carried a bouquet of candle white flowers accented with red, which was made by Libby Holman. Michelle Leichner of Powell, Wyoming served her sister as maid of honor. She wore a red satin street length dress and carried a bouquet of red and white silk flowers.

Kylah Riddle, Clovis, niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore a tea length Christmas print dress and carried a pillow with silk flowers.

Attending the groom as best man was his cousin, Corey Jones

The registration table was presided over by Mrs. Jay Holman of Bovina.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Reception hostesses were Sue McClaran and Linda Marshall of Bovina and Kay Ray of Farwell.
