Merkel Schools

of 1895-6 the old two-room structure on the north side was abandoned, and the public school was moved to the college building, with Professor Hudgins in charge of the school. The first class to ever graduate from the Merkel High school was in 1899, and consisted of these four people: Jack Province, Mrs. John Brown, Lee T. Lovelace and Mrs. R. T. Pence.

In 1902 this old college building, the frame structure, was torn down and replaced with the brick Merkel High school and was the first brick building in Merkel. This occupied the block where the present Grammar school now stands. By 1907, Merkel had grown in scholastic population until another building was needed. This was built of brick near the home of J. S. Swann, and was known as the Northside School. Between 1902 and 1915 Prof. Hudgins, E. V. White, (now dean of C. I. A.), and C. E. Evans, (now president of Southwest Texas State Teachers college), occupied the position as superintendent of the Merkel schools.

In 1915, under the supervision of M. H. Morris, the two brick buildings, having become unsafe, were torn down and the present Grammar school was built. Between 1915 and 1924 this building served for both high school and grammar school. R. M. Parker followed M. H. Morris as superintendent for three years, and it was during the last year of his administration that the Merkel schools for the first time secured an affiliation. This year five units were secured: three in English and two in Latin.

In the fall of 1919, after the close of the World War, and after Mr. Parker had gone to Polytechnic schools, Fort Worth, Roger A. Burgess came to Merkel as superintendent. He served as superintendent for six years. During this time the number of units of affiliation was raised from 5, (as it was in 1919), to 21. In 1924 the present High school was built, and the High school grades moved from the red building to this High School building in November, 1924. This class of 1936 makes the twelfth to graduate from Merkel High school.

In 1925, J. A. Summerhill (now deceased) came as your superintendent for one year. In 1926 I. L. Jackson became superintendent for two years, 1926-7 and 1927-8. In the fall of 1928 Supt. Burgess, after an absence of three years, returned as superintendent, and is now serving his 14th year as superintendent in addition to the two years he served as principal of High school here.

Because of the co-operation of a progressive and enthusiastic board and of the public who have the welfare of the schools at heart, the following comparisons of the situation in 1918-19, before the present superintendent took charge of the Merkel schools, and the situation now should be of interest, the first figure for 1918-19, the second figure, for 1935-36:

- Graduates: 8, 47.
- Total enrolled: 549, 822.
- In High school: 130, 306.
- Total number of teachers: 11, 23.
- Number school buildings: 1, 3.
- Value of school buildings: $36,550, $157,700.
- Units of affiliation: 5, 21.

The Merkel High school is now a fully accredited high school from which graduates are admitted into any college or university in the state of Texas.

Some of the improvements made during the administration of the present superintendent are listed as follows:

1924—Present High School building built and equipped at a cost of $40,000.

1929—Grammar School remodelled and modernized.

1934-35—(1) New $10,000 gymnasium-auditorium built and equipped, seating 1,200; stage, 15x46 feet; balcony, seating 400; basketball court, 80x52 feet; showers and dressing rooms; no bond issue was required.

(2) Football bleachers provided for 300 people.

(3) Grammar school and other grounds filled in and sodded in Bermuda.

(4) Football field moved, new ground secured, turtle-backed and sodded in grass.

(5) New $1,000 negro school.

(6) Plans for addition to High school made and federal PWA aid applied for.

1935-36 (this year)—(1) Football park fence costing $400 built.

(2) More grass sodded and shrubbery set out.

(3) High School addition completed, four rooms added, $16,000 cost, of which $7,000 was U. S. grant.

This additional room means that at last Merkel schools can have two courses much needed: home economics and vocational agriculture.

With these added courses together with work in book-keeping, commercial arithmetic, typing, which have been added during the last few years, Merkel High school now offers a well-rounded course that offers both the cultural and the practical.

The Merkel school also believes there is much to be gained that is useful in later life from activities other than readin', ritin', and 'rithmetic. The schools, therefore, emphasize what are usually known as extra-curriculum activities: choral and glee clubs, both in High and Grammar, dramatics, debating, Pep Squad activities, school paper columns, publication of a year book, playground activities, and all forms of inter-school athletic contests that are sponsored by the Interscholastic league, that is: football, basketball, track and girls' volley ball.

The fact that the Merkel schools provide a varied program and are fully accredited with the state department of education makes the schools sufficiently attractive to Merkel's outlying trade territory that students from seventeen school districts are now coming to Merkel High school. This list does not include the children who come to Grammar school from outlying districts.

Merkel schools are drawing from the following districts: Blair 13 students, Butman 10, Castle Peak 9, Cross Roads 4, Goodman 2, Hillside 6, I. X. L. 10, Marrs 3, Mt. Pleasant 15, Mulberry 3, Noodle 4, Salt Branch 15, Stith 15, Union Ridge 16, Warren 5, White Church 5, Weaver Springs 3, or a total of 138 students from 17 surrounding districts.

Besides offering the regular work of the school and providing these various activities mentioned, the superintendent stated that he believed it was the business of the schools, both by precept and example, to teach and train in the virtues that make for character and good citizenship. These should permeate every class and every activity of the school, both literary and athletic.

"Such virtues," he said, "as honesty, fair play, uprightness, loyalty, devotion to religious principles and respect for authority should permeate every activity of the schools. To stand for anything else or permit it be done would be a betrayal of a sacred trust and the shirking of paramount responsibility. So long as your present superintendent remains responsible, he shall attempt to see that these things are done."

BLAIR ITEMS

Again this community was saddened by the death of one of its leading citizens, Mannie Barnes, who passed away shortly after midnight Saturday at the Baptist sanitarium, Abilene. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist church, Merkel, with Rev. C. R. Joyner officiating. Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery. A large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives attended the last rites. The loved ones have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement.

Several from here attended the funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Dan Matthews at First Baptist church, Merkel, the one on Sunday afternoon and the other on Monday afternoon. Their going to another world was a great shock to their many friends and the hearts of the community go out to the bereaved ones. May the God of heaven be kind and merciful to them. Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Terrell, en route from El Paso to Dallas, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Campbell, Monday, also of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCleary.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Latimer are entertaining relatives from Hamlin this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mitchell have gone to Bronte for the week, where Mr. Mitchell entered the sanitarium for treatment. They will also visit while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown and family have moved to White Church community where Mr. Brown has accepted employment for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maddera and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell, visited the former's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lewis, of the Divide, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Spears have as their house guest their nephews and niece of Valera.

Alfred Meeks and family and Ransom Meeks and family of Post city visited in the home of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Barnes, and attended the funeral services of their nephew, Mannie Barnes, Sunday. There were probably other relatives here, whom this correspondent failed to get.

Honored as One of Two District Judges on Civil Judicial Council

Announcement of his candidacy for re-election was made Saturday by W. R. Chapman, judge of the 104th judicial district of Taylor, Jones and Fisher counties. Judge Chapman made the following statement: During my long residence among you I have been cow hand, farm hand, teacher, lawyer and judge, and have done my very best at each of these jobs. During my service as district judge I have tried to be fair, impartial and painstaking; and to transact the business of the court in an orderly and diligent manner. My experience should enable me to render better service than heretofore. I am deeply grateful for the favors you have shown me, and earnestly solicit your support for re-election. The courts will be in continuous session until the day of the primary which will make it impossible for me to see many of you personally, and those of you who do not know me, and the kind of service that I have rendered, please make inquiry before casting your ballot, Respectfully, W. R. CHAPMAN. Native of Georgia, Judge Chapman has been a Texan since he was 11. As a boy he came to Abilene in 1888. He moved to Jones County in 1892, teaching school for five years, and in 1898 was admitted to practice of law, opening his office in Anson. His partners successively were F. A. Arnold, John B. Thomas, Charles E. Coombs and Walter S. Pope, at Anson; and W. T. Andrews and H. T. Andrews at Stamford. Judge Chapman was elected county attorney of Jones county in 1898 and was elected judge of the 39th district, six counties, serving until 1924 when he was appointed by Governor Neff to a vacancy on the supreme court commission of appeals. When the 104th judicial district was created he was appointed its first judge (1927) and moved to Abilene that year. Since this time he has served continuously as judge. Important extra-judicial posts held by Judge Chapman: He is presiding judge of this (seventh) administrative district, taking in ten judicial districts. In the same seven-year period he has been a member of the Texas Civil Judicial Council. Of its 15 members, only two are district judges: Chapman, and W. D. Davis of Bryan.

Favors Shifting Taxes To Natural Resources

Tyler, June 4.—F. W. Fisher of Tyler, who is running for governor of Texas on the platform of paying old age pensions in full, is spreading his philosophy of taxing natural resources from one end of the state to the other. "A new source of revenue means a new deal for Texas," he says. He thinks prosperity can be returned through taking the tax off of land and putting it on oil, gas, sulphur, etc. This new source of revenue would provide means of helping schools, highways, the agricultural interests and the Texas consumers of gasoline who are now having to pay a tax of 4 cents a gallon. Fisher, an oil attorney who gained fame as a constitutional lawyer in the legal squabbles over the East Texas oil field, dealt the first death blow to NIRA when the United States supreme court upheld his contention against Section 9 (c) the oil provision of the NIRA. Fischer was born in West Virginia, spent his boyhood riding bronchos in southwestern Oklahoma, and later studied law on the farm. He is a Mason, a Methodist and a member of the American Legion.

All Six Sons Present For Lewis Family Reunion at Divide

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lewis of the Divide were hosts to a family reunion held in their home Sunday, May 31. The parents of six fine sons, they are old settlers of that territory. Mr. Lewis is a stockman and has acquired several hundred acres of land. They have established each child on a home of his own; their sons have all married, have families and are excellent farmers on an extensive scale. The guests arrived with well-filled baskets of palatable "eats" added to the already elaborately prepared feast. During the day music was furnished by some of those present and amusement was provided for the children. It was the privilege of this writer and her husband to visit in the home of this estimable couple. Among those enjoying the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Maddera and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell, Blair; Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Lewis and son, W. A., Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn Lewis and children, Earl, Deward, Billie, J. H. and Gwendolyn, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Lewis and daughter, Ina V., and Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Lewis and son, Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lewis and children, Kathleen, Bobbie and Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lewis, Oscar McSpadden, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hanks, Martha Mae Hanks, Dorcas Hanks, Jean Hanks, Joan Hanks, Dick Hanks, Isadore Bell Hanks, Mrs. W. A. Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Beal and children, Edwin and Juanita.

GOODMAN NEWS

Well, the rain is over, crops are fine and people are busy. The weeds are busy, too, but I'm afraid will lose in this battle. We are very glad to report Mrs. Campbell, who a week or so ago returned from Temple hospital, is improving. Also Grandma Cade is much better.

CARD OF THANKS

Our hearts overflow with love and gratitude to those who were so kind and thoughtful to our wife and mother during her long illness. The kind words and thoughtful deeds were a source of pleasure to her and enabled her last days to be as happy as possible.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

During the absence of Judge N. D. Cobb, who with Mrs. Cobb, has gone to the Texas Centennial opening at Dallas, George W. Boyce will be located in the office of Judge Cobb for the convenience of those who have business there. Reports from J. Ben Campbell's bedside early Thursday were to the effect that he was slightly improved. He has been seriously ill for about two weeks. A committee of merchants circulating a petition for 6 o'clock summer closing reports that it is likely the signatures will be completed within the next few days. In the interim, no definite agreement has yet been announced. Improvements now under way at the Merkel Drug include the re-arrangement of the wall cases, with the addition of several new sections of fixtures, and the installation of an open prescription room, giving the interior a much roomier appearance. Five boys from the Merkel Boy Scout troop attended the 1936 camporee of the Chisholm Trail council at Camp Tonkawa. In charge of Assistant Scoutmaster Mardell Shouse, the following boys enjoyed camp life and training: O. C. Shouse, Jr., Glen Robertson, Clyde Deavers, Jr., Sammie McGehee and Douglass McCoy.
