A QUICK READ OF THE NEWS

Home is where the heart is

A 48-year-old man who spent years behind bars stole a six-pack of beer and told the clerk to call police so he could be sent back to jail.

"I took the beer because I want to go to jail," Robert Fremer said, according to an arrest report in Inverness, Fla. "Take me to jail. I can't succeed in this world. They won't give me a chance."

Fremer was sitting in the parking lot of the Circle K when an officer arrived, the stolen six-pack at his side.

Who's in charge here?

The tiny town of Brinson, Ga., has just one full-time employee, so it's understandable when something slips through the cracks — like an election.

Brinson was supposed to elect two town council members last November, but officials thought the terms expired later this year. Now there's no one to replace the outgoing members.

"Our faces are red, but it was an honest mistake," said Sharon Foulk, clerk for the town of 225.

Time to evict the rodents

Among the top priorities for Washington state's newest millionaire: Get rid of the rat-infested car.

Donna McCoy of Everett still hasn't disposed of a rat she exterminated in her car, but now that she's won $2.2 million in the Washington State Lottery, she'll just get a new set of wheels.

McCoy, 39, said a rat moved into her old Subaru and wouldn't leave, so she poisoned it but hadn't gotten around to removing the carcass. "I'm a millionaire, and I'm getting into a car with a dead rat," McCoy joked.

Hospital X-ray department getting new machine

JOURNAL STAFF REPORT

Muleshoe Area Medical Center's X-ray department should soon have a new fluoroscopy unit.

Fluoroscopy is a procedure that allows the production of a continuous series of X-

The hospital district's board approved the replacement of the old unit during the Jan. 17 meeting after Dr. Bruce Purdy expressed some urgency about the issue.

The hospital's current fluoroscopy unit apparently has been in use for more than 20 years, and it was only a refurbished unit when it was installed.

Consideration of the replacement was on the board's December agenda, but was tabled after medical staff expressed interest in getting a digital unit rather than the conventional type.

At the January meeting Purdy told the board, "I'm not concerned about what we have — I'm just concerned that we have

The district has applied for a grant to cover most of the cost of the unit, and should find out Feb. 7 whether or not the grant will come through. Jim Bone, district administrator, expressed optimism because the situation's urgency "cannot be ignored."

The district hopes to have the unit installed by Feb. 28.

"If we get the grant, then it will be an outright purchase," said Sharon Novak, the district's chief financial officer. "Otherwise, it will be a capital lease."

Lady Mules getting close to playoff berth

By DELTON WILHITE Journal sportswriter

The Lady Mules pounded Littlefield into submission, 56-30, by forcing 27 turnovers (18 in the second half) Tuesday night.

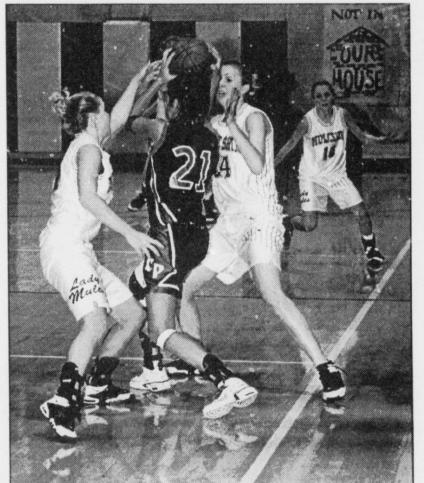

With the win, Muleshoe clinched at least a second-place finish in the District 2-3A girls' basketball race.

One obstacle—a formidable one — remained before the Lady Mules' shootout with the Shallowater Lady Mustangs, scheduled for Feb. 5 in the Muleshoe Athletic and Convocation Center.

That obstacle is the Dimmitt Bobbies. The Lady Mules must defeat them to have a chance to grab a share of the district title from Shallowater and force a playoff game to determine seeding for the state playoffs.

Muleshoe all but shut out the Lady Cats in the first period. Littlefield made its first basket of the game only three seconds before the period ended.

The Lady Mules struggled with their own offense during the initial quarter. Kayla Glover beat her defender off the dribble and drove the lane with 3:20 on the clock and then hit a 20-foot jump shot to give the Lady Gartin began the second Late in the first quarter, Britni quarter as she had finished the Littlefield without permission and finding Cox open to give Muleshoe an 11-2 advantage.

The Lady Cats regrouped and put the next seven points on the board to cut Muleshoe's lead to two.

Candace Hutto connected with Shani Rasco on the baseline for two, and on the Lady Mules' next possession, Rasco drove the lane to complete Muleshoe's first- half scoring at 15.

Tawannami Mitchell scored six points in the second period to keep Littlefield close (15-13) at intermission.

"We missed our first two or three shots and let it get to us, but this was our best defensive game we have played all year," Lady Mule coach Shana Simms

"Our plan was to double on Mitchell as soon as she got the ball, and the girls did an almost perfect job on her. We talked things over at half, especially about getting in an offensive rhythm and as a team they responded. Our press really got to them in the second half and then our shots began to fall."

Mitchell tied the game at 18 by the five-minute mark of the third period, but Gartin drained a three from the corner to ignite a 16-point Lady Mule run. That put 15 points between the two

Boys lose district squeaker No. 4

By DELTON WILHITE Journal sportswriter

The Mules' basketball season may be best described as a soap opera: one heartbreak after another.

Lubbock Cooper point guard Landon Tanner made two free throws with less than a second showing in the final period to break a tie — and the Mule fans' hearts — as the Pirates claimed a 48-46 victory Jan. 25 in Woodrow.

The loss dropped the Mules to 1-4 in district play, with each loss coming in a close game.

The Pirates tried to dig a hole for the Mules in the first period by jumping out to an 8-2 lead in the first three minutes of the game. Lincoln Riley rallied the Mules, making a bucket a minute in a threeminute span to draw the Mules close.

Brennan Broyles hit a turn-around jump shot as the first quarter ended to give the Mules a 12-11 edge. Cooper hit its only bucket of the second period as the quarter opened. The Mules stepped up their defense to super glue the Pirates to a score of 13 for just less than five minutes.

Kyle Atwood got back-to-back assists as he dealt Riley the ball to overtake the Pirates, and D.J. Domínguez stepped out beyond the arc to nail a three as the Mules began to add to their lead.

Cooper added a free throw but managed only three points in the second period. Landon Sheets chased down a long

ETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

During the Jan. 24 "state of the industry" presentation at Clovis Community College, the Dairy Producers of New Mexico applauded Curry County dairies for their contribution to the local economy.

Yes, they have had an impact in recent years.

However, we citizens are concerned that the net economic impact of the dairy industry in Eastern New Mexico and West Texas ultimately will be negative. This would be due to the restriction of further ecodevelopment because of water pollution and depletion effects of the CAFO (concentrated animal feeding operations) industry, coupled with quality-of-life issues linked to CAFOs (flies, mosquitoes, rodents, odor, more nitrate in the water, and a wide range of health risks).

What other industries will EVER move into a region that has let industry emissions run wild? Whether it is smoke from a powerplant or cow manure, industry emissions are industry emissions. Some smell worse than others.

Several dairy owners who live on the dairy property claim they don't mind the smell. But they are making huge profits for this sacrifice - some said to be raking in well over $100,000 per month.

The rest of us have to live with the byproducts of their profit structure. And when anyone complains, as Al Jacobs of Ranchvale did, about the ruined property value he may suffer if a dairy is placed next to his property, he is told that if he doesn't like what's built next to him, he can move.

This is actually what Pat Woods of Grady, a member of the Curry County Farm Bureau (and of the board of Farmers' Electric Cooperative), told Jacobs in the public meeting.

We believe in free enterprise, but not at the cost of an entire community.

As long as you are pursuing the American Dream and not trampling on the rights of other Americans, more power to you. But when your personal pursuits hurt the American Dream your neighbors are pursuing, you must be stopped.

And as for Woods' comments: Does he really think it is fair for 42,000 people (many natives with pioneer ancestors) to have to move so that two dozen dairymen can move into our area, take over our water supply, and pollute our fresh, clean air?

The federal government, in its efforts to help the family farmer, has inadvertently added to pollution problems by funding large-scale CAFOs through farm-subhelp the family farmer. According to an online database of compiled USDA statistics, dairy operators rake in taxpayer bucks.

According to these pubrecords, from 1996-2000, Randy Vanderdussen of Rajen Dairy (west of Clovis) got $672,974. Wayne Palla of Palla Dairy (north of Clovis) got $629,339.

And Paul Barnes of Barnes Farms at Pleasant Hill, who has applied for a wastewater discharge permit with the state, got $282,465; Vincent DeMaio of Running M Land & Cattle and DeMaio Farms, who also applied for a discharge permit (northwest of Clovis) got $442,714.

So ask: Whose economic development? And HOW MUCH is it costing our community? Visit Concerned Citizens for Clean Water's website www.SaveOurWaterSupply.com for more on local dairy subsidies and what you can do to help protect our water.

The Lady Mules then outscored weary Littlefield 20-9 in the final quarter.

The Lady Mules held Mitchell to only eight points while Rasco paced the Lady Mules with 11, followed by Gartin with 10. Cox made nine, Glover seven, Sara Benham and Jessica Carpenter six each, Tiffany Flores, Tori Barton and Mindy Locker two apiece and Hutto one for the Lady Mules.

Muleshoe 65

Lubbock Cooper 37 WOODROW - The Lady Mules burned the Lubbock Cooper Lady Pirates' ship 65-37 Jan. 25.

Mindy Locker provided the spark by giving the Lady Mules a 10-point cushion to start the final half.

Sara Benham came into her own during the second half, scoring 19 of her gamehigh 29 points.

Lady Mule coach Shana Simms said after the game, "Sara's 29 points were outstanding — especially after only scoring one point Tuesday night at Roosevelt. Tonight she was more relaxed; she jumped and then shot the ball."

"The guards did a great job of recognizing who was hot tonight and got her the ball," she added.

As the game started, Britni Gartin got a hand on a Cooper pass to deflect the ball to Jessica Carpenter. Gartin continued to run the floor, and Carpenter gave the ball back to Gartin for the layup and first points of the game.

Locker blocked back-to-back shots in the first period to hold the Lady Pirates to only four points in the period. Cooper took its only lead as the clock ticked past the quarter's midpoint.

After a defensive stop by the Lady Mules, Benham made a layup to complete a fast break and put Muleshoe on top to stay. Flores put the Lady Mules up 7-4 at the end of the first period.

With four minutes remaining in the second period, Annie Cox put back a rebound and dropped in the freebie after being fouled. Carpenter drained a three to cap a Lady Mule seven-point scoring burst.

Benham scored a buzzer to push the Lady Mules to a 23-15 advantage at the half.

Locker then started the second half with a post-to-post pass to Shani Rasco for an easy bucket.

Rasco added fuel to the flickering flame with a threepoint play by dropping in a charity toss after being fouled putting back a rebound.

The Lady Mules outscored Cooper 18-11 in the third period for a 41-26 cushion.

In the final frame, Benham scored 10 of her 12 points for the quarter in a span of less than 90 seconds.

Shannon Henderson set the pace for the Lady Pirates with 18 points.

For Muleshoe, Flores had eight, Gartin seven, Cox and Carpenter six each, Rasco five and Locker four.

OTARY NEWS

The Muleshoe Rotary Club met Jan. 29 at the Bailey County Coliseum with President Wanda Hooten presiding.

Dr. Stacy Conner led the prayer and David Brunson led the Pledge of Allegiance.

January student of the month Nikki Bonds was introduced by Rotary sweetheart Candace Hutto. Jesús Tovar, the other student honoree, was unable to attend.

Other visitors were Tim McCormick with George Nieman, Ben Brock with Wanda Hooten and Don Wood with Gene Sheets. Visiting Rotarians Charles Aycock, Johnny Actkinson and Jeff Actkinson of the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club also were present.

Members in charge of upcoming programs are Jeff Mullins, Feb. 5; Nieman, Feb. 12; and Thurman Myers, Feb. 19.

Hooten reminded members about the club's mentoring program with the Boy Scouts, the Cub Scout Pinewood Derby on Feb. 2 at the DeShazo gym, the membership drive that continues through March 31 and the Muleshoe basketball

She also informed the members that a new scholarship application form has been approved by the board. Katharine Schroeder led the project to update and revise the application process.

Hooten also reported that the club missed the grantapplication deadline for 2002 funds from the Chapman Forestry Project. She said the City Park still will receive trees from the Texas Department of Transportation due to the widening of Texas 214 south. City Manager David Brunson is scheduled to meet with TxDOT officials Feb. 5 to start the process, she said.

Mark Morton was in charge of the week's program and invited Cal Brints of Lubbock to speak.

Brints is one of Rotary District 5730's speakers and brought the club ideas for membership development and recruitment. He is the nephew of Harvey and Marie Bass and has been a visitor and speaker with the Muleshoe club in the past. He also got reacquainted with Vic Coker, with whom he was a Saddle Tramp at Texas Tech "a few" years ago.

Mullins was the Hunger Plus winner for the week.

Virgo - Aug 24/Sept 22 Have you been thinking about a home remodeling project, Virgo? This is just the time to start one. When the weather doesn't cooperate invite over friends for fun.

Libra - Sept 23/Oct 23

If you've been speeding through your life, Libra, it could be time to step on the brakes. Take a few moments to enjoy the scenery — a snow-covered mountain or a frozen pond. Scorpio - Oct 24/Nov 22

If you're not a fan of winter weather, Pisces, you may want to make a trip to a warmer locale. Plan a romantic rendezvous with your sweetie as an early Valentine's Day gift.

People magazine, which may claim to be about, well, people, but a look inside will quickly reveal that it's pretty much totally about the rich, seemingly glamorous, beautiful or handsome, unbelievably athletic, and just generally too-famousfor-their-own-good sort of people whose fifteen minutes of fame is generally over in less than ten, and who, sadly, and ironically-ironic because just about everyone wants to be just like them-are generally an uncommonly unhappy, mixed up, direction-less, and, too often, fairly disgusting lot. Magazines like People are not at all about real people, the kind you meet at the store, at school, or down the street. But they do focus on the people our society values-even those who hurt us wealthy, in terms of the only wealth that lasts and matters in blessed disregard of anything the Federal Reserve or the stock market may do; if we want to be really beautiful-in contrast to once glamorous models vainly and desperately looking for all manner of creams, tucks, and surgeries to hang onto the only thing they think gives them value; well, we have to take a higher, more divine view.

Beauty, real beauty, is far more than skin deep. Though they were written centuries ago, the wisdom of these words still stands: "Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate" (Proverbs 10:30-31). Speaking of well-deserved praise, when I want an example of real beauty, I think of one of the most beautiful people I know, a dear lady to whom I preach every Sunday whose lovely life is a far more power ful sermon than any I could ever pen. Tennie McCormick lives right here in Muleshoe, and she'll turn 95 this Monday. She's lived a life of genuine value that should bring her praise in this and any "city gate" that values real beauty!
