

Bull Town Bulletins
By Bill Ellis

YE EDITOR, along with a number of other people, spent "An Evening With Ronald Reagan" one summer night in Amarillo in the year of 1968.

Reagan had not yet fully burst upon the political scene, but he definitely was already running for the nation's top office at that point. And we, along with a number of political experts, came away from that meeting feeling that he would make a good president.

That was over 20 years ago, and the Reagan supporters had to wait 12 years to see their man elected as president--and then hold their collective breaths as his term was almost sniped out at its very beginning by a would-be assassin.

This week, President Reagan finishes two terms in office with a remarkable record. He is the first president in 28 years to complete two full terms, and finish his term of office with a higher popularity rating than when he was elected.

Dwight D. Eisenhower was the last president to finish out two full terms. There have been some peculiar problems befall some of his successors.

John F. Kennedy fell to an assassin's bullet. Lyndon B. Johnson had the weight of the Vietnam conflict on his shoulders, and shunned re-election.

Richard M. Nixon had the Watergate scandal, and Jimmy Carter failed to develop sufficient leadership to be re-elected.

Not that Reagan didn't have his problems during the past eight years, either. The Iran-Contra affair threatened to place a blot on his presidency, but he managed to stand tall and weather the storm.

The oldest man ever to be elected president has finished two very hectic terms of office, and as George F. Will said in Newsweek, "Reagan is not only upright at the final bell, he is bouncing on the balls of his feet."

Even though there have been some facets of his term of office that have not been positive, such as the deficit, President Reagan is emerging as one of the most popular presidents of this century, definitely the leader of the TV-era.

Perhaps Reagan's greatest legacy will be the easing of the cold war with Russia, the building of new bridges between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. through the summit meetings he held with Soviet president Gorbachev.

If this Soviet-American relationship can continue, and the prospects for global peace continue to grow, Reagan may someday have a considerable place in the nation's history.

But it has been Reagan's up-beat attitude that perhaps has led to his immense popularity. At times when our nation was reeling under the weight of its economic problems, Reagan, "The Great Communicator," would come on television and convince Americans that good times were right around the corner.

His cheerfulness and "one-liners" have made him popular with the rank and file American citizen. It has been suggested that his background as an actor may have been a plus in his favor.

Even one of Reagan's biggest critics, ABC newsmen Sam Donaldson, admitted "I don't see anything wrong in having an actor as president, as long as that's not all he is."

Even if you don't agree with everything Reagan has done, you have to admire his perseverance, at a time when most people are content to slow down their pace and slip into retirement.

Thank you, Mr. President, and vaya con Dios.

Sen. Gramm Blasts EEC At Excel Speech

U.S. Senator Phil Gramm visited Friona's Excel Beef plant on Thursday evening for a brief speech and tour.

The visit was part of a statewide economic tour by the senator, who discussed the recent European Economic Community (EEC) ban on beef imports, and how the ban could affect plants like Excel.

"Actually, the Europeans have a surplus of beef. This is just a new ploy. This is really just raw, rotten protectionism at its worst," Gramm stated.

Instead of admitting to protecting its own beef producers, the EEC has said in its latest ban that it would not import beef which was produced by using growth hormones, which hormones have proven entirely harmless, the senator pointed out.

Actually, Gramm said, you usually find less residues in beef produced through the growth hormone than you do in beef produced without using the hormone.

Roughly ten per cent of the beef produced in the U.S. is sold overseas. The problem is that the cuts sold overseas are a specialty market, including such items as tongues, brains, hearts, etc., of which there is no established domestic market. So, the loss of the European market for these products would essentially wipe out the market for these beef products.

"The steer will be less valuable to the cattleman and to the processor. We cannot allow foreign nations to cheat our producers out of their markets,"

Parent-Teacher Meeting Set

There will be a parent-teacher meeting held at the cafeteria on Thursday morning, January 19 from 8:20-9:30 a.m. At that time, coffee and doughnuts will be served. Babysitting will be provided for those who need one at the Home Ec cottage.

Bilingual personnel for Spanish speaking parents will be available. This is a time for ideas to be exchanged between parents and teachers and all parents are urged to be present, according to Sue Nuttall, elementary principal.

the Republican senator charged.

The U.S. has retaliated, Gramm pointed out, by slapping European exports with special duties that will make these products less appealing to Americans.

"We could lose $100 to $120 million in sales (per year) to the European market," Gramm said.

There is some hope that by placing the extra tariffs on European goods, the EEC may back off their ban of American beef.

The ban is just the latest in a series of efforts by the EEC to protect their consumers, Gramm said.

Previously, the Europeans had placed restrictions as to how beef products had to be processed before they could be imported.

Excel's Friona plant manager Terry Wilkerson said that the local plant had just recently spent over $400,000 to make the plant meet the restrictions set out by the Europeans.

Gramm said he had spent a lot of time and effort trying to bring industry into Texas, and he appreciated the investment made by local citizens and the Excel Corp. in providing local jobs and stimulating the economy.

Prior to Gramm's remarks, Randy Lewis, representing the Friona Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that the Excel plant employs some 1350 hourly employees who are paid around $24 million in salaries each year.

Wilkerson, in his brief remarks, pointed out that since the plant opened in 1968, it had seen two expansion programs and now is capable of slaughtering 920,000 head of cattle per year.

He said the local plant supplies roughly 25 per cent of the beef exported by Excel plants, and the European ban could cost Excel up to $2 million per year. The negative impact could affect the price of beef from $5 to $10 per head, Wilkerson said.

Asked about Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower's statements in response to the EEC ban, Gramm said he was very disappointed.

"He is the only official in America to side with the Europeans."

Mustangs Win Two In District Play

The Bovina High School Mustangs won both of their games last week, to run their season record to 18-3, and 3-0 in district play.

The Mustangs downed Springlake-Earth, 75-31 in a road game last Tuesday.

Bovina started off with a bang, jumping out to an 18-4 first quarter lead. The team was clicking on all cylinders in the second quarter. Four different players scored at least four points: Denver Riddle, Scott Scaff, Kenny McLaughlin and Corey Kirkpatrick.

The Mustangs went to intermission with a 40-12 lead.

Bovina's good shooting continued in the third quarter. Riddle scored seven points to pace the team to a 61-21 lead.

The scoring slowed down slightly in the final quarter. Scaff led the scoring with 14, Riddle had 13 and Sudderth 11.

On Friday, the Mustangs hosted Kress and prevailed by a score of 85-25.

Scott Scaff had a hot hand, scoring 22 points in only three quarters of action. Sudderth added 13, Shaun Pinkston 12 and Riddle 11.

Bovina had quarterly leads of 14-7, 31-15 and 57-20.

MUSTANGS 75, S-E 31

Scott Sudderth 4-3-11; Manuel Porras 4-0-8; Pete Quiroga 0-1-0-3; Denver Riddle 5-3-13; Scott Scaff 6-2-14; Kenny McLaughlin 4-0-8; Shaun Pinkston 2-0-4; Bud Venable 2-0-4; Corey Kirkpatrick 4-1-9.

MUSTANGS 85, Kress 25

Fillies Fall Twice In Week's Play

The Bovina High School Fillies fell in both of their games last Bovina's scoring with seven points and Tonya Chisom scored seven.

On Friday, Miss Chisom scored a pair of first-quarter field goals and was two for two at the line, and Donna Griggs added another pair of baskets as the Fillies held a 12-10 lead at the end of their first quarter against Kress.

Springlake-Earth jumped out to a 21-6 first quarter lead, and were up, 33-10 at halftime.

Jennifer Beauchamp led the visitors kept their scoring stride going in the third quarter, opening up a 45-32 lead.

Miss Griggs scored two baskets, one from three-point range, as Bovina outscored the visitors, 17-12 in the final period, but they could not overcome Kress' lead.

Hurting the Fillies' cause was the fact that two starters, Miss Beauchamp and Chisom, fouled out of the game.

From The Chief's Desk

This week's topic is loud and defective mufflers. I have noticed in the past few weeks that there are quite a few vehicles in Bovina with either loud or defective mufflers. I also realize that these loud mufflers, in many cases, are not defective, but are still too loud.

One of the arguments I receive is that the mufflers are stock mufflers and that they were bought over the counter. This may be true, but just because you can buy these mufflers in the store doesn't make them legal to use. You can buy a number of things out of stores that aren't legal.

I think that if a person that has these loud mufflers on their vehicles would use a little common sense and not make them rack off, then there wouldn't be so many complaints about the noise.

As long as a person uses these mufflers wisely then there will be no citations issued, but if you insist on making a lot of noise with your vehicle, then the following law will be strictly enforced.

Article XIII Section 134 of the Uniform Act:

Muffler, prevention of noise--(a) every motor vehicle shall at all times be equipped with a muffler in good working order and in constant operation to prevent excessive or unusual noise and no person shall use a muffler cut out, by-pass or similar device upon a motor vehicle on a highway.

Again, I would like to thank you for your cooperation. Remember, if I can be of any assistance to you, please call 238-1133, anytime.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

Cold, clear weather is still with us this week but understand we did have a "snow storm" that lasted about five minutes on Friday of last week.

Jimmy and I went to the Imperial Valley in California last week, and it was very pretty there but the wind blew there, too. The flowers, trees and shrubs were beautiful and we saw so many pretty birds in the area. Had a good time and trip.

Congratulations to Tim and Shannon Grissom on the birth of their first child, a baby girl. She has been named Lianna Ashley. She was born on Wednesday of last week. Also, congratulations to grandparents, Leon and Charlene Grissom of Bovina, and Edward and Monty Allen of Friona.

Visitors in the home of Bedford and Pauline Caldwell were their son Bill, his wife Jackie, and their son David. They drove from Lubbock and spent the day on Sunday. The family attended church together.

Grady and Dorothy Sorley flew to California on Wednesday after Christmas and visited with their son and family, Phil and Patty Sorley and children, Alison and Chris. Dorothy said they even had a little snow in Burbank, the first time ever. They enjoyed a good time in California.

Richard Kelley is home from the hospital in Lubbock. He is undergoing therapy four hours each morning at the hospital. According to friends, he is getting along real well. Richard was involved in a two vehicle accident about six weeks ago. He is the son of Glen and Kay Kelley, former Bovina residents.

Jerry Newton, a former Bovina resident, suffered a heart attack and is now in room 607 in the Clovis High Plains Hospital. Friends said Jerry was having his 52nd birthday and was at home when he had the heart attack. He is getting along real well, we understand. He is employed at Excel Corp.

Paula Nance was taken by Bovina Ambulance to the Friona hospital on Friday of last week.

Laverne Thatcher was released from the High Plains Hospital in Clovis and family members said she would be going to Albuquerque in a few days for further tests. Laverne suffered an apparent heart attack at her home on January 3.

Alton and Terri McCormick and children were in Bovina over the weekend visiting with Terri's parents, Vernon and Frances Willard. The family attended church together on Sunday.

Buck and Dorothy Ellison had fourteen members of their family visiting during Christmas. Their daughter, Pat Read, and members of her family were with them; their son, Howard and his family were visiting and also a granddaughter, Shello and her children were here from Austin. On New Year's Day, they had company and last weekend a preacher and his wife, Jim and Judy Taylor, were visiting from Poncho Spring, Colorado.

Butch McCain of Edmond, Oklahoma was in Bovina during recent days visiting with his parents, Les and Rose McCain. While here, he went skiing at Angel Fire with B.J. Whitecotton of Nocona, Texas.

B.J. was visiting his parents, Billy and Paula Whitecotton. The men spent time at the Whitecotton cabin at Mora, New Mexico.

SMILE: "Pardon me, sir," said the waiter as he picked up the check and the money, "but this doesn't include anything for the waiter."

"I didn't eat one, did I?" replied the customer.

Couple Has Baby Girl

Tim and Shannon Grissom are parents of a baby girl, Lianna Ashley, born Wednesday, January 11 at 8:59 p.m. at the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford.
