

Home Demonstration Notes

By LORETTA ALLEN

Taylor County Home Demonstration Agent

The clothing committee of Taylor County agricultural extension program building committee has been working making plans for a clothing consumer day on Sept. 20. The publicity committee of this group met Tuesday to discuss ways and means of letting the public know about this program. "Want to Stretch Your Clothing Dollar?" Plan now to attend the Clothing Consumer Day Sept. 20. I will keep reminding you about it.

All of the clubs in the county had representatives at the foods leader training meeting Wednesday morning.

The foods survey made in Taylor County year before last revealed need for including programs on the importance of fruit in the diet. The non-club members used much less fruit than club members. Fifty-eight per cent of the women and 55 per cent of the husbands of non-club members had a serving of citrus fruit, tomato, strawberries or melons. Fifty-four per cent of both men and women had a serving of other fruit. Eighty-three per cent of women and 65 per cent of husbands of club members had a serving of citrus fruit, tomato, strawberries or melons. Seventy-six per cent women and 66 per cent of the husbands had another serving of fruit.

If you would like to attend any of their meetings the following leaders will conduct them on these dates:

- Blue Bonnet, Mrs. Frank Bronovak, July 5.
- Hamby, Mrs. J. M. Foster, July 14.
- Lawn, Mrs. Sebe Monroe, July 13.
- Ovalo, Mrs. H. V. Riddle, July 5.
- Pleasant Hill, Mrs. L. H. Peterson, July 13.
- Potosi, Mrs. Bob Sumrall and Mrs. Clarence Hollingshead, July 12.
- Tuscola, Mrs. L. C. Scott and

Mrs. E. F. Saling, July 7.
Union Ridge, Mrs. Denzil Cox and Miss Mable McRee, July 1.
Wylie, Mrs. James Smith and Mrs. P. C. Hubert, July 14.

It is the attitude toward age that counts was the theme of the leader training meeting that leaders of Taylor County home demonstration clubs attended Thursday.

The beginning of life was compared to a beautiful sunrise. The break of day lifts the curtain on a new life, a new opportunity to survive and to achieve. The first period of life the individual is busy growing physically, mentally and emotionally but physical growth is most important. Mental and emotional growth can ripen best in the calm after the storm of bewildering physical growth.

The second stage of life the individual is busy making a place for herself in society. Now is a time for inner growth, for finding the purpose of living for the years to come.

The third phase of life is when the time of our own arrives. In this stage we find time is life. Today there are an estimated 15,000,000 people over 65 in the United States. Most of them are semi- or retired, according to a recent report by the special staff on aging, Department of Health, Education and Welfare. By 1975 this group will increase to an estimated 20,000,000. The subcommittee of the problems of aged and aging of the United States Senate reported that there is an increase of 300,000 yearly of people over 65 and right now there are 5,000,000 over 75.

The average age of people today is about 70, but our grandchildren may reach 100 or more. What is age? Often it takes the golden years before people discover the gold of spiritual unfolding of beauty, gardening and, as two leaders brought out in the meeting, the time to count the birds in their yards. It is good to think of old age as the sunset of life—when you contemplate it with a beautiful picture of a sunset.

1. Old age is one social condition all who live will inevitably experience.

2. It is our attitude that counts.

3. All we want love and to be needed.

4. We all want companionship of our own interests.

5. We all need something to do that we like to do.

6. No matter what age we find ourselves, we all can be useful, productive, wanted and active, and when we love to grow we can always look forward to a happy future.

The following leaders invite you to their club to hear all about "Growing Through the Years" when they have this program:

- Mrs. J. M. Foster, Hamby, July 28.
- Mrs. H. L. Riddle and Mrs. T. A. Burford, Ovalo, July 19.
- Mrs. H. L. Antilley and Mrs. Ray Causseaux, Pleasant Hill, July 27.
- Mrs. Paige Baize, Potosi, July 26.
- Mrs. Willis Fox, Tuscola, July 21.
- Mrs. J. L. Rice, Wylie, July 28.

We welcome Mrs. Philip (Lena) Ridens as our new assistant home demonstration agent. She began work July 1 and says she is looking forward to meeting all the 4-H members, parents and home demonstration officers. Come by to meet her when you are near our office.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Robertson attended a reunion at Austin on June 26 for descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Garrett. Approximately 50 people gathered at Barton Springs for a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mayfield and son, Bob Jr., of Arizona visited his mother, Mrs. Helen Mayfield, the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beauchamp and daughter of Knox City visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hardy, during the holidays.

Dear Mister Editor:

It may be gitting later than them varmints in the Kremlin thinks. I see where the wimmen in Moscow is complaining that they're mighty tired of wearing flour sacks for dresses. They have told Khrushchev they want to be better shod and less shoddy. They are demanding to look and smell nicer, want to git rid of them peasant styles, want perfume, gaze-me-good frocks and a new look. Ole Khrushchev better be bending a big ear to this noise. In the matter of a country's survival, the female can be more important than the missile program. The Kremlin would be smart to start reading the handwriting on the wall—while the wall is still there.

I see where some big column writer has estimated there is nearly three million people in the United States that don't read nothing but the comic strips. He says we got 50,000 people in this country that think Dick Tracy is the head of the FBI. There's two ways to look at that thing, Mister Editor. Maybe one reason we got such a great country is because we got so many people in it that don't do nothing but follow the pursuit of happiness. If they git it just reading the comics, who is this column writer to be complaining?

Speaking of column writers, I see where this feller Bernard Baruch, setting on one of them park benches in New York, told a reporter that political honesty was gitting mighty scarce in this present campaign. Political honesty, in case Mr. Baruch don't know it, is in the same class with horse feathers. Somepun can't git scarce when there ain't none of it to start with.

I heard on the radio last night that a bunch of telephone girls in some place in Florida was threatening to walk out if they don't get air conditioning this summer. Let 'em walk, I say. What ought to happen to wimmen complain-

Telephone girls wearing about eight ounces of clothes demanding air conditioning is the limit, Mr. Editor.

Them spend-happy boys in the Pentagon has been paying such outlandish prices for everthing that I see where a salesman created a sensation up there the other day by whispering around that he could git things fer 'em at retail. It would be a mighty good break for the taxpayers if they'd hire this feller and make him a five-star general in charge of buying.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN. — When the various states go to battle to capture new industries, other states go in with cannon-sized budgets. But not Texas.

Texas is, by comparison, fighting with a rubber band and spit balls. At least that's the view of the man who heads the Texas effort, Walter E. Dickerson.

Dickerson, as executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, directs himself. He has no staff and no secretary. Legislature allotted him $23,750 a year to do a job for which the neighboring "poor" state of Arkansas spends more than half a million a year.

Dickerson uses his slim funds for a brochure on Texas and, since out-of-state travel is impossible, long-distance telephoning. He's also seeking additional funds from Texas firms to carry on this work.

Next winter he'll be before the Legislature to ask for more money to give Texas an even break in the intensely competitive industry-seeking field.

Dickerson's pleas come against a background of warnings that Texas manufacturing has not been growing fast enough to offset the decline of oil and agriculture. Some areas, such as the Gulf Coast, are becoming highly industrialized, but Texas needs more industry all over, say the economists, if it is to avoid a stall.

More manufacture of products for the Texas consumer market is especially recommended. Dickerson has data showing that Texas send $2,500,000,000 of their money out of state to buy manufactured products.

Dickerson also supports his urging for a beefed-up Industrial Commission with figures showing that new industry is literally "money in the bank" for a town and state.

For each industry with 100 employees—not a particularly big one—bank deposits jump $270,000 and retail sales $360,000 a year.

STRAY LIVESTOCK LAW IN FORCE — Farmers are warned to pen up their livestock and keep them penned, or be subject to a $200 fine and impoundment of the animals.

Each day the animals roam at large will be considered a separate offense.

The new law relates to horses, mules, donkeys, cows, bulls, hogs, steers, sheep and goats loose on state and federal highways. Farm and ranch roads are not included.

An increasing number of deaths and injuries due to auto collisions with stray animals necessitated the law.

Heretofore the motorist was liable.

SCHOOL PROBLEM ERUPTS — At the instigation of the Texas commissioner of education, J. W. Edzar, Brownsboro school officials, both board and superintendent, are resigning en masse.

Decision was reached after an involved and rather heated hearing in Austin to review school conflicts that had resulted in a killing at a Brownsboro school board meeting.

Homer Bass was appealing his dismissal by the Brownsboro school board when his contract as superintendent still had two years to go. Board members charged Bass with instructing teachers how to vote in school board elections, handling school funds carelessly and failing to meet state accreditation standards.

Several board members said they felt mass resignation was a good solution that would enable the community to start afresh on a peaceable basis.

BIGGER BUDGETS ASKED — Three state agencies presented their requests for funds for the Sept. 1, 1961-Aug. 31, 1963 period. All want more than they are now spending.

Legislative and governor's office budget staffs are reviewing the requests of State Health Department, State Board of Insurance and Texas Employment Commission.

Health wants 18 per cent increase to a total of $17 million for the coming biennium. State Board of Insurance is asking $5,173,664 for the same period, approximately a 20 per cent increase. TEC estimates its needs at $28,384,905.

SENATOR ☆☆☆ Yarborough's Report

The decision of Fidel Castro to enter into economic agreements with Russia, and his continuing hostile and insulting manner in whipping up Cuban resentment against America made it mandatory that we approve President Eisenhower's request for discretionary powers to alter the Cuban sugar quota.

Possibility that we will have to alter the Cuban sugar quota does not grow as an act of economic reprisal against the Cuban people, who we have long regarded and still regard and treat as good neighbors. But events of Castro's own making are driving us to a position where we cannot afford to be reliant on Cuban supply for too large a share of our sugar.

When I say that as a nation and a people we have befriended Cuba and have gone to extremes to use her sugar, many Texas farmers know what I'm talking about. As a matter of fact, at considerable injustice to some Texas and other American farmers, the administration has limited American farmers' sugar production to only 27 per cent of the American market, while allowing Cuba and other friendly nations large shares of our sugar quota.

For example, farmers of many counties in the Texas Panhandle and Upper South Plains area can produce excellent beet sugar crops and it will bring more money, about $100 to $150 per acre, than most other crops. Yet Texas farmers are allotted only 1,800 acres for sugar beet production despite the fact that they have many times requested additional acreage allotments.

Ironically, instead of being permitted to raise more sugar for the tables of America, a commodity which can be used, they are left with land on which they raise wheat or grain sorghums—grains already in fantastic surplus.

With this situation confronting us, I strongly urge the administration to take firm steps to allocate more of the American sugar quota to the American farmer and to establish new quotas that will not to a substantial degree leave supply of this vital commodity in America to the whim of an unsound, slanderous, double-dealing tyrant.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

The so-called smart, sophisticated humor of the New York City night clubs isn't difficult to produce. For example, if you see a sign proclaiming, "Our Bread Untouched by Human Hands," you can quip, "Baked by apes, I suppose?"

Or if a restaurant announces, "We make our own pies," you could remark brightly to the proprietor, "That makes it easy for the customer to fix responsibility, doesn't it?"

Or if you have just finished making a speech, the club president can say, "This was the largest crowd since I've been president—three weeks."

The night club brand of humor is fundamentally cruel.

Like all newspapermen, I dislike writing letters, but have exchanged them with Carl Sandburg, Rex Beach, Dr. Frederick Cook and W. J. Bryan. There's a foursome! Sandburg is, in my opinion, the foremost living American author: Beach wrote exciting novels of Alaska; Bryan was the greatest orator of his generation, and Cook claimed to have discovered the North Pole and to have been the first to climb Mount McKinley.

It was late at night in a leading hotel. Two men were carrying on an animated conversation with the door open into the hall. Their voices penetrated through the closed door of the opposite room where the occupant who was paying a neat sum for a night's rest tossed sleeplessly. He had left a call for 6 a.m. and it was past midnight when the talking two out.

A little incident, you say and not worth setting down. And you are correct, except for this: It shows what's the matter with the world. There are too many people who never think of the other man, his comfort, his rights or, if they do, they just plain don't give a darn.

This and that:
Dr. H. E. Robinson of the Texas Education Agency is an orator—and you can't hardly find that kind any more.

In San Antonio, there's a place of business with a sign, "Our motto is caveat emptor." Well, you got to admit, they told you.

Pat Bullock of Colorado City has one of the most difficult offices there is. The former senator, as a member of the State Pardon and Parole Board, hears many pathetic pleas.

Was San Antonio the last city in the country with a town crier? As recently as the 1920s a man rode around the business district on a horse, calling out about the baseball game that afternoon or a sale in progress at a store (or so I was told by a long-time resident of the Alamo City).

15 COUNTIES IN TEXAS SIGN FOR LIBRARY AID

Agreements to supply post-demonstration library aid to 15 Texas counties have been signed with the Texas State Library. State Librarian Witt B. Harwell has announced.

Made possible by provisions of the Library Services Act, the post-demonstration aid program is now available to those counties that have participated in state library bookmobile demonstrations. Under the bookmobile plan the state library provides groups of counties, at the request of their commissioners courts, a one-year demonstration of first-class mobile library service. There is no cost to the counties involved. It is anticipated that the one-year "free sample" service will stimulate interest in continuing an improved library program after the bookmobile service ends.

Under the aid program each group of participating counties will receive up to $10,000 in books from the state library. The books will be selected by the librarians of each county but will be processed and catalogued by the state library. The books will be exchanged periodically with other libraries within each group of counties.

Harwell pointed out that six of the 15 counties signing agreements have county library appropriations this year for the first time, attesting to the success of the bookmobile demonstrations. Total county library funds for the 15 counties totaled $84,562 compared with $62,225 for 1959, an increase of 35 per cent.

cial security) or old age assistance, and about 45,000 receive both. At least seven out of 10 people get a monthly check from one or the other.

The most recent figures show that 245,626 Texans draw social security because of their age, for a total of $15,830,012 a month, while 223,000 receive old age assistance totaling $11,834,141 a month.

At present the maximum social security payment is $108.50 per month, and the average in Texas is $64.45. The maximum old age assistance payment is $67 a month and the average is $53.06.

Thanks to increased social security coverage, the old age assistance rolls are showing a gradual decline from a peak of 227,853 in September, 1950, though they went up a bit during the drought years. By 1975 they are expected to drop to 142,000.

At present, the biggest need for indigent old people is low-cost medical care.

Mrs. William B. Ruggles of Dallas, a member of the Texas Society on Aging, said the two questions most frequently asked by old people are: (1) Can anything be done to help us with the cost of medical care? (2) Is there any possibility of relief from the tax burden at the time of life when our incomes are so reduced?

The Texas homestead exemption does provide a measure of tax relief, but the burden of medical care grows heavier by the year.

Information on the survey being conducted in your county is available from your county judge. (This is a digest of an article in a series written by William H. Gardner of The Houston Post.)

No Fishing License Brings On 176 Arrests

AUSTIN. — Too many fishermen still think they can get by without a license, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. Last month 176 persons paid fines for failure to buy their $2.15 fishing license. This license is required for all persons who fish with rod and reel except those under 17 and over 65. Persons fishing outside their home counties also need a license.

In all, there were 272 violations in May, with a total of $5,197.74 collected in fines and costs.

A number of arrests also were made for killing game out of season. Several were caught shooting doves, quail, ducks and deer.

Two others were caught "tele-

4-H CLOTHING PROGRAM

740,000 GIRLS

Twenty years of growth is the record claimed for the national 4-H clothing award program which today involves nearly three-quarters of a million girls between 10 and 21 years of age.

This report comes from the National 4-H Service Committee which developed the program over two decades ago in cooperation with the Extension Service. It has been supported ever since by Coats & Clark Inc., of New York.

Right now across the nation young seamstresses are putting the finishing touches on skirts, dresses and coats. The garments were carefully cut, stitched and sewn under the knowing eye of their local 4-H Club leader.

Many hopeful models also are rehearsing for a fashion show and exhibit of their handiwork in competition with other club members for county, state and national 4-H clothing awards provided by Coats & Clark.

An even dozen college scholarships worth $400 each are awaiting the 12 top 4-H'ers to be selected from 50 state winners next fall. The state champion will be a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago with all expenses paid.

For more information about joining a 4-H Club contact the county Extension agent.

Safety Council Gives Tips On Water Skiing

Six million Americans going splash-splash—and often flip-flop—in the water.

That's the picture as a nation of water skiers nonchalantly skims over miles and miles of waterways—or tries to, at least.

Little information is available on what happens when a water skier is unsuccessful in his attempts to remain upright, since reporting of mishaps on water—America's new-found playground—is far from complete.

While the facts on water skiing accidents may not be handy, you can find plenty of information on the art of skiing in summer.

From the National Safety Council, for example, come these tips for skiing fun.

1. Don't ski if you can't swim.
2. Don't ski at night, in rough water or in shallow or unknown waters.
3. Don't ski near swimmers, docks or other obstructions.
4. Don't ski with an inexperienced boat operator. Make sure an extra person is in the boat to keep an eye on the skier.
5. Never wrap a tow rope around your body. If you start to fall, throw the tow line clear of yourself.
6. Always approach the shore at an angle—never straight in.

If you fall, the experts advise:

1. Stay with your skis—they'll help keep you afloat.
2. Raise your hand to signal the boat operator of your plight.
3. In congested waters, raise a ski so other boats will see you.

The experts also say that consideration for others and safety consciousness go a long way toward preventing water accidents.

LOW-COST FAMILY FALLOUT SHELTER

BASEMENT FALLOUT SHELTER can be used as photographic darkroom. Shelter should have (A) two-week's supply of food and medicines, (B) shower, (C) chemical toilet and (D) water tank. Floor and countertops should be surfaced with stain-proof ceramic tile for darkroom use.

Fallout Shelter Can Double As a Darkroom Space

You can enjoy your fallout shelter—and have it, too! Use it as a year-around darkroom and you will have a place to pursue your favorite hobby.

If your basement ceiling is of average height or better, and the foundation walls are of poured concrete or masonry construction, you can build a radiation-proof shelter in one corner at a minimum cost of $200. And for the added cost of a few square feet of ceramic tile, plus storage cabinets and sink, you can have a darkroom too.

The prime darkroom need is for a floor and counter tops that are surfaced with a chemical-proof material. Ceramic tile is ideal here. It's waterproof, impervious to photo chemicals and food stains, and can be wiped clean with a damp rag. A cheerful red quarry tile floor also adds color and warmth to a confined space and never needs any maintenance.

For surfacing countertops, where photo trays and chemicals will be in use, either standard glazed tile or small ceramic mosaics is recommended.

Sizing up your fallout shelter for a good double-duty use like this is important, but only after the shelter's basic needs have been planned for.

For adequate protection against concrete radiation, your basement shelter walls can be constructed of 8-inch solid concrete blocks set in mortar. The shelter roof should also be covered with an 8-inch thickness of similar material. The entrance need not have a door—but it must have at least one right angle turn to stop radiation. Ventilation openings should also be provided in the walls, and basement windows should be blocked off when an emergency threatens.

Failure demonstrates the fact that there is also plenty of room at the bottom.

A NEW ISM

In his speech at the market-house on Saturday evening, one of the orators, in a detailed and circumstantial manner gave the outlines of the scheme for the elevation of Gen. Houston to the Presidency. This was to be accomplished by traveling over the country, making speeches, organizing San Jacinto clubs and exciting the enthusiasm of the masses. That's it—adzakly. Enthu-sa-ism will do it, if you only have enough of it.

HOUSTON MEETING
A rather thin crowd assembled in the market house on Saturday night, to ratify the nomination of Gen. Houston for the Presidency. The meeting organized by the appointment of A. McGowen President, W. R. King Vice President, and A. B. Jerome Secretary. Col. Manley, Col. Daly, Judge Allen, Col. Gibson and Alderman King were appointed a committee to draft resolutions. The resolutions, as a matter of course having been previously cut and dried, the committee soon reported them and they were unanimously adopted.

In our recent trip to Huntsville we passed through twice the town of Navasota. We were much surprised to find so flourishing a place. We had looked for a village of a dozen stores, and a hundred inhabitants. We found a little city having not less than thirty places of business, and we should think at least six or seven hundred people. Everything was active and prosperous. Everybody was busy. This is a very promising place, and we doubt not will always be a town of importance.

FRONTIER NEWS FLASHES

A cast-iron cannon, which had been imported by the citizens of Centerville for the purpose of "doing" the Fourth of July burst on the 26th ult., and a good-sized chunk was blown a distance of 250 yards, falling through the roof of a drug store. HORSE THIEF

The Corsicana Express says a man of medium height, heavy made, red whiskers and sandy hair, "who professed to boiling over with religion," came to that county, commenced school teaching, borrowed a horse for the ostensible purpose of attending a Presbyterian meeting, and left for parts unknown. The Express requests that word of this man be passed around.

INDIAN NEWS

The San Antonio Herald learns from Mr. J. S. Hamson, who lives on the Atascosa, that a party of Indians made an ascent upon the Frio and Leona, killed a Mexican and stole 300 horses. Thirty-five men had gone in pursuit.

On last Tuesday evening Miss Christene Collins entertained a number of her friends at her palatial home north of town. Music was highly appreciated and enjoyed during the entire evening. At a rather late hour everyone assured their hostess of the most delightful time they had.

Homer L. Easterwood, affable and efficient cashier of the First State Bank of Trent, was in this city yesterday, and reports arranged for the biggest celebration in that city today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, July 9 and 10. The program of entertainment promises to be of splendid variety and wholesome enjoyment, such as bronco riding, goat roping, baseball, and it is expected that all the candidates for county office will be on hand and make their announcements and last but not least, Thos. L. Blanton congressman from this district, and who is a candidate for re-election, will meet his opponent, Hon. R. N. Grisham, in joint debate on the issues involved in their campaign.

Mayor J. J. Stallings is in receipt of a letter from his son, E. P. Stallings, who for about 10 years has been connected with one of the banks in Houston, stating that he had just been promoted to the position of chief clerk in that great financial institution. Young Stallings is a Merkel-raised boy, and his friends will be proud to learn of his position and success in the banking world.

Misses Mamie Ellis, Bessie Tucker, Ruth Pike, Jewell Daniels, Mary Campbell, Thelma Merritt and Mr. Russell Pike came in Friday afternoon from Simmons College to spend the Fourth of July. SYLVESTER-LORD WEDDING PLANS TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sylvester of Eunice, N.M., are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sue, to Bill Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Lord.

The wedding will take place in late July in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Eunice.

The Sylvesters are former residents of Merkel.

PEERY-EYSSEN RITES ARE READ IN DALLAS

Perkins Chapel of Southern Methodist University in Dallas was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Nancy Belle Peery and Timothy Donald Eys-sen. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dale Peery of Garden Grove, Calif.

She was graduated from Polytechnic High School at Long Beach, Calif., where she received the Citizens' Award and Scholarship. She attended Cornell University two years where she held a national scholarship. She is a June graduate of SMU. Her sorority is Pi Beta Phi.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Eysen, 915 Elmwood Dr., Abilene, and the only grandson of Mrs. Amy Sears, 1609 Sayles Blvd.

A June graduate of SMU Law School, he is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He was graduated from Abilene High School and is a 1957 graduate of Texas Tech.

Officiating at the wedding was the Rev. W. L. Strong of Hollyridge, La. Nuptial music was by Richard Howell, organist, and Don Rott.

Mr. Peery gave his daughter in marriage. Her full-skirted gown of sheer white silk faille over taffeta was appliqued with seed pearls and sequins over alencon lace which centered the molded bodice, edged the portrait neckline and extended over the edge of the long torso bodice to the softly shirred skirt. Her train was chapel length.

She wore a fingertip veil and Juliet cap of Brussels lace which she chose while traveling abroad last summer.

She carried white roses and stephanotis atop a Bible that had been given her at the age of two by her grandmother.

The bride's cousin, Patricia Peery of Wichita Falls, was maid of honor, and Thomas R. Arthur was best man.

Bridesmaids, specialty sisters of the bride, were Sharon Mooney, Kay White of Houston, and Janey Goff of Sulphur Springs.

Bridal attendants wore identical waltz-length gowns of white silk organza embroidered with sprays of shaded pink roses. Pink taffeta cummerbunds marked the waistline. They wore bandeaux of pink satin with circlet veils of matching organza. White satin
