

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Within a few weeks the tourists and school children who flock to Austin will be able to get a lesson in Texas history by visiting the most beautiful of all the new buildings on the state capitol grounds.

It is the State Library and Archives Building, now nearing completion on a site directly east of the Capitol.

For many years history-minded Texans decried the fact that the priceless early documents of the state had no real home. Finally these documents were moved from a mouldy basement to a Quonset hut. There many feared for their safety.

Now, the new edifice provides the state's historic documents with a magnificent home. In addition there are quarters for the State Library and the General Land Office.

More interesting to the visitor will be the way in which Texas history is dramatized in the architectural decor of the building. On each side of the entrance are six large flagpoles. From them will fly the flags of the nations which have ruled Texas — France, Spain, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederate States of America and the United States.

Embedded in the stone of the front are bright-colored mosaic shields. These also represent the same six nations. Smaller bronze emblems decorate the heavy metal doors at the front. Across the back of the structure, even larger shields, bearing the six nations' seals in colored ceramics, are mounted on the face of the building.

Pink granite, the "official" stone for state buildings, is used for the entire exterior. Carved in the granite across the left front are these words:

"The People of Texas do now constitute a free, sovereign and independent republic and . . . we fearlessly and confidently commit the issue to the decision of the Supreme Arbitrator of the destinies of nations." (Texas Declaration of Independence, 1836.)

On the right front side is carved: "All political power is in heret in the people and all free governments are founded on their authority and instituted for their benefit." (First Constitution of Texas, 1845.)

Although the building has four floors, there are seven "stack floors" where the building is divided for storage of books and documents.

One end of the main floor will be devoted to the library. There you will find a charge desk and a large reading room.

Another large room will house the archives. In it there will be a large work room where researchers may look at old papers.

Land Office, to be on the third and fourth floors, will have a separate entrance at the south end of the building. (Building faces west.)

First floor lobby, like the Capitol rotunda, will be a Texas Showcase. In its terrazzo floor is the familiar wreath and star emblem of Texas. Main walls are polished granite and upper wall is sandstone. Above the center of the area is a huge, spectacular oval light fixture of red, white and blue colored glass in a sunburst design with a border of 50 stars.

Museum cases, recessed and lighted, are built into the walls around the lobby. Opposite the lobby entrance is a large bronze screen with 15 blocks on which are wrought designs that present a panorama of Texas development. There's an Indian with tomahawk, branding irons, dueling pistols, the first Capitol (a small frame house), an early locomotive, and a windmill on the prairie. Last block shows a gushing oil well.

Building of the State Library and Archives Building was authorized by the Legislature in 1957 with an appropriation of $2,500,000. Project has been carried through by the State Building Commission for which E. E. McAdams is chairman and Gov. Price Daniel and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson are members.

Admiral H. R. Nieman is director of The Building Commission.

State Archives Building is the fourth of the new edifices erected since the building program began in 1957. It is neither the largest nor the most expensive, but because of the historical designs, it is attracting the most attention. Those who have had an advance peek believe hat it will, as intended, be a fitting residence for the heritage of Texas' 125 years.

TOLEDO BEND DAM STUDIED — Texas Water Development Board has given tentative approval to a $15,000,000 state loan for the building of a $60,000,000 Toledo Bend Dam on the Sabine River.

The dam will create the largest man-made lake in the south and supply water and power for residents of both Southeast Texas and Louisiana.

One of the first obstacles to be faced is obtaining a permit from the State Board of Water Engineers. In this, the Sabine River Authority is opposed by the owners of timberland which would be flooded by the reservoir.

Louisiana will be a partner in the project, if it materializes. Louisiana voters already have approved a $15,000,000 loan to meet its share of the cost.

END OF AN ERA — One of the most colorful and controversial names in 20th century Texas politics passed from the scene with the death of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson.

Though she preferred housekeeping and flower raising, Mrs. Ferguson was the first (and only) woman governor of Texas. Also one of the only two women governors ever to be elected in the nation.

Beginning of the "Ferguson era" was in 1914 when her husband, Jim Ferguson, was elected governor, as the champion of the Texas tenant farmer. He was re-elected in 1916 but impeached in 1917.

In 1924 Mrs. Ferguson ran for governor, with the announced purpose of clearing her husband's name. She was elected in 1924, defeated for re-election in 1926, but won another term in 1932.

With her to the last was the nickname she disliked — "Ma." Her husband (who died in 1944) was known as "Pa" or "Farmer Jim."

RATE INCREASE EXPLAINED — Texas who are irked at the prospect of an auto insurance rate increase should take note that they've had a year's reprieve since the increase was indicated, says the Insurance Board chairman.

Claim costs indicated that a rate increase was justified last year, says Chairman Tom Ferguson, but the Board postponed making it because the safe driving plan had just gone into effect.

In that 12-month interval, said

Ferguson, drivers actually have paid $20,000,000 less in insurance premiums than cost figures show they should have. As a consequence, he said, companies absorbed a $20,000,000 deficit.

LAST ROUND — Legislators waxed both heated and hopeful in the last round of public hearings before the committee appointed by Governor Daniel to study all tax plans and suggest a compromise.

Committee, mostly made up of board chairmen of state agencies is to select ideas or merge them into a recommendation to be offered at its final meeting July 6 and 7. Special session to enact a tax plan begins July 10.

Rep. Reed Quilliam of Lubbock said he felt the people should see clearly what their choices are — a sales tax, income tax or sharp reduction in state services.

Reps. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity and Maco Stewart of Galveston suggested a plan that would combine a 2 per cent general sales tax, with exemptions, and a 6 per cent corporation profits tax.

Sen. Grady Hazelwood of Amarillo apparently favored a sales tax. He told the committee he thought the governor had been asleep, Rip Van Winkle fashion, since 1939 when Governor Daniel, then a House member, was one of the "Immortal 56" who blocked a sales tax. Hazelwood pointed out that the state has had a population explosion and an 800 per cent increase in cost of government since then.

BUS INQUIRY POSTPONED — An Austin court of inquiry into the prices being paid by the state for school busses has been postponed until July 10.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson called for the inquiry, noting that Texas paid from 10 to 25 per cent more for busses than some other states.

Judge granted the postponement on the defendants' statement that they had not had the required 10-day interval between the issuance of the subpoenas and convening of the inquiry.

GUARDS NEEDED — O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Department of Corrections, reports that the prison system is in urgent need of officers.

Physically fit men 21 to 55 years of age are desired. They must have a 10th grade education at the minimum.

J. N. Crawford, Jr., at the Huntsville prison, is in charge of hiring.

New Dessert Surprise

Angel food cake and ice cream, summer's popular dessert combination go together in new form in Angel Cream Loaves which you can make ahead of time and freeze until needed. The whipped cream "frosting" and strawberry garnish are added at the time of serving.

Packaged loaf angel food cake from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department and ice cream are your basic ingredients. And when put together, you may package for future use either in complete loaf form, in "twins" (cut in half), or if your family is very small, the completed loaf can be cut into servings for two and packaged.

Try Angel Cream Loaves for a family dessert, and one to prepare ahead of time for guests. It's one that will wait while your last minute attention is given to vegetables or some other part of the menu.

Angel Cream Loaves

- 1 packaged un-iced angel cake loaf
- 1 pint chocolate ice cream
- 1 pint strawberry ice cream
- Sweetened whipped cream
- Fruit Garnish

Slice cake crosswise into three even layers (use toothpicks in sides of cake as markers for even slices). Soften ice cream slightly. Cut chocolate ice cream into 4 even slices. Arrange on bottom layer of cake. Cut strawberry ice cream into 4 even slices. Arrange slices on second layer of cake. Spread to cover cake. Cover with top layer. Cut bar in half or into smaller portions. Wrap securely in foil or other self-sealing material. Store in freezer. Before serving frost with sweetened whipped cream, or if preferred, slice and serve with sweetened strawberries. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

HOMES FOR REFUGEES

In the Sai Kung area, Hong Kong, 20 Chinese refugee families who live on their fishing junks will soon move into new houses on land. CARE is buying construction materials for 20 homes, at $800 each. The fishermen will repay the cost by putting $5 to $8 a month into a cooperative fund for future community development projects.

EARN AS THEY LEARN

At needlework schools in Ceylon, girls being trained on CARE sewing machines begin to earn by selling garments made in class. Profits are split: 60 per cent to the pupil, 20 per cent to the teacher, 20 per cent to the school. Machines, nonation-priced at $75 through CARE, New York 16, N. Y., are needed in many countries to teach young people and adults self-supporting skills.

BUILDING PROGRESS

Through deliveries of CARE woodworking tool kits, an estimated 82,000 men and boys across the world have been trained and equipped to build improvements in their villages and earn a living as carpenters. It costs $20 to send one of the kits to a village workshop, vocational school or graduate through CARE, New York 16, N. Y.

In the poorest sections of Saigon, South Vietnam, most school children own one notebook in which they do their lessons, then erase the writing to use the pages repeatedly. gabby doodle from needle says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
Some of the fellers at the country store Saturday night brung up this item of crows and the national corn shucking that was discussed a few weeks back.

One old feller allowed as how maybe we was being a little too unfriendly with the crows. He said he could recollect his Grandpa saying onct that crows was exceeding the farmer in prosperity. That was right after the Civil War when crows was outnumbering the farmer about 50 to 1. His Grandpa was living in Georgia at the time and he claimed that on account of the Yankees had stole all the silverware, it was the crows that showed the farmers how to eat corn on the cob. His Grandpa claimed this was a new invention and a big help to the farmer in them days.

In return for this favor said his Grandpa, the farmer allowed the crows to have part of the corn. Race relations was real good.

Then come hard times and the Government started claiming part of the corn. Ever since then, claims this feller, the crows and the farmers has been fighting fer what's left. The farmers has now got the crows outnumbered about 10 to 1 and this has about starved the crows out. Hhe says that unless Congress makes a distress area out of some of the cornfields, they ain't going to be any crows left by the time Bobby Kennedy runs fer President in 1968. He is in favor of not being too hard on the crows.

Zeke Grubb said he'd been thinking about that plan to have the Senator from Iowa or the Senator from Indiana to set at the head corn pile at this national corn shucking and he's afraid it'll cause hard feeling in other sections of the country. In these states, says Zeke, corn is mostly throwed to the hogs, and in the South, fer instant, it is raised mostly to eat and drink.

Clem Webster allowed as how the safe thing to do was to git some neutral feller like General MacArthur to set at the head corn pile. Clem said that if the good General would accept the invitation, he would personal-present him with some gifts at the ceremonies. Clem said he'd whittle him a shucking peg and a corn - stalk flute that would play up to Csharp, and take a little straw and weave him a bonnet from corn shucks.

The General is well knowed fer his corn - cob pipes and Ed Doolittle said he'd whittle him one from a white cob, use a heating iron on it and git the stem from a cane stalk down on the creek. Ed said he'd make it so pritty the General would fergit he was mad at Harry Truman.

We'd apprecate it, Mister Editor, if you'd sound out the General on our proposition.

Yours truly,
Gabby

The Press Battles for its Freedom
JOHN PETER ZENGER was arrested "for printing and publishing several seditious libels dispersed throughout his journals or newspapers..."
Zenger was a New York printer in the days when Governor Cosby ruled the colony. Governor Cosby ruled in such an autocratic, overbearing manner that several indignant citizens started a newspaper to arouse the public against his tyranny. Zenger undertook to publish the newspaper.
Zenger was thrown into prison, and his bail was fixed at 800 pounds, a large sum for those days and quite beyond his ability to furnish. He stayed in jail for months, and his situation appeared hopeless.
The case finally was called to the attention of Andrew Hamilton, a distinguished Pennsylvania lawyer, who took up Zenger's cause as a public service. Hamilton forced the case to trial, and his speech to the jury, which led to Zenger's acquittal, is a ringing statement of what the press in America must still vigilantly fight for.
All men have the right, Hamilton maintained, "publicly to remonstrate the abuses of power...and to assert with courage the sense they have of the blessing of liberty...and their resolution at all hazards to preserve it."
Today in our country encroachments by governments and private interests alike upon freedom of the press are counter to law. Nevertheless, even today the press must battle constantly to keep that freedom intact.
