Bulletins

AT A TIME WHEN we are being asked by our national leaders to cut down on expenses, the U.S. Postal Service is planning new, costly programs with which to yoke the users of the mails.

First off, the Postal Service plans to ask for a rate increase from 15 cents to 20 cents on one ounce of first class mail. That's a flat 33-1/3 per cent increase in postage, and will affect all mailers, large or small.

Although the Postal Service argues that the United States has the lowest postal rate of any of the major countries, it is almost mind-boggling to realize how swiftly the rates have escalated in recent years.

As it now stands, you can make a telephone call between Friona and Bovina, one minute, for ten cents or less (we have had several for eight cents). You can call, Friona to Hereford for under 20 cents.

Looks as though the postal service may be trying, purposely, to cut down its volume by forcing mail users to use the mails less and the telephone more.

But there is a certain amount of mailing which has to be done, and users of the mails will end up paying through the nose for first class mail, if the latest proposal goes through.

Then, the U.S. Postal Service is plotting to add four numbers to our zip code system, giving everyone a nine-digit zip code number.

Almost anyone could figure that this little question will add up to more cost, less service and more red tape. Guess who's getting stuck with the bill as usual...YOU (us), good old Middle America.

The nine-digit zip code is being touted as a "money saver" for the post office because a computer system will be set up to do the mail sorting and do away with a number of employees.

Can you imagine the mess our mail will be in, if a computer is put in charge of it? Have you ever had any experience complaining to a computer? And after the machinery is installed, how many employees do you think will be eliminated? Probably none.

Individuals who write letters can simply refuse to use the large number on their envelopes, because the computer will not work on handwritten addresses anyway. It only works on typed mailing labels.

Publishing firms, magazines, mail order companies and businesses which have extensive mailing lists will be under the thumb of the Postal Service, because they depend on the post office for their second class mailing permits.

It will cost these companies into the millions of dollars to rework their mailing lists, buy new postage meters, etc., to implement the nine-digit zip code system. Guess who will have these costs passed along to them? You're right again...it's YOU, the consumer of Middle America.

Now, for the final coupe de grace. In order to make cutbacks for budget purposes, and attempt to go along with President Reagan's budget recommendations, the Postal Service says it will "probably" have to eliminate Saturday mail deliveries.

Isn't that about average? Here, the postal authorities have proposed (1) an inflationary increase on the cost of postage and (2) a mind-boggling, nine-digit zip code system, which even the computers won't understand, and top it all off with a proposal for less service.

When you think of all the Monday holidays the postal service has (one just this week), you'll realize that we will be faced with only four days of mail service many weeks in the year.

After you've had time to digest this prospect, I think you'll agree that it's time to write your congressman again.

Vega Edges Ponies; Take 'Robin' Title

District 3-AA boys' basketball playoff took place in Hereford Monday night at La Plata Gymnasium with Vega taking the round-robin title, 56-48.

Leading Vega to the title was Scotty Cook, tossing in 29 points for the Longhorns.

Bovina fell behind at the beginning, but finished the first half leading Vega by one point, 22-21. Vega came back fired up in the third quarter with Cook scoring 16 points during this time period. Vega scored 20 points to the Mustangs' 14 in the third quarter, finishing with the Longhorns leading 41-36.

Bovina had 22 turnovers and hit only four points from the charity line.

The loss puts the Mustangs in second place in district round-robin action, with a record of 20-5 for the season and 9-2 in district.

As a result of losing the District 3-AA round-robin playoff, the Mustangs are seeded second in the district tournament, which will begin in Hereford Thursday.

The Mustangs will face third-seeded Springlake-Earth in the first-round at 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

The Fillies, having finished third in district play, will play second-seeded Kress at 4 p.m. Thursday in the tournament tipoff game.

Only winners advance in the tourney. See brackets on Page 6, this issue.

Deadline Announced For Signing Forms

Bovina Independent School District announces that the deadline to apply for the 1981 tax relief for 1981 agricultural landowners is April 1, 1981.

Q. What is agricultural use evaluation?

A. Agricultural use evaluation is a alternate method of determining the value for property tax purposes on land that is used in agriculture. The value is calculated according to the agricultural income from the use of the land for agricultural purposes. It is based on a five year average income determined by categories of similar land.

Q. How do I receive this benefit?
A. You must apply with the tax office before April 1, 1981.

Q. What do I have to tell them to apply?

A. You are only required to report the number of acres in agricultural use and the type of use for the past seven years.

Q. Who qualifies for this tax relief?

A. Every agricultural landowner qualifies for this unless the owner is an alien or a business entity owned to a majority extent by an alien who is required to register under federal law.

Q. If my farm or ranch income increases, will my taxes increase?

A. Not necessarily, since this evaluation method is by category, it does not punish a farmer or rancher for his above average efforts which produce above average income. All property is based on a five year average so a rapid increase in any given year will not increase the average proportionally. Finally, it is easier to pay higher taxes in years when incomes are higher. The method of evaluation will never be higher than the other fair market value.

Q. Can this method raise my taxes?

The law provides that the tax assessor make available to the applicant the value under this method to compare with the value under the fair market value of the previous year (also the article 8 section 1-d value if it is a different value). Then the landowner would simply not apply if the agricultural use evaluation were higher than another method, so that no taxpayer would receive a higher evaluation on his land because of this method.

READY FOR SHOW...Kevin and Bernard Koelzer are shown putting the final touches on their project barrows prior to Tuesday's Bovina Jr. Livestock Show.

Show. Bovina showmen are entering their animals in the Parmer County Jr. Livestock Show Friday in Friona.

Record Turnout Is Expected For Show

A near-record number of entries are expected for the 34th annual Parmer County Jr. Livestock Show February 19-21 in Friona, at the Community Center-Showbarn.

Around 275 barrows, 150 sheep and 30 steers are expected to be entered by 4-H Club and Future Farmers from throughout Parmer County.

The Bovina 4-H & FFA show was held here Tuesday in beautiful 75-degree weather. Complete results of the show will be printed in next week's edition of the Blade.

A change in the schedule for the 1981 show will find the barrow judging beginning at 8 a.m. Friday, due to the size of that entry list, and the sheep show being moved back to 4 p.m.

The steer judging will begin at 8 p.m. Friday night, making time changes for all three divisions of the show.

Animals will be weighed in on Thursday, and classification of sheep will also be held that day.

The annual show concludes as usual on Saturday with an auction sale beginning at 1 p.m., with the top animals from the show making the sale.

Judges for the 1981 show will be Marcus Phillips, Hereford vo-ag instructor, barrows; Joe Ed Wise, Dawson County Agent, Lamesa, lambs; and Spencer Tanksley, Bailey County Agent, Muleshoe, judging the steers.

For a more detailed look at the prospective show, plus a summary of past county shows, see section two of this issue.

Defective Control Is Potential Danger

The manufacturer of "Unitrol" fuel control mechanisms used on certain liquid propane gas water heaters is renewing its efforts to publicize and correct a potential defect which may cause severe burn injuries and deaths resulting from explosion and fires.

Since 1954, when the fuel controls first were sold to hot water heater manufacturers, there have been at least 48 deaths and 89 severe burn injuries from explosions of water heaters equipped with these gas controls.

The program to replace the old gas controls with new ones is being conducted by Robertshaw Controls Company of Richmond, Va., in cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. The manufacturer also is reissuing a national alert to warn consumers of the severe risk posed by continued use of water heaters equipped with the controls.

The warning covers the "Unitrol" model 110 and model 200 gas controls used to regulate the flow of LP (liquid propane) gas to water heaters. These controls, manufactured by Robertshaw's Grayson Controls Division of Long Beach, Ca., about 25 years ago, contain a potentially defective valve which can cause a leak and subsequent explosion and fire.

Approximately 1,000 of the potentially defective controls still are believed to be in use nationwide. Many of these controls may be found on water heaters located in rural areas, such as in homes, on farms, in vacation or weekend homes, or in hunting or fishing camps. (LP gas commonly is used to fuel appliances in rural areas due to the unavailability of natural gas lines.)

The potentially defective controls were sold to approximately 110 water heater manufacturers from December, 1954, through February, 1957. The controls include Unitrol models 110 and 200, showing any date code which includes the letters W or X, or the letter combinations LV, AY, BY or CY.

Consumers can identify the affected units by looking for "Unitrol 110" on the face of the control, or for "Unitrol 200" on the temperature dial on the front of the control. The controls are located near the bottom of the water heater. Date codes are stamped next to the gas pilot outlet which is located on the bottom side of the control and to the right. Use of a small mirror will aid consumers in reading the date code more easily.

In 1974, Robertshaw notified CPSC of the potential defect in the gas controls, and subsequently instituted a program to repair the devices.

Consumers who own LP gas water heaters should check the heater control to determine if a Unitrol model 110 or 200 with a date code mentioned above has been used. If so, consumers then should contact Robertshaw at its toll-free number 800-421-1130. In California call 800-262-1173. Following a free inspection the firm will install new controls if appropriate.

Anyone wishing to verify the model numbers or the brand name should contact CPSC's toll-free Hotline at 800-638-8326; in Maryland, 800-492-8363; and in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, 800-638-8333.

Inflation fighters: SALT

Pour salt liberally on a dropped raw egg. Let set 10-15 minutes. Pick up with paper towel.

Sprinkle a little salt into the frying pan to prevent spattering.

To brighten up a bathtub which has yellowed, rub with a solution of salt and turpentine.

Sprinkle salt on damp mud spots on carpet. Give the salt at least 15 minutes to soak up the mud then vacuum up and away.

Pour salt on grease spill immediately. The salt will absorb the grease and prevent staining.

Anytime your washing machine overflows from too many suds, sprinkle with salt. Suds will disappear.

Fleas will "flee," if you place some fresh pine needles in his doghouse or underneath his bed pad. Or, salt the crevices of his doghouse and wash him periodically with salt and water.

Salted boiling water will immediately kill grass or weeds growing between sections of cement walk.

Following a spill in the oven, sprinkle with salt immediately. When oven is cool brush off burnt food and wipe with a damp sponge.

There is less need to scrub the fireplace if you throw salt on the logs occasionally. This will reduce the soot by 2/3.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Casper C. Naegle of Bovina. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Norton of Farwell.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory chiffon designed with a closely fitted bodice of alencon lace. Pearls encrusted the lace bodice. Scallops accented the Queen Anne neckline. Her long sheer bishop sleeves were tucked at the shoulder and fell into deep lace cuffs, which formed points over the hands. Scallops and clusters of pearls accented the cuffs, which had self fabric button enclosures. The skirt of chiffon formed a tulip front which had an underlay of deep inverted v-lace encrusted with pearls. The underlining was edged with lace. Her gown swept to back fullness and extended into a chapel length train.

She wore a matching lace mantilla designed with deep scalloped edges and encrusted with pearls, which extended past the length of the gown. Appliques accented the back of the veil. She carried a hogarth arrangement of stephanotis, ivory roses and baby's breath, with seed pearls, French net and streamers of picot ribbon throughout.

For something old, she carried a lace handkerchief belonging to her mother. Her dress was new. She borrowed a Bible and wore the traditional blue garter, made by the groom's maternal grandmother.

At the center of the altar was a double arch candelabra with palm trees on either side. In front of the double arch was a heart candelabra with an arrangement of ivory roses. Palms and leatherleaf fern flanked the seven-branch spiral candelabra on either side. Two large bouquets of yellow roses with mixed flowers graced either side of the altar with rainbow ribbon streamers. The first two rows of pews were adorned with mixed flower bouquets with ribbon streamers. A unity candle was lighted by the couple and stood at the front of the first row of pews.

Dianna Naegle of Canyon, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sharmy Christian of Farwell, Sandi Koontz of Lubbock, Joan Carson of Lubbock and Debe Longbotham of Canyon.

The honor attendants wore formal gowns of chiffon, each in a rainbow color, designed with blousen draped necktop and split sleeves. A peplum accented the closely fitted bodice with a tiny satin ribbon at the waist. The skirts fell unadorned to the hemlines. They carried arm bouquets of mixed flowers with rainbow ribbon streamers and matching hairpieces.

Vick Christian served as best man. Groomsmen were Charles Christian, Dayne Mitchell, Russ Jones, all of Farwell, and Cap Naegle, Jr., brother of the bride, of Bovina. Serving as ushers were Ray Norton, cousin of the groom, David Norton, uncle of the groom, and James Castleberry, all of Farwell, and Jason Jamison of Marble Falls, cousin of the groom.

Flower girl was Kimberly Kirkpatrick of Bovina. She was dressed in a yellow organza formal, and carried an off-white wicker basket filled with yellow daisies and decorated with rainbow ribbons. She wore a matching hairpiece. Ring-bearer was Corey Kirkpatrick of Bovina. He wore a black tuxedo with a yellow shirt and carried a hand-made needlepoint ring pillow, designed by the bride's sister, with the bride and groom's names and date of the wedding on it.

The bride's mother wore a formal length peach chiffon dress with a chiffon jacket tying at the waist. A gardenia corsage with pearls and ivory ribbon completed her outfit.

The groom's mother wore a formal length violet crepe georgette dress with a peplum accented bodice, a gardenia corsage completed her outfit.

Organ music was provided by Mrs. Joe Bradburn of Bovina. Soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Sorley of Bovina. They sang "If" prior to the wedding procession, and Mr. Sorley sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bride. The wedding table was covered with a floor length ivory crepe cloth, topped with a quilted valance. The centerpiece was a four-light candelabra filled with ivory roses, baby's breath and fern. The four-tiered wedding cake had hand-molded flowers cascading down the sides and was topped with a bouquet of hand-molded flowers in the rainbow colors. Appointments on the table were brass. Fruit punch was served, along with white chocolate mints, hors' doeuvre' of sausage balls, turkey puffs, beef turnovers and cheese rolls. A brass coffee service along with additional snacks and tidbit trees were served from the counter in the den. Another table draped with a matching cloth, held a brass flowing champagne fountain. The couple toasted each other with brass goblets from the fountain.

Serving cake and punch were Nina Briggs, Hillary Stotter and Carla Cortis, all of Los Angeles, Calif., friends of the bride. Mary Jane Wilson and Karen Kirkpatrick of Bovina were also members of the houseparty. All wore gardenia corsages adorned with rainbow ribbons. Arrangements of mixed flowers with rainbow ribbons, Swedish ivy and baskets of mixed daisies decorated the home.

After a wedding trip to Colorado the couple will be home at 207 3rd St., Farwell, Texas.

The bride is a graduate of Bovina High School. She attended Pacific Palisades High School in California studying art for a semester, and also participated in a 45 day American Leadership Study Group tour of Europe studying art. She attended W.T.S.U. in Canyon.

The groom is a graduate of Farwell High School. He was employed by Santa Fe Railroad and is now engaged in farming south of Farwell.

On January 17, a "spice-recipe" luncheon was hosted by Mrs. Gabe Anderson Jr. of Bovina, and Mrs. Gabe D. Anderson III of Lazbuddie at the Colonial Country Club in Clovis, New Mexico. Also on January 17, a "bed and bath" shower was given by friends of the groom's family in the home of Mrs. S.A. Torgeson of Clovis, N.M.

Mixed bouquets of flowers adorned each table. The group was served hors' doeuvres and punch prior to the dinner, which consisted of bar-b-que brisket of beef, ribs, baked potatoes, green beans, relishes and hot bread, with peach cobbler for dessert.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF TAX EXEMPTIONS AVAILABLE TO HOMEOWNERS

The Bovina Independent School District tax office is currently accepting applications for residence homestead exemptions. The deadline for filing is April 1, 1981. Applications should be filed as early as possible to avoid inconvenience to the homeowner.

Two types of homestead exemptions from school taxes are available to taxpayers who owned their residence homesteads in this school district on January 1 of this year. First, the general homestead exemption is available to all homeowners and exempts $5,000 from the market value of the homestead.

Second, any person who is 65 years of age or older or who is disabled can be exempted an additional $10,000 from the market value of the homestead. Proof of age or disability may be necessary.

"Disabled," in this case, refers to the definition found in the Federal Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance Act under the Social Security Administration. Disability is defined as inability to engage in any substantial gainful employment which exists in the national economy, or, in the case of someone who is 55 and blind, inability by reason of such blindness to engage in the employment in which he was previously engaged. The person claiming disability does not necessarily have to be drawing benefits from Social Security.

Homeowners age 65 or older who apply for their exemption will be granted a tax freeze. If application is not made, the tax freeze will be lost for this year.

Application forms are being mailed to all homeowners who qualified for a homestead exemption in 1980. If you did not receive an application, or if you have questions about qualifying for exemptions or filing application forms, contact the school tax office at 806-238-1448.

Application forms may be picked up at the tax office at Bovina School tax office located in Ridgelea Elementary on West Hwy. 86.

Rhea Homemakers Club Met Feb. 11 At Old House

The Rhea Extension Homemaker's Club met Wednesday evening, February 11 at Cecelia Schueler's "Old House" at Rhea.

Gay Taylor, president, called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with "My wedding date and how many years I've been married." Some of the members shared their wedding pictures with the group. The pictures brought back memories of smaller waists, more hair, etc.

Sue Smith read the minutes of the previous meeting and gave the treasurer's report. Ona Patterson reported the Gaylene Varner Fund is now $1087.00. This fund is at the Friona State Bank and is open for memorials, remembrances, etc. Gaylene is the 16 year old blind granddaughter of club member, Sarah Dean. The goal to buy the voice box for Gaylene is $10,000.

The Rhea group is the only Extension Club still active in Parmer County. The members voted to stay with the Extension Service for another year.

Laura Jacobs, CEA, Home Economist from Farwell, told the group about the South Plains Fibers-Naturally Contest at Lubbock on March 26. Anyone interested in sewing and modeling garments for the contest can contact Laura at 806-481-3619 for details.

Laura will be attending the District II Extension Homemaker's Meeting at Seminole, Texas on March 24. Cecelia Schueler was elected as the Rhea Club delegate to go to this district meeting.

Allo Reeve of Friona gave the program for the evening. She showed the sixteen brides of the White House dolls she has dressed and gave a delightful talk about each bride. Each doll is dressed from head to toe in beautiful, detailed dresses and veils like the brides wore on their wedding days. One elegantly dressed groom doll was shown.

Cecelia Schueler served strawberry and lime dream pie, punch and coffee to the following club members: Sue Smith, Gay Taylor, Ona Patterson, Martha and Donna Schueler. Guests attending the meeting were Lorna Schueler, Allo Reeve and Laura Jacobs.

The March 10 meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at Martha Schueler's home with Laura Jacobs presenting the program.

Bovina FFA News

By BRET WHITTEN
Reporter

National FFA Week is scheduled for the week of February 21 through February 28. The Bovina FFA members will be joining with nearly 485,000 other members to observe this occasion.

The theme for this year's observance is "FFA-Preparing For Progress." There are 920 FFA Chapters in Texas. Many of these chapters will be planning special activities at this time.

National FFA Week always includes George Washington's birthday in observance of his leadership in promoting scientific farming practices. Washington is considered the patron saint of the FFA and has come to symbolize the FFA Treasurer.

Organized in 1928, the FFA promotes leadership, cooperation and citizenship among high school vocational agriculture students. Vocational agriculture education in high school prepares students for careers in agricultural production, marketing, processing and service.

The traditions of FFA have held strong and produced a mighty work force for food and fiber to meet the needs of our nation and the world.

Successful agricultural leaders of today are the testimony. Vocational agricultural education is an American success story of Learning By Doing.

Last Friday most members of the Bovina FFA Chapter traveled to Clovis, New Mexico, to visit the exhibit "The Champ." After seeing this exhibit the members were guests of the Safeway Milk Plant to observe its operations. Both of these were very interesting to the members.

Fillies, Ponies Split Final Games

Bovina's Varsity teams hosted the Farwell teams and traveled to Vega last week for the final games of the season.

In girls action against Farwell the Fillies were downed by the Steerettes, 46-42. Farwell started out ahead until Lisa Shepherd's two points tied the game at 33 with 5:44 left in the final quarter. The lead see-sawed several times and tied with 1:40 of playing time remaining. Janene Berry's two pointer from the field and two free shots with six seconds on the clock took the win for the Steerettes.

The Fillies took on Vega to win their sixth district game, 51-44, in the final round-robin district game.

The Fillies were one point ahead (13-12) at the end of first quarter action. The game was tied four times during the second quarter. Bovina led by two points at halftime. The maroon fens then pulled ahead to take the win.

The Fillies finished the round robin District 3-A season in third place with six wins and four losses.

The Mustangs took a 73-45 victory over the Farwell Steers. The game was dominated by the Mustangs as they led 14-7; 34-16; 49-26 as each period ended. Four Mustangs scored in double figures.

Vega Longhorns handed the Mustangs their first district loss, 62-57, Friday night at Vega.

Lynn Read scored first, after being fouled in the first two minutes of the game. Vega didn't take the lead until

Windham Leaves Enviably Show Record

An era came to an end for the Parmer County Junior Livestock Show with the 1980 show.

Scotty Windham, longtime vocational agriculture instructor at Lazbuddie High School and director of the project animal activities at Lazbuddie, was participating in his last county show.

Windham accepted a position at Abernathy High School following the 1979-80 term, after 21 years with the Lazbuddie School system. The new vo-ag instructor at Lazbuddie is Rick Copp.

And Windham's students gave Scotty a good "going away" present by sweeping all three of the 1980 show's grand championship awards.

Although Lazbuddie exhibitors have had some outstanding feats connected with the county show, Windham said it was the first time since the grand champion sheep award was re-instated that exhibitors from Lazbuddie had swept all three of the championship awards.

Under Windham's watchful eye, the project animal program at Lazbuddie yielded spectacular results. The name Lazbuddie has become synonymous with winning stock show titles.

Lazbuddie showmen achieved a feat which may never be duplicated again, when they captured the Parmer County Junior Livestock Show's barrow title for 16 consecutive years, 1961 through 1976. In a number of those years, Lazbuddie showmen swept virtually every breed title in the barrow competition.

In Windham's 21 years with the Lazbuddie junior livestock program, youngsters from his community won 18 barrow titles and six county steer titles. Forty-five class champions were won in the sheep show (as far as the judging went for several years), plus two sheep titles since that award was reinstated.

And Windham's students scored impressive wins at the major shows as well, during his tenure here.

Vandi Tarter captured the county show's barrow title in 1980 with a Duroc. The win by the Duroc breed tied it with Hampshires for the most titles in the county show, eight. Durocs have won the title in 1977, 1978 and 1980.

Poland China entries have won six county titles, crossbreeds have won five titles, mainly in recent years, and Chester Whites have won four times.

Phillip Jesko of Lazbuddie had the grand champion steer in the 1980 show, an 1156-pound Angus. The win was only the fourth for an Angus steer in the county show. Hereford steers lead the list with at least 18 titles.

Steer breeds are not noted in our records for 1950, 1951, 1954, 1957 and 1959.

Crossbred steers have won the county's steer title four times.

The win by Miss Tarter in 1980 gave Lazbuddie its 21st barrow title overall in the past 33 years. Friona is next with six titles.

Friona showmen lead in steer titles with 15, to 10 for Farwell.

SIX-MONTH REPORT

Friona Industries' Earnings Increase

Friona Industries, Inc. had net earnings of $1.9 million, or 85 cents per share, on revenues of $101 million during the first six months of its 1981 fiscal year.

This compared with net earnings of $1.8 million, or 82 cents per share, on revenues of $93 million for the first half of the prior fiscal year.

All of the Company's industry segments reported profits. Custom Feeding was the leading producer of operating profits with $2,017,000.

Commercial Feeds generated $835,000 in operating profits, up 24 per cent for the six months, as favorable profit margins were maintained.

Company Cattle had operating profits of $683,000, three times greater than in the prior year's first half. Higher cattle prices, primarily in the first quarter, helped boost profits considerably.

Animal Health Supplies achieved an 18 per cent gain in operating profits and totaled $497,000. Increased sales of higher profit margin items assisted in this gain.

Grain had operating profits of $319,000, up 60 per cent. The sale of grain to outside customers was primarily responsible.

Operating profits from Meat Processing amounted to $402,000, a decline of 36 per cent due to increases in raw ingredient costs and expenses incurred for a new distribution system.

For the second quarter ended December 31, 1980, net earnings were $552,000, or 25 cents per share, on revenues of $51 million compared with net earnings of $751,000, or 34 cents per share, on revenues of $51 million in the second quarter of fiscal 1980.

The performances of Commercial Feeds, Animal Health Supplies, Company Cattle and Grain showed improvement over the same three months of the prior year.

However, Meat Processing registered a small operating loss of about $14,000 and Company Cattle had a loss of $217,000, which was still less than the $331,000 deficit in the comparable quarter of last year.

"A decline in both the price and numbers of Company Cattle marketed and start up costs for our new distribution system for Meat Processing were the primary reasons for the losses in those two industry segments," said Ron Davenport, president.

At the end of the second quarter the Company was serving approximately 750 Wendy's restaurants with hamburger meat, cheese and other dairy items.

Custom Feeding had good operating profits of $954,000, but were down 17 per cent when compared to a very outstanding operating profit of $1.1 million in the second quarter of last year. An 8 per cent reduction in the average number of cattle in the Company's feed yards and higher raw ingredient costs were the chief causes.

"High interest costs have caused a reluctance on the part of cattle feeding customers to place cattle in feed yards which has been detrimental to our custom feeding operations," he added.

Commercial Feeds operating profits of $468,000 were 2 per cent higher. Animal Health Supplies continued an uptrend with an 18 per cent gain to $313,000. Grain had an almost threefold increase with total operating profits of $253,000.

"There are indications that total meat supplies, including pork and poultry, will be lower in the coming months. This could generate more demand for beef and higher prices," said Davenport.

CHAMPION LAMB....Sean Mason of Lazbuddie entered the Grand Champion Lamb at the Parmer County Junior Livestock Show last year. The animal was first named breed champion of the fine wool division.

Around The House In Parmer County

By LAURA JACOBS

More than ever before, Texans want to know how to take better care of themselves and how to prevent serious health problems.

"The National Health Quiz," a one-hour self-evaluation health special will help you evaluate your risk of suffering from the four leading causes of death: heart disease, cancer, stroke, and auto accident.

This health special is being broadcast on KENW TV Channel 3 on February 15, at 11 p.m., C.S.T. and repeating February 19 at 9 p.m., C.S.T.

Answer sheets for the public to use during the program are available at the Parmer County Extension Office, second floor of the courthouse in Farwell.

Viewers who participate will test their general medical knowledge and special risk factors. During the test the answer sheets help make the scoring easier.

It will be helpful if you can find out your height, weight, blood pressure, blood cholesterol level, family history for diabetes and the age at which your grandparents died before the program.

The average cholesterol count is 150-270 milligrams per 100 milliliters of blood or about 1/16 of an ounce of cholesterol in a quart of blood.

It's important to take the National Health Quiz, because with the results, each viewer can identify their own risks and change them to extend their useful-life expectancy.

Remember the only way you can fail the health quiz is by not taking it!

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

President Reagan has vowed to help reduce federal spending by cutting the fat out of many established government programs. There are many misused "Great Society" programs that can and should be cut and among these is the "Legal Services Corporation" of which the Texas Rural Legal Aid, Inc. is a big part.

The Conservative Caucus, Inc., among others, is promoting a drive to eliminate federal funding for the Legal Services Corporation. To quote them, "If America is as conservative as the polls tell us, why do you keep losing, and the liberals keep winning? Especially on issues like taxes, welfare, crime, busing, defense, quotas, food stamps, OSHA, and energy. One big reason for liberal victories is the tax-payer funded Legal Services Corporation."

Last year the American Taxpayer paid over $300,000,000 in taxes to support an elite corps of several thousand government funded lawyers and several thousand more of their full time assistants. These people do not fall under Civil Service so they are free to become social and political activists. There are about 17,000 people employed by this Federally funded legal services project. Leaders in the program are committed to the implementation of a radical social and political agenda which includes--organization of unions of prison convicts, who seek (and sometimes receive) social security benefits, political rights, etc.;--lawsuits by young children to challenge the authority of their parents on matters like access to personal mail, choice of schools, etc.;--expansion of the food stamp program to college students from affluent families and people who have voluntarily decided not to seek gainful employment--and lawsuits promoting racial quotas in education and employment.

In essence, the LSC funds a nationwide network of liberal activists who are spending our money to socialize America.

Our community is well aware of what the Texas Rural Legal Aid (TRLA) has been doing locally. The incidents during the vegetable harvest last summer were the most publicized and the TRLA filed several lawsuits against agricultural producers and shippers based on labor grievances. It is interesting to note that, to the best of my knowledge, all of the suits filed, relative to agricultural labor wages, could have been investigated and settled by the Department of Labor. This harassment, however, is not limited to the agricultural industry. These lawyers are constantly filing senseless and frivolous law suits and are promoting discrimination in our community where Latin is pitted against Anglo to the point where our school children are feeling the pressure. It is ironic that they are using your tax money to sue you. The TRLA leadership readily admits that over 80 per cent of the law suits that they file are against government entities. Our tax money is working against us.

Our goal should be to completely eliminate the Federal Legal Services Program and to reject any and all funding for it. There is no way that regulations can be enacted to control the abuses of the Legal Services

Corp., nor can it be reformed by replacing the Corporation's Board of Directors. The LSC is now operating under emergency funding at the same level ($300 million) as last year. It is my understanding that the President can stop this funding at any point.

If we, as citizens, are to stop this foolishness, it would behoove everyone to write our Legislators in Washington demanding that funding be stopped for this program. You should also contact Vice-President George Bush, Senator Orrin Hatch (Chairman of the Senate Labor & Human Resources Committee, which oversees LSC), Attorney General William French Smith and David Stockman (Director of the U.S. Office of Management and Budget).

Let's support our President in his efforts to reduce federal spending and do away with damaging programs. Collectively, we can make something happen.

Sincerely,
Wes Fisher

Make Plans For Use Of Excess Water

We've had several complaints recently. Folks developing new irrigation wells for production have been pumping their water down the county road bar ditch. This is not only a waste of valuable water and energy, but it is a violation of the rules of the Water District.

Many irrigators who allow their water to escape during the development of a new well most often have not planned how they can conveniently use the water before they begin the drilling of the new well.

An excellent example of groundwater conservation was observed in Parmer County awhile back. During the process of pumping out a new irrigation well, overflow from the slush pit was used to prewater twenty-five rows or about five acres on a farm near Lazbuddie. Said the operator, "I would value that salvaged water at approximately thirty dollars an acre."

Operators planning to develop new wells or rework old ones should plan ahead and put that potential waste water to good use.

It says it's an ST 491A...

BUT IS IT?

1. FLANGE NOT HARDENED.
2. NOT SELF-ALIGNED.
3. UNSAFE LUBRICATION.

The bearing shown here has the part number ST 491A stamped right on it. That's a clear cut case of false impersonation for at least three reasons:

1. The imported "look alike" bearing does not have hardened flange plates. The flanges run in the dirt; they will wear rapidly and lose their ability to properly support the arbor bolt.
2. Their bearing is not self-aligning. The genuine IH ST 491A will absorb arbor bolt functional deflection, reducing bearing load stresses to avoid early bearing failure.
3. This "will-fit" has a threaded grease fitting; its loss will permit internal contamination. The fitting on a genuine IH ST 491A is pressed in from the inside to avoid this problem.
