"Responsibility in state government is the number one issue," said Jones, "With state spending increasing at the rate it is, the needs and demands of the people will require responsible elected officials to determine the necessary programs with equitable funding."

As the campaign progresses, Jones indicated he will issue statements as to his beliefs on important issues presented to him by the voters in the new district.

The new 24th Senatorial District is composed of thirteen counties: Brown, Coleman, Concho, Coryell, Hamilton, Lampasas, McCulloch, McLennan, Menard, Mills, Runnels, San Saba and Taylor. Abilene is in the northwest section and Waco is on the eastern boundary.

Fruits And Tendencies Of Evolution No. 3

4. The doctrine of Evolution Creates an atmosphere tending toward IMMORALITY. When young people are led to believe that man is only a part of the evolution process and that he is nothing more than an advanced beast with no soul, what can we expect of their moral outlook? As one youth said: "If I am the same as a dog or cow, then of what consequence are moral standards?" And this is typical of many of today. With some there is no shame in declaring: "I don't believe in God." Others feel no guilt when becoming involved in premarital relations; no sense of remorse when becoming a parasite on society. The popular cry of the day is: "We don't believe in moral codes . . . we want to do as we please."

Parents, educators, politicians and theologians panic when some of these young people become so "animal - like," and they are puzzled to find the cause. Then everything is blamed but the real criminal . . . GODLESS EVOLUTION! When evolution is taught in the classroom and when young people are left with false, misleading impressions, only one fruit will result.

5. Evolution has been instrumental in producing corrupt systems of society. Communism is largely based on atheism and breeds in the atmosphere of atheism. Since the adoption of Marxian philosophy Russia has consistently stressed the hatred of God and all forms of religion; Russia not only denies the existence of God, but makes atheism a necessary premise of the system on which its government is formed. Karl Marx drew heavily on Darwin's concepts of natural selections and survival of the fittest. Read: Matthew 7:16-20.

Sportsmen Take a Tip from the Astronauts

Camper places one Space® blanket beneath his sleeping bag and uses another as a tent fly.

Outdoorsmen are realizing a direct if surprising dividend from space age research in the form of a lightweight superinsulation material which was first developed to protect astronauts and sensitive equipment during NASA moon

The aluminized material was so effective against both sub-zerc and hot temperatures that Thermos, a company famous for vacuum bottles and a wide range of outdoor and camping gear, is using it to make what it calls the Space® sportsman's blanket. Completely waterproof and windproof, the 7'x4'8" blanket has found favor among campers and hunters as a poncho, ground cloth, wind-breaker, duck blind or spare blanket. Skiers use the blankets on wind-buffeted chair lifts, and snow mobilers use them as weather covers. Football lovers find them handy in the stands during cold fall

They have grommeted, rustproof corners which enable them to be hung up or tied down and clean easily with a damp cloth. A scant 12 ounces, the Space blanket folds compactly into its own carrying pouch.

The manager of a large sporting goods store recently noticed that many women were buying the blankets. He asked a rather frail looking lady who didn't appear to be the outdoor type what she intended to do with hers.

"It's a gift for my husband," she sighed. "He's a sports not and this is the only piece of equipment I know he doesn't have."
