

Telephone Service Subject Of Meeting

Improved telephone service for Bovina was the subject at a meeting Thursday morning between approximately 20 businessmen and three representatives of General Telephone Co. of the Southwest.

The meeting, which was forceful and sometimes blunt, but friendly, was in Community Room of First State Bank.

After hearing complaints in regard to the telephone service here, C. C. Scott of Brownfield, division manager for General, said, "Obviously, we haven't been giving you (Bovina) the service you've been paying for and are entitled to."

He later went on to say, "We're going to give you better service. This is not just a hollow promise."

"We'll see," a skeptical Bovina businessman replied. The meeting was triggered by the fact that many phones in Bovina were out of order Monday of last week. However, the service of the company has been considered poor by many residents of the town for some time.

Pointed out by the local people was the feeling that the phone company needs a service man stationed here.

The General officials explained that a repairman isn't ordinarily stationed in a town which has less than 1000 phones. Bovina now has 505 phones. Two servicemen are stationed in Friona and serve Bovina from there. Friona has 1260 telephones, the company reps said.

Of Bovina's total of 505, 91 are business telephones, they pointed out.

"We're thru waiting for service," Bob Estes, bank president, who was one of the leaders in arranging the meeting, told the General men.

Representing the telephone company at the meeting, in addition to Scott, were Jerry Keyhoe, district manager for Littlefield, and J. R. Buse, plant supervisor of Littlefield.

Weeds, the farmers tell us, are beginning to be a problem after the heavy rainfall of last month.

Jay Harris was telling a pretty good coffee shop story about the problem.

He says he was out in his weed-infested field doing some farmer-type inspecting. His neighbor, Weldon Dane, drove up and inquired if that was Jay's field at which he was looking.

Harris replied to the effect that he wasn't especially proud to admit it, but he guessed it was.

"Well," Dane said, "I was just checking, I lost a crop that looked something like that one and I thought maybe that was it."

Harris allows as how that was subtle discouragement about an already-bad weed situation.

Gettin out on a limb isn't hard for us to do, Especially when we aren't overly careful.

And we weren't last week when we wrote that the armed robbery at Sands Motel was the first such in the history of the town.

That just wasn't true, we've since learned.

Mrs. Clifford Leake called to tell us her husband, who owns and operates Bovina Service Station and Grocery, was robbed by two armed men some 34 years ago -- in August of '34.

The men, whose names she remembers as being Stallcup and Brown, robbed Leake about one or two o'clock one morning. They used a shotgun as a weapon.

The men had killed a sheriff at Dickens prior to coming here. It was learned later that they had broken into a store at Muleshoe. We believe the Muleshoe breakin happened the same night Leake was robbed, but earlier.

The bandits relieved Leake of $20, some Bull Durham tobacco, candy and a hand pump, such as was used back in those days, and later, to air up automobile tires.

Leake had more money than the twenty; or at least he had until shortly before the robbery. Because of a hunch or for some other reason, he had put the rest of the money in a safe place.

The two men were captured a few days later, Mrs. Leake remembers. Stallcup was electrocuted for the murder of the Dickens sheriff and Brown was given life in prison. They were caught in Amarillo, if we remember the story correctly.

Bedford Caldwell says he remembers a service station attendant being robbed by an armed man here, too, several years ago. That robber was never caught, as Caldwell remembers the story.

So, Bovina hasn't been such a quiet, peaceful place all these years, after all.

Don't be surprised if Bovina doesn't have better telephone service sometime in the future.

Last week's meeting between several businessmen here and telephone company officials (see story a top page one) was, we believe, the best of some three or four sessions like that which we have attended.

Now, it seems the company officials are aware the people here are dissatisfied with the service they've been getting and are ready to do something about it.

We don't know much about running a weekly newspaper, much less a phone company, so

Suspect Jailed At Farwell

Dee Edgar Shepard of Clovis, who has been charged with the armed robbery of Sands Motel in Bovina July 1 is now in Parmer County jail, Deputy Sheriff Henry Minter announced this week.

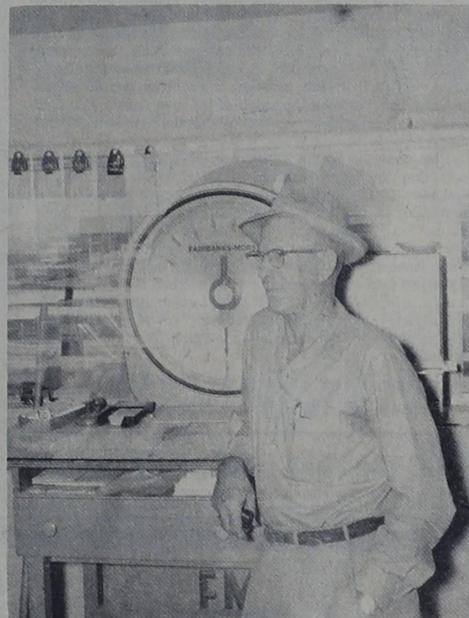

Shepard was picked up by New Mexico law enforcement officials between Clovis and Texico shortly after the robbery and placed in jail in Clovis.

He waived extradition proceeding last week, however, and was transferred to the Parmer County jail in Farwell. The case is scheduled to come before the grand jury during the next term of court, which is set for this month, Minter said.

JOINS WHEAT GROWERS -- Bob Caldwell will begin duties as assistant general manager of Bovina Wheat Growers, Inc. Caldwell has been manager of Adrian Wheat Growers for the past several years.

Assistant General Manager --

Bob Caldwell Joins Staff Of Wheat Growers Here

Bob Caldwell, manager of Adrian Wheat Growers, Inc. for the past several years, has been named assistant general manager of Bovina Wheat Growers, Inc.

Announcement of the filling of the position was made this week by Jim Russell, manager of the cooperative business which handles grain, fertilizer and farm supplies in Bovina and in the Rhea Community.

Caldwell is the son of Mrs. J. R. Caldwell and the late Mr. Caldwell.

He moved to the area -- Oklahoma Lane -- with his family when he was 14. He moved from the country in 1930.

Caldwell went to work for

Adrian Wheat Growers in 1938 after farming in that area for five years and being associated

Monday Shower Totals .13

A shower of rain late Monday night brought relief from high temperatures here.

The moisture total in Bovina was .13 of an inch. Some .30 of an inch was recorded at Rhea with half an inch being reported from areas west of town.

The small amount Monday night brought the total for July to 1.20. June's total rainfall was 7.08 inches.

WEEDS A PROBLEM -- June rains brought a bumper crop of weeds to the area, Bovina included. At left, weeds are shown growing along the curb on North Street. At right, a before and after view is shown as city employees mowed the weeds on First Street. Prior to the mowing this week, the weeds were as tall as those shown at right.

Council Continues Paving Project Plans

Where to pave or where not to pave continues to be the question facing Bovina's city council.

Following a public hearing on the proposed paving project 10 days ago, the council has discussed which blocks to eliminate from the program, if any. This was the main topic at a regular meeting Thursday night and was discussed again with citizens at a special session Monday night.

No decisions had been made through early this week as to which of the proposed 33 blocks won't get the paving. However, some six blocks, at least, will probably be left out of the program because property owners involved do not want the paving.

Details are expected to be worked out in the next few days and the contractor for the project, who is Jake Diel of Muleshoe, may start work as early as July 20, according to Mayor Bedford Caldwell.

In other business at the Thursday night session, Ralph Shirley, Pioneer Natural Gas

Co. representative from Friona, discussed his company's proposed rate increase with the council.

The city, in turn, requested that the company station a service representative here.

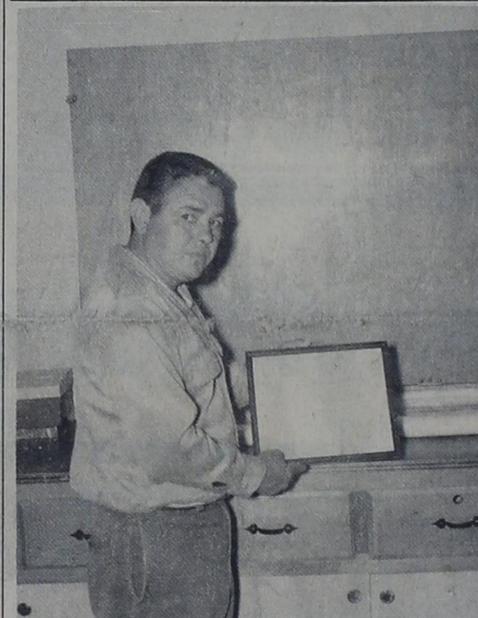

Action on the rate increase was tabled until a future meeting.

Larry Scott submitted a written request to the council to change the zoning in Block 79, which is located at the northwest corner of Third Street and Highway 86. Scott said he wanted to construct a welding shop in the block, near Live Longer Laundry.

No action was taken on the request.

The council discussed with Bill Denney, city marshal, the purchase of police office supplies.

Pat Kunselman, chief of Bovina Volunteer Fire Department, discussed the forthcoming state firemen's school at Texas A&M University. Kunselman and John Wilson, city water superintendent and a member of the fire department, will attend the week-long school, July 17-21, at the city's expense. The city will pay their salaries and expenses for the week.

RECEIVES CERTIFICATE -- Andres "Andy" Garza displays the state certificate he recently received. Garza is employed by the City of Bovina.

For Work Proficiency --

Garza Receives State Certificate

AUSTIN -- An official State Health Department citation for work proficiency has been awarded to Andres (Andy) Garza, plant operations specialist for the Bovina water supply system. The citation reflects the regard in which Garza is held by state water officials.

Signed by the State Health Commissioner and authorities of the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association, the certificate of competency is awarded to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management.

To qualify for certification, a plant operator must have accumulated a prescribed amount of actual work experience. He must also have attended both regional and statewide short schools at which the techniques of water treatment and waste water disposal are taught, and must have passed an examination given by State Health Department sanitary engineers. State law requires that at least one operator per shift be certified for competency by health department engineers, but many operators seek certification on their own time and at their own expense to increase their efficiency as key public servants to their community and state.

The engineers said the attainment is evidence of Garza's efforts to better prepare himself for the duties of his profession.

"The city is proud of Garza and his most recent accomplishment," Mayor Bedford Caldwell said.

Two Vacancies --

School Names New Teachers

Two of three first grade teachers in Bovina Schools have resigned their positions since the end of the school year, Otis Spears, superintendent, announces.

Mrs. Wanda McCracken and Mrs. Johnnye Spikes will teach in the Clovis school system next year.

Mrs. McCracken taught here for the past four years. Mrs. Spikes taught one year.

Recently named to the faculty were a high school math teacher, a junior high English teacher and a first grade teacher.

The math teacher, who will replace Richard Roberts, who resigned at the end of last school year, is Kevin Coffman, a graduate of Texas A&M, Coffman has taught math the past two years at Lockney.

He has done graduate work at Wayland Baptist College and Texas Tech.

Deposits At Bank Increase

Deposits at First State Bank of Bovina as of June 20 were approximately half a million dollars over the same date last year.

The bank's official statement of condition, which appears in this issue of The Blade, shows total deposits of $2,155,307.77. The figure on the same date a year ago was $1,563,421.09.

The June 30 total is down slightly from the March 31 figure of $2,172,663.86.

He is married and has one child at home, a boy, 13.

Named to the junior high English position is Mrs. Violet Robinson of Amarillo. She is a graduate of Howard Payne College at Brownwood and has six years teaching experience. She has a major in English and a minor in Bible. Mrs. Robinson is married and the mother of two children. She has done graduate work at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Signed to one of the first grade positions is Mrs. Lois Jones of Clovis. She is a graduate of Eastern New Mexico University. This will be her first teaching job.

Vacancies remaining include the first grade position and a high school instructor who will be girls basketball coach and assist with junior high coaching.

Reflections

From
The Blade

TEN YEARS AGO
July 3, 1957

Bovina's fourth annual Fourth of July picnic will be tomorrow (Thursday) at the local ball field and city park.

J. W. Wright was installed as Lion Boss for the coming year at a regular Lions Club dinner Thursday evening. The meal and meeting were in Bovina Restaurant.

The Bovina Blade has been judged second best in Texas Press Association 1957 contests for newspapers in towns of less than 2,000 population.

According to figures submitted to the comptroller of the currency by First National Bank of Bovina recently, deposits of the local bank were $175,000 more than last year. Total resources were up $189,000 compared to the same time last year.

Contracts were let this week to Kerr and Middleton of Lubbock for constructing additional farm-to-market roads in Parmer County. Two projects are involved.

Six boys and one adult from Bovina are making final plans this week for the National Boy Scout Jamboree. They will leave Clovis Saturday for St. Louis, Mo., then Valley Forge and New York City.

Carrot growing business will get a good try in the Friona area this year. It will be the first time for this enterprise to be tried on a large scale by many farmers.

The area's biggest wheat harvest since 1949 is buzzing along at a fast pace under a Southwestern heat wave this week, and before the week is over, the peak will likely have passed.

Old Sol turned on the heat across the farming area of the irrigated Plains this week, and farmers responded by turning on their irrigation wells.

The peak of wheat harvest is just passing, but already the progressive farmers of the irrigated High Plains are looking forward to next year's wheat crop.

Six Years Ago
July 5, 1961

Bank deposits in Bovina are up slightly over a year ago. Postal receipts, considered a good business conditions barometer, continued on upswing during past 12 months in Bovina, Postmaster Gene Ezell announces.

Until someone with proof to the contrary comes along, M. H. Carson, who farms four miles north of Bovina, is laying claim to having youngest combine crew in action on Plains this summer.

A mid-summer gospel meeting begins Monday, July 10, and continues through the following Sunday at Bovina Church of Christ.

Five vacancies exist in faculty of Bovina Schools, Superintendent Warren Morton announced early this week.

Parmer County farmers have just completed what was the most mammoth wheat harvest of all time.

County 4-H clothing workshops are underway in preparation for the County 4-H Dress Revue to be held July 14. Approximately 40 girls are being taught by trained volunteer adult leaders.

Bovina Gin Co. is still undefeated in men's softball league after picking up two wins in last week's action.

"Hillbilly Schoolroom" was theme of social for members of First Baptist Church choir Thursday evening at fellowship hall of the church.

A youth-led revival will begin a week from today -- Wednesday, July 12 -- at First Baptist Church.

The weatherman misread his calendar. It rained on July third instead of the fourth and Bovina's Independence Day celebration was a big success.

Know The Truth

By Lavern Stewart

Can we know that we are children of God? Several say that they have a feeling which assures them of being saved. However, the Bible shows our knowledge of salvation is not based on one of the five senses, but rather on faith, II Cor. 5:7, "For we walk by faith, and not by sight." If it were possible for one to know that he is saved by the feeling he has, then it was useless for John to write I John and say (5:13) that he had written that the believers might know that they had eternal life. Someone else says they know they are saved because the Holy Spirit witnessed to them. The Spirit does witness as to whether or not one is a child of God, but He does it differently to what some think. The passage usually relied upon to teach that the Spirit testifies to the fact of sonship is Romans 8:16. The passage reads, "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God." In this passage, it requires two witnesses to establish one fact: the spirit of the man and the Spirit of God; they establish by testimony that the man is a child of God.

How does the Spirit witness? In Nehemiah 9:30, we are told that the Spirit testified in the Prophets. Further, in Hebrews 10:15-17, a quotation from Jeremiah is called the testimony of the Spirit. David said, II Sam. 23:2, the Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue. We are told in II Peter 1:21, that holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. By the Holy Spirit the Apostles were to witness for Christ, John 15:26-27. Jesus said that when the Holy Spirit should come, He would speak, John 16:13; too, He would "convict" of sins, John 16:8. There is but one conclusion -- the Spirit "testifies" by the Scriptures.

For the past six weeks, he has been employed by Sunray Co-Op.

Caldwell, and his wife, Eula, who is a native of Oklahoma, were locating a place to live here early this week. They are Baptists.

"I'm glad to come back home," Caldwell commented. He begins his duties with the co-op here Monday.

He was graduated from Farwell High School in 1930.

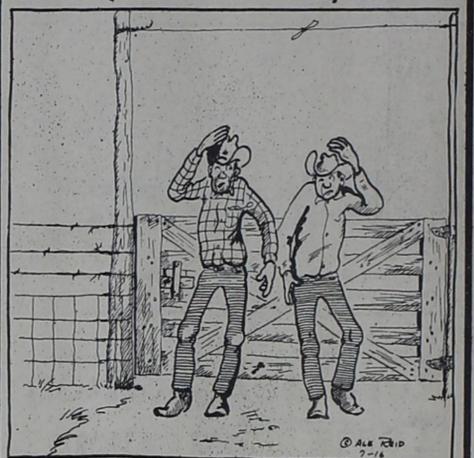

"We are extremely pleased to add a man to our staff who has the qualifications and experience that Bob has," Russell said. "We invite everyone to come in and get acquainted or re-acquainted with him."

that puts us in a good position to be critical of General.

But, we get the impression that the phone people get on the defensive quickly when they're affronted with the proposition of stationing a serviceman here.

They say Bovina doesn't have enough phones; only a few over 500 and it's company policy not to station a man in a town with less than 1000 phones.

They have other reason, too, which they quickly come out with in an apparent attempt to politely say they're not about to put a telephone company representative in this town.

Well, O.K., but what they don't seem to understand is that it would be worth more to the company to have a man here than it would to the town. In other words, we think they'd be helping themselves more than they'd be helping us.

People here would have much more sympathy for the phone company and its problems and shortcomings if they budded, so to speak, with a representative of General. Such an arrangement would be worth an untold amount in public relations for the company, in our not-asked-for opinion. The people here would better understand the company through such an association and the company would, at the same time, better understand the people and what it would take for them to have

Keeping a diary is far from a lost art today.

Usually a diary is begun during school years. But many prominent men and women -- statesmen, social leaders, authors and others -- like to pin down the day's events for pleasure or posterity.

Even the ancient Romans kept diaries. In 17th century England, the diary became a polished literary form. Perhaps the most famous is that of Samuel Pepys, begun on January 1, 1660, and still read by school-goers today.

Jonathan Swift kept a diary in 1710. James Boswell had one published in 1785.

Queen Victoria kept a diary. So did Sir Walter Scott, Lewis Carroll and Charles Darwin. The custom was carried to America.

Ralph Waldo Emerson kept journals that were more useful as author's notes than as records of any particular day.

Clergymen, diplomats, actresses, travel writers have all found it fascinating to keep notes on the world around them. Some famous diaries have been solemn, some witty, some dramatic, and some staid. But all bring back to us a sense of kinship with days gone by.

more respect for their telephone system.

The word respect is the primary one in that sentence.

Bovina Wheat Growers Is Pleased To Announce The Association Of...

BOB CALDWELL

As Assistant General Manager

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we announce that BOB CALDWELL has joined our staff in capacity of Assistant General Manager.

A native Parmer Countian, Bob has more than 30 years experience in the grain co-op business. He served as manager of Adrian Wheat Growers for many years and more recently has been associated with the cooperative in Sunray.

We are extremely proud that he has joined our staff and will be assisting with our operations at both Bovina and Rhea.

You're invited to stop in and get acquainted with him at your earliest convenience. He'll be more than glad to help you!

Silage-Type Forage --

Research Station Tests Sorghum

Eight varieties of silage type forage sorghum were in the 1966 variety trial at the High Plains Research Foundation. The range in yield at 70 per cent moisture was from 15.2 to 34.2 tons of forage per acre with an average yield of 27.4 tons per acre.

DeKalb FS-26 produced 34.2 tons per acre but this was not significantly superior in yield to the next three hybrids which were Pioneer 931 at 32.7 tons, Frontier S-214 at 30.7 tons and TeMilkmaker at 28.1 tons.

The late maturing hybrids in this test were DeKalb F.S. 26, Pioneer 931, Frontier S-214, Su Chow PAG 2 and Frontier 206FX. The early maturing hybrids in the test were TeMilkmaker, TeYieldmaker and TeSilomaker.

The test area received five irrigations totalling 16.44 inches. Rainfall from May 1 to October 1 amounted to 20.81 inches.

All plots received a side-dressed application of nitrogen in the form of anhydrous ammonia on June 16. The plot area had been planted to Soybeans in 1965.

Table 1 of Research Report No. 227 in the 1966 Research Report of the Foundation shows for each variety; the percentage of dry matter at harvest, bloom date, plant height, and percentage of lodging. Table 2 in this report shows for each variety, the crude protein, percentage of mineral matter, crude fat, crude fiber and soluble carbohydrates.

Lloyd Langford, associate agronomist and Howard Malstrom, associate soil scientist of the Foundation staff conducted the research on sorghum silage. The chemical analysis of feeding value was conducted by S. N. Vilm, chief chemist for Producers Grain Corporation of Amarillo.

Working Mothers Need To Plan Time

Time-savers and housekeeping shortcuts are important to all mothers, but especially valuable to the working mother, according to Cricket B. Taylor, County Extension Agent of Parmer County. Here are a few ideas that could help: Written schedules can improve your efficiency. You may not want to run your home on a stopwatch timetable, but it does help to write down everything that must be done, and then assign an approximate hour for doing it. This not only gives you an idea of the scope of your job, but helps you to see and eliminate non-essentials. Allot yourself an extra hour in the morning to accomplish a few tasks. Many mothers prefer to get up early rather than face a messy kitchen and unmade beds at the end of the day. Some women keep up with the ironing by doing a few pieces several mornings a week. Others prefer to save this task for evenings or week-ends. Remember that no-iron fabrics and wash-and-wear clothing save lots of time and energy. Plan menus for the entire week so that there's no last-minute meal planning every afternoon after work. Do main marketing once a week. Stock up on staples, canned and frozen goods, and then fill in with fresh fruits, vegetables and meat as needed during the week. Lists kept in strategic places help to job your memory. For instance, a pad and pencil hung on the kitchen wall make it possible for you to jot down needed items when you think of them. A blackboard or bulletin board in the kitchen makes a fine place for notes and family communications. It also provides a convenient spot for posting special chores to be done by the youngsters, and for tacking up menus. A busy mother can leave messages for the family.

Cricket

At Home In Parmer County

By CRICKET B. TAYLOR County HD Agent

People are so busy these days they hardly have time to speak to each other. Food preservation, harvest, camps, vacations, gardening, trying to keep up with the weeds and the many other things that go with daily living. Or is it living? Some times we are so busy making a living we really have no time for living-in its fullest sense.

From our office you may secure a single copy of "Our-door Fish Cookery" bulletin free, by coming by the Extension office on second floor of County Courthouse in Farwell, or calling 481-3619 and requesting a copy be mailed.

Smalls Visit With Williams

Rev. and Mrs. George Small and three daughters of Austin have been visiting in the home of Mrs. Small's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams. They arrived Friday and left today (Wednesday). Also visiting in the Williams home Tuesday were Mrs. Lester Hill of Amarillo and Mrs. Charles Jackson of Borger. They are Mrs. Williams' sisters.

Community Conversation

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lee and family of Buffalo were weekend visitors in the home of the A. L. Pruitts and the Lewis Stones. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Tally Kelso of Canyon.

STUDENTS TO STUDY HEALTH

Don't be surprised if your child asks you to stop smoking. He's probably been studying its effects and made up his mind it is harmful. His study is part of the new health education which will be taught in schools this fall. Developed by the School Health Education Study, a group of medical, health and education authorities, the new course in health is a comprehensive 12-year subject that includes more than 40 topics such as smoking, drugs and sex education. It is designed to present facts and guidelines so that youngsters make informed, responsible decisions about their own behavior.

"As you prepare to go out into our restless, complex, bewildering modern world, I have only one final word of advice. Don't!"

A PLACE IN LIFE

Evelyn Underhill writes in a little devotional booklet that "our place is not the auditorium but the stage -- or, as the case may be, the field, the workshop, the study, the laboratory -- because we ourselves form part of the creative apparatus of God, or at least are meant to do so. He made us in order to use us." But our inclination is to be spectators not participators. We stand on the sidelines and only rarely do we get into the game. In fact, it is possible that we may be paying very little attention to those who are earnestly involved in the game. The best participation for any man in the game of life is to seek to do the will of God. Have you, are you, and will you seek His Will?

Casey At The Bat

By Ernest L. Thayer

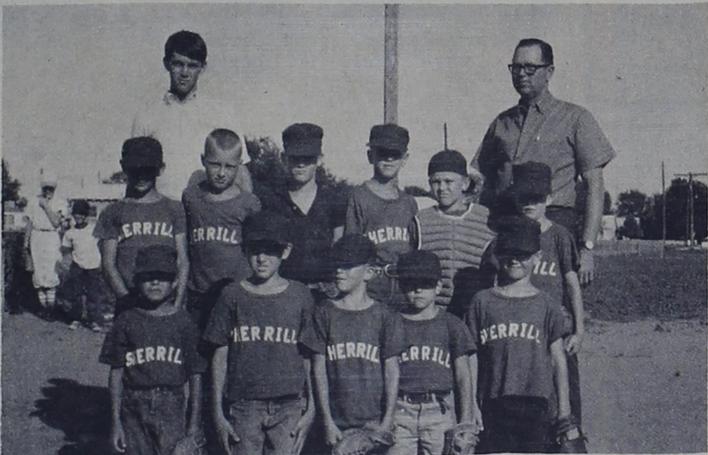

It looked extremely rocky for the Mudville Nine that day,
 The Score stood four to six with but an Inning left to play,
 And so, when Cooney died at first, and Burrows did the same,
 A pallor wreathed the features of the patrons of the game,
 A struggling few got up to go, leaving there the rest,
 With the hope which springs eternal within the human breast,
 For they thought if only Casey could get a whack at that,
 They'd put up even money with Casey at the bat,
 But Flynn preceded Casey, and likewise so did Blake,
 And the former was a pudding and the latter was a fake;
 So on that stricken multitude a deathlike silence sat,
 For there seemed but little chance of Casey's getting to the bat,
 But Flynn let drive a single to the wonderment of all,
 And the much despised Blakey tore the cover off the ball,
 And when the dust had lifted and they saw what had occurred,
 There was Blakey safe on second, and Flynn a hugging third,
 Then from the gladdened multitude went up a joyous yell,
 It bounded from the mountaintop and rattled the dell,
 It struck upon the hillside, and rebounded on the flat,
 For Casey, mighty Casey, was advancing to the bat,
 There was ease in Casey's manner as he stepped into his place,
 There was pride in Casey's bearing and a smile on Casey's face,
 And when, responding to the cheers, he lightly doffed his hat,
 No stranger in the crowd could doubt 'twas Casey at the bat,
 Ten thousand eyes were on him as he rubbed his hands with dirt,
 Five thousand tongues applauded as he wiped them on his shirt;
 And while the writhing pitcher ground the ball into his hip—
 Defiance gleamed from Casey's eye -- a sneer curled Casey's lip.
 And now the leather-covered sphere came hurtling through the air,
 And Casey stood a--watching it in haughty grandeur there;
 Close by the sturdy batsman the ball unheeded sped --
 "That hain't my style," said Casey -- "Strike one," the umpire said,
 From the bleachers black with people there rose a sullen roar,
 Like the beating of the storm waves on a stern and distant shore;
 "Kill him! Kill the umpire!" shouted someone from the stand --
 And it's likely they'd done it had not Casey raised his hand,
 With a smile of Christian charity great Casey's visage shone,
 He stilled the rising tumult and he bade the game go on;
 He signaled to the pitcher and again the spheroid flew,
 But Casey still ignored it and the umpire said "strike two,"
 "Fraud!" yelled the maddened thousands, and the echo answered "Fraud,"
 But one scornful look from Casey and the audience was awed;
 They saw his face grown stern and cold; they saw his muscles strain,
 And they knew that Casey would not let that ball go by again,
 The sneer is gone from Casey's lips; his teeth are clenched with hate,
 He pounds with cruel violence his bat upon the plate;
 And now the pitcher holds the ball, and now he lets it go,
 And now the air is shattered by the force of Casey's blow,
 Oh! somewhere in this favored land the sun is shining bright,
 The band is playing somewhere, and somewhere hearts are light,
 And somewhere men are laughing, and somewhere children shout;
 But there is no joy in Mudville -- mighty Casey has struck out.

Health Hints

APPENDICITIS
Don't treat appendicitis like a simple stomach ache—it could be fatal! Appendicitis usually begins with nausea, vomiting, pain in the pit of the stomach . . . and sometimes fever. Generally, the pain moves down to the lower right side. Whenever you suspect appendicitis, don't take laxatives or enemas. They may cause your appendix to burst and spread infection. Above all, call your physician immediately.

SNAKEBITE
Poisonous snakes pose a dangerous hazard to summertime and fall campers and hikers. Campers and hikers should become acquainted with types of reptiles inhabiting the area and learn their identifying characteristics. If someone in your party is bitten, place him in a prone position. Then tie a tourniquet above the fang marks . . . and loosen it every ten minutes. After that, cut through each fang mark with a sharp blade . . . and draw out the poison with a suction cup or your mouth. If possible, avoid moving the victim and get medical help immediately.

KIDNEY DISEASE
Early detection of kidney disease may save your life. Among early danger signs are burning and frequency of urination . . . discoloration of urine, fever, low back pains, headache, fatigue, and generalized swelling. Prompt medical care of these symptoms frequently can knock out kidney disease before it becomes lethal.

We sell pesticides too!

Naturally, Cyanamid Farm Supply is known for its fertilizer products and service. But don't forget us when it comes to pesticides!

We have a product to control every major pest you have to worry about. Many are Cyanamid's own products, while others carry other noted brand names.

Pesticide time is coming. So make Cyanamid Farm Supply your headquarters for both quality fertilizers and pesticides this season. Prices are right, too. So save yourself a lot of running around and buy both under the sign of the red oval.

Phone or come in soon!

Play There Friday --

All-Star Games Here Saturday With Farwell

Cross-country all-star baseball games are scheduled for this weekend between Bovina and Farwell. Games between Little League and Pony League all-stars from the two communities are slated for Friday and Saturday nights. The Friday night games will be played at Farwell with the Saturday night session to be unreeled in Bovina. The first game, which will be the Little League tilt, will begin at 7 p.m., each night, announces Wayne Spears, baseball commissioner here, Spears and Jack Wardlow of Farwell matched the games last week. Pony League play will begin immediately after the Little League game each of the two nights.

Bovina's Little League all-star team will be made up of players from each of the four teams in the just-completed league here. On the Pony League squad will be players from Bovina and Rhea.

The roster of Little League all-stars: From First State Bank-Lawlis Gin, Doc Shelby, Glenn Hise, Larry Wiseman and Ronnie Nuttall;

From Bovina Wheat Growers-Bovina Insurance, Eddie Pesch, Ronnie Stone, Bobby Wayne Englant and Robert Cordoz;

From Bovina Gin-Tuloma, Benny McCain, Tony Serna, Arty Kunselman and Barty Bartlett;

From Rhea, Kim Rundell, Teddy King, Herman Elicio and Benny Hamilton.

Managers from the four teams will assist in managing the all-star squad.

The roster of Pony League all-stars: From Rhea, Monty Lamber, Royce Grissom and Paul Harrison;

From Bovina, Stuart McMeans, Mike McMeans, Bobby McMeans, Bruce Caldwell, Mike Spears, Carroll Foster, Tommy McCormick, Wesley Harris, Manuel Quintana, Billy Kessler, Doyle Merrill and Royce Sisk.

DRIVER FOOTS BIG BILL

"Texans for Traffic Safety" estimates that in addition to the loss of 3,500 lives, 200,000 injuries, and an economic loss of over $500,000,000 in traffic accidents in Texas in 1967, Texans will spend more than $400,000,000 for auto insurance. "We could all save money if we could reduce accidents," the group says.

Bank-Lawlis Second --

Rhea's Team Wins

The Rhea Tigers are champions of Bovina's Little League. They earned the championship by downing First State Bank-Lawlis Gin, the second place team, Friday and Monday nights. Going into the final week of play, the two teams were tied for the top spot.

Rhea won the Friday night game, which was a make-up for a tilt which had earlier been rained out, 17-5. The Tigers then came back to take Monday night's contest by a 12-7 count.

Bank-Lawlis stayed in contention for the title with a win Thursday night over Bovina Gin-Tuloma, 18-10.

Bovina Wheat Growers - Bovina Insurance downed Gin-Tuloma Friday night, 12-1, to assure itself of third place in the four team league.

Rhea and BWG-BI have a make-up game remaining between them. However, it will probably not be played since the outcome would not effect the league standings.

Big Nick's Little Machines whipped Bovina Blade-Bovina Welding, 17-4, Thursday in the final game of the year in the pee-wee division.

The Machines are the champs with a 7-1 mark. Sherrill Lumber-Bonds Oil finished second with a record of 4-4 while Blade-Welding was 1-7.

In Pony League play, the Charles Oil Lions dropped their first game of the year Friday night at Farwell as the Farwell Bankers clipped them, 6-3. Also at Farwell Friday night, Rhea outscored the Farwell Bankers, 11-8, in another Pony League game.

The Lions outlasted Rhea, 11-10, in a Pony League tilt here Monday night which went into extra innings. Final PL games of the year, except all-star action, were played last (Tuesday) night at Farwell.

SHORT AND SWEET

In these days of gloomy news it helps if you make a point of registering the little victories. For instance: figures coming in show that the thousands of anti-litter campaigns conducted by women's clubs and other civic-minded groups at state and local levels across America began bearing fruit in 1966. These programs, largely based on public education, law enforcement and provision for adequate collection and disposal facilities, slowed down the increase of littering appreciably. So take heart, litter-fighters!

Another cheerful thought: Karl Marx would turn over in his grave if he knew this, but instead of a "handful of privileged capitalists" tightly grasping the reins of industry, as he predicted, in America 20 million and more people, (more than a quarter of the adult population), own stock in some 6,700 of the nation's industrial concerns... and 35% of these "capitalists" are housewives and widows!
