Board Rehires Teachers ... With Stipulations

The Merkel School Board met last Tuesday and rehired all teachers in the Merkel Independent School District... with stipulations.

Leroy Teaff, the vice president of the Merkel School Board read the following statement after board members emerged from an executive session. The statement read, "There are many things that have happened and are happening in our school district that are out of our control. The Board of Education is responsible for the financial affairs of all taxpayers in the Merkel Independent School District and seeing that all children are safe and all are provided for by law and board policy".

"Because of recent actions, including a law suit, our attorney advises us to take action on teacher contracts with the following stipulation; the renewal of contracts will be subject to the pending deconsolidation movement, and a provision shall be added to renewed contracts making continuing employment subject to the final outcome of the deconsolidation election such that the contract may be terminated in the event that deconsolidation is approved by voters and a reduction in teaching staff becomes necessary."

A petition, containing 20 signatures from Merkel and 20 from Tye was filed with the Merkel Independent School District asking for an election to deconsolidate Tye from the Merkel ISD. That petition was subsequently withdrawn.

The board accepted the resignation of three teachers at Tuesday's meeting. Mrs. Mildred Winter, a fifth grade teacher at Tye Elementary resigned after 35 years of teaching. She will pursue a career in private business.

Helen Jones, the school nurse submitted her resignation and Robbie Hicks resigned as a coach in the Merkel Middle School, but will continue to teach.

In other actions, the board approved payment of $53,162.91 in monthly bills and $22,000 went for a bond payment on an annex. Taxes collected between September of 78 and Feb. 28, 1979 total $48,990. School Superintendent Dr. Raymond Etheridge reported that 86 percent of school taxes have been paid to date. Etheridge also reported that of a total budget of $1,947,000 for school year 78-79, 56 percent has been spent as of February 28th.

Etheridge also read a list of proposed members to the Merkel ISD Board of Equalization. Mark Malone, Ken Law, Billy Bob Neff, Annette Clark, Jackie Reynolds and Bill Sloan were recommended to the board by the district tax accessor-collector.

The board will meet again April 3rd to open bids for the construction of a new high school, a middle school gym, a vocational agriculture center and a multi-purpose room for Merkel Elementary. The meeting is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and will be in a classroom near the superintendent's office.

Council Agrees On Ordinance

The Merkel City Council met Friday morning and discussed the dog ordinance proposals and decided to retain the one percent tax on utility bills.

City Manager J.A. Sadler read a list of proposed clauses in the city dog code. (See insert of this week's Mail for details). Council decided to make the proposals public and gather citizen input before taking official action.

Council also decided to hold their next meeting at 6 p.m. on March 29th. The reason for the late meeting is that a representative from state agency will be here to discuss the possibilities of establishing a day activity center here for the elderly. That meeting will be at City Hall.

Council also decided to maintain the local option one percent tax on utility bills. Council decided in favor of the 10 percent homestead tax break instead.

Hensley, Tittle Take Top Honors At Chamber Of Commerce Banquet Held Here Friday

Don Hensley, president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank and Betty Jane Tittle, a vice president of the bank were honored as Merkel's Man and Woman of the Year at Friday's annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet. The banquet, held at the Merkel School Cafeteria drew a crowd of about 130 people featured the presentation of the awards and a speech.

The winner of the Alameda Bullock award was sick and unable to attend the banquet. Her award will be presented at a later date.

Reverend Allen Forbis gave the opening invocation and he was followed by master of ceremonies Don Hensley. Hensley welcomed guests attending from out of town and the Taylor County Judge, as well as a representative from 17th district Congressman Charles Stenholm's office.

J.A. Sadler, Merkel City Manager followed Hensley with the highlights of 1978. JSadler mentioned that Merkel got a new doctor, passed a bond issue, received 30 units of federal housing, and new businesses in Merkel.

Sadler also mentioned the new ambulance that was paid for through a fund raising effort, and the Blair Water District's approval for a water line.

Gloria Henslee then presented the Xi Nu Chi and Lambda Beta's Woman of the Year Plaque to Betty Jane Tittle. Mrs. Henslee said of Mrs. Tittle "that she had been employed at the bank 31 years and had worked her way up to a vice president, and among other activities was an active member of the First United Methodist Church where she has held numerous posts."

Mrs. Tittle, on receiving the award said, "That the award is quite an honor and it was an occasion that she would never forget."

Incoming Chamber President Lee Presswood then took the podium and presented the Outstanding citizen of the Year award to Don Hensley. Hensley, the outgoing Chamber of Commerce President for three years expressed his gratitude to the audience.

In the winners' address, Presswood said of Hensley that it was a lucky day for Merkel when the Hensley's moved to town. He said that under Hensley's direction, the Chamber of Commerce had helped make this community grow.

Don Newbury, director of communications at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth, was the evenings keynote speaker.

Newbury kept the crowd laughing with an interjected serious thought into his speech including, "When you speak to a Chamber of Commerce, you are talking to the corner-posts of the community. You know what a corner post is, it is something that always does more than it's fair share."

Lee Presswood then challenged those attending the banquet to "accept the challenges of community achievement to make Merkel a better place to work and live."

Pug and Leos catered the banquet that was covered by KRBC Radio and TV of Abilene and KTXS TV.

Mail Supports House Bill 941

by Cloy A. Richards

Lawmakers in Austin are currently pondering a bill that has divided rural and urban lawmakers from across the state.

House Bill 941 and Senate Bill 983 call for an end to the current system of rebating the local option one percent sales tax. The bills call for the rebate to be distributed by population, in lieu of the current system of rebating the money in the location it was spent.

The benefits to rural communities, especially those near large cities are obvious.

An example. You hop in your car and drive to Abilene and make a couple of purchases. The way the law is set up, Merkel would not receive one penny from that trip because the current law says that the municipality in which the goods or services were rendered is entitled to the tax. On top of that, if you are not a citizen of that community, you will receive no direct benefits from taxes collected by that city.

Under the proposed law, the state would place all of the money due back to the cities for their share of the one percent sales tax into a lump sum and then send each town a check, depending on the population of that community.

Construction On Blair Line Starting Soon

The Blair Water Supply Corporation is finally fully funded and an Abilene Construction Company will get to work laying the line as soon as bids and bonds are certified in state offices.

You may recall that the original bids were out of the money by some $25,000. Officials from the Blair Water Supply applied for additional funding because the water line will now serve 24 more meters than were identified in the original applications.

The water line will service customers south of I-20 near Merkel and approximately 250 meters have been applied for.

cleaning fluid. The association says the product is a multi-purpose cleaner. This is the only time during the year that the association solicits financial support door-to-door during the year.

Merkel, Rest Of Local Area Drenched By Heavy Rains Last Week

Merkel and Taylor County law enforcement officers spent more than a few anxious moments Wednesday evening watching for threatening clouds as the first large spring storm on the first day of Spring blew through Merkel. Merkel received .61 inches of rain after the local area had received about 2 inches spread over a one week period. The water soaked the ground and was unable to absorb any more water and the rains flooded some pasture lands and played havoc on people that had established early gardens. Marble size hail fell at approximately 9:12 Wednesday evening and hailed for about three minutes. Merkel and Taylor County officials did report seeing one funnel cloud, at approximately 9:20 that was north of Merkel and headed in the direction of Anson. There were no reports of any tornadoes touching down. Local farmers will have to wait awhile before getting their spring planting done as many fields were flooded. Most of the worst activity of last Wednesday's storm was confined to Sweetwater and Roscoe. Sweetwater received close to three inches of rain in three different downpours. Two Sweetwater residents were killed when their car was swept off of State Highway 70, 1 mile south of Sweetwater and into a flood swelled drainage ditch. In Roscoe, about 30 homes had from six to ten inches of water inside them when drainage areas at the Eldorado Estates directly off of I-20 in Roscoe were unable to channel the water away from the new housing addition.

This little beauty wuz only rode on Sundays by a little ol' lady from Blair ..... she didn't hardly even use up th' warranty.

Bookmobile Carries 4,000 Books

by Glenn Richards

Four thousand books, from the first reader to best sellers, from how to make a two stick kite to the internal working of an aircraft engine are available to not only elementary students but middle school, high school and anyone else who has a card that entitles them to check out books from the Bookmobile.

The bookmobile is a service of the Abilene Public Library. It makes one of its most rewarding stops here in Merkel in front of the elementary school every two weeks from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Dates to come are Apr. 9 and 23 and May 7 and 21. After this time the bookmobile will bypass Merkel when school is out since we have our own public library. (By the way, the bookmobile also delivers books to the library here in Merkel.) Leslie Waldon, who has been with the Abilene public library for 18 years is the driver and along with Jeannie Waterbury, handles all of the bookwork.

Mr. Waldon said that this is one of their busiest stops checking out as many as 300 books in one morning.

"Between Merkel and Lawn we check out a whole lot of books," Mr. Waldon said.

To check out books from the bookmobile you must have a "Bookmobile Library Card" obtainable at the library or from the bookmobile.

Take advantage of this service. The elementary students do, and you want to keep up with them.

Council Says Re-start Cotton Research

The president of the National Cotton Council today requested the House Agriculture Appropriations subcommittee to restore funding for important cotton research projects for fiscal 1980.

Hoke Leggett, Hobbard, N.C., producer, expressed deep concern over the administration's proposed $3.3 million cut in over-all agricultural research and especially over the fact that more than half of the cut or $1.6 million would be in cotton research alone.

He commended the Administration's effort to reduce the budget deficit but noted that research is one of the primary ways of improving productivity and holding down costs. The Administration apparently recognized this fact in other areas, he noted, because seven of 10 federal research agencies would receive increased funding in the proposed budget.

In view of the growth in world population and evidence that yields of many crops in this country have reached upper limits, Leggett commented, "It is difficult to understand why, at the same time, agriculture and cotton are receiving severe cuts."

The Council president said the cotton industry has already experienced "considerable sacrifice" in efforts to hold down the federal budget deficit. Scientific man-years assigned to federal cotton research have dropped 20 percent in the last decade, he stated. In addition, Leggett noted that the 1977 farm act actually called for substantial increases in research.

The Council president also expressed concern that cotton was singled out for the heaviest research cuts at a time when it has a tremendous potential for greatly alleviating the nation's trade balance problems through expanded exports.

"We need to increase our production efficiency in order to take advantage of our expanding opportunities in the export market," he said, "and we cannot do so over the long run unless research is adequate to keep production costs competitive."

Leggett listed a number of such projects which would be eliminated under the proposed cuts, including research essential to developing insect and disease-resistant cotton varieties and to minimizing the use of pesticides while fully protecting the crop.

He also stressed the importance of continued federal work in post-harvest research, pointing out that cotton faces "unprecedented problems" in the processing area due to cotton dust and flammability regulations.

"This could seriously hamper several absolutely vital areas of research, including cotton dust . . . which urgently needs to be stepped up, not only to save the cotton industry and the jobs and income it contributes to the economy, but also to eliminate a potential health problem for some people."

Hey Gang How About A Drive In Movie

by Cloy A. Richards

Since a Merkel Mail editorial of three weeks ago concerning the problems of youth in the community, there has not been all that many ideas by the public on what to do about the problem.

We have learned from the State Department of Human Resources that films are available for showing on a non-profit basis for communities without entertainment facilities, therefore I feel that we qualify for those.

It wouldn't be that hard to set up a "theater" somewhere. A freshly painted white wall would do for a screen, and the only thing we would need for free, drive-in outdoor theater is a building with a grassy area around it with a white wall.

Folks could sit on the ground, in lawnchairs or wherever and enjoy the show. Mind you that the films would not be first run, I doubt that you would see Superman or Saturday Night Fever on the free film list, but as I understand it, the films are designed for family viewing and are quite current, especially for the price.

How about it gang? All we need is a building that could be painted white, or at least one wall of it.

So, if you have a building in mind let us know. We know where and how to get ahold of the films and the projector. What we need are ideas on the location and a little bit of planning and Merkel may have some free summer-time movies.

Call us at 928-5712 if you have any ideas.

Cleaning Cupboards
Today while cleaning cupboards
With neat, housewifely art,
I suddenly decided
To clean the cupboards of my heart . . .

I threw out CRITICISM
To the trashpile - to the fire!
I put in APPRECIATION
And worthwhile thought to inspire.

I threw out CONDEMNATION
Which says, "You're wrong, I'm right".
I put in CONSIDERATION
For all folks, brown, black and white.

Yes, out too went COMPLAINING
Grumbling about trivial things,
I put in SMILES and LAUGHTER
To ease tension each day brings.

Friends, let's all clean out our cupboards,

Trent Elementary School News

The Trent kindergarten-

class has been busy learning to march to music. In P.E. the boys are learning to play soccer and the girls are learning to play jacks. The class also made biscuits.

Chris Richardson recently visited El Paso and saw the space shuttle.

Arveata Wheat shared her souvenir from the Sweetwater Rattlesnake Roundup with the class. It was a paperweight with scorpions inside.

The class has also studied life on a farm. Jamie Masonheimer told the class how he helped his grandfather on a farm.

The students made green shamrocks for St. Patrick's Day.

First Grade

First graders at Trent Elementary are studying about Texas. We are making folders for our Texas papers and learning about the state symbols. Tuesday, we will be making bluebonnets with blue popcorn.

We're happy to have a new student, Mike Payne, from Florida. We now have twelve students in First Grade.

Second Grade

The second grade has lost one of our students. Teddy Moore has moved to Hobbs. Our class is down to fourteen students now. Our friend, Mrs. Patterson, has been gone to Old Mexico acting as a chaperone for the senior trip. We have missed her.

We have begun "re-grouping" - better known as borrowing - and this has really been an experience for us.

Some of us have caught on and are doing really great. The rest of us will soon learn this concept, we are certain.

Third Grade

The third grade has been busy with multiplication the last week. They have two learning centers they are enthused about. One is kite flying with syllables and the other is magic with rabbits using contractions. March birthdays were Scotty O'Kelly March 5, April birthdays will be Lloyd Patterson April 7, and Tracie Russell April 8.

Best Buys At The Grocery Market

Best buys at Texas grocery markets include specials on beef, pork and frozen fish.

Also, eggs have reasonable prices this week, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:

BEEF - Check for specials on chuck roasts and steaks, round and rib steaks, ground beef and beef liver.

PORK - Specials include end chops, rib and loin-end roasts, frankfurters and pork liver.

POULTRY - Eggs are a bargain at present prices.

Fryer chicken prices are rising, but some markets feature cut-up fryers and fryer parts. Also, look for specials on turkeys with best buys on those 10 pounds and up.

FRESH FRUITS - Good values include bananas, apples and grapefruit.

FRESH VEGETABLES - Budget buys are carrots, collards, cucumbers, mustard, dry onions, squash, potatoes and spinach.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Shopping the "specials" really pays off in the meat department.

Tye Schedules Clean Up

By Harold Boyd

Put this on your calendar that the week of April will be a busy one in this form. April 2nd through the 5th has been designated as clean up week for Tye. The City will haul off your trash this week only at no cost to you, all that is requested that you put your trash on the street side and notify the city all that you have trash that you wish to be removed. Also don't forget to get out and vote Saturday April 7th at the Tye Elementary school. If you don't have transportation, contact me or a neighbor and do the only thing that you can do... vote for the candidate of your choice.

I've been in contact with the Mail regarding the school lunch room menu. Cloy just overlooked it, and surely we will forget at times to do things that we should have done. Can't promise, but feel sure that he will have it in the next issue or even this one. Just bear with them.

Abilene's biggie this past two weeks has been the Mail... surely it is everything that they have said it was. It's a treat to just walk through it and see the various stores, decor and see many neighbors.

Saturday, March 17th the Senior Citizens had their garage sale in spite of the nasty weather. The turn out and response was great, and they wish to thank those who donated time and items.

This writer is somewhat confused as to Tye's voting record. We have some 350 plus registered voters here in Tye, our last election we showed a turnout of some 125 votes; increase of 50 percent over the last election. Apparently I've missed the boat in the right to exercise my vote for whom I wish to represent me in government, a right that I help preserve by being active in military, serving the only country that is still free. Yet it takes no time to do... so when April 7th comes about, why don't you take the few precious moments of your schedule and get out and vote for the party or persons of your choice. Could it be that some don't care? Aren't they the ones that want to gripe after these concerned persons are elected into office? Maybe so... anyway, do your civic duty and GET OUT AND VOTE!

We have the following persons running for office and here is a brief summary of each candidate that is running for Alderman (Council)

Mrs. Kennon Law, Violet is 48 years old, raised 4 children, with 1 still at home. She is self employed, lived in Tye for over 10 years. Her goals are, if elected to the council, is to establish an Administrative Committee which will look into major purchases for the city, seeking ways to get more for our money without trying everything and checking and getting facts to present to the council. To help Tye in becoming a more progressive city by having better public relations with the citizens of Tye, keeping them informed.

A.J. Pence, 39 years and holding. A.J. is a self employed businessman in concrete products. Has lived in Tye for the past 6 years, raised 3 children with one still at home. His interest in city government is to clean up the eyesores of Tye, be aggressive in getting things done such as better roads, water and the much talked about sewer lines that have gone undone.

Mrs. Noland Miller, better known as Patty Miller. She is married and raising two boys, and she said they are all boys. Patty has been raised here in Tye with a brief absence when they were in the service. She is a domestic engineer (Housewife). She feels that she can relate with the citizens of Tye, young and senior citizens but better and more involvement by public relations, keeping everyone informed. Taking action and following through after decisions are once made at council meetings. Improve and enforce the Dog problems that we here in Tye are having. Getting some type of youth program and building a center for all persons of Tye. Seeking to better the road conditions here and other areas that need to be corrected.

Mrs. Otto Brazell, better known as Helena is most. She is 48 and doesn't mind who knows her age. She has raised 9 children with the last one at home. She has been a resident of Tye for more than 12 years. She is employed at Abilene State School as a Residential and Recreation Coordinator for the past 11 years. She also wants Tye to be progressive in growth by using the administration system, weighing all sides of an issue that comes before the council, before making decisions. Follow through after something has been voted on. Seek better ways to work for the citizens of Tye, keeping them informed. She just wants to be there when needed to work for you, not a certain group.

DeWitt Isoms, 49 years, been on city council and has lived here in Tye all his life. He is married and raising 3 children. Been the Postmaster here in Tye for the past 17 years. All he wants to do is get the people of Tye their moneys worth, projects that we can afford and keep up with. Seek the completion of the sewer project and look into a water system that we will need in the future.

Art Herrera, 44 years old, raised 5 children with one living at home. Art is an incumbent in this race for council. He is self employed as a barber here in Tye. He wants the city to grow yet keep a budget and have someone to administer city funds, getting equal value for every dollar spent. To see the completions of the sewer system, maintain a balanced budget and expenditures. To upgrade the city streets and have them maintained after they are in condition.

Luanne Goodgion was unavailable at this writing so I will endeavor to get with her on the next column along with the candidates that are running for the two seats for the Merkel ISD posts. There you are Tye with six persons that want to serve you, all they ask is that you vote, for your candidate. They all have stated that whether you vote for them or not, to vote. Show that you care about YOUR city and how you want it run. It is your time to commit yourselves... The candidates have given their time, how about you? I want to thank each person whom I've talked to on this brief outline and do hope that I have given it fairly and as accurate as I have done.

For this week of writing, many thanks for your time, till next week, lets clean up the vacant lots, back yards and get ready for the most beautiful time of the year, Spring. See you next week.

Tye First And Second

Grade News

First Grade Mrs. Evans

The boys and girls in Mrs. Evans' class have been having a delightful time using ACT IT OUT cards. These cards are divided into categories which include characters, objects, situations, rhythm and music, and stories.

The children especially enjoy acting out "situations". For example, we acted out a situation of a child visiting a doctor. A student was chosen to act as a doctor and one each for a nurse, parent, and patient. This creative dramatic experience helps the student to act out his feelings about a trip to the doctor - their reactions to examinations, to shots, to being sick, and etc. Playing the doctor, who must make a sick child well, can help students understand the doctor's role in their lives.

Another favorite situation that was acted out was eating spaghetti, ice cream, a tough steak, etc. The skit can be a group of children acting out a family eating a meal, a picnic, a party, or etc. This is a good way for the children to learn about table manners.

Creative dramatic experiences are good for helping the shy child to overcome his shyness, and helps children to learn how to express themselves in different situations. There are many situations that can be used such as going shopping, talking to a policeman, being a teacher, playing in the snow, or landing on a strange planet. This activity can also be extended to include stories read in our basal reading book.

Creative dramatics is also a good way to provide a little humor. The children laughed so much until we had a message from our neighbor on the other side of our wall wanting to know what was so funny in our room.

The now beg every day for a chance to "act out the little cards".

Second Grade Mrs. Coke

We learned some interesting things from "Ranger Rick Magazine" in "Who-O-O Knows?"

What is the difference between a dolphin and a porpoise? Dolphins are larger than porpoises and may have beak-like snouts. Porpoises are less than six feet long and have rounder heads. Scientists tell them apart by the shape of their fins and teeth. Dolphins and porpoises aren't fish but are mammals. That means they are warm-blooded and that they nurse their young.

Do cats only see black and white?

For many years people thought that dogs and cats could not see colors. Scientists have recently discovered that cats see color. Your pet cat doesn't see colors as well as a person. Unless something is very large, or very close, it won't look colorful. Objects that are small or far away just look gray. Dr. Michael Loop, at the University of Illinois, explains it this way: "To a cat, an apple is red, but a cherry is gray!"

Farmers Meeting Scheduled

An open meeting for area farmers concerning the direct marketing of products through the Port of Brownsville has been scheduled for April 3rd at the Taylor Electric Co-operative Building at 8:00 p.m.

Ed Altemus, traffic manager at the port and Jimmy Beeman, a special assistant to the port director will be on hand to answer questions from area farmers concerning exportation of agricultural products.

The two men are in Mexico this week talking to the Mexican Government about their policies for agricultural imports for the coming year.

Beeman is a former cotton producer and buyer. Altemus is responsible for the shipping and loading schedules at the port.

They will be on hand to answer questions. The meeting is sponsored by the Merkel Mail.

Meet Ike Maxwell

Ike Maxwell, a retired electrician and five year resident of Merkel decided to run for mayor after listening to some of his friends and he is no stranger to public office.

Maxwell spent seven years on the city council of Buffalo Gap. Maxwell says, "I don't know how much money they have in City Hall, so I don't know what can be done for the town. I am not mayor yet so there isn't much sense in making many plans on what to do if I were mayor."

The candidate said that "Merkel is as good a place as any little town and that he does not think taxes here are too high.

Maxwell also says that "When I told my friends I'd run for mayor I told them I wouldn't sling any mud and if the people vote me in I will do the job. It is all up to the people now, I have done my part."

Hensley, Tittle Take Top Honors At Chamber Of Commerce Banquet Held Here Friday

Don Hensley, president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank and Betty Jane Tittle, a vice president of the bank were honored as Merkel's Man and Woman of the Year at Friday's annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet.

The banquet, held at the Merkel School Cafeteria drew a crowd of about 130 people featured the presentation of the awards and a speech.

The winner of the Alameda Bullock award was sick and unable to attend the banquet. Her award will be presented at a later date.

Reverend Allen Forbis gave the opening invocation and he was followed by master of ceremonies Don Hensley. Hensley welcomed guests attending from out of town and the Taylor County Judge, as well as a representative from 17th district Congressman Charles Stenholm's office.

J.A. Sadler, Merkel City Manager followed Hensley with the highlights of 1978. JSadler mentioned that Merkel got a new doctor, passed a bond issue, received 30 units of federal housing, and new businesses in Merkel.

Sadler also mentioned the new ambulance that was paid for through a fund raising effort, and the Blair Water District's approval for a water line.

Gloria Henslee then presented the Xi Nu Chi and Lambda Beta's Woman of the Year Plaque to Betty Jane Tittle. Mrs. Henslee said of Mrs. Tittle "that she had been employed at the bank 31 years and had worked her way up to a vice president, and among other activities was an

Mrs. Tittle, on receiving the award said, "That the award is quite an honor and it was an occasion that she would never forget."

Incoming Chamber President Lee Presswood then took the podium and presented the Outstanding citizen of the Year award to Don Hensley. Hensley, the outgoing Chamber of Commerce President for three years expressed his gratitude to the audience.

In the winners' address, Presswood said of Hensley that it was a lucky day for Merkel when the Hensley's moved to town. He said that under Hensley's direction, the Chamber of Commerce had helped make this community grow.

Don Newbury, director of communications at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth, was the evenings keynote speaker.

Newbury kept the crowd laughing with an interjected serious thought into his speech including, "When you speak to a Chamber of Commerce, you are talking to the corner-posts of the community. You know what a corner post is. It is something that always does more than it's fair share."

Lee Presswood then challenged those attending the banquet to "accept the challenges of community achievement to make Merkel a better place to work and live."

Pug and Leos catered the banquet that was covered by KRBC Radio and TV of Abilene and KTXS TV.

Mail Supports House Bill 941

by Cloy A. Richards

Lawmakers in Austin are currently pondering a bill that has divided rural and urban lawmakers from across the state.

House Bill 941 and Senate Bill 983 call for an end to the current system of rebating the local option one percent sales tax. The bills call for the rebate to be distributed by population, in lieu of the current system of rebating the money in the location it was spent.

The benefits to rural communities, especially those near large cities are obvious.

An example. You hop in your car and drive to Abilene and make a couple of purchases. The way the law is set up, Merkel would not receive one penny from that trip because the current law says that the municipality in which the goods or services were rendered is entitled to the tax. On top of that, if you are not a citizen of that community, you will receive no direct benefits from taxes collected by that city.

Under the proposed law, the state would place all of the money due back to the cities for their share of the one percent sales tax into a lump sum and then send each town a check, depending on the population of that community.

Construction On Blair Line Starting Soon

The Blair Water Supply Corporation is finally fully funded and an Abilene Construction Company will get to work laying the line as soon as bids and bonds are certified in state offices.

You may recall that the original bids were out of the money by some $25,000. Officials from the Blair Water Supply applied for additional funding because the water line will now serve 24 more meters than were identified in the original applications.

The water line will service customers south of I-20 near Merkel and approximately 250 meters have been applied for.

Board Rehires Teachers ... With Stipulations

The Merkel School Board met last Tuesday and rehired all teachers in the Merkel Independent School District... with stipulations.

Leroy Teaff, the vice president of the Merkel School Board read the following statement after board members emerged from an executive session. The statement read, "There are many things that have happened and are happening in our school district that are out of our control. The Board of Education is responsible for the financial affairs of all taxpayers in the Merkel Independent School District and seeing that all children are safe and all are provided for by law and board policy".

"Because of recent actions, including a law suit, our attorney advises us to take action on teacher contracts with the following stipulation; the renewal of contracts will be subject to the pending deconsolidation movement, and a provision shall be added to renewed contracts making continuing employment subject to the final outcome of the deconsolidation election such that the contract may be terminated in the event that deconsolidation is approved by voters and a reduction in teaching staff becomes necessary."

A petition, containing 20 signatures from Merkel and 20 from Tye was filed with the Merkel Independent School District asking for an election to deconsolidate Tye from the Merkel ISD. That petition was subsequently withdrawn.

The board accepted the resignation of three teachers at Tuesday's meeting. Mrs. Mildred Winter, a fifth grade teacher at Tye Elementary resigned after 35 years of teaching. She will pursue a career in private business.

Helen Jones, the school nurse submitted her resignation and Robbie Hicks resigned as a coach in the Merkel Middle School, but will continue to teach.

In other actions, the board approved payment of $53,162.91 in monthly bills and $22,000 went for a bond payment on an annex. Taxes collected between September of 78 and Feb. 28, 1979 total $48,990. School Superintendent Dr. Raymond Etheridge reported that 86 percent of school taxes have been paid to date. Etheridge also reported that of a total budget of $1,947,000 for school year 78-79, 56 percent has been spent as of February 28th.

Etheridge also read a list of proposed members to the Merkel ISD Board of Equalization. Mark Malone, Ken Law, Billy Bob Neff, Annette Clark, Jackie Reynolds and Bill Sloan were recommended to the board by the district tax assessor-collector.

The board will meet again April 3rd to open bids for the construction of a new high school, a middle school gym, a vocational agriculture center and a multi-purpose room for Merkel Elementary. The meeting is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and will be in a classroom near the superintendent's office.

Council Agrees On Ordinance

The Merkel City Council met Friday morning and discussed the dog ordinance proposals and decided to retain the one percent tax on utility bills.

City Manager J.A. Sadler read a list of proposed clauses in the city dog code. (See insert of this week's Mail for details). Council decided to make the proposals public and gather citizen input before taking official action.

Council also decided to hold their next meeting at 6 p.m. on March 29th. The reason for the late meeting is that a representative from state agency will be here to discuss the possibilities of establishing a day activity center here for the elderly. That meeting will be at City Hall.

Council also decided to maintain the local option one percent tax on utility bills. Council decided in favor of the 10 percent homestead tax break instead.

Merkel, Rest Of Local Area Drenched By Heavy Rains Last Week

Merkel and Taylor County law enforcement officers spent more than a few anxious moments Wednesday evening watching for threatening clouds as the first large spring storm on the first day of Spring blew through Merkel.

Merkel received 61 inches of rain after the local area had received about 2 inches spread over a one week period. The water soaked the ground and was unable to absorb any more water and the rains flooded some pasture lands and played havoc on people that had established early gardens.

Marble size hail fell at approximately 9:12 Wednesday evening and hailed for about three minutes.

Merkel and Taylor County officials did report seeing one funnel cloud, at approximately 9:20 that was north of Merkel and headed in the direction of Anson. There were no reports of any tornadoes touching down. Local farmers will have to wait awhile before getting their spring planting done as many fields were flooded.

Most of the worst activity of last Wednesday's storm was confined to Sweetwater and Roscoe. Sweetwater received close to three inches of rain in three different downpours. Two Sweetwater residents were killed when their car was swept off of State Highway 70, 1 mile south of Sweetwater and into a flood swelled drainage ditch.

In Roscoe, about 30 homes had from six to ten inches of water inside them when drainage areas at the Eldorado Estates directly off of I-20 in Roscoe were unable to channel the water away from the new housing addition.

Bookmobile Carries 4,000 Books

by Glenn Richards

Four thousand books, from the first reader to best sellers, from how to make a two stick kite to the internal working of an aircraft engine are available to not only elementary students but middle school, high school and anyone else who has a card that entitles them to check out books from the bookmobile. The bookmobile is a service of the Abilene Public Library. It makes one of its most rewarding stops here in Merkel in front of the elementary school every two weeks from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Dates to come are Apr. 9 and 23 and May 7 and 21. After this time the bookmobile will bypass Merkel when school is out since we have our own public library. (By the way, the bookmobile also delivers books to the library here in Merkel.) Leslie Waldon, who has been with the Abilene public library for 18 years is the driver and along with Jeannie Waterbury, handles all of the bookwork. Mr. Waldon said that this is one of their busiest stops checking out as many as 300 books in one morning. "Between Merkel and Lawn we check out a whole lot of books," Mr. Waldon said. To check out books from the bookmobile you must have a "Bookmobile Library Card" obtainable at the library or from the bookmobile. Take advantage of this service. The elementary students do, and you want to keep up with them.

Council Says Re-start Cotton Research

The president of the National Cotton Council today requested the House Agriculture Appropriations subcommittee to restore funding for important cotton research projects for fiscal 1980.

Hoke Leggett, Hobgood, N.C., producer, expressed deep concern over the administration's proposed $3.3 million cut in over-all agricultural research and especially over the fact that more than half of the cut or $1.6 million would be in cotton research alone.

He commended the Administration's effort to reduce the budget deficit but noted that research is one of the primary ways of improving productivity and holding down costs. The Administration apparently recognized this fact in other areas, he noted, because seven of 10 federal research agencies would receive increased funding in the proposed budget.

In view of the growth in world population and evidence that yields of

many crops in this country have reached upper limits, Leggett commented, "It is difficult to understand why, at the same time, agriculture and cotton are receiving severe cuts."

The Council president said the cotton industry has already experienced "Considerable sacrifice" in efforts to hold down the federal budget deficit. Scientific man-years assigned to federal cotton research have dropped 20 percent in the last decade, he stated. In addition, Leggett noted that the 1977 farm act actually called for substantial increases in research.

The Council president also expressed concern that cotton was singled out for the heaviest research cuts at a time when it has a tremendous potential for greatly alleviating the nation's trade balance problems through expanded exports.

"We need to increase our production efficiency in order to take advantage of our expanding opportunities in the export market," he said, "and we cannot do so over the long run unless research is adequate to keep production costs competitive."

Leggett listed a number of such projects which would be eliminated under the proposed cuts, including research essential to developing insect and disease-resistant cotton varieties and to minimizing the use of pesticides while fully

protecting the crop.

He also stressed the importance of continued federal work in post-harvest research, pointing out that cotton faces "unprecedented problems" in the processing area due to cotton dust and flammability regulations.

"This could seriously hamper several absolutely vital areas of research, including cotton dust... which urgently needs to be stepped up, not only to save the cotton industry and the jobs and income it contributes to the economy, but also to eliminate a potential health problem for some people."

Hey Gang How About A Drive In Movie

by Cloy A. Richards

Since a Merkel Mail editorial of three weeks ago concerning the problems of youth in the community, there has not been all that many ideas by the public on what to do about the problem.

We have learned from the State Department of Human Resources that films are available for showing on a non-profit basis for communities without entertainment facilities, therefore I feel that we qualify for those.

It wouldn't be that hard to set up a "theater" somewhere. A freshly painted white wall would do for a screen, and the only thing we would need for free, drive-in outdoor theater is a building with a grassy area around it with a white wall.

Folks could sit on the ground, in lawnchairs or wherever and enjoy the show. Mind you that the films would not be first run, I doubt that you would see Superman or Saturday Night Fever on the free film list, but as I understand it, the films are designed for family viewing and are quite current, especially for the price.

How about it gang? All we need is a building that could be painted white, or at least one wall of it.

So, if you have a building in mind let us know. We know where and how to get hold of the films and the projector. What we need are ideas on the location and a little bit of planning and Merkel may have some free summer-time movies. Call us at 928-5712 if you have any ideas.

Trent Elementary School News

The Trent kindergarten-

The students have been learning about liquids and solids. The students made jello to illustrate how a substance can change from a solid to a liquid and back to a solid.

Arveata Wheat shared her souvenir from the Sweetwater Rattlesnake Roundup with the class. It was a paperweight with scorpions inside.

The class has also studied life on a farm. Jamie Masonheimer told the class how he helped his grandfather on a farm.

The students made green shamrocks for St. Patrick's Day.

ten class has been busy learning to march to music. In P.E. the boys are learning to play soccer and the girls are learning to play jacks. The class also made biscuits.

Chris Richardson recently visited El Paso and saw the space shuttle.

First Grade

First graders at Trent Elementary are studying about Texas. We are making folders for our Texas papers and learning about the state symbols. Tuesday, we will be making bluebonnets with blue popcorn.

We're happy to have a new student, Mike Payne, from Florida. We now have twelve students in First Grade.

Second Grade

The second grade has lost one of our students. Teddy Moore has moved to Hobbs. Our class is down to fourteen students now. Our friend, Mrs. Patterson, has been gone to Old Mexico acting as a chaperone for the senior trip. We have missed her.

We have begun "re-grouping" - better known as borrowing - and this has really been an experience for us.

Some of us have caught on and are doing really great. The rest of us will soon learn this concept, we are certain.

Third Grade

The third grade has been busy with multiplication the last week. They have two learning centers they are enthused about. One is kite flying with syllables and the other is magic with rabbits using contractions. March birthdays were Scotty O'Kelly March 5. April birthdays will be Lloyd Patterson April 7, and Tracie Russell April 8.

Best Buys At The Grocery Market

Best buys at Texas grocery markets include specials on beef, pork and frozen fish.

Also, eggs have reasonable prices this week, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:

BEEF - Check for specials on chuck roasts and steaks, round and rib steaks, ground beef and beef liver.

PORK - Specials include end chops, rib and loin-end roasts, frankfurters and pork liver.

POULTRY - Eggs are a bargain at present prices.

Fryer chicken prices are rising, but some markets feature cut-up fryers and fryer parts. Also, look for specials on turkeys with best buys on those 10 pounds and up.

FRESH FRUITS - Good values include bananas, apples and grapefruit.

FRESH VEGETABLES - Budget buys are carrots, collards, cucumbers, mustard, dry onions, squash, potatoes and spinach.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Shopping the "specials" really pays off in the meat department.

Tye Schedules Clean Up

Put this on your calendar that the week of April will be a busy one in this form. April 2nd through the 5th has been designated as clean up week for Tye. The City will haul off your trash this week only at no cost to you, all that is requested that you put your trash on the street side and notify the city all that you have trash that you wish to be removed. Also don't forget to get out and vote Saturday April 7th at the Tye Elementary school. If you don't have transportation, contact me or a neighbor and do the only thing that you can do... vote for the candidate of your choice.

I've been in contact with the Mail regarding the school lunch room menu. Cloy just overbooked it, and surely we all forget at times to do things that we should have done. Can't promise, but feel sure that he will have it in the next issue or even this one. Just bear with them.

Abilene's biggie this past two weeks has been the Mail... surely it is everything that they have said it was. It's a treat to just walk through it and see the various stores, decor and see many neighbors.

Saturday, March 17th the Senior Citizens had their garage sale in spite of the nasty weather. The turnout and response was great, and they wish to thank those who donated time and items.

This writer is somewhat confused as to Tye's voting record. We have some 350 plus registered voters here in Tye, our last election we showed a turnout of some 125 votes; increase of 50 percent over the last election. Apparently I've missed the boat in the right to exercise my vote for whom I wish to represent me in government, a right that I help preserve by being active in military, serving the only country that is still free. Yet it takes no time to do... so when April 7th comes about, why don't you take the few precious moments of you schedule and get out and vote for the party or persons of your choice. Could it be that some don't care? Aren't they the ones that want to gripe after these concerned persons are elected into office? Maybe so... anyway, do your civic duty and GET OUT AND VOTE!

We have the following persons running for office and here is a brief summary of each candidate that is running for Alderman (Council)

Mrs. Kennon Law, Violet is 48 years old, raised 4 children, with 1 still at home. She is self employed, lived in Tye for over 10 years. Her goals are, if elected to the council, is to establish an Administrative Committee which will be citizens that will look into major purchases for the city, seeking ways to get more for our money without trying everything and checking and getting facts to present to the council. To help Tye in becoming a more progressive city by having better public relations with the citizens of Tye, keeping them informed.

A.J. Pence, 39 years and holding. A.J. is a self employed businessman in concrete products. Has lived in Tye for the past 6 years, raised 3 children with one still at home. His interest in city government is to clean up the eyesores of Tye, be aggressive in getting things done such as better roads, water and the much talked about sewer lines that have gone undone.

Mrs. Noland Miller, better known as Patty Miller. She is married and raising two boys, and she said they are all boys. Patty has been raised here in Tye with a brief absence when they were in the service. She is a domestic engineer (Housewife). She feels that she can relate with the citizens of Tye, young and senior citizens but better and more involvement by public relations, keeping everyone informed. Taking action and following through after decisions are once made at council meetings. Improve and enforce the Dog problems that we here in Tye are having. Getting some type of youth program and building a center for all persons of Tye. Seeking to better the road conditions here and other areas that need to be corrected.

Mrs. Otto Brazell, better known as Helena to most. She is 48 and doesn't mind who knows her age. She has raised 9 children with the last one at home. She has been a resident of Tye for more than 12 years. She is employed at Abilene State School as a Residential and Recreation Coordinator for the past 11 years. She also wants Tye to be progressive in growth by using the administration system, weighing all sides of an issue that comes before the council, before making decisions. Follow through after something has been voted on. Seek better ways to work for the citizens of Tye, keeping them informed. She just wants to be there when needed to work for you, not a certain group.

DeWitt Isoms, 49 years, been on city council and has lived here in Tye all his life. He is married and raising 3 children. Been the Postmaster here in Tye for the past 17 years. All he wants to do is get the people of Tye their moneys worth, projects that we can afford and keep up with. Seek the completion of the sewer project and look into a water system that we will need in the future.

Art Herrera, 44 years old, raised 5 children with one living at home. Art is an incumbent in this race for council. He is self employed as a barber here in Tye. He wants the city to grow yet keep a budget and have someone to administer city funds, getting equal value for every dollar spent. To see the completions of the sewer system, maintain a balanced budget and expenditures. To upgrade the city streets and have them maintained after they are in condition.

Luanne Goodgion was unavailable at this writing so I will endeavor to get with her on the next column along with the candidates that are running for the two seats for the Merkel ISD posts. There you are Tye with six persons that want to serve you, all they ask is that you vote, for your candidate. They all have stated that whether you vote for them or not, to vote. Show that you care about YOUR city and how you want it run. It is your time to commit yourselves... The candidates have given their time, how about you? I want to thank each person whom I've talked to on this brief outline and do hope that I have given it fairly and as accurate as I have done.

For this week of writing, many thanks for your time, till next week, lets clean up the vacant lots, back yards and get ready for the most beautiful time of the year, Spring. See you next week.

Tye First And Second Grade News

First Grade Mrs. Evans

The boys and girls in Mrs. Evans' class have been having a delightful time using ACT IT OUT cards. These cards are divided into categories which include characters, objects, situations, rhythm and music, and stories.

The children especially enjoy acting out "situations". For example, we acted out a situation of a child visiting a doctor. A student was chosen to act as a doctor and one each for a nurse, parent, and patient. This creative dramatic experience helps the student to act out his feelings about a trip to the doctor - their reactions to examinations, to shots, to being sick, and etc. Playing the doctor, who must make a sick child well, can help students understand the doctor's role in their lives.

Another favorite situation that was acted out was eating spaghetti, ice cream, a tough steak, etc. The skit can be a group of children acting out a family eating a meal, a picnic, a party, or etc. This is a good way for the children to learn about table manners.

Creative dramatic experiences are good for helping the shy child to overcome his shyness, and helps children to learn how to express themselves in different situations. There are many situations that can be used such as going shopping, talking to a policeman, being a teacher, playing in the snow, or landing on a strange planet. This activity can also be extended to include stories read in our basal reading book.

Creative dramatics is also a good way to provide a little humor. The children laughed so much until we had a message from our neighbor on the other side of our wall wanting to know what was so funny in our room.

The now beg every day for a chance to "act out the little cards".

Second Grade Mrs. Coke

We learned some interesting things from "Ranger Rick Magazine" in "Who-O-O Knows?"

What is the difference between a dolphin and a porpoise?

Dolphins are larger than porpoises and may have beak-like snouts. Porpoises are less than six feet long and have rounder heads. Scientists tell them apart by the shape of their fins and teeth. Dolphins and porpoises aren't fish but are mammals. That means they are warm-blooded and that they nurse their young.

Do cats only see black and white?

For many years people thought that dogs and cats could not see colors. Scientists have recently discovered that cats see color. Your pet cat doesn't see colors as well as a person. Unless something is very large, or very close, it won't look colorful. Objects that are small or far away just look gray. Dr. Michael Loop, at the University of Illinois, explains it this way: "To a cat, an apple is red, but a cherry is gray!"
