There would not have been much of a parade, let's be honest, no parade at all without the help of the Merkel Volunte r Fire Department and the Ambulance Service, and the Dunagin clan.

One thing I have learned about Merkel is that there is a small circle of people that you can always depend on for help, and in many cases, the events that do happen around here would not be possible without them.

It has to be that way in a small town and ! am glad those few are so involved.

The Chamber Christmas parade is an event for the kids here, and the look on their faces makes it worthwhile.

Maxi Lang had 3, Michelle Barnett, Diem Tran and Michelle Dudley each scored a bucket. Teresa Lucas was the leading rebounder while Michelle Barnett had 4 steals

On. Dec. 1, the Lady Badgers traveled to the Rotan Tournament where they had two easy wins to capture the championship trophy. In the first game, Merkel defeated Hamlin 34-15. Teresa Lucas led the way, along with Maxi Lang as they each had 8. Diem Tran pitched in 6 and Michelle Barnett, Christi Wade and Amber Whisenhunt all added 4. The team had a total of 26 rebounds and 17 steals. All of the girls played well together. In the championship game of the tournament, the Lady Badgers mauled the Roby Lions 26-6. Teresa Lucas led the way with 10, followed by Maxi Lang with 7, Michelle Barnett, Christi Wade, Amber Whisenhunt and Melinda Baker added two each and Mendy Bunselmeyer added a free throw. The team played excellent defense with the standouts being Maxi Lang and Lorena Pack. They controlled the boards with 21 defensive rebounds. Throughout the tournament they
