Rain, Fun Day, housing rehab ... more

by Cloy A. Richards

Did you put your boat away ? A few local kids had a lot of fun playing in runoff as the city received almost 13 inches of rain in a five day period.

City manager J. A. Sadler and I drove around Thursday looking at high water and there's not much left the city could do to channel water away.

If the drainage ditch along the Mo-Pac track here had not been cleaned last summer, people along the tracks would have had water in their homes from all of last week's rain.

Congratulations are in order to Skip Townsend and the 1986 Merkel Badger baseball team as they had their best post-season in three years as they won two playoff games before being eliminated by Fabens last Tuesday.

The Badgers lost an 8-7 heartbreaker.

The view out the ol' front window is not considerably ditterent as Castille's Hardware building has been demolished. There is quite a lot there for construction.

Reservations for food and game booths at Fun Day are being taken by Chamber of Commerce manager Marilyn Tittle.

Those interested should give her a call pronto.

On Feb. 26 at 6 a.m. I lost my husband of 46 vears and I also lost my best friend. We were always together, so now it is so hard to begin a SHUGART new day alone. No I'm not alone, I feel God's presence and I know Leo is watching over me from Heaven

Each morning I look up and thank God for watching over me. I always tell him I love him and to bless me and my children and grandchildren

Pa Pa I always say, Good morning to you like we always did, because I know you are always looking down on me, I go to the cemetery

I drink my coffee and eat my cereal in your recliner. Everywhere I turn, I miss you. It won't be long until I see you again. Won't that be wonderful. In Revelations we read what Heaven will be like, streets will be pure gold, gates of pearl. There will be no more tears, no sorrow, no death.

For a few weeks ! thought I was the only one who was so sad. I couldn't believe this all had happened.

Then I had so many calls and I knew so many women who were also very lonely. Some had no children to call or come by. Some women can't drive, some not as healthy as I. I was lucky to have our children and grandchildren to call and come by often, our friends have been by our side and many prayers have been offered for all of us. Even as you struggled to survive and walk for
