

"MY TURN"

By Carol
Ellis

IT HAS BEEN HAMMERED into our heads for years that we all need to go vote every time an election comes up. It is our duty as citizens and every vote is valuable to the democratic process.

The other day, I asked a young lady if she was going to vote in the election on November 8. She replied that she wasn't going to vote this time around because she had not studied the issues or the candidates well enough to be able to make good decisions about whom to vote for. I thought that was an extremely well thought out answer.

Far from being the be-all-to-end-all, simply herding warm bodies out to the polling places on voting day adds nothing to the value of our governmental system. Of the approximately 32 percent of the eligible voters who are not registered, you have such fine upstanding folks as the functional illiterates, street people, petty criminals, the indolent drones of society, purple haired punk-rock teens, career welfare siphons, and people who can't speak English, can't read a newspaper, and couldn't understand a debate between the candidates if they had an opportunity.

Mind you, all of these people are eligible to vote and certainly have the right to vote if they so choose. I'm simply saying that those who are not interested enough to learn what they are voting for, should not be persistently harangued into marking a ballot just for the sake of numbers at the polls. For one thing, these are the people who, when lured to the polls, are most likely to cast their ballot for the cutest candidate, the one who spent the most on TV commercials, or the one who promises to dole out the most benefits to the free-loaders of society.

I believe that our right to vote is a privilege which should not be taken lightly nor given away freely. The Voter Registration Act goes into effect in January next year. Under this new ruling, drivers will automatically be registered when they renew their licenses. Good grief! You have to take a test to get a driver's license. Shouldn't you at least have to answer a couple of intelligent questions in order to be able to vote?

Also under the new Voter Registration Act, welfare recipients will be able to register when they go to pick up their government hand-outs. Oh, goody! A bunch of people who care nothing about economics except how much they can get out of other people's pockets, and they'll be easily enticed into voting for the most liberal politicians.

Grass roots folks spend a third of their working years paying for government spending. It certainly behooves the conservative segment of the populace (which I believe is in the majority) to get out to the polls and vote for the candidates who promise less taxes, smaller government, family values, and strictly enforced penalties for criminals.

While on the subject of elections, these campaigns drag on much too long, which makes them much too expensive. The longer the campaign, the dirtier the mud slinging gets. With so much mud in everyone's eyes, it is impossible to tell who is telling the truth.

We ought to limit campaigns to just one month prior to the elections. The candidates could saturate the airways and newspapers with their rhetoric for about four weeks. The campaigns wouldn't last long enough to get really dirty and prospective office holders wouldn't need to receive campaign contributions from those who expect political favors in return.

The President only holds office four years at a time. The first two years he runs the country and then the next two years he runs for office. So you might say that we have someone in charge only half the time. Whew! No wonder our government is in such a mess.

REGIONAL QUALIFIERS...Shown are Brooke Charles and Martin Reyna who are regional qualifiers in cross country.

Early Vote Indicates Good Turnout Here

The number of people voting early for next Tuesday's general election indicated a good turnout at the polls, according to County Clerk Bonnie Warren.

The tight governor's race, plus a couple of local races have sparked a better than average turnout.

Countywide, there is a race for the District Clerk's office between incumbent Marjorie Watkins and challenger Sandra Warren. Friona's JP race pits longtime incumbent Frances Euler vs Reba Holt.

As of noon Thursday, a total of 260 votes had been cast early, and this did not include Thursday's turnout at Friona's final day voting booth at Friona Credit Union.

"I was in Friona Thursday morning, and there was a steady stream of voters. There had been at least 50 voters cast ballots by noon Thursday in Friona," Mrs. Warren said.

Polling places for Tuesday's election are as follows:

Pct. 101--Calvary Baptist Church; 201--Bovina EMS Building; 202--Friona Community Center; 203--Rhea Community

Center; 301-Farwell Community Center; 302--Oklahoma Lane Methodist; 303--Ridgelea School, Bovina; 401--Lazbuddie School and 402: Friona Fire Station.

Polls will be open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

JV Takes Third Win

The Junior Varsity Bovina Mustangs extended their winning streak to three games this past Thursday night with a 22-8 victory over the Vega Longhorns.

Throughout the first half, the JV Mustangs were plagued with three turnovers. "We were lucky to only be down 8-0 at the half," said coach Bruce Beets. The JV Mustangs gave the ball to Vega three times within their own 30 yard line. After two very good defensive stands, the Mustangs could not keep Vega out of the endzone a third time. But, that was the only score that Vega could manage for the entire game.

The offense finally started clicking in the second half and the Mustangs put up 22 unanswered points to win 22-8.

There was a total of 13 turnovers in that game. "I think it was caused by the light due on the ground. It was just wet enough to make the ball slippery and neither team could hang on to it," said coach Beets.

ROBERT CALAWAY

Vega Wins Over Bovina Mustangs

Early in the third quarter, the Longhorns intercepted a pass and ran it in for a touchdown to end the scoring at Vega 20 - Bovina 13.

Local Cancer Chapter Met Here Oct. 25

The American Cancer Society met Monday, October 25 at the Branding Iron Restaurant.

Misty Price of Amarillo was introduced as the new field representative for this area. She discussed the purpose of the organization and explained how it works nationwide. The emphasis for this year will be breast cancer.

The local group will have a booth at the annual craft show and will be active through the year with planned activities.

Everyone is welcome to attend the next meeting, which will be held Tuesday, January 31.

"We badly need new members," a spokesperson concluded.

QUILT DISPLAY--Two interesting quilts are on display in the lobby at Prairie Acres Nursing Home for the month of November. Billie Tongate shows us the "flower garden" quilt which was pieced from scraps in the 1940s by her mother-in-law Naomi Tongate who is a resident at Prairie Acres. Elizabeth Romero, activity director at the home, is also admiring the handwork. Elizabeth has been with Prairie Acres for over 10 years. Another of Mrs. Tongate's quilts in the "Dresden plate" pattern is also on display.

Annual Project Helps Girlstown Residents

The 25th annual Coat and Shoe Fund Project to benefit Girlstown, U.S.A. is now underway throughout the Texas Panhandle. Conducted by the Lions Clubs of District 2-T1, the project was begun in 1969 to provide each deserving girl a coat and a pair of shoes.

This year, 90 girls will be coming to Amarillo on Friday and Saturday, November 11 and 12. The girls receive a generous discount from J.C. Penney Department Store in Westgate Mall, and this makes the Lions Club dollars go even farther. Each girl will have a credit limit within which she may purchase her coat, shoes and other much-needed clothing items. Many of the girls have never before purchased so many new articles of clothing. They will be assisted in their shopping by Lions Club members, their families and friends.

Among the girls from Girlstown, U.S.A. will be about 20 girls from Cal Farley's Family Program at Borger, Texas. This facility, now in its second year of operation, provides homes and opportunities to children of elementary school age. The Lions have included these girls in its annual fund raising effort.

The chairman of the Coat and Shoe Fund is Keith Christie of Dumas, Texas, who is serving his ninth year in that position. Along with promoting the fund drive with area Lions Clubs, Mr. Christie coordinates the shopping trip and the amount of funds each girl may spend. Every penny the lions receive for the Coat and Shoe Fund is used to purchase the girls' clothing.

Since 1987, Girlstown has been affiliated with Cal Farley's Boys Ranch. According to Public Information Director Carl McMillen, "The Coat and Shoe Fund is conducted by people who

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE EIGHTH SON OF JACOB!

ASHER WAS THE SECOND SON OF ZILPAH, LEAH'S MAID SERVANT (GEN. 30:2,13,35:26) HIS BLESSING GIVEN BY JACOB ON HIS DEATHBED IS THUS WORDED:
 "OUT OF ASHER HIS BREAD SHALL BE FAT,
 AND HE SHALL YIELD ROYAL DAINTIES."
 (GEN. 46:20)

HE HAD FOUR SONS AND A DAUGHTER NAMED SERAH (GEN. 46:17, I CHRON. 7:30) THE TRIBE OF WHICH ASHER WAS THE PROGENITOR, WAS ASSIGNED THE TERRITORY TO THE NORTHERN BOUNDARY OF PALESTINE AND, IN THE SOUTH, BOUNDED BY CARMEL, A LENGTH ABOVE SOME SIXTY MILES. (JOSH. 19:24-31) UNFORTUNATELY THE ASHERITES COULD NOT EXPEL THE CANAANITE INHABITANTS FROM SUCH STRONG CITIES AS SIDON, ACCHO, TYRE, AND THIS FAILURE TO CAPTURE AND OCCUPY THE PHOENICIAN PLAIN, ALONG THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA, LEFT THEM ONLY THE INLAND HILL COUNTRY--EXCEPT NEAR CARMEL. HOWEVER, THIS TERRITORY WAS WELL ADAPTED FOR THE GROWING OF OLIVE TREES--SO THAT THE BLESSING OF MOSES UPON THE TRIBE OF ASHER COULD BE FULFILLED --
 "BLESSED BE ASHER WITH CHILDREN; LET HIM BE ACCEPTABLE UNTO HIS BRETHREN AND LET HIM DIP HIS FOOT IN OIL."
 (DEUT. 33:24)

AND WITH ALL THE OLIVE TREES THAT THEY GREW THEY CERTAINLY HAD ENOUGH OIL TO DIP THEIR FEET IN IF THEY DESIRED!

We were saddened this week by the death of Dub Brown. He suffered a fatal heart attack at his home about 5:30 a.m. on Tuesday morning. He was such a nice person and everyone liked him alot.

Mary said her sister had diabetes real bad, as well as pneumonia and cancer in her lung. Mary also said there had been five children in her family and all of her brothers and sisters have passed away.

Deborah was telling me about her grandfather, Ernest Jones of Olton. Ernest suffered a stroke and has been a patient in ICU at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He has been moved to a room, according to Deborah, but is still having a rough time. Everyone here knows Ernest and have been asking about his condition. He is Dorothy Sorley's dad.

J. T. and Myrna Hammonds enjoyed company recently. Myrna's sister and her husband, Lillie and Bryan Jones came from LaHabra, California and spent a few days. Myrna said Lillie graduated from high school here in 1942 and her maiden name was Hester.

Don and Juanda Murphy went to Ballinger on Monday. Juanda's uncle, Cecil Patton, passed away and they were going to attend his funeral and also to check on Don's mom, Mattie Murphy, who had undergone surgery.

Hannah Miller, daughter of Stan and Darlene Miller celebrated her fourth birthday with a party on Saturday and also one on Sunday. Children attending the party Saturday were Lacey Teague, Kelsey and Kasey Birdsong, Megan Whitten, Jake Brozek and Linda Pruitt.

Also visiting was J. T.'s sister, Lois McCleskey of Los Lunas, New Mexico and their daughter, Sue and Alan of Roseville, Michigan. They also visited with their mother, Mrs. Oma Looney. She will be 99 years old in February and is a resident at Prairie Acres in Friona.

We express sympathies to Sarah Owen whose mom passed away recently. She was Bernice Cooper of Corpus Cristi and had been seriously ill for some time.

Family members who met on Sunday for a barbecue and birthday cake were Kevin and Crystal Smith and daughter Robin of Hereford, Justin and Arlene Brozek and son Jake, Billy Smith, and Jim and Joy Melton.

Charles Steele is getting along fine and came home from the nursing home about six weeks ago. He broke his ankle a few months ago and underwent surgery. He was in the hospital for a long time and spent a few weeks in the nursing home before returning to his home.

Deborah Beauchamp and daughter, Lori, went to Abilene last Saturday and attended a musical production of "Sing." Deborah's daughter, Angie, was in the musical and she is a student at Hardin-Simmons.

Virginia Rhodes recently underwent surgery but is home now and getting along fine. She said she spent two days in High Plains Baptist Hospital and two days and nights with son, Allen, before coming home. She said she is really feeling good and will be back teaching soon.

Allene Russell is still a patient at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. She underwent surgery to correct a broken hip in recent weeks.

Gladys Wright is a patient at the Friona hospital. She entered the hospital on Saturday and when we talked with her she said they had determined that she had an infection in her throat and lungs and also a kidney infection. She had tests run in Hereford on Tuesday morning and said they would continue to run tests. She is feeling some better.

Ashley Zehner celebrated her 14th birthday with a slumber party at her home. She is Jim Zehner's daughter and he was telling me they had eleven teenage girls to spend the night. They had a great time.

Jim was also telling me that he and Ashley would be going to England in December and Ashley will be staying there with her mom to finish school.

Our sympathies to Wayne Taylor, whose dad passed away. He was Pat Patterson, 78, who lived in Muleshoe. He had worked at the Lenau Lumber Yard in Muleshoe for some thirty years. He is survived by his wife, Julia, three sons, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Wayne is the manager of Allsup's.

Congratulations to Bret and Sherri Whitten, who became parents of a baby boy, Colby Rance, born Thursday, October 27. Also congratulations to grandparents, Earl and Norma Whitten of Bovina and Erma Brown of Friona. The couple has a daughter, Megan, who is almost four years old.

We express our sympathies to Mary Treinen, whose sister passed away. She was Nita Reagan, 59, of Canyon and died on the 22nd of October. She was survived by one daughter, one son and one grandson.

When England wanted to cut government waste, a Texan showed them how to trim the fat

Cutting waste in government isn't easy. That's why, when members of Parliament wanted to make the British government more efficient, they consulted the recognized expert in America: Texas Comptroller John Sharp.

Hardly a surprise, old chap.

Since taking office in 1991, John Sharp and his Texas Performance Review team have set the standard for streamlining government agencies, saving taxpayers a documented $6.2 billion and helping Texas avoid a state income tax. And his reviews of Texas school districts have saved taxpayers more than $24 million.

Now he's fighting to cut millions of dollars in welfare fraud and bureaucratic waste by abolishing paper food stamps, which are often stolen and then traded for drugs. Sharp's plan is to replace food stamps with computerized security cards.

No wonder U.S. News and World Report (1/4/94) says: "John Sharp has become the mastermind behind a sweeping overhaul of the bureaucracy that has put Texas at the forefront of the nationwide effort to...root out waste."

Yet, despite all the additional duties and initiatives taken on by the Comptroller's Office, Sharp still managed to reduce the number of his employees and return $9 million of his budget to the taxpayers.

Of course, there's a lot more waste in Texas state government just waiting to be cut, so the job is far from over. That's why we need to keep John Sharp on the job.
