The Bill and Maury Shiver Learning Center is a tribute to a couple, that for almost three decades, played an important role in the education of Post's young people. For 28 years first Bill and then Maury Shiver served the community through their positions in the Post Independent School District.

The couple was honored Sunday, February 7 as the elementary library was dedicated as the "Bill and Maury Shiver Learning Center" during a public reception.

"The Board of Trustees thought it only fitting that we name the learning center after Maury and Bill because of its importance to both of them," said Trustee Mark Kirkpatrick. "It's only a small way of saying thank you to them for all of their hard work and dedication to the Post Independent School District and to the community of Post.'

Bill Shiver came to Post in 1963 as a new curriculum director for the district. The following year he assumed the position as superintendent of the district, one he held until his retirement from PISD on December 31, 1992.

At the time he took over as superintendent, the district was facing some serious financial problems. Within three years, Shiver had the district turned around and back on

Council limited in controls it can place on movies

by John Cordsen

Legally the City of Post doesn't have the right to inhibit the distribution of adult movies, this according to city attorney Harvey Morton.

The question controlling adult movies was brought before the Post City Council at its regular meeting Monday, February 1.

Jack Ham, speaking as a concerned citizen before the council, reported that a video store in town was renting adult movies and wondered if there was anything the council could do to restrict this practice.

Ham read several reports and studies on how pornography was involved with crimes and abuse to children.

Ham did not name the video store in question but said he was in the business recently and saw a sign behind the counter advertising that the store was carrying adult movies.

Ham said he thought the videos were not on display but that they were by request only.

The Post Middle School eight grade girls continue to roll along, picking up another win February 4 against Seagraves, 32-20.

The young Lady 'Lopes rode the scoring of Falisha and Angela Jefferson, 11 and 8, to the 12 point win.

Also making a major contribution to the Lady 'Lopes efforts were the ball handling talents of Talina Bird and Monica Schooler who handled the Eagles pressure.

"This was another team effort," said coach Bill Gordon. "We hustled extremely well."

Also scoring for the Lady 'Lopes were: Nikki Pollard, 5; Jody Hawkins, 4; Carrie Bonner and Tabatha Blevins, 2.

Seventh grade grounds Eagles

Post Middle School seventh grade girls bounced back after losing a lead against the Seagraves Eagles for a 27-25 win.

Post had built a 12-2 first quarter lead only to see Seagraves reverse this with a 15-4 edge in the second quarter.

The Lady 'Lopes recaptured the lead out scoring the Eagles 9-6 in the third. The defenses tightened up in the final period as both teams were held to a single field goal.

Scoring for Post were: Mills, 4: Pollard, 11: Gomez, 5: Escobar, 1: Gradine, 6.

Yesteryears

Gleaned from the files of the Post Dispatch. Microfilm copies are available at the Post Public Library By Deana Gunn

10 Years Ago February 2, 1983 Miss Piggy Bold and Kermit Gold made Post history when they were united in marriage before a packed house at the Post Community Center, in the first womanless wedding ever held in the Post community. The event was sponsored by the Post Antelope booster club and those donating their time and talent were Pru Basquez (Miss Piggie Bold), Larry Mills (Kermit Gold), Preston Poole (Preacher), Jack Alexander (brides father), Jimmy Redman (Matron of Wayne Williams, who ranches in the Polar community, southeast of Post, with his son, Billy Wayne Williams, has been named by the Garza Soil and Conservation District board of supervision and the Post Lions Club as the "Outstanding Conservation Rancher" in the Garza Soil Conservation District.

Two post students, Gary E. Welch and Bryan J. Williams III, were among 14 Army ROTC cadets commissioned during exercises at the Texas Tech Student Union.

Post sending 11 to Houston Stock Show

Post will send 11 FFA members to compete against other 4-H and FFA members from throughout Texas at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show, February 20 through March 7 at the Astrohall.

These FFA and 4-H exhibitors compete in one of two divisions of the Houston Livestock Show - the junior show division. The other division, the open show, attracts its exhibitors from the world's agricultural industry, who are primarily professional breeders and ranchers.

Entries in both the open and junior shows combine with horse show entries to make the Houston

Livestock Show the world's largest. Kelli Collier, Joey Cowley, Heath Eagle, Micaela Eagle, Dee Je Morris will each be showing a

Representing 862 Texas 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show is expected to exceed 11,000 entries this year. A variety of animals are shown in the junior show division: market steers, market swine, market sheep, market poultry, beef and dairy heifers, breeding sheep, goats, commercial steers and breeding rabbits. The four market animal categories (steers, sheep, swine and poultry) represent animals raised by the exhibitor as food sources. Top animals in each of these categories are eligible for their individual market auctions. Total money paid in 1992 at the four junior show auctions exceeded $3 million; "Our junior show is the highlight emphasis on education, supervised instruction and fair competition," said Steve Woodley, Houston, Livestock Show and Rodeo

Junior 'Lopes lose

Idalou.

The contest wasn't decided until the final period when Idalou out scored Martin, 2; Nichols, 5; Eagle, 4; and Post 18-9. Post actually led 22-21 at Clay, 3. the half.

An even third quarter left Post nursing a slim 39-38 lead over the Wildcats heading into the final frame. Leading scorer for the 'Lopes was Brad Lawson who finished with 17. Other scorers for Post were: Radley Nichols, 13; Chris Ashley, 6; Heath Eagle, 5; Clint Melton, 5 and Lance Clay, 2.

Tahoka

Tahoka edged the Antelopes 31-30 and Ashley, 2 and Hart, 1. January 22 in Post.

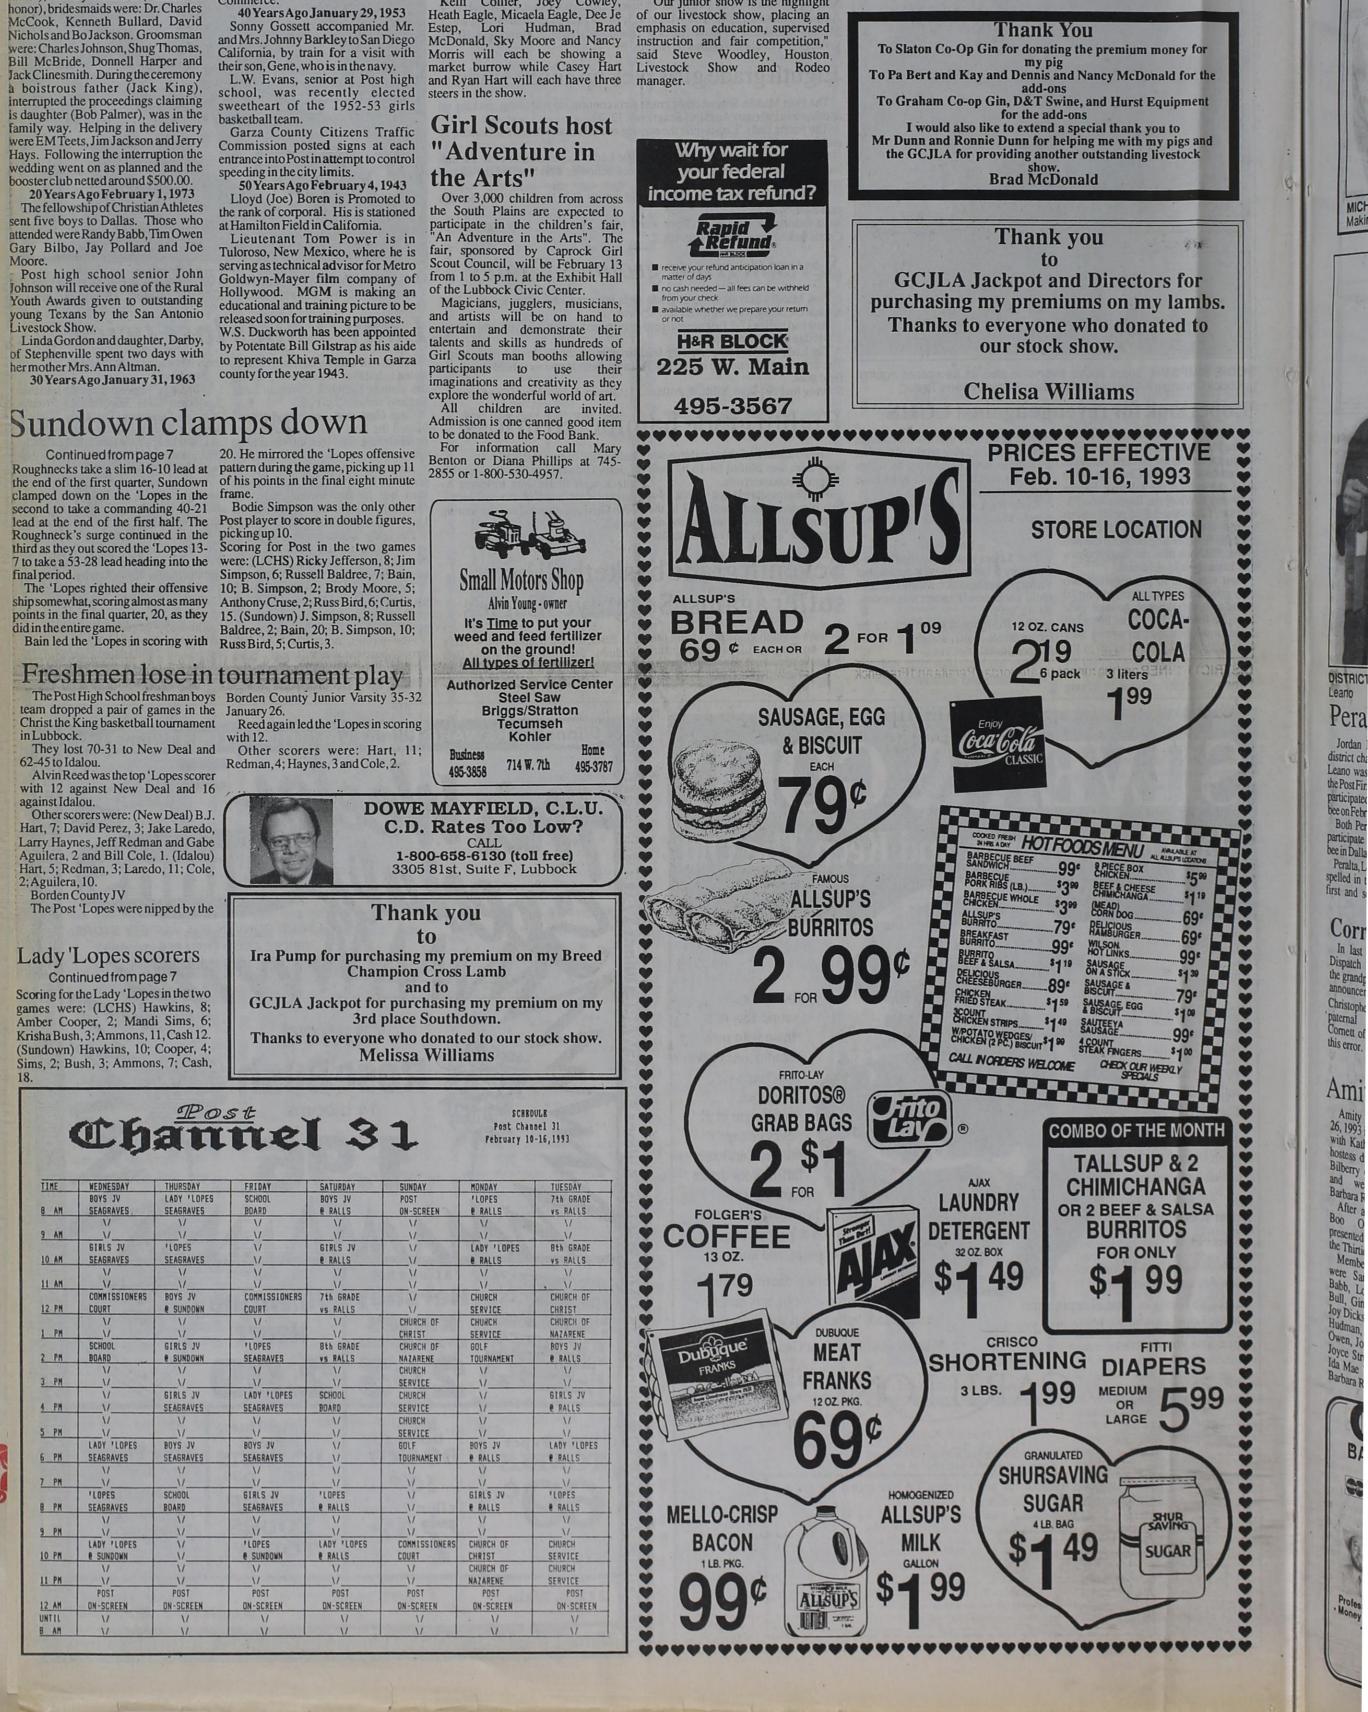

The Post 'Lopes Junior Varsity boys lost 56-48 to Idalou January 26 in Scoring column led by Brad Lawson and Clint Melton with 7. Other scorers for Post were: Reed, 2; Anthony

Seagraves

After taking an early lead, 11-7 against the Seagraves Eagles, the Post Bold Gold couldn't hold on and lost 51-37.

Seagraves used a big second quarter where they outscored Post 21-8 to build a cushion.

Scoring for Post were: Melton, 8; Nichols, 6; Lawson, Eagle and Clay, 4; Terry and Ryan Sappinton, 3; Martin

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clay Cowdrey Weatherford and Cowdrey married in December ceremony

Weatherford and Robert Clay Cowdrey of Post were married at 7 p.m. Saturday, December 19, 1992, in the North Side Baptist Church. The traditional, double-ring ceremony was officiated by Dr. Toby McSwain.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Ballard Mrs. Dale and granddaughter of Mrs. Ola Ballard and Mr. and Mrs. Don Roark, all of Weatherford. A graduate of Tarleton State University, she earned a bachelor of business administration degree in accounting and computer information systems. She is a programmer/analyst for Meridian Oil, Inc. in Fort Worth.

Cowdrey of Post, the groom also is Devonna Jeane Ballard of Southern of Millsap and Leslie Randall of Stephenville.

The groom's brother, Curt Cowdrey of Lubbock, performed best man duties. Groomsmen were Ron Graves of Post, Van Smith of Johnson City, Shannon Truesdell of Graham and Joe Lopez of Elgin.

Kylie Easterling of Post was the ring bearer and Jennifer Bartley of Las Cruces, N.M. was the flower girl. Both are nieces of the groom. Ushers were Bart Mason of Abilene and the bride's brother, Dwayne Ballard of Fort Worth.

Music was provided by the groom's sister, Amy Easterling of Post, and Russell Simmons of Weatherford.

Following the ceremony, a The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby reception was hosted by the bride's parents at the church. The bride's

If I were to ask you what you wanted most in life, chances are you would say that you want to be happy more than anything else. Then if I asked you what it would take to make you happy, you would have a definite idea about just what it would take.

Many would list material possessions, family, health, However, education, etc. psychologists who have studied people and what makes them happy have found that some of the most popular ideas about what makes people happy are incorrect. The studies conducted have found little difference in how happy people say they are whether those asked were teenagers, males or females, middle-aged or elderly. Knowing whether someone is rich or poor, black or white, healthy or handicapped, does not make it possible to predict how happy that person is likely to be.

Psychologists have found that generally, people are as happy today as their parents were 30 years ago. Researchers say that external circumstances have little effect on psychological well-being. They agree that the following four inner traits foster happiness:

*Self-Esteem -- Those who are happy like themselves. They protect themselves from anxiety and depression by feeling good about themselves. Those who believe positive things about themselves. Those who believe positive things about themselves suffer less from ulcers and insomnia and are less likely to abuse drugs. They tend to be more resistant to pressure to conform and are more persistent at difficult tasks.

*Personal Control -- Americans who have a strong sense that they control their own lives and feel satisfied with themselves are twice as likely to describe themselves as very happy as the national average. Those who agree with statements like, "what happens to me is my own doing," or, "the average person influence government decisions," typically do better in school, cope better with stress and live more happily than those who lack that sense of personal control. Those given little control over their environment such as prisoners or even people in nursing homes suffer from lower morale, greater stress and worse health. *Optimism --- Optimistic people tend to be healthier as well as happier. They suffer less from illnesses and tend to recover better. Positive thinkers get positive results, succeeding better in business than pessimists. However, unrealistic optimism can make people believe they are invulnerable and can stop them from taking sensible steps to avoid danger.

*Socializing -- Those who are more sociable and outgoing tend to be happier and more satisfied with life than introverts. Extroverts are cheerful and high-spirited people who like themselves. When they meet strangers, they are confident the strangers will like them.

Psychologists have confirmed what our mothers told us all along, "happiness comes from inside," and "happiness is what you ARE, not what you HAVE." Our task to be sure that what we are inside helps us to be happy. Then we must teach our children to be happy by working to build in them a positive, realistic self-esteem, give them a sense of personal control, teach them to have an optimistic outlook on life and teach them to like people and how to get along well with others.
