Garza County Sheriff's office copes with Brady Bill fallout

by John Cordsen

Paperwork associated with the recently enacted Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act (better known as the Brady Bill) is proving to be a problem for the Garza County Sheriff's Department. Completing just one background check with all of its forms, phone calls and faxes is taxing the department's personnel.

"It ties up one of my officers four to five hours," said Garza County Sheriff Kenny Ratke speaking at the county commissioners meeting on Monday, March 28. "It's tying up our dispatchers, the officers doing the background checks and it's tying up our equipment."

Ratke says his office has had close to 15 background requests come through his office in the month the law has been in effect. The problem is not just a local one. Law enforcement agencies across the state of Texas are feeling the pinch of the controversial law which took effect February 28.

In the first two weeks the law was in effect Houston's police department received over 1,300 applications, San Antonio had 849 turned in and Dallas saw gun dealers turn in 1,286 applications.

The crux of the problem is that the law requires licensed gun dealers to run background checks on anyone trying to purchase a handgun. These requests are turned over to local law enforcement agencies who then run the time consuming background checks.

Ratke asked the commissioners court if there was any way his department could assess a fee to pay for the costs associated with the checks. The court was unsure of the legalities of charging fees but felt that if the situation

"It's tying up our dispatchers, the officers doing the background checks and it's tying up our equipment."

Kenny Ratke

continued as it has, something needs to be done.

"With other counties having the problems they are, something is going to be coming down," said Commissioner Lee Norman.

The timing of Ratke's report of the trouble and expense associated with the Brady Bill coincided with the commissioners adoption of a resolution calling for an end to unfunded or underfunded state and federal mandates.

"This (the Brady Bill) is just another unfunded mandate," said Garza County Judge Giles Dalby.

Texas Senator Phil Gramm said in a February letter to the commissioners' court that federal mandates are to state and local government budgets what high taxes are to family income. He added that imposed regulations now cost state and local governments and the private sector an estimated $581 billion per year. Gramm's letter said the almost $600 billion in unfunded mandates was more than double the size of the current annual federal budget deficit. To put the figures into perspective, unfunded federal mandates cost roughly $5,934 per household in America.

The commissioner approved the purchase of a commercial grade riding lawn mower that will be used by the community service program. Administrators of the program said the current equipment is wearing out and needs to be replaced.

The court also approved a new five year lease with the Texas Department of Health for the state agency's offices on the south shore of the lake in Post's city park. The new contract was an updating of an existing agreement with the state.

DPS officer Kyle Edwards explains to Pablo Perez the importance of safety reflectors during the second annual bicycle safety rodeo held Saturday, March 26 at the elementary parking lot.

Bike rodeo emphasizes safety

Safety first was the message in the second annual Bicycle Rodeo sponsored jointly by the Garza County Sheriff's Department, the Department of Public Safety, Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW and the Blue Knights Motorcycle Club, Chapter 9 out of Lubbock. Participants in the safety program won a number of prizes including a new Schwinn bicycle along with numerous other prizes such as helmets, water bottles, cookies and pop. Every one who participated in the program was given a lock and chain for their bike.

The afternoon's activities included a short video on bicycle safety, and a chance to be graded as they took a ride through an obstacle course.

Members of the Blue Knights had their motorcycles (Harley Davidsons and other large models) on display. Also, the law enforcement officers were in uniform.

Stace Norman was the winner of the Schwinn bicycle from the Bike Korner in Lubbock.

The event was also a success because of the help and support of a number of local and area businesses, groups and individuals. They included: Ammons Printing, Happiness Is, Bryan Williams and Son Ins., Lily Dales, the Frame Shoppe and Wallace Lumber, Twins Fashion, Triple M Pump and Supply, Hudman Furniture, Holly Brothers Texaco, Collier Drug, Kidstuff, Juanelia Hays, Pee Wee Pierce.

Giles McCrary, Corner Grocery, Rucker A Well Services, Weaver McKamie, Ira Pump and Supply, R&D Automotive, Post Auto Parts, Terry Tire Shop, Johnny's Exxon, Country Carousel, First National Bank of Post, Citizens Bank of Post, Holly's Drive In, Rosie's Restaurant, Prizms, Post Middle School, Higginbotham-Bartlett, Palmers, Caprock Liquor, B&B Liquor, Wells Pharmacy, Dairy Queen, VFW, United Supermarket-Post, Bike Korner of Lubbock, DFC Cycles and Fitness, South Plains Beverage Company and Wal-Mart.

New regulations begin April 1

Law restricts oil filter dumping

by John Cordsen

Framework already exists here in Post that will allow residents to comply with a new state law that makes it illegal for anyone to dispose of used oil filters in Texas landfills.

The new law, which takes effect this Friday, April 1, means that used oil filters can no longer be thrown in the trash anywhere in Texas. Instead, the oil filters must be drained and taken to a business or location that accepts filters for recycling. The steel from filters can be recycled into new steel products.

It is already against the law to dump used oil on the ground. Like filters, oil must be taken to a collection facility.

Thanks to the foresight of Post Mayor Jim Jackson and the city council, the community has both the oil and filter recycling capabilities. Post, through a grant, purchased six oil recycling containers or "igloos" late last year and has placed them around the county. Igloos have been placed in Justiceburg, Close City, on top of the Caprock off of US Highway 380, Southland and two have been set up in Post, one at the city barn on Ave. H and the other at the county barn south of the lake in the city park.

Also, the city will have a filter recycling location set up at the city barn on Ave. H.

"We will have a dumpster by the city barn for people to put them (oil filters) in," said interim city manager Delbert Rudd.

The Texas Natural Resource

Conservation Commissioner (TNRCC) has taken the offensive to help people who change the oil in their own vehicles comply with the new law. The agency has been working with businesses and local governments to develop a system of collection points for used oil and oil filters. A TNRCC survey identified over 400 retail businesses and local government operations that will accept used oil filters. According to the survey, a majority of those businesses will accept filters free of charge. Some, however, charge a small fee ranging from 50 cents to $1 per filter.

Kit Seay, manager of the TNRCC Automotive Waste Recycling outreach program said this is done because generally must pay to have the filters picked up for recycling.

"It is estimated that about 30 million used oil filters go into Texas landfills annually and each filter contains about eight ounces of oil," said TNRCC Commissioner Peggy Garner. "That's over 3 million gallons of oil each year dumped on Texas which threaten water supplies."

Haire, Ammons state delegates

Johnny Haire and Irene Ammons were selected as Garza County Democratic delegates to the state Democratic convention scheduled for June 2-3 in Ft. Worth. County Democratic chair Lewis Earl and State Executive Committee member Sam E Ellis will also attend the June convention.

Haire and Ammons were among the small group of county Democrats who gathered at the courthouse March 26 for the county convention.

Among the other activities at the convention were two resolutions concerning the conduct of primary elections. They were adopted for reference to the state convention.

Also, the Garza County Democrats drew attention to the April 12 run-off election. Earl has requested permission to combine all nine voting precinct locations in the county into a single location for the run-off.

The run-off ballot will consist of three contested races, none local. They include that for U.S. Senator between Richard Fisher, and Jim Mattox; the Texas Supreme Court Justice, Place 1 between Raul Gonzalez and Rene Haas; and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals Judge, Place 2 between Betty Marshall and Gene Kelly. Early voting runs April 4-8. Ballots may be cast at the Garza County Clerk's office. Mail-out ballots were available March 18 and arc due April 5.

Stocking continues at Justiceburg lake

by Emil Heller

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Fisheries Division continued this month to stock Lake Alan Henry with game fish. Fishery and wildlife technicians expect successful development of fish populations and anticipate the migration of waterfowl and other wildlife to the lake.

The Fisheries Division began stocking the lake last April and have continued in a pattern they hope will create a sustaining food chain.

"Ultimately, we hope to have a largemouth bass fishery," said Eric Alena, a Fisheries and Wildlife technician in Canyon.

Since April, the lake has been stocked with fingerlings of several game fish including Channel Catfish, White Crappie and Smallmouth Bass. Adult Florida Largemouth Bass and Gizzard Shad have also been released.

To date, the lake has been stocked with 321,032 fish. Three hundred and forty nine of these are adult Largemouth Bass, each about 12 inches long.

Runkles, Maselunas wed March 12

Lorrye D' Lane Runkles and William John Maselunas, Jr of Midland, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, March 12, 1994 at 2 p.m. in St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Midland.

Reverend Douglas Runkles, brother of the bride of Levelland performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Wayne and Linda Runkles of Midland. Parents of the bridegroom are William John Maselunas, Sr. of Scituate, Massachusetts and Sally A. Maselunas of Foxboro, Massachusetts. The cascade style bridal bouquet consisted of white lilies, snapdragons and pink roses.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, a ring belonging to her Grandmother Helen Livingston; something new, a string of pearls given to her by the groom; and something borrowed and blue, a blue garter which her mother wore at her wedding.

Debbie Kempton of Houston, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lynda Berge of Kalamazoo, Michigan and Danielle Odom of Austin. Brides matrons were Maria Bakke-Smith of Temple and Kathleen Kelly-Hernandez of Denton. They wore navy silk short suits with ivory collars. Scott Smith of Temple and Robert Strasberg of New York City, New York. Bred Yates of Lynchburg, Virginia was usher. They were attired in black tuxedos with black ties and cummerbunds and wore white rosebud boutonnières.

The bride and groom wrote their own vows. They exchanged Chaddagh Rings which are traditional Irish wedding bands that have hands which symbolize friendship, a heart which symbolizes love, and a crown which symbolizes loyalty.

Wedding music was provided by Jeff Fentem on both the piano and organ. He accompanied Kurt Kiser of Odessa who sang "Love Changes Everything", and Tracy Reese of Austin, who sang "Unexpected Song". Reese and Danielle Odom also sang "Follow Me" with Reese playing the guitar. Stephen Maselunas played an original song he wrote for Bill and D' Lane on the guitar as they lit the Unity Candle.

Guests were registered by Bobbye Nell Lester, cousin of the bride from Abilene and Lorrye Lou Moore, aunt of the bride from Rising Star. The registration table had a bouquet of pink and white spring flowers and a picture of the bride's parents and both sets of her grandparents at her parents wedding 35 years ago.

The bride's cake was a four tier white cake topped with the ceramic bride and groom used on the brides parents wedding cake. The table was covered with a white lace cloth and a bouquet of spring flowers. Silver and crystal were used on the table.

The groom's cake was chocolate and was covered with chocolate dipped fresh strawberries. A brass votive candelabra and brass coffee server were used on an ivory lace cloth.

Serving in the houseparty were Wanda Moore, aunt of the bride, from Midland; Tina Bradshaw of Flower Mound; Jackie Lester of Abilene; Lana and Blake Crawford of Lubbock, and Carol Ann Glosson of Midland; all cousins of the bride. POST's David Perez dives back to first, beating a pick-off attempt by the New Deal Lions. The 'Lopes went on to win the game with New Deal 9-3 last Friday in Post.

Post Antelopes rough up New Deal Lions 9-3

by John Cordson
After getting rocked in the first inning with a three run homer, Antelope starting pitcher Pete Torres settled in and shut down the New Deal Lions in a 9-3 Post victory. Torrez notched his second victory of the season, pitching five innings striking out three and walking four. Sophomore Bodie Simpson relieved Torres to start the sixth inning.

The first inning of the Friday, March 25 game provided plenty of fireworks. After a first pitch strike, Torres proceeded to walk the first two batters he faced, setting the stage for the Lions three run homer deep over the left field fence. Torres continued to struggle in the inning and ended up facing eight batters before getting the third out.

Down 3-0 in their half of the inning, the 'Lopes jumped back into the contest with six runs of their own in the bottom of the first. Simpson and Oscar Acevedo provided the big bats for the 'Lopes in the inning, each crushing two run homers.

Simpson struck first with an opposite field homer over the right field fence. Acevedo's went to the deepest part of the park for his home run, knocking on to dead center field. He had just enough on the ball as it hit the top rail and bounced out.

After the first inning, three home runs and 19 batters, both pitchers settled down to throw four and a half scoreless innings. Torres, after facing eight batters in the first, saw only 16 more the next four innings before being replaced by Simpson to start the sixth inning.

While Torres confused the hitters with his repertoire of off-speed pitches, Simpson offered mostly but in the gathering darkness. He threw 14 pitches in the top of the sixth, striking out all three men he faced. In the top of the seventh, Simpson got himself in a little trouble. He surrendered a double to the first hitter he faced and walked the second man.

The 'Lopes defense which played errorless ball all game helped squelch the Lion rally as catcher Jim Riley Simpson made a catch on a foul ball for the first out of the inning. Bodie Simpson then struck out New Deal cleanup hitter Casey Howell. Antelope second baseman Justin Terry put the game on ice getting the third out on a ground ball up the middle.

In two innings of work, Bodie Simpson struck out four batters while walking only one.

The 'Lopes scored three insurance runs in their half of the sixth inning, bringing the final score to 9-3.

Seven of the 'Lopes nine runs were earned. Leading the hitting and RBI parade was Acevedo who went three for four, three RBI's including his two run home run in the first inning. Bodie Simpson made the most of his one hit, the two run home run in the first. Radley Nichols went two for four, David Perez was one for three with an RBI and Shawn Pennell had a sacrifice RBI.

Errors and weak hitting hurt the 'Lopes as they returned from spring break with a 7-3 loss to Lubbock Christian.

After knotting the score at 1-1 with a single run in the top of the third inning, the 'Lopes defense stumbled in the bottom half of the inning committing three straight errors in a six run Eagle outburst. Antelope starter Phil Leininger took the loss going four innings collecting four strike outs while walking two. He gave up six hits and four earned runs. Bodie Simpson pitched the final two innings facing the minimum six batters, striking out three. Simpson was also was productive on the offensive side going two for two including an inside the park home run to the right center ally in the 'Lopes' half of the sixth inning driving in two runs.

"Bodie Simpson had a great day at the plate," said 'Lopes head coach Fred Postell.

Leininger drove in the 'Lopes' other run with a single. Torres went two for four and scored a run. Nichols and Terry each had a single for the 'Lopes.

Lady 'Lopes tackle 5A schools in Lubbock

Tackling the big 5A schools at last Saturday's Lubbock Girls Invitational held at Coronado High, the Post High School Lady 'Lopes rode six championship efforts to fourth place in the track meet. The Lady 'Lopes finished with 118 points trailing two 5A schools and 4A Plainview in the March 26 meet held in Lubbock. Host Coronado won the track meet with 153 points. Tascosa finished second with 143 and Plainview edged the Lady 'Lopes with 120 points.

"The girls did a super job Saturday," said Lady 'Lope coach Billy Gordon. "They really like going to this 5A meet and competing against the large schools. It is good for them and seems to bring out their best efforts."

First place finishes for the Lady 'Lopes were in the 400m dash and the 1600m relay. See "Lady 'Lopes" on page 5

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

In the fall DEC will sponsor, for the twenty-ninth year, our Youth Tour oratorical contest. This will send two deserving students from our service area on an all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. for two weeks. What a trip! This summer Scott Harrell and Johanna Nuding, both of Jayton High School will be spending two weeks in Washington, D.C.

Also this summer, plans are being made for DEC to sponsor an Electric Camp for 4-Hers in our service area. More details will be forthcoming on this camp as plans are finalized.

Helping sponsor judging contests for FFA and 4-H members, baseball teams, various awards, and donating to scholarship funds to aid students who wish to continue their education are a few more ways DEC serves the youth of our service areas.

ERIC ALTENA releases one of the 12 inch long adult Florida Largemouth Bass that have been stocked in Lake Alan Henry. Dispatch Photo by John Cordson

"We will continue the stocking for at least another year," said Altana. "Results so far look pretty good."

The division will not be able to fully measure its success, however, until private lawsuits over the land's mineral rights are settled.

"The lawsuits are restricting us from filling the lake to capacity and until they are settled, the lower gate will remain open," Altana said.

The lake was actually developed in response to the decreasing water supply for the city of Lubbock. Construction of a dam on the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River began in early 1991 and was completed last fall. Named in honor of the Texas senator who gained state-wide support for the project, the John T. Montford Dam is expected to collect water runoff from a 400 square mile watershed area to provide about 23.3 million gallons of water per day for the city of Lubbock.

This month's stock of Florida Largemouth Bass is part of the plan for Lake Alan Henry not only to provide drinking water but also provide recreational water opportunities in the South Plains.

Development of the Samuel W. Wahl Recreational Area on the north side of the lake will provide 580 acres for recreational activities including picnicking, hiking, camping and fishing. The area is named in recognition of Lubbock's former water utilities director who led the groundwork to carry out the Lake Alan Henry project.

"This area is still in its development stages," said Diane Locknane, a wildlife biologist in Lubbock overseeing the development efforts.

Currently the recreational area has no water or restroom facilities and, due to the low water level, access to the lake requires a 1 1/2 mile hike in.

Future developments for the area are being planned, according to Locknane and may include picnic areas, hiking trails, campgrounds and a fish cleaning station.

The recreational area is located six miles east of Justiceburg on Highway 84. Visitors to the area are required to follow the general regulations set by the city of Lubbock.

Before you give to the fight against cancer, look for the sword.

He is risen!

On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'" Then they remembered his words.

I don't know if it's spring fever or what, but last week was sure a long one. I was glad when Friday arrived!

On Thursday, Extension Agents from District 2 had the opportunity of touring the Lifestyle Centre on the Sixth Floor of the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. The facility is not only beautiful, but stocked with some very sophisticated exercise equipment and employing a highly educated staff of therapists. I believe this program initially was started as therapy for cardiac patients. I knew I was in for something innovative when the parking garage was FREE! I have had to pay as much as $16 a day in some hospital parking garages in Houston. There is a pool, dry sauna, an outside track around the sixth floor, meeting rooms, showers, lockers, massage therapists, and much, much more. They call this the Lifestyle Centre of Methodist Hospital and stress a "preventive lifestyle." They hold workshops and seminars for exercise and nutrition.

Next time you plan a trip to Lubbock, check out the facilities...before the doctor writes a prescription! Several smaller towns surrounding Lubbock have started satellite programs that are "on line" with this staff at Methodist. I wonder if this is a possibility for Post down the road?

I was impressed with the turnout at the Cancer Society's Wild Game Tasting at the Hotel Garza. The food was wonderful. The old adage that "too many cooks spoil the broth" was not true in this case. I must say that the people in Post seem to pitch in together for a worthy cause and cancer research truly is a worthy cause.

While reading the other day, I ran across some suggestions that might be helpful if you have cancer and want to learn more, or if you have been diagnosed with any serious physical problem. First, don't be afraid to ask questions. Be sure you understand the risks, and benefits from tests and procedures. Next, become informed. Talk to other people who have had your problem, go to the library to search out new information on a particular type of cancer or other disease. Very important is to get a second, or even a third opinion from someone with experience with your problem—a specialist or someone at a disease center. When talking to a doctor who has recommended surgery, ask them who they would have operate on their husband or wife, and ask the surgeon how many of these surgeries he performs every year. I personally prefer a surgeon who performs 350 surgeries a year to a mere 50, don't you?

The Cordsen family assisted at the recycling trailer last Wednesday. Thank you! It was a warm sunny day and my nose got sunburned. Thanks to Ida Mae Wilks and her sunscreen I'm not going to peel! I didn't ask her, but I think Diana Cordsen would not recommend wearing sandals. If you wear boots you can smash cans and plastics with your feet, plus you won't worry about toes while using the 20# smasher. I planned on getting an accurate count of recyclers, but we were so busy, I didn't have time to pick up the pencil. I may be dreaming, but I would say that at least 20 new people have started recycling. Please introduce yourself to me at the trailer if we have never met. I really would like to have you sign your names so I can tell each one of you personally how very much this means to Garza County and to a "Texan's Quality of Life." In the first hour and a half, we nearly filled up the largest container with #1 and #2 plastics which we flattened! By the way, Handy Hardware should have two kinds of can crushers in stock by now. I called Jay Pollard to tell him that several residents had asked where they could purchase one. Jay offered to stock a few, so go by and check them out. (Do you realize in a big city, it would take six weeks to special order something? Just one more reason we're lucky her in Post.)

Did you know that the amount of used motor oil we dump each year is 10 to 20 times the amount of oil the Exxon Valdez spilled off the coast of Alaska in 1989? and if every U.S. household turned down the thermostat by just three degrees, we'd save 250,000 barrels of oil a day.

Workshop offers pricing tips to cotton producers

Cotton producers planning to attend the annual Texas Cotton Ginners' Conference can come a day early and get the latest tips on strategies for pricing their 1994 crop. A one-day, in-depth workshop on cotton pricing strategies will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 6 by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"A cotton farmer can't control price, but he can control when and how he prices," said Dr. Jackie Smith, Extension Service economist and marketing specialist at Lubbock. "This workshop is designed for those with some experience in futures and options, to better prepare them to evaluate alternative pricing strategies."

This workshop will include several speakers from different segments of the cotton industry who can address specific current topics. It will be held at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center on FM 1294, just north of Lubbock International Airport. The center is just east of I-27 at the Shallowater Exit.

The workshop fee is $30. To register, contact Smith at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center, Route 3, Box 213AA, Lubbock, TX 79401 or call 806-746-6101.

NEW FDIC RULES FOR RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has changed the rules about how much you can keep in retirement accounts in any one bank. Because the new regulations—in effect since December 19, 1993—reduce your coverage, you should take steps to protect yourself.

Before the change, your IRA or SEP deposits were insured up to $100,000 separately from your Qualified Plan/Keogh Plan deposits and from other accounts at the same bank. Under the new regulations, the FDIC combines coverage on all your retirement accounts, with a $100,000 limit.

(Non-retirement accounts continue to be insured separately from the retirement accounts.) If you have multiple retirement accounts that aggregate more than $100,000, it would be wise to move some of the money to another financial institution.

Certificates of deposit that were opened before December 19, or renewed before that date, continue to be covered under the old rules until they are rolled over or renewed.

World's Most Powerful Slow Drain Cleaner

Imagine how thick the "ring" in your bathtub would be if it wasn't cleaned since your house was built. That is how thick the gunk in your pipes is. No wonder you have slow drains!

Most of your drain pipes are horizontal like your tub. If you pour a drain opener into the tub, it just runs along the bottom. The thick scum ring on the sides is left behind. That happens in your pipes, too!

Plumb Clean is an exclusive, highly concentrated powder. It clings and attaches to the build-up. Plumb Clean then penetrates into the build-up and biodegrades the soap scum, grease, food particles and other waste leaving your pipes clean and trouble free.

Plumb Clean contains Plurazyme™, the most powerful enzyme complex available. In fact, Plumb Clean was rated Best Buy by a leading consumer magazine.

Plumb Clean is so safe a child can use it. That makes it good for the environment too! It's so revolutionary it's money-back guaranteed!

So get safe, guaranteed Plumb Clean today!

From the Pulpit

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

I was there. God knows I was there.
It was I who betrayed Him in the Garden, saying "This is the man!"
It was I who said, "We found this man perverting our nation and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king."
It was I who said, "He deserves death!"
It was I who spat in His face and struck Him and slapped Him.
It was I who released a known robber, Barabbas, but held Jesus over for crucifixion.
It was I—a moral coward—who said, "I find no crime in this man" and then symbolically washed my hands of His blood, and let the screaming crowd have their way.
It was I—a mocking soldier—who beat Him and spat in His face, helped clothe Him in purple robes, and thrust a crown of thorns on His head.
It was I—His trusted friend—who denied Him three times during that terrible night.
It was for me that He prayed, "Father, forgive him, for he knows not what he does."
It was my sins that condemned Him and cost His life.
God knows I was there.
