LINDA ADAMS, writing in the Big Spring Herald, says newspapers get all kinds of strange calls. She recalled a few that recently were printed in a trade publication:

"Would like to know where the boy stuffed my paper."

"Why weren't you at my wedding taking pictures?"

"My husband was killed in August and I would like to put in a thank you note."

"We had a baby last Thursday and it never came out."

"I pay for my paper by the year. Can you tell me if I should die before the year is up, would this be refunded to me?"

"Do you know where they put the babies born on July 9?"

"Who's in charge of the wildlife around here?"

"I'd like to put a notice in the paper of a man that passed away and moved to Seattle."

"Are you the lady I talked with about a year and a half ago?"

"Would you give me the number of the Canadian Mounted Police?"

A CHARACTER QUIZ--

1. If you found a pocketbook with $1,000, would you give it to the owner if no one would ever know you found it?

2. If you could advance yourself by unfair methods, would you do it if no one would ever find out you were unfair?

3. If the bus driver failed to collect your fare, would you voluntarily pay it?

4. If there were no locks on any house, store, or bank, would you take anything if no one would ever find out?

5. If your business partner died, would you pay his relatives their fair share, if you did not have to pay them?

6. If you are an employer trying to hire an efficient, honest, and competent employee, would you hire yourself at your salary?

7. If you are an employer, would you like to be working for yourself with wages, hours and working conditions you provide?

8. If you are a parent, would you like to be the child of a parent just like you are?

9. If you had your choice, would you like to live in a community with people working in church, civic and community affairs, just like you do?

10. If you had to live with someone just like you are for the rest of your life, would you look forward to it as a wonderful opportunity and privilege?

JUST RECENTLY we watched the "Miss Universe" pageant, which is always enjoyable, even if girl-watching isn't your favorite sport.

One of the things which occurred to Ye Editor while watching the latest pageant was the fact that there is no representative from Russia in "Miss Universe."

Which prompted the question "Why?"

One might lay it off to the continuing "cold war" between the United States and the Soviet Union as to why we have no entry from behind the Iron Curtain.

But Ye Editor, having seen the Soviet women in action in televised track and field meets, has a better explanation:

I sincerely believe that they held a pageant for "Miss Soviet Union" as a preliminary, and that there was no winner.

I mean, have you taken a good look at Russian women??? Most of the time they don't rate a second glance, unless it's a "Can my eyes have been deceiving me" type of deal.

I'll say one thing for my son: He has no hang-ups. Everything he owns is on the floor.

AFTER FOUR YEARS

Villarreal Returns Home

Richard Villarreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeferino Villarreal, returned home July 9 after spending four years in the United States Army.

Richard took his basic training at Fort Dix, New Jersey; then was stationed at the Apg. Proving Grounds in Maryland where he studied auto mechanics for seven weeks. He was then stationed in Fort Hood, Texas for sixteen months and during the time he was there he was sent to Germany for two months and took training with Nato Convoys. He served with soldiers from France, Great Britain and Germany. Later he was stationed in Germany where he spent two years at Hanau serving with his company in Frankfurt.

Richard said the people in Germany were nice people to be with and he also liked the country but the daily routine was rather hard to take at times with his job. He also added that the people in Germany were always in a hurry and they seemed to be a very energetic type of people.

Germany has long winters and short summers. Only two months out of the year were considered warm enough to be called summer. It starts raining in September and the rainy season lasts until December, then it snows from December until March.

He said the winter this past year, like in the States, was very unusual and it only snowed twice all winter.

Germans like the snow and enjoy snow skiing but their main sport, according to Richard, was football. Americans call their football, soccer.

The majority of Germans are Catholics but Richard says they have lots of other denominations, too. The families in Germany are small because of the economy. The economy is getting much better there for the Americans but worse for the Germans. When Richard first went to Germany, one mark eighty equaled our dollar but now it is two marks 55 to our dollar.

The freeways in Germany are three laned and there is no speed limit. There is a limit as to how slow one can travel and that is 45 miles an hour. Richard said it was not unusual to be traveling along and have someone fly by at a speed of 150 miles an hour or even more. The Germans have a sport car, Porch Car, that is compared in price to our Rolls Royce and it travels at a speed up to 170-180 mph. He said this was a small car but larger than a Volkswagen.

While Richard was in Germany, he did some extensive sightseeing in other countries. He was able to go to France, Holland, and Rome. Of all the places he visited he preferred Holland overall. He said the people were very congenial. Holland was only 12 hours by bus from where he was stationed.

While in Rome, he visited Vatican City, one of the smallest in the world yet is unique in that it is the spiritual center of the Roman Catholic religion. This is built on the spot where St. Peter met his death, and where so many other Christians have been persecuted. In Rome, he visited the reconstructed Colosseum where at one time the Christians were killed in the arena there. This is also a place of entertainment that attracts enormous crowds from the whole of Rome as well as neighboring towns. The amphitheatre here provides much entertainment for its viewers. Now it is considered one of the most elaborate and majestic monuments of Roman art.

Richard also visited synagogues, temples, panoramas, palaces, churches, galleries, tombs, fountains, forums and museums.

In Paris, he walked up the Eiffel Tower, which was completed in 1889. It has three floors, the first is a shopping area; the second, a restaurant and shopping mall; and the third floor is a platform for sightseeing. On a clear day, the view from this is over the whole of Paris, and even some of the distant suburbs.

Richard said the people in Paris, France were a reserved type of people and stayed to themselves. While in France, he also visited Notre Dame.

Richard was in Rome, Italy following the Easter holidays and said he missed seeing the Pope by only one week. He told of the magnificent Easter celebrations held in Rome.

While Richard was in the service his brother, Edward, was also in the Army and the brothers were both stationed at Fort Hood and were in the same division for a period of time.

Richard graduated from Bovina High School in 1979 and went into service the following July. He says the Army was fine and an interesting experience. He is not sure what he is going to do or where he will be working. Right now, he's just enjoying being home with his family and friends and enjoying his mother's good cooking.

IN MULESHOE

Local Players Compete In All-Star Tourney

Two all-star teams made up of Bovina and Friona players traveled to Muleshoe last week to participate in the double elimination district tournament.

Bovina players chosen for the "red" team were Hippy Gomez and Randy Stone. The team placed second in the tournament.

In the first match Friona "Red" met Muleshoe "Grey" and took a 6-4 win. The score was tied 2-2 following the first inning of play. Friona outscored Muleshoe 4-2 in the second inning and neither team scored again during the remainder of the game.

Friona lost their second match when they met Muleshoe "Black" on Tuesday night. Muleshoe took an early 2-0 lead and just kept building their lead throughout the game. Friona ran into problems with their pitchers and when it was all over Muleshoe was on top of a 27-3 victory.

The next time out, Friona met Muleshoe "Grey" and came out with a 17-6 win. It was Friona all the way, as they had a 7-2 lead over the opponent.

Grand slam home runs by Andre

Duran and Hippy Gomez were the highlight of the game. Louis Dunnam led the scoring with three runs and Hippy Gomez was the winning pitcher. The final score was 17-6.

On Friday night the Friona team found themselves up against Muleshoe "Black" for the second time in the tourney. It was a must win game for Friona.

Friona scored two runs in the first inning and held Muleshoe blank. The score was tied 5-5 at one point. But a grand slam home run by Muleshoe's Mike Dunham with two men on base, gave Muleshoe a three point advantage and the final score was 8-5 Muleshoe's favor. The loss eliminated Friona from the tournament.

Sam Morgan and Mike Bermea played for the "White" team.

Their first game was against Muleshoe's number one team. The Muleshoe team was tough and took an early 4-0 lead after having held the Friona team scoreless.

But Friona held their own as Sammy Garcia struck out Muleshoe's first batter in the second inning and threw the next two runners out at first and second base.

Muleshoe's pitcher then took the mound and struck out Dustee Gee and Jerry Lafuente, both of Friona. Jacky Lafuente got a free trip to first with a walk but was put out while attempting to steal second and Muleshoe was up to bat again.

This time they scored one run. They scored seven more in the remainder of the game to defeat Friona 12-0.

Friona then met Muleshoe's second team on Tuesday night.

Friona only scored four runs during the game and Muleshoe crossed the plate 19 times to take the victory and eliminate the Friona "White" team.

Sam Morgan played third base and Mike Bermea manned second base in the tournament.

City Gets Sales Tax Refund

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday sent checks totaling $35.1 million to 974 cities that levy the one per cent city sales tax.

"Our total payments to cities so far this year are still running about one per cent behind last year," Bullock said in sending the July checks to the cities. "Texas was slow to enter the national recession and we are still lagging behind in the recovery. Most major Texas cities are beginning to show higher tax receipts than last year, but the border and oil and gas producing areas are still substantially behind."

Bovina's check amounted to $941.23, which was up from the same period a year earlier, when the city's check was $782.12.

For the year, however, Bovina's sales tax receipts amount to $12,111.90, down 0.38 per cent from the $12,157.59, as of the same date in 1982.

Parmer County's three municipalities received $6,113.53 for the period, up from $5,287.60 a year earlier. For the year, the county total receipts are $75,528.47, compared to $77,433.52 a year ago.

Houston received the largest check--$6.8 million--bringing this year's total to $75.8 million, down nine per cent from 1982. Dallas' payment totaled $4.2 million for a total of $45.9 million, up eight per cent from last year. San Antonio's payment was $2.1 million, putting 1983 receipts at $22.6 million, a nine per cent increase.

Austin's July payment was $1.5 million, bringing the year's total to $15 million, 15 per cent over last year. Fort Worth received $1.3 million to put the city's 1983 total at $14.8 million, up eight per cent from 1982. El Paso's check was $798,000, with 1983 total payments down ten per cent from last year.

Bullock also sent checks to the state's two Metropolitan Transit Authorities. Houston's MTA received $7.8 million, down from last July's payment of $9.4 million. San Antonio received $1.1 million, bringing the yearly total to $12.4 million, up ten per cent over 1982.

The City and MTA sales taxes are collected along with the state sales tax by merchants and rebated monthly to the cities in which they are collected by the Comptroller.

The July checks were for taxes collected on sales made in May and reported to the Comptroller by the end of June.

Thoughts Over Coffee

By MEG PAYNE

Five thirty a.m.--I'm eagerly awaiting the sunrise. The coffee's brewing. The early morning aroma fills my thoughts of a family vacation--mountain streams, fishing, and of course, coffee by the camp fire.

As I pour the coffee, light a cigarette and mosey to the patio to surround myself in the upcoming event (sunrise), I'm thinking how grateful I should be that no one has put a "No Smoking Section" on my patio.

All my blessings are sleeping soundly and I'm trying to capture every calm and positive thought before they awake to transform the breakfast table into a battle station over the last grapenut flake.

Stand back America! These kids are upcoming politicians with promises and surprises that could blow the wheels off the Presidential Motorcade. Better yet, they promise to keep their promise.

But children will be children. They have their little fingers crossed behind their backs. Every child knows the validity of this symbolism. It's a guilt-free way of getting out of a commitment.

A beautiful morning--Not a weed in the yard. The roses are gently nodding in the breeze, expressing their appreciation for my tender loving care.

I'm thinking, why did I spend so much time in weeding these dumb roses? Why didn't I hoe the layout ground on the farm? "They" found two weeds on one acre. "They" are threatening to withdraw our payment from the PIK program.

I can deal with this, however, when "they" drew up our loan, "they" said "they" had figured it a little short, but in view of the fact that the papers were typed and ready to sign--"they" promised to loan the misfigured amount whenever it was needed.

My first mistake, I believed what "they" told me. My goodness, I would never impose on a government employee to go through an ordeal of more paper work, so I accepted "their" word in good faith.

Speaking of blowing off the wheels on the motorcade, believe me, this surprise would blow the Goodyear blimp!

Refusing to loan the money when promised, "they" suggest we go to the bank to borrow money, using the PIK payment as collateral.

Now this guy must think that Post grapenut flakes is a general disease. Whose money is at stake here anyway? We've sunk thousands of government dollars on seed, fertilizer, diesel, not to mention thousands per month for natural gas.

It's mid July, two months before harvest. PIK is still in a FLICK over the weeds. I'm sure "they" will find a satisfactory explanation as to why we didn't get an extended loan. After all, it's just two more months and who cares about government dollars, with the exception of the I.R.S.

I certainly can't blame the government for my stupidity. While these people are writing up loans, figuring, measuring, debating, smiling or frowning, I thought they were scratching their back from a nervous condition. Who would have thought they were into childhood symbolism?

My thoughts of survival are interrupted by a blood-curdling scream from my daughter. "My God," I thought, "Blood is probably everywhere. If we get to the hospital in time we might save her life."

My foot is wracked with pain, as I struggled to the back door after falling over the dog. "Mom, Mom," she screams, "He promised to pay me a dollar for cleaning his room!" "I did not!" comes an angry voice from the bedroom. "You did, too!" "I did not!" "You did too!" "You dummy, didn't you know I had my fingers crossed?"

She slams the door to her room, cries for an hour and announces that she will never believe another word her brother says.

Gathering every ounce of self-control humanly possible, I replied, "That's life, learn from it." When all else fails, believe in yourself, maintain a positive attitude and shut up!"

There will be no coffee by the campfire this summer. It's just as well, as I can hobble better with a broken foot on flat land than mountain slopes. I still have my patio and the roses. And with food stamps, I can buy that expensive coffee. You know, the kind that's supposed to change your life.

Two Students Make Tech Honor Roll

More than 2,200 students at Texas Tech University, Lubbock, qualified for the deans' honor rolls in the university's six colleges during the 1983 spring semester.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites D. Whitecotton, R. Ulibarri

Debbie Whitecotton and Robert Ulibarri exchanged wedding vows in a candlelight double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 4 at 6 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church of Bovina. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mark Pointer of Elgin, Oklahoma, cousin of the bride, before a brass candelabra holding white tapers and centered with a heart shaped candelabra and prayer bench. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Whitecotton of Bovina.

The groom's parents are Lydia Ulibarri and Ralph Ulibarri of Clovis.

Mrs. Cindy Barrett, organist, presented traditional wedding music. Ginger Glasscock of Lubbock played and sang "Evergreen." Kelly Millender of Lubbock played the guitar and sang "The Lord's Prayer." Together they sang "The Wedding Song" and "Endless Love."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white silk organza featuring an empire waistline and a high neckline with embroidered lace and seed pearls. The long sheer sleeves had pointed cuffs covered in embroidered lace. The flared skirt swept to a chapel length train with matching lace.

The bride wore a sheer chapel length veil.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath enhanced by white ribbon and pearls.

For something old, the bride carried pennies minted in the year of the birthdates of the bride and groom in her shoes. Her dress was new. Something borrowed was her veil from her cousin and she wore the traditional blue garter.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo. His boutonniere was white stephanotis and baby's breath.

Betty Whitecotton of Amarillo, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Stacy Whitecotton, sister of the bride, and Lisa Phelps served as bridesmaids.

They wore formal length gowns of cranberry organza featuring off-the-shoulder necklines and hooped skirts. They carried bouquets of white carnations and baby's breath.

Mark Millender of Clovis was best man. Groomsmen were Johnny Chavez of Portales and Paul Topliff of Lubbock. They wore black tuxedos with white carnation boutonnieres.

The ushers were Clifton Neal, Roy Phelps, Mike Ulibarri and Mike Prokop.

Joan Carson registered wedding guests.

The bride's mother chose a formal length gown of aqua organza. The groom's mother wore an apricot formal length gown. They wore corsages of white rosebuds.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth centered with six silver candle holders. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with white rosebuds and topped with white wedding bells. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl. Serving at the bride's table were Kay Cox, aunt of the bride, and Phyllis Koetter, cousin of the bride.

The groom's table was covered with a white lace cloth. German chocolate cake, finger sandwiches and coffee were served by Annette Stevenson and Joan Carson.

Mrs. Robert Ulibarri

For a wedding trip to Albuquerque, New Mexico, the bride chose a hot pink pants suit.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Texas Tech University.

The bridegroom is a 1981 graduate of Eastern New Mexico University and is currently employed at Lubbock Cooper High School.

The couple resides at 9406-A Elgin in Lubbock.

Out-of-town guests were: Sam Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Topliff, Tonia and Paul Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Neal, Ginger and Melissa Glasscock, Mitzi Perkins, Chris Mendez and Kelly Millender of Lubbock; B.J. QUALITY EYEGLASSES or DISCOUNT EYEGLASSES?

Q: Is there really a difference in "quality" eyeglasses and the "discount" eyeglasses advertised on TV and in the newspapers?

A: Yes, there certainly is a difference. There are ways a discount store can cut corners and costs in filling your prescription and still maintain a high profit margin. These are:

1) The Rx may not be filled accurately. Many of these discount stores keep a supply of ready-made lenses already ground to the most frequently called for RX's. It is much cheaper to provide you with lenses directly out of stock than to grind them especially to your individual prescription.

2) The lenses may be of second quality. Bargain operators often rely on inferior foreign-made lenses or factory rejects of second-quality. These lenses have various defects which may cause serious eyestrain.

3) The optical center of the lenses may not be placed correctly. In order to reduce time and costs, this important step is often overlooked. Eyestrain results when the optical center is not placed properly before the eyes.

4) Little or no service, if any, is provided by non-qualified personnel after the glasses are purchased. All eyeglasses, no matter what they cost, may require adjustment of some kind in order to get maximum benefit from them.

Short-cut eye examinations and cheap eyeglasses advertised at ridiculously low prices can be tempting. But too often we have seen the misfortune that come from assuming that all glasses and all visual care is alike. Good visual care doesn't cost...it pays!

This message is brought to you in the interest of better vision by Drs. Armistead & Smith, Optometrists, Littlefield, Texas.

Hearings To Be Held In Tulia July 26

Residents of the Bovina area will have a first-hand chance to hear about regional programs for the elderly during a hearing scheduled for Tuesday, July 26 from 1:30-3:30 p.m. in the Swisher County Senior Citizens Center, 127 S.W. Second, Tulia, Texas.

The hearings are being held in five area towns to acquaint citizens with the Panhandle Area Agency on Aging's operating plans for 1984. The budget year for the agency begins October 1 of this year and runs through September 30, 1984.

The hearings are required by the Texas Department on Aging so that private citizens can comment on the Panhandle agency's two year plan, now beginning its first year. The agency receives $920,637 from the state aging department. Over $705,000 of that goes directly into services in the region. The remainder is used to finance administration of the programs.

These types of programs are funded in conjunction with senior citizen centers: transportation, information and referral, homemaker services, emergency response system, adult day care, legal services and congregate and home delivered nutrition services.

The Spudnut Shop has closed and the equipment was moved Monday of this week. Lula and Odis White have managed and owned the shop since 1962. This has long been a gathering place for local people to have a cup of coffee, a spudnut or just to share local news and see their friends. We will miss having the Spudnut Shop but want to wish them our very best and say how much Bovina appreciated having them here.

NEWS AROUND TOWN....

The Lloyd family reunion was held July 17 at the Community Center in Friona Sunday with about 115 people attending from Texas, New Mexico, California, Oregon and Arkansas. The family has an annual get-together which always includes a church service and dinner.

One of the family members, Reverend Marvin Brand of Stockton, California preached the services and Larry Webb and daughter, Becky entertained the group with singing. Larry played the guitar and Becky played an electric piano. Also singing with the Webbs was five-year-old Michael Erwin of Portales.

Those attending from Bovina were Mr. and Mrs. Buck Lloyd, Sid Lloyd, Elbert Kelley, Billy and Suezy Smith, Arlene Smith, Frank Landry, Darlene and Stan Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Odom Smith, Herman and Edna Estes, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barron, Larry Lloyd, Kathryn and Kevin Koelzer.

James and Penny Lawlis and daughters, Jane and Jodi, of Amarillo were in Bovina over the weekend visiting with their families, Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Lawlis and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Lloyd. They also attended the Lloyd family reunion.

Several relatives are visiting with Billy and Suezy Smith and they all went to see the production of "Texas" Monday night. They took a picnic lunch and shared a good time together. Those visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brand of Thornton, California and their son Clayton Brand of San Leandro, California.

Clinton and Julia Brand and son Chris of San Antonio, Neona Owens and children, Elaine, Greg and David of Oregon, Billy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odom Smith and Suezy's mother, Edna Estes also accompanied the group to see "Texas." The out-of-town guests attended the Lloyd reunion in Friona Sunday.

Clifford and Julia Leake enjoyed visitors Sunday at their home. Mr. and Mrs. John Bolte of McAllister, Oklahoma, and their sons, Brad and Carl.

We want to express our sympathies to the family of Albert Kelley. Mr. Kelley, 78, of Childress passed away and services were held in Childress last week. He was survived by his wife, two sons, two daughters, five brothers, three sisters, eleven grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren. Mr. Kelley's brothers and sisters living in Bovina were Sid Lloyd, Elvie Teague and Elbert Kelley of Bovina and a brother, Homer Kelley of Pleasant Hill.

Flossie and Lester Rhinehart are having a good time with members of their family visiting: a granddaughter, Kenda Robertson and her children, Summer, Sedawn and Ryan of Big Bear City, California; and their grandson Vance Malone of Glenrock, Wyoming.

Kenda's dad, Dick Horn, brought them to Springerville, Arizona where Flossie and Lester drove to pick them up. They went to Arizona a week ago last Saturday and returned home the next day.

We want to express sympathies to Emmagene Calaway whose uncle Arthur Wickard of Clovis passed away Saturday, July 16 and services were held Monday of this week. Survivors include his wife, two sons, eight grandchildren, one great-grandchild, two sisters and one brother.

Buck and Freda Lloyd had family visiting them and attending the reunion. They are Paul and Esther Lloyd of Glenberry and their son and daughter-in-law, Collin Gayle and his wife Mary, also of Glenberry. Collin's and Gayle's daughters Renee and Jennifer were also with them.

Visiting Sunday was the Lloyd's daughter Patricia Magness and her daughter Teresa of Amarillo.

The Lloyd's grandsons are visiting for a week, Tony, Mike and Shane of Canadian. Also with the boys is their friend Jason Abraham. The boys' parents are Phillip and Helen Lloyd, who are vacationing in the Bahamas. Tony, Mike and Shane also visited with their other grandmother in Bovina, Helen Mazurek.

We want to express our deepest sympathy to Molly Teague, whose sister passed away Tuesday of last week. Jean Mays of San Antonio was survived by one son, four sisters and two brothers. Charlie Teague said his sister-in-law died after a lengthy illness. Services were held in San Antonio.

Shortly after the ambulance left with Carl, a friend Margaret Charles took his wife Bess to the hospital. Margaret said she is having tests run. They are both still in the hospital.

Little Wendy Jones called to tell me of her exciting summer. Her dad Billy Jones of Tulsa, Oklahoma took his daughter to Six Flags where they had alot of fun. Later her grandmother Grace Jones, two friends Lady and Lorraine, all of Clovis flew with Wendy to Tucson, Arizona. Wendy said they stayed at the Ramada Inn. She saw Bert Reynolds who was staying there and also the young lady who plays Daizy on the Dukes of Hazzard. The ladies left a week ago last Monday and returned home Monday of this week.

While Wendy and her dad were at Six Flags, they drove on to Prairie View and visited Wendy's uncle, Robert Jones.

Tonya Gober has recently returned home from visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ivy of Vinita, Oklahoma. Shortly after she left her niece and nephew flew to Vinita to see their grandparents. They are Todd and Renae from Guatamala.

About the middle of June, Martha Garner, her daughter Donna and her children, Kory, Keri, Kevin and Kelli drove to Norman, Oklahoma where Kory and Keri were in gymnastic camp at the Norman Oklahoma University. Martha said the highlight of the camp for the children was having Bert Connors there. He is considered tops in the gymnastic field and was much help as he worked with each individual child.

While they were at camp, Martha, Donna, Kevin and Kelli visited relatives in Oklahoma City.

A week later, Martha flew to Dallas and met her mother Joycie Blevins of Garland. The two ladies then flew to Spokane, Washington and visited Martha's aunt Eula Cartright. Said they had a fantastic time on their trip, and Martha returned home Wednesday of last week.
