Whittlin'

By Dolph Moten

We had occasion to drop by Parent-Teacher Association meeting this week. Attendance was good. We were impressed by the number of cars in front of the school and the crowd inside was large enough to justify so many cars.

Just very few years ago, P-TA here was as dead as that hammer you've heard about. Now, the group is rolling along smoothly, we understand. What the membership lacks in quantity is made up in quality. This week's meeting created a lot of interest from those present. That stands to reason, however, because if individuals weren't interested to a great extent in the meeting, they wouldn't be there in the first place.

There are more exciting places to go and things to do, though we doubt many are more worthwhile from standpoint of community and school.

We were bragging on the size of the crowd: A good slow, grade school basketball game would probably attract more people. But the point we're trying to make is that we do have a P-TA. Not long ago, such a statement would have been incorrect. And Bovina has never been accused of being a P-TA town. Basketball town, yes.

We daresay that attendance at the organization's meetings will continue to grow. We hope it does. Such is sign of a good, healthy community.

With this issue, Sally Whitesides writes 30 to her term as news and society writer for The Bovina Blade.

She and her husband are moving to Farwell where he will be associated with Sherley-Anderson-Pitman, Inc.

We hate to see them leave here for more reasons than one. From our standpoint, it will be impossible to replace Sally on the staff of this newspaper. She has certainly done a good job.

Time was, a few years ago, when we figured we could do as good a job of writing women's news as the next fellow. But when Sally started work for The Blade, we gradually quit worrying about that phase of the business because she was doing such a capable job.

The Blade will go through a transition period as we try to learn to get along without Sally. It won't be easy. We hope you'll be understanding . . . and feel that you will.

Nita Beth Estes, who was just this week graduated from high school and is away now on senior trip, will be in charge of The Blade's society this summer. She has been working here the past few weeks and is doing a real good job of getting in the swing of this crazy business.

If she does half as good a job of writing women's news as she can do defending forwards on a basketball floor, everything will be all right. Nita Beth was named to girls all-state basketball team earlier this year.

Also, Vernon Stewart, a junior student at Texas Tech, will join The Blade's staff. He's scheduled to go to work Monday and next week's issue will be his first.

Vernon is a journalism major, of course, and has already had a taste of what he'll be up against.

He'll be working under Texas Press Association's summer internship program. We've just met Vernon once, but we like him already--his first love is sports writing and that includes baseball. When he told us that, we were immediately assured of a job with this newspaper.

You Little Leaguers can expect adequate coverage from Vernon and The Blade this summer.

Speaking of baseball, we're almost ready to admit that it isn't the national pastime. Seems to us that arguing and fussing about schools is getting to be pretty popular in Parmer County.

Post office, bank, and city offices will be closed.

In Area Hospitals

Mrs. J. A. Loflin underwent major surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo last week. Reported to be improving, Mrs. Loflin was released Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom Perry underwent an emergency appendectomy Saturday, May 16, in a Plainview hospital. Friends say Mrs. Perry is "doing as well as can be expected." She is at home now.

MONDAY --

Grand Jury Indicts One

Parmer County grand jury, in session Friday, placed two indictments against John Murrell Bussell, 42, of Friona. He is charged with cattle theft. He is alleged to have stolen four calves from W. D. Cooper north of Friona April 16, and to have sold them in Memphis.

The citizens also indicted Bussell as an "habitual criminal" which means that should he be convicted of his latest offense, he faces the prospect of life imprisonment. Bussell has figured in cattle

Report Cards Ready Friday

Bovina School students may pick up their report cards at the school from 10 to 12 Friday morning, Roy Whisler, high school principal announces.

Time for picking up the cards was originally set for 1 to 3 p.m.

This is only for convenience of students, Whisler says, and it is not necessary that the cards be picked up. Those which are not picked up will be mailed next week, the principal says.

Richards Leases To Sturdivant

Richards Slaughter House in Bovina has been leased to John Sturdivant of Clovis.

Sturdivant took over the business Monday. It will be known as John's Slaughter House.

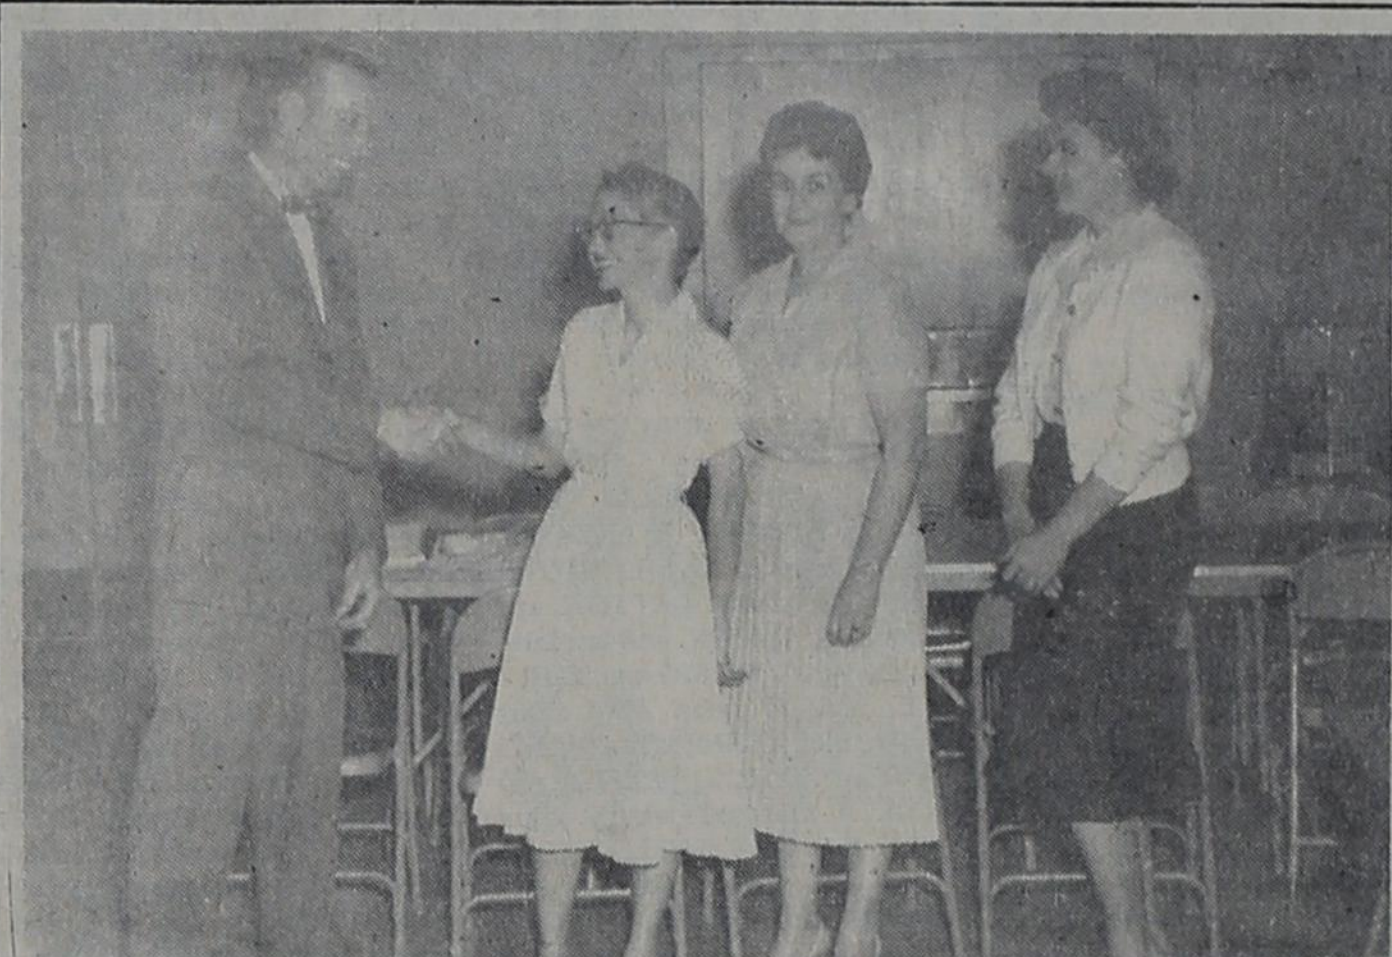

He has operated the same type of business in Clovis. He, his wife and three daughters plan to move here as soon as housing is available. Also, Jack Winningham, who will butcher for the firm, and his family plan to move here.

Announcement of the lease is made in an advertisement in this issue of The Blade.

Mrs. Buck Ellison was admitted to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona Monday morning with a sinus infection. Her daughter, Mrs. Robert Read, reports that Mrs. Ellison is "resting well" and expects to be released the latter part of the week.

AT COMMENCEMENT --

BHS Class of '59 Receives Diplomas

27 Seniors Graduated

Twenty-seven seniors received diplomas at graduation exercises last night (Tuesday) in Bovina Schools auditorium.

Rev. Vance Zinn, former pastor of Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church and now of Chapel Hill Baptist Church of Lubbock, gave the commencement address.

Mrs. Joan Kay (Ezell) Horn, president of the Senior class, gave the invocation, followed by the High School Girls Chorus singing "The Halls of Ivy." Mrs. Bedford Caldwell directed.

Salutatory speech of welcome was given by Nancy Cumpton. Valedictory address was by Kay Hartzog.

Roy Whisler, high school principal, presented 14 merit awards to seniors.

Scholarship award of merit was presented to Kay Hartzog, honor student award to Nancy Cumpton and English award to Nickie Woelfel. Gladys Dean received the speech award; Janice Richards, math; Delbert Morris, band; Janice Richards, girls' athletics; Charles Stoner, history; and Ramey Brandon, boys' athletics.

Avis Williams received citizenship award; Ferman Kelso, science; Arnold Kriegel, agriculture; Judy Roach, home-making; and Nancy Cumpton, commercial.

Three scholarships were also awarded by Texas Council of Church-Related Schools. They were given to Miss Hartzog, Miss Cumpton and Brandon.

stealing on several other occasions.

Young men from Amarillo, who had been arrested after radio equipment had been stolen from parked aircraft at Benger Air Park, Friona, were passed by the jurors.

Restitution was made for the property which had been taken.

(A "passed" action is not the same as a "no-bill." When the grand jury believes the parties not guilty of the offense with which they are charged, they no-bill them. When a person is passed, the case may be re-opened at a later date and an indictment may still result.)

MEXICAN TROUBLE HERE --

Four Arrests Over Weekend

Four arrests were made by Parmer County officers during the past week.

Julian Garza, 37, farm worker from the Hub community, and Gragoria Mondragon, 54, Clovis, were picked up by Sheriff Chas. Lovelace as they sat in a parked car about 6:30 Sunday evening.

They were charged with drunkenness, and were fined $18.75 each in the JP court of Roy Thornton Monday morning. The men were traveling from Bovina to Farwell when someone in Bovina spotted the erratic movement of the car and phoned ahead to the sheriff.

The car ran out of gas about four miles from Farwell and the sheriff made the arrest after the car had been parked. A third Latin American had struck out for Farwell to get some gas. He was not charged.

Donnicio Rodriguez, 24, was charged with aggravated assault. He was picked up in Bovina by the sheriff Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. The charge grew out of a fight between Rodriguez and Armando Hernandez, 23. The two braceros were living in the Lawlis & Ely labor camp.

Hernandez was hospitalized with serious knife wounds in the right side, but he is expected to recover. Rodriguez pled guilty and was fined $100 and costs.

Sheriff Lovelace says both men had been drinking, and got into an argument.

Charles Mann, 33, who lives on a farm north of Bovina, was charged with selling beer in a dry area. He was also picked up Sunday morning by the sheriff after a lead following the braceofracas. It turned out he sold the men the beer. He pled guilty in county court Monday morning and was fined $100 and costs. He is sitting it out in the county jail.

Meeting Slated Friday

Annual stockholders meeting of Bovina Wheat Growers, Inc., is Friday night.

The meeting will begin at 8:30 and will be in school cafeteria, James Russell, manager, announces.

Kenneth Lloyd, of Producers Grain Corporation in Amarillo, will be speaker.

"The entire family is invited," Russell says. Coffee, soft drinks, and doughnuts will be served.

ATTORNEY SAYS --

Two School Trustees May Not Be Qualified

Question of whether two school trustees here are qualified members of the board still exists.

Bob Wilson, president of the board, and J. D. Kirkpatrick, a member, are both stockholders of First National Bank of Hereford, school attorney. In a letter to Superintendent Warren Morton, Aikin says, in part:

"In re: Service on School Board of Stockholders and Directors in School Depository Bank

"Dear Mr. Morton: Pursuant to your request, we have searched for authority upon this proposition, but all of the authorities which we have been able to locate indicate that stockholders and directors of depository bank are disqualified from serving on the School Board, and although their presence in a meeting would not invalidate otherwise valid action taken by the School Board if enough members were present to constitute a quorum without them, nevertheless, although there is not clear authority on the subject, it would seem wise for the checks drawn on the district to be executed by persons other than disqualified members."

This newspaper had previously reported that the members in question were legal members of the board.

Next meeting of the board will be in June.

arrangement.

Friday, Mrs. Loucile Foster will give a ceramics painting and firing demonstration. Those present will be offered the chance of painting a piece of ceramics.

The next week, June 8 through 12, will feature a sewing course for adults. Mrs. Morton stresses that all adults are welcome to any or all of the sessions and that baby sitters will be provided for mothers wishing to take part in demonstrations or classes.

Basically, the summer course is for students, and they will receive credit for the amount of time they put into the summer work. However, in order to make the classes more informative and interesting, adults are urged to attend.

Hours of the course will be from 9 through 11.

Summer Project Course Planned

A summer project, supervised by Mrs. Dorothy Morton, home-making instructor, will begin Monday of next week. To be in the homemaking cottage, the course will be for both students and adults.

Opening registration session will be Monday and the first of a week of demonstrations will begin Tuesday morning. At that time, three demonstrations will be given by members of Parmer County 4-H.

Wednesday, Mrs. Ernestine Gary of Clovis' Southwestern Public Service Company will give a demonstration on salads, followed by numerous "tips" on the better use of electric ranges.

Mrs. Sally Whitesides will give a demonstration on plastic flower-making Thursday morning. Also, Mrs. Morton will direct a short class on flower

12 Parmer Licenses Suspended In 1958

Texas Department of Public Safety says 38,323 persons were listed as suspended in Texas during the year 1958.

Of the suspensions, 15,139 were suspended because of a conviction in court, of an offense making the suspension of their drivers license mandatory, such as: driving while intoxicated, driving while under the influence of drugs, aggravated assault with a motor vehicle, negligent homicide with a motor vehicle, murder with a motor vehicle, and driving while license suspended.

Another 23,184 were suspended because they had been involved in a motor vehicle accident in which $100 or more property damage was sustained by any one person or in which someone had been injured or killed and the drivers and/or owners were not covered by liability insurance or had not filed proof of financial responsibility with the Department of Public Safety as required by law.

During 1958, there were 12 suspensions placed in effect on residents of Parmer County. Of these, one was for conviction in court requiring suspensions of drivers licenses and 11 were for failure to show proof of financial responsibility after being involved in an accident reportable under Safety Responsibility Law.

The suspensions do not include persons convicted in court or those involved in accidents, who filed acceptable proof of financial responsibility during the year.

There are three methods of showing proof of financial responsibility for suspensions resulting from convictions; they are:

1. A certificate of motor vehicle liability insurance (Form SR-22).

2. A bond in the amount of $15,000 signed by two persons owning real estate equal in value to at least twice the amount of such bond.

3. A certificate of deposit of money or securities with the State Treasurer in the amount of $15,000.

Ignorance and carelessness in using farm machinery are sure ways to make the headlines. Records show that more than 1,100 fatalities in the nation each year result from tractor accidents. Extension Agricultural Engineer W. L. Ulich reminds farmers that tractors are involved in 35 percent of all farm accidents making it the number one farm killer.

G. W. MAYBEN

Former Area Resident Receives Appointment

The appointment of G. W. (Bill) Mayben as Operating Superintendent of the Baltimore Refinery of the American Oil Company was announced last week by E. R. Grey, Baltimore refinery manager.

Mayben, formerly supervisor of Technical Service, is a native of Muleshoe. He began his career with the American Oil Company in 1956 in the Research and Development Department of Texas City Refinery.

A 1951 graduate of Texas A. & M. with a B.S. Degree in chemical engineering, he is a registered professional engineer in this state. Mayben is also a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and several honorary societies. Mayben and his family lived and farmed near Bovina for several years, moving from here in 1956. He is a member of Farwell Masonic Lodge No. 977, Bovina. He was graduated from Friona High School in 1945 and served with the 82nd Airborne Division during World War II.

Mayben's wife, Norma is the former Norma Lee Osborn, daughter of Jesse M. Osborn of Muleshoe. The couple have three children; Sherri, 5, George, 4, and Norma Sue, 3.

Don't worry about the smart alecks who deride the churches. That's where you belong if you want to do anything to improve yourself and your race.

School Transfers Due This Week

June 1 is deadline for transferring students from one school district to another.

Warren Morton, superintendent, reminds parents who live in another school district, but want their children to attend Bovina Schools next year, that transfer now is imperative.

Morton reports "about nine" students from other districts attended school here this year.

Application for transfer must be made through County Judge Loyde Brewer's office at Farwell. Parents must make the application.

Re-application must be made for students who have attended out-of-district schools, Morton stresses.

Trio Introduces Song Saturday

The Wilsonaire Trio, accompanied by their pianist-instructor, Mrs. Doris Wilson, introduced a new song, "Honey Bee," Saturday on the Silver Grill Breakfast Club radio program.

The song and program were dedicated to Mrs. Erma Jobes of Farwell. Members of the trio are Brenda Jones, Janice Leake and Marilyn Brandon.

Mrs. Wilson reports the trio is now practicing the new song and will, in the near future, make a recording. The recording will be one taken next week to California by Odis Echols of Clovis. There, it will be heard by a number of singers. The song was written by Floyd Robertson of Amarillo.

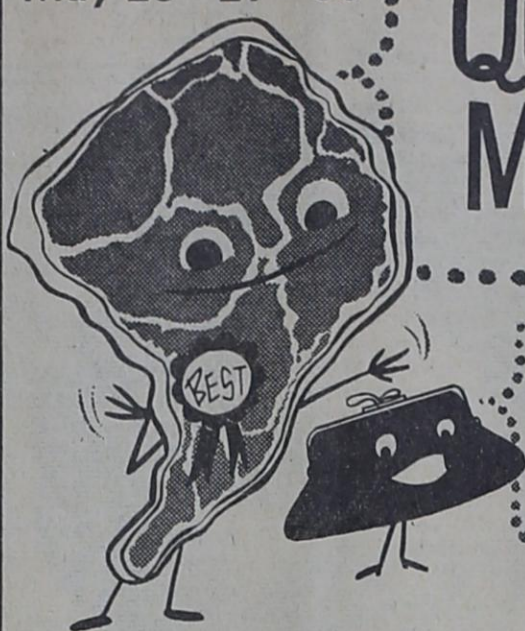

The music instructor stresses that the Bovina trio's recording will only be used as introduction for the song. "But," she says, "We are very pleased and proud that the trio was chosen for this."

MILLIONS SWINDLED

There are hundreds of these "earn - money - at - home" schemes. It is estimated that they take over a half-billion dollars annually from several million people who are swindled out of amounts ranging from $1 to over $1,000. Victims end by losing money instead of earning it. Such schemes to earn money at home in spare hours are often fraudulent and, at best, seldom result in any net earnings.

The type of such schemes fall into 11 different categories.

Last year, Amarillo was lauded as the "rose capital" of the Texas Panhandle. And, not being in Amarillo during the lush season, I'm perfectly willing to believe them. But it's an even bet that Bovina can compete with Amarillo this year. And come out at least a little in the lead.

About the prettiest sights in Bovina this week are rose gardens belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Ike Quickel. One whole arbor is covered with rich reds as a background for a garden of vari-colored roses.

Geneva Berry, too, has roses. All on one bush. Since moving to town last year, Geneva has only coaxed one rose bush to live in her front yard (there are more in her backyard) and it is a "circus".

For those like myself who are uneducated about names of flowers, the circus is, Mrs. Betty tells me, unusual in its coloring. Starts out with a pink bud, gradually turns yellow and then, as it fades, simply days later, turns pink again.

The word "pink" just doesn't do it justice. Too ordinary a word. Pick your own exotic descriptive name—but be sure and acquire or at least see a circus rose.

Mrs. C. R. Elliott called last week to tell me she had an article she would like to see in print. After reading it, I agree with her completely. The following was written by another lady here in town who is too shy to allow her name to appear. But, knowing the author, I am more than sure that she lives by what she writes.

Furthermore, if I could express myself half so well, I wouldn't mind getting credit for my work.

"When talk turns to religion, I have notions of my own. Have my versions of the Bible and the things I think alone. And I've found them satisfying; found them comforting for me, but I'll never lose my temper if we change to disagree.

"For religion is a view; it is a pathway to the goal. Something to be settled between each man and his soul.

"Now I'm not a Roman Catholic, but I would not go so far as to fling away the friendship of the folks I know who are. I have lived and neighbored with them, come to love them through and through. I've respect and admiration for the kindly things they do. And I've come to the conclusion, though the bigots think it odd, that it makes no difference to me how a good man worships God.

"I know Methodists and Baptists, Lutherans, Church of Christ, Scientists and Jews, whose friendship is a treasure which I would not want to lose. And I honor and respect them and I wouldn't dare condemn the form of prayer and worship which is comforting to them.

"So when bigots talk religion, just settle back and see, the helpful friends and loyal neighbors every church has given me.

Personally, I'll be willing to wager that not only have these churches given this local woman friends, but that her church has also given each of them a friend, as well.

As most of you know by now, this is my last week to work for the Bovina Blade. Bill has accepted a position in Farwell and home, they say, is where the heart is. Where he is, there shall I be also. I do want to say thanks to all who have made it possible for me to work for the Blade for over three years. It was only through your cooperation—and oftentimes patience—with me that I could get the job done. I only ask that you be as helpful to whoever takes my place. We won't be moving for several days and this is my invitation to one and all—come help me burn the accumulated junk of five years and then, later, come see us in Farwell.

Again, let me say, it's been fun; and Bill and I both move even 12 short miles away with a sincere feeling of regret.

Was visiting with Mrs. Archie McCutchan the other day and she asked me for a little assistance.

She and Archie made a trip recently to Truth or Consequences, N. M., to fish and visit. One Sunday, they, and their hosts, went out to Carrie Tingley Hospital for crippled children and Lois talked to some of the people in charge.

The official told Lois that the hospital is suffering a crying need for children's books. Lois says that funny books, religious comics and all that sort of thing would certainly be appreciated. And, the local lady promised to see what she could do.

Arrangements for transporting the magazines have been made, reports Lois, and if anyone has some they would like to contribute, they should just call her, ADams 8-442L.

Have you ever, after having lived with a statement your husband made several hours, suddenly decided that it can be taken at least two ways? The other day, after a futile campaign all winter for a broom closet and shelves to be built, I proceeded to "do it myself."

The results were pretty good considering, I thought and Bill was dragged in to inspect the job as soon as he came home from work. He, the typical man, surveyed my handiwork and said in a proud, masterful voice "Say, that looks like it will sure be sturdy."

It was only about five hours later that it dawned on me. Of course the closet will stay there—there must be at least a dozen nails holding it to the wall.

Kinda like Rev. W. R. Beard said one time. The former pastor was relating how he got out of lying, etc., when it came to visiting new mothers and babies.

To be absolutely honest, no one can rave about the beauty of ALL babies. There are those, sweet though they be, who just couldn't win a beauty prize if there were only two kids in a race. To a minister who, naturally wants to please the parents—but still tell the truth, there seemed to be no solution.

Rev. Beard settled it all to the satisfaction of parents and his conscience by exclaiming "My, that IS a baby."

A diplomat? Yes, I think he could be called just that.

Speaking of diplomacy, Bill again has been most charitable about a hobby of mine of making plastic flowers.

The first flower I made was supposed to be a poppy. Bill there kept real quiet until I announced the nature of the plastic plant. But, a week later, after slaving for at least three hours, I produced my first African violet, and he slipped.

"That's pretty honey," he exclaimed. "Now let's see, is that a poppy, too?" Unappreciated artist, that's me.

A little notice in a London paper which has found its way into one of the area dailies reads thus: "Charles Williams saw a strange striped animal ambling down his garden path and quickly threw his coat over it. Police said if the polecat is somebody's pet, will the owner please come quick. Williams was believed willing to throw in the coat, too."

Could more be said, in less words?

It has been some years a mystery to me about salad suppers. As usual, members of the Wesleyan Service Guild had such a supper for their last meeting of the year recently and, again as usual, it was a huge success.

But what beats me is—the hostesses tell each member to "bring a salad; doesn't matter what kind." And the result is a dozen salads may arrive, but rarely is there a repetition.

Last week, there was bean salad, tossed salad, fruit salad and congealed salad—and out of the 11 brought, there weren't two alike.

The same thing happens at Widow's Club and Dorcas Circle luncheons, too. They are always well rounded meals by the time everyone gets there—and after sampling everything everyone else brought, the guests "well-rounded" too.

Do-it-yourself certainly isn't new when it comes to having the lady of the house wield a paint brush to spruce up furniture and house interiors. With so many lovely colors and special paints, it's fun to paint.

Of course, preparing the surface is the work of it—unless you can get the man of the house to do the sanding and scraping. Remember, a smooth dry surface is what you need for any good paint job. Might as well wait until the surface is perfectly dry until you attempt it. Otherwise, it's wasted effort.

Complete directions for best results are on paint cans. Read them. Some hints not on the cans:

To insure a longer life for a new paint brush, soak it in linseed oil overnight before using it. To keep skin from forming on the top of paint, turn the can upside down after you have put on the lid.

The most economical of all paint removers is household lye—and it's one of the most effective, too.

To make this paint remover, dissolve a can of lye in a quart of water. In another container stir four heaping tablespoons of cornstarch into two quarts of water. Pour the lye solution slowly into the cornstarch stirring constantly. Use rubber gloves to protect your hands.

Apply the paste to the painted surface with an old scrub brush. Keep wet for about 5 minutes. When paint is loosened, flush with water. Be careful not to let the run-off contact lawns, plants or surfaces that might be affected by the lye. Rinse wood surfaces with a solution of one part vinegar to one part water. Allow the surface to dry for 24 hours, then sand and paint.

With the men of the house slipping out to their favorite fishing haunts these days, we should have more of this healthful food to serve. And if the anglers are as successful as they would have others believe, you should have an over supply—which can be preserved in your freezer. Fish is extremely perishable and must be handled carefully and quickly if it is to be kept fresh and fit for the table at a future date.

To prepare fish for freezing, first clean, then rinse in salt water. Drain and wipe nearly dry. Use folded pieces of transparent plastic wrap between individual fish so they can be easily separated before cooking. Wrap the fish tightly in the film and seal with freezer tape. A good idea is to mark the tape with the name of the fish and the date it was caught.

The markings not only help Dad and the boys prove what they caught and when, but show you which to cook first.

If you use a special board for fish cleaning, keep it sweet and odorless by washing it with a solution of household lye. A teaspoon in a quart of water makes an excellent odorless disinfectant. Rinse thoroughly after you have done your clean-up job.

Filter cloths used in coffee makers can be kept "sweet" by washing them in clean, cool water right after using. Never use soap or other cleaners on the filters.

"READING NOT REQUIRED FOR A DIPLOMA THESE DAYS?"

TO NEW MEXICO
Buck Ellison and his sister, Mrs. Tom Rhodes, took their parents to Truth or Consequences, N. M. this week. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellison, will visit there with another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Glover, for about a month.

There was a small town bank president with a glass eye, and he was very proud of it, particularly its realistic appearance. One day a man came in to see him about a loan, and the president found it necessary to turn down the applicant's request. However, the man who needed money was very persistent. In a moment of weakness the bank president said, "O. K. I'll grant you the loan if you can tell me which is my artificial eye."

The applicant studied both eyes carefully and then said, "The right one."
"Correct," said the president, "but how could you tell?"
"It was easy," replied the applicant. "It looks a lot more sympathetic than your left eye."

Traffic Accidents Increase

Sergeant D. W. Duggan of the Texas Highway Patrol released the Rural Traffic Accident Summary in Parmer County for April 1959.

The Highway Patrol in this area investigated a total of 9 accidents with the following breakdown: property damage, 7; personal injury, 2; and fatal accidents none.

The report reflects a total property damage of $2,190.00 with 3 persons injured and none killed. This is an increase of 2 accidents compared to April 1958.

Sergeant Duggan advised that more men are needed by the Department of Public Safety to help prevent accidents and that vacancies exist in all of the Department's uniformed services. He further stated that anyone interested in obtaining more information or in making application should contact some member of the Department of Public Safety immediately.

One reason newspaper advertising is better, and more effective, than any other kind is that it is never rammed down your throat, those who read such advertising do so because they want to.

presented diplomas. Processional and recessional were given by Mrs. Doris Wilson at the piano.

Sunday morning, baccalaureate services were conducted in the auditorium. Alfred White, minister of Bovina Church of Christ, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. In his message, Minister White stressed the importance of the seniors' ability to think for themselves.

Rev. Davis Edens, pastor of Bovina Methodist Church, gave the invocation. Rev. Jack Jeter, pastor of First Baptist church, gave scripture reading and Rev. S. W. Blake, pastor of Pentecostal Holiness Church, gave the benediction.

Mrs. Doris Wilson played the processional and recessional.

A choir composed of members of the Baptist and Methodist choirs sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," Earl Heise, director of First Baptist Church choir, directed and Mrs. Wilson accompanied. The hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," was sung by the congregation.

Approximately 550 attended. Seniors graduated were

But the little fusses we have here are like school boy stuff (that's a pun) compared to the trouble which is brewing at Farwell now.

Frankly, we find it hard to understand how people can become so terribly upset and confused over school business when we have a battery of people dedicated to carry out its operation.

Interest is good. Almost a necessity. But trouble is bad. Why trouble must exist, and it seems that it must, is beyond us.

Mrs. Pearl M. Dodson, tax assessor-collector for Bovina Independent School District, attended an annual tax meeting in Canyon Friday. The Region One meeting was conducted at college museum, under the direction of Harvey Austin of Lubbock, president of Texas Association of Assessors.

A number of speakers were heard throughout the day and each was followed by a "question and answer" period, at which a discussion of mutual tax problems was given.

During a recreation period, those attending were taken on a tour of the museum.

Direct AF Commisions Available

Direct commissions in the U. S. Air Force are now available for young men between the ages of 20 1/2 and 27 1/2 who have a BA or BS degree from an accredited college or university. The direct commission program is open to both single and married men.

The new program, the Air Force Officer Training School, is being made available to assure the Air Force of a complement of career minded officers with a high level education.

Each officer selected will be placed on temporary duty at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex. where they will undergo three months of rigorous training in military and academic subjects. From Lackland AFB they will go directly to a duty assignment or to further specialized training. Too, young men entering this program may apply for navigator training. Prior to the Officer Training School Program married men could not apply for flying training but under the new program dependents are no bar to application.

Young men interested in this program should contact Sgt. Glen K. Ryan by writing PO Box 601, Clovis, N.M., giving their name, address, age, school, major subject. Or call P. O. 2-0114, Clovis, and make arrangements with Sgt Ryan to see you.

Maize Going In At Rapid Rate

Grain sorghum planting started in earnest in the Parmer County area this week, as farmers took advantage of clearing weather, and moved into their fields with hundreds of planting rigs.

Some maize had already been planted (which is customary) in the earlier part of the month, but this is the first week that the farmers really got serious about sowing grain sorghums.

From now through the early part of June, the biggest part of the 1959 maize crop will be planted. Variance may depend on weather conditions, but the mood is on farmers to get the job done, and most of them will unless the elements prevent it.

As a general rule, seed beds are in good shape this year--perhaps the best ever. This condition is a result of a very intensive program of land breaking and preparatory work carried on through the winter months. Farmers had a good, clean "open" winter to work, and although moisture was practically negligible, they have managed to pre-water their fields and are now in almost ideal condition to plant.

The tendency in the past two years has been to discourage early planting of grain sorghum, and to concentrate on planting the crop on, all factors considered, what seems to be the "optimum" dates. These optimum dates have not been agreed upon across the board, but research indicates that they are later than most farmers would believe. Middle and later June plantings have been front-runners in Experiment Station testing recently.

Varieties common to the area mature in from 90 to 120 days, and June seedings are usually good for the varieties that are the most popular. Still, it appears this week that the bulk of the planting--perhaps almost all of it--will be completed by the middle of June.

The two main things to be said for late planting are: (1) It conserves water, and possibly eliminates the need for one irrigation (depending on the weather, naturally), and (2) It lets the crop "get off quicker" in warmer weather, outdistancing most weed competitors.

Pulling against these positive points is the natural desire on the part of the farmer to "get on with the work." He's been preparing to grow a crop for weeks, perhaps even months, and he's anxious to get some seed in the ground.

Also, the farmer isn't so sure but what planting a couple of weeks early might help him get his crop off just a little bit sooner, and he can remember years in which this was a very important consideration. In fact, 1957, when winds blew the crop flat after harvest had been about half completed, is a year that sticks in his mind.

One more factor which figures in this tendency to plant early is the definite plan on the part of some operators to stagger their planting dates so as to take advantage of a growth pattern in their crops that will result in more advantageous use of irrigation water.

A crop planted May 20, for instance, won't likely be at a critical stage for water on the same days that a crop planted June 15 will be. In the case of large acreages of maize, and especially where water may be limited at peak use, this is important.

Farmers are talking about grain sorghum prospects, market-wise, and are concerned with the drastically lowered price supports, but the emphasis at the moment seems to be maximum output.

All kinds of gadgetry is being employed to increase yields. Narrow-row seeding is now common. Some farmers are even sowing broadcast, figuring they'll take their chances with the weeds in a crop they can't cultivate.

Naturally, fertilizer will fig-

THE PARMER FARMER

by W. H. Graham Jr.

We are proud of the Parmer County area in so many ways, but we wonder occasionally about some of our shortcomings. Why is it, for example, that when a program on cotton production such as was prepared and presented at the Hub last week, isn't better attended?

Do farmers feel they know all there is to know about growing, harvesting, and marketing cotton? Surely not. Do they think that they have already heard what the specialists in the various field have to say? This could not be the case, either, for agricultural research is a dynamic subject, and indications are that more of it will be used this year than ever before, as part of the overall big push to keep on increasing yields.

Seed variety choice still continues its swing to the hybrids, and the amount of common seed that will be planted this year is practically of no consequence.

Big Rains Pelt Parts

Heavy rains, in a few cases measuring up to four inches, fell suddenly in isolated parts of the Parmer County area over the past week. The biggest spot reporting crop-damaging amounts was in the Lazbuddie area north of Muleshoe and up through Clay's Corner.

There, plantings were completely washed out and fields were cut through with run-off water when the skies unloaded in less than an hour's time. Some hail accompanied the storm, but it was mostly a case of washing from the rain.

This was Friday evening. Virtually all parts of the big Parmer farm territory got moisture either Thursday, Friday, or Saturday. A few got some Sunday rain. Hail at this time of the year is always a hazard, but so far it has not been wholesale.

Re-planting of some cotton has been in order for some farmers, but many are leaving the stands they have alone, hoping that the cotton will "pull out of it" and what they have left beats trying to re-plant at a late date.

Where from a quarter to three-quarters inch of rainfall, most farmers are happy. It didn't hurt--even helped--cotton prospects for many, and any rain at all is still good for the wheat.

About two-thirds of the area was in that quarter to three-quarters category.

Gallons per minute divided by 450 equals acre inches per hour pumped.

Gallons per minute times hours per irrigation set, divided by 450 times acres per set equals average depth of water applied in inches.

"The Place Where Most People Trade" Friona, Texas Wednesday, May 27, 1959

We've received chain letters for money, books and candy, but here is a chain letter to end all chain letters. (They are against the law anyway.)

This letter was started by a tired business man like yourself, in the hope that it might bring relief and happiness to tired businessmen. Unlike most chain letters, it doesn't cost anything. Just send a copy of this letter to five of your friends who are equally tired!

Then bundle up your wife and send her to the man whose name is at the top of the list and add your name at the bottom! When your name reaches the top of the list you will receive 16,478 women and some of them will be dandies. Have faith--do not break the chain! One man did and the poor guy got his old lady back!

Do your spring and summer parts shopping at the Parmer County Implement Company and save--planter parts--sweeps and shovels--mower parts--field harvester parts--baler parts--combine parts--corn-picker parts--and tractor parts.

Conversation at our house. "David, you have your shirt on wrong side out."

"I know it. I needed an inside pocket to-day."

"David, would you like to take piano lessons this summer?"

"I don't know. First, tell me what it feels like to play the piano."

See the new Row-Master at the Parmer County Implement Company today. It's the most versatile farm implement on the market today. For a better job, use the Row-Master for mulching, cultivating, knifeing, discing, weed killing, listing, planting and shaping beds. You need only one machine--the Row-Master.

When Reed Smoot was elected first Mormon senator from Utah, several senators protested seating him. However, Boise Penrose, leader of the Senate, learning that Smoot had only one wife, looked out over the Senate and said, "I don't see why we can't get along just as well with a polygamist who doesn't polyg as we do with a lot of monogamists who don't monog!"

Sodium chlorate, the original weed killer, means sure death for Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, bindweed, Canada thistle and other weeds and grasses when it is applied. Better get a good supply soon.

Woman showing new mink coat to friend. "It's a little conversation I picked up. John never stops talking about it."

Have you seen the go-devil at our store? This one machine weeds the row, pulverizes the crust, knives the middles, plows the row and discs and loosens tractor tire hard pan.

The roses all over town are beautiful this week. The ones at the John Gaede home we really like. Three tall rose bushes in full bloom in the middle of a clean well plowed garden. For the prettiest sight in town we nominate Dean Blackburn's garden--well cultivated--straight rows with radishes almost ready for eating.

Get accurate planting for maximum yields with McCormick planter plates. With today's faster planting speeds, it's more important than ever to make sure you have the right seed plates in your planter. Better visit our parts department soon.

In a San Francisco cemetery a visitor noticed an old Chinaman placing a bowl of rice on a grave. "What time do you expect your friend to come up and eat the rice?" he asked. The old Chinese smiled, "Same time your friend come up to smell the flowers."

V. R. Jordan has always believed in traffic signs--more so now than ever. He was driving home from Hereford one day last week and saw all the "Slow" and "Loose Gravel" signs and he was going slow when a car went around him throwing the "Loose Gravel" and breaking three of the headlights on his Oldsmobile.

The best time to apply sodium chlorate for a sure weed kill was last month, last week or yesterday, but it's never too late--better get a good supply of sodium chlorate at the Parmer County Implement Co.

One of the prettiest sights in Friona this week has been the red rose (climber) on the front porch of the Wilhelm house. The honeysuckles at the Moseley home have been beautiful and we've driven by several times just to smell them. The blue spruce at the L. F. Lillard home have been the prettiest we've seen in years.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

About this time of year many mothers are faced with the problem of keeping children and young people busy and interested in one project or another. As we think of ways to help our children keep busy, some serious consideration should be given to teaching them to work.

Learning to do a job well for the job itself isn't an easy task. Most children invariably ask the question, "How much does it pay?" when they are asked if they would like to do any job. Up to a point this is good, but those of us who are older should remember that satisfaction gained from doing a job well is very important, also.

When it is necessary for each member of a family to do specific chores there was no problem of teaching all children in the family to work. However, in our present economy there are far too few jobs that parents require children to do.

Those of us who hire someone to clean the house, weed the lawn, or do other similar chores, then worry about what our children are going to do to keep from being bored need to do some re-arranging so that we will have time to work with the children and teach them to do these things.

Since work isn't a necessity in the lives of most of our children, we, as parents, should make it a planned part of our lives.

A recent Associated Press release warns against the danger of giving children plastic bags to play with. The danger comes from suffocation. A warning that every mother should heed is "Beware of plastic bags."

Even though glycerine is one of the most old fashioned beauty aids most of us can remember, it is still highly recommended by many skin specialists. If your hands are not as soft and nice looking as you would like for them to be, try rubbing glycerine on them then wearing white cotton gloves while you sleep.

If you are one of the homemakers who feel that you are so busy with household chores and other time consuming activities that you rarely have time to do the things you would really enjoy doing, you might like to follow the following example:

MY GOLDEN HOUR--A home, a husband and two children fill my day so fully that reading, letter-writing and dabbling in paints, all things that I like to do, used to be out of the question. Then I decided to get up an hour early every morning and do these things, with no telephones, no doorbells, no pleas for attention until the family came to life at seven.

The first few mornings I was pretty foggy, as I numbly brewed my coffee and retreated to the big chair in the living room. But it was so much fun I began getting up with wide-awake anticipation.

In a year I've read three books, completed nine paintings, and renewed old friendships through my letter-writing. My only rule: no straightening the house, no doing dishes, no mixing formulas. This golden hour is all mine. Mrs. David H. Syme, Jr., St. Paul, Minnesota.

This letter was originally printed in the Woman's Day Magazine.

The next time you have left over ham and want to dress it up to serve so that members of your family will not recognize it as a "left over," try combining it with ground beef and making a delicious

HAM LOAF
1 1/2 lbs. ground ham
1 lb. ground beef
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups tomato juice or milk

1 cup fine cracker crumbs
1 teaspoon onion salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/8 teaspoon cloves
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
2 tablespoons honey
1 tablespoon ketchup
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Combine ground ham and beef. Beat eggs with fork; add tomato juice, crumbs and seasonings. Add ground meats; mix thoroughly. Pack into a 9 1/2 by 5 1/4 greased loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 minutes. Invert in shallow baking pan.

Mix honey, ketchup and lemon juice. Spoon over loaf. Bake 30 minutes more.

For a company meal you might like to serve with hot cherry sauce. To make the sauce, heat one (1 lb. 8 oz.) jar of cherry pie filling and serve hot over ham loaf slices.

Since both carrots and onions grow in Parmer County, we should add recipes to our collections that feature these two vegetables. One easy to prepare dish that uses both is

CARROTS AND ONIONS IN TOAST CUPS
6 to 10 carrots
1 cup whole cooked onions
1/3 cup milk
1 (10 1/2 oz.) can cream of celery soup

Toast Cups:
12 thin slices bread
butter or margarine

Scrape carrots and cut in thin slices. Cook in 1" boiling water which has been salted about 15 minutes. Add cooked onions; heat. Drain. Add milk and soup. Stir carefully; bring to boiling point. Season.

Trim crust from bread slices; butter one side. Press 2 slices, buttered side up, into bottom of a six ounce custard cup, overlapping slices in bottom of cup. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 15 minutes or until crisp and golden. Heap carrots and onions in toast cups. Makes 6 servings.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Outstanding soil and water conservation efforts by James Mabry, a cooperator in the Parmer County Soil Conservation District have resulted in his being named one of the 15 state winners in the third annual Conservation Picture Awards program co-sponsored by the Association of Texas

Soil Conservation Districts and the Great Southwest Life Insurance Company of Dallas. In choosing 15 state winners a statewide committee of judges considered his conservation achievements along with those of other farmers and ranchers who had received similar honors from many of Texas' 174 soil conservation districts.

The award, which will be presented to James next year is an 18 x 24 inch colored and framed aerial photograph of his farm. In coming months the photograph will be displayed along with those of the other winners at many state and regional agricultural events including the Texas State Fair and the annual convention of the Association of Texas Soil Conservation Districts.

RUSSIAN COTTON

Russia increased its cotton yield last year as the result of better planting and harvesting methods, according to a Soviet announcement.

Production last year was placed at 4,335,000 metric tons compared with 4,210,000 metric tons in 1957. A metric ton is 2,204.6 pounds.

Planting was largely by the "square cluster sowing method," and much of the crop was mechanically harvested.

Herbicide sprays for brush and weed control should be applied when wind speed is 10 miles per hour or less.

H. D. AGENT'S CORNER

Jimmie Lou Wainscott

The latest method for canning vegetables is a one-step cold-pack method, according to extension foods and nutrition specialists.

Directions are simple. . . As an example, take snap beans. Begin by washing all pint or quart jars in hot soapy water and rinse well. It is not necessary to sterilize jars since the pressure canner must be used in canning all non-acid vegetables.

Use only fresh, young, tender beans. The bean should just be beginning to form in the pod. Wash thoroughly, trim ends and cut into 1-inch pieces.

Thus far there is nothing different from the old method of canning snap beans. Now you will note that the fill is different.

Pack raw beans tightly into clean jars to 1/2 inch of top. Cover with boiling water, again leaving 1/2 inch space at the top of the jar. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt to pints and 1 teaspoon to quarts.

Close jars with two-piece lid and place in the pressure canner. Exhaust canner for 10 minutes, close petcock and process at 10 pounds pressure - pint jars 20 minutes, quart jars 25 minutes. Remove canner from heat, let pressure return to zero and remove the jars. This new one-step method can also be used for canning fresh lima beans, carrots, cream style corn, whole kernel corn, black-eye peas and summer squash.

For further information check with your local home demonstration agent. You may also wish to ask for a copy of B-194, "Home Canning--Fruits and Vegetables."

Dripping is essential for smooth drying of cotton and rayons with a minimum-care finish, according to extension clothing specialists. For best results, lift the clothes from the rinse water after laundering. Hang smoothly on a hanger. Don't wring, twist or squeeze to remove water.

As the water drips off, it smooths out creases or wrinkles left from laundering. A final touch-up with the iron may be needed to make hems, seams and edges as smooth as new.

Some of the synthetic fibers, as dacron, also have this drip-dry quality. Clothes made of these synthetics will be wrinkle-free when dry only if lifted from the rinse water and hung with the least possible handling. The more they drip, the smoother they dry.

Household And Fashion Hints

Designed especially for a child's room is a small hooked rug with alphabet and toy motifs in bright red and blue. Next to the bed, the rug of sturdy cotton will keep small feet cozy and warm while a child is searching for his slippers.

On the first warm spring day, air your cotton inner-spring mattresses. Place them close to an open window or outside in the sunshine to restore freshness.

Bring out the luster of glazed cotton chintz by pressing it on the right side.

Chlorine type bleaches are safe for white wash-and-wear cottons unless the garment tag says otherwise. Bleach is never needed for colored fabrics.

If you leave your ironing board standing in the laundry room, make a gay printed cotton cover for it. Quilt the cover on top and trim it with a gathered 17-inch flounce. At the wide end of the board, add a pocket where you can store small items that need ironing.

Cotton ticking, in blue and white, red and white, or other color combinations, is becoming increasingly popular as a home decorating fabric. Interior designers find the cotton fabric easy to work with, inexpensive, and extremely decorative.

Perk up a winter-weary room with new cotton slipcovers for chairs and sofas. The covers will look fresh and springlike, and they're much cooler than regular heavy upholstery. The average sofa with the cushions requires about 22 yards of 36-inch material or 15 yards of 48 to 50-inch material. It's always a good idea to measure carefully the piece of furniture to be covered.

Corner on Cotton

BY BOB COLLINS

What does "competitive price" mean when we talk about cotton? . . . it doesn't necessarily mean a low price . . . but it does mean that cotton must be priced at a level where some other fiber can't be profitable used to displace it. . . and competitive price doesn't mean lower profits for the farmer, either . . . in fact, nearly everybody we talk to in the industry wants to see the farmer make more money so he'll stay interested in growing cotton . . . think what a blow it would be to ginners, merchants, oil millers, warehousemen, spinners and weavers if all the cotton farmers switched to another crop . . . all these people are interested in seeing the farmer prosper, but nobody associated with cotton is going to prosper unless there is a growing consumption of raw cotton . . . there isn't going to be one unless cotton can do a job as good as any other fiber and as CHEAPLY.

COTTON VS. COTTON

Now what about U. S. growths competing with foreign cotton? . . . other items also enter the picture . . . there is certainty of supply and good shipments . . . both of these favor the U. S., but the subsidy that gets U. S. cotton down price-wise to meet foreign growths is subject to change . . . this may not favor American cotton . . . since we have announced that our cotton will compete price-wise with foreign cotton and since we say that we will increase the subsidy whenever necessary, foreign buyers are wary . . . perhaps by holding off their buying of the U. S. cotton they can cause an increase in the subsidy and thus get the fiber cheaper . . . or they think, "what if I buy U. S. cotton at one price and the subsidy is increased? . . . I'll be stuck with a higher priced cotton than if I had waited

. . ." the trade feels that we should have a subsidy that gets our cotton into the competitive market, but also it should be a firm subsidy, not subject to increase during the season . . . while the subsidy CAN be increased, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has just said that it hopes improved textile conditions and world prices will allow a decrease . . . also, the subsidy has never been increased during a cotton season . . .

One ton of poultry manure is equal to about 100 pounds of 20-18-8 in fertilization value. And, it can add valuable organic matter to your farm fields.

TESTS

Cotton fertilizer tests in Arkansas showed highest yields occurred where nitrogen was applied at the rate of 60 pounds an acre on coarse and medium textured soils. Phosphorous and potassium, in combination with nitrogen, gave higher yields than nitrogen alone. Tests were conducted in Craighead, Crittenden, Lincoln, St. Francis, and Woodruff counties.

YOUNG MAN -- WE PUT THE LIGHT IN YOUR WINDOW

Had you come 25 years ago young fellow, your light would have been a kerosene lamp. But your Dad and a lot of other folks like him organized an electric cooperative and built their own electric system. It was the ONLY way we could get electricity in our rural area.

Now you are going to have to help guard it. Some people would have you think the government built the system and gave it to us. That isn't true. We borrowed the money and we are paying back our loan with interest. Our cooperative is a business managed, tax paying partnership and we are happy to welcome you as a member. Because the Cooperative brought electricity to your farm you'll lead a healthier, happier life.

Grow strong, young fellow. You'll want a light in the window some distant night when your son comes into the world.
