City agrees to plan for closing railroad crossing on East 12 street

by Sheri Lewis

Post City Council members voted unanimously Nov. 1 to move forward with plans to close the railroad crossing at East 12th Street.

The possibility of closing that portion of the street has been discussed several times in recent years, but no action was taken. City officials said Burlington Northern Santa Fe have been interested in closing the crossing to avoid having to outfit the crossing with costly safety features such as crossing arms, lights, etc.

Mayor Bill Pool said that area carries "very little traffic" and its closure would "not be a hardship."

As an incentive to close the crossing, the Texas Department of Transportation offered the city $150,000 in reimbursable funds. BNSF offered $40,000, with the agreement that these funds would be used for a bypass.

Some discussion in the past has focused on creating a truck bypass to reroute large profile vehicles out of the downtown area and onto 8th Street; however, interim city manager Delbert Rudd said such plans might have a negative impact on future plans of the depot building currently used by the Scouts.

The council agreed to move ahead with the closure plan and asked Rudd to meet with BNSF and TxDOT officials to see what alternative projects the reimbursable funds could be used for.

The closure of the railroad crossing will require a public hearing.

In other business, the council:

- Turned down a request by Old Mill Trade Days representative Rosa Latimer requesting an adjustment to the OMTD monthly utility billing. Latimer made the request based on the fact that attendance, which played a factor in the establishment of the current rate, has been "down considerably" in the three years since the flat $510-per-month rate was set. Based on an average monthly vendor count of 130, council members noted the utility cost per OMTD vendor is less than $4 per month. They also noted that hotels and apartment buildings charged a flat rate do not see changes in their utility costs, regardless of occupancy.

- Tabled action on a proposed curfew ordinance.

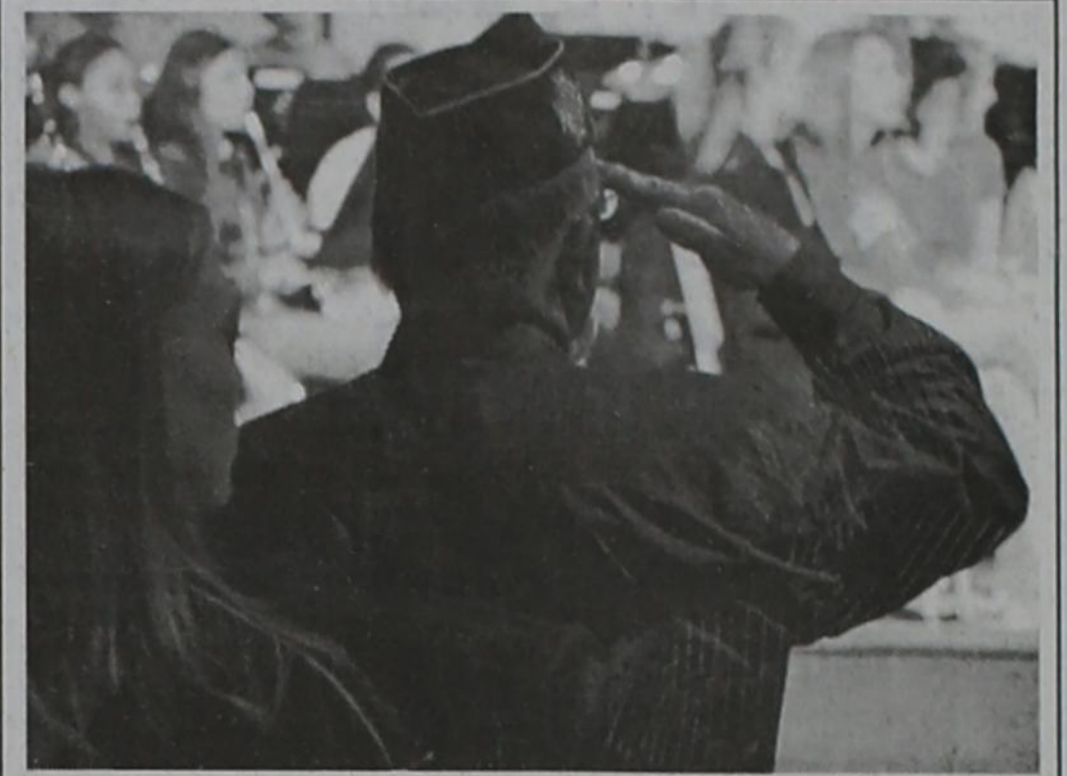

- Tabled action regarding the sign ordinance.

- Discussed at length with Wanda Mitchell a series of changes to community center policies. Mitchell also provided a report of October activities at the community center.

- Appointed the city manager as the Equal Opportunity/Fair Housing officer for the City of Post.

- Received a report on Post Cares Meals on Wheels.

- Heard from council member Kenda Bartlett, who thanked local residents for the opportunity to attend the recent Texas Municipal League event. Bartlett also lauded city staffers for their ongoing efforts on behalf of the municipality.

Saluting our veterans

Garza County United Way loses official designation

A lack of leadership, communication shortfalls and a shortage of volunteers prevented United Way of Garza County from organizing campaigns in the fall of 2004 and 2005.

According to information provided to The Dispatch this week, the local United Way failed to fulfill any of the membership requirements of the National United Way of America in 2004. As a result, the local organization's membership was terminated.

Concerned citizens attempted to meet the requirements after the deadline was passed, but reinstatement was denied, according to reports.

Without any solicitation, Garza County residents and corporate donors stepped forward to provide $7,000 in funding to the local United Way in the fall of 2004. The funds were divided and distributed to the local groups previously served by United Way of Garza County.

Until the local program is restarted, donors are encouraged to make contributions to their favorite local charities or civic organizations.

The first of a regular feature at Old Mill Trade Days was a popular attraction last Saturday during the auction. Items for the auction came from Old Mill Trade Days vendors, as bidders took advantage of big savings. The next event will be November 25 through 27 and again December 2, 3 and 4.

Cindy Aguilar celebrates anniversary of transplant

by Sheri Lewis

On a 2005 calendar in the Aguilar home, Nov. 9 bears the notation: "One year with my new liver. Thank God!"

Christina Aguilar and her parents, Lupe and Cindy Aguilar of Post, see Nov. 9, 2005, as a special day. It's an anniversary, of sorts — one year since Christina received the liver transplant she needed to save her life.

When Christina Aguilar was only five weeks old, doctors diagnosed the infant with a form of liver cancer. Her parents, who were reeling from the diagnosis, were told their daughter wouldn't live to celebrate her 15th birthday.

But Christina proved them wrong.

Shortly after the diagnosis, she underwent surgery to have the cancer removed from her body. That surgery, performed at Lubbock General Hospital (now University Medical Center), cost Christina her gall bladder and 40 percent of her liver.

The Aguilars were advised that their daughter might someday require a liver transplant.

As the little girl approached her teen years, frequent viral infections led to frequent hospital visits. Doctors were forced to perform a colostomy in 2003. In 2004, when the colostomy bag was removed in February, the Aguilars were told that their daughter should be evaluated as a liver transplant recipient.

In July 2004, Christina and her family celebrated the birthday doctors never expected her to see. She and her parents traveled to Houston weeks later to begin the early process of getting on the transplant list.

Christina's name officially made the list on Sept. 23, 2004.

The Aguilars were packing on Nov. 8, 2004, preparing to go to Houston to see the doctors and handle other pre-transplant arrangements, when the phone call came.

"It was chaos," said Cindy Aguilar, who took that phone call from Texas Children's Hospital in Houston. "Boy, everybody was in the dining room... and I just didn't know what to do. All I remember saying was, 'Lupe! They found Christina a liver!'"

The Aguilars immediately set out on the drive to Houston. Just south of Justiceburg they received another telephone call instructing Lupe Aguilar to accompany his daughter to Lubbock International Airport where a plane would be waiting.

While father and daughter waited for the plane, Cindy Aguilar and her cousin made a speedy trip to Houston, arriving about a half-hour before the plane touched down. Preparations for the transplant began immediately, and at about 9 a.m. Nov. 9, 2004, Christina went into surgery.

The 10-hour procedure went well, resulting in a "shiny new liver," Cindy Aguilar said.

Some post-surgical complications forced two additional surgeries, but Christina left the hospital Dec. 2. The family remained in Houston for another three weeks to enable physicians to keep a close eye on the transplant recipient.

"We had a wonderful Christmas," Cindy Aguilar said, "and we're planning to have a big Thanksgiving this year because we weren't here for last Thanksgiving."

Christina is "thriving," her mother said, and doctors predict she will live a full and healthy life.

Christina appears to be well on her way. The Post High School junior has a 90.2 grade point average and currently serves as manager for the basketball team. She'd like to play basketball and maybe be a cheerleader for the school, according to her mother.

"We just ordered a senior ring last week," Cindy Aguilar said. "She's a typical teenager. We're just excited and thrilled."

The Aguilars have made regular treks to Houston for checkups, and another is scheduled next week. Cindy Aguilar is hopeful that after next week Christina can cut back on some of her medications and the

Post City Merchants plan Christmas special

The Post City Merchants named a committee to meet with the hotel/motel tax board to look at the possibility of obtaining a 'Spend the Weekend in Post, Texas' billboard. Committee members include Curtis Hudman, Janice Plummer and Brett Mistrot.

After being called to order by the president, the group discussed the upcoming holiday decorating contest. "Christmas in Post" will be the theme for the Post City Merchants window contest.

Local merchants are encouraged to decorate their storefront windows. A $150 cash prize will be awarded to the best entry. All businesses will be considered in the contest (businesses need not be a member of PCM to participate and/or win).

Also discussed was the group's "scavenger hunt," which will involve a teaser ad placed in The Post Dispatch, along with contest rules and prizes to be given away.

Plans are under way to have PCM representatives appear on the Channel 11 Noon Notebook TV program. Further details will be discussed at a later date.

The ongoing decal contest and town slogan contest is being held over until the organization's next meeting. Prizes will be donated by PCM members. The prizes will be on display at the Garza Theatre through December. Prizes include a large barbecue grill and a weekend gift package, along with "tons of other great gifts."

Santa Claus will roam the streets of Post on Dec. 3, visiting with local children and posing for pictures.

Minutes were read by Sue Trammel and Naomi Matsler, treasurer, gave her report.

Members attending the meeting included representatives for the Garza Theatre, Higginbotham-Bartlett, La Posta, Plum Crazy, Texas Treasures, Cellular One and Cocoras.

New members include Hudman's Furniture, Hotel Garza and McDonalds. A special meeting has been set for 6 p.m. Nov. 15 in the CNB Room to finalize upcoming events.

For more information on PCM, contact the group's president, Donna Degan, at 495-0888.

Lord's Acre dinner and fellowship raises $3,893

Sponsoring churches from this year's Lord's Acre dinner and fellowship announced this week that a total of $3,893 was distributed as a result of the event.

The following organizations benefitted: MAD DADS, Women's Crime Assistance, Toys for Tots, Post Cares, Garza County Child Welfare Board, Unchained Ministry and Backyard Missions.

Also, assistance for travel needs was provided to Christina Aguilar as she continues medical treatment in Houston.

Thanks to all who participated in the community event.

frequency of the Houston trips. So how did the Aguilars celebrate Nov. 9? Christina had three doctor's appointments in preparation for her transplant check-up. She also got a flu shot.

"I told her she'd be a year old," Cindy Aguilar said. "She said, 'Not me, Mom. My liver.'"

Post resident Inez Seabourn is recognized by Lubbock Mayor Protem Tom Martin.

Inez Seabourn recognized for volunteer work at food bank

A Post resident was among a handful of individuals honored last month by the South Plains Food Bank.

Inez Seabourn was recognized as a 2005 Hunger Hero at a luncheon event conducted in conjunction with World Hunger Day in Lubbock.

Seabourn was lauded for her work in preparing and delivering meals on weekdays for Post Cares Meals on Wheels, as well as her volunteer work at the nursing home.

Seabourn was one of five individuals honored at the gathering. Also recognized were three student groups from Lubbock area schools.

De-Pressed

by Bill O'Reilly

Here's a story the print press doesn't really want to report — many American newspapers are in big trouble. Earnings at The New York Times Company, for example, are down more than 50 percent this quarter, the Los Angeles Times has changed its editor and editorial director in the face of steep circulation declines, and scores of other papers are having major problems convincing consumers to buy their product.

There are a number of reasons for the depressing situation, pardon the pun. The Internet provides news efficiently, the decline of public education means fewer Americans care about what's going on, and people are very busy these days. Many of us don't have time to spend an hour reading the paper.

But the collapse of journalistic standards is another reason some have turned away from the press. Most Americans are not ideological junkies, craving their daily dose of political propaganda. Just give us the facts and some lively opinion based on the facts. The political jihadists who have taken over some newspapers are driving people away.

Here's an example. In the 30 days following Hurricane Katrina, The New York Times ran 53 columns criticizing President Bush on its editorial pages. Even Barbra Streisand might consider that overkill.

The Boston Globe, which is owned by The New York Times, has one conservative columnist and 10 liberal ones. So why would any conservative bother with the paper?

Over at the Washington Post, an editor named Marie Arana criticized her own paper saying: "The elephant in the newsroom is our narrowness. Too often, we wear liberalism on our sleeve and we are intolerant of other lifestyles and opinions ... if you work here, you must be one of us. You must be liberal, progressive, a Democrat."

So why would any Republican buy The Washington Post? Every newspaper has the right to take a point of view on its editorial pages, but when a political bias becomes so pervasive it affects everyone in the newsroom, you know things are out of control. Imagine a New York Times reporter walking into office and asking colleagues: "Hey, did you see 'The O'Reilly Factor' last night? It was great."

I'm sure that happens all the time. And then there is the hate factor. Not only do many newspapers aggressively push an agenda, but they demonize those with whom they disagree.

Recently, a columnist for The Dallas Morning News wrote that I, your humble correspondent, was partially responsible for the murders of six Mexicans in Georgia because I support strict security on the southern border. The woman actually wrote that I had said hateful things about migrants.

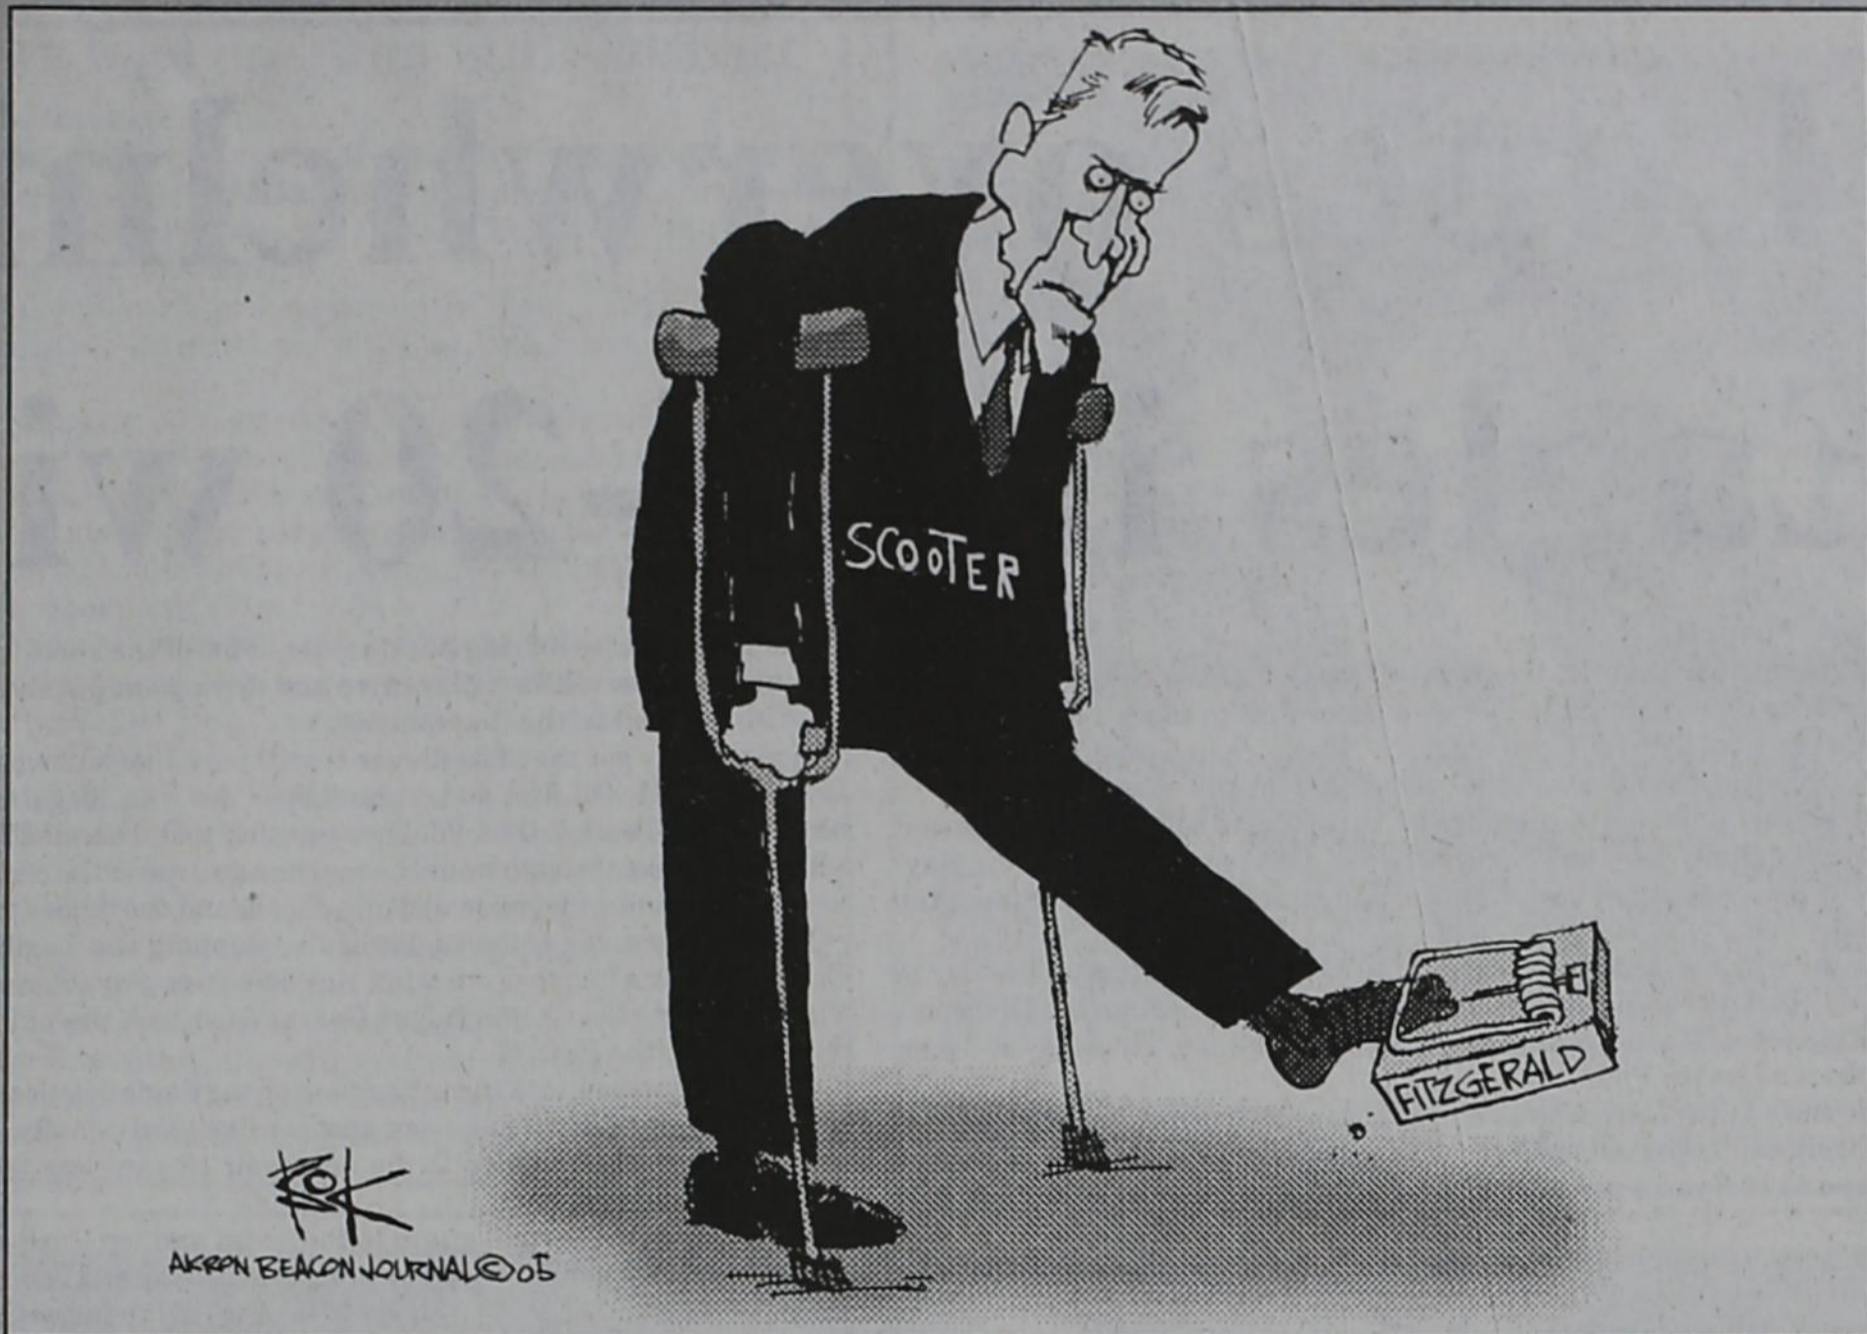

When Fox News produced videotape, which showed the exact opposite, that I had openly sympathized with migrants, the editors at The Dallas Morning News at first refused to issue a correction, and only after a torrent of outrage from subscribers did it finally do so.

With all this dopey stuff swirling around the print press it is no wonder millions of Americans are saying, "see ya." But nobody should be celebrating this. Newspapers have the space and resources to do reporting the other media cannot do. Newspapers are vital to the American electorate.

But the print press needs to clean itself up and fast. Because once the folks leave the party, it's tough to get them back.

Ammunition for poverty pimps

by Walter E. Williams

In the wake of Hurricane Katrina's destruction of New Orleans, President Bush gave America's poverty pimps and race hustlers new ammunition. The president said, "As all of us saw on television, there is also some deep, persistent poverty in this region as well. And that poverty has roots in a history of racial discrimination, which cut off generations from the opportunity of America. We have a duty to confront this poverty with bold action."

The president's espousing such a vision not only supplies ammunition to poverty pimps and race hustlers, it focuses attention away from the true connection between race and poverty.

Though I grow weary of pointing it out, let's do it again. Let's examine some numbers readily available from the Census Bureau's 2004 Current Population Survey and ask some questions. There's one segment of the black population that suffers only a 9.9 percent poverty rate, and only 13.7 percent of its under-5-year-olds are poor. There's another segment that suffers a 39.5 percent poverty rate, and 58.1 percent of its under-5-year-olds are poor. Among whites, one segment suffers a 6 percent poverty rate, and only 9.9 percent of its under-5-year-olds are poor. The other segment suffers a 26.4 percent poverty rate, and 52 percent of its under-5-year-olds are poor. What do you think distinguishes the high and low poverty populations among blacks?

Would you buy an explanation that it's because white people practice discrimination against one segment of the black population and not the other or one segment had a history of slavery and not the other? You'd have to be a lunatic to buy such an explanation. The only distinction between both the black and white populations is marriage — lower poverty in married-couple families.

In 1960, only 28 percent of black females ages 15 to 44 were never married and illegitimacy among blacks was 22 percent. Today, the never-married rate is 56 percent and illegitimacy stands at 70 percent. If today's black family structure were what it was in 1960, the overall black poverty rate would be in or near single digits. The weakening of the black family structure, and its devastating consequences, have nothing to do with the history of slavery or racial discrimination.

Dr. Charles Murray, an American Enterprise Institute scholar, argues in an article titled "Rediscovering the Underclass" in the Institute's On the Issues series (October 2005) that self-destructive behavior has become the hallmark of the underclass. He says that unemployment in the underclass is not caused by the lack of jobs but by the inability to get up every morning and go to work. In 1954, the percentage of black males, age 20 to 24, not looking for work was nine percent. In 1999, it rose to 30 percent, and that was at a time when employers were beating the bushes for employees. Murray adds that "the statistical reality is that people who get into the American job market and stay there seldom remain poor unless they do something self-destructive."

I share Murray's sentiment expressed at the beginning of his article where he says, "Watching the courage of ordinary low-income people as they deal with the aftermath of Katrina and Rita, it is hard to decide which politicians are more contemptible — Democrats who are rediscovering poverty and blaming it on George W. Bush, or Republicans who are rediscovering poverty and claiming that the government can fix it." Since President Johnson's War on Poverty, controlling for inflation, the nation has spent $9 trillion on about 80 anti-poverty programs. To put that figure in perspective, last year's U.S. GDP was $11 trillion; $9 trillion exceeds the GDP of any nation except the U.S. Hurricanes Katrina and Rita uncovered the result of the War on Poverty — dependency and self-destructive behavior.

Guess what the president and politicians from both parties are asking the American people to do? If you said, "Enact programs that will sustain and enhance dependency," go to the head of the class.

Deficits at home, welfare abroad

by U.S. Congressman Ron Paul

In the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, and with an ongoing war in Iraq that costs more than $1 billion per week, taxpayers might think Congress has better things to do with $21 billion than send it overseas. Yet that's exactly what Congress did last Friday, approving a useless and counterproductive foreign aid spending bill. Never mind that the total federal debt recently topped $8 trillion, or that a major US city was virtually destroyed only a few months ago. Arrogant is the only word to describe a Congress that cares so little about its own taxpaying citizens while pretending to know what is best for the world.

- Consider just a few of the ways your money will be used under the new bill:
- * $638 million for the unelected Musharraf government in Pakistan;
  - * $735 million to continue dangerous drug meddling in South America;
  - * $150 million for development in Gaza, in addition to the billions we already give the Palestinians every year;
  - * $110 million for the Middle East Partnership Initiative, ostensibly for economic development, although the recipient nations include oil-rich Kuwait and Saudi Arabia. Why in the world are American taxpayers giving welfare to OPEC governments?
  - * Over $500 million for various republics in the former Soviet Union. Even as those nations spawn millionaires and even billionaires, Americans are expected to provide welfare for their poor.
  - * $95 million in new money for the United Nations Democracy Fund, which meddles with foreign governments but never seems to change them;
  - * $34 million for the pro-abortion United Nations Population Fund, which lectures poor people about having too many children;
  - * $440 million for international population planning;
  - * $80 million for the dubious Global Environment Facility, run by the World Bank to fund anti-capitalist environmental projects around the world.

Constitutionally, of course, none of this spending is authorized. But there also is a strong moral case to be made against taking money from Americans and giving it to foreign governments. Foreign aid doesn't help poor people; it helps foreign elites and US corporations who obtain the contracts doled out by those foreign elites. Everyone in Washington knows this, but the same lofty rhetoric is used over and over to sell foreign aid programs. Corporate welfare is bad enough, but corporate welfare in the guise of helping poor foreigners is indecent.

In many cases, foreign aid money simply distorts foreign economies and props up bad governments. In countries that pursue harmful economic policies, an infusion of US cash only exacerbates and prolongs problems. No amount of money can help nations that reject property rights, free markets, and the rule of law.

Since American foreign aid programs began in earnest decades ago, tens of billions of US tax dollars have been given to nations around the globe. The utter failure of this money to change things for the better in those nations is no longer in question; even the most earnest advocates deep down must admit the obvious. Most of the recipient nations remain endlessly mired in poverty, political and legal corruption, and cultural malaise.

A rational person would argue that failed aid programs should be eliminated. In Washington, however, failed programs get more money thrown at them. The American public deserves to know why there is room in the budget for foreign aid, when taxpayers face record deficits and debt at home.

'Lopes overwhelm Eagles in 46-20 win

by Wes Burnett
 Make no mistake about it, the Post Antelopes are for real, and they proved it last Friday in a dramatic 46-20 win at Roosevelt to claim a berth in post-season play. Like bolts of lightning, the 'Lopes ripped off a 40-14 lead at halftime, then cruised through the second half for the victory.

"Our players had a lot of pressure on them," head coach Tim James said following the game, "they knew they had to win that game to get into the playoffs." The 'Lopes bounced back from a disappointing 17-7 loss to Slaton the previous week.

With the win, the 'Lopes advance to the first round of action on the way to the state championship game. Representing District 5AA as the Division I entry ("big school"), the 'Lopes take on the Tulia Hornets Thursday at 7 p.m. at Lubbock's Lowrey Field.

At Roosevelt, the 'Lope defense and offense shined throughout the contest. Offensively, the 'Lopes collected 456 yards total offense, averaging 15.2 yards per play and 12.8 yards per rush. The defense limited the Eagles to 305 yards offense.

Wilson Cash led the team with 262 rushing yards on 16 carries.

First Half Action
 Roosevelt deferred the coin toss, kicking off to the 'Lopes. Garay took the ball at the 10 and returned it to the 32. On first down, quarterback Sterling Smith threw a short pass in the right flat to D.J. Baiza, who then tossed the ball back to Cash who was trailing the play. The "hitch and pitch" play surprised the Eagles, as Cash turned on the after-burners and raced 68 yards down the right sideline to the end zone.

With 11:38 left in the first quarter, the 'Lopes put their first points on the board. The kick attempt failed as Cash at the holder spot, couldn't get a grip on the snap for Zack Sanchez to kick.

The Eagles came roaring back, taking a bit of the shock out of the 'Lope advantage. Roosevelt's six play drive and extra point put the Eagles in front 7-6 with 9:07 left in the first quarter.

Again Garay got the kickoff near the 10 yard line and was finally hauled down at the 31. On first down, the 'Lopes drew an illegal motion penalty, setting the ball back to their 26. Then Sanchez took a handoff from Smith over left guard, broke through would be tacklers and raced the distance to the end zone. A two point conversion attempt failed, and the 'Lopes took a 12-7 lead.

The defense made some adjustments, stopping the Eagles following the kickoff, forcing a fourth down punt. Key defensive plays came from Jonathan McGregor, Eric Reyna and Edgar Garay. Cash took the punt at the 28 and returned it to the Post 47.

Cash and Sanchez took turns hammering the Eagle defense to the Roosevelt 23. Then on third down following another five yard penalty, Smith looped a pass to Baiza, who rambled to the Roosevelt 18 yard line for "another Post Antelope first down."

Sanchez went over right guard to the seven and ten Cash got the pitchout around right end behind crisp blocking and into the end zone. With Sanchez' extra point kick, the 'Lopes took a comfortable 19-7 edge with 4:19 left in the first quarter.

Roosevelt ran into a defensive storm following the kickoff, with McGregor trapping the quarterback for a two yard loss, then on second down Reyna hit the running back, the ball popped to the ground and Reyna pounced on it for the 'Lopes at the Eagle 26 yard line.

The first of three pass interceptions then gave the ball back to the Eagles at the Roosevelt six yard line with 3:19 left on the first quarter clock. The Eagle quarterback lost the snap and fell on the ball at the one yard line. On second down the ball fell to the ground again, this time Reyna fell on it in the end zone. With 2:58 remaining in the first quarter, the 'Lopes padded the score to 26-7 after Sanchez kicked the extra point.

The first quarter seemed to last longer than normal... but Post fans weren't complaining. The next Roosevelt offensive effort was snuffed out, forcing a fourth down punt from the Eagle 16 yard line. Reyna, McGregor and Blake Nichols were credited with key defensive plays. Cash took the punt at the Post 40 yard line.

Giving Smith a rest, Cash barked the signals as quarterback, rolled to his right, turned the corner and roared once again to the end zone. Personal foul penalties after the play were called on both teams, but the score stood at 32-7, the extra point attempt failed.

The end of the first quarter left the Eagles with third down at their 33 yard line. A third down pass was broken up by Kenneth Garay, forcing a punt attempt. Reyna burst into the backfield, blocked the punt then scooped it up for the 'Lopes. His knee had gone to the ground, so the ball was spotted at the Eagle 23 yard line.

Another pass interception cut short the 'Lope offensive drive. With 11:34 the Eagles got another chance, keeping the ball for seven plays before being trapped on fourth down when Edgar Garay pulled the Eagle quarterback to the ground at the 34 yard line.

The 'Lope offense stumbled a bit on their next possession, forcing Cash to punt on fourth down. Roosevelt took the ball at their own 41 yard line with 6:45 left in the first half.

Jace Pollard, Reyna, Nichols and Cash were credited with key defensive plays, forcing another fourth down punt. On first down, following a holding penalty to the Post 13 yard line, a pitchout to Sanchez dropped to the ground at the five yard line, and Roosevelt got another opportunity to score.

Three plays later the Eagle quarterback completed a pass in the end zone, and the extra point kick narrowed the Post lead to 32-14.

The miscues didn't set the 'Lopes back, as they took the ensuing kickoff and scored at the end of an eight play drive. Cash led the drive, sharing running chores with Sanchez and a key pass from Smith to Cash setting up a first down at the Roosevelt 43 yard line. Cash roared behind outstanding blocking to the six yard line, then took a pitchout to the end zone with 46 seconds left in the first half.

Smith took the point after snap, then handed the ball to Roosevelt Brown coming from the left side to right... Brown paused long enough to throw a pass to Cash in the right end zone corner for the two point conversion.

Any doubt about the outcome of the game was sealed with that touchdown, as the 'Lopes took a 40-14 lead and shut down a last ditch effort by the Eagles to score.

Second Half Action
 Not near as much scoring came in the second half, with both teams managing touchdown drives in the final quarter. Strong defensive plays kept the Eagles bottled up until the final four minutes of the game.

The Eagles mounted a six play drive, featuring pass plays on all but one of the snaps. With 4:24 left on the clock, the Eagles put another six on their total. Josh Lee broke up the two point conversion attempt and the 'Lopes held a 40-20 lead.

Not to be outdone, the 'Lope offense took the squib kick at the Roosevelt 45 when an Eagle player kicked the football before it had advanced the necessary 10 yards. Smith came in at quarterback, pitched the ball to Cash, who shot around left end, finally being hauled down at the Eagle 14.

Cash took over quarterback duties, pitching the ball to Brown who squeezed to the five. A motion penalty set the team back to the 10. John Valdez got the call over left guard to the five. Then Brown burst over right guard to the end zone.

With 1:39 left in the game, the 'Lopes put the finishing touch on scoring in the 46-20 game.

The Eagles mounted a challenge late in the game, which was snuffed out by Baiza knocking down a pass in the end zone, then Kenneth Garay and Colter Creech stopping the receiver at the one yard line on a fourth down attempt by the Eagles.

With 12 seconds on the clock, Smith came in, ran behind left guard and watched the clock run down to zero.

Offensively, key Antelope blocking came from McGregor, Garay, Zach Witcher, Israel Beggs, Pollard, Nichols, Baiza and Sanchez. Those same players were also credited with important defensive action, along with Creech and Steven Hair.

"It was a very obvious team effort," coach James emphasizes.

'Lopes take on Tulia at Bi-District

by Wes Burnett

"No matter who we face in the play-offs, you can be sure that every team is good, or they wouldn't still be playing," Post Antelope football coach Tim James says about Thursday's Bi-District Championship in Lubbock.

The Tulia Hornets are runner-up in their district, and are considered an "even match up" with Post, both in talent, skills and size.

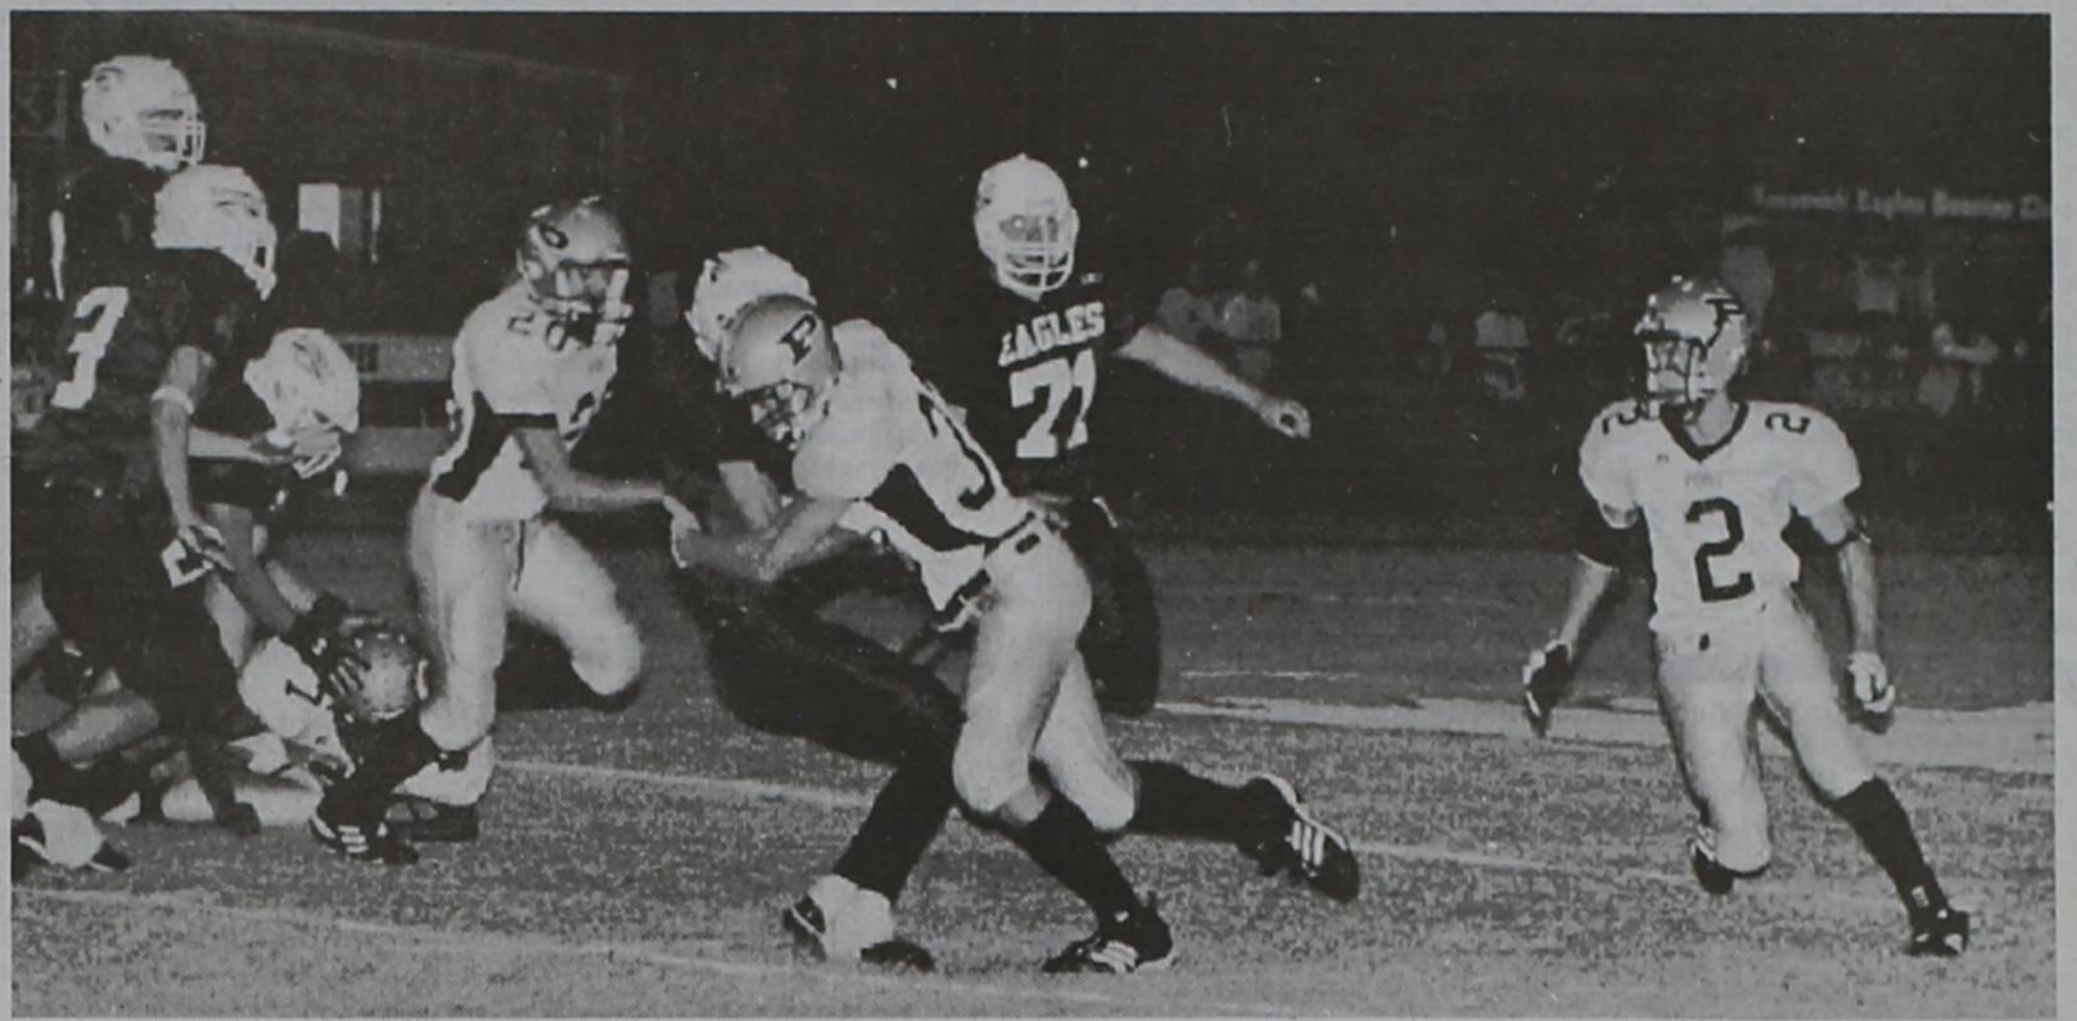

"They've got a good quarterback who executes an offense similar to Roosevelt," coach James adds, "and he's got a good running back to work with." Coach James says that the Antelopes are going to have to execute well and not give up the "big play."

Concentration and focus are the key. "We can't afford turnovers and costly penalties," James adds.

The Antelopes are at full strength for the first time since early in this year's season. "We are very excited about continuing the playoff tradition in Post," coach James says, "and we've got our sights set on winning one game at a time."

The game at Lowrey Field starts at 7 p.m. Those unable to attend will have the opportunity to follow all the action live on Post City Radio (Cebridge Connections Channel 12 and on the Internet at www.postcityradio.com). The Bi-District champs will advance to play the winner of Saturday afternoon's game between Sanford-Fritch and Henrietta at Wichita Falls.

Steve Mason continues to serve as play-by-play announcer. A DVD recording of the game will be aired Saturday and Sunday on Post City Television (Cebridge Connections Channel 12). See this week's program guide in The Post Dispatch.

Antelope safety Colter Creech(33) brings down a Roosevelt ball carrier during last Friday's football action at Roosevelt. Also in the play is Zack Sanchez (20) and DJ Baiza (2).

Quarter back Wilson Cash (4) keeps the ball as running back DJ Rivera (25) and guard Israel Beggs (71) makes a gap in the Roosevelt defensive line as the Lopes dominate the game last Friday in Roosevelt.

JV close out season with 22-8 win over Roosevelt

The Post JV squad defeated Roosevelt 22-8 in a game played last week. In the first quarter, Post went on a six-play, 48-yard drive capped by a 5-yard touchdown run by Luis Ceja. The 2-point conversion was good when Jarrett Blevins threw a pass to Ceja, making it an 8-0 game.

After Post kicked off, Roosevelt fumbled on their first play and the 'Lopes capitalized on the mistake immediately. On their first play, Post scored on a one-yard run by Chad Miller. The 2-point conversion failed, but Post led 14-0.

In the second half, Roosevelt went on a 10-play, 78-yard touchdown drive to make the score 14-8.

In the final quarter, Post put together an 11-play, 68-yard drive capped by a 20-yard touchdown run by Ceja. The 2-point conversion by Pat Reiter was good for the 22-8 final score.

Rushing for Post were Ceja, 13 carries for 124 yards and two touchdowns (2-point conversion pass caught); Reiter, 12 carries for 81 yards and two points; and Miller, 12 carries for 31 yards and a touchdown. In passing, Blevins was 1 for 4, 2-point conversion.

The defense allowed Roosevelt 98 yards in total offense on 28 plays. Leading tacklers were Reiter with two solos and six assists; Heath Fellhauer, three solos and four assists; Call Windham, three solos and two assists; and Andre Boyd, three solos and a pair of assists.

On the year, the Post offense had 403 plays for 2,452 yards. The defense gave up 1,443 yards on 324 plays.

The team finished the season with a 7-2-1 record (4-2-1 in district play).

Lowrey Field rules explained

Post Antelope fans who travel to Lubbock for tonight's 7 p.m. bi-district game between the hometown team and Tulia will be asked to follow a handful of rules once they arrive at Lowrey Field. Post will be the home team, with seating on the west side of the stadium.

The following rules pertaining to fans have been provided and should be observed:

- No air horns or mechanical noisemakers are permitted in the stands.
- Confetti, balloons, paper signs and banners or similar items are not permitted in the stadium. The taping of signs or other items to any stadium structure is prohibited.
- No students or adults shall be permitted on the playing field prior to, during or after the game except those in uniform who are participants in the game or the halftime performance.

Legal Notices

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST RELEASE OF FUNDS

City of Post
105 East Main
Post, TX 79356
November 10, 2005
TO: All Interested Agencies, Groups and Persons:

Seventeen (17) days after this publication, the City of Post, Garza County, Texas intends to request the Office of Rural Community Affairs (ORCA) to release Federal funds under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383) for Project NO.725681.

EXEMPT ACTIVITIES Administration Planning and Engineering ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT ACTIVITIES

Sewer System Improvements in Post, Texas
FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT

It has been determined that such a request of release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the City of Post has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190). The reason for such a decision not to prepare such a Statement is based upon the fact that all environmental concerns could either be minimized or mitigated.

An Environmental Review Record for the proposed project has been made by the City that documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such a statement is not required. The Environmental Review Record is on file at City Hall, City of Post, 105 East Main, Post, TX 79356, and is available for public examination and copying upon request between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday

PUBLIC COMMENTS ON FINDINGS
All interested agencies, groups and persons, disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the City to the following address: SPAG, 1323 58th St., Lubbock, TX 79414. Such written comments must be received at the address specified within sixteen (16) days after this publication. All such comments so received will be considered and the City will not request the release of funds or take administrative action on the project prior to the date specified in the proceeding sentence.

RELEASE OF FUNDS

The City of Post will undertake the activities described above with Community Development Block Grant funds under Title 1 from its Program Year 2005 under grant number 725681 from the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The City is certifying to ORCA that Mr. W.G. Pool Jr., in his official capacity as Mayor, consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision-making and action; and the these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, the City of Post may use the Block Grant funds and it will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. ORCA will accept an objection to its approval only on one or more of the bases and the procedures described in 24 CFR Part 58.75. Objections are to be addressed to the Office of Rural Community Affairs, P.O. Box 12877 Austin, Texas 78711.

Objections to the release of funds on bases other than those stated above will not be considered by the ORCA. No objections received later than thirty-three (33) days after this publication will be considered by ORCA.

W.G. Pool Jr., Mayor
105 East Main
Post, TX 79356

City proclaims Post Antelope Week Nov. 6-12

Keep that school spirit fired up — this week has been declared Post Antelope Week by city officials.

On Nov. 7, the mayor and city council proclaimed Nov. 6-12 as the week to celebrate the hometown football heroes.

"Whereas the Post Antelope Football Team have exemplified the very finest in team spirit and team effort this season, and... the Antelopes have consistently played well from the beginning to the end of every game, having achieved playoff status of District 5-2A, and... the team members and coaching staff have conducted themselves in a sportsmanlike manner in their dealings with others," reads the proclamation, which was signed by the mayor and all five council members.

The 'Lopes ended their regular season with a 7-3 record (5-2 in district play) and will travel to Lubbock tonight to take on Tulia for the bi-district title. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Lowrey Field.

Stock Show 'Fun'draiser

Come join the fun at the 5th. Annual GCJLA 'Fun'draiser at 7:00 p.m., Saturday, November 12, 2005, at the Post Community Center. Everyone is invited to come eat a brisket dinner with all the trimmings and dessert, bid on auction items, and enjoy the entertainment. Danielle Henzler of Slaton, and other local youth will be showcasing their talents.

Raffle tickets are available from any Garza County Jr. Livestock Association member with payouts of $5,000, $1,000, $500, $250 and $250.

Approximately 100 tickets will be sold for $100 each. Tickets are also available at the County Extension office at 215 West Main in Post.

Tahoka sets craft show

Area crafters have scheduled a Christmas Craft show for Saturday, November 19th from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Life Enrichment Center in Tahoka. The event will feature the talents of crafters from Tahoka, Lubbock, Brownfield, and other surrounding towns.

There will be over 15 booths filled with all kinds of goodies, according to Amy Preston, Craft Show Coordinator. We'll have great gift items that are very reasonably priced, added Preston.

Admission to the Craft Show is free and visitors can expect to find a little bit of everything, including hand made soap, crosses, candles, Christmas ornaments and much, much more!

The Life Enrichment Center is located at 1717 Main Street in Tahoka. For additional information, please contact Amy Preston at 806-561-5365 or 806-759-1690.
