

BY BILL ELLIS

A NUMBER OF FARMERS from the local area set out on Monday to make the long trip to Washington, D.C. with their tractors, in an effort to lobby for favorable farm legislation.

The only thing the farmers have as a guarantee is a long, hard trip, and they probably can expect some adversities from the weather.

But farmers are used to battling the weather, as evidenced by the area's cotton farmers, who are still trying to finish harvesting their crop.

We wish the members of the American Agricultural Movement well in their efforts to battle for higher prices so that the family farm will not become a thing of the past. Farming is threatened by the corporate movement, along with foreign ownership, if the small, family farms continue to fall by the wayside.

The farmers will not have an easy time of it, since Washington is a tough nut to crack. But this group is a stubborn lot, and when they are perched in their tractors, they may command a little more attention on the streets of Washington than they do in Bovina, Texas.

NATIVES OF BOVINA are aware of the fact that the community has a lot of built-in talent. Regular churchgoers are perhaps more aware of this fact, since they have the opportunity of hearing a number of various of the local citizens perform special music.

Members of the Baptist Church have known for some time about the talent of Dorothy and Grady Sorley, who are called on very often to blend their talented voices in song for the local congregation.

But the Sorleys have recently done something they had been talking about doing for a long time—they recorded an album of religious music, and now, everyone in the community can have a record album or tape featuring the Sorleys.

We have heard the album, and feel that it is an excellent production, and we congratulate Dorothy and Grady on their achievement.

We know that friends of the Bovina couple will want to attend the concert and autograph party being planned for this Sunday evening at First Baptist Church.

JIM LUCAS, attorney for Warren Electric Cooperative, is credited with finding the following article, which originated in Australia. With Americans being threatened on every hand by the Environment Protection Agency, we thought it appropriate:

"Imperial Chemical Industries has announced the discovery of a new fire-fighting agent known as WATER (Wonderful and Total Extinguishing Resource). It is particularly suitable for dealing with fires in buildings, timber yards and warehouses, and is fairly cheap to produce. It is intended that quantities of about 1½ million gallons should be stored in open ponds or reservoirs near urban areas and installations of high fire risk.

"WATER is already encountering opposition from safety and environmental groups. One group member has pointed out that if anyone immersed his head in a bucket of WATER, it would prove fatal in as little as three minutes. Each of the proposed reservoirs will contain enough WATER to fill half a million three gallon buckets. Each bucketful could be used a hundred or more times, so there is enough WATER in one reservoir to kill the entire population of the United Kingdom.

"Did we know, asked a fire-brigade spokesman, what would happen to the new medium when it was exposed to intense heat? It has been reported that water is a constituent of beer. Does this mean

AAM Leaders Start Washington D.C. Trip

By LISA HOWELL
"The Tractors Are Coming" is a slogan on one of the bumper stickers representing the American Agriculture Movement, and may also be quoted by several modern day Paul Revere type people from Texas to Washington, D.C. during the next few weeks.

Last year the American Farmers went to Washington as lobbyists to make known their intentions. This year with all that behind them, they are going to try to get results from last year's efforts.

According to Ralph Roming, a Bovina farmer, the farmers' goal is not to get 100 per cent parity but to get the administration to enforce the present farm bill to its maximum which calls for 90 per cent of parity through loans. In this way the farmers can get a better price for their commodities and try to save the rural communities and farms. If they reach this goal, then in 1980 there will be a chance to write new farm legislation asking for 100 per cent parity.

The farmers feel they are not going to Washington through selfish motives. Some feel the government is trying to drive them out of business. A business that is capable of growing enough food and other commodities to sufficiently supply our county as well as sell goods to other countries at a fair price and in this way help balance the nation's budget.

Saturday morning, January 13, farmers from Friona, Bovina, Muleshoe and Portales met at Robertson Electric in Friona to form a small portion of the tractorcade that will steadily grow bigger and bigger as they meet with farmers from different states along the way to Washington. There will be eight major starting points and eight major routes followed by farmers from different areas.

The local farmers were on their way to Bushland which was the collecting point for all tractors coming from the surrounding towns. From there the group left together Monday, January 15.

They plan to drive seven hours each day with the exception of Sundays which will be reserved for worship and rest. Service trucks will be accompanying them along the way in case there is a problem with one of the tractors.

A "wagonmaster" will travel ahead of the tractorcade in order to decide on a location suitable to park the tractors each night. Camper rigs are also being taken along in order to better accommodate the farmers.

Rallies will be held along the way and with the help of these rallies the farmers hope to educate the urban people of the threat of higher food prices yet to come. Different states will be organizing the rallies some of which will be held in Oklahoma,

Arkansas, Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia.

On behalf of all the farmers in this area, Ron Awtrey expressed the fact that everything will be done strictly according to the law. No militant action is planned to be taken.

Some of the community people feel that by taking tractors with pitchforks and shovels displayed in plain view, the farmers are asking for trouble. Awtrey explained that the tractors were a means of attracting the attention of the American people and fellow farmers.

The tools are simply tools of the trade, each tractor is equipped with them and also with commodities that will be sold at market upon the arrival in Washington.

When asked whether or not he anticipated any trouble, Roming stated "The justice department...is going to act as liaison people between the farmers and the different states as we go into them, as highway patrolmen and port of entry...and they said that they would try to head off any trouble, take care of this situation and get us to Washington."

The farmers plan to stay in Washington, by taking shifts, for as long as it takes to get results. They would like to encourage all of the support they can get from the people. They feel that the people need to realize that this is their fight as well as the farmers'. Trucks will be needed in Washington to help return the tractors. People are being encouraged to meet the farmers and ride into Washington with them.

There are plans for a public auction to be held in Parmer County when the farmers return, to help raise money that the farmers were unable to raise prior to the departure. This money will be used to help reimburse the farmers for their trip to Washington.

Beet Growers Get Payment

Holly Sugar Corporation today announced it was making an additional sugarbeet payment totaling $969,004.59. This payment goes to sugarbeet growers in eight Texas counties and one county in New Mexico where sugarbeets were grown in 1978.

Cal Jones, Agricultural Manager at Holly's Hereford Plant, said contracting the 1979 crop is now in progress and encouraged interested persons to contact the Holly Sugar Agricultural office at 364-2593 so an Agriculturalist may contact them.

CONCERT SET

Sorleys Produce Religious Album

Dorothy and Grady Sorley of Bovina did something recently that they had been thinking about doing for a long time. They made a record album. Title of the record is "Sweet 'n Easy."

The Sorleys will be featured at a concert at First Baptist Church Sunday evening, beginning at 7:00 p.m. The concert will be followed by a reception and autograph party at the church's fellowship hall.

"For several years Dorothy and I talked about making an album, but always talked ourselves out of it for various reasons. We have enjoyed singing together for many years, but only in the last few years have we dedicated ourselves to doing whatever the Lord would have us do," Grady says in a statement contained on the album cover of the new production.

"We feel the Lord has led us to put together our album at this particular time, for reasons He only knows. We just praise Him for letting us be a part of it," Sorley continues.

The Sorleys are members of First Baptist Church, and are active in the youth ministry of the church. Grady serves as music director of the church at the present time.

The album of religious music contains ten songs. They are "God's Family," "There's Something That's Different About Him," "God's Wonderful People," "Oh What A Day," "Jesus, He Means All the World to Me," "I Just Can't Figure It Out," "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," "Jesus Be the Lord of All," "Jesus Came Into My Life," and "Something Beautiful," a medley.

The album was recorded at Don Caldwell Studios at Lubbock, and is marketed under the "Pure Love" label.

Their album is also on sale at the Browsabout and Bovina Supermarket as a long-playing record or in eight-track tape form.

Grady and Dorothy are featured in four full-color photographs on the album cover, including a large picture on the front and three smaller pictures on the back cover.

Their son, Ken, made the photographs. The Sorleys are parents of three children, Phil, Ken and Debbie (Mrs. Mike Beauchamp).

The Sorleys also have three grandchildren, Cole Sorley, Angela and Lori Beauchamp.

Beet Growers Banquet Set

Bill Cleavinger, President of the Texas-New Mexico Sugarbeet Growers Association, encouraged "sugarbeet growers to attend the annual business meeting to be held at 2 p.m. Friday, January 19 at the Community Center in Hereford and attend the banquet Saturday night at 7 p.m. at the Bull Barn in Hereford.

Foreign Students Visit Study Club

Five students from foreign countries and their advisor were the guests of the Bovina Woman's Study Club on Thursday, January 11. Professor John H. Muthersbough, International Student Advisor, spoke of the International Student Programs at West Texas State University.

Muthersbough stated that there are 130 foreign students attending West Texas State University at the present. These 130 students represent 30 countries. A total of 1900 applications were received this school year from foreign students to enter W.T.S.U. and of these, seventy were accepted. About half that number came to W.T.S.U. for their college work.

FOR GSPA

Anthony Elected Regional Director

A Friona man was one of the five directors elected to represent the Texas Plains Region of Grain Sorghum Producers Association. A.W. "Dub" Anthony is a veteran GSPA Director. He has served the organization for 20 years, the last ten as its president. He also promotes grain sorghum as a director of U.S. Feed Grains Council.

The Texas Plains Region, (Region III), is composed of the High Plains and Rolling Plains areas. There are approximately two thousand GSPA members in this region which produces 15 per cent of the nation's grain sorghum.

In a December meeting, county and district representatives elected A.W. Anthony, Jr., Friona; Robert Green, Hartley; K.B. Parish, Springlake; J.B. Cooper, Jr., Roscoe; and Melvin Barton, of Dimmitt as their Regional Directors. The Regional Directors from eight regions in a five-state area make up the National GSPA Board.

Three recommendations were approved at the Region III meeting and will be presented to the National Board. The recommendations are that GSPA:

(1) Work for "parity of income" and use cost of production with a fair return for management and capital as the basis for achieving it through government programs, sales prices, etc.;

(2) Promote an extended loan, (reserve program), in which the farmer's minimum release price would not be below the full cost of production, plus accrued charges and a 15 per cent profit; and

(3) Support the general concept of the new Federal Crop Insurance Program as presented to Congress last fall by USDA. The National Board should, however, carefully watch the development of the law to see that producers' interests are maintained.

STATISTICS SHOW IT'S NOT TOO LATE; FORMER SMOKERS REAP CIRCULATORY BENEFITS

By Jay R. McDanel, Ph.D. Tarleton State University

Are you overworking your heart?

Did you know that the nicotine contained in cigarettes causes an increase in heart rate and elevation of the blood pressure? Therefore, cigarette smoking increases the work of the heart and the demands of the heart muscle for oxygen. Also, the carbon monoxide in cigarette smoke combines with blood hemoglobin and reduces its capacity to carry oxygen.

added risk of coronary disease over nonsmokers. Thus, the danger does not appear to persist if the smoking is stopped. A direct cause-and-effect relationship between cigarette smoking and the presence of coronary artery disease has not been definitely established, but cigarette smoking (by increasing the heart's oxygen demands) increases the frequency of chest pain, heart attack, and sudden death in patients who already have coronary heart disease.

The consumption of twenty or more cigarettes daily is associated with a higher risk of having a heart attack (about three times that in nonsmokers). The risk of a heart attack is much less in pipe nicotine, but recent evidence indicates that the risk in these individuals is still greater than in nonsmokers. One must conclude that abstinence from cigarettes can improve longevity in many individuals, although it is gratifying that the available data indicate that former cigarette smokers experience little if any

Our Guide

A man who was about to take a perilous journey through the mountains, was given not a little advice. As is often the case in such situations, the advice was contradictory. One warned him against taking any of the by paths that led away from the main road, while others declared that many of these paths could be pursued with profit, since they meant shortening the distance toward his destination. So it was with a number of things that left him in doubt. "It seems," he said to himself, "I shall have to guess at what I do not know." Just then one appeared and said "I am the authorized guide. I am ready to go with you all the way, if you will promise to follow me faithfully." Needless to say he promised to follow the authorized guide and was delivered safely through the treacherous mountains to the other side.

Many today find it difficult to find their way through the treacherous mountains of life. They have opportunity to follow many paths that only lead to confusion and frustration. There is an authorized guide, however, that extends His arms and says "Follow me." That guide is Christ and his teachings. We are guaranteed to be delivered safely to the other side if we follow Him faithfully.

RE-ELECTED....State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake was elected to a record third term as speaker of the Texas House of Representatives this week in Austin.
Clayton won election without any organized opposition. He has served as representative for this district since 1962.

B. Clayton Re-Elected As Speaker

Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake became the first man in history to be elected to a third successive term as speaker of the Texas House of Representatives.

Clayton's election was a highlight of the opening day's activities of the 66th Legislature, and was more or less a foregone conclusion, since two other representatives who had at one time mentioned the speaker's position pulled in their horns and declined to run.

The final vote on the speaker was 137 votes for Clayton and eight against.

In his first address to the 66th Legislature, Clayton said "I know we will face some of the hardest decisions ever. I know it will take a miracle to accomplish all we need in 140 days, particularly in light of tax relief on one hand and additional services on the other.

"But you know, I believe in miracles. We can overcome the doubt, overcome the pessimism, overcome the anxiety, and produce the miracle of accomplishment the people of this great state so rightly deserve," Clayton said.

Only one other person in the history of Texas state government has served three terms as speaker of the House of Representatives, but they were not consecutive. M.D.K.
Taylor of Bonham was speaker of the 1859, 1863 and 1873 sessions of the legislature.

Clayton was first elected to the state legislature from the 74th district in 1962, to replace the retiring Jesse Osborn of Muleshoe.
He has been re-elected every term since, and was first elected as Speaker of the House in 1975.

Clayton is a life-long resident of this area, and farms in the Springlake area.

Public Health Unit Begins Work Locally

A team of U.S. Public Health Service personnel will be in Bovina from now through March 1, 1979 to conduct the Health and Nutrition Examination Survey, designed to gather valuable statistical information on the health of the American people.

The survey, a program of the National Center for Health Statistics, is part of a continuing national program first authorized by Congress in 1956.

Over a three year period 28,000 individuals, ages six months through 74 years, will be asked to participate in the study. Bovina is one of the 65 areas scientifically selected to produce a representative sample of the total population of the United States.

Approximately 537 residents of Parmer County who fall into a statistically representative sample of the area, will be offered a free physical examination. Of these 537 persons, 437 have already consented to the examination, the other 100 persons will be visited again by the Public Health Service personnel so that they may have an opportunity to gain a thorough knowledge about the examination and its purpose.

Examinations will be given in the survey's mobile Health Examination Center, which will be located on the parking lot of the Bell and Kettle Restaurant, Route 60 (adjacent to Sands Motel), Bovina, Texas. Transportation to and from the Center will be provided to participants at no cost.

In addition to a general examination and laboratory work-up, participants will be tested for heart and lung conditions, hearing,
nutrition, diabetes, hypertension, arthritis, and kidney disease. The tests will be administered by the U.S. Public Health Service staff consisting of physicians, nurses, technicians, and nutritionists.

Since the first survey in this program was undertaken 15 years ago, more than 40,000 Americans of all ages have participated voluntarily. The information obtained through their cooperation has provided national statistics on the extent of conditions such as heart disease, diabetes, and arthritis in the United States and on many facets of human growth and development. The data is used in medical research and education as well as in planning national health programs.

A pleasure . . . and a challenge!

That's the way Ben McMullin, PRINCIPAL STRUCTURAL ENGINEER for Southwestern Public Service, sees his job . . . his role in the boy scouts . . . and life!

"You know, I've got some 30 years in scouting. I've done it all . . . workin' with the boys and the adult leaders. Lookin' back, I think the highlight in scouting for me was taking 11 boys to the National Jamboree in Idaho. Now that was an experience! It's been a pleasure . . . and a challenge. Same as my job at SPS. I'm the Principal Structural Engineer in charge of the power plant group . . . that's the steel and concrete that holds up the place, you might say. It's very exacting work. We combine past experiences with research on new and better materials and products . . . trying to make the next power plant we build more efficient than the last one. It's a real challenge but that's what it's all about . . . keeping the costs down for everybody. I've been at it 25 years now and I'm glad to be part of that team. We're doing the job we set out to do.

SPS has encouraged me in my job and in all my civic activities. You bet I'm proud to work for SPS . . . and for my community. For me, it's hard to imagine one without the other."

There's no such thing as a "sudden" heart attack.

It only seems that way. To the victims. And to their families. But in reality, most heart attacks are the result of a slowly developing disease process called "atherosclerosis" that narrows and roughens arteries with fatty deposits. When severely affected, a blood clot can form in the artery and block it. If this happens in one of the arteries that nourish the heart muscle, the result is a heart attack.

There are simple things you can do to effectively improve your chances of avoiding heart trouble.

Don't Smoke. A man who smokes more than a pack a day has nearly twice as much risk of heart attack as a non-smoker.

Have Your Blood Pressure Checked. High blood pressure is often the underlying cause of both strokes and heart attacks. If you haven't had your pressure checked in the past year, get it tested now.

Lose Weight. Every pound of fat you carry around is an added strain on your heart. If you're overweight, go to your doctor. He can help you safely reduce.

Eat Properly. Whether you're overweight or not, if your cholesterol level is abnormally high, your chances of having heart trouble increases dramatically. You can avoid this danger by maintaining a balanced diet that is low in saturated fats and cholesterol.

Get Fit, and Stay Fit. If you don't exercise regularly, you're weakening your heart. And you're needlessly endangering yourself. Your doctor can devise an exercise program that's right for your age and health situation.

Have Regular Medical Checkups. Only your doctor can determine your general health and heart condition. Regardless of how healthy you think you are, you should still see your doctor at least once a year for a thorough examination.

These are the steps you can take to reduce the risk of heart attack. Now it's up to you. So take a good long look at yourself, and the way you live. And remember. There's no such thing as a "sudden" heart attack.

Just sudden tragedies.
