WHITTLIN'

BY DOLPH MOTEN

May we be among first to tell you. Christmas is just 53 days away.

We'll let someone else figure out how many of those are shopping days. And don't worry. A lot of people will be figuring it out for you.

Bovina has a qualified instructor for a public civil defense course. But no plans to conduct such a course.

Roy Crawford is the qualified instructor. He earned the title by attending a school for potential instructors at Muleshoe a few weeks ago.

Plans could be organized and such a course could be conducted here. There's a question, though, as to whether there is sufficient interest to justify it.

It's our understanding that the school, through cooperation of state, would be sponsor for the course. Crawford is willing to teach it. Of course, he doesn't want to teach it if nobody wants to take it.

Recommended course covers 12-hours. Most likely arrangement would be six two-hour sessions though it could be any combination to make 12 hours if we understand the set up.

Crawford says he has impression more people would be interested if course was about one-sixth that long. In other words, if it lasted only a couple of hours at some nice, convenient time the idea of taking it would be more popular. Human nature being what it is, that's probably true.

But he goes on to say that the course can't possibly be taught in such limited time. Everything which course includes can't be covered.

Up to now we haven't learned enough about the course, or civil defense in general, to know what value it would have for the community.

We do know that civil defense has been practiced in some communities for several years, probably since World War II. In many cases, it has been difficult to keep interest up because of lack of need for civil defense, up to now.

Without effort to learn whether we're right, we'd guess that knowledge gained from such a course would be like an insurance policy in that you'd hope you never had to use it. But if you did need it, it would be mighty handy.

Fire Chief James Taylor tells us, and we've heard it before, that Bovina Volunteer Fire Department needs a new fire truck. Present one, even with accessory equipment, is obsolete besides being inadequate in many cases.

Taylor wants to know how public feels about getting a new truck. Probably everyone feels that a new truck would be wonderful. "Yeah, that's a good idea," would be the average impression among the citizenry, we think.

But as in most cases, there's a catch to it. It has to be paid for. That's the part he's seeking public opinion about--how would be best way to pay for the new truck.

Frankly, it seems to us that if a new truck is needed, the city is obligated to provide it. It's as simple as that. We feel sure that, if need is there, city's budget should be able to handle fire truck payments within a reasonable length of time.

If there is no need, then the problem is slight. We know that it's discouraging for men to give their spare time as volunteers--and some of their time which isn't spare--and then not be provided with suitable equipment to do a job.

When they're serving as volunteers in first place, it's easy to get a "What's the use" attitude when they fail to get needed and reasonable cooperation from others.

Anyway, Chief Taylor didn't ask for our opinion. He asked for public opinion. You're a part of the public. Tell him what you think.

Catholic Youth Week Proclaimed

CATHOLIC YOUTH WEEK PROCLAIMED--Mayor Emmett Tabor has proclaimed October 29-November 5 as National Catholic Youth Week in Bovina. After signing the proclamation, Tabor is shown with Anclia Cano and James Denney.

Youth-Unity-Truth is theme for National Catholic Youth week which will be observed here October 29-November 5, Rev. Declan Gilligan, S. A., pastor of St. Ann's Church, announces.

The annual observance, which has as its purpose to spotlight efforts of Catholic young people and their adult leaders who are engaged in a positive program of spiritual and social activities, is being planned throughout Bovina area.

Opening Day of the observance, which is Sunday, has been designated as National Communion Sunday for youth. Vast majority of youth served by Catholic agencies in this area will attend special Masses and receive Holy Communion on that day, Father Gilligan says.

Bovina Mayor Emmett Tabor has proclaimed October 29-November 5 as National Catholic Youth Week here.

CROP Campaign To Be Conducted Again This Year

As has been the custom in Bovina in years past, some Halloween "trick or treaters" will be working for CROP, Christian Rural Overseas Program, instead of conducting mischief.

Announcement that donations for CROP would be accepted again this year by some youth in the community was made by Mrs. Dean Hastings, a youth director in Bovina Methodist Church.

The program will be conducted Monday night, October 30, and all houses in town will be canvassed.

By donating to CROP, citizens are helping send food to orphans, disaster victims and refugees around the world, Mrs. Hastings says.

Number of young people to participate in the program has not been determined.

B-Team Game Set Thursday

Bovina High's B football team will play a similar group from Boys Ranch here Thursday night, Coach Hallie Gee announces.

Kickoff time will be 7. This will be second game of season for B squad, Gee points out. The team lost its other encounter earlier in the season, 12-0, to Farwell.

The game will serve as program for Quarterback Club meeting, usually conducted on Thursday nights. There will be no Quarterback Club meeting as such.

Bovina's team will be made up of sophomores and freshmen.

NEW ORGANIZATION--

Cotton Producers Meet Next Week

Opportunities for greater markets and acreage, and a plan by which cotton growers can achieve them at a profit, will be discussed in school cafeteria in Bovina Thursday, November 2.

Announcement of the meeting was made by Wendol Christian, chairman of organization committee, Cotton Producers Institute. Cotton growers are urged to attend the meeting which begins at 8, Christian says.

Meeting was originally scheduled for Tuesday night, but was shoved back two days because of Tuesday night conflict with Halloween.

The meeting will consist of a 40-minute slide presentation and speakers who will describe potential market for cotton, program required to achieve the potential, and growers' role in these efforts. Specific opportunities in research and promotion that need immediate attention if cotton farmers are to expand their markets, and their production and profits, will be discussed by speakers.

Cotton Producers Institute is a new organization which is producer controlled and financed. One of its primary purposes will be to increase research and promotion activities.

The Institute is non-political and is based on idea of self-help for cotton farmers.

The Thursday night meeting was planned at organizational committee session Tuesday morning in Bovina Restaurant.

Such a meeting will be conducted Thursday night, Nov. 2, at Lazbuddie, in school cafeteria at 8:30 p.m.

SECOND IMPRESSIVE 2-B WIN--

Mustangs Still Happy; District Favorites Now

Unveiling a sparkling offensive display, Bovina Mustangs racked up their second District 2-B opponent in succession here Friday night as they kicked Happy's Cowboys in an impressive 39-6 win.

This was the first time in recent history for Ponies to win over the black and gold team.

The victory put Mustangs in driver's seat for district championship as they now have lopsided wins over Hart and Happy. Lazbuddie and Vega still stand in way of a Mustang title, but Bovina is a heavy favorite now for the banner.

Mustangs had little trouble with respected Happy. They scored first two times they had the ball in first quarter, added third TD in second period, picked up another singleton in third stanza and reeled off two more in final chapter.

Halfbacks Buddy Turner and Rocky Hance were big scoring guns for Mustangs. Turner crossed double stripe three times on runs of one, nine, and 14 yards. Hance scored opening TD on a 10-yard pass play from Quarterback Don Cumpton and made the final one on a spectacular pass interception and return of 44 yards. End Mac Glasscock got into scoring act on a seven-yard completion from Cumpton who completed nine of 12 passes thrown for .750 percentage.

Roy Crawford On Farm-City Week Committee

Roy Crawford, Bovina High vocational agriculture teacher, has been named Bovina's member of 1961 National Farm-City Week Committee in Texas, Jack McCracken, secretary-manager of Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, announces.

Date of the special week is November 17-23. Serving with Crawford will be Tom Bonds, A. L. Harzog, and Durward Bell. The group will help coordinate special activities during the week.

Dolph Briscoe, Jr. of Uvalde is state chairman of National Farm-City Week. Purpose of the week is to increase appreciation and understanding of interdependence of urban and rural residents.

Plans for observance of the week here will be announced later.

WEAPON CARRIER--Fireman Jim Russell holds this new 16-gauge Remington shotgun for display as Fire Chief James Taylor looks on. The gun will be given away by Fire Department Saturday, December 23. Members are now accepting $1 donations which will serve as chances on the gun. Proceeds from the promotion will aid other area fire departments in purchasing a new fire truck for Boys Ranch. The shot gun will be on display in various businesses in Bovina until the drive is completed. "We're selling a lot of tickets," Taylor says.

Bank Deposits Down Slightly From Year Ago

Deposits in Bovina's bank, First National, are down from this time a year ago.

Deposits at time of banks third quarter call, September 27, totaled $1,158,350.56. This compares with $1,266,374.71 for this time a year ago, a decrease of approximately $108,000.

Loans also decreased slightly during past 12 months--from $708,378.97 to $672,173.40.

Bank president Warren Embree says last fall's fall caused deposit decrease which has yet to be completely overcome.

Deposits will be expected to rise sharply as fall crops are harvested in next 60 days.

Bank's official statement of condition appears in this issue of the Blade.

WEATHER by WILLIE

Chilly nights, hot days. Little chance for a few showers over week end. If it does, there will not be a chunk mover.

Halloween To Be Quiet

In order to subdue Halloween pranks as well as vandalism, Deputy Sheriff Henry Minter will have three men assisting him in patrolling the area Tuesday night, which is Halloween.

"We haven't had any trouble in past few years," Minter says, "and we don't expect any this Halloween." However, the extra men on duty will help insure that there is no damage done to property.

NOW HAS .787 PERCENTAGE--

Hawkins' Lead Slips In Football Contest

Erth Hawkins, who is now in his sixth consecutive week of leading Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest, saw his lead dwindle in last week's upset-filled slate.

In previous weeks, he has enjoyed a comfortable lead, but it's slipped now to one game. Hawkins has named 63 of 80 winners for a percentage of .787. He had six right last week and Ed Hutto named eight winners to move into undisputed second place with 62.

James Lawlis is all alone in third place with 61. Weekly $5 winner in most recent contest was Dick Horn, student at Wayland Baptist College at Plainview. He named nine winners, as did three others, but was closer to tie-breaker score than they were.

Others with nine were Lynn Looney and Jimmy D. Moss of Oklahoma Lane, who divided $3 third place money, and Bill Moore, who was awarded $1 for third.

Horn was 24 points off on score of Bovina - Happy game. Miss Looney and Moss were 25 points off and Moore missed it 26 points.

Others in battling for grand prize, an expense-paid trip for two to Cotton Bowl in Dallas, January 1, are Mrs. Kieth Garner, J. W. Harris and Glenn Hromas, with 60 each; and Bob-Cumpton, Ray Carter, John-Horn, Jack McCracken, H. N. Turner, John Wilson, and Mary Jane Wilson, with 59 each.

In addition to the four entrants who had nine correct last week, 18 named eight correct, 37 had seven right, 23 selected six winners, 14 picked five, five had four right and one named two. There were a total of 102 entries.

Sponsors of the contest which has five more weeks to run, including this one, include Bovina Gin Co., Dairy Freeze, Cicero Smith Home Center, Charles Oil Co., Macon Elevator, Bonds Oil Co., Sherley Grain Co., Bovina Auto Parts, Three-Way Chemical Co. and Bovina Wheat Growers, Inc.

This week's contest appears on an inside page.

GAME THERE FRIDAY--

Mustangs Favored Over Lazbuddie

With impressive, easy wins over two of four District 2-B opponents, Bovina's Mustangs are solidly entrenched as favorites for district flag.

Only Lazbuddie and Vega stand in way of Bovina capturing the title and Mustangs, on paper at least, have a superior team to either of them.

Hart fell to Bovina, 41-6, two weeks ago and Happy went down last week, 39-6. Vega won over Happy on penetrations in a 14-14 tie and walloped Lazbuddie, 39-6.

Considering those games, Mustangs are a strong favorite over Lazbuddie's Longhorns in a game which will be played there Friday night beginning at 8.

Happy will be November 3. A Bovina win in both the upcoming games will give title to Mustangs with no questions asked. If Vega beats Bovina and then downs Hart the following week, flag will go Vega, hands down.

Happy, who was pre-season favorite, is out of the race with two defeats.

Lazbuddie's record is now 2-4. Bovina's stands at 5-3. The Longhorns own victories over New Home and Wilson. Their losses have been to New Deal, Farwell, Cooper, and Vega.

Mustangs will be seeking revenge from a 30-0 pasting they took from Lazbuddie a year ago as the Longhorns were on their way to district championship. They lost to Groom in bi-district play.

Graduation hurt the Lazbuddie team, however. They have only one starter back from last year's team. He is Jimmy Dale Seaton, 180-pound full-back. He is one of seven returning lettermen.

Scouting reports on Longhorns show that in addition to Seaton's running, they feature a good passing attack.

While admitting that his team is a top heavy favorite to win the game, Mustang Coach Hallie Gee says, coach-like, "We might get beat."

Mustangs have been avoiding contact work as much as possible this week to avoid chance of injury. Win, lose, or draw against Lazbuddie, there'll be head knocking aplenty next week in preparation for Vega game, Gee says.

Mustang footballers haven't brought home a district title since 1954--seven years ago. Their fans are hoping that this year brings an end to the "seven years of bad luck."

Library?

Student Council of Bovina High is preparing to launch a project which we think is highly commendable.
 Project is to improve school's library, by making a drive for additional books, and possibly making it open for public's use. Since Bovina has no library for public, we think it's a good idea to open school's to public . . . if there is a minimum of conflict caused from standpoint of school work.
 If the public, through donations of books and funds, helps in building a good library to be used by school, it can have opportunity of using the facility.
 Student Council sponsor is High School Principal James McLeroy.
 Since beginning of this school year, student council, and the school administration, has placed more emphasis on library use. Library has been re-arranged to make books more available for students. Some $600 has been used to purchase new books this year, McLeroy says.
 We think it would be a good idea to have the library open to public during summer months when school is closed.
 Both expense and effort would be slight to keep the library open one or two afternoons a week and we think such effort and expense, though small, would be of great benefit from a community standpoint.
 Possibly some civic group would undertake keeping the library open a few hours a week. Still a better idea would be to underwrite expense of having it opened at limited, regular times. This would, in all probability, keep more qualified personnel in charge of the library and be better, for all concerned, in long run.
 We congratulate Student Council on its plans to make Bovina a better place in which to live and hope its plans for the library can be developed into reality.

Blade Sawdust by SUE MOTEN

What kind of mother are you? I don't mean good, bad or indifferent.
 This is a short dissertation on the way a mother shows her anger at her children. There are the toe tappers, these are the moms, who when terribly put out with their children begin tapping a toe first slowly then as tension mounts the rhythm mounts to a tango speed. Another way of showing perplexity is the screamer or shouter, this is the most frequent and according to experts, good, in that it releases the tension. However, there are some of us who are constantly shouting at our children and after a certain length of time the children are immune to the loud noise and simply ignore it.
 There is also the hard looker which I am certainly familiar with since this was the method employed by my mother. Whenever a reprimand is needed one of those silencing looks that would make a Buddha God look pleasant is employed and nine times out of ten the thought back of this look is enough to make said "child" "straighten up" as an old adage refers to behavior.
 Then, of course, there are those favored few who believe in the latest books and try the method of reasoning and soft talking to their children. Have always been of the opinion that the child hasn't read the book and can't understand it by looking at the pictures so this method is usually a wasted one. Some moms are successful with the soft talk method but they are few and far between since most children who have this method are genuine monsters. Various other devices are used along with each of these in order to vent one's emotions. For instance many toe tappers also grit their teeth and, of course, the screamers usually curl up with a loud commanche yell and the hard lookers are prone to bite their nails while the soft talkers end up on the psychiatrist's couch.
 Am sure several of you fall into one of these categories and, of course, it is great since we need a way to vent frustrations that our little angels cause.

 Approximately 53 were present.

Santa Fe hauls 2.3 million bales of western cotton to markets

King Cotton has moved west.

In 1945, only 36% of the nation's cotton was grown in the West. Today over 62% of it comes from states served by Santa Fe.

This year Santa Fe will haul over 2,300,000 bales of cotton to markets in 34,000 box cars—enough box cars to make up a train 284 miles long.

Hauling cotton and other important crops, materials and products from where they are grown or made to where they are needed is another example of how Santa Fe is meeting the transportation needs of a growing America.

THE HIGH PLAINS FARM AND HOME

ON FEBRUARY RATE INCREASE

Plains Group Releases Irrigation Gas Report

By TRAVIS HARRELL (Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of two articles in connection with a report on the irrigation gas rate increases by Pioneer Natural Gas Company which was prepared by Dr. E. A. Steinberger, gas rate and valuation consultant, and submitted to the Plains Irrigation & Gas Users Assn. at their request.)

In February, 1961, Pioneer Natural Gas increased the rate charged for gas used by farmers for the purposes of operating irrigation wells.

Several Farmer County and area farmers immediately began to question the fairness of and necessity for the rate increase. The inquisitiveness spread quickly and on March 16, 1961, a group of farmers banded together and formed the Farmer County Irrigation and Gas Users Assn.

The professed purpose of the organization is to provide fuel for irrigation at the lowest possible price for the members of the association and to take all action necessary to promote the general welfare of irrigation farmers on the high plains of Texas--by means of legislation or any other action deemed necessary by the board of directors of the association. Interest in the organization grew until the Farmer County organization became one of 10 counties which form the Plains Irrigation and Gas Users Assn. Membership in the organization is based on the number of wells which a farmer is operating. Dues are set at $2 per well per year.

The Farmer association lists dues paid on 725 wells. Ninety per cent of the dues paid to the county branches are forwarded to the plains headquarters and the remainder is retained by the local group. Several other counties are in the process of establishing additional branch organizations.

Bruce Parr was elected president of the Farmer County group at the March meeting. Gilbert Kaltwasser was named vice president Carl Schlenker, secretary. Directors of the Farmer branch are: Vernon Syncox, Marion Carson, Hap Fairchild and Fred Burch. Each county organization is entitled to send one representative to the plains association as a member of the board of directors.

Following several conferences and considerable correspondence with C. I. Wall, president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, representatives of the association retained Dr. E. A. Steinberger, Dallas, for the purpose of making a study of the "reasonableness" of the increase of 11.129 per cent in the irrigation gas rates. Steinberger is reputed to be one of the foremost authorities in the field of gas rate and valuation consultants. Steinberger and association members presented their proposal to representatives of the gas company and received access to the books of Pioneer Natural Gas for the purpose of making the study.

Steinberger has often been employed by the Railroad Commission as an independent consultant in gas rate controversies and has had broad experience in this field. He was chief valuator engineer for Lone Star Gas Company for 18 years before opening his own offices as a private consultant. He has been engaged in some phase of the gas business for over 35 years.

He was employed by the board of directors in August to make the study and report factual information to the board so that the board might determine for itself the fairness of the recent increase made by Pioneer Natural Gas to the irrigation farmers of the Panhandle and South Plains.

The contents of the report were released for public consumption Oct. 16.

The report, according to David Burgess, president of the board of directors of the association, reflects that Pioneer would receive a return of 12.292 per cent on their investment.

The figures are set on actual cost basis, minus accrued depreciation, plus allotted working capital. These figures indicate an 18.852 per cent increase in the rate of return over that enjoyed under the 1960 rate.

Based upon figures submitted by Pioneer Natural Gas Company to the board of directors and used by Steinberger, if depreciated fair value were used, the 1960 rate would represent a return of 8.39 per cent to Pioneer of depreciated fair value. Under the February, 1961, rate, it would return to Pioneer 9.98 per cent as contrasted to a 6.50 per cent rate of return which is the maximum rate of return normally allowed to companies regulated by the Railroad Commission.

If sale of irrigation gas were regulated by the Railroad Commission, a decrease of approximately 25 per cent would be necessary instead of the 11.129 per cent increase brought about by the new rate, according to the association's report.

The term "fair value" refers to a somewhat complicated system of accounting. One method it is arrived at, is by taking 50 per cent of the original cost, less depreciation, plus a reasonable amount of working capital and adding 50 per cent of the replacement cost.

Another finding reported by Steinberger is that the rate is directly adjusted to the consumption bracket. That is, with the rise from a low rate bracket of, say 301 m.c.f. of gas to 501 m.c.f., the gas rate also rises from a 14 per cent increase to a 16.6666 increase over the old rate of 1960. An increase of 17.391 is shown for the bracket above 1,000 m.c.f.

This means that a higher rate will be paid for gas when a large amount is consumed than will be paid when a smaller amount is used.

What does this mean to the farmer in Farmer County? What does it mean to Pioneer Natural Gas? These questions will be dealt with next week.

The HAPPY HOMEMAKER

BY JUNE FLOYD

Homemakers who haven't seen a copy of a cookbook recently published by Lubbock Christian College Associates have really missed a treat. Regardless of the number of cookbooks you have in your collection, you will want to add this one when you have an opportunity to see it.

Treasured Recipes is the title of the book and it contains menus along with recipes for appetizers, beverages, dips, candies, relishes, cakes, pies, cookies, candy, salads, meat dishes and vegetable dishes.

For the next few weeks I plan to borrow some of the recipes for our readers. Since pumpkins are in season at this time of year, the first one I have selected is for

1 cup pumpkin
1 package marshmallows
dash salt
1 cup heavy cream
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

Melt pumpkin and marshmallows over hot water. Cool; add whipped cream, nutmeg and salt. Pour into cook baked pie shell. Chill 1 hour. This recipe was submitted by Mrs. Carroll Spelce of Lubbock.

The next pie recipe was recommended by Mrs. O. C. Collins of Midland and is very different. It is

PAPER BAG APPLE PIE
3-4 large baking apples
1 cup sugar
10 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup butter
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
Chunk pared apples. Combine 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour and nutmeg. Sprinkle over apples, and toss to coat. Spoon into unbaked pie shell, and sprinkle with lemon juice. Combine remaining sugar and flour, cut in butter, and sprinkle over apples to cover.

Slide pie into a heavy brown paper bag large enough to cover pie loosely. Fold over end twice, and fasten with paper clips. Place on large cookie sheet. Bake 1 hour at 425 degrees. Split bag open and remove pie.

Mrs. Sue Lott of Springlake submitted the following recipe
JEFF DAVIS PIE

2 cups sugar
1/4 stick butter
3 eggs, well beaten
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon each cinnamon, cloves, allspice
1 teaspoon each cocoa, flour, lemon extract

Add melted butter and milk to eggs. Add dry ingredients. Pour into 2 unbaked crusts and bake at 450 degrees ten minutes then at 350 degrees 30 minutes.

Homemakers, who enjoy sewing items of wearing apparel for members of their families or for gifts for friends and relatives, should try at least one hat. Patterns for simple hats are available and materials suitable can be bought at any department store.

Several of the home demonstration clubs in this area have had hat making demonstrations and members have been well pleased with the results of their hat making efforts. Making a simple hat doesn't require any special equipment or skill and may prove to be a rewarding experience.

ALKALI IKE, OF THE BAR Q OUTFIT, AND THE QUICKEST MAN ON THE DRAW IN ALL TEXAS, IS ABOUT TO START AFTER BILLY THE KID, NOTORIOUS KILLER, WHO HAS THREATENED TO SHOOT HIM ON SIGHT.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

A famous man once purchased an old abandoned farmhouse that was situated on the slope of a mountain in a sparsely settled area. The man and his wife wanted seclusion from the world, and this place offered it — no "nosey" neighbors to pry, no noisy traffic, no neighborhood children to trample the flower garden! They truly wanted to be alone.

But after the man and his wife had repaired the house and had become settled, they both admitted reluctantly that things were too quiet. They were bored.

"Let's take a walk down into the valley and see what's down there," said the man. So he and his wife started exploring their neighborhood.

When they got down into the valley, they came, quite suddenly, upon a tiny house situated on a slight rise on the side of a ravine.

"Hello," they called. No answer. "Anybody home? Yo-hoo!" they cried and pounded on the door.

They were met by a little old lady, hobbling with a cane. "Glory be!" the old lady said, "and welcome to me little home. Be yours the window with the light across the valley?"

The man and his wife admitted that it was their light the old woman had seen. "Your light sure has meant much to me," the old woman said. "It's been so lonely out here."

Then she asked them: "Are you going to stay on your side of the valley and keep your light burnin' brightly?"

The man and his wife then realized that the old lady was depending on their light. Just to know that someone else was near — even though on the far side of the valley — gave the old woman joy.

"We'll keep our light burnin' every night, just for you, Dear, and you're welcome to visit us any time," the man's wife said. Then they went home and opened the curtains wider so their light would shine brighter across the valley.

Are you letting your light shine?

There are many who desperately need and want the light that shines from the window of your Christian experience.

Sometimes people tell us how they have been blessed through our own individual testimony or influence. Sometimes they do not. We may be assured, however, that somewhere someone "on the hillside across the valley" is watching our light.

If we radiate our light so people can see what God has done for us, we can serve as a guiding light for those who need help.

If all the mosquitos in the world were laid end to end, no doubt they would be bored to death with one another.

Farm Facts Milk production per cow has increased from 5,314 pounds in 1950 to 7,004 pounds in 1960.

This is an increase of 31.8%. An indication of the potential for future gains is given by the performance of cows in herds where the level of management is above average. In 1959, output of cows in the Dairy Herd Improvement Association averaged 10,300 lbs. of milk per cow. The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that revolutionary advances in producing and marketing milk have resulted in some rapid changes on dairy farms. The size of dairy herds has been increasing and the number of farms producing milk has been declining. The remarkable increase in production per cow and relative stability of the demand for milk mean that the supply can be produced by fewer cows on fewer dairy farms. The world's milk production in 1958-59 totaled 239.5 million metric tons, according to the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Milk production in the United States accounted for an estimated 56.8 million metric tons about 23.7% of the total world output. WHITTLIN'S -- game here Friday night. We think his efforts will make game story which appears in this issue more interesting to more people. While the above paragraph is his paycheck, we greatly appreciated his efforts. Enough that we may try to con him into helping us again some time. Go ahead and laugh, Texas Techans; it's your turn.

Today's farmer has the tools and know-how to do his job more efficiently. This makes it possible to supply himself and 23 other persons, a production ratio achieved by farmers in no other country. The U. S. farmer's capacity to produce thus makes it unnecessary to maintain a large labor force on the land. This makes more workers available for industry.
