Bovina, Texas

VOL XI, NO. 30

WHITTLIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

Seems from here that Bovina has tremendous attendance at athletic contests considering the population of the community. We don't mean that it's overly unusual, but it seems to be pretty great when you consider the small percentage of voters who have favored improving athletic facilities during the two most recent school bond elections.

Crowds at basketball games here have apparently held constant over the years. This remained true even when we didn't have winning teams. A reasonably good crowd is almost always on hand no matter what the local teams' chances are of winning. Then, of course, Williford Gym just can't seat all the spectators when we do have a going-some-place team.

The loyalty of the sports fans is to be commended. The voting record could be improved. And will be, we feel sure.

Two or three years ago, we remember, when we were in Texline's football district, the Mustangs went to that Northern settlement for a grid battle. We didn't count noses, but it seemed that the Bovina fans who had traveled that extra long distance outnumbered those from the host team's town. That's just a "for instance." Numerous others could be cited which would reflect the loyalty and support offered by fans here to their athletic teams.

Appropriate it would be for some of this loyalty to rub off at the polls during the next school bond election, which is scheduled for Tuesday, February 7, you'll remember.

Mention of voting reminds that the deadline for getting "signed up" to vote in elections during the next 12 months is fast approaching.

Tuesday of next week, which is January 31, is the last day for registering, as a matter of fact. This marks the first year for Texas voters to be completely sans-poll tax. A check with Hugh Moseley at the county tax office early this week revealed that we'll have possibly as many qualified voters this year as we did last.

It's too early to tell now what the final count of qualified voters will be. Indication is, though, that the figure will be comparable with last year when the poll tax was required of voters during a part of the sign up time.

If this is true, advocates of the poll tax will be saying, "We told you so." One of their arguments was that people who weren't interested enough in voting to pay the $1.75 charge wouldn't have enough interest to register, either. That may prove to be true, too, in this section of the state.

Some people will forget to make application for a voter registration certificate in spite of the publicity pointing out the need for doing so and when the deadline is, etc. Little sympathy will be forthcoming from this department for those people, needless to say.

And it could be that some of those who do not make themselves eligible to vote this year, at no expense, will be middle-aged citizens who have paid their poll tax each and every year since they were 21.

That sounds far-fetched, we'll admit, but it will happen in some individual cases.

Because we sometimes complain about the cold weather of winter, it might be a good idea for us to point out how nice, comparatively, the temperatures were over the weekend. Wearing of a jacket outside wasn't even necessary during parts of the days. You can't beat a deal like that during the latter part of January, not even in those states which brag about their warm winters.

The greatest single source of embarrassment for us during our newspapering career has been photography.

On numerous occasions we have been frustrated and upset while making pictures.

Since we've known him, Gene Ezell has advised us to use our camera as a cigarette case. "You might as well carry cigarettes in that camera; you can't make pictures with it," he reasons.

REGISTERING TO VOTE -- Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Englant are among Bovina residents who have filled out applications at City Hall here for voting in 1967 elections, which has picked up considerably the past few weeks. Deadline is Tuesday.

By JP Charles, Barraza --

Driver Instructions Offered For Adults

Instructions in traffic laws and driver's safety began Tuesday night in the office of Justice of the Peace Wilbur Charles, who took office here Jan. 1.

Assisting Charles, in what is something of an experiment here, will be Mike Barraza. After being in office for only a few weeks, the judge said that the only persons coming to his office with traffic tickets have been those operating a vehicle without a driver's license.

Charles said last week, "I don't want to sit around and fine someone. I had rather do something to help those who need licenses."

Purpose of the sessions is to inform adult drivers of the traffic laws, safety regulations, and of meaning of highway signs so that they may secure a driver's license.

At this time, plans are for the sessions to be held each Tuesday night. If the need arises, a larger meeting place will be secured.

Justice of the Peace Charles said that some of the 12 or 14 persons who have been given tickets by Highway Patrolman Robert Shedd of Farwell do not understand the traffic laws. He hopes to educate many drivers on the contents of the driver's handbook with help of Mike Barraza, who can speak in Spanish to those who do not understand English.

All employers of people who do not have driver's licenses are asked to encourage their employees to attend the session, JP Charles says.

"Of course, we may not know for several weeks whether or not there will be enough interest for such a driver's school, but we are hoping for a good turnout," Charles said.

County Total Nears 1700 --

Voter Registration Concludes Tuesday

Voter registration has "picked up" in Parmer County with a total of 1680 citizens from 21 to 60 filing an application for a "free" vote in Texas this year as of early this week. Deadline for registering to vote during 1967 is Tuesday, Jan. 31.

The total enumerated by County Tax Assessor-Collector Hugh Moseley compares to the total of 2224 citizens who either paid a poll tax or registered in 1966.

On Monday 1639 voter registration applications had been turned in to the tax assessor. Another 41 were at Bovina City Hall, according to City Secretary Mary Ruth Martin. Others had been obtained here to be mailed in.

The total registering this year almost doubles the last report, when only 856 had signed up to vote on Jan. 5.

Citizens over 60 years of age are not required to file a voter registration application, however, but all between the ages of 21 and 60 must do so in order to be a voter in any kind of election held in the state of Texas, counties, cities, or school districts this year.

Even though state and county elections will not be held this year, Moseley points out that many important city and school district elections will be held, in addition to various bond issues that may be presented.

It is possible, if registration picks up during the final days, that more qualified voters may be listed this year than in the election year of 1966.

Application blanks are available for voter registration at the tax assessor-collector office in the court house in Farwell; at City Hall in Bovina; and at City Hall and Ethridge-Spring Agency in Friona.

During 1966 --

Post Office Receipts Up

Postal receipts, including box rentals, were up 9.13 per cent in 1966 over 1965, according to Postmaster Gene Ezell. Most of this increase was during the past six months.

Receipts during 1966 totaled $20,709.46 as compared to $18,817.22 in 1965.

About 90 per cent of the increase occurred during the last half of the year, with the heaviest quarter being from July to October, Ezell said.

Increase for the entire year amounted to $1,892.24 and of this total the last six months accounted for $1,774.31.

One factor, although not the major one, is that more boxes are rented in the new post office than in the one occupied all of 1965.

It is noteworthy, Ezell said, that the report last year at the end of 1965 showed that receipts were down from 1964, before the bracero program ended.

The increase this year indicates steady growth in Bovina. Receipts by quarters during the past 12 months included $3,930.80 from January through March; $4,122.38 April through June; $7,150.53 July through September; $5,505.75 October through December.

Telephone Directories Received

New telephone directories were distributed to Bovina customers by way of the post office for General Telephone Company Friday.

The directory for 1967 includes General Telephone users in Bovina, Earth, Friona, Muleshoe and Springlake; West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc., exchanges of Hub, Parmer and Tharp; and Five Area Telephone Cooperative, Inc., exchanges of Lariat, Lazbuddie and Needmore.

In the Bovina section, a total of 370 numbers are listed, as compared to 352 listed in 1966. This is an increase of 18 telephone users in Bovina.

Bovina Dam In Balance --

Group To Confer With Commission

What happens in an Austin meeting Tuesday will "tell the tale" of whether Bovina gets a dam on Running Water Draw or whether the dam goes to the east part of the Parmer County or elsewhere, according to Jim Ware, manager of Bovina

Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Representatives of Bovina and Parmer County will meet with the Texas Highway Commission Tuesday morning in Austin to secure help from the state in raising the Oklahoma Lane FM Road that crosses the draw so that it will not be under water when and if the dam is built here.

County Commissioners have expressed a willingness to take care of moving the pipeline in the area at a cost of about $40,000. However, the court does not feel it can raise the highway, which would cost in the neighborhood of $78,000.

The dam would be constructed on the George Trimble place directly south of Bovina as a project of the Soil Conservation Service, which was begun three years ago as planning several dams for flood control for the Plainview area.

Bovina damsite would cost about $250,000, according to Ware, who will make the trip to Austin along with Bedford Caldwell.

Steel mans Count Two White Casts

The Steelman family almost feels it has been plagued with broken bones.

Amos Steelman was released from Parmer County Community Hospital Thursday. He had been a patient there since breaking his leg while working with irrigation equipment on his farm. Then his grandson, Joe Steelman, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gayle Steelman, received a broken left wrist while playing basketball at the Arnold Hromas home.

The basketball had become stuck in the basket, Joe got upon a box to dislodge the ball and the box tumbled over causing him to fall and break the arm.

He was taken to Friona and then sent to a bone specialist in Amarillo, but is home now and recuperating nicely.

PROPOSED SCHOOL ADDITION -- Reproduced here is the architect's drawing of the proposed six classroom addition to the plant of Bovina Schools. Estimated cost of the structure is $212,000. Voters will vote for or against that amount in school bonds in a February 7 election. At left is a drawing of the hexagon-shaped structure containing the classrooms with a multi-purpose area in the center of the rooms. Included in the plan, at the upper right in the lefthand drawing, is space for an office and clinic, library and kitchen. Present plans call for the first and second grades to be housed in the new structure when it is built. The building, as plans now stand, would be located west of Ninth Street as indicated on the drawing at right, which shows how three additional six-classroom wings could be added if they are needed in the future. The February 7 bond election also has propositions for expanding the seating and improving the football field and for a $26,000 field house.

well, mayor; Leon Grissom, president of Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture; A. L. Hartzog, selection committee man for the dam, appointed by the SCS; county commissioners including Charlie Jefferson of Bovina; and Judge Loyde A. Brewer; and possibly several others.

Bovina is interested in the dam for at least three reasons, as a water supply, as a recharge pit, and as a recreation area.

In addition to the road crossing the draw, the possibility of other farm to market roads will be under discussion.

These will include a short strip from the Pleasant Hill road to the underpass west of Bovina; a road from Farwell to Cliford-Hill Western; a road near Friona feed lots; and a strip from the corner of the Tom Caldwell place to U. S. 60.

The group will leave here Monday and meet with the Texas Highway Commission Tuesday morning.

through the camera's viewfinder we were walking backward to get just the right distance from the object (the house) to be photographed.

About that time we backed into Durward Bell's electric fence around his wheat pasture. Then just as the electrical charge sent us jumping sraight up and sky high, Wendol Christian appeared on the scene driving north toward Bovina. As he went by us, he was laughing and carrying on as if he had just witnessed a highly amusing sight.

Individual embarrassment is probably the worst kind, we figured out after Wendol had gone on up the road.

Reflections From The Blade

TEN YEARS AGO

Jan. 23, 1957
Neil Smith and Mike Barraza received plaques for being named the outstanding football player and best sportsman of the 1956 Mustang squad Tuesday night at the annual Lions Club banquet for Mustang footballers and their dads.

Four ballpark committees were appointed at a Saturday noon meeting in Bovina Restaurant by Scooter Queen, Bovina Jaycee president.

With eight days still left in January, the month of the annual March of Dimes drive, Bovina already has more money toward its goal than in any other time in history -- $556.

Jack Clayton was elected commander of recently-re-organized Bovina American Legion at a regular meeting Monday night in the Legion Hall.

Warren Morton, superintendent of Bovina Schools since September, has been awarded a two year extension on his contract by the school board.

Millie Horton was the winner of the largest prize -- $60 -- in the few months history of Bovina Jaycee -- merchant sponsored Boost Bovina Drawing Saturday afternoon.

Members of the Sunbeams of First Baptist Church met Tuesday with their leader, Mrs. Eddie Ray Hutto, in charge.

The home of Mrs. Earl Derrick was the site Wednesday of the regular monthly meeting of the Dorcas Circle of the Methodist Church.

Bovina's Fillies came out on top of their second straight game Friday night at Adrian as they squeaked by with a 59-57 margin, led by Sharpshooter Janice Richards, who made 42 points.

SIX YEARS AGO
Jan. 25, 1961
Two short courses for adult farmers have been scheduled by vocational agriculture department of Bovina High School.

Billy Richards was graduated from West Texas State College in Canyon Friday evening.

Bovina Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring a stage show here March 17, Fire Chief James Taylor announces.

A meeting of Bovina farmers interested in sugar beet production has been called for Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in school cafeteria.

Poll tax sales in Bovina are still slow, City Secretary Virgil Tritsch says.

Mrs. H. H. Kelso hosted a dinner party Saturday evening in her home honoring members of Bovina graduation class of 1957.

A crowd of some 250 people was on hand for a fun night at Lazbuddie school.

In last week's basketball action, Bovina Mustangs stayed on top in district basketball race in addition to picking up a non-district win over Friona.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskel Sudderth hosted a family dinner Sunday in honor of his brother, Troy Sudderth, from California.

FIRE ANTS ARE BECOMING A PROBLEM -- Estimates are that some 9 million acres in Texas are now infested with fire ants, according to John Thomas, Extension entomologist at Texas A&M University.

Mirex gives good, safe control, he says. The main infested area is in Southeast Texas.

HERBICIDES REPLACED CULTIVATION -- At Texas A&M University's Livestock and Forage Research Center, McGregor, cotton that was not cultivated yielded as high and higher than cotton cultivated twice. The A&M researchers are experimenting to see if cotton or other row crops will produce high yields -- using herbicides instead of cultivation.

BETTER INSECT SURVEY -- The 1966 insect survey program is aiming at a better, more complete and the earlier possible reporting of the insect situation. It includes the latest news about where infestations are spreading. Joe Rothe, state agricultural agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University, says the state has been divided into six areas, with area entomologists as coordinators.

There are about 800 different kinds of wood known to the timber trade.

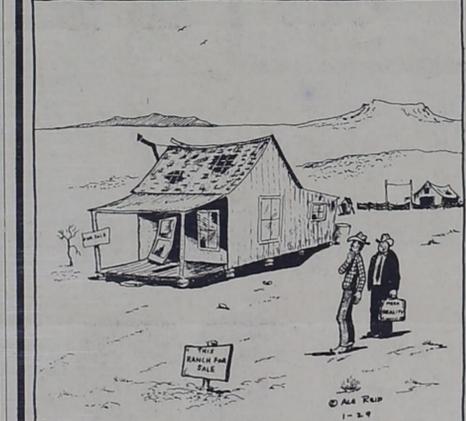

MORE LEAN MEAT ON STEERS -- Frank Orts, Extension meats specialist at Texas A&M University, says the amount of lean meat on steers is increasing. In the last four years, lean meat on steers has increased three per cent, he says. Fat thickness is less, too, he says. Reason for the changes: ranchers are selecting and breeding for leaner, meatier type animals.

COTTON PRODUCTION DOWN THIS YEAR -- Texas cotton production will be 24 per cent below 1965 production, says the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The decrease is due primarily to less planted acreage.

There are about 800 different kinds of wood known to the timber trade.

PROTECTING ROD WINDINGS—To preserve the color of the winding thread and to keep the guides from getting loose, experienced fishermen use a clear Ambroid cement to repair their rod windings.

Know The Truth
By Lavern Stewart

Children imitate their parents because they are like them, they partake of their parents' nature. God's children must partake of his nature, II Peter 1:4, or share in his holiness, Hebrews 12:10, and consequently imitate their Heavenly Father. Notice the commandment, in Ephesians chapter five, to be imitators of God, with some instructions as to how. When one imitates God he must walk in love toward his fellows and be willing to give himself for them as Jesus did for us, Eph. 5:2. Too, there is the absolute necessity for the imitator of God to live a pure and morally upright life: "But fornication, and uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting; but rather giving of thanks." In these days of growing indecency and immorality, Christians must be strong to stand for what is pure and holy; further, they must be alert to warn against ungodliness and to set an example for them who know not God so as to bring them to be imitators of God also. To be a "light" to another, one cannot walk in darkness himself. Our Lord set an example for the disciples and expects them to set one before the world, Matthew 5:13-16. Here is a passage that warns against some of the things the imitator of God must flee from, Galatians 5:19-21, "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, divisions, parties, envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like . . ." If God is our Father, we must be like him.

Flores, Ramirez Exchange Vows In Ceremony

Miss Maria Elena Ramirez and Nolberto Flores exchanged double ring marriage vows at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in St. Ann's Catholic Church in Bovina.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Ramirez of Bovina and Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Flores, Sr. of Bushland and formerly of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Beverly Christian, organist, played traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin featuring a fitted bodice of embroidered lace, which formed scallops around the neckline. The wide lace-covered waistband was touched with sequins. Long sleeves ended in petal points at the wrists and the bride wore fingerless lace mitts flared at the top. The controlled bell skirt was adorned with separate panels at back tipped with matching lace.

The bride's fingertip veil, edged with lace, fell from a tiara of pearls and sequins. She carried a bridal bouquet atop a white Prayer Book. The Prayer Book signified something borrowed and something old. Her wedding attire was something new and the bride chose a blue garter.

Miss Maclovia Ramirez, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length white dress featuring long sleeves and white accessories. Bridesmaids were Miss Rosa Flores of Lazbuddie and Miss Irma Serna of Bovina, who wore identical street length dresses of mint green and white satin. Short veils fell from tiny princess crowns.

Miss Irma Flores was flower girl and wore a gown identical to that of the bride's. Danny Brito lighted the candles.

Benancio Rios of Hub served as best man. Ushers were Roberto Flores of Lazbuddie and Jose Torres, Sr. of Hereford.

Other attendants and groomsmen included Mr. and Mrs. Rosalio Ramirez of Bovina, Mr. and Mrs. Felipe Flores of Lazbuddie, Mrs. Jose Torres, Sr. of Hereford, Miss Elva Flores and Guillermo Perez of Bushland.

The attendants wore suits in combination mint green and white with white accessories. Short veils fell from small crowns.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dance were held at the American Legion Hall. The decor carried out the bride's chosen colors of green and white.

The bride's table was laid with a white cloth designed with wedding bells and an arrangement of white wedding bells and chrysanthemums centered the table. The wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The couple will live at Lazbuddie.

Scoopin' Around

By Pat Jacobs

Missed a good story last week. After following the fire truck to the schools for a reported grass fire and finding the truck had left soon after arriving, we figured there wasn't much to it and didn't bother to find out any particulars.

What we didn't know was that the firemen had been saved their efforts by three Bovina Boy Scouts.

About the time school was out Monday afternoon, a grass fire started in the southwest corner of the school grounds and had spread to the teacherage occupied by Miss Grace Paul. There the fire caught a trellis ablaze and was "licking" at the eaves of the house.

Arriving on the scene about that time were Hugh Rogers, Mike Spears and Tommy Bonds, who were on their way home from school. Without wasting any time, they extinguished the fire with a water hose and stomped out the flames in the grass.

By the time the fire department was called, the boys had everything under control.

Had they not been close by, the schools might have been out a great deal on fire damage -- to say nothing of the loss Miss Paul might have had.

The training received in such an organization as the Boy Scouts helps youngsters think quickly and calmly in an emergency, just as the Bovina boys did last week.

The Scouting program receives too little recognition in any community other than the meetings they hold, merit badges earned and banquets held in their honor.

Nevertheless, many American men who have received national press coverage for achievements have given due credit to their Boy Scout training as a youngster (i.e. John Glenn).

So here's a tip of the old sombrero to Boy Scout leaders, Glendon Sudderth and Glenn Hromas; Girl Scout leaders, Miss Pat Simons and Mrs. Ann Corn; Brownie leader, Mrs. Tom Bonds; and Cub Scout den mothers, Mrs. John Dixon, Mrs. Jack McCracken, Mrs. Bob Fillpot and Mrs. Eddie Gayle Steelman. Thanks people -- we don't always show our appreciation enough.

WAITING FOR THE SUN

Claude Monet, the French impressionist, was engaged in painting a large-scale garden scene. His friend, the artist Gustave Courbet, came by and was surprised to find young Monet idle before the canvas. The artist explained that he was waiting for the sun to come out. Courbet suggested that he might busy himself by filling in the background. But Monet refused to touch the painting until the sun appeared. He felt he could get the truthfulness he sought only by painting all parts of the picture under the same light. There is a parable here for us. As a rule most of us feel under some compulsion to keep going, regardless. We worry and fret if things don't go right, if the sun goes behind a cloud. We get irritated and tense over the unfinished business before us. There are those who tell us to touch up the background -- anything to keep busy. All the while, however, what we really need is to sit and wait for the sun to come out, as it surely will. Then the scene before us comes alive; the colors and shapes fall into the desired pattern and balance. There are times, in other words, when things are all wrong because we have left God out. We get anxious and out of sorts and bitter and resentful and critical -- all because we don't take time to sit and wait for the illumination and warmth that come from above. Repose brings release; release brings restoration; restoration brings renewal. And we can be transformed by the renewing of our minds.

The "donkey game" is a party standby.

No one seems to know how long youngsters have been pinning tails on donkeys at birthdays. If you're new to the game, here's how it goes. A picture of a donkey is mounted on the wall or door at the children's arm level. Paper donkey tails are provided, usually numbered 1 to 24. Each child is blindfolded, is turned around once or twice, then goes unsteadily to the picture to pin the tail. The donkey's tail closest to the right position wins -- but most turn up pinned to the ears, the body, or the clouds in the sky in the picture's background.

Party-givers will find that variety stores now have an extra large boxed donkey game with many advantages. The picture -- a soft-eyed Mediterranean donkey bearing flowery baskets -- could become a permanent wall decoration. It's 20" x 22" in size, can be mounted on corrugated cardboard for the game, then framed to brighten the play room between birthdays.

"Another bright spot -- especially for those giving parties for the first time -- is the booklet of games enclosed in the box," points out game editor Mary Hill of Whitman Publishing Company of Racine, Wis. "The donkey tails can be used for party stunts and fortunes. Each child takes a numbered tail, and the hostess reads 'assignments' and futures from the book."

Other games are suggested, too, for small-party festivity. For instance, five party games can be planned around a pound of peanuts in the shell. Children can play peanut carry, peanut toss, peanut blow, red-hot peanuts and peanuts in the bag -- and eat the peanuts later. "Red-hot peanuts" is a variation of musical chairs and hot potato. Peanuts are passed around a seated circle until the music -- radio, record player or piano -- stops. Peanut-holders are out. The last child to stay in the circle without a peanut wins. Rules for other games such as Who Am I, Stop Thief and Make a Break are here, too. So are tips on magic tricks.

The next party could be the easiest with helps like these.

Jan Jameson, Friona Jr. 4-H Leader, is teaching four first year 4-H'ers in Food projects and having a lot of fun doing it. They met in Jan's home on Saturday and prepared milk drinks, discussed the need for milk in the diet, also the cost of the different kinds of milk.

Other food groups are getting started on food project work. A good leader, interested parents, and a group of eager to learn pre-teen girls really make a good combination. Project work offers an opportunity for youngsters to learn basic, worthwhile information about food and its relation to the body needs. How this is needed! There is no doubt about it, the way you feel, act, and the way you look depends upon what you eat.

These girls learn early in life to appreciate and enjoy all kinds of foods. Leader Mrs. Hurshel Harding of Farwell 4-H Food group is doing a good job with a group of six girls too. Plans for activities that these girls will be doing sounds very good.

SALADS CAN BE GOOD
After those rich holiday meals, a tempting salad can be a pleasant change of pace. More vegetables of the green type are needed in diets and this can be a way to enjoy them more.

If you want to make your salad a light, one-dish meal, just add chopped protein foods such as meat, chicken, fish, eggs, or cheese. You can find many pleasing taste combinations using any of the vegetables or fruits.

Serve your salad in an attractive bowl or in individual salad bowls. Or you may wish to use a salad plate and form

MANAGEMENT SCHOOL

Another good attendance at the Management School on Tuesday, Dr. Shipley from the Bushland Research Experiment Station gave a very good lesson on resources, cost and profits that was very informative.

Joy Arrington, Extension Specialist from A&M, discussed ideas for a home business center as a means for improving management practices in the home.

Next meeting of the Management School on Tuesday, January 31st, will be a panel discussion on Sources of Income and Management.

Come and be with us, there is no charge.

Fertilizer Use Up --

Soil Test Now More Important

Expanded use of fertilizer in the Panhandle has increased the importance of using professional soil testing as a guide to profitable fertilization, according to an Extension Service soil chemist serving the area.

The recently published Panhandle Economic Program (PEP) report shows fertilizer use multiplied more than three times from 1959 to 1965, says Jim Valentine, who operates the Extension Service soil testing lab at Lubbock.

Panhandle farmers used about 73,000 tons of fertilizer in 1959 compared with more than 225,000 tons in 1965, according to the PEP report.

Valentine says all of the fertilizer probably contributed to increased yields, but in many cases a soil test would have indicated that a different rate and analysis of fertilizer would have produced a more profitable yield.

To get an accurate fertilizer recommendation for a field, the Extension Soil Chemist says a farmer must do two things.

First, he says the sample should be taken from 10 to 15 representative locations in a field.

Second, an information form should be carefully completed so the recommendation can be based on crop history, available irrigation water, past fertilization and yield goals.

Valentine said soil test information forms and instructions are available through the county agent's office.

Bob Estes' Mother Dies In Dimmitt

Mrs. Lenna L. Estes, 82-year-old mother of Bob Estes, died in Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt Tuesday of last week after a long illness.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m., Thursday in the First Methodist Church in Dimmitt with Rev. Weldon McCormick, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens under direction of Gilfilland Funeral Home.

Born July 25, 1884 in Rosebud, Mrs. Estes moved to Dimmitt in 1906 and was a pioneer teacher there.

Mrs. Estes' life was as colorful as the history of West Texas. She taught school in a dugout at Frio in the early 1900s at the age of 17. The class was an all-age all-grade group. In Summerfield her school was housed in one room, as it was at Cleo (Ragtown), Center Plains, Higgins and Bethel. At Hereford the school had several rooms, but her classes included many subjects.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Helen Richardson of Dimmitt; one son, Bob Estes of Bovina; three brothers, Glen Greer of Hereford, Joe Greer of Amarillo and Charlie Greer of Waco; and three grandchildren.
