SPRINTER LOSES HER TEETH
Go Astray in Malls and Lady Puts It Up to the Postmaster General.

A Jersey sprinter entrusted her false teeth to the mails, and they went astray. Postmaster General Hitchcock received the following appeal from her:
"Dear Sir—I suppose you have received a note from the Camden postmaster that the upper plates of my teeth have been lost in the mails. They were mailed at Camden on January 1. I should like very much to hear from you. If you are unfortunate enough to have store teeth, you know how inconvenient it is to have to do without them, and I have not had them even a year. I paid $25 for them, and I cannot afford to get any more just now. So will you kindly let me know what you can do for me, and as quickly as possible?"

COFFEE HEART
Very Plain in Some People.

A great many people go on suffering from annoying ailments for a long time before they can get their own consent to give up the indulgence on which their trouble arises. A gentleman in Brooklyn describes his experience, as follows:
"I became satisfied some months ago that I owed the palpitation of the heart to the use of coffee. I had been drinking coffee for 30 years, but I found it very hard to give up the beverage.
"One day I ran across a very sensible and straightforward presentation of the claims of Postum, and was so impressed thereby that I concluded to give it a trial.
"My experience with it was satisfactory till I learned how it ought to be prepared—by thorough boiling for not less than 15 or 20 minutes. After I learned that lesson there was no trouble.
"Postum proved to be a most palatable and satisfactory hot beverage, and I have used it ever since.
"The effect on my health has been most salutary. The heart palpitation which I used to suffer so much, particularly after breakfast, has disappeared and I never have a return of it except when I dine or lunch away from home and drink the old kind of coffee because Postum is not served, and that Postum cheers and invigorates while it produces no harmful stimulation." Name given by Postum, Battle Creek, Mich.
"Ten days' trial proves an eye opener many."

TEXANS PLEASED WITH ASSIGNMENTS

THERE IS MUCH UPON WHICH TO CONGRATULATE STATE.

BRYAN AND HARMON ARE ON

State Gets Seven Chairmanships in the Committee Assignments of Places.

Washington, April 3.—As the full day's work of Democratic caucus is further contemplated by the Democrats, they find continued cause for congratulation on the effective work so harmoniously accomplished. This good feeling was augmented further by the felicitations on the part of William J. Bryan and Judson Harmon, who are here to attend the opening of Congress.

The Texas members of the House are particularly jubilant and full of praise for Representative Randall, the ranking majority member on the Committee on Ways and Means, who obtained such remarkable recognition for Texas on the House committees. Seven chairmanships and the caucus chairmanship, besides seven or eight second and third positions on committees, insuring the participation of some Texas Congressman on practically every conference for the coming Congress.

Every member of the Texas delegation expresses himself as extremely well satisfied with the deliberations of the caucus and with his assignment. To Texas go seven chairmanships: Stephen, Indian affairs; Shepard, public buildings and grounds; Smith, irrigation of arid lands; Hardy, expenditures in navy department; Beall, expenditures in the department of justice; Henry, rules; Slayden, library.

Dr. Knapp, Passes Away.
Washington, D. C.—Seaman Aschel Knapp, one of the foremost experts of the Department of Agriculture, who has made investigations in many parts of the world, died at his home here aged 78 years. Dr. Knapp was from New York, and his work in the Orient and in connection with the American rice production in the South, and in the promotion of various crops, made him famous among agricultural investigators. Rheumatism, which later developed into a complication of diseases, caused Dr. Knapp's death. He was a graduate of Union College and received many degrees from other institutions.

Belated Snow Will Help Wheat.
Chicago, Ill.: Chicago and the Great Lake region, which had bidden winter an effusive farewell several days ago, received a terrific shock Saturday morning when it awoke to find five inches of snow over everything and a mild storm blizzard still piling up the "beautiful." The snow was of the heavy wet variety, which broke down telegraph and telephone poles and wires, clogged railroad tracks and switch yards and sent the poor scurrying to the charitable snow clothes. In the country districts it was reported the snow fell to the depth of seven inches and that all transportation was badly hampered.

Flights of Fearless Frenchman.
Paris: Pierre Vedrine, who recently flew from Poitiers to Issy Les Moulineaux, 208 miles in 2 hours and 12 minutes, made another remarkable flight recently. He left Issy early in the morning for Pau and landed near Moulins covering the distance 212 miles, at the rate of seventy-seven miles an hour. Unfavorable weather compelled him to rise to a height of more than 6,000 feet, where he was out of sight of the earth. He tried to keep his course by the sun and compass, but finding that he was losing his way, descended.

Cameron has sold a $15,000 bond issue for putting in a sewerage system.
San Antonio-Brownsville Project.
San Antonio: At a mass meeting of citizens of San Antonio $100,000 was subscribed to the Brownsville railroad fund. This brought the total up to half a million. Many thousand dollars were subscribed in the names of children. The $500,000 will be capital stock of a construction company which will build the road to Brownsville and not a bonus. Ranchers and others whose land will be traversed by the road will give bonuses aggregating $2,500,000.

FONDANT FOR FINE CANDIES

It is Made of Granulated Sugar and Cream Tartar—Recipe for Chocolate Creams Using It.

Fondant—Two cups granulated sugar, one-half cup cold water, boiled slowly. Add quarter teaspoon of cream tartar, before it has boiled five minutes. When it keeps its shape in cold water wet a dish in cold water, a platter is best, pour it out carefully and stir with a wooden spoon till stiff and about to crumble. Then take in your hands and work and knead it till pliable and smooth. Pack in a deep dish and cover with a wet cloth. Let stand several hours, till next day is better, when it will be velvety and of fine texture. Don't try to make it on a cloudy or stormy day, as a clear, bright atmosphere will give best results. From this fondant all kinds of fine candies can be made.

Chocolate creams—Form the balls from the above fondant and let stand over night to harden. Cook together one cup granulated sugar, one-half cup water and tiny pinch of cream of tartar till, when a little is dropped in cold water, it can be gathered on a spoon, then set on back of stove and add two squares of chocolate that has been melted, a heaping teaspoon each of butter and vanilla, and set dish in another of hot water, and dip the cream. It takes but a few minutes for them to harden. Drop on waxed paper. They are extra nice.

CUTS SIX SLICES AT ONCE

Bread Knife That Will Surely Prove Boon to the Head of a Large Family.

The bread knife shown in the illustration would prove a boon in large families where innumerable slices of bread disappear at every meal. In the public restaurants there are more elaborate contrivances for slicing bread. The simplicity of this bread cutting is its most attractive feature. It is nothing more nor less than six knife blades attached on one end to a cross piece to which the handle is fastened, and on the other end joined by a small round piece of metal. A piece of strong wire would serve the purpose of the latter, as its function is simply to keep the blades the proper distance apart—Popular Mechanics.

Scheme for Tray Meals.

Where many meals are served in a room it is well to hunt up some of the novelties that make such service easy.

Very new is a tray of white porcelain with silver or nickel trimmings. This is fitted with grooves of the metal in which are set two-cups and saucers, a teapot, cream jug, butter plate, toast rack, marmalade jar and small breakfast plate.

Smaller but equally convenient is a combination salt and pepper shaker set in a little stand which holds a glass butter plate and knife. The stand has a curved handle, which makes it easy to lift from the main tray when not in use.

Another convenience is the teaspoon with perforations that makes it possible to send up a jug of boiling water and have tea just the right strength.

Cream Candy.

Three cups confectioners' sugar, white of one egg unbeaten, one teaspoon vanilla extract two teaspoons water. Mix to consistency of dough, more water or sugar may be added. Mold into balls with the fingers and press half walnuts, almonds, citron or angelica into the mixture, or use as filling for dates. The dates should afterward be rolled in granulated sugar.

A variety of candy may be made in this way by using different extracts, nuts and fruits. This candy is quickly made, not being cooked, and is absolutely pure.

Minute Pudding.

Set a saucenpan or deep frying pan on the stove, the bottom and sides well buttered. Put into it a quart of sweet milk, a pinch of salt and a piece of butter as large as half an egg. When it boils have ready a dish of sifted flour; stir it into the boiling milk, sifting it through your fingers, a handful at a time, until it becomes smooth and quite thick. Turn it into a dish that has been dipped in cold water. Make a sauce, very sweet, to serve with it. Maple molasses is fine with it.

Special Baked Potatoes.

Select nice round potatoes, wash and bake. When baked take a knife and cut the ends. Scoop out into a bowl and add salt, pepper, butter and cream. Beat for a few minutes and then refill shells, close the place you have cut and put in oven until you wish to serve. They are excellent for dinner.

To Grease a Griddle.

Use a piece of beef suet tied in a thin cloth.

W. F. Kellis, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Nov. 10, 1902, at the Sterling City postoffice as a second-class matter.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY AT STERLING CITY, TEXAS.

Subscribers failing to get their paper on time, will confer a favor by reporting same to us.

Sterling City is situated in the heart of the land of milk and honey. If you would have these good things, you must have cows and bees, or some good neighbors.

The second hot water artesian well has been sunk at Marlin and is now gushing 125,000 gallons daily with a temperature of 152 degrees, making it one of the hottest wells in the world.

Don't forget the road bond issue. Remember that every man between the ages of 21 and 45 is liable to road duty. Those over and under that age are exempt. The bonds mean that all shall help work the roads.

If no disaster befalls, there will be an enormous fruit crop raised here this year. The trees are loaded with fruit, the ground is full of moisture, and unless Jack Frost makes a late visit, or a hail storm comes, we are sure of a full crop of fruit.

People haven't much sporting blood in their veins that can withstand the temptation to shoulder fishing rods and hie away to the pearly waters of the Concho and follow the time-honored profession of Sir Issak Walton for a few hours.

The "Bachelors Congress," as staged by local talent last Saturday night, was a splendid success from every standpoint. The play went off without a hitch, and from start to finish that was not filled with some interesting feature. A good audience was in attendance.

The man who shut the door, called the dog and ran from the drouth last year ought to be here now to see what he ran from and learn wisdom. This is not the Garden on which Adam and Eve had a conditional lease, but if they were here now, it would remind them of the jolly good times they had while tenants of that property.

Swat the man who dares to shoot a quail out of season. The killing of a pair of quails at this season of the year means the destruction of from ten to twenty young ones. Let it be known that the fool with his gun cannot over-ride the laws of God and man. Turn him over to the sheriff and let that individual pluck from him the price of his folly.

Those newspapers which are devoted good space in the abuse of Governor Coquit for doing this, and not doing that, should try their hand at talking for the land which gives them their bread and butter. Governor is trying his level best to give us an administration of prosperity and "political rest," but these fellows who have gone "batty" on one or the other side of prohibition are determined to kick up a row.

Sheep shearing is the order of the day in Sterling county. Last year there were 30,832 sheep in this county, and only a very small percent of this number have been shipped out. The spring lamb crop and other sources ought to make the number 50 per cent greater which would bring the number up to 46,248. Then, 46,248 fleeces averaging 7 pounds each, would make a total of 323,736 pounds of wool produced in Sterling county. This wool at 15 cents per pound (it is now quoted at 18 cents) means the neat sum of $48,560.40 to go into the pockets of the wool growers this spring.

There are some who oppose storing wool at Sterling. Why they do so we fail to understand; for the weather coming here from other countries would easily run the total up to a million pounds, and it seems to us that a million pounds is some thing.

ANOTHER GOOD GENERAL RAIN

A Splendid Rain Fell Over This Section of Country Sunday Night

Last Sunday night, we had another good rain. While there was nothing suffering for rain, yet it came in good time to keep things blooming. The top of the ground was getting a little dry and some were wishing for a shower and it came just right. The total precipitation, as measured by a home-made gauge, was 1 7-16 inches. This brings rainfall, since January 1st, 5 13-16 inches, according to our records.

We learn that the rain was general over the country, which puts crop prospects high up in the scale, and the range in ideal condition. The cowman and the farmer are wearing smiles that wont come off.

PROTECT THE BIRDS

"Eight hundred million dollars worth of products of the United States are annually destroyed by insects, according to an estimate made by Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, James Wilson, and every ounce of that could be saved by saving the birds. If you destroy the birds, insect life will dominate the world and human life will cease. These birds are necessary. That is our belief and the belief of every scientist who has studied the subject. The Audubon Societies, not only of Texas, but the whole world are trying to impress upon the people, that we must stop the destruction of birds."—Capt. M. R. Davis.

A CHALLENGE

L. C. Dupree is putting in 250 acres of cotton on his ranch. He challenges all Sterling county to put up a man who will harvest more cotton off of ten acres than he. Here is a chance for some man to get action on his wealth, for Dupree means it. Who will call his hand? Irrigated land not challenged.

Mr. Dupree is also an enthusiast on watermelons. He can eat watermelons from sun-up to sun-down and quote poetry about the sweet sweet things between slices, and to show his faith, he will devote ten acres to melons alone. Abe Gamble the coming cold storage man, has his weather eye on this melon patch.

Waco is constructing a twenty two story office building. The building will be equipped with every modern convenience and will be one of the tallest and most thoroughly equipped in the South.

Take two tomcats, tie their tails together and straddle a clothes line with them and you can get some idea of what the prohibition campaign will be like when it opens and warms up to its work. We are scheduled for some mighty warm times within the next three months and we should all go into hard training to fortify ourselves against blind passion and intolerance. When an orator from either side comes in to stir us up against each other, we should remember that he is paid to do it, that he is trying to earn his money and that as soon as the thing is settled, he will be out of a job.

There is talk of pulling off that delayed barbecue which we postponed last year on account of the drouth. About the middle of May, this country will have her Sunday clothes on, and when old Sterling is dressed up in her green gown and decked out in flowers of every hue, she is a sight fit for the gods to behold. Let's have the barbecue and bring a train load of people who never saw such a peach, and let them have a taste of our fat, juicy beef and mutton while they gaze on the most magnificent country they ever saw. Some of these people have been here and seen the country in rags; now let us get them to see it dressed in green and gold and purple.

LAWN TENNIS IN AUSTRALIA.

Australia to-day possesses the best lawn tennis players in the world. Norman Brookes has beaten the pick of England and there are a number of players in Australia who can make an excellent partnership with Brookes in doubles any time. There is practically no leisure class in Australia, and there are few men who, enthusiastic in sport, can afford six months' vacation and the trip to England and back to play in the international contests. That is why a limited number of Australians have been heard of in the annual tourneys. But the English critics to-day are admitting that the Australians play the most scientific game and secure the best results all around.

TAKE LIFE LIKE A MAN.

It is a pitiable thing to see a young man whining over his lot in life and excusing indifference and inaction because of hard, luck or some cruel fate which has put stumbling blocks in his way. No matter what your environment or what you may be called upon to go through, face life like a man, without whining. Turn your face to the sun, your back to the shadows, and look the world in the face without wincing. Make the most of your situation. See the leucues in it and not the ugly features. This is the way to improve an unfortunate environment.—From Success Magazine.

Your Boy's Life's Work

What Shall It Be?

PHOTOGRAPHY? Despite the fact that so many are engaged in it and that amateurs have taken it up with such enthusiasm, here is an occupation which still offers your boy an excellent opportunity to obtain a livelihood and even to accumulate a fortune. The popular competition has not injured the business.

THE fact that photography is a profession of itself, and that thousands of men all over the world are getting rich by means of it in spite of the popular amateur competition, has been almost lost sight of except by those still engaged in the business. The more scientific and artistic improvements that have come up have enabled those following photography for their life work to keep ahead, as they have always done, and there is now a better field than ever for the exercise of their talents.

It is quite likely that your boy, endowed with the fair quality of the pictures he has been able to make with his cheap little camera, aspires to the bigger attainments shown by the man who has made photography his business. It is the purpose of this article to show him some of the steps he will have to take to reach the success he craves.

First he should apply to the proprietor of the nearest large gallery for a job, telling him that he wishes to become a first-class photographer. If the proprietor has no vacancy, apply to another. The boy need not have had more than a rudimentary education, for academic training is not at all necessary. Getting the job, he will discover that he is little more than a porter or a roustabout, sweeping out the gallery, washing bottles and doing other kinds of ordinary labor about the studio.

Naturally of an observant nature, your boy will begin soon to acquire a vague understanding of how various things are done. His first glimpse of this new knowledge will come in the dark room, where plates are removed from the holders after "pictures are taken" in the studio proper, and other manipulating is done. His first work of really professional character will be to change plates in these holders, learning that the least bit of light will spoil them, and to distinguish between the smooth glass side and the velvety feeling of the other. This must be done entirely by sense of touch, in an absolutely dark room, or where there is only a small red light. Then, as he has been watching the shifting and substitution of various backgrounds as different exposures are made, he will learn that for a best picture of a woman wearing her hat the background will be of a certain kind, another if her hat is to fall, another if the picture is to be full length, etc., and he will attend to this under direction of the operator.

Then he will take the negatives, which have been made by an experienced man, to the roof or light window and make proofs, which are to be submitted to the customer for approval; will be shown how to put prints into the water for washing and, when they have been cleaned of all chemicals, how to put them into the drying rack, how to take prints that have properly dried and mount them on the heavy backs, and, finally, will to printing and toning without having to be watched constantly by his boss.

Pretty soon, say within a couple of years after he has started, your boy will be a full-fledged printer and earning anywhere from $12 to $20 a week, according to the ability he manifests.

This means that he will take the negatives and make prints in proper exposure and develop them without having to be shown how.

His next and last stage, which is most important, will be that of operator. This is the man who poses the subject in the gallery, knows just the proper background and the necessary lighting and shading to use, the correct lens and plate, and the exact exposure to be made, whether of a tenth of a second or of a minute. The placing of the subject, the lighting and the exposure are the things that determine the grade of the pictures, for almost anybody can make good prints from a good negative, but nobody can make a fine print from a poor one. The minimum pay for an operator is about $25 a week, according to the standing and importance of the gallery, and experts in high-class work get as much as $75, or nearly $4,000 a year. It requires years of experience, and probably the development of a specialty, for an operator to command $75 a week.

It will require much attention and practise to become a successful operator. Suppose your boy is employed in a scientific institution, such as a museum. He may be asked to make a large picture of a skeleton, showing even the finest of lines in the individual bones, with all their perfection of detail, and yet he has to make the exposure in a poorly lighted room, with shadows and background all askew. It is up to him to know just what background to use, how to place various reflectors so as to give the right shadows, and the exact exposure required in the uncertain light to make his negative exactly right the first time. If he failed, it might mean a waste of as much as $20 or more in material. He must know this instinctively; and through his experience, or he might be sent to a cathedral to make a picture of an altar. Obviously the altar cannot be moved into a bet-
