

'72 Pheasant Season Includes 2 Weekends

Bird Hunting Set Dec. 9-17

The 1972 pheasant season in Parmer County begins Saturday, Dec. 9, and continues through Sunday, Dec. 17, a nine-day period which includes two weekends.

Announcement of this year's season was made this week by Jack Patterson, president of Parmer County Game Management Association.

The nine-day season in December has been in effect for the past several years in the county.

Patterson commented this week that the pheasant population is again considered good, but that hunting will be more difficult than usual, also, this year.

Reason for the difficulty in hunting the popular game bird is expected to be because the grain sorghum crop has not been completely harvested as yet and only a small percentage of that which has been harvested has been shredded. Thus, there will be much more stubble and crop area for the birds to find cover in than in a normal year.

The limit will be the same as it has been in years past -- two cocks per day and four in possession. Head and feed of the birds must be left with the carcasses.

Hens are not legal game.

Parmer County has attracted state-wide attention with its pheasant season in the past few years. Many out-of-town hunters normally make an appearance to join in the hunt.

Patterson says the details of the annual tail feather contest in the county haven't as yet been worked out, but he expects the rules to be similar to last year. Cash prizes of $30 were given for the longest tail feathers in contests at Bovina, Friona and Farwell. Three places are paid, $15, $10 and $5 in each community with a plaque then being presented to the overall county winner.

Tail feather contest headquarters in Bovina will be Bovina Gin Co.

Bruce Caldwell of Bovina and Chester Brown of Tucson, Ariz., submitted the longest entries last year, tying for first place in the contest here. Over 40 entries were submitted with a number not registering their entries after determining they were out of the running for the prizes.

Lawrence Dorsey says it looks like the ducks will get the rest of the maize which is still in the field, but he wishes the weather would warm up some so they wouldn't have to eat it so cold.

Say, we have a football contest this year which is almost more than we bargained for -- three people tied for the grand prize going into the last week and seven, if you can believe that, tied for third place prize money of $1 last week, all of them 28 points off the Hebraker.

If we didn't work here, we'd ask for an "audit" of the records on that seven-people-tied-for-third-place business.

We wouldn't mention it if such wasn't the case, but this has been a good year for the football contest overall. Not only are we going down to the final week with three tied for the grand prize and others in a position to win it by virtue of being only a few points back, but the number of entries each week has exceeded that of years goneby. Changing of the grand prize this year from tickets to the Cotton Bowl game to a Dallas Cowboy game isn't, in our opinion, responsible for the increased participation. There's just more people and more interest, as far as we can tell.

We believe now that we didn't do anything smart when we changed from the Cotton Bowl classic to a Cowboy game. It didn't add that much to the contest. At the same time, we didn't receive more than a few complaints about the switch.

The Cowboy game, which is Dec. 17 against the New York Giants, won't interfere with the Christmas-New Year's plans of anyone who wins, though, and that might be an advantage.

This season wasn't a good one, football contest-wise, for Paul Jones, however. Paul wasn't doing good in the overall standings this year and hadn't picked up any weekly money, either. Last week, he forgot to submit his entry -- the first time he has failed to enter the contest since its origin in the football season of '60.

Paul was the grand prize winner in '63.

Since he didn't qualify for anything better this year, we'll give him a "C" for consistency for the past 13 years.

Wonder how many other players have never missed a week of the contest up to now?

Pheasant season, another good Parmer County sporting event, is scheduled for its normal nine-day run next month, Dec. 9-17.

Seems like we say this almost every year, but it looks to our untrained eye as if the bird population is "better than ever."

This area is, no doubt, a long way from rivaling Kansas or other sur-nuf pheasant areas in number of birds, but you can get in some good hunting here, the people who try it tell us, and if you're a pretty good hunter, or lucky, or both, you can get some good-eatin' meat for the table.

In other words, there's plenty of sport in Parmer County pheasant hunting. Local folks take a little extra pride in it, too, because it didn't just happen. They worked at it by stocking the area with pheasants several years ago and then protecting them until they had increased.

Wallace Rogers Dies In Lubbock

Funeral services for Wallace Holbrook Rogers were held Friday morning in the Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church in Lubbock. Graveside rites were held that afternoon in the Highland Cemetery at Stamford.

Mr. Rogers, 62, moved to Lubbock six years ago from Bovina. He had been employed by Bonds Oil Co. here for about 10 years before moving to Lubbock six years ago. He moved here in the early 1950s from Friona. Mr. Rogers died about 8 a.m. Wednesday of last week in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock. He was an apartment manager and a member of the Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Opal; two sons, Gibb L. Rogers of El Paso and Jerry D. Rogers of Lubbock; two brothers, Tom Rogers of Andrews; four sisters, Mrs. Ione Shield of Rule, Mrs. Nettie Crabtree of Van Horn, Mrs. Flossie Frazier of Rule and Mrs. Lillian Bean of Haskell; and seven grandchildren.

Time To Write Santa

With the arrival of the Christmas season, children of the area are invited to write their letters to Santa Claus.

If sent to The Blade, the letters will appear in the Christmas issue of the newspaper. Children are assured that the letters will be forwarded to Santa in plenty of time for his attention before Christmas Eve.

However, since Christmas Day is on Monday this year, the Christmas issue of The Blade will be published on Saturday. Parents are asked to assist their children in mailing the letters as early as possible.

CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY --- Mustang co-captains Billy Shelby, left, and Weldon Beardain hold the trophy the Mustangs received this week as co-champions in District 3-A. The Mustangs shared the honors with the Hart Longhorns who went on to represent the district in the playoffs. The trophy has space for squad members' names to be engraved at a later date.

Weather Delays Harvesting More

A welcome warming trend with no threat of moisture moved into the area Tuesday.

Farmers were especially pleased with the prospects of good harvest weather as they wind up the combining of grain sorghum and prepare to strip the cotton crop.

The much-delayed harvest received another set-back Thanksgiving night as rain and snow postponed the already-late harvesting another series of days.

Snow measured three to four inches across the area, but most of it had been melted by warming temperatures by Saturday. The temperature dropped to a cold, but clear, 15 degrees early Tuesday morning, before the sunshine sent the mercury in thermometers to a more comfortable reading.

The milo harvest is in the final stages with no more than 20 or 25 per cent still in the fields, according to estimates, and the farmers can get it cut and in the elevators in a matter of a few days with good, drying weather.

The ground is soaked by more-than-normal fall and winter rains making movement of combines and trucks difficult in the fields. Some farmers have tried harvesting the grain at night and in the early morning to take advantage of the frozen ground for better traction for the machines.

Because of the long delay in completing the harvest, the dryness of the grain has long since become unimportant and the farmers are cutting it when and how they can without regard to the moisture content.

A portion of the crop has fallen to some extent, making the yields less than anticipated. Most estimates about how much loss range in the 10 per cent neighborhood. That figure will be increased, however, most farmers believe, the longer the grain remains in the field. That's their primary concern for cutting it as quickly as possible.

On the encouraging side of the milo picture for the producers is that the crop is enjoying an "up" market.

Three Tied For Lead --

1972 Contest Goes 'Down To The Wire'

This week "tells the tale" in the Bovina Businesses Dallas Cowboy Football Contest.

The contest is in a three-way tie going into the final week of the 13-week contest.

Terry Carpenter of Clovis and Gary McCormick and Donna Jester of Bovina are tied for the lead with a total of 85 games out of a possible 119.

Lloyd Gober won last week's contest on his tiebreaker prediction. He was one of two contestants to pick nine winners and received the $5 first prize.

Gober missed only the Minnesota Vikings-Pittsburgh Steelers pro game and picked Happy to defeat Groom, 18-6, 33 points off the actual Groom 28-7 victory.

Janice Carpenter of Clovis, wife of the contest leader, Terry Carpenter, won second place and $3. She missed the Littlefield-Floydada game and picked Happy to win, 35-6, 40 points off the actual score.

Seventeen contestants had eight correct predictions with seven of these splitting the $1 third place money at 14 cents a share. Jerry and June Gay Bradford, Furne Harris, Mrs. Phillip Johnson, Howard Mar-com, Andy Martinez and Bonnie Stanberry were each 28 points off on the tie-breaker prediction.

Pioneer Resident --

W. H. Jarrell Rites Monday

Funeral services for William H. Jarrell, 103, a pioneer Parmer County farmer, were held Monday morning in the Charles V. Steed Memorial Chapel in Clovis.

The Rev. J. L. Bass of Odesa, wife of the contest leader, Terry Carpenter, won second place and $3. She missed the Littlefield-Floydada game and picked Happy to win, 35-6, 40 points off the actual score.

Mr. Jarrell died Saturday morning at a rest home in Clovis where he had resided since 1963.

He was born September 3, 1869, in Lake Charles, La., and moved to the Bovina area 54 years ago. He was preceded in death by his wife in 1940 and several children.

Survivors include three sons, A. J. Jarrell of Bovina, Joe Jarrell and Spencer Jarrell, both of Clovis; two daughters, Mrs. Tom Crews of Coleman and Mrs. Mamie Hightower of Texico; 23 grandchildren, 48 great-grandchildren and 22 great-great-grandchildren.

Palbearers were Crump Melugin, A. L. Nuttall, Howard Whitener, John Range, Pearl Singleterry and John Spearman. Honorary palbearers were Dr. V. Scott Johnson, Claud Rose, Gabe Anderson, Clarence Smith and W. E. Williams.

Other contestants with eight correct games were Lynn Chitwood, Genevieve Ezell, Donna Jester, Jim Lookingbill, Jim Milner, Jay Sherrill, Jesse Walling, Billy Whitecotton, Billy Whitecotton Jr., and A. M. Wilson.

Carpenter, who has led the contest most of the year, picked six winners last week, while McCormick picked seven and Mrs. Jester eight.

Two points behind the leaders with 83 are Ben McCain, Cindy Morrison and Larry Wardlaw. Standing at 82 points are Gary Cox, Jim Noyes, Paula Whitecotton, George Douglas, Bill Moore and A. M. Wilson.

Four points back with 81 are Jim Lookingbill and Sandra Ware.

Five behind the leaders with 80 are Rocky Bartlett, Jerry Bradford, Janice Carpenter, Tracy Russell, Jim Milner and Bill Read.

If the lead is tied at the end of the contest, the winner will be determined on the tie-breakers for the entire year. The number of points "off" will be totaled and the contest-

Lions Slate Annual Decorations Contest

The annual Home Decorations Contest in the Bovina community will be sponsored again this year by the Bovina Lions Club, announces Ed Isaac, president of the organization.

Cash prizes will be $25 for first place, $15 for second and $10 for third -- a total of $50 in the Christmas event.

An entry blank appears in this week's issue of The Blade for those wishing to enter their decorations in the contest. All one must do is fill in the blanks and mail to Bovina Lions Club, Box B, Bovina.

Deadline for entering the contest is Friday, December 15. Judging will be conducted by Sunday, Dec. 17. Those entering the contest should leave their lights on until at least 10 p.m. on the nights of Dec. 15, 16 and 17.

The contest is designed to encourage decoration of homes in Bovina and the surrounding rural area, Isaac says.

The prize winning homes will be announced in the Christmas edition of The Blade.

Winners in 1970 were Mr. and Mrs. Kelso, first; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Estes, second; and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Grissom, third.

Lions Club members state they feel the decorations contest and Mrs. Earl Whitten, first; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kelso, second; and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hromas, third.

ed to the point that an open season was possible and even desirable.
The population hasn't, however, increased to the point that hens are legal game. Remember that when you hear the swift flutter of a flying bird coming up out of a stalk field.

Congratulations are in order to the Hart Longhorns for winning their bi-district game over New Deal Saturday night. It must have taken some doing for them to overcome seven lost fumbles, but they won the game four touchdowns to two, anyway. That win gives the Horns the right to meet Clarendon in regional competition this weekend.

We probably really should quit predicting football games since we hit eight of 10 last week and that was some above average. However, since there's only one contest week remaining, we'll tell you how the games will probably come out one more time:

CLARENDON vs. Hart --- We'd like to see this one turn out the other way and will be hoping that it does since we pick the winners just for fun. However, Clarendon's reputation as a Class A power has been reported down this way. We'd still pick Hart, though, if we hadn't read that their speedy back, Jimmy Brown, was injured on the final play of the first half in last week's game. That didn't take him out of the game, but it certainly slowed him down, statistics-wise. In the final two quarters, if Brown recovers this week and is at full speed, Hart could win, it sez here.

PLAINS vs. Baird --- We don't know about the latter, the Cowboys beat the Bovina Mustangs two touchdowns so they must be pretty good. Let's stay on their side in this regional game.

LUBBOCK MONTEREY at El Paso Eastwood --- Sounds like the El Paso team has the home-field advantage. It's the same size, though, as the one they play on at Lubbock.

CHILDRESS vs. Floydada --- The Whirlwinds had trouble last week with Littlefield. They're not as good as we thought they might be. Childress is ranked high state-wide, too.

Dumas vs. BURKBURNETT --- This may be a mismatch. Some New Mexico team beat the Demons earlier in the season. Burk, we think, came out of the same district that the Brown-wood Lions are in. That means they're good.

GROOM vs. Imperial-Buena Vista --- If the Tigers can beat Happy, surely they can take this team of cowboys from the Big Bend area.

SOUTHERN METHODIST at Texas Christian --- This is a toss-up each and every year. We picked SMU last week and it worked so we'll try it again.

RICE at Baylor --- Seems like the Owls are improving while the Bears are going the other way in spite of the fact they've had a pretty good year.

DETROIT at Green Bay --- The Lions have a better quarterback, don't they?

Chicago at MINNESOTA --- We kinda like Fran Tarkenton, even if some do say he's not a winner.

Weather --

The price early this week was $2.35 per hundred pounds, up some 15 cents since harvesting began several weeks ago. Some reasons given for the price increase are the late harvest and reports of yields being cut in states north of here by severe weather.

If the weather continues dry for a period of a few days, stripping of cotton will begin, possibly by the latter part of this week. The stalks need to dry so the machines can strip the cotton from them.

Contest --

ant having the smallest number will be the winner.

It wouldn't be the first time this has happened in the Bovina Businesses Football Contest. Paul Jones won the contest in that manner in 1963, and Allen Cumpston in 1965.

A total of 118 entered last week's contest. Two had nine correct predictions, 17 had eight, 33 had seven, 33 had six, 23 had five, five had four, three had three right, one had two and one contestant had one correct prediction.

Santa Claus Slates Visit

Final details are being arranged at the present time with Santa Claus' representatives at the North Pole for the legendary gentleman to visit Bovina shortly before Christmas.

Members of the Bovina Lions Club, which sponsors the trip from the North Pole to Bovina, have been assured that Santa will be able to make the trip.

Present plans call for him to arrive here shortly before 2:30 p.m. Friday, December 22.

The white-whiskered jolly gentleman will be escorted into town by Bovina Volunteer Fire Department. The fire truck, if plans proceed as expected, will bring Santa to the middle of downtown Bovina where he will distribute candy to youngsters of the area.

Candy has been made available here through the Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Classes in Bovina Schools will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m. that day to enable school children to visit with Santa before he departs. Busses will detour through the downtown area so that youngsters riding the busses may visit, also.

WINS $5 --- Lloyd Gober picked nine correct winners last week in the Bovina Businesses Football Contest to win first place and $5. His tiebreaker guess earned him the prize when he was closer on the score of the Happy-Groom game than Mrs. Janice Carpenter of Clovis, who also picked nine. She was awarded second place prize money of $3. Seven contestants tied for third place and $1, making their share of the prize 14 cents.

Conservation Aids Increase

Conservationists are awaiting the opening of the 1972 pheasant season in Parmer County on December 9. Farmers in this area have been developing pheasant cover and food supplies the past several years and this is evidenced by the slow increase of the popular game bird in the county.

It is common knowledge, says Herb Evans, district conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service in Friona, that good conservation helps wildlife and game birds. "Some of the good practices in Parmer County that have helped our pheasant population include managing crop residue on the soil surface, windbreaks, tailwater pits, odd areas that are impractical to farm and grassed waterways," said Evans. "The first practice listed furnishes both food and cover for the birds," he continued.

Evans pointed out that one beneficial practice is to leave several rows of feed grain or corn at the edge of a field to provide food and cover for the birds. "Starvation kills more pheasants each year than hunters," Phamphlets on conservation practices to aid hunting are available at the SCS office in Friona.

Tims-Foster Exchange Vows In Thanksgiving Day Ceremony

The West Camp Baptist Church was the setting for the Thanksgiving afternoon wedding of Miss Beverly Faye Tims and Buddy V. Foster.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Tims of West Camp, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foster of Oklahoma Lane.

Rev. Glenn Harlin, pastor of the church, led the couple in their double ring vows.

Gaye Rundell registered guests as they entered the church at a table covered with a floor length white lace cloth over pink. On the table were the couple's wedding book and a hot pink candle on a white pedestal, ringed with miniature multi-colored flowers. An easel holding a large formal portrait of the bride completed the registration setting. Sue Pointer of Littlefield presented scrolls to the guests.

Tina Rundell, organist, played traditional nuptial selections and wedding marches. Vickie Smart, accompanying herself at the piano, sang "I Love You Truly," "The Twelfth of Never," and "The Lord's Prayer."

A halfmoon candelabrum holding light pink tapers and entwined with greenery and hot pink ribbons formed a backdrop for a kneeling bench and a memory candle. After the couple knelt for the benediction, they lighted the memory candle before leaving the altar under an arch formed by the attendants holding lighted candles.

Candlelighters were Larry Tims, cousin of the bride, and Ken Foster, brother of the bridegroom.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of organza over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and natural waistline. The bodice was overlaid with Alencon lace and featured a small stand up collar and long fitted sleeves which ended in petal points at her hands. Seed pearls were applied in petal designs around the neckline of the bodice and around the collar. Her fingertip veil of illusion was bordered with wide lace as was her full length train. The veil and train were attached to a Juliet cap covered with lace and embroidered with seed pearls in petal design.

The bride carried a bouquet of hot pink and light pink roses atop a white Bible engraved with her name. The Bible was a special gift from her father. Following bridal tradition, the bride carried for something old, a handkerchief belonging to her late maternal grandmother, Mrs. B. H. King. Something new was her wedding ensemble; something borrowed was a gold bracelet belonging to Mrs. Zula Rundell of Oklahoma Lane, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom. Something blue was a garter to which she had attached her promise ring. She carried in her shoes pennies minted in the year of the nuptial couple's births.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Ann Tims. She wore a formal length two-piece dress of hot pink A'legante featuring a gathered skirt and wide waistband. Small ruffles over the shoulders accented the long sleeves which were gathered onto wide cuffs.

Other attendants were Ginger Herington, student at South Plains College and former classmate of the bride; and Mrs. Bobby Foster, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. They wore dresses of light pink A'legante styled identical to that of the maid of honor. Their headpieces were light pink satin rolled roses on petal-shaped light pink lace with hot pink and light pink ribbon trim. They carried circular arrangements of light pink net holding round rose candles with hot pink and light pink streamers. They wore corsages of pink carnations.

Benji Hughes of Kress, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a light pink frock styled as those of the other bridal attendants and carried a small deep rose colored straw basket holding miniature pink flowers and tied with light pink streamers.

Bobby Foster served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Jack Foster, brother of the bridegroom, and Harold Jones, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Kenny Hughes of Kress, cousin of the bride, and Stanley Milstead. All male members of the wedding party wore dark suits and light pink shirts with ties of hot pink A'legante.

The bride's mother wore a formal length ensemble featuring a deep rose velvet skirt and light pink crepe blouse with ruffles at the neckline and sleeves. Her corsage was of deep red roses.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a full length dress of pale orchid knit fashioned on princess lines. The lace textured dress had orchid and silver trim on the bodice to the waistline. She wore a corsage of orchid carnations.

A reception at the church honored the couple following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with white lace over pink and featured a three-tiered wedding cake of pink and iced in white with hot pink and light pink roses decorating the confection. Four layers surrounded the bottom pedestal of the cake which was topped with a bride and groom figurine. The memory candle from the wedding ceremony and the bride's bouquet were featured on the table, also the silver given the couple by his grandmother, Mrs. Rundell, completed the table decor. White napkins bore the names "Beverly and Buddy," (Continued on Page 6)

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT KREGG WILSON

Miss Mathis, Gregg Wilson Wed In Odessa Ceremony

Miss Brenda Kaye Mathis became the bride of Robert Gregg Wilson at 7 p.m. Saturday, November 18, at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Odessa.

The Rev. Russell Parchman read the double ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Rev. and Mrs. Melvin R. Mathis of Odessa and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wilson of Bovina.

Twin seven-branch candelabra entwined with ivy and holding blue tapers, flanked by baskets of blue carnations and lily of the valley formed the setting at the altar.

Randy Stevens of Winters was organist. Miss Marsha Elliott of DeLem was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of chiffon over bridal satin. Her skirt fell in soft folds from an empire waistline and was edged in lace. The bodice of the gown, featuring a Victorian neckline trimmed in matching lace, was trimmed with appliques of roses inlaid with seed pearls. Her Bishop sleeves ended in deep cuffs patterned with lace. She wore a floor length mantilla edged in matching lace.

Lane Gober of Galveston was best man, Billy Jay Charles and Ronny Dyer of Bovina, brother-in-law of the groom, were groomsmen. Terry Mathis of Lubbock and Greg Bell of Bovina were ushers.

Candlelighters were Shelley Dempsey and Susan Dempsey of Odessa.

Mrs. Larry Alvey of Odessa, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Marcom of Bovina and Miss Shirlene Mathis, sister of the bride, of Odessa.

They wore formal length gowns designed with royal blue velvet skirts and royal blue miramist bodices. The gowns were designed with Victorian necklines and bishop sleeves. They carried lighted snifters circled with blue frenched carnations with silver streamers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Ed Dempsey of Odessa. The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth. The two-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue flowers and topped with a bride and groom figurine. Nuts, mints, coffee and punch were served from crystal and silver appointments.

April Wilson, sister of the groom, registered guests.

For a wedding trip to Mexico, the bride wore a three-piece cream colored suit with blue vest. She wore a corsage of sweetheart rosebuds. The couple will be at home at 1918 Estes Street in Abilene after November 26.

The bride is a graduate of Floydada High School and is a junior at McMurry College in Abilene. She is an officer in Theta Chi Lambda social sorority and president of the junior class. She was employed as youth director at Bovina United Methodist Church this past summer.

Wilson, a graduate of Bovina High School, is a junior at McMurry. He is employed at Sears in Abilene.

ELIJAH, THE TROUBLER OF ISRAEL

We are familiar with the conflict between Elijah and king Ahab. In I Kings 18 we read that when the king meets God's prophet he asks, "Is it you, you troubler of Israel?" Elijah responds: "It is not I who have troubled Israel, but you and your father's family, by forsaking the commandments of the Lord and following Baal."

Too often today one is called a "trouble maker" when he stands for that which is right. And today, even as in the days of king Ahab, those who do real harm to others are those who forsake the commandments of the Lord to follow after the world.

People long for peace, but "peace at any cost" will not result in lasting, genuine peace. Elhan could have been a "good Joe" and placated wicked king Ahab. He did not submit to such a temptation. He was loyal to God and interested in the people and, therefore, he stood firm for that which was right.

In our day of compromise, as in the days of king Ahab, we need more Elijahs. Men with courage and dedication to truth. John says in John 8:32 that truth makes us free. In John 17:17 the same apostle says that we are sanctified by truth. With courage and dedication to truth can we find peace with God and with our own selves.

With Selective Service --

Remind Youth To Register

AUSTIN -- Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, State Director of Selective Service for Texas, reminds young men of their obligation to register with Selective Service within 30 days of their 18th birthday.

Glantz stressed that the requirement to register will continue in full effect whether the all-voluntary military force becomes a reality or not. Every native born and resident-alien young man is required to present himself for registration from 30 days before to 30 days after his 18th birthday. If, for any reason, a young man has failed to register he should do so immediately to escape the penalty of Federal law, Glantz says.

Failure to register may result in a fine, imprisonment, or both, under provisions of the Military Selective Service Act. Young men may register at the office of the local board near their home or place of residence, or may be registered by volunteer registrars who are located in most high schools or other similarly convenient locations. Registrars in the Bovina area are: Harry J. Charles, Charles Oil Co.; and L. F. Jacobs, Bovina High School.

Interested persons are urged to attend a meeting of the association at 7 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday) at Community Room of First State Bank of Bovina.

Bookmobile Here Thurs.

The High Plains Bookmobile will be in Bovina Thursday (tomorrow) from noon until 3:30 p.m. The bookmobile will be parked in front of Bovina Schools during that time.

Before arriving here, the bookmobile will stop in West Camp from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m., and in Lariat from 10:30 until 11:30 a.m.

hybrid corn
PROVEN PERFORMANCE DURING 1972

SX 520 This is a NEW medium maturing yellow corn that was number one in yield tests conducted by Ronnie Gfeller, agronomist, on the Dan Heard Farm, 1 mile south of Dimmitt during 1972. With a yield of 221.5 bushels per acre P-A-G SX 520 stood well (0% lodged stalks) and still out-yielded the late varieties of corn. This P-A-G single cross is another of the fast germinating, vigorous, high yielding "new breed" of P-A-G custom hybrids. SX 520 is an excellent dual purpose corn for high grain yield—high quality, top tonnage silage.

SX 98 Distinctive because of its dark green color and relatively up-right leaf for maximum light utilization. SX 98 yields and yields and yields. (208.2 bushels per acre in 1972 Dimmitt tests.) A fairly short hybrid corn (7 ft. 3 in. in tests) with good ear placement. Has a bred-in "digestive system" that gives it the capacity to make full use of large amounts of fertilizer.

344 A very attractive 3-way cross with dark green color and large, girthy ears. The grain is a medium dent of high quality. A real producer, outstanding performance in tests in Dimmitt area during 1971, and produced 190.8 bushels in the 1972 tests. 344 is a proven high yielder.

492 A tall, rugged, 4-way with the built in capacity to produce "tons" of high quality silage over a wide range of conditions. Grain yields are very high for a double cross hybrid. 492 produces medium length ears with dense grain high in test weight. Several reports of yields in excess of 30 tons of excellent silage made during 1972. Planted beside other silage varieties, farmers and feed lot managers keep planting and recommending P-A-G 492 for top yields of high quality silage.

GIRL SCOUT INVESTITURE --- Eight members of the Girl Scout Troop here were the first scouts in Parmer County to be invested using the new Girl Scout promise and laws that were adopted about two weeks ago by the National Girl Scout organization, according to Mrs. Don Spring, troop leader. The ceremony was held Sunday afternoon at Bovina Church of Christ. Assisting with the ceremonies were Mrs. Ralph Wilson of Friona, at back left, and Mrs. Spring, at back right. Troop members are, front row, left to right, Karla O'Hair, Melissa Allison, Eleyse Moody, Karen Hughes, Pam Spring and Brenda Wallace; back row, left to right, Mrs. Wilson, Sue Monk, Debbie Mills and Mrs. Spring. Two members, Darlene and Arlene Smith, were not present. Troop mothers are Mrs. Weldon Moody and Mrs. J. B. O'Hair.

Fillies Play Threeway In '72-'73 Opener

The Bovina Fillies got their second taste of action last night (Tuesday) when the squad traveled to Threeway for their first of two games with that squad. The Fillies lost a scrimmage session to the Anton Bulldog-ettes by about five points recently.

As of now, according to Head Coach Roger Ezell, 10 girls are carried on the varsity. All 10 are juniors this year. Three lettermen return from last year's squad which posted a record of 14-10 and 9-5 in District 3-A, which was good for third place in the eight-team league.

Returning are forward Nancy Hutto and guards Heidi Corn and Terri Willard.

Other juniors on the squad are Darla Hawkins, Connie Terry, Rhonda Rhodes, Jana Barrett, Evanna Johnston, Christi Trimble, and Pam Wilson.

The Fillies are entered in the Friona Invitational Tournament this weekend. The Fillies will face Friona in the first game at 7 p.m. Thursday. If Bovina wins, they will meet the winner of the Springlake-Earth and Farwell game at 7 p.m. Friday. If they lose, they will meet the loser of that game at 10 a.m. Friday.

Seventeen candidates for the B squad have reported for workouts, according to Coach Roy Donaldson. Included are one junior who is ineligible for the varsity this year, three sophomores and 13 freshmen.

The schedule for the 1972-'73 season appeared in last week's issue of The Blade, courtesy of Cyanamid Farm Supply.

It took 10 years to construct the Panama Canal.

In a shell

by Lou Nuttall

We got home late last Monday night, just after the kickoff on the Monday night football game, and we had just completed writing our little spiel about how a steady diet of football five nights a week had sorta burned us out on football.

Had a guest at our house. He said his wife and daughters had rebelled and flat refused to allow the tube to be turned to the channel on which said football game was being televised. Seems we aren't the only ones.

Recently read a hilarious book about rearing teenagers. And if anyone can manage to be witty and keep a sense of humor when raising teenagers, they deserve all the credit and publicity they can get.

The book is "Just Wait Till You Have Children of Your Own" by Erma Bombeck with illustrations and cartoons by Bill Keane.

Just a sample: "Our teenagers withdrew to their bedrooms on their 13th birthdays and didn't show themselves to us again until it was time to get married. If we spoke to them in public, they threatened to self-destruct within three minutes. And only once a young boy grinned at me, then apologized quickly with 'Gee, sir, I'm sorry I thought you were Eric Sevardid.'"

And: "Sometimes I wake my son in the middle of the night and ask him to smile. Those braces that twinkle in the darkness represent my fur coat, my trip to Monaco, my second car, my college education, my insurance policy (for my old age next week), the operation on my sinus passages. It seems like only $2000 ago that we sat in the dentist's office and discussed my son's teeth."

It is a funny book.
