THE LANCE.

The lance has been ridiculed by many military experts, on the ground that it is out of date and cumbersome, but the weapon still has its advocates who point out its value in shock tactics and in cavalry charges.

Recently attention has been called to the fact that the lance point often G. W. Allard makes too deep a wound for the shaft to be withdrawn quickly, and that therefore the lancer runs the risk of having it wrenched from his grasp in the charge. In view of this the cavalry in Germany have been experimenting with a new kind of lance carrying a ball below the base of the lance head. It is said that the new arm is just as effective in disabling an enemy and is free from many disadvantages .- Harper's Weekly.

NEEDED SOME TOUCHING UP

Father Evidently Has His Own Opin- eator ion of What an Honest Man Should Look Like.

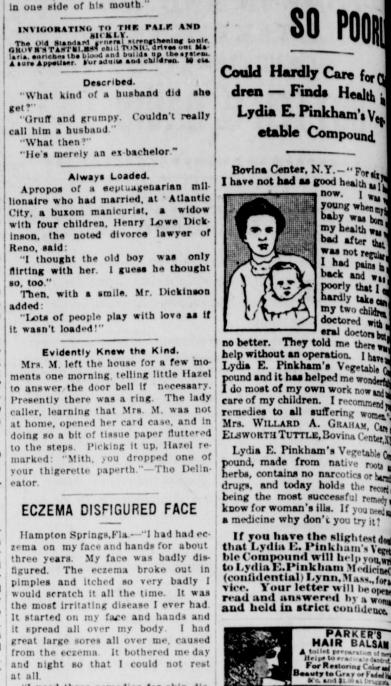

Outside the photographer's establishment in the little country town stood two figures-evidently father and son. At last they went in "Oi want yer to take a picture of our Joseph 'ere, maister," said the fond parent, and Joseph was promptly placed in a chair and requested to compose his features for a while. The photographer's specialty was quick developing, and soon several negatives lay before the purchaser. The father gazed uneasily at them for at all space, and then said, nervously:

You say in the window, maister, as 'ow yer can touch up the pictures to give any effect agreeable to yer cusomers." "That is so," assented the artist, readily, hastening to add, wish his best professional smile: "But in you son's case any retouching is absolutely unnecessary." "Ow, ave," said the father. "That be main like Joseph, but to tellee truth, he's got to send un wi' his testimonials for a throughout the world. Sample of each job, and I'd like yer to alter his photo to make him look honest-like!"card "Cuticura, Dept. L. Boston,"-Adv.
