VOL. I

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1911

NO. 36

Come to Hedley, the Town with a Future, Situated in the Famous Farming Country

BASKET PICNIC IN HEDLEY AUGUST 10

Hedley is to have a big picnic August 10. It is to be for everybody to have a big time and to show the visiting crowd the excellencies of the citizens, town and community. It is to be the good old fashioned kind where everybody is to bring in the well filled baskets and feast to their utmost capabilities.

Committees are already working in securing the different and many forms of entertainment; working to secure excursion rates on the railroad, and expect to make it a rip-roaring success, if the home people, and that is everyone in the whole community, will join hands with the committees and work. Without the hearty co-operation of all citizens the picnic cannot be a complete success. From the way the people worked for the picnic here two years ago and made it a success, we have no fear of any falling down on the part of anyone.

A splendid program is being arranged and will be ready for publication in a few days.

Following is a list of the committees selected so far, and others will be added as the necessity arises:

Arrangement: O. H. Britain, T. R. Moreman and J. C. Wells.
Advisory: Bond W. Johnson, J. G. McDougal, L. A. Stroud.
Transportation, Tournament, Relay: W. S. McCrory and Sid Harris.

Seating: S. A. McCarroll, E. H. Willis, W. E. Brooks.
Special Music: A. N. Wood, J. T. McHan, Mrs. McDougal, Miss Laura Brinson.

Soliciting Committee: R. H. Jones, P. C. Johnson, and John Harris.

Put up Stand: N. M. Hornsby, R. B. Jones, Will Jones.
Ball Games and Grounds: W. E. Brooks, E. L. Yelton and W. W. Gammon.

Some noted speakers will be secured, a good entertainment is

TINSHOP OPENING UP IN THE CITY

Mr. Turner is here opening up a new tin shop in the Gatlin building. This is one more enterprise for Hedley that has been needed. As fast as the trade is developed to such an extent that an enterprise is almost a necessity the town is fortunate in getting that enterprise.

Here's best wishes.

MRS. J. M. OXNER LECTURES JULY 23

Mrs. Dr. Oxner of Memphis, Missionary to China, will lecture at the church Sunday afternoon July 23, at 4 o'clock. The people of this section are familiar with the history of Mrs. Oxner as a missionary to China, and how her husband and her brother and wife gave their lives in the work. The lecture will be worth much to you. Be sure to attend.

Eugene Dishman returned on Monday from the Bowie Commercial College to take vacation. He is rather thin, having been sick for some time. This climate and his mother's cooking will restore him to health and strength.

to be given and many attractions will be put on to make the day a continual round of pleasure from start to finish.

Every business house in town will be closed from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. on that day so the business men can be at the grounds to see that the visitors from far and near have a good time. They want a successful picnic and the good will of the people, and it is requested that all people who expect to do any shopping that day will make their arrangements to do so before or after the hours above mentioned.

"Get Busy" will be the watch word from now to August 10.

WILL HAVE COTTON YARD THIS FALL

Hedley is to have a cotton yard and public weigher this fall if present plans go through. A. L. Miller and G. C. Brinson expect to put in the yard south of the railroad. This is a move in the right direction and will be much better for the seller and buyer, as it will lessen the fire hazard and be in easier reach by those business men who buy cotton.

An election will probably be held soon to elect a public weigher for the town. Two candidates are in the race for the office.

Progressive Farming

If all other lines of business had adopted the ideas of some farmers that the old system of farming could not be improved

WIND AND HAIL DOES DAMAGE

During the heavy rainstorm Monday afternoon H. M. Crawford and J. X. Miller were damaged by hail and wind. The hail hurt their crops and the wind turned their barns and sheds over, wrecking them somewhat. One peculiar prank that the wind played was to blow a scantling through the sides and broke a few spokes in one wheel of Mr. Crawford's wagon.

The wind also blew over the chicken house of W. A. Seright slaughtered sixty chickens.

Cotton Carnival

On July 29th the 3rd Annual Cotton Carnival of Galveston will open and hundreds of visitors will worship at the shrine of King

LIGHTNING STRIKES HOUSE SUNDAY

Lightning struck the house in which L. D. Clark lives in east part of Hedley about daybreak Sunday. The family were all asleep when the bolt struck the gable end of the house and ranging downward to the bedstead shattering it to pieces and never shocked L. D. or child who were asleep on this bed. The rest of the family in another room and one girl's face was burned just enough to turn a little bit red.

The house caught on fire above the ceiling and was burning very slowly when the family discovered it. Help arrived and the fire was put out before much damage was done.

A peculiar prank played by the lightning was the moving of a chair in which had been a pan of water that had a vessel of milk in it; the pan and all were deposited on the floor directly under where the chair had been sitting and not a drop of milk or water had been spilled.

W. O. W. UNVEILING SUNDAY, JULY 16

The Hedley Camp Woodmen of the World Camp in a beautiful and impressive ceremony unveiled the monument of Sovereign Tarpley Sunday afternoon at the cemetery. A procession of the members and visitors on foot and in conveyances was about a mile in length. The team work was cut short on account of the failure of the uniforms which had been ordered to arrive in time. The ritual work with the assistance of the handicapped team was carried out without a hitch throughout.

GOOD RAINS OVER DONLEY COUNTY

The local dry spots were wiped off the map by the good rains of Sunday and Monday. Up to then the showers had been spotted, covering most but not all of this country. But these rains have put a smile on the face and a song of gladness in the heart of each and every one in the country. It means an assurance of more and better crops, and cotton, especially, will almost make without any more rain, while another rain at the right time will suffice for most of the corn and feed crops. The old-timers say they have never seen more flattering prospects.

We thought when the above paragraph was written we had been having good rains, but they were not a patching to the rain lasted from Wednesday evening to nearly noon Thursday. Some say it amounted to over three inches. The rain isn't over with yet as it showers every day.

Farwell Party

A farewell party to Miss Laura Wood Tabor of Chillicothe who has been visiting the family of Rev. J. B. Wood this summer, was given at the home of Mrs. T. R. Moreman Wednesday afternoon. There was a crowd of her friends present, and stayed to a late hour and expressed the time as being pleasantly spent. Miss Tabor returned home yesterday. A GUEST.

PICNIC AUGUST TENTH.

An ice cream supper was held at McKnight Tuesday night and a big time reported.

Bob Dishman returned Wednesday to Bowie Commercial College to finish his studies.

SICKNESS

The first thought is the doctor, the next is
The Drugs

When you know you have a good doctor and his prescriptions are carefully compounded of the purest drugs, then you feel somewhat secure. That is our motto, pure drugs, and always the best of drugs, in everything we put up or sell in all packages. This is why we ask you to come and see us when in a hurry for anything in the drug line. Our label on the bottle is prescription insurance.

ATTEND TO THE STOCK AND POULTRY
Remember we have all the Stock and Poultry remedies and lice killer, both liquid and powder. These remedies used in time will save your stock and poultry. This money saved. Why not get one or both now?

We have a car of Ice on hand all the time

Call and try some of the many cold drinks that we serve at our fountain. You can buy what you want flavored as you prefer. We will appreciate your trade.

HEDLEY DRUG COMPANY

oh, we would still be using the forked stick, with a one-eared ox, man driving and one holding the plow, while the old reaper hook would still be used instead of the modern binders and the old flail instead of the threshing machine. A remarkable condition is that farmers have had their machinery improved on but will not listen to the soil culture theories, conservation experiences and results of demonstration work.

C. F. Doherty reports plenty of rain and fine crop prospects in his section of country.

Cotton. This exposition was planned and carried out by the public spirited citizens of Galveston for the purpose of increasing interest in the South's greatest staple, and has been made a permanent organization. Cotton in every shape and form will be on display and a replica of the Galveston sea wall will be an interesting feature of the Exposition.

ELECTION TO-MORROW ON THE AMENDMENT

Saturday is the great election day all over Texas and the people will vote for or against the State-wide amendment. As for the editor he expects to vote for the amendment. The town and the county will go for the amendment by a large majority.

The Informer has been censured by a few for not filling the columns with prohibition "dope". If there was any chance of any good being done for the cause by so doing then every column would be filled. But it would be the cause of strife and trouble among friends, making enemies instead of friends and hurting the cause more than it would do good.

We are also wide enough between the eyes to allow others the same privilege that we take—voting as they see is right. We believe every man who reads the Informer has as much sense as we have, and they are able to decide which way to vote. And it would be presumption on our part to try to turn the tide of public opinion, knowing full well that every voter has long since made up his mind on the question now before us. All speaking and arguing for or against has only served to strengthen each man in his opinion—and we dare say, has not made a single convert in Donley county. So, what is the use?

Some of the papers are so full of anti dope that a good smell of them would make one drunk, on the other hand, some papers are so full of pro dope that a smell of them would make one so dry he would shrivel up.

We this week received a letter asking that we publish some articles on prohibition which were enclosed. Now, it is our rule to throw anything in the waste basket when the letter or written request is not signed. The writer of the above mentioned letter failed to sign his name and we must refuse. If a letter is signed we will leave off the name if the writer so desires.

The special sale now going on at The Cash Store has been getting quite a lot of patronage. It is the result of up-to-date methods of doing business. No old goods allowed to remain in the shelves from year to year but almost given away to get rid of them. And printer's ink is extensively to let the people know.

ANYONE CAN DO IT

"The making of a country newspaper is the easiest proposition in the world. All that is necessary is to get every item of news that happens; keep the good will of all who buy, beg borrow, or steal your paper; publish nothing that anybody is opposed to seeing in print; leave out nothing that anybody would like to see in print; serve as a grindstone for any who have axes to grind; boost every sort of enterprise; serve as a mouth piece for all the political religious and commercial organizations; laugh when others laugh; cry when others cry; sigh when others die, and lie when bad men die; be a private regulator without giving private offense; have opinions that all will endorse; accomplish reforms without getting anybody riled; make money enough to pay off the hands; save enough for a rainy day, and then retire to a life of leisure and affluence, as publishers of country papers are wont to do. Any man who has never tried the job will tell you he could do it with one hand tied behind his back."

Experimental Farms

One of the wisest laws enacted by the 32nd, or any other Legislature, was the one which authorized the commissioners' court of any county to make an appropriation of not to exceed a thousand dollars to be used in farm experiment and demonstration work. Every county in Texas will make a good investment by appropriating the whole thousand dollars and demonstrating to the farmers what crops and what manner of cultivation will be most successful to local conditions and to educate the farmers to farm by the most improved methods and to discontinue the system of the long ago.

Some of the citizens are finding a lot of stray frogs in their fields since the rain and believe them to be part of the shipment from Missouri that got away on their arrival here, and have been catching chickens. Joe Kendall hasn't reported yet, but ought to be able to locate the stray frogs by the noise they make.

The picnic at Naylor Springs was not held yesterday because of so much rain. We regret the people had their trouble for nothing and trust they were repaid in part at least by the insurance of splendid crops which has been given by the rain.

Roasting ears are now getting "ripe," and with the vegetables coming on since the rain, and a lot of "yaller legged" chickens, farmers can live at home and "board at the same place."

Mr. Caldwell, staff correspondent of the Amarillo Daily News the leading daily of Texas Panhandle, was in town Tuesday. The News is printed about four every morning and reaches here on the 9:05 train about five hours from the time it is printed, making it a desirable paper. It is on the right side of every moral question, and is devoted to the interests of the whole Panhandle country.

Crop conditions are excellent in this section so far, and the indications are flattering for plenty of rain. The Panhandle farmer has cause to be proud of the fact that he has chosen this section in which to ply his avocation. Come to the Panhandle. You are invited.—McLean News.

Miss Matthews and Mrs. J. B. Ozier have formed a partnership for the coming season and have planned to open up a real Bon-Ton Millinery Establishment in our Hedley town. The old stand in Bond W. Johnson's store will be enlarged and fitted up especially for their work.

T. H. Kidd brought in a lot of Elberta peaches yesterday for which he found a ready sale. The peaches were extra large, showing that this is a fruit country as well as a corn and cotton country.

J. W. Bond went to Memphis Tuesday. He saw the temperance play, "The Drunkard's Wife," and pronounced it the finest he has ever seen.

PICNIC AUGUST TENTH.

THE TENTH MAN

"If a business proposition stood on the street corner, with hand extended, some men would not know enough to grasp it."—Mark Hanna.

If you suggest a good thing to ten men, this will happen:

Five of them will pass it by without serious thought. They are mortgaging their futures. Poor fellows, they are bound to fail.

The sixth man will agree that it is a good thing as long as you talk with him, but that is all. He will never act.

The seventh man will say the idea is a splendid one, but he is too busy—too many social functions to think about it now.

The eighth and ninth men will enthruse right away, but soon are "down and out". They lack "stickability"—the quality that wins.

The TENT MAN will be awake. He will see that it is a good thing, and will find time, or MAKE time, to use it. He will act upon it promptly, and get the benefits from it.

The result is that the TENTH MAN is usually found leading the others. In the shop or factory, the TENTH MAN is foreman or superintendent. In the store, the TENTH MAN is the manager or head of some department. In the office, the TENTH MAN is the chief clerk, head bookkeeper or secretary. Some call it luck which puts the TENTH MAN ahead of the others. He will say it is using opportunities and working hard. Garfield said that if the power to do work is not talent, it is the known substitute for it.

YOU can be a TENTH MAN. The TENTH MAN grasps the opportunity to educate himself. He commands good wages. The other nine do work that any ordinary man can do. The wages of the ordinary man command them. The TENTH MAN has pure GRIT.

Graduates of this school are TENTH MEN and women, because it takes GRIT to successfully master their courses. There is no "going across lots" to a good paying position. Those who think so and try it always find a big hedge-fence on the other side of the field.

Yes, a few of our students drop out when they can't spell a word or work a problem the first time. We are sorry for them, but they have no GRIT. Most, however, do have GRIT to stick until they win out. Occasionally one comes back; his GRIT has been sharpened by the whetstone of experience, and he becomes successful. Will you be a TENTH MAN or a TENTH WOMAN by grasping the opportunity offered by the BOWIE COMMERCIAL COLLEGE? Good board from $10 to $12 per calendar month. It can't be had for much less than twice this elsewhere.

OLD MAN
Sits in his figtree's shade, and he smokes his pipe, and he glances o'er the thrilling facts of the baseball score. He has no grief and he has no care and he just leans back in his rocking chair, and views the world with a cheerful smile, for his larder's full and he has his pile. The plan he followed you will endorse. He used to work like a bald-faced horse; he swung the axe and he plied the spade, and he knuckled down to the blacksmith's trade; wherever he worked in field or town, a part of his rubbles he salted down. He saw the folly of spendthrift men, and took to the bank a large brass yen; they burned their money as though 'twas punk, he took to the bank a big tin plunk. And now he sits in his figtree's shade and eats ice cream with a wooden spade, and people smile as they look at him; he's fat and sassy and full of vim. And where are the fellows who drew their wage and blew it in, in that bygone age? Do they lean back in their rocking chairs, serene and happy and free from cares? Have they their figtrees and stuff to eat? Oh, ask the copper that walks your beat.—Walt Mason.

COURTESY BETWEEN TELEPHONE USERS

Would you rush into an office or up to the door of a residence and blurt out "Hello! Hello! who am I talking to?" and then, when you received a reply, follow up your wild, discourteous salutation with "I don't want you; get out of my way. I want to talk with Mr. Jones." Would you? That is merely a sample of the impolite and impatient conversations that the telephone transmits many times a day.

There is a most agreeable mode of beginning a telephone conversation which many people are now adopting, because it saves useless words and is, at the same time, courteous and direct. It runs thus:

The telephone bell rings, and the person answering it says: "Morton & Company, Mr. Baker speaking." The person calling then says: "Mr. Wood, of Curtis & Sons, wishes to talk with Mr. White."

When Mr. White picks up the receiver, he knows Mr. Wood is on the other end of the line, and without any unnecessary and undignified "Hailoes," he at once greets him with the refreshingly courteous salutation: "Good morning, Mr. Wood." That savors of the genial handshake that Mr. Wood would have received had he called in person upon Mr. White.

Undoubtedly there would be a far higher degree of telephone courtesy, particularly in the way of reasonable consideration for the operators, if the "face-to-face" idea were more generally held in mind. The fact that a line of wire and two shining instruments separate you from the person with whom you are talking, takes none of the sting out of unkind words.

Telephone courtesy means answering the telephone as quickly as possible when the bell rings— not keeping the "caller" waiting until one gets good and ready to answer. Telephone courtesy, on party lines, means being polite when someone else unintentionally breaks in—not snapping, "Get off the line; I'm using it."

In a word, it is obviously true that that which is the correct thing to do in a face-to-face conversation, is also correct in a telephone conversation, and anyone has but to apply the rules of courtesy, prescribed long years before the telephone was first thought of, to know the proper manner for telephone usage. Be forbearing, considerate and courteous. Do over the telephone as you would do face to face.—X.

THE FARMER'S FORUM

The special agricultural feature of The News consists chiefly of contributions of subscribers, whose letters in a practical way voice the sentiment and experiences of its readers concerning matters of the farm, home and other subjects.

THE CENTURY PAGE

Published once a week, is a magazine of ideas of the home, every one the contribution of a woman reader of The News about farm life and matters of general interest to women.

THE CHILDREN'S PAGE

Is published once a week and is filled with letters from the boys and girls who read the paper.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION

One year, $1.00; six months, 50c; three months, 25c, payable invariably in advance. Remit by postal or express money order, bank check or registered letter.
