

WHITTLIN'

BY DOLPH MOTEN

So Lyndon Johnson the man we'd been backing for President of United States for past couple of years, is Democratic vice presidential nominee.

And that, we think, is a tremendous accomplishment.

Frankly, like a lot of other people, we had hoped that he would be the presidential nominee. And chances looked pretty good until things really started shaping up at convention site.

But after it was over, it seemed to us that our man was almost lucky to run as good a race as he did and especially to nab even the short end of the Democratic ticket.

Thing we like best about it now is that, according to the papers we've been reading, Johnson is so situated that he'll be the second most powerful individual in this country next year win, lose, or draw.

This is complicated, but here's the way we understand that second most powerful idea:

If the Democrats lose in the November election, Johnson is all but a cinch to be re-elected senator from Texas and thus hang on to his tremendously important senate majority leader post. With a Republican president and Democratic congress, majority leader is considered second most powerful.

On the other hand, if the Kennedy-Johnson ticket wins, Johnson is, of course, vice president, and this is considered second most powerful if there is a Democratic president and Democratic congress.

Can't-lose positions like that are the kind we like to play and we're happy to see one of our favorite politicians in that kind of position. You've heard the story about, "Don't put all your eggs in one basket..." It's not, of course, always possible to do that, but when it is, isn't it nice?

Whether we like it or not--and certainly we don't--our area is bordering on being insignificant when it comes to national politics.

While Johnson being named to the vice-presidency strengthened the party and will in all probability help the Democrats carry the South, we daresay that Johnson would have been the V-P nominee, because of his personal power, influence, and respect had he been a native of another section of the country.

We could be wrong on that point, of course, but we don't think we're far wrong at worst.

Addition of Johnson to the ticket made it a lot easier for a lot of good Southern, Southwestern, and Western voters to support the Demo ticket and like it. And we include ourselves in that group. We could have supported the ticket, of course, had their been a different vice president, but this makes it much, much easier to digest.

Now, let's get down to the part of this matter which has really stirred up a lot of talk on the local level: Kennedy's religion.

We've already said we're going to support the Democratic ticket. And we are. But if we weren't, we'd find us an excuse other than the presidential candidate's religion. There are many, many excuses we could use if we decided we wanted on the Republican side of the ballot. Religion wouldn't be one of them.

We agreed with a fellow here the other day who said, "Instead of complaining about the kind of religion Kennedy has, we'd better be thankful he has some."

There may be more truth than poetry there.

For more on this subject, we want to quote H. M. Baggarly, editor-publisher of The Tulla Herald, probably the most astute political writer of which any weekly newspaper can boast. While we don't always agree with our newspapering neighbor to the east, we wouldn't be quoting him here, if we didn't agree on this particular subject:

"Just for the sake of argument, let's assume that Senator Kennedy is seeking the presidency at the order of the Pope, that the Catholic church is seeking to exert its influence in

Board Considers, Rejects Tax Raise

WILL HAVE BAND--

School Starts August 29th

School will start here August 29, a Monday.

Announcement of the opening date was made by Superintendent Warren Morton following a school board meeting last week.

The board has agreed to hire a full-time band and music instructor for the coming term. As yet, no individual has been named to the post, but Morton says he has a prospect and feels the position will be filled soon.

Prospects for other teaching positions which are open in Bovina Schools are being considered and will likely be filled before long, the superintendent says.

"The situation looks much better than it did a few weeks ago," he says.

"Our biggest problem right now is finding a homemaking teacher," he points out.

Oklahoma Lane Farm Home Is Burglarized

The farm home of Earl Roberts near the Oklahoma Lane community was broken into last Wednesday and several hundred dollars worth of household goods were stolen.

The break-in occurred sometime between 11 a. m. and 1:30 last Wednesday. Entrance was gained by prying open the back door.

Two or more persons were involved, says Chas. Lovelace, Parmer County sheriff, who investigated the break-in. The thieves carried off a record player, jewelry, a mix-master, an electric percolator, luggage, clothes and silverware.

Roberts discovered the burglary when he returned to his home late in the evening. A farm hand had been working around the home all day except during the lunch hour. That is when the break-in must have occurred.

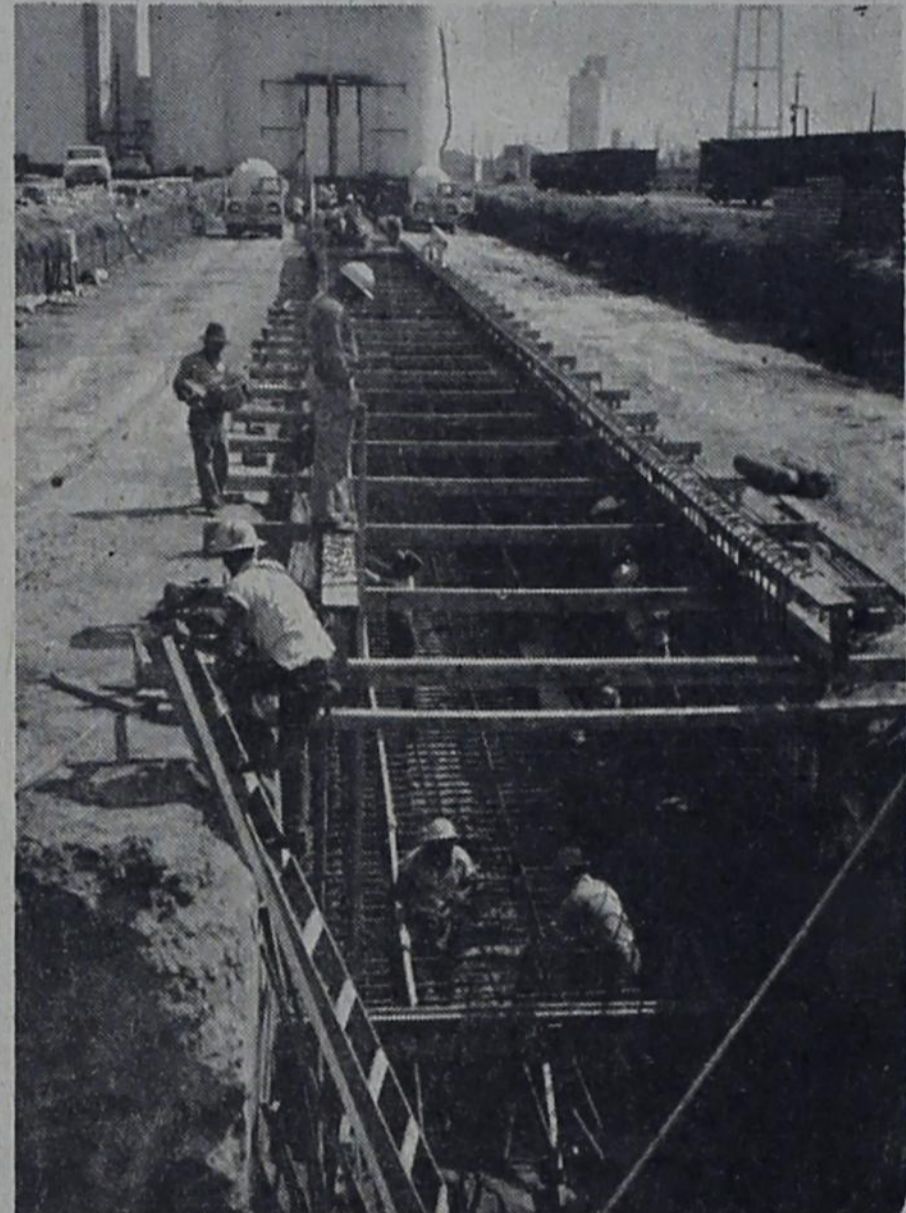

The sheriff's department was still investigating the case early this week.

In other action by the sheriff's department last week, George Kelley, 54, of Clovis, was arrested in Friona and charged on a DWI. He was tried by County Judge Loyde A. Brewer Thursday and fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

Mrs. John Ferguson was released from Parmer County Community Hospital at Friona Wednesday. She was suffering from food poisoning.

Mrs. Weldon Moody underwent surgery at Parmer County Hospital in Friona Tuesday afternoon. She was released Monday and is reported to be doing well.

THE BIG DITCH--Men work on the steel reinforcing on one end of the tunnel while trucks pour cement in the other end.

Increased Costs Cramp Budget

To raise or not to raise...

That's the problem with which members of school board have been confronted the past week.

A decision was reached Tuesday morning of this week to leave the tax structure as it is for one more year. The group decided that it would be possible to operate during '60-'61 without going into the red with the present amount of money which is available, according to Superintendent Warren Morton.

In a pair of meetings last week, the board discussed the financial situation and inspected maintenance and improvements which need to be made to school facilities.

These things plus increased costs for teachers and teaching supplies cramped the present budget.

Included in the improvements which will be made are:

1. A facelift for Willford Gym including sanding and refinishing of the floor.
2. Improvements for the bus shop.
3. Repairs and improvements for teacherages.
4. Some minor repairs on main buildings.

"We feel sure taxes will have to be raised next year," Morton points out, "but it was the opinion of the board that it would be possible to operate this coming year under our present set-up."

Gin Planned

Interested farmers in the Hub community have set a meeting to discuss possibilities of a community or co-op gin in that area. It will be next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the community center. All interested parties are urged to attend.

CONSTRUCTION!--

Work On Elevator Swings Into Motion

WHO'S NEXT... trucks wait their turn at the cement loader.

Construction is in full swing on an addition to Sherley Grain Co. in Bovina that will give the mammoth elevator one and one-half million bushels more storage capacity.

The elevator, once the largest in the area, will have a total capacity of almost six million bushels. It will still rank second in size to the firm's elevator at Lariat, which boasts well over six million bushels storage space.

Chalmers and Borton Construction Co. of Hutchinson, Kan. has the building contract.

The addition will include some 75 hexagon-shaped (six-sided) tanks. A spokesman for the elevator said the new tanks will be completed in time for milo harvest this fall.

Tons of heavy equipment were attacking the task this week, with cement being poured in the foundation tunnel.

SUMMER VACATION SCHOOL---St. Ann's Church in Bovina is holding annual vacation school during last two weeks in July. Classes are from 9 until 2 each day with recess periods and a picnic at noon. Ladies of the church are serving soft drinks to the children at lunch. Shown here are some of the 50 children preparing to begin a day's study.

Tax Board Will Meet

Citizens will have a chance to air tax complaints Monday when the city board of equalization meets in city hall.

The three-man board will be in session from 9 a. m. to five p. m. to hear any taxpayer who has business with the board.

Members of the board are L. M. Grissom, A. B. Wilkinson and W. L. Venable.

The meeting is held annual as prescribed by law. Usually the board has little business to handle when there is no change in tax structure.

An advertisement in this issue announces the session.

Youth Activity Week Proclaimed Success

Youth Activity Week at Bovina Methodist Church came to an end Friday evening after a week of varied activity.

Approximately 40 was the attendance each evening, and directors proclaimed the meeting a success.

Adult director in charge of the organization and planning was Miss Mardell Moore. Patsy Richards was youth director. Other adults helping with the activities were Rev. Davis Edens, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hastings and Mrs. Paul Lloyd.

Activities included planned recreation, worship, programs and dinners each evening.

Sunday evening the group enjoyed a deputation team from Lubbock, they presented the program "Man's Needs" which included discussion on love, work, play and worship. W. S. C. S. served homemade ice cream and cake.

Monday the group had a hay-ride and wicker roast, courtesy of Men's Class. They sang songs around a campfire for recreation and had a program titled "Man's Need. When Tragedy Strikes." Tuesday, Women's Class hosted the group with a ham 'n' trimmings dinner followed by the program "Man's Need in Family Life."

Wednesday evening, M. Y. F. Sub-district meeting was held in connection with the activities. They had a panel discussion presented by several local college students which included Phil Caldwell, Danny Morton, Janice Richards and Mardell Moore. They discussed "Students Need for God in College". M. Y. F. furnished a sandwich supper. A record attendance of 82 was recorded.

Thursday evening, Friendship Class served spaghetti preceding the program, "The World's Need for God".

Friday evening, re-dedication services highlighted the week long activities. The program was presented by Grady McCullough of Eastern New Mexico University, who is with the Methodist student center there. The program was "Bovina's Need for God". Hammonds Class served fried chicken to the group.

Gospel Meetings Set At Lazbuddie

William F. Walker, evangelist, has been invited by the Lazbuddie Church of Christ to conduct a series of gospel meetings nightly beginning Monday, July 25, through August 3, at the Church of Christ in Lazbuddie.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN--

Chief Plans Mock Fires For Training

Volunteer firemen will adopt a new training program. It will have a simulated fire alarm for each meeting, with only the fire chief and property owner involved knowing whether the alarm is real.

Fire Chief O. M. Hammonds said the alarm will be pre-arranged with the property owner who will call during a regular firemen meeting.

Hammonds said the new plan is designed to promote interest in the training program both for firemen and for the general public.

"I have talked with several citizens and they have agreed to participate. We will not damage property but merely go through the motions of getting there and fighting the fire," Hammonds said.

"It is a difficult problem to keep interest up in fire drills," Hammonds said.

"We have to have something new for each meeting and with this program, we feel interest will be maintained because the program will be changing."

The firemen are required to meet twice each month for two meetings totaling four hours.

"Firemen's Training School is an excellent place to get new ideas and thereby keep up interest in our own training program," the chief continued.

"But we were unable to supply anyone from the department who could make the trip."

The new training plan will time the firemen from the instant they receive the alarm until they reach the mock fire scene and have gone through the procedures.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Willard and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ware returned recently from vacationing at Lake Texhoma.

Wills Accepts Post

Bob Wills, former head coach of Bovina High School, will assume a similar position in New Deal Schools.

New Deal is a Class B school located near Lubbock.

Wills was head football and basketball mentor and his cage teams won several tournaments and district championships during his tenure here.

His basketball team finished second in district last year.

Wills will replace Paul Drake as head coach. Mel Williams, a recent graduate of Texas Tech College, will be his assistant and coach girls' basketball.

New Deal will play three non-conference foes that Bovina will meet. They are Amherst, Springlake and Lazbuddie.

"They won the district year before last then lost most of their boys for last year. We will have nearly everyone back from last year and I think the material will be pretty good," Wills said, "especially for basketball."

Wills, his wife and their young son will move to New Deal about August 1.

MRS. RAMEY BRANDON

Murphy, Brandon Wed Saturday In Dumas

Miss Suzanne Murphy of Dumas became the bride of Ramey Joel Brandon of Bovina, in a candlelight ceremony Saturday solemnized in sanctuary of First Christian Church in Dumas.

Rev. Jeff Hassell performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy of Dumas while her husband is son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brandon, Jr. of Bovina.

The sanctuary was decorated with an archway of salal leaves with pedestal baskets of white stock, salal leaves and jade foliage. Graduated candelabra on each side of the arch provided the background setting. Three tiered arrangements of salal and candles graced the windows on either side of the church.

Mrs. Ivan Boxwell furnished the nuptial prelude which included Leibstraum - Liszt, "At Dawning," "Clare de Lune," "Romance" and "O Promise Me." Traditional marches were used.

Miss Nickl Woefel, of Bovina, soloist, sang "Because," and the "Wedding Prayer," and the sister of the groom, Miss Marilyn Brandon, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Candlelighters were Janet Wells of Dumas and Nancy Wherry of Amarillo, cousins of the bride. They wore dresses of aqua organdy over taffeta. Their headpieces were nose veils of aqua net fastened to blossoms. They wore wristlets of pink rose buds.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Mike Salm of Dumas. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Ramon Murphy of Roswell, N. M. sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Brandon, sister of the groom, Mrs. Alaire Bowen of Midland, and Miss Louise Womble, Stinnett.

Attendants wore identical gowns of aqua organdy over taffeta fashioned with scoop neckline and brief sleeves of white embroidered organdy. From the fitted bodice flowed a waltz length skirt highlighted with unpressed pleats from sides to center back. Bands of white embroidered organdy graced the hemline which dipped slightly in the back. Matching sprays of blossoms held the circular head bands. They carried cascade bouquets of white roses.

Attending the groom were Julius Bradshaw of Lubbock and Billy Richards of Bovina.

Ushers were Melvin Kohler of Dumas, Danny Morton of Bovina and Darwin Hilliard of Lubbock.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a gown of imported tulle designed with a yoke of Alencon lace extending over the shoulders to form brief sleeves. A circular band of lace held the gathered tulle that formed the chapel train. Seed pearls and sequins highlighted the double crown that held her finger tip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white orchids sent to her from Hawaii by a friend of the family, Steve Pool.

Mother of the bride wore a Swiss cotton embroidered sheath dress in shades of grey. Her accessories included a half hat of two-tone grey novelty straw and other accessories of white. She wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

Mother of the groom chose a champagne lace two piece dress with bone accessories and a pink hat. Her corsage was of yellow rose buds.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in church parlor. The table was laid with a Madeira embroidered cloth with the bride's bouquet centering the table surrounded by the bouquets of the bridesmaids. Miss Nita Beth Estes of Bovina poured and Miss Patsy Quillin of Houston cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Miss Lana Floyd of Dumas presided at the guest register.

The bride's traveling ensemble was a beige shirtwaist dress of Italian raw silk with a hat of beige imported veiling and bone accessories. A corsage of gardenias graced her ensemble. Following a trip to New Mexico and Colorado the couple will reside at 2317 Auburn, Lubbock.

Miss Murphy is a graduate of Dumas High School, member of Quill and Scroll, Spanish Honor Society, annual staff, F. T. A. and Girls Chorus, president of Century-ette Study Club, and editor of paper. She will be a sophomore at Texas Tech this fall and is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority.

The groom is a graduate of Bovina High School, member of Press and Science club, annual staff, FFA, editor of paper, president of freshman and junior classes and president of Student Council. He lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He will be a sophomore at Texas Tech this fall and is a member of the baseball team.

Out-of-town guests included Ralph Kunselman, Albuquerque; Mr. and Mrs. Carol Chaloupka, Dalhart; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wherry and family, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Boydston, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephens, Matador; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Woefel, Bovina; Mrs. Lorene Hallenburger and Miss Dorothy Hallenburger, Portales; Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Murphy, and Kathleen, Roswell; Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Middlebrooks, Amarillo; Mrs. Tyler Harrison and girls, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, and Randy, Bovina; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Estes, and Nita Beth, Bovina; Terry Burnett, Lubbock; Miss Nancy Hatton, Amarillo; and Mrs. Bobby Schuman, DeLeon.

Other members of the house party were Miss Leota Wells, Dumas; Mrs. Gerald Wherry, Amarillo; Mrs. Tyler Harrison, Houston; aunts of the bride; Mrs. R. O. McMurry and Mrs. W. A. Ball both of Dumas, Alvin and Doris Glasscock entered the real estate business in 1954 as partners with Dean Bingham at Hub. Two years later, they opened real estate and insurance offices in Bovina's Bank Building, where they are presently located. The Glasscocks started the insurance agency from the ground floor. It was and is their aim to write policies for companies that give fast and fair adjustments. Their companies are staunch, old-line firms that operate on a national basis. With this attitude toward insurance, and the experience in real estate, the two agencies have progressed rapidly. Real estate service given by the firm is dependable and buyers and sellers who want to make swift transactions they will be proud of, list with Alvin Glasscock. Bovina Real Estate and Insurance cooperates with other agencies so their listings are seen by many buyers. From '56 to '60, progress has come swiftly and steadily to Bovina's top real estate and insurance people. The Glasscocks will continue to progress with Bovina. Alvin Glasscock was born in Greenville and attended Floyd High School. He came to Parmer Co. nine years ago. He is married to the former Doris Jones and they have three boys, Kent, 18, Mac, 15, and Ronnie, 13. Alvin is a member of Baptist church, is a Deacon and a teacher of Junior Boys.

politics. Let's assume the worst.

"Pray tell, what power does the President have to tamper with religious liberty? What could a President do to interfere with religious liberty? After all, Congress might have something to say about that."

"Secondly, should a Catholic President be elected, all the Protestant world would be breathing down his neck, seeking some indication that he was about to thrust a knife into the back of Protestantism."

"Protestants are in the majority in this country and should Kennedy make the slightest gesture against them or religious freedom, he would be kicked out at the next election. After all, we still elect a president every four years--and at most, Kennedy could not be in office more than eight years."

If Kennedy made the slightest effort to change the traditional church and state separation principle, he would be kicked out and we wouldn't have another Catholic nominee for the next 100 years.
"In the first place, we believe Kennedy to be an honorable man and we think he has given us evidence that he would never mix religion and politics. After all, as a Senator, Kennedy has several times voted against federal aid to parochial schools."
Already we're hearing discussion after discussion concerning Kennedy's religion. And not in any of the discussions, except where we mentioned it ourselves, has the relationship between the presidency and religion been mentioned.
And according to Texas' senior senator, LBJ now means, "Let's Back Jack!"

SURE, I PAY TAXES!

I'M A FARMER--A RESPECTED CITIZEN, NOT A TAX DODGER. MY LAND, HOME, MACHINERY, AND BUSINESS ARE AN OPEN BOOK. THAT GOES FOR THE BUSINESS OF THE COOPERATIVES THROUGH WHICH I BUY SUPPLIES AND MARKET CROPS. THIS IS THE BUSINESS FOR WHICH MY NEIGHBORS AND I HAVE BEEN UNFAIRLY CRITICIZED BY SOME BUSINESSMEN... SOME WRITERS... SOME SPEAKERS... AND SOME MEN IN PUBLIC OFFICE.

LET'S LOOK AT THE FACTS

When you hear someone say cooperatives don't pay taxes, just remember that the charge is directed straight at me. I am the key figure in my cooperatives. I am member and patron... owner and customer.

My cooperatives--the ones that market for me and the ones that provide me with supplies--are off-the-farm extensions of my business. They are departments of my business. I own them just as any big industrial concern owns its sales department and its purchasing department.

Marketing cooperatives are the only thing we farmers have to give us a voice in markets that are dominated by non-farm interests.

Our supply cooperatives are our purchasing departments. They give us some leverage against those who would jack up prices on things we farmers must buy to run our farms--fertilizer, feed, gasoline, etc. My co-ops help me cut expenses. They are a form of self-help--self-help without government intervention.

When people say cooperatives don't pay taxes, they are talking about me--about my business--my farming business.

My cooperatives pay all local and state taxes--at full rates--on real and personal property. My cooperatives also pay income taxes at the regular corporate rate on all income kept permanently in the business.

The tax issue has been raised by competitors who would like to prevent farmers from buying and selling through their own cooperatives. These competitors have magnified the tax situation all out of proportion. Their underlying motive is not to find taxes for the federal treasury; it is simply to keep farmers from working with their neighbors to save a little money. We farmers know that. We think our city friends ought to know it, too.

YES, CO-OPS DO PAY TAXES

In 1959 tax payments by Consumers Cooperative Association, Kansas City, Mo., amounted to $2,984,971.00 and the 1700 retail associations that make up membership of CCA paid an estimate $8,770,000.00 including $2,769,000.00 in federal income taxes.
