1886 BALES COTTON GINNED IN HEDLEY

Up to Wednesday morning of this week the four local gins had turned out 1886 bales of cotton, this being a considerable increase over any previous week's receipts so far this season,—an average of 120 bales a day.

With practically all the community (not otherwise engaged in necessary duties) at work in the cotton patch, it is expected that this week and next will show still larger increases—weather permitting.

We have Bracks Fresh Candies Chocolate Coated Peanuts, and Butter Creams.

FALL TERM DISTRICT COURT IN SESSION

The fall term of District Court for Donley county convened at Clarendon last Monday morning, Judge Fries presiding. A number of Hedley people have been in Clarendon this week because of same,—some for jury service, others for other reasons.

On the docket are six criminal cases seven divorce cases, with the civil and appearance dockets about as usual.

Unless the grand jury turns in an unusual amount of business the work for this term promises to be light.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—One good four wheel Tractor, with good rubber.

W. E. Lawson, Hedley.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. R. O Shannon, Wednesday, Oct 19th, a fine ten pound boy.

SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED FOR COTTON PICKING

The Hedley schools closed last Friday for a period of two weeks in order that the pupils might assist in gathering the cotton crop. Should the weather remain favorable throughout the period, much of the crop will be harvested by that time.

This was a wise step, we believe, as it is imperative that this crop be gathered without importing outside labor. With an "all home talent" arrangement the monetary returns will hardly be overwhelming in dimension—though we promise not to feel too badly if forced to admit error in this statement.

J. CLAUDE WELLS IN TRACTOR ACCIDENT

J. Claude Wells, former publisher of the Wellington Leader and the Memphis Democrat, who recently turned "dirt" farmer, is at the home of relatives, at 702 Kentucky St., recovering from injuries received Friday when a tractor and wheat drill ran over him on his farm in Moore county.

Physicians said today that three broken ribs constituted Wells' most serious injury in his narrow escape from death, although he is suffering from many bruises and minor cuts.

The accident occurred when Wells left his moving tractor to look over the work being done by the drill. When he tried to regain his seat on the tractor, he lost his footing and became entangled in one wheel. After freeing himself from the tractor wheel he was knocked down by a wheel of the heavy drill and it passed over his body—Monday's Amarillo News.

Mr. Wells, a former prominent citizen of Hedley, has numerous friends here who deeply regret this accident, but are rejoicing that his injuries are not more serious.

I WILL RUN MY BINDER this Fall. Will cut anywhere, at any time, at customary prices.

The Spread of Power Is the Spread of Industry

What does it mean when electric power is distributed widely over the countryside to small towns and farms? Such is the task that has been accomplished by the building of far-flung power lines in the past twenty years. What is its effect?

It means that industry can operate as efficiently in small communities as in the large cities. It means a better distribution of industrial activities with an improvement of working conditions and a reduction in manufacturing costs.

Industry is following the power lines to the small community . . . and here in West Texas the "Land of Opportunity," the West Texas Utilities Company is leading industries to the 125 progressive cities and towns dependably served from its 2,500-mile transmission line network.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprising low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

News Review of Current Events the World Over

Porto Rico Devastated by a Hurricane—Gandhi's Fast Ends in Victory—De Valera Tells League of Nations What Ails It.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

ONCE again the "storm of San Eusebio" came out of the southern Atlantic ocean on the feast day of that saint and swept across Porto Rico as it did in 1928, leaving a terrible trail of death and destruction. For hours the hurricane raged, tearing down buildings, ruining the coffee and fruit crops and killing and maiming the people of the unhappy island. Gov. James R. Beverley thought the dead would number well over two hundred and the injured more than a thousand. The property damage has not been estimated but it certainly will run into many millions of dollars. Broken communication lines and roads blocked by debris made the gathering of accurate information slow. Before reaching Porto Rico the storm struck the Virgin Islands, killing 15 persons, sinking many vessels and wrecking buildings. Later it hit Haiti and Santo Domingo.

Most of the fatalities in Porto Rico were in the country districts, for the authorities of San Juan, forewarned, placed many hundreds of the residents in the solidly built schools and churches. The property losses in the city, however, were heavy, especially on the ocean front. Governor Beverley was prompt in starting relief machinery. He formed an emergency committee and placed ample insular funds in its hands. By his order the police impressed into service prisoners in all the jails, letting them work without guards at clearing the roads and streets and reopening communication facilities. The governor of course reported the conditions immediately to Washington and the Red Cross ordered its chief supply officer to the island and sent a destroyer with medical supplies.

MAHATMA GANDHI'S "fast unto death" won a striking victory for the little old Hindu holy man, for the caste Hindus and the untouchables, hurrying to save his life, agreed upon a compromise electoral plan that was fairly satisfactory to Gandhi. It was hastily accepted by Prime Minister MacDonald and the British cabinet, and thereupon the mahatma broke his fast with a few sips of a lime concoction. For more than six days he had partaken of nothing but water with salt or soda in it, and the physicians at Yeravda jail said he could not have survived much longer.

The compromise plan provides that 148 seats in provincial legislatures be held by the depressed classes and that a percentage of seats in the central legislature be reserved for them. It also provides a system of primary elections. These special features are to end after ten years. In accepting this plan, the British government pointed out that some details still remained under consideration. The official statement said this did not imply opposition by the government.

Gandhi, though born a caste Hindu, has been making his fight for the depressed classes, and it is possible that his victory may lead to revolutionary changes in their treatment. However, some authorities declare that the gulf between the four castes and the untouchables is of too many generations' standing to be wiped out in a day or two, even by the ukase of religious leaders.

WHEN the League of Nations assembly opened its thirteenth annual session in Geneva, Eamon de Valera, President of the Irish Free State, was in the chair as president of the league council, and he took the opportunity to tell what he thought of the league and its failures. He spoke without restraint, telling his gloomy hearers that the league had lost the world's confidence because it had not boldly tackled the major problems that came before it, notably the situation in the Far East and the question of disarmament. "People are complaining that the league is devoting its activity to matters of secondly interest while vital international problems of the day are being shelved or ignored," he continued. "People are saying that equality of states does not apply here in things that matter. "People are becoming impatient at the apparently meager face-saving results of successive league conferences and meetings. They are inquiring whether these conferences justify the burden of contributions to the league's budget. Finally there is the suspicion that little more than lip service is paid to the fundamental principles on which the league was founded.

There is a suspicion that action by the league in the economic sphere is paralyzed by pressure of powerful national interests and that if a hand is raised against the covenant sufficiently strong it can smite with impunity." His last obvious allusion to Japanese controlled Manchuria was followed by a warning that the only way to silence criticism of the league is "to show unmistakably that the covenant is a solemn pact of obligations which no state will find it possible to ignore."

In a statement, he also declared, was a bluff and a bluff. The Lausanne conference on reparations, he admitted, was a mild success, but he made it clear it was not the fault of the league. Nicholas Politis of Greece was elected as the president of the assembly. What that body would find to do was uncertain. The reception and discussion of the league's commission on Manchuria already had been postponed for at least two weeks at the behest of Japan, and the statesmen were not agreed even upon the establishment of disarmament, financial and economic commissions.

To make matters worse, the steadfast refusal of Germany to take part in the sessions of the disarmament conference effectively stopped up that august international body for the time being. The steering committee in a quarrelsome secret meeting considered the demand of Arthur Henderson for immediate convocation of the general conference and then announced it had adjourned until October 10.

DEMOCRATS now are in control of the United States senate, outnumbering the Republicans by one. This comes about through the appointment of Walter Walker by Gov. William H. Adams of Colorado to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Charles W. Waterman. So the upper house now has 48 Democrats, 19 Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite. There was uncertainty as to whether the new man would serve in the lame duck session of congress or only until a successor to Waterman is elected November 8.

BOTH the Republicans and the Democrats professed to have high hopes of carrying Iowa in the Presidential election, but their claims are unsettled by the announcement of Senator Smith W. Brookhart that he will be in the race for the senate in the "progressive" party, expecting to draw support from both the major parties. His decision came three months after his defeat in the Republican primary by Henry Field. He admittedly has a large following among the Iowa Republicans, especially in the rural districts. The Democrats had expected that Brookhart would follow the example of his brother progressive Republican Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, and come out flatly for Franklin D. Roosevelt for President.

JOHN SHOUSE, former executive chairman of the Democratic national committee, gave the California Democrats a shock by the announcement that Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, of which he is president, would support Tallant Tubbs, Republican nominee for senator from that state, rather than William G. McAdoo, the Democratic choice. Shouse said that McAdoo had not made his position clear on the prohibition question. He stated also that the association feared the cause of prohibition repeal might be retarded or embarrassed by the election of McAdoo. It therefore urged, he said, the California advocates of prohibition to support Tubbs.

FOES of President Machado of Cuba reopened their campaign of assassination, their victim being Dr. Clemente, president of the senate, leader of the Liberal party and the man slated to succeed Machado at the head of the government. Seven men in an automobile fired five volleys from a machine gun at Bello as he was leaving his home, and he was struck and killed by eleven bullets. His chauffeur also was mortally wounded. Within a few hours alleged government agents had retaliated by slaying three prominent oppositionists, Dr. Ricardo Arango, and Representative Gonzalo Andrade and his two brothers. A fourth leader of the Conservatives, Miguel Aguilar, was fatally wounded.

HOW to arrange the financing by the Reconstruction Finance corporation of the sale of 15,000,000 or more bushels of northwestern wheat to China has been taking the attention of President Hoover and the interested federal agencies. Negotiations have been opened with China and though the final arrangements had not been made, it was said in Shanghai that the deal was practically assured. It involves about $3,000,000 in gold.

The grain involved in the proposal would come from producers of the Northwest on whom shipping costs have borne heavily. The relief act authorized the Reconstruction Finance corporation to make loans for financing foreign sales of surplus agricultural products where they "cannot be financed in the normal course of commerce" and where they will not "affect adversely the world markets for such products."

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S famous crowl is being put to use quite often these days. The latest occasion was the laying of the cornerstone of the new $10,000,000 post office building on Pennsylvania avenue. With Mrs. Hoover an interested spectator and hundreds of others gathered about, Mr. Hoover wielded the tool that the Father of his Country used in laying the cornerstone of the Capitol in 1793. He slapped on the mortar and the stone was swung into place, a real unson tested the block with his level and pronounced it truly laid. Postmaster General Brown told the crowd that the day was the one hundred and forty-third anniversary of the founding of the postal service, Senator Smoot spoke briefly, and the President then delivered an address dwelling on the function of the postal service in the making of the nation.

FIVE eminent citizens have agreed to act as a commission which will "survey the transportation situation in this country" and report such recommendations for relief and betterment as may appear wise to them. The commission is sponsored by the National Association of Mutual Banks, and the announcement of its creation was made by Walter Bennett, New York banker, on behalf of the association. Calvin Coolidge, former President, is chairman of the commission; and the other members are Bernard M. Baruch, financier and railway director; Alfred E. Smith, former governor of New York; Clark Howell, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, and Alexander Legge, president of the International Harvester company and former chairman of the farm board.

The commission is the result of mobilization of virtually every bank, insurance company, and major business association in the country for a concerted effort to convince congress of the imperative necessity of immediate legislation to protect the financial foundations of the railroad industry. Its survey will include all the transportation facilities of the nation, including buses, trucks, pipe lines and other carriers, as well as the railways.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Railway Labor Executives' association called on President Hoover, asking administration intervention in the matter of the proposed railway wage reductions which they opposed "at a time when there are some hopeful signs that the depression may have run its course." Mr. Hoover also talked with railway president and Secretary of Labor Donoh, and the latter then issued a statement that the President felt it was desirable that the question should be deferred until the end of the year, since the present wage agreement does not expire until February 1.

GREAT BRITAIN'S national government, formed last October to meet the financial crisis, experienced its first break when three of the most important Liberal and Labor members of MacDonald's cabinet resigned. Their action followed a disagreement over the tariff proposals approved at the recent empire conference in Ottawa. The ministers who quit, stating these proposals were incompatible with their free trade principles, were Viscount Snowden of Ickneshaw, lord privy seal, former leader of the Labor party, and Sir Herbert Samuel, home secretary, and Sir Archibald Sinclair, secretary for Scotland.

Sir John Gilmour was moved from minister of agriculture to home secretary and his former portfolio was given to Maj. Walter Elliot. Sir Godfrey Collins took Sinclair's place. The Simon Liberals in the house still support MacDonald.

NOTABLE among the deaths of the week was that of John Sharp Williams, former senator from Mississippi. He was seventy-eight years old and had been ill for months. Williams was known for his scholarship and his biting sarcastic political oratory.

PRESIDENT HOOVER appointed Representative Charles R. Crisp of Georgia as a member of the tariff commission to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lincoln Dixon of Indiana. Crisp was defeated for the senatorship nomination in the Democratic primary and so is classed as a lame duck. However, his appointment will not be criticized because of his long and able services in the house.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas.

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Donley County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded that you summon by making publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the county of Donley, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, Administrator (if there is one) of the estate of Ethel Rutherford Hays, and All Heirs of Ethel Rutherford Hays, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. 100th District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the county of Donley on the third Monday in October, the same being the 17th day of October, 1932, at the court house thereof in Clarendon, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court, on the 11th day of October, A. D. 1932, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1770, wherein C. C. Powell, Administrator of the estate of J. H. Rutherford, deceased, is plaintiff and Business Men's Assurance Company of America, of Kansas City, Mo., defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to wit:

This defendant asks that due Process be issued for the Administrator of the estate of Ethel Rutherford Hays, B. L. Hays, and all unknown heirs of Ethel Rutherford Hays, requiring them to appear and answer herein, and that they, together with plaintiff, be decreed to interplead among themselves their rights or claims to the money due under said policy and deposit in this Court, as per order of this Court: That the above parties, or either of them, whoever has possession of said policy, be ordered and decreed to deliver up and surrender policy No. 184002 of the Business Men's Assurance Company of America, issued to Ethel Rutherford Hays, to the Clerk of this Court for delivery to the defendant upon the final determination of this cause, and that a decree be entered cancelling this policy and relieving the defendant from further liability under said contract of insurance.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Clarendon, this the 11th day of October, A. D. 1932.

"PROVED by the GUILLOTINE—the Safest tire ever built"

HELLO EVERYBODY, Floyd Gibbons speaking. I've just watched an execution. They're using the Guillotine in the good old U. S. A.!

Howdy! Those Safety Searchers at Goodrich took me down into a darksome pit at the bottom of an abandoned elevator shaft.

There was an Executioner's Block down there. Above it was the wickedest-looking piece of machinery I want to see. The Guillotine!

Instead of a blade, the business-end of it was a blunt steel spike. On the block—instead of my neck, thank you—they put a Goodrich Safety Silvertown Tire. Blown up to normal pressure.

They cranked this heavy Executioner's Ax till I could hardly see it—they said it was only 50 feet above us, but it looked a hundred. Then they let her go.

She came down like chain lightning—BAM! Steel above, steel below. Nothing between but that tire full of air.

BAM!—but that was just the sound of the Guillotine hitting the tire. We rushed forward to look. Air still in the tire. Hardly a mark on it!

So they tried it again from 60 feet. BAM! Same result. No blowout. No damage.

They were certainly determined, these Goodrich safety seekers. They dropped the heavy weighted, death-dealing instrument 75 feet—and this time the air came out. Not a real blowout, at that. Just a gentle wheeze—a slow dying groan.

They convinced ME!

But what a test! Zowie! I would have sworn no tire ever made would stand up under half the punishment this one took. That's why they say the Safety Silvertown is the safest tire ever built.

They convinced me! Then they told me some more real news—this Safety Silvertown sells at the price of any standard tire!

"THE BLUNT STEEL SPIKE came down like chain lightning—BAM! Steel above, steel below. Nothing between but that tire full of air!"

Goodrich states its position on prices

As you read tire advertisements emphasizing price, bear this fact in mind:

Goodrich has provided its dealers with greater values in each price class—Safety Silvertowns, Cavaliers and Commanders. Size for size—quality for quality—Goodrich dealers will never be undersold.

Goodrich tire prices begin at $3.55 each (in pairs).

"I'M FOR THIS LEAGUE, TOO! Here's something: The Silvertown Safety League. It gives me driving rules to follow—for safety. It gives me an emblem for my car. I joined up! Any Goodrich dealer will enroll you, they tell me."

STUDY CLUB MEMBERS ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS

The members of the 1919 Study
 Club entertained their husbands Tuesday evening, October 18, in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson.

The Hallowe'en colors were carried out in the many vases of cut flowers placed about the rooms.

After a number of games of progressive forty-two, delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, pumpkin pie, coffee and home made candies were served to: Dr and Mrs J.
 W. Webb, Mr and Mrs, Louis
 Thompson, Mr and Mrs. W. D.
 Franklin, Mr and Mrs Will Noel, Mr and Mrs L. Spalding,
 Mr. and Mrs. Alva Simmons,
 Mr. and Mrs. Rancy Westberry,
 Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Moffitt,
 Mr and Mrs E. R. Hooker, Mr and Mrs Ed Kinselow, Mr and Mrs Frank Kendall, and Mrs
 P. V. Dishman

This was the Annual Social of the Club, and to the social committee, of which Mrs. Moffitt is chairman, and to the host and hostess, all are indebted for a very pleasant evening.

UNCLE GEORGE CASH PASSED AWAY FRIDAY

G. R. (Uncle George) Cash, for many years a good citizen of this town, whose serious illness has been chronicled in the Informer the past few weeks, died Friday night of last week at his home at Gentry, Arkansas. He was 74 years old.

His many Hedley friends are grieved because of the death of this good man, and will join us in sincerely sympathizing with the bereaved family.

His daughter, Mrs. C. W. Williams of Hedley, with two of her children, spent the past three weeks at Gentry. Mr. Williams has gone after them, and possibly some others of the family will return with them for a visit.

METHODISTS HOLD A GET-TOGETHER MEETING

At the Methodist Church on Wednesday night, in which the entire membership was invited to participate, a general discussion of the church problems was had, preparatory to closing up the year's work.

Rev. M. M. Beavers, Presiding
 Elder, will hold his fourth quarterly meeting at the church next Sunday.

Only two more weeks remain until Annual Conference, and those present pledged their best efforts to close up this year's work and plan for the future.

Notice to Contributors

The Informer wants to print all the news, and appreciates your co-operation in its efforts to do that. But we must have all contributions in hand by 4 p. m.
 Wednesday. Lengthy articles should reach us earlier. This is not an arbitrary rule, but simply a necessity if we are to issue the paper on time—and our advertise-
