SHERIFF SAYS: NO BEER FOR DONLEY

Sheriff Guy Pierce and Deputy Guy Wright were here the first of the week. Sheriff Pierce says many inquiries are reaching his office in regard to beer after Sept 15 and he wishes to let the people know that the law will not be changed in Donley county, and it will still be unlawful to ship beer into this county for any purpose.

Beer may be shipped by truck through the county, but the truck driver must have bill of lading showing that the shipment originated in wet territory and that its destination is also wet territory.

But the law forbids shipping of beer into Donley county for any purpose, and he says the sheriff's office will make every effort to enforce the law.

AMAZING NEW TIRE WILL SAVE LIVES

No Extra Cost to Public. Come in and See the New Silvertown

THIS year thousands will be killed or injured by accidents due to blow-outs. Will you be one of them? Not if you use this new kind of tire... this tire that makes you 3 times safer from blow-outs at high speeds.

Today's high speeds—40, 50, 60 and 70—cause terrific heat INSIDE the tire. This heat causes rubber and fabric to separate. A blister forms... and grows bigger and bigger... until BANG! A blow-out! And you're headed for trouble or worse.

To protect you from blow-outs, every new Goodrich Safety Silvertown Tire has the amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply. This new invention resists heat... rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form inside the tire. The CAUSE of blow-outs is eliminated beforehand.

The best part of this good news is that you don't have to pay a single penny extra for this Golden Ply protection. Thanks to the Goodrich crusade to save lives, we can give you this new Safety Silvertown for the same price as any other standard tire.

Why take chances? That blister... that blow-out in the making... may be in your tires right now. Come in today.

ROADSIDE MARKETING

By T. J. Delohery

TOURISTS A CASH CROP

THAT the tourist is a profitable customer for farm products is a fact that has been discovered by thousands of farm women in the Mountain State.

In West Virginia, the tourist trade is a big business. The state's scenic beauty, its historic landmarks, and its numerous state parks attract thousands of tourists each year. These tourists, who come from all over the country, are a source of income for the state's farmers and small business owners.

Advertising folders, bearing the name and location of each member as well as the interesting sights nearby, are widely distributed in advance of each tourist season with the result that many of the association have experienced a marked increase in business during the tourist season.

One of the most popular stops for tourists is at the state's 28 farms, which are open to the public. These farms, located in all parts of the state, offer tourists a chance to see the way of life on a farm and to purchase fresh produce directly from the farmer.

The state's produce is sold at a price that is fair to both the farmer and the consumer. Tourists can purchase fresh vegetables, fruits, and other farm products at a price that is often lower than what they would pay in a city market.

These Mountain State Tourists' Homes, scattered throughout the state of West Virginia, are making an effort to have city people spend their vacation in one place. They are also offering the advantages of hunting and fishing, because of the large number of sportsmen who get away from the cities in the summer and fall to enjoy their favorite sports and who always eager to find good accommodations.

While West Virginia scenery helps the tourist-catering business for these farm women, visitors are making a practice of stopping in the country for both lodging and meals. They find it handier and more economical.

Altoona, Ill., hasn't much attraction insofar as the scenery is concerned, but Mrs. George Stuckey puts up two to three tourist parties a week in a spare room of the large Stuckey farm home. Located in the quiet and cool of the country it is an ideal spot to stop for the night.

Mrs. Fern Berry of Marion, Mich., sells a large amount of fresh garden truck at a nearby tourist camp. Twice a week Mrs. Berry fills the car with red beets, carrots, green onions, radishes, corn, cabbage and cucumbers. Potatoes in two-pound bags, enough for one meal, sell well as do her canned goods and horseradish. Prices are gauged according to city retail levels.

Seven acres on a side road doesn't sound attractive from a profit-making standpoint, but Mrs. Grace B. Baertsch of Baraboo, Wis., had made it, with the aid of her kitchen, giving them a living and cash in the bank. Mrs. Baertsch sells eggs, poultry and cooked food to a tourist camp some distance away during the summer months, and by good salesmanship has made many of the same people buy her eggs, which are sent by mail to their city homes, during the winter months. Her egg money runs as high as $100 a month, even though she does not charge as much as the traffic will bear—that is, Mrs. Baertsch attempts to take a premium through the season instead of following the heavy lumps and recessions of the market.

No end of farm women, knowing their town sisters don't care to bother with big dinners on Sunday and that city people have a hankering for a good farm-cooked dinner, have made a specialty of this service. Customers are made largely by local advertising; also by using boys to pass out cards announcing the business.

Following the same thought some farmers with gardens and other sources of food such as flocks of poultry, canned meats, a small orchard or a lake on the premises, have built tourist cottages so that they not only can attract the food and outing trade, but offer sleeping accommodations for tourists and city folks who care to spend the night.

QUITE TRUE

An insurance agent had found a new life to insure.

Taking out his notebook and pencil he commenced to ask the usual hackneyed questions.

"Now, sir," he said, "how old are you?"

The simple-looking little man scratched his head thoughtfully.

"I was forty last birthday," he said, "and I'll be forty-two next."

The agent gasped.

"But, my dear sir," he smiled, "you've got things a bit mixed. If you were forty last birthday you'll be forty-one next birthday."

"Oh, no," said the man. "I'm forty-one today."

His Last Resort

The branch manager approached the assistant cashier's desk.

"Where's the head cashier?" he asked.

"Gone to the races, sir," said the young man.

"What!" exclaimed the branch manager fiercely. "Gone to the races in business hours. Never heard of such a thing."

"Yes, sir," said the other. "It is his last chance of making the books balance."

Association at Memphis Tuesday.

Our good friend Vernie Wade has our thanks for some good home grown tomatoes donated Friday. He had just received a letter from his parents and brother, who live in the Rio Grande Valley, informing him that none of them were injured in the recent storm down there, but suffered much crop damage. The loss of fruit and truck crops in that section was simply awful.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Alexander have returned from a few weeks visit with their children at Me-Lean.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Long of the north part of the county, near Alanreed, visited relatives and friends in Hedley the past week.

KEMPSON-DUNCAN

Mr. Berson Kempson and Miss Ruth Duncan were united in marriage last Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock in the pastor's study at the Methodist Church. Rev. A. V.
Hendricks officiating with the ring ceremony.

Accompanying the couple were Mrs. Ruth Duncan, mother of the bride, and James Duncan, her brother; Mrs. Ben Kempson, mother of the groom, his brother and sister, L. B. and Hazel, and another brother and his family from Ashtola.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kempson left for Ashtola to spend the week end at the home of his brother, returning to Hedley Sunday afternoon.

The bride and groom are long time residents of Hedley community, are well known and highly esteemed by all our people.
We join their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

between China and Japan.
