Donkey Basketball Game To Preach Here Sunday

One of the most hilarious affairs seen in Hedley in some time was the donkey basketball game Monday night in the high school auditorium. The game was a double header. Hall Station defeated S & T Grocery 18 to 12 and M System Grocery winning over Thompson Hardware 10 to 6.

Several spills to the minute delighted the large crowd, who cheered donkeys and players alike. The players spent more time in climbing back on their mounts than in shooting at the goal.

Members of the four teams were:

Hall Station—Ross Adamson, Oles Rains, Clyde Bain, Leon Reeves, Ansl Adamson, Glenn Marra, Ted Dudley, O. O. Sargent and Leo Ray.

S & T—Ost Saunders, Earl Tollett, Omer Wood, Frank Davis, Olen Pionk, T. J. Hansard and Walter Bill Wiggins.

M System—Mack Harris, H Stewart, Max Webb, Bill Simmons, Don Pickett, Leek Ellis, and Arthur Sanders.

Thompson—Blaine Doberty, Emmett Stiles, Chick Meeks, Don Blanks and Bob Saunders.

Kelso-Womack Gets New Ambulance

Kelso-Womack Funeral home has added a new 1940 Ford V 8 ambulance, to better serve their policy holders.

Memphis C. of G. Holds Banquet

About 300 from Memphis and nearby towns attended the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet there Tuesday night.

President J. E. King discussed accomplishment of the past year and outlined plans for 1940. The principal talk was made by Gen. Mark McGee of Ft. Worth. Tommie M. Pettis acted as toastmaster.

District Attorney John Deaver introduced General McGee and the new officers and directors of the organization, and Carroll Snyers presented the visitors, who were present from Amarillo, Childress, Estelline, Lakeview, Wichita Falls, Salisbury, Pampa, Newlin and Lesley.

The editor acknowledges with thanks an invitation to the banquet from President King.

M. W. Mosley Celebrates Birthday

M. W. Mosley celebrated his birthday with all his children except one present.

The entire group attended services at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, then returned to the Mosley home where a bountiful dinner was spread. The afternoon was spent in visiting together.

Those enjoying the day included Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mosley and Winfield Mosley and family of Hedley, Bill Bromley and family of Clarendon and Vestal Mosley and family of Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rains visited in Clarendon Tuesday.

Mrs. H. A. Phillips of Wellington visited her daughter, Mrs. Harry Womack, several days this week.

Rev. T. W. Neely, pastor of the Baptist church at Mobestie will preach at the First Baptist Church in Hedley next Sunday, morning and evening, in the absence of the pastor.

Womack Ambulance Busy

The Kelso Womack ambulance has been busy carrying Hedley patients to hospitals in this area. Among the patients were:

Mrs. John Lummon was carried to Memphis Monday with pneumonia.

Ozell Dotsen, also with pneumonia, was taken to Memphis Friday.

Zubbie Land was taken to Amarillo Sunday, having suffered an eye injury while milking.

Mrs. Jim Reynolds of Leola Lake was taken to a hospital after falling to recover from an operation.

Rodney Youree was brought home from a Memphis hospital Monday after recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Young Memphians Give Special Music Sunday

Rayburn and Elwanda Jones of Memphis furnished special music at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, including several vocal duets with accordion accompaniment.

The various numbers were enjoyed by an attentive congregation.

Personalities of School

Mrs Gertrude Watkins excels in the field of music. She loves to play, sing, and teach music. Her patience adds greatly to her knowledge in teaching children as well as grown-ups. She is the teacher of the third grade and a very efficient music director of both grade school and high school.

Mrs Watkins graduated from Lubbock high school and attended Texas Technological College at Lubbock. She later attended N. T. S. T. C. at Denton. Mrs. Watkins took up public school music as her major and primary education as her minor. While in college she took up special training in piano and voice.

She has been a valuable asset to the Hedley schools for five years.

High School Girls Give P. T. A. Program

On Thursday evening, Feb 8 a group of high school girls presented the playlet "Reminiscence" directed by Mrs. Owens. This playlet, which told the history of the first Congress of Mothers in Washington 43 years ago, honoring the National Founders Day, which is observed each year by the local unit. The girls who took part in the play were:

- Ida Lou Johnson, alias Emily Andrews
- Juanita Harrison, alias Mrs. Louise Andrews
- Della McLaughlin, alias Mrs. Bright
- Geraldine Lamb, alias Mrs. Jones
- Julian Hunsucker and Martha Jo Alexander, essential boy and girl
- Doris Marie Barrett, Yvonne Weeks, La Verna Wade, Dorothy Jean Richerson, Robbie Lamber son and June Kirkpatrick as P. T. A. members.

After the program they enjoyed the birthday cake used in the program. This cake was given to them by Mrs. L. Johnson.

Assembly

The entire school met Thursday morning for the weekly assembly. The first three grades presented the first part of the program in song. The songs were "Poppety Pop", "Telling Time", "A Valentine for Mother", "The Automobile Has Two Big Eyes", and "Ice Skating".

The remainder of the program was panel discussion by a group of high school students under the direction of Mr. Payne. The subject of the discussion was "Patriotism". Those taking part in the program in discussion of the flag were:

AROUND THE HOUSE

White sauce for boiled potatoes, cauliflower, carrots and asparagus can be dressed up by a liberal sprinkling of paprika.

When measuring syrups or molasses, dip cup in hot water and mixture will not stick to the sides of the cup.

Cheating gum can be removed from washable material by softening the gum with egg white, then washing.

Tasty Nuts.—To give a better flavor to nuts heat them for five minutes in a moderate oven. Such heating is especially advisable in the winter time when nuts are likely to be stale.

One pound of loaf sugar is sufficient for serving 25 persons.

Garnishes.—Thin slices of lemons, oranges, limes or grapefruit, sprinkled with sugar and broiled 10 minutes, make effective and tasty garnishes for roasts or fowls. Red or green jelly, dotted on top of the slices, gives added color and flavor.

Cooking Apples.—Apples are over 80 per cent water, thus in cooking them only enough water should be used to prevent them from scorching or sticking to the pan.

Preparing Starch.—To give a glossy finish, use soapy water in preparing starch for laundry.

New Flannels.—It is an excellent plan before washing new flannels to soak them for an hour in cold water with a good handful of salt. Wash them in the ordinary way. This makes washing much easier and the articles look beautiful when dry. If new colored goods are allowed to stand in salt water and rinsed in the same water, there is no chance of the color running.

To Beautify

HERE is a new department that we know is going to meet with tremendous popularity with our readers, for it brings the opportunity of combining pleasure and profit. With jig, coping or keyhole saw, you may cut these designs from wallboard, plywood or thin lumber. Each pattern brings accurate outline of the design, and complete directions for making and painting.

Men, women, boys and girls are finding this a fascinating pastime, and with each order will be sent a circular showing many additional novelties which may be made at home.

A host of bright birds in your garden becomes reality when your cutout hobby is combined with pattern Z9063, 15 cents. Life-size outlines and realistic painting suggestions for eight familiar birds are given. Can you identify them? There's the red-headed woodpecker, scarlet tanager, indigo bunting, towhee, oriole, bobolink and blue jay.

On this same pattern you also receive outlines and instructions for the delightful rustic bird house. Different-sized openings for various birds make this house adaptable to the birds of your choice.

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, and Pepsin-ize Acid Stomach Too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste, and bad breath, your stomach is probably loaded up with certain undigested food and your bowels don't move. So you need both Pepsin to help break up fast that rich undigested lumps in your stomach, and Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels. So be sure your laxative also contains Pepsin. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative, because its Syrup Pepsin helps you gain that wonderful stomach-relief, while the Laxative Senna moves your bowels. Tests prove the power of Pepsin to dissolve those lumps of undigested protein food which may linger in your stomach, to cause belching, gastric acidity and nausea. This is how Pepsinizing your stomach helps relieve it of such distress. At the same time this medicine pulls up lazy nerves and muscles in your bowels to relieve your constipation. So see to it that you get better relief by taking the one that also puts Pepsin to work on your discomfort, too. Even if you don't like to taste this pleasant laxative, buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative with Syrup Pepsin at your druggist today!

SOUP GIVES THE FIRST IMPRESSION

See Recipes Below.

Satisfying Soups

Soup, like the front door, gives a first impression, good or bad, that is difficult to overcome, whatever follows.

It's the cook's fault if this first course at dinner isn't good, for a great many wholesome ingredients can be made into delicious soups if they are knowingly handled.

Beginning with good ingredients and finishing off with skillful seasoning, there's no reason why you can't produce a soup that is tempting, delicious and wholly satisfying.

Soup is more than just a means of using up left-overs and remnants of meat and vegetables, but left-overs may be the starting point for a cream soup that's a masterpiece; season it with discrimination, thicken it smoothly, serve it hot and nicely garnished, and you have evolved the perfect beginning for a dinner, or a satisfying mainstay dish for lunch.

Finely chopped parsley, paprika and croutons are familiar garnishes for soups; newer, and just as attractive are these: a few grains of popped corn; minced chives; toasted and lightly buttered puffed cereals; a spoonful of unsweetened whipped cream, salted and sprinkled with minced parsley, chives, or finely chopped salted peanuts; very fine strips of thin, well browned pancakes; thin slices of frankfurters.

Quick cooking tapioca is a new thickener for soups; it's quick and easy to use, and it adds unusual texture and taste as well.

(Serves 4)

1 1/2 cups canned corn
1 cup meat broth, or 1 cup water and 2 bouillon cubes
2 1/2 cups rich milk
1 1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca

1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon onion, minced
1 1/2 tablespoons butter

Cook corn in broth 10 minutes; force through sieve. Combine with milk, quick-cooking tapioca, salt, sugar, and onion in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 10 to 12 minutes, stirring frequently. Add butter. Garnish with popcorn if desired.

Vegetable Soup

1 lb. soup meat, cut in small pieces
3/4 lb. veal bones
2 quarts cold water
1/4 cup sliced onion
3 cloves garlic
1/4 cup sliced carrots
1/2 cup potato cubes
1/2 cup shredded cabbage
1 stalk celery (cut in pieces)
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1 sprig parsley
2 tablespoons celery leaves (chopped)

Place meat, water and vegetables in saucepan. Cover and simmer slowly for two or three hours. Remove from flame and put through sieve.

Cream of Tomato Soup.
2 cups canned tomatoes
2 slices onion
1/4 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk

Heat tomatoes with onion, soda, sugar, salt and pepper. Rub through sieve; reheat. Place butter in top of double boiler and melt. Add flour and mix thoroughly. Add milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Pour tomato mixture slowly into white sauce. Mix thoroughly and serve at once.

Fish Chowder.
4 pounds white fish
2 cups cold water
1 cup salt pork (diced)
1 onion (sliced)
4 cups potatoes (cut in 3/4 inch cubes)
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
3 cups canned tomatoes
3 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup coarse cracked corn

bones, cover with cold water and cook slowly for approximately 20 minutes. Drain and reserve stock. Place salt pork in skillet, add sliced onion and saute until onions are brown. Add to fish stock. Add potatoes and cook until almost tender. Skin and cut flesh of fish in 2-inch pieces, add to mixture and cook until tender. Then add seasonings, tomatoes and butter and heat thoroughly. Add cracker crumbs and serve immediately.

Onion Soup au Gratin.

Wash, peel and slice thinly 5 medium-sized onions. Brown in 1/4 cup of butter in a heavy frying pan. Cover and cook slowly until tender, but not brown—about 10 minutes—adding more butter if necessary.

Add 1 quart beef broth, brown soup stock, or bouillon, and heat through thoroughly.

Place slices of crisp dry toast in petite marmite—or small earthenware pots. Cover generously with grated Parmesan cheese, grated Swiss or grated American cheese. Pour hot soup over all, place under broiler flame just a moment to melt and brown cheese, and serve immediately.

Parsley Dumplings.

2 cups bread flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup lard
2 tablespoons parsley (chopped)
3/4 cup milk (approximately)

Sift together dry ingredients, cut in fat and add chopped parsley. Add milk and mix gently with a fork. Drop by spoonfuls into boiling stew. Cover and continue to steam for 15 minutes without lifting the cover.

Peanut Butter Soup.

1 quart sweet milk
3 tablespoons peanut butter
4 thin slices onion
Salt and pepper to taste

Add small quantity milk to the peanut butter and mix thoroughly. Heat remainder of milk, and stir in the peanut butter mixture. Add onion—and season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve with toasted croutons.

It's not strange that many of us are bewildered when we're confronted with the problem of preparing meals on a large scale. Cooking for fifty or a hundred is a whole lot different from getting a meal for a family of four or five! In this column next week, Eleanor Howe will give you recipes for serving fifty or a hundred—economical recipes of the sort you like for church suppers or the P. T. A.

Here's the Booklet You've Been Wanting.

How many times have you wished that you could find in one book the answers to the puzzling, miscellaneous questions about home making—how to substitute sweet milk for sour in your favorite cake recipe? What to do with the odds and ends of jelly that accumulate in the refrigerator? How to remove troublesome crumbs from the electric toaster?

"Household Hints" by Eleanor Howe, is just the book you've been wanting. You'll find in it over 300 clever, practical short cuts to successful home making—and it's only 10 cents!

To get your copy of this useful book, now, send 10 cents in coin to "Household Hints," care of Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Marine Corps Recruiting Curtailed

With the establishment of a new all time high monthly Marine Corps recruiting record for the state during the month of February by the district recruiting officer in Dallas, recruiting efforts have been vastly curtailed during that month, as Postmaster Mabel E. 44 young Texans satisfiedly passed the entrance examination and were admitted in ranks of the United States Marine Corps. These young representatives of every section of Texas; from the Rio Grande to the Big Bend Country East to the timing curtailment of recruiting offices in Texas at the present time. Applications for enlistment are accepted, except the district office in the Allen Building in Dallas. Applications may be made by letter or in person at the office from now on.

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood ebom."

writes one high school senior. The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy.

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles printed in The American Boy.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile character traits than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 20c a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 per year or $5.00 for three years. Foreign rates $6 a year extra. To secure the simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.
