Scandinavia Works With U.S. To End Russo-Finnish Conflict; Feel Allies Aren't Dependable

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union

EUROPE:
The Wars
Northern Front. Soviet troops captured the entire northern tip of Finland, placing the Arctic sea outlet in Soviet hands. Finns still held Viipuri, western anchor of the Mannerheim lines, repulsing furious Soviet attacks. Civilian bombings continued.
Western Front. Reconnaissance flights and patrol clashes.
Finnish Finish?
Off to Berlin one day went 79-year-old Per Eivind Svinhufvud, former president of Finland. He made a brief flurry in the news, obviously a peace envoy. Then he disappeared, but Per Svinhufvud had done his work well. Within 24 hours Moscow had invited Finnish Premier Risto Ryti and three aides to visit the Kremlin and talk peace. That Germany's hand was behind all this none doubted, for Naziland would like to have Russia at peace, thereby making Soviet war materials available to the Reich.
Up north, Scandinavia cheered; a Russo-Finnish peace would relieve the terrific pressure Sweden and Norway have felt from France and Britain on the one side, and Russia and Germany on the other. The allies had sent Finland only a smattering of help, leaving friendly Scandinavia exposed should Russia win. But if Scandinavia worked for peace via the dictator nations, an early and safe peace might be arranged.
After several days a truce was reported near, leaving frontiers substantially where they have been pushed by fighting thus far. But there was still a good chance that it would bog down.

PER SVINHUFVUD
... started something in Berlin.

British Gesture
Off to Rome went Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop to capitalize on an Italian pique. Several days earlier Britain had clamped a blockade on Italian coal imports from Germany, halting 16 of 11 Duce's freighters into port. Angered, Rome dispatched threatening notes.
Obviously von Ribbentrop hoped to win Italian sympathy against Britain, but the Englishmen acted too fast. Without warning, London suddenly released all 16 Italian freighters and won an Italian promise to ship no more German coal by sea.
Herr von Ribbentrop, the wind taken out of his sails, eased back home after visits with Mussolini, King Victor Emmanuel and—unexpectedly—Pope Pius XII. Observers guessed that von Ribbentrop heard plenty from both Mussolini and Pope Pius about alleged German atrocities in Poland. They also guessed, but could not be certain, that he had urged Mussolini's mediation to help end the Russo-Finnish

Wagner Act. Chairman Mary Norton (Dem., N. J.) of the house labor committee charged that 21 amendments to the Wagner act, as proposed by a special house committee, would practically repeal the law. "It was a good bet that the house would kill all the amendments."

Welles Junket
Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles continued marching through the chancelleries of Europe in an attempt to dig out "the present phase of the European situation." Neither he nor anyone else could really dig it out, because the European situation was more perplexing than anything the world has seen in 20 years (see EUROPE).

Arriving in Paris after visits at Rome and Berlin, Mr. Welles lunched and dined with President Albert Lebrun, Premier Edouard Daladier and many a lesser statesman, receiving his baptism of fire when anti-aircraft batteries sounded off against a Nazi reconnaissance plane. He heard the same old terms: (1) No peace so long as Hitlerism reigns in Germany; (2) liberation of Poland and Czechoslovakia; (3) "guarantees for the security of peoples and the integrity of all nations."

NAMES in the news . . .

HAROLD L. ICKES, secretary of the interior, and enthusiastic third-termite, sounded off in Look magazine on G. O. P. Hopeful Tom Dewey. Said Ickes: Dewey is a "clamor boy;" he is "photogenic, radiogenic and a dude . . ."
F. LYNDEN SMITH, Illinois public works director and ousted state Democratic fund collector who was "banished" for criticizing Gov. Henry Horner, suicided at a Springfield, Ill., hospital.
FATHER DIVINE, Negro spiritualist, was ordered by New York Supreme court to repay a follower $3,937 which she had placed in his care.
DOROTHY LAMOUR, movie songstress, lost her tonsils.
ADOLF HITLER, speaking at Germany's "memorial day," pledged "Victory or my life."

war. Still a third report: That he sought Italian co-operation to form an economic bloc of all eastern Europe, eventually including Russia and the Baltics.

DOMESTIC: Farmers' Congress

"It is more than ever important to have a government . . . that can act to protect the interests of our farmers as well as our business men when foreign trade conditions are upset."
Thus did Franklin Roosevelt address 500,000 farmers in 24 states assembled at 50 and 75-cent dinners to celebrate AAA's seventh anniversary. For the President and the farmer, things were looking up. A few hours before Mr. Roosevelt spoke, the senate finance committee approved a three-year extension of the reciprocal trade program, already okayed by the house. Chairman Pat Harrison of that committee was pretty sure the measure would pass.
Meanwhile another senate committee was even out-doing the President to help farmers. An appropriations sub-committee upped the house-approved $749,561,000 agricultural appropriations bill to $958,000,000 (the President had recommended only $788,929,519). Chief boss was a $212,000,000 fund for parity payments. In addition, the subcommittee directed that RFC should lend $100,000,000 additional to farm agencies (thus avoiding new appropriations) and that $60,000,000 of benefit payments be shifted to this year's funds from next year. This brought the total to more than a billion dollars.
Gloom fell over the house, which had previously clipped some $300,000,000 from budget estimates on 10 different appropriations in the hope of saving enough to prevent new taxes or a boost in the national debt. When the senate appropriations committee okayed its subcommittee's action, and when senate leaders expressed certainty that the big farm bill would pass, the gloom became thicker. One salvation might be to make big cuts in relief and defense appropriations. Another, which President Roosevelt reportedly discussed with congressional leaders, was a revival of the new tax program.

Also in congress:
Hatch Bill. Not sidetracked for the farm bill, as everyone expected, amendments to the Hatch "clean politics" act were pushed through the senate. Aim: Curb political activity of 500,000 state employees.

Wagner Act. Chairman Mary Norton (Dem., N. J.) of the house labor committee charged that 21 amendments to the Wagner act, as proposed by a special house committee, would practically repeal the law. "It was a good bet that the house would kill all the amendments."

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

DON WILSON, the plump and genial radio announcer, has turned actor with a vengeance. He led up to it gently by using his voice, but not his poundage (he tips the scales at 300) in "Buck Benny Rides Again."
You'll see him in person in "The Round-Up," in the role of "Slim," made famous by the late Macklyn Arbuckle. And who knows, he may like acting so well that he'll never want to return to announcing.
The chief difficulty so far has been finding a horse that would hold him, but he's promised to take care of that by producing one that he rides frequently—seems that, though hefty, he's an expert horseman.
Right off the griddle is the report that Professor Quiz is all set to sign a deal with one of the major movie companies for a series of shorts centering around the Professor's radio specialty of questions and answers. Perhaps he's been inspired to do it by the success of those "Information Please" shorts.

Gone are the days when a hero had to be perfect every minute that he was on the screen. In Paramount's "Road to Singapore" Bing Crosby is a shiftless sort of guy, aided and abetted in a career of idleness by Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope. Three other matinee idols have forgotten the maxims of their copybooks, so far as new pictures are concerned. Robert Montgomery gets himself hanged in "The Earl of Chicago"; George Brent portrays a fugitive from justice in "Till We Meet Again"; and Tyrone Power, believe it or not, is a gangster in his latest.

Judy Garland is on her way up, and rapidly. This year it was quite a distinction for anyone who wasn't in the cast of "Gone With the Wind" to win one of the annual awards of the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences. Little Judy got a special one for work as "an outstanding juvenile."

Janice Logan looked so attractive in the brief costume that she wore when working in "Dr. Cyclops," the forthcoming Paramount technicolor picture, that the Art Students League voted her "The Best Undressed Woman of the Year." (That's the Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wise to neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Our work has just begun

You think electric service is a wonderful thing—and it is. It lights our homes. It makes our streets safe at night. Turns wheels in factories. Lifts the burden of housework. Helps make the good things of life cost less.

There doesn't seem much left for electricity to do, does there? Yet we employees of your electric company believe that everything electricity now stands for—every service and comfort it now gives you—is but a beginning of what's to come.

Why, today we don't even know what electricity is. We simply know and enjoy some of the things it is capable of doing every moment of the day and night. But we also know that there are still many undiscovered tasks for electricity.

Who will perform these untried-to-come? The men who serve you now—the same great army of skilled technicians, capable managers and loyal employees whose tireless efforts in your behalf have already vastly improved the service your electric company gives you, already drastically reduced its cost.

No, it isn't an accident that electricity has reached its greatest present development in the United States. The reason is that these thousands of men and women in the electrical industry have the American spirit of initiative—the good old-fashioned kind.

Their work, and theirs alone, makes your electric service the best in the world. It's an amazing service. It gets better and better, costs less and less.

Your electric company doesn't often think about the work it has done because it is too busy planning the work that lies ahead.

MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

In the last 10 to 15 years, the engineering improvements and operating economies of your electric company have made it possible to cut the average price of household electricity just about in half. Many customers now using more household appliances—like a light, a radio, and a refrigerator—pay very little more to operate all of them than they used to pay for light alone.

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.
"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood gum," writes one high school senior. The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy.
Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.
Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.
Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.
The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 20¢ a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 for one year or $3.50 for three years. Foreign rates $5.00 a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

THE HOOT

Commencement Speakers Seniors and Faculty Are How Others See Entertained

The graduating class of 1940 is very happy to announce that it has been fortunate to secure two outstanding men to appear upon its commencement programs.
The Rev. J. M. Sibley, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Sweetwater, will preach the Commencement Sermon on the evening of May 13. Rev. Sibley is an excellent speaker, a scholarly man and a devout preacher. The class felt that this man would be a splendid treat to the community since he formerly lived here, and he is a man of recognition in the religious field.
Dr. B. F. Fronbarger, head of the English Department in West Texas College at Canyon, will give the Commencement Address. Dr. Fronbarger is a scholarly man; he knows western people, since he has been reared in West Texas, and what he will say will be of interest and benefit to every listener.
The class made its requests early in order that it might have its choice, and, indeed, we feel that we have secured the best available speakers for these important programs.

The Baptist ladies entertained the seniors and faculty in the basement of the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, March 18. The Easter theme was carried out in the decorations and program. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. George Thompson, who pinned rabbits on the girls and chickens on the boys. Then they were shown to a table where Mrs. M. L. Sims served punch, sandwiches, mints and cake.
The basement was very beautifully decorated with yellow and white crepe paper with Easter bunnies and nestlings to the theme. Mrs. Watkins played during the entrance of the guests. Mrs. W. C. Payne, chairman of the entertainment committee, was assisted by Madames Geo. Thompson, M. L. Sims, Aiva Simmons, R. W. Alewife and M. E. Wells.
The program consisted of the following:
Welcome, Mrs. M. E. Wells
Response, Berle Marie Everett
Solo, Mrs. Aiva Simmons
Musical trio, Gladine Land, Paul Jisbman, Albert Martin
Inspirational Talk, Rev. M. E. Wells
The group enjoyed games of spelling, "I love my love" and an Easter egg hunt.

This article is written by you the low down on members of the supposedly class of our high school. By their actions we see the difference between men and the seniors. All the same color teachers said that beautiful but dumb boys were home. The only beauty we see is what they are. One of the fellows were stuck up. I wonder why.
What has Paul Estley ball playing to make him about his school work? Even though Glen and wear ties all the time, they really not conceited.
The girl ball players that if Della would mix a inner scholarship with her manship, she might be a good ol' gal.
If it were not for Glen would not be much of class this year, but there room for improvement.
The sophomores war Etha and Ralph got; who of the schools. Maybe they counted. Are Travis and Eding for the freshman or for credits?
One of the reasons the chose Mrs. Owen for their sor is so that they can pass fish. A hint to the wise is sufficient. Hark! Juniors!
We wonder if Etha is more interested in Doris' passing her own.
Calling all juniors! Who is ng to help some of the senior graduate this year?

Magazines, Please!

Old, new, read or unread magazines that you have discarded or that are in your way will be of help to our study hall. Many of our students do not have access to these periodicals in their homes. Others may not have read those you have. These periodicals give the students the same information that they give you. They also teach them worthy use of leisure time.
In case you have some which we may have, will you kindly let someone at school know, and we shall send for them and see that they are put to the best use possible.

Assembly

The first grade presented to assembly program Thursday. Mrs. Reast announced the program, which was well planned. The program consisted of child's day, which was presented in three parts; namely, school, at school and play school.
The first grade has been object of attention this year. We think that they are a group of children taught by grand teacher.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Labor Saver.—Part of the pot and pan washing job can be eliminated by storing frying fat in paper cups which can be discarded when empty.

If lemons are stored in a covered jar in the refrigerator they will not wither and shrink.

Candied fruits and raisins for puddings and cakes should be softened by soaking overnight in fruit juice.

Molasses Sauce.—Here is a delicious topping for hot bread, rice, puddings, and so on. Combine one cup molasses, two tablespoons lemon juice, one tablespoon butter and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Cook for 15 minutes over low heat while stirring. Serve hot.

Cool Foods.—Never put hot foods into the refrigerator. Wait until they have cooled.

To remove the smudges from utensils used over an open flame rub with crumpled newspapers, then apply a few drops of kerosene to the paper and rub the kettle until it's clean. Wipe with more dry papers. Do not let any of the kerosene get inside the kettle. If the smudge is not too thick, it can be removed with a metal pot scraper.

Removing Fish Smell.—A little vinegar and water scalded in the frying pan will take away any smell of fish or onions. Wash the pan afterwards in the ordinary way.

There Was a Way, And Lass Knew It!

TWO people were walking along a road together. One was a young woman, the other a handsome farm lad. The farm lad was carrying a large pail on his back, holding a chicken in one hand, a cane in the other, and leading a goat. They came to a dark lane.

Said the girl: "I'm afraid to walk here with you. You might try to kiss me."

Said the farm lad: "You need not be afraid. How could I kiss you with all this I'm carrying?"

"Well, you might stick the cane in the ground, tie the goat to it, and put the chicken under the pail," was the ready reply.

CONSTIPATED! Gas Crowds Heart.

"For years I had occasional constipation, headaches and pains in the back. Awful gas bloating seemed to crowd my heart. Adiolin always helped right away. Now I eat sausage, bananas, etc., anything I want and never feel better."—Mrs. Mabel Scholt. Two things happen when you are constipated. FIRST: Accumulated wastes swell up bowels and press on nerves in the digestive tract. SECOND: Partly digested food starts to decay forming GAS, often bringing on sour stomach, indigestion, and heartburn, bloating you up until you sometimes gasp for breath. Adiolin gives double relief with DOUBLE ACTION. BALANCED Adiolin contains three laxatives and five carminatives relieves STOMACH GAS almost at once. It often clears bowels in less than two hours. No griping, no after effects, just quick results.

EVERY HOME IS BUILT AROUND ITS WINDOWS

Sponsor of Famous World's Fair Home Points Out Importance of Good Windows

By W. Wadsworth Wood, Director, National Small Home Bureau

New York City.—Few people when they build a new home, seem to realize the importance of windows. Yet every home is built around them. This is literally true in two different ways.

First, the frame of your home is actually built around its window openings. Take a look at a home under construction sometime. Notice how the framing timbers around every window opening are doubled.

Windows Determine Wall Space. Second, the arrangement of your rooms, the arrangement of your furniture, is all done around the windows. Available wall space is largely determined by windows. On the outside the architectural harmony is largely determined by the placing or grouping of windows.

Thus you see how important windows are just from appearance alone. But appearance, important as it is, is only half of the story.

Here are some of the other things that a good window should do: Keep cold air out. Keep warm air in. Keep cool air in. Keep hot air out. Keep insects out. Keep dirt and dust out. Work freely under all conditions without rattling. Provide ventilation when open. Be watertight when closed. Let light in. Give clear vision out. Add beauty to your home. Harmonize with your style of architecture. No other architectural feature in a house must perform so many functions.
