Mrs. M. E. Paine Dies

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Paine, a resident of Hedley for 30 years, passed away at her home here Friday, April 26, after a long, but illness.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon from the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. I. E. Biggs. He was assisted by Rev. M. E. Wells, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Miller, pastor of the Clarendon Presbyterian church. Interment was made in Howe cemetery.

Pallbearers were Zeb Mitchell, Lake Dishman, Urews Wood, Leonard Pierce, Hobart Moffitt and Clyde Bridges.

Mrs. Paine was born in Missouri on Nov. 26, 1847, being over 92 years of age at the time of her death. She was married to Charles Paine in 1897.

She moved to Texas in 1909, coming to Hedley in 1910.

She was baptized in infancy and joined the Presbyterian church, being a member of the Clarendon church at the time of her death.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. Estell Sterling, Ocala, and two nephews, George Hamilton of Omaha, Nebraska, and another at Nashville, Tenn.

She was a cousin of Ed Kinshaw of Hedley, Chas. Kinshaw of Memphis, Mrs. Ed Dishman and Mrs. McClure of Clarendon and Mrs. Dolly Kendall of San Antonio.

The Informer extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Womack Honors Agents

Harry G. Womack was host at a banquet at the Caraway Coffee Shop in Clarendon Wednesday night honoring agents of the Womack Burial Association Agents from Estelline, Memphis, Hedley, Clarendon, McLean, Ashola, Lakeview and Brice attended.

Musicians and entertainers from Amarillo and Memphis furnished the program. Mr. Womack acted as toastmaster.

Following the banquet each agent was assigned a small quota of members to secure in order that the association might reach the membership of 12,000 within 12 months. Plans were worked out for the future large scale operation of the Womack Funeral Home.

Those attending from Hedley were Miss Eula Card, Glen Richardson, Messrs. and Mesdames J. B. Masterson, E. E. Newman, Harrison Hall and Harry G. Womack.

Mrs. G. B. Leggett returned home Monday from Lakeview, where she has been convalescing from a serious illness.

J. M. Glasse, W. O. Payne, I. V. Marrs, W. G. Bridges, Resco Land, Sid Harris, Geo. Thompson, Ike Rains, and Clarence Bairfield attended a Masonic lodge meeting at Memphis Monday night. About 150 attended the affair.

District Attorney John Deaver of Memphis was in town Wednesday.

Rob Simmons was brought home Monday from a Memphis hospital and is recovering from an appendicitis operation.

Warning

Beginning immediately we will file criminal charges against claimants who make false statements to secure unemployment compensation, B. H. Thomson, District Supervising Examiner, said today as he served notice of the tightened enforcement of the fraud provisions of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act.

Mr. Thomson said that he had received orders today from Orville S. Carpenter, Executive Director of the Texas Commission.

"We will file criminal charges against any individual guilty of misrepresentation or nondisclosure of any fact resulting in payment of jobless benefits when such benefits are not due him," the Supervisor declared.

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, and Also Pepsin-ize Stomach!

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste, and bad breath, your stomach is probably loaded up with certain undigested food and your bowels don't move. So you need both Pepsin to help break up that rich undigested food in your stomach, and Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels. So be sure your laxative also contains Pepsin. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative, because its Syrup Pepsin helps you gain that wonderful stomach comfort, while the Laxative Senna moves your bowels. Tests prove the power of Pepsin to dissolve those lumps of undigested protein food which may linger in your stomach, to cause belching, gastric acidity and nausea. This is how Pepsinizing your stomach helps relieve it of such distress. At the same time this medicine wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your bowels to relieve your constipation. So see how much better you feel by taking the laxative that also puts Pepsin to work on that stomach discomfort, too. Even finicky children love to taste this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative—Senna with Syrup Pepsin at your druggist today!

War Opens Up on Balkans As British and French Arrive, Balkan Nations Fear Nazi Coup

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union

WAR TALK:

Norway continued to hold the center of the stage, in what has been called the Second German war. In the south of that unhappy land, the German invaders extended their already extensive gains, based primarily on Oslo, the Norse capital. There was seemingly savage fighting around Trondheim and Narvik, ports on the Norse coast, but uncertainty and mystery continued to green the accuracy of Norse Front news.

French troops swung into action, along with English and Canadians, at the various isolated landings from Allied transports and warships, up and down the endless, inlet-studded coastline. The Germans flew in more troops and equipment. Estimates of the total German strength in Norway ranged from 18,000 (Washington) to 60,000 (Paris). This force would be merely a corporal's guard, in terms of modern totalitarian warfare.

As to warships, on both sides they continued sinking, or grounding, or capturing, at a truly alarming rate, according to the propaganda stories mailed to America. One Germanarrison of marines, said the reports, consisted of 1,300 men—but Belgrade of a German invasion by the Trojan Horse method; for there are, in Yugoslavia, half a million Germans, many of whom are Naziminded. Late reports from Belgrade indicated that Premier Dragisa Tsvetkovich (see cut) had succeeded in stamping out the uprising when he interned Stoyadinovitch, Jugoslavia, ever anti-Soviet and pro-Czarist in policy, nevertheless hastened to come to terms with Unholy Russia, agreed to a Russian trade treaty, and bargained for Russian-made weapons, manufactured by the famous Skoda arms works in what used to be Czechoslovakia. It seemed, all round, that national governments were just as effective merchants-of-death as the so-condemned private profiteers ever thought of being.

There were echoes of the Yugoslav worryment, elsewhere. Holland went under martial law, to prevent Nazi boring from within, while Belgium counted foreign noses. Sweden stretched her blackout even to light-houses, closed her important port of Gothenburg; while the sturdy Swiss planned mobilization of the entire little country, and called up 60,000 more homespun militia. As for the Turks, they began to throw out foreigners, especially tourists and visitors, who might be carrying automatic rifles in their golf bags, and wearing uniform Field Gray underwear. No Trojan steeds for the Ottomans and Osmanli!

But Trojan horsemanship aside, England threatened dire things to loud-speaking Mussolini, the tough Nazi Gestapo in Poland, and the Indian nationalists who want their independence. None of these gentry seemed overly perturbed by the lowering Lion of London. Mussolini, in particular, was urged by an English cabinet minister—to put up, or shut up. Some critics ventured to suggest that His Majesty's minister might better have so addressed the "kibitzing" Yankees, safely overseas.

POTOMAC PEPPERPOTS:

Germany occupied Denmark, and there was much talk of Uncle Sam taking over Danish Greenland, in the New World. Should Germany occupy Holland, there was much talk of Uncle Mikado taking over the

JUGOSLAVIA'S TSVETKOVITCH—He nipped an uprising. (See "Trojan Steeds.")

When lost 1,600 men in action. Another report rumored that the English mines laid in Norse territorial waters (which precipitated the German invasion) were purely fictitious, and that Winston Churchill had bluffed the Germans with these "verbal" deathtraps. Other "good" rumors (Norway aside) included the fact that Prime Minister Chamberlain and Heinrich Himmler, of the Nazi Gestapo, were blood brothers in an esoteric cult, and that Secretary Sumner Welles was a Welshman.

As to the English-ultra Lord Haw-Haw, German broadcasting ace, he was variously reported to be a renegade English fascist, and the South African grandson of a rabbi. Daily he "sank" the British navy in Norse waters, by word of mouth, and the English public fairly ate up his words, while his Canadian audience was extraordinary. Most people laughed at Lord Haw-Haw, but a portion of the British proletariat were inclined to take him seriously, which led to hectic English counter-blasts.

TROJAN STEEDS:

The Germans penetrated Norway by deceit, trickery, and subversion. They used Trojan Horse tactics: "tourists," "peaceful" freighters, "business" men, bribery, spying and a general boring from within.

Other European nations took alarm at this novel method of Nazi invasion. Jugoslavia "isolated" her last year's premier, Stoyadinovitch, who had a pro-German and pro-Italian reputation. There was talk at

in the news

Police Commissioner Valentine of gang-plagued New York city urged his bluecoat patrolmen to be "rough, tough, and obnoxious" to hoodlums; while Charles Laughton, of Anglo-movie fame, compared the great Dr. Sam Johnson to roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, English bluebells, or the Britannic woods and moors. One bookworm added that Laughton, in his way, was the greatest English rationalist since the dear, departed Eighteenth-century Sam.

A London truck-driver, knowing not what he did, hit and mortally injured a 75-year-oldster. His name was Herbert Albert Laurens Fisher. He was a former M. F. But more than that, he was one of the world's outstanding historians, and an international cultural figure.

There, too, died the equally famous Kid McCoy, whom the world's "madness" apparently drove to self-destruction. The Kid's real name was Norman Selby; a champ middleweight who either was on the up and up, or else on the down and down.

LABOR ELECTION:

The A. F. of L. took a signal beating in the General Motors general elections. C. I. O. won out by a total of 90,000 to 30,000, with another 15,000 workers balloting for scattering independent unions. Chief Green of the A. F. of L. had charged that Chief Lewis of the C. I. O. wanted a political revolution, to make himself U. S. dictator. But the Brotherhood of Consolidated Edison Employees, independent union, beat C. I. O. as bargaining agency for 30,000 Edison workers.

NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Cons. Edited Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK—Adm. Sir Charles M. Forbe, commander-in-chief of the British home fleet, may be taking his current naval battles rather personally. He has a charming Swedish wife, who was Marie Louise Berndtson, daughter of Axel Berndtson of Stockholm. Their home has been a salon of mingling British and Scandinavian culture.

Sir Charles has not been particularly conspicuous in Britain's high command of the navy, but, by all accounts, he "has what it takes." Sixty years old, in the navy for 46 years, he has been in command of the home fleet since 1938. He fought in the Battle of Jutland, winning the D. S. C. From 1925 to 1928, he was director of naval ordnance. He commanded the destroyer flotilla Mediterranean fleet in 1930 and 1931 and was sea lord and controller of the navy from 1932 to 1934. He was second in command of the Mediterranean fleet from 1934 to 1936.

A British friend who arrives here recently tells me Sir Charles is regarded as perhaps the best naval strategist and tactician of England, of the esteemed "bulldog" type who, unless spurred by higher command, would attempt no too-hazardous exploits, but may be depended to go all the way through.

NO RUNS, no hits, no errors is a good score for a diplomat. The runs and the hits aren't expected in diplomacy and goose-egg in the error column is tops. Ray Ather-ton, scored thus after 24 years in the state department, is America's fully adequate minister to Denmark at a critical hour. He assumes charge of French and British interests.

He emerged against the backdrop of the Boston Beacon street aristocracy, and was known as the "beau of the beaux arts," when he was studying architecture in Paris. After short turns in architecture and banking, he entered the diplomatic service, as a career man, serving in various posts at Tokyo, the Philippines and London until his appointment as minister to Bulgaria in 1937. He became minister to Denmark last August.

He is a cautious, "message to Garcia" diplomat who has learned never to get out on a limb—No. 1 in the diplomat's rubric. This in spite of an occasional frolicsome mood, as when he named his infant daughter Helen Maria, in honor of General Dawes, his former chief at London.

IT WAS just a year ago that lean, grim, Calvinistic old Premier Hendryk Colijn warned Holland of big, bad trouble ahead in which innocent bystanders certainly would get hurt unless they prepared to defend themselves. His urging had much to do with his country's diligent war preparations of the last twelve-month and today, Mr. Colijn, no longer premier, but an influential elder statesman, says Holland is ready to make things extremely unpleasant for trespassers.

In the World war, the astute Queen Wilhelmina managed to save her country by a miracle of adroit maneuvering. She might be able to do it again, but just in case, they have re-rigged their dykes for web-footed warfare, if necessary, greatly enlarged their fighting forces and co-ordinated their defenses for the best possible showing a bantam-weight country could possibly make against the big sluggers.

Mr. Colijn, 70 years old next July, is an amiable, cultured gentleman, not given to fighting talk, but not inexperienced in real fighting. His political and financial fortunes were advanced by his showing in some catch-as-catch-can milling against the savage Sassaks on the Island of Lombok, east of Java, when he was a young lieutenant in the Netherlands army. His service in the Far East brought him in touch with Sir Henry Deterding and he moved along with Sir Henry to wealth and eminence in the world expansion of the Royal Dutch Shell Oil company.

He is a financier with a strongly liberal political orientation. In his public activities, he has been a vigorous foe of both the Nazis and Communists. In November, 1938, he denounced the Nazi anti-Semitic programs as "the most tragic episode of modern times."

He is calmly assured that civilization has staying power, air bombs or no air bombs. He has been leader of Holland's Calvinist party.

He was a farm boy who knocked off milking one night and told his father he was off to military school.

Statesman Colijn Warned Holland To Be Prepared

Remember, Chief, You Are in the Western Hemisphere.

Dutch East Indies, in the Far East. There was, however, one essential difference: Greenland is plenty poor, and East Indies is reeling rich.

Secretary Hull apparently viewed with alarm, and got out a statement to warn the Japanese against any middle-muddle with the East Indies' oil, rubber, tin, and strategic location. The Japanese politely regarded this question as none of Mr. Hull's business, and some Americans were inclined to agree with them. It seemed that the Japs were as afraid of an English seizure, as the state department boys were of a Japanese seizure. Then Roosevelt entered the word-fray on Hull's side, lauding the status quo in the Pacific.

Meanwhile, the senate (after a mere four-hour chat) voted a virtual billion dollars to the admirals, to pay for the two biggest battleships in the world, two cruisers, an airplane carrier, eight destroyers, six submarines, and five other craft. This hasty balloting was regarded as a gesture against the Japanese, who were reported as also on the build-up. So-called experts said that Japan was slapping together some eight super-dreadnoughts, "for the American trade." At this point, the world's biggest warship is the 42,000-ton English Hood.

The admirals also renewed their chronic demand that insular Guam be turned into a major American aerial and submarine base: a pistol to be pointed, presumably, at the head of Nippon's Son of Heaven.

braided Rug Scalloped Border

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

ONE day a snap-shot came from a reader showing a half dozen braided rug rugs spread out on the grass. No two were alike. I thought this one with a scalloped border was particularly interesting and the maker wrote me that the scallops do stay flat on the floor.

She uses wool rugs and frequently dyes them the colors she wants. She cuts or tears them into strips an inch or more wide, according to the weight of the material and then braids them tightly. The braided strips are sewn together with double carpet thread and she keeps the work flat on the table all the time she is sewing. For this rug, the center row is 15 inches long. Sew around and around this, using the colors indicated. When the oval is 31 inches long and 18 inches wide, divide it evenly around the edge with pins about five inches apart. Now, sew a row around with a 2-inch loop at each pin. Sew the next three rows around these loops easing the braiding in just enough to keep the work flat.

NOTE: "The Rug That Grew Up With the Family" is another interesting rug-making idea. Directions are in Mrs. Spears' Book 3, which also tells how to make spool shelves; streamlining an old style bed; and many other useful ideas. Write Mrs. Spears today, enclosing 10 cents in coin and book No. 3 will be sent to you by return mail.

Music in Hedley High

The Hedley Band has been making marked improvement since it first started. There are 14 members of this musical group now. At the Junior play, they presented the following numbers: Greetings, Red River Valley and The Eyes of Texas.

Out of this group we have a trio that is making exceptionally rapid progress. They are Paul Diehman with the trumpet, and Geraldine Land and Albert Martin, the saxophone twinners. These students, accompanied by Mrs. Watkins, directed the following specials: Leaning on the Old Top Rail, South of the Border, and Careless

Now out of this little group, Paul Diehman deserves special mention. He directed the band during the absence of Mr. Robbins. His ambition is to be a "Satchelmouth" Louis Armstrong, the great negro trumpet player. He has made an excellent beginning.

Our school is very proud of its musical talent and their achievements as they add to the enjoyment of our programs.

Junior Play

The Junior play "Down on Abbie's Farm" was presented at the High School Auditorium Friday, April 26.

The cast included Loeva Adanson, Jodie Plunk, Mollie Strickland, Peggy Doherty, Ida Lou Johnson, Geraldine Land, V. A. Hansard, Billie Clifford Johnson, O. L. McQueen, Billie Mae Biffle, Travis Alexander and Keith Bain. The play was directed by Mrs. Owen and Mr. Bullard.

We wish to thank all who came. We especially thank Thompson Hardware for the use of their furniture.

The play was a great success as we made $82.

Assembly

The Assembly program on Thursday morning was presented by the Freshmen and it was divided into four parts. A play, "The Sewing Club Meets," the time of which was about 2000 A. D. was presented by a group of Freshman boys. Joe Ann Shaw, playing the guitar, and Boris Long, playing the harmonica, rendered three numbers, Cowboy Jack, It Makes No Difference Now, and Rubber Dolly.

Three of the Freshman boys, Teddie Joe Myers, Joel Funk and James Biggs sang My Hat's on the Side of My Head and Side Walks of New York.

The girls of the class presented a playlet, "Belle and Bill" in dialogue form the reader of which was Jo Ann Shaw.

Don't be alarmed, Freshmen, although you are a bit green, we feel, after such a good assembly program that you might make good Seniors.

Rope Jumping Contest

In the Rope Jumping contest which ended Thursday, April 25, La Fern Leeper, Lottie Mae Randall, Flora Belle Morgan, and Margie Bardine received the medals by jumping the rope eighteen hundred and thirty eight times.

The Woman's Culture Club is planning a political rally. Watch for the date.

FHT Club Meet

The FHT Club met in the Home Economics room April 24 at 12:45 to discuss plans for a trip to Palo Duro Canyon May 1.

The group will leave the school here at 4:00 Friday afternoon. Each girl will take her supper and two quilts.

There are five groups; one cook breakfast, group two to wash dishes, group three to cook lunch, group four to wash dishes and group five to pack truck.

For the midnight lunch there will be cookies, fruit, and coffee. There will be scrambled eggs, bacon, toast, butter, jelly, cocoa and coffee for breakfast. For lunch there will be meat, potatoes, pork and beans, bread, butter, tomatoes, fruit, cake and coffee.

Guests will be Miss Clegg, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Burdine.

The Seniors Receive a Handsome Gift

Another great moment came in the lives of the Seniors last Thursday, April 24, as Mrs. Johnson presented to us a gift of $15. Each year the Parent Teachers do something outstanding for the Senior class. A banquet was discussed this year, but after they heard about our efforts for our possible tour this spring after school, they decided to give us a check for $15. The Senior class and sponsor take this means of thanking the P.T.A. for this wonderful gift and expressing our whole hearted appreciation and gratitude for their interest and help.

The Senior Steak Fry

The Senior class and sponsor piled into cars Wednesday evening along with a good supply of food and after sitting on and tramping on each other they came to the Giles Park, where they alighted to make a fire to fry steak. The boys stood around and eagerly waited for a slice of crisply fried steak. If one had looked closely they would have seen plates that were heaped with steak, bread, potato chips, pickles and gravy. No one seemed to have less than two slices of steak. When the plates could be seen again the bananas and cookies were fished from among the sacks. After the remains were gathered up some one suggested a few games. Without hesitating every one agreed. Maybe to an onlooker the games would not have been played very swift, but to the players they ran fast enough. About 9:30 every one said good night and went home.

INDIGESTION

Sensational Relief from Indigestion and One Dose Fulfills
If the first dose of this pleasant-tasting little white tablet doesn't bring you the relief you need, simply repeat the dose. You will find that the pleasant relief you have experienced will return back to you and get DOUBLE MORE relief. This little white tablet helps the stomach digest food, breaks the excess stomach fluids that cause heartburn, the souring foods that cause indigestion and you eat the nourishing foods you love. For heartburn, sick headache and coated sores caused by excess stomach fluids, taking just one dose and sticking all day—JUST ONE DOSE of this pleasant white relief, the everyday.

SAUCE MUST COMPLEMENT THE FOOD

(See Recipes Below)

'Sauce for the Goose'

The function of a sauce may be either to accent or to soften a flavor;
it may be used to enrich a food, or to moisten it; the sauce may be sweet or savory; it may be hot or cold. Whatever its purpose or classification, the sauce must be smooth in flavor as well as smooth in consistency. It should, in addition, offer contrast in color, flavor, in texture, or in temperature.

Sauces are "sweet" or "savory," depending upon whether they are used for desserts,
or are served
with meat, vegetables, egg dishes
or macaroni.

French cooks,
to whom sauces are sacred, use two basic recipes or "mother sauces"
from which all their savory sauces are developed; no simple white sauce or sauce merely thickened with browned flour, for them!

To serve its purpose, a sauce must complement the food—rather than disguising it. That means subtle seasoning, and just the right consistency.

Plain white sauce—the standby of so many cooks—should seldom be served "as is." It's a foundation, really, which is quite likely to be flat in flavor, and very much too thick! Judiciously seasoned, it can be used in dozens of different ways.
Flavor it with sharp, grated cheese,
or add condensed tomato soup to it, for character; use a drop or two of Worcestershire or a half teaspoon of prepared mustard; or—and this is a secret we might well borrow from our French cousins—substitute soup stock for part of the milk, in making the sauce.

Orange Sauce.

1/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup boiling water
3/4 cup orange juice
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon orange rind
1 tablespoon butter
Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt.
Add boiling water slowly to this dry mixture, stirring constantly. Place in saucepan and cook over low flame until mixture is clear. Remove from fire and add orange juice, lemon juice, orange rind and butter.

Delicious Sauce.

1/2 cup heavy cream (whipped)
1 egg
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
Beat white and yolk of egg separately. Add sugar to beaten yolk, then add beaten egg white. Last of all add whipped cream and vanilla extract. Serve at once.

Italian Tomato Sauce.

Into a deep frying pan place a
No. 2 1/2 can of tomatoes, 1 green pepper, chopped
fine, 1 large onion,
chopped fine, 1/2
lb. ground round
steak, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1
teaspoon tabasco sauce, 1/4 teaspoon ground allspice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper, 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese and 2 cups water. Cook slowly for approximately 2 hours. Cover cooked spaghetti with sauce and sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese.

Easy-to-Make Hollandaise Sauce.
Into top of double boiler place the juice of 1 lemon, 4 egg yolks, 1/2 cup butter and a dash of paprika. Beat constantly over boiling water until thick.

Barbecue Sauce.

1 large onion.
1 clove garlic
1/4 cup catsup
1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 cup vinegar
Red pepper, black pepper,
salt and mustard—to taste
Cut the onion and garlic into fine pieces. Strain the tomatoes and add the egg of water. Add the other ingredients and bring to a boil. Serve over any meat. This is also good for any fowl or game.

Cheese Souffle With Tomato Cream Sauce.
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1 1/4 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 pound sharp cheese
4 eggs

Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and cook until frothy. Then add the milk and cook together until the sauce has thickened. Measure out 1/2 cup of cream sauce and set aside to use in the sauce. To the remaining cream sauce in the pan add salt, dry mustard and cheese and heat until the cheese is melted. Add beaten egg yolks. Cool.
Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into mixture. Pour into a casserole (about 8 inches in diameter) and bake 1 hour to 1 hour and 15 minutes in a very moderate (310-degree) oven. Serve at once and put a spoonful of tomato cream sauce over each portion.

Tomato Cream Sauce.
1 can condensed tomato soup
1/2 cup cream sauce (saved from first part of recipe)

Combine the tomato soup and sauce and heat, but do not boil.
Hot Butterscotch Sauce.
2 cups light brown sugar
1/2 cup coffee cream
1/4 cup light corn syrup
1/4 teaspoon salt

Blend all the above ingredients and place in saucepan. Cook slowly, stirring at frequent intervals, until mixture reaches the soft ball stage (236 degrees). Serve very hot over ice cream.

'Magic' Butter Rolls

Speaking of "busy-day" meals, here's a recipe that will make one and one-half dozen "magic" butter rolls in a hurry. This is what you need:

3 cups general purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1/4 cup evaporated milk
1/4 cup water
2 cakes yeast
1 tablespoon sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup nuts (cut fine)

To 1 1/2 cups flour add salt and shortening, combining as for pie crust. Combine milk and hot water.
When lukewarm add the yeast and 1 tablespoon sugar, blend well and then stir into the first mixture, beating until very smooth. Cover and let stand 20 minutes. Then add the eggs and beat vigorously. Beat in the vanilla and remaining 1 1/2 cups flour. Stir until smooth. The dough will be stiff but slightly sticky. Tie the dough loosely in a square of cheesecloth and drop it into a pail of cool water (70 to 80 degrees). In about an hour the dough will rise to the top of the water. When it does, remove it from the pail. Knead lightly. Cut into small pieces, roll in sugar and chopped nuts. Twist pieces as desired and let stand for 5 minutes. Bake in hot oven about 20 minutes.

RAY MILLAND would like to keep a controlling hand on the scripts of all pictures in which he appears from now on. Truth came far too close to fiction to suit him a while ago,
and he hasn't quite recovered
yet.

He'd finished work in "Untamed" and gone to Sun Valley for a week's rest. Mrs.
Milland stayed in Hollywood,
as they were expecting the arrival of their first child some weeks later. Then he received word that he'd have to race the stork
if he wanted to be in Hollywood when it appeared. He started for Boise, Idaho, in a car, also in a blizzard. At Boise he chartered the only plane available, and was grounded at Salt Lake City. He telephoned the hospital, in Hollywood, and learned that he had a son.

In "Untamed" he'd braved a blizzard to reach the bedside of a sick sweetheart. If it's all the same to the scenario writers, he'd rather have less harrowing experiences.

Hollywood's most famous mixed foursome—Paulette Goddard, Ruby Keeler, Bing Crosby and Bob Hope sticking to picture-making if they all find themselves in the cast of "Fol-and it was then that the idea of teaming them in a picture was suggested. They're all experts, and if they can resist staging a match that the script doesn't call for they'll be doing well.

Announcer Del Sharbutt intended

become widely known as announcer

come out at last, though; he's written two songs of Hit Parade proportions within a few weeks—"The Kitten With the Big Green Eyes," and "I'd Love To."

Ginger Rogers, who has millions of fans now, had only one in 1929;
he was John L. Cass, who recorded the sound of "Primrose Path," in which she co-stars with Joel McCrea. About 10 years ago RCA made a two-reeler called "Campus Sweethearts," in New York, to try out a new wide-film process. Two movie unknowns, Ginger Rogers and Rudy Vallee, were featured.

The director didn't care for the song that Ginger had been rehearsing, but Cass insisted on recording it. "She had everything, including a swell mike voice," he says. "I knew she was star dust—and how!"

What do you eat for breakfast? Coffee, toast, maybe some eggs? What do you eat for lunch and dinner? White bread, meat, potatoes? It's little wonder you're constipated! You probably don't eat enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean the amount you eat. It's a kind of food that forms a soft, "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a movement. If this is your trouble, may we suggest a crunchy toasted cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran—for breakfast. All-Bran is a natural food, not a medicine—but it's particularly rich in "bulk." Being so, it can help you not only to get regular but to keep regular. Eat All-Bran regularly, and drink plenty of water. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. THE TRUTH COMES OUT AT TEA FOR THE CROWD

At the Tea Table

This is the one year in four when the bachelor had better put on his running boots or else risk getting caught and deprived of the freedom he prizes so dearly. For it's Leap year... girl proposes and man can't very well dispose... at least that's how the legend runs.

There's nothing quite so modern as an old-fashioned engagement tea with which to make the announcement that Judy loves John and John doesn't mind at all. There's nothing so modern, either, as inviting the young man in the case and his bachelor friends to the party. Now, in 1940, afternoon tea is not the "strictly feminine" affair it has been unjustly accused of being. On the contrary, Mr. America prefers the invigorating pick-up, just as long as he can take his tea exactly as he likes! This may mean with clove-spiked lemon, or a touch of candied ginger, perhaps.

Since the boys hate fuss and frills, and like a girl to come straight to the point without keeping them guessing, they would think it pretty clever to "say it" with hearts bearing the initial of the happy pair attached to the strings of the tea-balls.

Cookies are to the male what candy is to the baby... the most desirable bon-bon in the world of sweetmeats. So... if you know any girl who has gotten herself engaged and is about to tell the world so... suggest that she invite the boys along with the girls to hear the glad news and tell her to be generous with the cookies!

Frosted Squares.
4 eggs
2 cups light brown sugar
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons cocoa
1 cup nutmeats (broken)
1 cup raisins or dates (cut fine)
1 teaspoon vanilla
Beat eggs until very light. Add sugar gradually, continuing to beat until the mixture is very light and fluffy. Mix together the flour, baking powder, cinnamon, salt, and cocoa. Add the first mixture, blending thoroughly. Then add nuts, raisins or dates, and vanilla. Spread in shallow, greased pans and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 25 minutes. Remove with chocolate peppermint confectioners' sugar icing. Cut in squares.

Little Swedish Tea Cakes.
1 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
2 cups cake flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Ice cream
Cream butter and add sugar slowly. Cream well. Add well beaten egg and blend. Sift flour once before measuring and then sift again with salt. Add and blend in flavoring. Place a rounded teaspoonful of batter in very small greased muffin tins (1 1/2 inches in diameter). Press batter up sides and over bottom so that there is a hollow in the center. Fill this hollow with an almond filling (about 1 teaspoonful).

Chinese Cakes.
(Makes 3 dozen)
1 cup butter
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup blanched almonds (broken)
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup powdered sugar
1 Cream butter and sugar. Add flour and almonds. Knead. Shape into small balls and place on greased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 20 minutes, or until done, but not brown. Remove from cookie sheet with spatula. Add vanilla in powdered sugar and roll cakes in sugar mixture.

Almond Filling.
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 lb. finely sliced almonds
Beat eggs until very light and add sugar, salt, and ground almonds which have been put through food chopper twice. Bake 30 minutes in a slow moderate oven (325 degrees). Cool and serve with ice cream.

Toasted Almond Sticks.
2 1/2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter (melted)
1/4 cup milk
1 egg
1/2 pound blanched almonds (chopped)
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon almond flavoring
1/4 teaspoon salt
Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt into mixing bowl. Mix beaten egg, butter (melted), milk and flavoring. Add to dry ingredients making a stiff dough. Grease a 9 by 13 cookie sheet with butter. Press dough evenly into pan. Sprinkle almonds evenly over all and press well into dough. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 20 minutes, or until firm to the touch. Let stand a few minutes, and while still warm cut with a sharp knife into 3-inch strips about one inch wide. Turn cut side up, leaving a space between each sticking, and return to hot oven. Toast to a rich brown. Will keep almost indefinitely.

Queen of Hearts Cake.
1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
2 1/2 cups pastry flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 cup sour milk
1 cup sugar milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
4 egg whites
Cream the butter, add the sugar, and beat well. Sift the flour, baking powder, soda and salt and add alternately with the sour milk and vanilla. Beat the egg whites until stiff and fold into cake. Bake in two layers or oblong bread pans in a moderate oven (365 degrees) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool and cut cake into small hearts with a cookie cutter. Ice with Queen of Hearts Icing.

Queen of Hearts Icing.
2 cups granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon cream tartar
1 cup hot water
Confectioners sugar, sifted (about 1 lb.)
Red vegetable coloring
Cook sugar, cream of tartar and water in a saucepan until a thin syrup (225 degrees) is formed. Cool slightly. Then add enough confectioners sugar to make an icing of pouring consistency. Add food coloring and then pour over the hearts, covering them thoroughly with the icing.

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

WHEN Columbia decided to film "The Tree of Liberty" they decided to give the public more than good value. Many of the scenes of the book are laid in Williamsburg, Va., at the time of the Revolution and just afterward. And since the Rockefeller's have obligingly restored most of the buildings of the town so that they look as they did then, Columbia sent the company to Williamsburg.

They also invited newspaper writers down to see Cary Grant, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Richard Carle and others working, under the very able direction of Frank Lloyd. Students from William and Mary college acted as extras; in a scene made in wind and rain in front of Raleigh tavern you'll see them, dressed as students of the college were in the seventeen hundreds. The wind and rain were artificially produced on a beautiful spring evening.

The next afternoon Grant was to be photographed riding up to the door of a famous old plantation. The governor of Virginia and crowds of enthusiastic fans assembled to watch. When you see that scene, imagine the governor and the rest of us shivers in a chilly wind from the James river, waiting for the sun to come out, while Grant patiently rode his horse up and down until somebody pointed a candid camera at it at close range, making it so nervous that it ran away. Grant lost his hat and got his wig ruffled, and by the time order was restored the sky was too cloudy for any pictures to be made.

The following day a mob was to storm something or other, and a torchlight parade was to be held. So it rained. The picture people were patient; they're accustomed to that sort of thing. The newspaper people were not, so they went home. The only news was that the title had to be changed to "The Howards of Virginia," because the other one sounded too much like a Warner Brothers patriotic short, and that Martha Scott, instead of Joan Fontaine, would play the lead.

It's going to be a swell picture, one of Frank Lloyd's best—that's recommendation enough for any movie.

Director John Stahl, who has been connected with only two studios—Metro and Universal—during the past 25 years, has broken away, along with such producers as Walter Wanger and Frank Capra, to enjoy the freedom of making his own picture selections. You must remember his "Back Street" with Irene Dunne, and "Only Yesterday" with Margaret Sullivan, to mention just a few of his successes.

He's chosen "The Life of Daniel Webster" for his first free picture, and has signed with James Roosevelt to direct "The Boy Grew Older" for him.

Spike Jones, drummer in Oscar Bradley's orchestra on the CBS "Screen Guild Theater," refused an offer of $200 for a drum head recently. The original cost of the drum head was only $10—but it's covered with signatures of famous Hollywood stars who have appeared on the program, from Shirley Temple to Bette Davis.

Lany Ross was recently nominated as the perfect date by a group of pretty girls who act as professional fashion models. To show his appreciation, he invited four of them to be his guests at a very smart—and very expensive—night club. When the night was over, Lanny, who was selected as the perfect date because he knows just what to do when escorting a woman, found that he couldn't pay the check—because he'd left his wallet at home.

Many commentators will air their views on the forthcoming presidential campaigns to be held this summer. To one, however, it will hold special interest. Many years ago Edwin C. Hill, "America's Star Reporter," covered the Theodore Roosevelt vice-presidential. From the time Teddy became President, Hill was referred to by the Rough Rider as "the unofficial member of my cabinet." This summer Hill will again cover a Roosevelt convention providing Franklin Delano Roosevelt runs for a third term.

"DUSTY" MILLER IN FAVOR OF NEW DEAL HERE

Favoring a continuance of the New Deal so far as it applies to the Eighteenth district and endorsing a program to industrialize Texas, E. T. "Dusty" Miller, of Amarillo a resident of the Panhandle for 51 years and who has had a varied and extensive legal practice throughout the plains for the past 33 years, has formally entered the race for Congress to succeed Marvin Jones.

Mr. Miller, widely known throughout the Plains country, is one of its first citizens, moving to Armstrong County with his parents in 1889 when four years old. His father, W. E. Miller, was the first merchant and postmaster and helped organize the first church in Armstrong County. Dusty Miller was born in Johnson County in 1885.

He attended school at Claude, at Polytechnic College in Fort Worth, the University of Texas and graduated from the law school of Washington & Lee University in June 1907, and moved to Amarillo that same year to begin his practice. His first partnership was with Marvin Jones. This partnership continued until 1916 when Mr. Jones became a candidate for Congress and Mr. Miller ran for district attorney, which office he held for two terms. Previously he had been city attorney of Amarillo for eight years.

"I want to go to Congress," said Mr. Miller, "to represent all of the people of this district and to serve the country in which I have lived for over one-half of a century. I asked nobody if I could run and I owe allegiance to no one except the people of this district as a whole, from the humblest to the highest and without respect to where they reside."

Mr. Miller said his platform in full would be announced at an early date.

"However," he said, "I want it understood now that I am in favor of continuing the New Deal, with its beneficial policies too numerous to recite, in so far as it applies to the Eighteenth Congressional district. I am for it 100 per cent."

"The farm program, sponsored chiefly by Marvin Jones, through its crop payments and loans, rehabilitation and restoration of our lands and cheaper interest rates to farmers and stockmen has been the economic salvation of the plains country. I want this program continued."

"I am a strong believer in a program to bring Texas to the front industrially and, whenever possible, I would favor in Congress the enactment of any and all laws that would help a program of this nature."

"I have always believed that old-age pensions should be made more uniform and more certain to the deserving needy and I would favor federal legislation to make them more uniform and more certain."

"I want it distinctly understood by everyone that I am the candidate of no group, clique, block or class. My friends and all the people throughout the district who know me and my record are well aware of this fact. I am offering my services and I pledge my utmost to do my best for the general welfare of every inhabitant of this district."

Mr. Miller said he would go into detail on the various major issues confronting the voters at a later date.
