Bertha Wished to Know Punishment—Just in Case

"Don't fidget!" snapped mother. Little Bertha stopped toying with the lid of her chocolate box and endeavored to concentrate upon the play. But it was a dull affair.

In two minutes her small fingers were busy again.

"Now, Bertha," exclaimed her mother, "I warn you."

When her mother spoke like that she was not to be disregarded. Glancing doubtfully at the dull stage, and then at the tempting lid, Bertha whispered:

"Would it be a hairbrush, mummy, or just your hand?"

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, and Also Pepsin-ize Stomach!

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste, and bad breath, your stomach is probably loaded up with certain undigested food and your bowels don't move. So you need both Pepsin to help break up that rich undigested food in your stomach, and Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels. So be sure your laxative also contains Pepsin. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative, because its Syrup Pepsin helps you gain that wonderful stomach comfort, while the Laxative Senna moves your bowels. Tests prove the powder of Pepsin to dissolve those lumps of undigested protein food which may linger in your stomach, to cause belching, gastric acidity and nausea. This is how Pepsinizing your stomach helps relieve it of such distress. At the same time this medicine wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your bowels to relieve your constipation. So see how much better you feel by taking the laxative that also puts Pepsin to work on that stomach discomfort, too. Even finicky children love to taste this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative—Senna with Syrup Pepsin at your drugist—today!

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—There is a bitter outcry in the press coop as Air Marshal Arthur S. Barratt tells the correspondents in France that hereafter they must feed on handouts—no more digging out their own stories. British newspaper owners retaliate by calling home the newscorps. It is one of several unfortunate instances of ineffective cooperation between British high command and the newspapers.

Foreign correspondents I have talked to have told me that the British air service, staffed by younger men than is the army, has been far less encumbered with brass hats and bureaucracy, and that its higher ranking officers understood and cooperated with newspaper men. Hence the handout order, a sweeping decree in barring journalists from all news sources, comes from an unsuspected quarter.

Marshal Barratt was appointed to command of the newly created British-French air force by Neville Chamberlain January 10 of this year. He is 49 years old, a lavishly decorated war and air officer since 1931, senior air officer for India during part of that period. He joined the Royal Flying corps in 1914 and fought through the war. He has been commandant of the R. A. F. staff college at Andover. Many of the most effective leaders of the British air force have come from the Colonies. Marshal Barratt was born at Clifton, England, and was educated at Clifton college and Westlich.

THESE days, someone is always asking, "Watchman, what of the night?"

"Not so good," says Dr. Alfred V. Kidder, the distinguished archeologist, addressing the American Philosophical society. He thinks the present social order is on the skids. At the same time, "the underlying cause" of our present afflictions is the fact that man has made a "cultural machine," that is a new complex of living techniques, which is out-of-hand, unmanageable and quite generally haywire. Henry Adams predicted that at the turn of the century, when he saw, for the first time, a flock of dynamos. He said in effect, that there would be power like that. That's the end of "The Education of Henry Adams."

Dr. Kidder, with a Harvard doctorate, 1914 model, delved into the past as any other living man before his current peek into the future in excavations in Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Egypt and Greece, he looked over many a "poor wreck" of forgotten ages. Aside from his gloomy preoccupations with destiny, or lack of it, he's a happy man, with five children and apparently a firm belief that the coming smash won't be the final write-off. He is highly renowned in his profession and was president of the Society for American Archeology in 1937.

Unhappily Charles F. Schwab is no longer here to assure us that everything is all right. He used to be helpful in times like this.

DOROTHY STICKNEY, the actress who gets the Barter Theater award for the best performance of the season in "Life With Father," was virtually blind in her youth. Reared on a North Dakota prairie, the daughter of a country doctor, she had studied elocution and immediately headed for a stage career when her sight was all but miraculously restored when she was 20. In St. Paul, she and three other girls formed a traveling singing and dancing troupe called "The Southern Belles." It faded quickly and she came along up in Broadway on the hard road. Her first bell-ringing role was Molly Malloy, the sweet walker, in "The Front Page." At Skowhegan, Maine, she met and married Howard Lindsay, co-star in "Life With Father."

Blind Until 20, She Reached Top By the Hard Way

The London Times scolds A. P. Herbert, parliamentary gag-man and humorist, for being too funny at a serious time, but he is still at it, this time in a book, "General Cargo," which he spoofs much of the visible and audible England, before and after Munich. It's all typically British, however, and seems to stand up with what they're fighting for. Frequently his jokes go through channels, appearing in Punch, but sometimes he explodes them in parliament, frequently with a stinging effect.

Nazi Drive Into Low Countries Is Marked by Terrific Fighting; Churchill Replaces Chamberlain

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union

THE WAR: Bigger and Worser

Domestic, presidential politics were driven, pro tem, into second place by the march of Mars. The Germans added Holland, Belgium, and Luxembourg—the three little Low Countries—to their list of victims, which now includes Czechs, Poles, Norse, and (according to some) the Austrians.

Against the Dutch and Belgians, Hitler used much of the Norse blitzkrieg buildup. This included the big Junkers air transports (20 men per ship), parachute jumpers all armed to the teeth, aerial bombardment of "enemy" air fields and concentration centers, and mass movements of infantry, against the frontiers, by land. The French came to the assistance of Belgium, as in 1914, and the English crossed the channel to Hitler himself would so much like to cross, for a poke at John Bull's midriff.

"Toujours La Guerre"

Luxembourg did not resist (again like 1914), but Belgium and Holland did. The Belgian army was considered fairly good, but the Dutch troops did not carry so high a ranking. Nevertheless, the Belgians and Dutch put up a stiff fight against the masses—29 divisions—of oncoming Field Graecy, and the aerial hit-and-run tactics up above. The Dutch anti-aircraft shot down close to a hundred Nazi airplanes, almost at the first volley, but poor, peaceful Brussels took a bombing that killed or wounded more than five score citizens.

Simultaneously with the German-Netherlands invasion, came aerial bombing, by the Nazis, of French airdromes, railways, coal mines, and factories. The Dutch East Indies interned all Germans over 16 years old, and seized German ships there. Japan—with surprising decency—announced its respect for the oriental status quo—at least, in that Dutch quarter. Dutch colonies include nearly a million square miles, and more than 60,000,000 natives, beautifully administered. Dutch East Indian Java and Sumatra are excessively rich in tin, rubber, oil, and other badly needed raw products.

GENERAL GAMELIN
"For France... courage, energy, confidence!"

SO THEY SAY: What They Said

Hittler said, about it all: "The fight beginning today decides the fate of the German nation for the next 1,000 years. Do your duty now!"

Gamelin, French generalissimo, said: "For France and all her allies: Courage, energy, confidence!"

Roosevelt said: "The American people are shocked and angered by the tragic news from Belgium and the Netherlands and Luxembourg."

Sweden's leading newspaper said: "Highly civilized countries, whose love of peace is unquestionable, were brutally thrown upon the sacrificial altar."

The Red Cross said: "$10,000,000 needed."

The N. Y. World's fair said: "We feel that we will have a happy, care-free crowd at the fair, on opening day." (Opening day was the second day of Netherlands chaos.)

BIG ITEMS: Read 'Em and Weep

Nearly 300,000,000 copies of Stalin's works have been read in Russia, it was announced in Moscow. Lenin's works have totaled only around 130,000,000. And the wage differential in "communist" Russia now is 500 to 1, while in "capitalist" Germany it is only about 100 to 1. The Soviet differential was said to exceed even that of our America.

BY ROGER SHAW

U. S. DEFENSE: Yankee Speedup

No sooner had the Germans plunged ruthlessly into the low countries than Washington was bombarded by demands for an American armament speedup. At the top, Secretary of War Woodring (after a cabinet meeting) asked for it. Plans included a congressional grant of perhaps $400,000,000—to equip a force of a million Yankee regulars and reservists.

SECRETARY WOODRING
He asked for a speedup.

The aircraft factories were to be speeded up, by more shifts of workers, for example. Instead of two shifts, three or more were proposed. Small manufacturers were to be stimulated. Some 25 S-class submarines, now at the Philadelphia navy yard, in fairly good condition, were (perhaps) to be reconditioned. But—"there just is no change in the plans for the fleet." So spoke a high admiral. Congressmen, too, called for quick action all along the arms front. His comments ranged from the calm objectivity of Senator Thomas of Oklahoma to the florid blasts of New York's Representative Sol Bloom. Senator King of Utah talked about "foulest crimes" and "wickedest assaults" and "democratic peoples."

Roosevelt said in a speech that it was a "mistaken idea" to believe that we Americans were safe from would-be conquerors because of 3,000 miles of comfy geographical distance. Roosevelt surprised some of his listeners by calling himself a "pacifist."

ENGLAND EXPECTS: Better Luck, Perhaps

Nice old Chamberlain finally got the gate in England, umbrella and all, and the loud-speaking Winston Churchill, navy lord in the last war and this one, too, got the prime ministry. Chamberlain, highly capitalistic in his outlook, never could get Labor support, in peace or war. Churchill, though a diehard Tory, for some reason has the affection of Laborites. Other Chamberlain men went into political "exile" as the Undertaker from Birmingham (supposedly Churchill's quip) fell. In France, a couple of extreme conservatives, with semi-Fascist views, were taken into the Reynaud cabinet to broaden the coverage and tighten things up. The British Labor party remains excessively important, not because of its numbers in parliament, but because of its myriads of highly organized trade-unionists in the munitions factories, and in other war industries. Churchill Liberals also endorsed Churchill.

OUR YOUNG DEWEY: And His Rivals

Tom Dewey, the young presidential go-getter, who sometimes seems to have few friends but many, many votes, got back home to New York from his transcontinental trip. He received Idaho's eight votes, and Maryland's 16 votes for the Republican national convention. Down in Maryland, Senator Tydings (whom Roosevelt once tried to purge) "gained an even stronger position of power in Maryland Democracy." Roosevelt beat Garner by six to one out in California, but Garner won down in Texas by something like 20 to 1. Speaker Bankhead got endorsed as the Alabama Democrats' favorite son!

REORGANIZATION: Where, the Air?

The President's reorganization plan, to transform the Civil Aeronautics authority to the department of commerce, was approved, 5-3, by a special senate committee on reorganization—after two days' worth of hearings. Thereby, the CAA would lose its vaunted independence and become a mere bureau of the department of commerce, under Harry Hopkins. Flyers do not appear to like this proposed setup.

Star Dust

STAGE SCREEN RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

PARAMOUNT is paying out quite a lot of money because it's not safe to take a chance on an elephant—or rather, on a herd of elephants. You see, though Hollywood has plenty of practically everything else, it's short on elephants; rounding up a thousand unusually pretty girls would be child's play compared to putting your hand on a dozen of the animals just when you wanted them.

That's why O. C. Stratton, Paramount property department head, has arranged to feed 12 of them from now until next summer, when the filming of "Moon Over Burma" is scheduled to begin.

The elephants belong to the defunct Hagenbeck and Wallace Circus; whose receivers agreed to keep the stock on the West coast if the studio would foot their board bill. So the pachyderms are quartered at Camarillo, Calif., devouring dollars' worth of hay daily—and it is hay—while preparations for "Moon Over Burma" goes on. The story opens in Mandalay and shifts to the teak plantations of Rangoon, where the elephants will be shown hauling the heavy wood, while Paramount forgets about buying hay and just pays rental fees.

When you see "Comin' Round the Mountain" you can close your eyes and pretend you're at home listening to the radio—there are eight well-known radio names in the cast. Bob Burns, of course; Pat Barrett, whom radio fans know as "Uncle Ezra"; William Thompson, the "Old Timer"; and Harold Peary, the "Gildersleeve" of "Fibber McGee and Molly"; Don Wilson of Jack Benny's program; and Jerry Colonna of Bob Hope's; Marjorie Bauersfield, the air waves' "Mirandy"; and Cliff Arquette, who's likely to bob up on almost any broadcast.

PAT BARRETT

Bill Phillips, of the Warner Brothers studio, reduced 27 young girls to tears the other day, and got paid for it. You've guessed why, of course—he's the makeup man on "All This and Heaven Too," and they were shooting the scene in which Bette Davis tells her makes the sad story of her life and makes them cry. So Phillips stood off at one side and blew menthol fumes at the girls, and they wept buckets-full of tears, right on schedule.

If you're going to New York for the World's fair this summer, remember Metro's Information Center, located in the city—on the little island at Forty-sixth street between Broadway and Seventh avenue. The attendants will supply you with information about the city and the fair, (last year they helped more than a million persons,) give you free guide books and guide pamphlets, and speak to you in any one of 11 different languages if need be. Also, there is a visitors' registry at the booth—you can put your New York address on file so that your friends will know where to find you. Metro deserves a lot of thanks from its friends all over the country for this.

Del Sharbutt, announcer for Lanny Ross, is being ribbed by his friends because of a mishap while playing softball. He was playing first base with a team composed of members of the staff of Columbia Broadcasting System. A ball was hit slowly to him, and Del whirled to throw to third base for a double play. The throw was wild; it hit the pitcher on the shoulder, bounded back and struck Del on the head. Wonder why softball seems to have such a fatal lure for radio announcers.

ODDS AND ENDS

Truman Bradley, announcer on the Burns and Allen program, was signed recently for his most important screen role; he'll portray one of five millionaires in RKO's "Millionaires in Prison."

Paramount will make "Alma of the South Seas" with Dorothy Lamour in the role created for Gilda Gray—though it wasn't a good picture when the shimmying Gilda did it, years ago.

Oscar Levant, of "Information Please," has a featured part in "Ghost Music," Bing Crosby's next.

You Can Make Your Own Summer

By RUTH WYETH
MR. AND MRS. N. looked out over the yard and were in no mood to acorn and wait for it to drop up to give them summer shade.

Mr. Newhouse bought some second-hand pipe for a song and made a sketch for the frame of a shelter like the one I have shown at the upper right. He had a plumber cut and thread the pipe so it could be put together easily.

Mrs. Newhouse wanted the shelter to be as cool as a dell, so she avoided all the hot red and orange colorings. The pipe frame was painted bright blue. Then she selected green and white striped awning material for the top. This material was 30 inches wide and 12 yards were needed. About 15 yards of bright blue bias binding were used for the scalloped edge. The method of fastening the awning to the frame is illustrated. The fabric loops were made of the awning material stitched in place through heavy woven tape.

Whether you have a new home or an old one, 10 cents to cover cost and mailing charges on Mrs. Spears' Sewing Book No. 1 can save you many dollars. Cheapest Light

The most efficient source of light in the world is the glow-worm. Chemical changes on the sugar absorbed by the insect produce the light from which it gets its name.

In this process only 3 per cent of the potential energy is lost, the remaining 97 per cent being given out as light. Compare this to the 12 per cent given by electric bulbs.

Commencement Exercises

The closing event for the year of 1940 was last Fri evening at 8 o'clock. Twenty seniors marched in the procession played by Mrs. Watkins. Rev. I. B. Bligh led the invocation. A chorus of high school girls sang "A Home in the Rain" by Cain and Serenade by Schubert. The address was made by Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, the head of the English Department of W. T. S. T. O. at Canyon. Mr. Payne presented some outstanding and well deserved awards. The diplomas were then given to the graduates by Mr. Payne. Rev. M. E. Webb rendered the benediction.

NEW DRUG AIDS WAR ON PESTS

Kills Insects Without Injury To Animals.

Government chemists have developed and proved a new drug, known as phenothiazine, which will kill insects without injury to warm-blooded animals, including man.

Scientists who conducted the research said phenothiazine is "one of the most versatile chemical substances brought to light in recent years." It has not as yet been placed on the market.

As soon as manufacturers make application to the secretary of agriculture, phenothiazine will be released as a medicine for treating certain infestations of sheep, swine and horses which heretofore have resisted medication.

As an insecticide, phenothiazine has been specifically effective in controlling such pests as the codling moth, Mexican bean beetle and grape berry moth. It has not been effective against the boll weevil, tobacco hornworms and the Japanese beetle.

The drug has proved effective in the control of mosquitoes, but its use is somewhat limited because of the cost. But for rock garden ponds for example, enough phenothiazine to prevent mosquito breeding will not harm goldfish, nor is it harmful to wildlife that might drink at treated ponds.

Flexible Farm Lease Cuts Moving Losses

More than four-fifths of the Farm Security administration tenant borrowers now have written leases, one-fourth of which are either automatically renewable or run for periods of more than one year, said Dr. Will W. Alexander, FSA administrator, in a recent report to the secretary of agriculture.

Favoring written leases is one of Farm Security's steps toward slowing down the movement of tenant farmers. In 1935 one-third of the tenant farmers—approximately 5,000,000 people—moved. Minimum cost of moving was $50 per family, for the families involved. Landlords also suffered damage and depreciation. The nation lost by waste of soil encouraged by such tenure practices. "Oral agreements lead to disagreements and unnecessary moving," Dr. Alexander comments.

A flexible farm lease form has been prepared by the Farm Security administration which can be fitted easily to needs of farmer and landlords in any part of the country. It provides that the lease shall continue in effect for several years, or that it shall not be terminated by either party without written notice to the other, several months in advance.

Best Churning Cream Determined by Tests

The best test for cream to be churned into butter is about 29 per cent—at least from the standpoint of avoiding loss of butterfat with the buttermilk, according to trials of the Wisconsin agricultural experiment station.

Cream testing 29 per cent had a satisfactorily short churning time of less than 36 minutes. Cream with a test of 21 per cent churned in 22 minutes, and 25 per cent cream in 32 minutes, but the time and power saved with these lower testing creams did not offset the disadvantage of losing more fat in the buttermilk.

This work showed it is doubly desirable to avoid churning cream with a higher test than 35 per cent, because under such conditions there is not only a high loss of fat but also a tendency toward salty or oily body in the butter.

All these trials were carried out with cream standardized to a desired butterfat content, pasteurized at 150 degrees Fahrenheit for 30 minutes, cooled to 45 degrees, and held for 16 hours at that temperature, and then churned at 50 degrees in a motor-driven churn operating at a fixed speed.

Fish Meal as Feed

Two per cent of codliver oil in the chicken fattening ration or 2 per cent of best quality codliver oil plus 15 per cent level of high-grade fish meal, fed for a six-month period up to the time of killing, was without detrimental effect on the flavor of the meat, either fresh or stored. This was the finding with Light Sussex chickens in a test reported from the school of agriculture at Cambridge, England.

QUESTION BOX

Q.—Is the injection of hernia considered a good method of treatment?
A.—Yes. In about 15 per cent of cases; that is, about one in every seven cases is considered suitable for this method. Surgery is the best method in the majority of cases.
Q.—My doctor wants to make a "copy." Is this dangerous?
A.—Your doctor just wants a small piece of tissue for examination. It is not dangerous.

FOR A SHOWER PARTY FOR SPRING BRIDE (See Recipes Below)

Household News

By Eleanor Howe

Here Comes the Bride!

And so they are married—and after the ceremony there is to be a wedding reception at the home of the bride's mother.

It takes a bit of planning to carry through a lovely wedding so that every detail is correct. And the reception which follows must be as nearly perfect as it is possible to make it. Plan a menu that's simple and easy to serve, yet appetizing and delicious to eat. Set the table for buffet service—using your loveliest linen, silver and china. Since the proverbial color scheme for the bride's table is green and white, plan to use white flowers for the centerpiece; if candles are used, they may be white or green.

A party for the bride calls for something very special in the way of food. Here's a menu for a wedding reception, with tested recipes to enable you to use it as it is given.

Assorted Hors d'Oeuvres
Grapefruit-Lobster or Crabmeat Salad
Buttermilk Rolls
Celery
Pistachio Ice Cream
Bride's Cake
Punch
Coffee

For a shower party for a spring bride, serve simple—but very good—refreshments like this:

Bride's Pie
Assorted Salted Nuts
You'll find other recipes for special party cakes and desserts in my cook book "Better Baking." There's a recipe for wedding cakes, as well.

Bride's Pie.
(Serves 10 to 12)

6 egg whites
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ quarts strawberry ice cream
2 baked pie shells

Beat egg whites until foamy, add salt and continue beating until the egg whites are stiff. Gradually beat in the sugar and continue beating until the egg whites are stiff and glossy. Add vanilla. Pack ¼ quart of ice cream into each pie shell. Cover with meringue and bake in a very hot oven (550 degrees) until meringue is lightly browned. Serve immediately.

Assorted Canapés.
Place chilled shrimp on a bed of shaved ice; serve cocktail sauce with it as an accompaniment. Stuff celery stalks with cream cheese which has been mixed with chopped stuffed olives. Cut crusts from slices of very fresh bread and cut loaf in long lengthwise slices. Spread with cream cheese. Roll as for jelly roll and slice in very thin slices. Brush with melted butter, place on broiler and toast lightly. Serve hot.

Grapefruit Lobster or Crabmeat Salad.
Cut grapefruit in half, remove center with grapefruit corer. With grapefruit knife cut around each section and remove membrane. Cover edges of grapefruit with finely chopped parsley. Fill chilled center of grapefruit with lobster or crabmeat. Top with mayonnaise and serve.

Buttermilk Rolls.
(Makes 2½ dozen)

1 cake yeast
2 tablespoons lukewarm water
2 cups buttermilk (at room temperature)
6½ cups of flour (approximately)
¼ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 soft yeast in lukewarm water.

Combine with buttermilk and mix well. Add about 2 cups of flour and beat until smooth. Cover and let rise in a warm place until the batter is light and bubbly. Cream shortening and sugar thoroughly.

Groom's Cake.
¼ cup butter
1 cup light brown sugar
2 eggs
2 cups general purpose flour
¼ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon allspice
¾ cup sour milk
¾ cup citron, cut
1 cup raisins
1 cup nut meats, broken
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Cream butter, add sugar, and beat thoroughly. Add eggs (well beaten). Mix and sift together all dry ingredients, reserving ¼ cup of flour. Add flour mixture and sour milk alternately—beginning with the flour mixture. Flour, citron, raisins, and nuts with the ¼ cup of flour which was reserved and add to the cake mixture. Add vanilla extract. Place in well-greased, small tube pan. Bake 40 to 50 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees).

Pistachio Ice Cream.
1 pint coffee cream
1 cup top milk
¼ teaspoon salt
¾ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ teaspoon almond extract
3 to 4 drops green pure food color
¼ cup pistachio nut meats (cut fine)

Mix all ingredients together thoroughly. Pour mixture into freezing container of modern ice cream freezer. (To allow for expansion fill not more than ¾ full.) Assemble and cover. Then pack mixture of cracked ice and rock salt (use 3 parts ice to 1 part of salt by volume) around the freezing container. Turn crank steadily about 5 minutes. When mixture becomes difficult to turn, remove cover carefully, take out dasher, and pack down evenly with a spoon. Cover ice cream with wax paper and replace cover. Draw off water and replenish ice and salt mixture. Cover and allow to harden at least one hour before serving.

Twenty-Four Hour Pike's Peak.
(Serves 6)

4 egg whites
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup sugar
Add cream of tartar to egg whites and beat until the egg whites are stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in the sugar, and continue beating until the mixture is stiff and glossy. Spread in a greased pie plate. Bake in a slow oven (275 degrees) for 20 minutes, then increase temperature to 300 degrees and bake 40 minutes longer.

Add to raised batter and beat well. Sift together the remaining flour, the salt, soda and baking powder. Add to batter in 3 or 4 portions and mix well. Pinch off small bits of the dough, shape into balls and place in small, greased muffin cups. Cover and allow to rise until the rolls are very light. Brush with melted shortening. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for about 15 minutes.

Groom's Cake.
¼ cup butter
1 cup light brown sugar
2 eggs
2 cups general purpose flour
¼ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon allspice
¾ cup sour milk
¾ cup citron, cut
1 cup raisins
1 cup nut meats, broken
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Cream butter, add sugar, and beat thoroughly. Add eggs (well beaten). Mix and sift together all dry ingredients, reserving ¼ cup of flour. Add flour mixture and sour milk alternately—beginning with the flour mixture. Flour, citron, raisins, and nuts with the ¼ cup of flour which was reserved and add to the cake mixture. Add vanilla extract. Place in well-greased, small tube pan. Bake 40 to 50 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees).

Pistachio Ice Cream.
1 pint coffee cream
1 cup top milk
¼ teaspoon salt
¾ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ teaspoon almond extract
3 to 4 drops green pure food color
¼ cup pistachio nut meats (cut fine)

Mix all ingredients together thoroughly. Pour mixture into freezing container of modern ice cream freezer. (To allow for expansion fill not more than ¾ full.) Assemble and cover. Then pack mixture of cracked ice and rock salt (use 3 parts ice to 1 part of salt by volume) around the freezing container. Turn crank steadily about 5 minutes. When mixture becomes difficult to turn, remove cover carefully, take out dasher, and pack down evenly with a spoon. Cover ice cream with wax paper and replace cover. Draw off water and replenish ice and salt mixture. Cover and allow to harden at least one hour before serving.

Twenty-Four Hour Pike's Peak.
(Serves 6)

4 egg whites
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup sugar
Add cream of tartar to egg whites and beat until the egg whites are stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in the sugar, and continue beating until the mixture is stiff and glossy. Spread in a greased pie plate. Bake in a slow oven (275 degrees) for 20 minutes, then increase temperature to 300 degrees and bake 40 minutes longer.

Filling.
4 egg yolks
¼ cup sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons lemon rind (grated)
Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Add remaining ingredients and cook in double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Cool. Whip 1 cup cream and spread half the cream on the cooled meringue. Cover with lemon filling and top with remaining cream. Chill.

Now is the time for each foresighted homemaker to add to her own collection of favorite recipes, some new and unusual ones which are sure to please her family. Next week Eleanor Howe will give you some of her own tested recipes—recipes for meats, for vegetables and for desserts—and a choice recipe for rhubarb conserve.

Star's Magnetic Influence Felt, but Not Recognized

The film star, a practical joker, had an electrified chair, disguised as an ordinary upholstered one, in his home. He delighted in seeing a guest, comfortably seated, suddenly leap at the press of a button.

A pretty girl came to interview him. She sat in the chair, and he couldn't resist pressing the button. But she just sat there, conversing amiably.

Finally he asked: "Don't you feel rather strange?" "Yes," she replied. "As if electricity were going through me. But I always feel that way when talking to film stars. They're so magnetic."

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, and Pepsin-ize Acid Stomach Too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste, and bad breath, your stomach is probably loaded up with certain undigested food and your bowels don't move. So you need both Pepsin to help break up that rich undigested food in your stomach, and Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels. So be sure your laxative also contains Pepsin. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative, because its Syrup Pepsin helps you gain that wonderful stomach comfort, while the Laxative Senna moves your bowels. It tests prove the power of Pepsin to dissolve those lumps of undigested protein food which may linger in your stomach, to cause belching, gastric acidity and nausea. This is how pepsinizing your stomach helps relieve it of such distress. At the same time this medicine wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your bowels to relieve your constipation. So see how much better you feel by taking the laxative that also puts Pepsin to work on that stomach discomfort, too. Even finicky children love to taste this pleasant family laxative. Wifadasos Club

The Wifadasos Club met at the home of Mrs. Dickson, Tuesday, May 14, with 12 members present and received one new member, Mrs. Hendricks, making a total of 13 members. We enjoyed the presence of an old member, Mrs. Pearl Adamson, who was a visitor. We always enjoy visits from members who have moved away.

Cake and ice cream were served. Those present gave a Scripture verse. After pleasant visiting we adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. John Keeninger with Miss Luella Keeninger and Mrs. Jewel Quisenberry hostesses on June 11. Let's all be on time so as to have longer to enjoy the social hour. There will possibly be some quilting.

Gleaners Class

The Gleaners class met May 10 with Mrs. Gowan hostess. We had only four present and didn't have our lesson as there were so few.

Mrs. Gowan served lovely refreshments to Mesdames Hall, Keeninger and E. L. Whitfield.

We said goodbye to meet with Mrs. E. K. Hall Friday, May 24, at 4:30. Everyone come and let's have a big meeting. Bring your work, have, and also whatever you like best.

Mrs. Scales Entertains

Mrs. R. W. Scales entertained a group of youngsters Friday evening with a picnic and supper party at her home. The group boarded two cars that afternoon and went down to the Roadside Park. What an appetite we all had after taking a hike and racing up and down the park. The picnic lunch sure did disappear in a hurry and all regretted that it was time to come home for the seventh grade graduation program.

After the program at the school building the group kept awake by eating and by playing the victrola. At twelve o'clock the group was served ice cream cones, angel food cake and chicken sandwiches. The group kept awake all night, and that pleased everyone. The following were very much sleepy heads the next morning: Jane Ruth Hall, Chaney Beth Key, Jane Kirkpatrick, Margaret McClung, Geneva Lesch, Margie Burdina, Mattie Irene Mobley, Ida Lee Johnson, Joan Shaw, Josie Pinnk, Geraldine Land, Mary Sue Scales and the host and hostess.

We hope Mrs. Scales will let us come back again sometime soon.

Elzey Favors Conserving Youth

Perryton—(Special) Tom Elzey, Perryton rancher and candidate for Congress, carried conservation one step farther in his official announcement for that of ice when he stated that "Conservation of Youth is of Paramount importance."

"If my platform consists of any more important plank," Mr. Elzey said, "it is conservation. I believe we should conserve our natural resources with special emphasis on conserving of soil, but of more importance is the conservation of youth so that this nation will have men capable of handling resources for the future."

It was in 1917 that Mr. Elzey coined his name into a famous brand and founded the L. Z. ranch that is known to every boy in the nation who loves ranch life and the great outdoors.

Each summer boys from over the nation drive into headquarters, soft from easy city living, but when they leave the L. Z. they talk the cow boys language, can handle a cow pony with the best of them, cook a meal over a camp fire, milk, brand, and all those other things a boy loves to do. Each lad camping in the bunkhouse at the L. Z. is taught the true meaning of religion. Church work is imperative, it is true, but the feelings of fellowman, what makes a good sport and self reliability are the things those boys remember long after their L. Z. ranch work is but a memory.

Mr. Elzey, a Mason, is noted for his church work and of all the honors he has won both civic and elective he points with pride to the fact that he and Mrs. Elzey founded the highest standard county Sunday School organization in the world while he was resident of Kiowa Co., Okla., prior to his moving to the Panhandle twenty years ago.

Tom Elzey is sincere in his race for Congress. From the point of his well worn boots to the tip of his Stetson, he is the cowman and lover of the soil. He realizes his experience has qualified him to talk the Western language and he is just as sincere in his desire to be of assistance to his fellowman. That sincerity has braided him throughout the Panhandle in the eyes of his friends as being a cowman who can "savy the politicians lingo."
