All business firms of Hedley have a special invitation to attend the picnic.

Bates-Biggs

In Rev and Mrs I. E. Biggs home Saturday evening, July 20 at 6 o'clock, Miss Von Kathryn Biggs became the bride of Floyd Bates of Farwell, in the presence of about 80 relatives and friends from Snyder, Memphis, Bevin and Hedley. Rev Biggs, the bride's father, officiated with a single ring ceremony before an improvised altar of greenery draped with baby's breath. Gladioli in floor baskets decorated the aisle. Mrs Robert Watkins played softly Schumann's "Traumerel."

As the guests assembled Mrs Watkins played "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Indian Love Call." The guests were met by Mrs. J. B. Masterson and ushered to the guest book by Glenn Rieheron. Miss Inell Biffie presided at the table. The bride's mother, Mrs I. E. Biggs, wore an asure blue frock and her corsage was pink rosebuds. She was escorted to her seat by Glenn Rieheron.

"Love Came Calling" was sung by Theresa Bain. The bridal party entered the room as Mrs Watkins played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin."

Miss Jonimerle Pickett was the bride's only attendant, wore a white and blue marquisette frock. Her corsage was pink rosebuds. Miss Biggs entered with her brother, James, who gave her in marriage. The bride wore an afternoon gown of navy blue marquisette with white accents. She wore a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Dean Bates.

A reception in the home immediately followed the ceremony. The guests were greeted by Rev and Mrs. Biggs. Gladioli and roses were used as decorations for the rooms. Centering the lace covered refreshment table was a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Around the cake were forget me notes, baby's breath and hot house smilax and flanked by crystal candelabra lighted with pink tapers. Assisting Mrs. Biggs in serving cake and punch were Mary Raina Bridges and Doris Merle Everett.

Mrs Bates was graduated from Hedley high school in 1939. She is an accomplished musician and her work in the church here has been outstanding.

The groom is a graduate of Bevin high school and has attended Tyler Commercial College and W. T. S. C. at Canyon.

The young couple left after the reception for a trip to Snyder, Sweetwater and San Angelo.

The bride's going away suit was black and white with white accessories. After Aug. 1 they will be at home in Farwell where he is employed with the F. S. A.

Sew This Dress for Some Child Refugee

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS
WHEN war came to Finland a Red Cross group to sew for refugees was started in our community. Now 14 women meet faithfully and make about 50 woolen dresses every week, in sizes 9 to 14. The group is financed through gifts of money and material which they themselves have solicited. They bought the simplest dress pattern that they could find and then eliminated every unnecessary detail. "Work for quantity—don't bother with a collar," the county Red Cross leader urged. "Never mind the pocket—there will be nothing to put into it anyway."

I have just sketched here some short cuts used to speed up production; and as I write this, looking out of my studio window over a beautiful and peaceful garden, I am trying not to think of winter and what it will be like in Europe when some child is wearing this little blue woolen frock.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging headache, persistent dizziness, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.
Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY ROGER LAW

Refugees Flock Across Atlantic As Battle of England Impends; 1940 Campaign Gets Under Way

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

II GERMAN WAR: Air Murder

Terrific German air raids on eastern England went on and on in endless waves of bombers, protected by fighting ships. German losses were very heavy—at least 75 planes in a single week. But the German airmen nearly potted King George from the blue, and a rumor circulated all over England that they had wounded Winston Churchill. This proved untrue, however, for Churchill escaped, in southeastern England, into an air raid shelter. The British blasted back at France, Belgium, Holland, and the Rhineland, but were generally out-numbered. Man for man, their hard-boiled, long-service regulars were much more effective than General Goering's hot-shot youngsters, but there the British advantage ended.

The British public, under fire, was showing its usual courage and endurance. The very heart was blasted out of one English city, which remained unnamed. Ghastly time-bombs (an effective form of assassination) were being dropped by both sides, and each side blamed it on the other.

F-W-198

The Germans were producing a brand-new fighter plane, called F-W-198. It was good for 400 miles per hour, as against the 387 of the British Spitfires, and the 350 of the British Hurricanes. The new German freak had the propeller in back, to push, instead of in front, to pull. It was a "flying wing" design, with no tail, but with a couple of sticks running back to support the two rudders. It had two cannon, mounted out on the wings, and four machine-guns, stuck in the nose of the pilot's cabin. It was heavily armored, and outweighed the Hurricanes and Spitfires, the two standard types it has to fight against. F-W-198 was a monoplane worth watching.

SHIP NEWS: Arrivals

Maurice Maeterlinck arrived at New York on a Greek liner, with his wife, and parents-in-law. He is now 78, and ferociously anti-German despite his Blue Bird philosophy. Somebody commented on "the weary calm of the Belgian Shakespeare."

President Hambro of the Norwegian parliament was also in New York. He had held the job for 15 years; then he lost it.

Also in New York was young Otto Hapsburg, Austrian pretender to various thrones; and there was talk about his imperial mother, ex-Kaiserin Zita, coming over too. Duke and Duchess Warfield-Windsor were to be on the way, en route to the duke's new bathing preserve, the Bahama islands. The rich Anglo-Americans were trickling home at a great rate, but their hearts belonged to Churchill.

AN ALLY: Selassie, Etc.

One of the oddest war bits yet to evolve, came to light. England made Haile Selassie a full-fledged war ally, against Italy. London formally recognized the little exile as Emperor of Ethiopia, Lion of Judah, etc., and told him that he was now back "on" the Ethiopian throne. Mussolini was reported as enormously amused by it all, though Selassie's revival may aid native rebels against Italy, in the Ethiopian sector of Italian East Africa. England had formally and officially recognized the Italian conquest of Ethiopia by an agreement of 1936. Haile is still only 49 years old, and was said to be rarin' to go. But where?

Another British ally was the sultan of Jehore. Jehore is near Singapore, in the Malay peninsula. The sultan met a rude Canadian in a London air-raid shelter. The sultan

FORODDS & FORENDS:

London now has a Polish daily newspaper, transferred from the previous "Polish" capital of Angers, in France. It is London's first stab at morning Polish journalism.

The Renault automotive factory, outside Paris, was reopened by the Nazis. It employed 15,000 workers in good times. Renault cars are famous. They always carried the radiator behind, not in front of the hood.

Sweden seemed to be fitting into the new united Europe, though without any enthusiasm. It made trade agreements with Germany, Norway, Russia, Denmark, Italy, and Hungary. Much of it will be based on goods for goods; that is, by barter, instead of via "plutocratic" gold.

The U. S. liner Manhattan brought in 1,000 American refugees from Lisbon, Portugal. The export liner Exeter brought 500 more of them. The U. S. liner Washington brought in some 1,500 Americans from Galway, in Ireland. These were considered last-minute "emergency" voyages.

said he was the sultan. The rude Canadian said: "That's nothing. I'm the king of Ireland." But the good-natured sultan laughed, and proved his point. Once the French police arrested him for photographing the Maginot line area. His sultana was Scotch, but he divorced her by saying, under Moslem law, "get out" four times. She got out, pronto.

1940 CAMPAIGN: Phases & Phrases

Now, no doubt, begins the season of straw polls. The big political conventions are over, but the campaign has scarcely begun. The Democrats had the limelight for the past week or two. But Willkie also managed to get a bit of publicity here and there.

Battling Willkie chose Chicago for his campaign base and his national headquarters. He rented a large suite of offices in the Loop, the Chicago headquarters to be run by John Hamilton, former national chairman for the G. O. P., and now executive director of the national committee. New York was designated as eastern headquarters. Candidate Willkie made holiday in Colorado, where his breezy ways got breezy greetings.

ENIGMA On-and-Off Molotov

MOLOTOV

Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia does not break into print often—at least not so often as some of his predecessors.

Of all of them, he has been the most enigmatic. And thus Russia's place in the European drama remains mysterious. Is it Germany's ally? Or is it preparing for war with the Nazis?

Russia's "grab" in Rumania of area formerly belonging to it does not answer these questions. Berlin's recent warning to Hungary to behave with relation to demands on Rumania only complicated the "dope" of the experts.

Whether Molotov and his Berlin "allies" are on friendly terms or off is Molotov's secret still. The situation has furnished an open season for commentators. Speculations of every fancy have appeared. Most of them were highly conjectural.

MARTINIQUE: What a Mess

The little French West Indian island of Martinique was still blockaded by British warships. They were after the French naval units there, including the one French aircraft carrier, loaded down with American-made planes. Anglo-French bitterness was growing apace, and a naval battle threatened, with Uncle Sam as the unhappy referee.

How to feed Martinique? That was the question. It seemed possible that American steamers might bring in supplies to the beleaguered French, who were out on a limb, and far from home. Some critics hoped the French would scuttle their ships, and get it over with, thereby strengthening neither Hitler nor John Bull.

The Monroe doctrine was being further confused and twisted every day, and wee little Uruguay appeared to be its chief Latin American upholder, while the Mexican presidential aspirants twisted Uncle Sam's coattails.

Chile was a perfect example of it all. Here were five communist daily papers, and four distinct Trotskyite parties. Germany was its second-best customer, and 40 per cent of the Chileans were illiterate. In Peru, two-thirds of the people were "straight" Indians, who knew and did nothing. South Americans were talking about the four horsemen of the apocalypse. The four horsemen were labeled Hitler, Stalin, John Bull—and Uncle Sam! This was exemplified in a bitter Chilean cartoon.

MORE ODDS AND ENDS

Italy banned necking and petting, believe it or not. The prefect of police, at Milan, put an end to "frivolous activities, in contrast to the present international situation." Buggy rides, during blackouts, were a special consideration. What price romance, and the resultant birth-rate?

Lithuania "liquidated" the Zionists, and the "reactionaries." Reactionaries, apparently, were any non- or anti-communists.

The Bridle Path

BURMA ROAD: Nippon Wins

Gen. Chiang Kai-shek has been holding out for a long time against Japan. For this, he has needed military supplies. These came to him through British Burma, and through French Indo-China, and they came in large doses. The Japanese were enraged, and the collapse of France, in Europe, threatened to halt the traffic through Indo-China. But still the war stuff passed along the Burma road to Chungking, Chiang's capital. So Japan got hard-boiled about it. Nippon threatened the British "capital" of China: Hong-kong, with its billion of invested mazuma. At first the British held out and defied the Japs, but finally they gave in. They agreed to prohibit the transport of arms and ammunition, trucks and gasoline, and to allow Japanese inspectors to help enforce the air-tight agreement. This eased the Jap-British tension in the Far East, though it may prove to be a death blow to Chiang Kai-shek. But England was in no condition to take on fresh opponents.

AIR BASES: Should We Take?

Three members of the house military affairs committee made a survey of our northeastern coast defenses. They were Smith of Connecticut, Faddis of Pennsylvania and Byrns of Tennessee. They recommended that the United States should acquire and fortify fleet and aerial bases in Nova Scotia and Bermuda. They considered that coast defenses for the Yankee northeast were "deplorably" weak. The usual demand is for Newfoundland, Bermuda, and Trinidad, all of them British. Nova Scotia is British-Canadian. They might be traded in to us, as a part payment on the war debt from the last World war.

The three congressmen appeared to be definitely New England-minded, and they thought 18,000 mechanized troops should be stationed "down east."

NAMES . . . in the news

The Crowmells, who lost their own child and will take care of 500 refugees.

Doris Duke, world's richest woman, lost her baby, born prematurely in the past fortnight. At about the same time, there was up for consideration in Britain a proposal by the tobacco heiress and her husband, James Crowmell, former U. S. ambassador to Canada, to take over the care of 500 British refugee children. This constitutes the largest number to be "adopted" by a single private family.

Seven American ambulance men in France were decorated by the Gallic government, for conspicuous bravery. The seven were Thomas Esten of Massachusetts, Charles Willen of New York city, Jack Calhoun of Paris, Laurence Jump of Nantucket, Lloyd Moore of Washington, Edwin De Neuv of Paris, Draper Kauffmann of California. Jump was captured, then released, and is in Stuttgart, Germany.

King George VI got a brand-new aide-de-camp. His name is Brigadier J. C. Wickham, age 54. Wickham has the Distinguished Service Order: the D. S. O.

President Albert Lebrun resigned as French chief, and Marshal Philip Petain took his place. Under Petain, ruled a triumvirate of Pierre Laval, Gen. Max Weygand and Adrien Marquet.

Gen. George Marshall, chief of staff of the United States army, urged that we adopt compulsory military training, and call a general mobilization of the National Guard. Marshall addressed the senatorial military affairs committee. The whole defense and re-armament program was getting more and more confused.

AROUND the HOUSE Items of Interest to the Housewife

A little milk added to the water used for lace curtains will launder them beautifully.

Shades of pink can be set by soaking in salt water.

If you have over-salted the soup, peel a potato and put several slices into the soup. Boil it for a few minutes and the potato will absorb the salt.

Broiled tomato slices not only decorate but also improve the flavor of steak or chops.

Use water that has been before or has been standing a little to make tea. Draw it water and let it boil for a few minutes. Water that has been before tastes flat, because the air has gone out of it.

When freshly washed windows are dry wipe them with tissue paper to make them sparkle.

To prevent cauliflower from turning dark while cooking, put a slice of lemon in the water in which it is cooked.

BOYER'S FRIENDS PROMOTING HIS CAMPAIGN

W. J. Miller, campaign manager for Max Boyer, candidate for State Senator, stated Monday that the entire efforts of Max Boyer's friends would be directed towards an intensive campaign to elect Max Boyer in the first primary, July 27. Miller met with county representatives from some 15 counties during the day, and stated that reports coming in were real encouraging. "Twenty-five friends of Max Boyer have dedicated the entire week to his election campaign," Miller stated. "These friends will give their time and expenses in the closing up campaign, working to promote Max Boyer to the State Senate."

Boyer has only two speaking dates scheduled for this week. He will speak at Panhandle on Wednesday evening, July 24th, and at Borger Thursday evening July 25th. Both speaking dates are for 8 p. m. Boyer attended the All-Panhandle Political Rally in Amarillo Tuesday.

Van W. Stewart, friend of Max Boyer, publisher of the Ochiltree County Herald, at Perryton, devoted the major portion of the front page of his paper to a review of the Boyer campaign and the possibilities of the Ochiltree County candidate being elected in the first primary election.

Mr. Stewart said in part, "Max Boyer, Ochiltree and the North Plains candidate for State Senator enters the final week of the campaign with the united support of his home district, and the prospects of winning out in the first primary election, July 27th. Boyer has earned the reputation of being the hardest working candidate in the Panhandle field. Beginning early in March, Boyer has visited every incorporated town and city in the 26 counties of the Senatorial district. He has made a speaking engagement in all towns and cities during the campaign and has visited in the homes and in business houses of most of the voters in the district."

"Max Boyer is grateful to the people of Ochiltree county and the many friends in his Representative district for the splendid work they have done during the present campaign. Records at the Max Boyer headquarters in Perryton shows a list of 10,000 postal cards mailed out by his friends in the ten counties of his district to voters in the remaining 16 counties of the senatorial area. The records show hundreds of letters written by business men of Perryton, Spearman, Dalhart and Borger. This class of campaigning, and the fact that Perryton and Ochiltree county is sending out two to five cars daily visiting the voters over the district, has given his campaign the clean wholesome atmosphere that has increased the confidence of the voters."

"It is noticeable that Max Boyer has not varied in his appeal for votes from the time he announced to the last days of the campaign. Today and tomorrow you will hear that Max Boyer is asking the vote of his people on merit. He has not made a single utopian promise, but has said in substance, the record is written in black and white and I invite you to study my action in the past, and judge for yourself from proven action what you can expect from me in the future."

Lewis P. Fields for Congress

Amarillo, Tex. When Lewis P. Fields, candidate for Congress came to Amarillo 20 years ago, a job was made for him. His immediate task was to organize the Amarillo branch of the American Legion. The son of Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Fields, longtime resident of G. O. M., he had been reared on farms and ranches in Pecos and Dunley and Carson counties, attended the public schools and Good Light College. He was fresh from active fighting service with the A. E. F. in France.

As an insurance man, it has been necessary for Fields to become acquainted with methods and problems of many varied industries. As a by-product of mingling with business firms, he speedily found himself called upon to plan and perform civic duties in behalf of many community betterment movements. In that field he has been a leader many years in his home city.

Years ago his abilities and enthusiasm won him an intimate contact with the Hon. Marvin Jones, Grover Hill and other agricultural leaders. He has worked with both the planning and carrying out of the agricultural and range programs and is thoroughly familiar with them as well as with business problems.

It is the opinion of those who know him well, that Fields' personal life, his wide knowledge of business and agricultural problems, his intense interest in social betterment plus his proven practical ability, make him a candidate who will truly represent the interests of the citizenry of this district.

Favors Makes Radio Talk

Ennis Favors, candidate for State Representative, 122nd District, while taking over radio station KPDN Pampa Thursday at noon, again reiterated that he would not spend his time while representing the people condemning the Governor or fellow members of the Legislature.

Mr. Favors promised to raise his voice at all times against what he thought was wrong, and for what he thought was right, but said at all times he would refrain from indulging in personalities.

He said that the one biggest thing that contributed to the failure of the last Legislature, outside of the members' prejudices, was that most of them were elected upon specific tax plans, and would vote for their plan and against all others. Mr. Favors said he would vote for any reasonable revenue measure that would evenly distribute the burden, and predicted the Social Security Program would be carried out to the letter during the coming session of the Legislature.

Mr. Favors again advocated a law to require all Legislators to reveal their source of income under oath once every six months and file the same of record, so that the people would know who

If elected your Legislator will cooperate with your Governor.

I believe it is time to discharge constitutional obligations and pay our old people, retired school teachers, dependent children and the blind.

I favor any reasonable revenue measure for Social Security.

The poll tax payment should be reduced, or abolished as a qualification for voting.

I am convinced the 7000 pound truck load limit in Texas is unfair and should be raised.

Our State Fund accounts are too numerous.

I favor elimination and consolidation of overlapping State Departments.

Household News By Eleanor Howe

SERVE A SUCCULENT STEW (Recipes Below)

There's something so homey and tasty about a good stew, that most folks feel cheated unless a stew of one sort or another appears on the family table fairly regularly.

There are stews and stews, of course—lamb stews with feathery light dumplings and an assortment of vegetables to add flavor (and vitamins!); hearty Mulligan stews; and stews of chicken that masquerade under all sorts of fancy names.

There are even "Cinderella Stews," which start out as leftovers and end up as a well-seasoned one-dish meal. Remember that "serving a stew" is an economical measure, and a time-saving one, as well. Stews and meat pies usually make use of the less expensive cuts of meat. Their preparation is simple, and they make a satisfying "One-dish meal," indeed.

Lamb Stew With Mint Dumplings.
¼ cup butter
2½ pounds lamb (cut in pieces)
4 cups boiling water
1 tablespoon salt
¾ teaspoon pepper
¾ cup carrots (sliced)
3 cups potatoes (cut in cubes)
3 onions (sliced)
1½ cups tomatoes (canned)
¾ cup flour
¾ cup cold water

Heat butter in large saucepan. Add meat and brown. Add boiling water, and seasonings; cover. When boiling, reduce heat and simmer 1½ hours. Add vegetables and continue cooking slowly for 1 hour. Mix flour and water to a paste and add slowly. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Increase heat and when boiling vigorously add dumplings. Mint dumplings:

2 cups bread flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup lard
2 tablespoons fresh mint or parsley (chopped)
¾ cup milk (approximately)

Sift together dry ingredients, cut in fat and add chopped mint. Add milk and mix gently with a fork. Drop by spoonfuls into boiling stew. Cover and continue to steam for 15 minutes without lifting the cover.

One-Dish Sunday Dinner.
For a practical, one-dish meal that can be left simmering while one is in church on Sunday, chicken rice pilaf is unsurpassed. Cut a 3-pound chicken in pieces and fry in butter to a golden brown. Add salt and pepper to taste. When nearly brown drain off all but ¼ cup fat, add an onion, finely sliced, a little chopped parsley and ½ of a bay leaf and fry 10 minutes longer. Wash 2 cups rice and spread over the chicken; add 4 cups boiling water, one small sliced tomato (or 2 tablespoons canned tomatoes) and 1 teaspoon salt. Stir gently; cover, bring to a boil and then simmer for one hour. A small family might have the best parts of the chicken fried one day, and the rest cooked this way the next day, using only 1 cup of rice and 2 cups of water.

Lamb Riblet Stew. (Serves 4 to 5)
4 pounds lamb riblets (rib ends of breast of lamb)
4 tablespoons fat
3½ cups water
1 tablespoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
5 medium size onions (peeled)
5 medium size potatoes (pared)
3 carrots (scraped, and cut in halves lengthwise)

Have butcher remove breast bone from breast of lamb, and cut between rib ends to form finger-like pieces. Wipe meat with a damp cloth, dry, and brown in hot fat. Drain off the fat, and add 3½ cups of water to the meat. Cover, and simmer for one hour. Add seasonings and the onions, cover, and cook for 30 minutes. Then add potatoes and carrots. Cover, and cook for 30 minutes longer. Pour off the gravy, and add a tablespoon of flour mixed with 2 tablespoons of cold water to form a paste. Cook, stirring constantly, until the gravy thickens. Arrange lamb riblets in the center of a serving platter with the vegetables around the sides. Pour gravy over top.

Creole Chicken Gumbo File.
1 4-pound chicken
Flour, salt, pepper
½ pound lean ham
2 tablespoons lard or butter
1 onion (chopped)
1 sprig thyme
1 bay leaf
1 tablespoon parsley (minced)
Garlic, amount you like, rub bowl
¼ red pepper pod, without seeds
Boiling water
1 dozen shrimp or more
Creole Gumbo File

Clean and cut up chicken as for a fricassee. Dredge with flour, salt and pepper. Cut ham into small dices. Place lard or butter in soup kettle or deep stewing pot and when hot put in the chicken and ham. Cover closely and brown for 5 to 10 minutes. Then add onion, parsley, garlic and thyme, stirring occasionally to prevent burning. When nicely browned, add boiling water just to cover chicken. Add bay leaf broken very fine—and red pepper pod. Lower flame and allow Gumbo to simmer gently until chicken is tender—2 to 4 hours. Remove carcass and bones. Just before serving, add 2 dozen shrimp, diced. Heat through thoroughly. Remove from flame and add ½ tablespoon to 2 tablespoons of Gumbo File.

Brunswick Stew.
Put one gallon of water in a large iron pot, bring to a boil, and add one tablespoon of salt. Add one onion minced fine, one pint of shelled butter beans, six potatoes peeled and sliced, six ears of corn cut from the cob, one-half pound of fat salt pork or bacon cut into shreds, one-half teaspoon each of black and cayenne pepper. Two squirrels or one large fat hen, disjointed and soaked in cold water to draw the blood out, are next thrown into the pot. Cover closely and stew very slowly for two hours, stirring occasionally from the bottom. Stew one hour longer, add two teaspoons of white sugar and one quart of tomatoes peeled and sliced. Ten minutes before serving add one-fourth pound of butter cut into bits and rolled in flour. Bring to a boil again and serve on soup plates with dry rice. This is a dish men like and one they can excel in preparing.

Mulligan Stew. (Serves 6)
1 medium size corned beef—minced
1 onion—minced fine
1 No. 2 can peas with liquid
1 medium size bottle tomato catsup
1 cup water
Salt and pepper to taste

Put all ingredients in saucepan and simmer gently over low flame for about one hour. The flavor improves with the length of cooking time.

PATTERN DEPARTMENT SEWING CIRCLE

IF YOU have weight to consider, you couldn't choose a more attractive and becoming fashion than this gracious, softly detailed dress (8679) with high-cut front panel that diminishes the waistline and flattens the diaphragm. It fits beautifully over the bust, thanks to gathers at the waistline and beneath the cleverly shaped yoke. The bow at the deep neckline adds a soft, dressy touch, without fussiness.

The skirt is classically plain and slim-hipped, with moderate fullness at the hem. Make this for bridge parties, luncheons and club affairs, choosing chiffon, georgette or voile, with frills of lace or ruffling. And for all its expensive, distinguished appearance, this dress is easy to make.

Pattern No. 8679 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 38 requires, with short sleeves, 5½ yards of 39-inch material without nap; 1½ yards ruffling. Send order to:

Strange Facts

Change Our Weight
Tuxedos in Prison
Interest in Canada

Various parts of the human body have different normal temperatures, and the body as a whole changes in weight from minute to minute.

On some festive occasions in Sing Sing prison, such as the annual Christmas show, the inmates who participate are allowed to wear their tuxedos.

One pigment, anthocyanin, makes some cornflowers blue, others bordeaux-red or rose-red, and dahlias deep red, this variation in color being due to the different degrees of acidity and alkalinity of the cell sap.

Although Canada's population is no greater than that of the metropolitan area of New York city, American industry has $4,000,000,000 invested in that country and controls nearly 2,000 of its companies, half of which are manufacturing plants.—Collier's.

All Could Not Be Peace And Quiet at That Gallery

"If you want to spend a quiet hour," said the solicitous native to the visitor, "there is no better place than our art gallery. You will be well repaid."

"Just a minute," replied the stranger. "I've been reading about it in the guide book. It says that the visitor, on entering, is struck by a statue of Hercules. Then he is stunned by the splendor of the great staircase. A picture in one room is full of punch, while farther on one is crushed by the overwhelming magnificence of another painting. Finally, brilliant colors run riot everywhere. No, sir, if I want a quiet hour I'll take a boxing lesson!"

"Freedom-of-the-Press" Exponent Candidate For Criminal Appeals Judge

Hon. George E. Christian, Who Wrote Opinion Upholding Rights of Newsmen to Report Trial Testimony to Public, Seeks Promotion; 13 Years Experience As Commissioner.

By Texas Capital News Service. AUSTIN. — Candidacy of Hon. George E. Christian of Burnet County for judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals recalls to newspaper men throughout the State the opinion written by Judge Christian as appeals court commissioner in 1935 that definitely set out the "freedom-of-the-press" in the matter of reporting and publishing for the public accurate news of testimony and proceedings in a trial court.

A district judge presiding over a murder trial in Brazoria county had instructed three Houston newspaper reporters present not to publish the testimony in the case until after the trial of companion cases set for later date involving two others in the same alleged crime, lest it prejudice and thereby disqualify prospective jurors in the subsequent trials, possibly requiring a change of venue.

The newsmen, Harry McCormick of the Press, Frank L. White of the Post and E. Rider of the Chronicle, communicated the court's instructions to their respective managing editors, Ed M. Pooly of the Press, Max Jacobs of the Post and George Cottingham of the Chronicle, who refused to refrain from publishing the testimony. The six men, after being duly cited and given a hearing, were adjudged to be guilty of contempt of court and assessed fines. The case attracted nationwide attention in the summer of 1935.

When it reached the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, and was given a hearing, it devolved upon Judge Christian to write that court's opinion. As recorded in the 88 South Western Reporter, 2nd series, pages 104-8, this opinion reveals some gems of democratic philosophy, couched in terse phrases, that are apropos at this time in light of contrast between democratic and totalitarian governments.

Another important decision of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals where the opinion was prepared by Judge Christian is the case against Herbert Tigner of Harris county that holds in effect the right of the state legislature to enact anti-trust legislation for control of industrial interests who would combine in restraint of trade, but exempt agricultural and live stock producers labor unions and taxpayers' groups. This opinion was sustained May 6, 1940, by the United States Supreme Court.

A native and resident of Burnet county Texas; a student in Southwestern University, Georgetown, and a graduate in both arts and law from the University of Texas; an officer in the American Expeditionary Forces during World War I, George E. Christian has served as a district attorney, assistant attorney general, and as a member of the Board of Pardon advisers before his appointment as a judge of criminal appeals of Texas, July 1, 1927. A commissioner is appointed by the court to sit in on consultations and write opinions, but has no vote. After a service of 13 years in this capacity Judge Christian is now going before the court of public opinion to ask a promotion.
