Carnival

Because of many people who attended and their well filled pockets, the Parent and Teacher course had $280 at midnight last Thursday night when the annual Halloween Carnival closed. Of this amount $215 was clear profit, the biggest figure in years. This enormous sum was the result of the splendid work of the general committee, their assistants, the school children, the friends and patrons, and the merchants. There was an unusually large crowd in attendance.

There was plenty of fun in the room of eight wonders, the negro minstrel, the doll racks, basket ball throw, cake walk, bingo, and hall of horrors. So delicious were the hamburgers that the cooks sold out long before the evening closed. Only a few of the cakes and pies were left for auction after eleven o'clock.

The crowning event was the coronation; a beautiful pageant, in which the princesses and their escorts from ten grades, and the queen and king from the eleventh participated. This contest brought $108 into the Parent and Teacher treasury.

The Parent and Teacher Association wishes to thank all who helped with the carnival either in effort or contribution. Especially do we wish to thank the following merchants: Hill's Bakery, Cooper Hotel, West Texas Utility, Charm Beauty Parlor, Huffman Barber Shop, M & M Dry Goods, Boren Grocery, Wilson Drug, Variety Store, Moreman Hardware, Watson Dry Goods, Pierce Grocery, Clarke Tailor Shop, Jack's Cafe, Naylor Shoe Shop, Lynn Barber Shop, Hedley Drug M System, Bowling Alley, Thompson Hardware, Mac's Cafe, Mobley's Tailor Shop, Saunders and Tollett, Kendall's, Olsere Smith Lumber Yard, Woodridge Lumber Yard, Stanford Laundry, Biele Laundry, Hall Service Station, Log Cabin Station, Barney Johnson Station, Bill Johnson Station, Barney Clifton Garage, Connie Taylor Garage, Security State Bank, O E Johnson Farmer's Gin, McDougal Gin, Hedley Gin, Land Mill; also Little Merchants, Clarendon Beauty Shop and Hays Flower Shop of Clarendon.

Alumni Banquet

The executive committee of the Hedley Alumni Organization met Tuesday, Nov. 5 at which time plans for the annual banquet were laid. The following committees were selected:

Invitation and Registration: Mrs. Ott Saunders, chrm., Jennie Merie Pickett, Iona Wall and Mrs. Velva Saunders

Program: Myrtle Reeves, chrm., Lois Rains and Don Pickett

Table: Charles Rains, chrm., Blaine Roberts, Leon Reeves and Fred Tidwell

Decoration: Jennette Clarke, chrm., Pauline Bellver and Mrs. Harrison Hall

In order to decrease expenses, invitations will not be mailed to local alumni; and we are asking your cooperation in helping us secure out of town alumni's addresses. If you know of any interested please call or see Mrs. Ott Saunders. Plate will be 50c and the time will be 7:45 p. m. on the Saturday following the last Thursday in November, or Nov. 20. If you are a graduate of Hedley High School, this is your banquet, and let us know if you plan to attend.

Mrs. Ray Moreman, pres.

Mens Class Entertained

Charles Rains entertained members and prospective members of the Baptist men's Sunday School class at his home west of town Tuesday night. Everyone enjoyed games of 42 and dominoes, after which little Miss Sarah Ann Rains served the guests delicious sandwiches, potato chips, doughnuts and coffee.

Those enjoying the occasion were Rev. A. L. Teaff, Harrison Hall, Jay Hunt, R. W. Alewine, Roscoe Land, W. O. Payne, Hobart Moffitt, Dick Vallance, Bill and Jeff Wiggins, Virgil Gregg, John R. Lawrence, Ted Dudley, Ed Bellver and the host.

All present departed expressing hopes for another such occasion in the near future.

WOMACK WILL HAVE OTHER BURIAL ASSOCIATIONS TO ADVANCE STANDARDS

It is proven that with the steady growth of the Womack Burial Association that other Burial Associations are gradually catering to the Womack Plan of more and better funeral service benefits. Eventually, all burial associations in Donley county will need to offer the best quality of Men's Burial Suits and Ladies' Dresses and undergarments, hose and the miscellaneous garments, have the funeral notices printed notifying friends and acquaintances, provide a cherished memorial record and New Testament to the family properly edited. Then since the Womack Funeral Home Ambulance takes care of most of the sick and suffering to and from the hospital, Donley County as a free service to their many friends, then with Womack's bringing this service to such a high point, then other funeral homes will add such a service, not as a courtesy and benefit but because Womack's set the high point for such a demand for such a service.

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD
 Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions. These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feet weak, nervous, all played out. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Great Britain Rushes Help to Greece To Assist in Fighting Italian Invasion; First Peacetime Draft Lottery Held; Election Day Ends Spirited Campaign

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

DETROIT, MICH.—To break the "bottleneck" which is holding down production of fighting planes, William S. Knudsen, head of the national defense advisory commission, met here with heads of the auto industry to lay plans for the mass production of planes. Picture shows, left to right: C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors; Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor company; Knudsen; K. T. Keller, president of Chrysler corporation; and Paul Hoffman, president of Studebaker corporation.

GREECE: Invasion

War came at last to Greece. Trouble had been looming for this country ever since the government rejected Italian demands for territory and for a free and unhampered passage of Fascist troops over Greek soil.

Italian motorized units first thrust themselves over the Greek-Albanian frontier in the mountainous borderland that stretches between the two countries. Then came two air-raid alarms for Athens, the Greek capital, and the war was on. Two of the city's major airports were bombed by the Italian planes in the first raids.

The Greek government officially announced that Great Britain was sending her "unlimited support" in her resistance to the Italian invasion. From London came word that England's pledge to back up Greece would be immediately fulfilled and a special session of the British war cabinet was quickly called to consider the outbreak of this new war.

Italian sources claimed that the Greeks had been guilty of "provocations" and before the outbreak of actual hostilities, Rome had issued an ultimatum demanding the right for Italian forces to occupy Greece.

England's aid for her new "ally" would logically come in the form of air and naval forces operating from Egyptian bases, informed sources in London said. British men-of-war were immediately steaming out of these bases toward Greek ports, early war bulletins indicated.

What effect this new theater of military operations would have on the decision of the Turkish and Russian governments to cast their lot with either side thus became an important diplomatic question. Turkey's attitude would more than likely depend on how much aid Great Britain would give Greece and upon news of Russia's behavior in the present crisis.

CAPSULES: Lottery Party

Selective service officials in Washington put all the numbers from one to several thousand in opaque blue capsules; trotted out a blindfold that had been a museum piece since the World war, and the notables of the nation drew them out of a fish-bowl, just as was done in 1917.

Every effort was made to make the capsule party as near like its ancestor as possible.

It was the identical blindfold; supposedly the identical fishbowl (though there was some uncertainty about this) they were the same capsules, the same numbers.

And just to make everything perfect, there also was Lieut. Charles R. Morris of Elizabeth, N. J., who dropped down to the nation's capital to complete the picture.

He is the man who blindfolded Secretary of War Baker at the time No. 258 was drawn in 1917.

Lieutenant Morris even stirred the capsules with the same paddle that they were stirred with before.

Selective service headquarters announced the classification of the entire group would proceed, but that the first roll call would probably be small—about 20 per cent of the

STRETCH DRIVE: Political Race

Few elections within memory have seen such a "stretch drive" as the two candidates put on while the 1940 race neared its end, with the "big surprise" (to voters of one side or the other) waiting at the "wire" November 5.

The Republican big guns unlimbered, with Dewey, Al Smith and John L. Lewis furnishing the major explosions. Al and his brown derby stepped into the picture against the man who nominated him.

Dewey went "all out" for the man who trimmed him at Philadelphia; and John L. Lewis deserted Roosevelt and jumped clean overboard from the ship of New Deal state, to sink or swim with Wilkie.

New features on the political scene were the vanishing of the Literary Digest poll, and the appearance of Dr. Gallup and a half-dozen small fry copyists, now seeing the thing from one side or another.

Wisecrackers said the "election Gallupped along to the finish."

The closing days of the campaign were marked by more boozing, yowling and cheering in movie theaters during newsreel political "shots" than the oldest resident could remember.

PRESSURE: France Gives In

The yielding of the Vichy government to Hitler's demands brought the war to a new crisis, as Britain prepared for a possible naval onslaught on the French fleet at Toulon and other bases. It was believed the new fight might make the 10-minute battle at Oran seem like a picnic.

Pierre Laval's star was in its ascendancy, Paul Baudouin leaving the French cabinet, a move in which British statesmen could find little comfort as Laval is even more anti-British than was his predecessor.

Russia continued to teeter on the brink of trouble in the Balkans. Soviet leaders were invited to participate with the Axis powers in an epochal conference over the final disposition of the lower Danube in consonance with Europe's New Order. Yet Britain continued diplomatic pressure on the Soviet in the hope of keeping Russia a potential aid to Turkey and Greece in the Balkans.

Nazi air pressure relaxed for a couple of days. Londoners got a little bolder about their shopping, and suddenly daylight raiders jammed sticks of bombs into crowded streets. There was great slaughter. Italy proudly announced her planes were taking part in the London bombings.

Radio and press reports from Berlin admitted heavier raiding by British bombers. Chief development in the air was the use of the new type Nazi fighter-bombers, and the report that the R.A.F. was going to bring out a new model plane to combat them. Air losses by both sides were far below those reported in previous attacks, however, and ground casualties also were diminished, although property damage was heavy. British photos showed much destruction in their own country, and meager German reports admitted that Hamburg was hard hit.

Star Dust

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
 By VIRGINIA VALE
 (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

MARTHA SCOTT, playing the role of a school teacher in "Cheers for Miss Bishop," amazed Director Tay Garnett by her understanding of the role. Miss Scott didn't think it surprising at all—she used to be a school teacher, you see.

She hails from Jamesport, Mo. The family moved to Kansas City, where one of her high school teachers, Miss Ida Lilly, was so convinced that Martha had exceptional ability that she lent her the money to go through the University of Michigan. Martha took to college theatricals like a duck to water.

She taught for six months after graduation, then went back to the university to become head of the property department in the college repertory company. The company's head, Thomas Wood Stevens, took an interest in her, and when he became head of the Bonstelle theater in Detroit she went along.

"If I am a qualified actress today, the credit must be given to Mr. Stevens," she says.

Afterward she went to New York, where she played in dramatized ghost stories opposite Orson Welles. More stock—the engagement for the stage play, "Our Town"—then to Hollywood for the screen version of the play. After that came "The Howards of Virginia."

Do you like stampedes? Then don't miss "Arizona" if you want to see the largest and most realistic cattle stampede ever attempted in motion pictures. The 700 white-faced Hereford cattle were purchased for it and rehearsed for a month; then three weeks were spent in filming it in Rattlesnake canyon, 18 miles from Tucson. Participating in the stampede with the cattle were 150 Papago Indians and 100 American "pioneers," headed by Jean Arthur and William Holden.

Remember Ingrid Bergman, who won so many hearts when she made her one appearance on the American screen? You'll see her again in "Legacy" planned as one of Columbia's most important pictures of the year. It's being produced by Robert Sherwood.

Metro has a new series under way for you; it's called "Keeping Company," with Frank Morgan and Irene Rich in the father and mother roles, and John Shelton and Ann Rutherford for the young couple who keep company. The cast includes Virginia Weidler and Gloria DeHaven.

Carol Bruce used to sell music sheets in the 5 and 10. Now she's on the air in Ben Bernie's show, a star in the Broadway musicale, "Louisiana Purchase," and sings every night after the theater at the Waldorf Serf room. As if that weren't enough to keep her busy, she's studying dramatic art.

"Back in the old days, I couldn't afford dramatic lessons, so I studied by myself," she remarked the other day. "I stood in front of a mirror and made faces to go with the dialogue." She's getting ready to go to Hollywood after Christmas, to make a picture on the Universal lot.

Horace Heidt fully recognizes the necessity for encouraging talent within his band—you know that if you listen to his "Pot o' Gold" program. He eagerly introduces the songs composed by Frankie Carle, the pianist, and he's delighted that the recordings made by Fred Lowery, the band's blind whistler, are so successful; the record of "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" has passed the 20,000 sale mark.

ODDS AND ENDS—Rosemary Lane is breaking away from the team she's been part of with her sisters, and will freelance; she wants to have more time for radio. But you'll see her with the others in "Four Mothers" . . . Lana Turner, Judy Garland and Hedy Lamarr have starring roles in "The Ziegfeld Girl" . . . "Gone With the Wind" will be available for general release at approximately half its road show prices early in January . . . Melvyn Douglas has signed a new long-term contract with Metro; he's just finished "Third Finger, Left Hand" with Myrna Loy . . . And Jack Oakie has signed to make three pictures in a year with Fox.

Transforming a Box Into Smart Ottoman

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS
 PAD the top of a box and slip-cover it; then add a separate cushion three inches thick. The result will be a smart ottoman that either may match or contrast with the cover of your favorite chair. The little feet made of drawer pulls keep the ottoman from looking like a box. A corded seam where the skirt of the slip cover joins the top, and an inverted pleat at each corner of the skirt also give a professional touch. I suggest tacking the slip cover firmly in place as shown in the sketch.

If down or feathers are used to fill the separate cushion, make an inner cushion of ticking with a top and a bottom piece the size of the box top; and a straight three-inch piece around the sides. If kapok is used for filling, this inner cushion may be made of muslin. The cover of the separate cushion has corded seams to match the box slip cover.

NOTE: These directions should be clipped from the paper as they are not available in booklet form. However, complete directions for making slip covers and for making corded seams are in SEWING, Book No. 1. No. 3 also contains valuable slip cover suggestions. These 32-page booklets are 10c each. Although Roosevelt is officially listed as the thirty-second President of the United States, only 31 men have actually held the office. American Boy Is Companion To Thousands

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood church," writes one high school senior. "The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys' clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 25c a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 for one year or $5.50 for three years. Foreign and Canadian rates 5c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

Peggy Doherty Crowned Carnival Queen

The queen contest, sponsored by the P. T. A. culminated in the regal crowning of Peggy Doherty of the Senior class on Thursday evening at eleven p. m. The coronation was a picturesque pageant of her Majesty, her train bearers and her court, which was made up of the princesses and their escorts from the other ten grades.

Her Majesty, Queen Peggy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doherty. She was dressed in a gown of white taffeta, trimmed in American beauty velvet and dainty flowers. All her public school life has been spent in Hedley. The king, Billy C. Johnson, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson. Billy is vice president of the Senior class, editor in chief of The Hoot, and one of the most popular boys in high school. Little Jack Mereman, dressed in solid white, carried the crown on a white satin pillow. Sarah Ann Ralov and Blanche Sue Dudley, dressed in white organdy, carried Her Majesty's train.

Those who were in Her Majesty's court were: from the first grade, Wanda Joyce Hall dressed in pink satin and escorted by Gary Marrs; the second, Joyce June Bardine, dressed in gold taffeta and escorted by Adrian Youngblood; the third, Wanda Lee Shaw, dressed in white satin and escorted by Hubert Saunders; the fourth, Robbie Lee Hall dressed in blue taffeta and escorted by Duane Naylor; the fifth, Mary Sue Seales, dressed in blue satin and escorted by Lynn Cherry; the sixth, Dorothy Dishman dressed in blue satin and escorted by Rex Lamberson; the seventh, Ev. Jean Cherry dressed in aqua blue satin and escorted by Bucky Everett; the eighth, Dorothy J. R. was dressed in white satin and escorted by L. J. Wade; the ninth, Margie Burdine, dressed in white taffeta and escorted by Albert Martin; the tenth, Jane Ruth Hall, dressed in white taffeta and escorted by Granville Ivey.

Peggy Doherty of the Senior class received 4569 votes. Jane Ruth Hall of the Junior class was second with 3693 votes, and Dorothy Dishman of the sixth grade was third with 1361.

Mrs. Lula B. Owen and Miss Wilhelmina Clark directed the pageant. Messrs. J. W. Noel and J. Hunt held the poles, and gave the official counting.

Assembly

The assembly program for Thursday morning was prepared and conducted by C. L. McQueen and Ida Lou Johnson. To start things off Jessie Plank gave a short talk on the origin of Halloween. Next a group composed of Ivan Jones, Paul Dishman, Albert Martin, Geraldine Land, J. M. Dickson and James Biggs gave a short musical interlude in which they played "Little Brown Jug," "12th St. Rag," "Stardust" and "Stomping at the Savoy."

Following this a Halloween play was given by Bucky Everett, Mary Francis Meeks, Gene Latimer, Wanda Horn, J. G. McClung, Donald Bailey, Teddy Joe Myers, Lou Ann Wall, Sam Owens, Lavonia Grimsley, Eva Jean Cherry and Letha Bain. C. L. concluded the program with a bit of comedy and the recreational was played by Ida Lou and Chancey Ruth.

Mister X

Saw:

Peggy Doherty with Oster Hogard in Memphis Saturday night. Tell us, Peggy, what these outsiders have that us schoolboys "ain't got."

A group of junior girls taking the outcome of the queen contest too hard.

A large number of people with empty pocket books after the queen contest was over.

A group of boys giving every one a perfume bath Friday morning. You boys should try selling that brand of products because it seemed to attract quite a lot of attention.

Margaret McClung working very hard for the Junior Queen. You Sophomores should have made her work for you.

Wanda Horn actually walking to school by herself. What is the matter, Harold, are you slipping or was it just too cold?

Too many Seniors wearing "that million dollar smile" Friday morning. You Seniors should not swell up too much because this is just the beginning of the school term and your downfall will come before it ends (I hope).

Miss Bergner taking Mr. Bullard home Halloween night at a rather late hour. (Or was it early?)

Senior Best Salesman

The members of the Senior class pledged themselves to work to win the Queen contest at the carnival Thursday night. Consequently the class voted to give prizes to the salesmen who turned in the most votes. Mattie Irene Strickland brought in 515 votes and won first prize of five weeks of paid class dues. Ida Lou Johnson brought in 450 votes to win second prize, 2 1/2 weeks of paid class dues.

Magazines in the Library

The library is now receiving ten copies of The Readers Digest and ten copies of Popular Science each month to provide the students with wholesome reading and to supplement their course reading in history, English and science. These magazines are proving to be popular recreation and have protected some students against the wiles of downtown hall.

The library staff wishes to thank Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Moffitt for sending their old magazines. They provide reading material and useful illustrations. The school is grateful to receive any old magazines any one can spare.

American Boy Is Companion To Thousands

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read The American Boy Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "The American Boy seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in The American Boy."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in The American Boy Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys' clubs also recommend The American Boy enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of The American Boy advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in The American Boy, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

The American Boy sells on most newsstands at 25c a copy. Subscription prices are $2.00 for one year or $8.00 for three years. Foreign and Canadian rates 5c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to The American Boy, 7480 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan.

Smiles

Suspected Her
Two prim, old-fashioned women were discussing the modern generation.
"Yes," said one, "I don't know what the world is coming to—women masquerading as men."
"Yes," chimed in the other, "and everybody is suspected, too. Why, yesterday I received a letter addressed 'Dear Sir or Madam.'"

Strange
The minister was inquiring of one of his flock why he had not attended church recently.
"Well, you see, sir," said the man, "I've been troubled with a bunion on my foot."
"To think," said the person, "that a bunion should impede the pilgrim's progress."

He Knew It
"I liked living in the country. Never paid a doctor's bill all the time I was there."
"So the doctor told me."

Household Needs By Eleanor Howe

AFTER THE FOOTBALL GAME
See Recipes Below.

If you are entertaining the crowd after the game, you'll find substantial refreshments in favor; for the same crisp air that puts football players on their toes breeds keen appetites.

It's good social strategy to arrange everything buffet style and let the guests help themselves. You'll want a table that is festive, easy to handle, and yet casual. You may even want to set up card tables in the living room to make your guests comfortable after they have helped themselves from the buffet.

Natural colored linen, or rough homespun cloth will make a smart background for your serving table. Candles are often used very effectively, when serving buffet style, for they add both atmosphere and light.

If you double as hostess and chief cook, you'll enjoy the game twice as much if you plan a menu that can be prepared beforehand. Sandwich makings and a hot steaming beverage are a wise choice. Then wind up the feast with ice cream and chocolate cake.

Frankfurter Sandwich.

Boil or steam large frankfurters until tender and juicy. Slice thin on white or rye bread and serve with mustard and hot potato salad. Garnish with pickle.

Hot Potato Salad.

6 medium-sized potatoes
4 slices bacon (minced)
1 medium-sized onion (sliced)
2 tablespoons bacon drippings
1/4 cup water
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Cook potatoes in jackets. Cool, skin, and slice. Pan broil minced bacon, then saute onion in bacon drippings until brown. Combine and heat water, vinegar, sugar, salt, and pepper. Add to mixture in frying pan, and mix with potatoes. Place in baking dish and heat in moderate oven (350 degrees) before serving.

Egg Meringue Surprise Sandwich.

6 slices bread
1/4 cup butter (melted)
1/4 pound sharp cheese
6 eggs
Salt and pepper
6 slices bacon
Trim slices of bread and brush one side with melted butter. Place buttered side down on a cookie sheet. Cut cheese into strips about 1/4 inch in thickness. Arrange them, side by side, or fence-like on the bread. Separate eggs and drop one egg yolk in the center of each slice of bread. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Whip egg whites until stiff and dry, and pile high on top, completely covering the egg and cheese. Cut the slices of bread into halves and place two halves on each sandwich right across the egg white. Place in moderate oven (350 degrees) and bake for 10 to 15 minutes, or until the egg white is brown and the bacon is crisp.

Silver Cake.

(Makes 1 loaf cake)
1/2 cup butter
1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
2 3/4 cups cake flour (sifted)
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
4 egg whites (stiffly beaten)
Cream butter, add sugar and beat well. Sift the flour, baking powder and salt together, and add to sugar and butter mixture. Mix well, and place in refrigerator. When desired for use, remove mixture from refrigerator. Break up lumps with fork. Add milk and vanilla, and beat until mixture is smooth and creamy. Then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased loaf cake tin, and bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees) for about 50 minutes.

erately slow oven (325 degrees) for about 50 minutes.

Chocolate Peppermint Frosting.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 1/2 cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk
8 marshmallows (cut in quarters)
Few drops oil of peppermint

Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add sweetened condensed milk, stir over rapidly boiling water 5 minutes, or until the mixture thickens. Add marshmallows, and stir until they begin to melt. Remove from heat and add peppermint. Cool. Spread on cold cake. This frosting covers tops of 2 9-inch layers or top and sides of loaf cake generously, or about 24 cup cakes.

Vanilla Ice Cream.

(Makes 1 quart)
2 cups milk
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks (well beaten)
2 teaspoons vanilla extract
1 cup whipping cream

Scald milk, reserving 1/4 cup. Mix and blend the sugar, flour, and salt, and mix to a smooth paste with the cold milk which was reserved. Add this mixture to the scalded milk and cook, stirring constantly until thick, in a double boiler for 15 minutes. Add egg yolks which have been well beaten and cook, stirring constantly, 3 minutes longer. Add vanilla and chill. Fold in the whipping cream which has been whipped, place in ice cream freezer and freeze, using 3 parts ice to 1 part rock salt.

Sausages in Pastry Blankets.

(Makes 8 sausage rolls)
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup shortening
3 tablespoons cold water (approximately)
8 pork sausages
Sift together the flour, salt and baking powder. Blend in the shortening. Then add just enough water to form a dough, mixing lightly. Roll out and cut into 8 oblong pieces, each sufficiently large to wrap around one link of sausage. Place individual sausages (well pricked) on individual pieces of pastry; fold ends over and roll up. Place folded side down on a baking sheet. Prick crust with a fork. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) for about 30 minutes. Serve very hot.

Better Baking.
The smell of baking cookies and cakes will soon be permeating the house. Fruit cakes will be baked, packed and stored carefully, until the time they are to be used for gifts. "Better Baking" includes fruit cake recipes which have been thoroughly tested in Miss Howe's own kitchens. This cook book also contains many good cookie recipes, from old-fashioned Ginger Cookies to Fudge Drops.

If you are planning on giving cookies and fruit cakes to your friends as gifts, it will be wise to write for "Better Baking" now. Start your baking early, and avoid the last minute rush. You may secure your copy of this cook book by writing to "Better Baking" care of Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and enclosing 10 cents in coin.

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Tip on Molasses
Before measuring molasses for recipes dip the cup or spoon in hot water and the molasses will turn out more quickly.

AROUND THE HOUSE

Rusty nails put in the soil around a hydrangea bush will keep the soil healthy.

In cleaning gas ovens, put a little ammonia in the water. The cleaning will be made easier and the ammonia prevents the ovens from turning brown.

Try combining a cup of whipping cream, whipped just enough to hold its shape, with six tablespoons of apple butter, added two tablespoons at a time, blended well after each merger. Heap a fluffy mound of this yellow mixture on your favorite cup cakes.

To remove spots from varnished floors, rub quickly with a cloth dipped in warm water and mild soap suds. Wipe thoroughly and polish at once. Water removes finish from varnished floors, so use it only as suggested.

It's time to clean the fur collar on your coat. Heat cornmeal, in a shallow pan and, with the fingers, rub the meal well into the fur. After two days, shake out or brush lightly with a soft brush. If the fur is very soiled, repeat. This is very effective on the white fur so often used on evening wraps.

It Must Clerk

The thespian entered the office.
"There's a you, sir."
"Is she good-looking?"
"Yes, sir."
"Show her in."
Ten minutes later the clerk was summoned.
"Well," said the agent, gruffly, "you're a nice fudge of beauty, I must say."
"Ah, but I had to be careful, sir. I've got to look after my job. For all I knew, she might have been your wife."
"Yes," said the agent, acidly, "she was."

Wifadasos Club

The Wifadasos club met Oct 8 with Mrs. Henry Gunn and Miss Seretha Gunn as hostesses. We decided to help with the Red Cross work. We spent an enjoyable afternoon piecing a quilt. We will meet Nov 12 at Mr. Killian's with Mrs. Joe Thompson as co hostess. Bring your thimbles to sew for the Red Cross.

Remember it is time to elect officers for the coming year. The hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cookies and punch to 1 visitor, Mrs. Mary Stout and 15 members.

W. D. Franklin and Chester Walker visited in Sales Je Sunday. The former reports his mother, Mrs. Fannie Franklin feeling much better.
