J. A. Moreman Dies

'Uncle Johnny' Moreman, one of Hedley's best known and most respected citizens, passed away here early Sunday morning. He was a retired merchant and had been in ill health for some time.

Funeral services were conducted Monday from the Methodist church here by the pastor, Rev. I. E. Biggs, and the Clarendon Methodist pastor, Rev. H. C. Gordon.

Pallbearers were Ray and Ralph Moreman, Leon Reeves, Hobart Moffitt, Glenn Shultz and Earl Tollett. Honorary pallbearers included J. B. Masterson, D. L. Hickey, Joe Goldston, Lake Dishman, W. I. Rains and O. R. Oatwell.

Interment was made in Ottisens cemetery at Clarendon under direction of Womack Funeral Home.

John Anee Moreman was born in Kentucky on Mar. 23, 1869, being 71 years of age at the time of his death. He moved to Benham, Texas, when he was 16. He was married Nov. 20, 1898, to Alice E. Suddath. They moved to Hedley in 1906.

He joined the Methodist church at the age of 25. He lived a very devoted Christian life and was active in church work until his health failed a few years ago. He served as a steward and trustee in the church for many years. He was a home loving man, of a kind, patient and loving disposition.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Belle Brumley of McCamey and Mrs. Bill Ray of Clarendon two granddaughters, John Carroll and Shirley Brumley of McCamey, and two brothers, T. E. of Hedley and Frank of Louisiana.

The Informer extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

Chickens for Buckner Orphans Home

All of us recognize, if we are spiritually minded, that you and I have been trusted as administrative stewards and are really "workers together with God" as we make provisions for those who are less fortunate than we.

Please bring your chickens to chairman of benevolence committee, Mrs. Blackenship not later than Nov. 18.

Birthday Dinner

A lovely dinner was served Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Whitfield honoring B. J. Leathers, W. W. Beatty and M. G. Whitfield's birthdays. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Lee Holland and Joe Holland of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Piercy and daughter Jean of the J. A. Ranch, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Leathers and son Lee Roy of Lela Lake, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beatty of Rochester, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Swell Whitfield and daughter Sandra Lynn of Berger, Mrs. Homer Richardson of Phillips and the host and hostess.

For Sale—Model A truck, good shape. See Blaine Deberry.

For Sale—5 burner oil cook stove. See B. G. Clifton.

Miss Jewell Everett of Aspermont spent Sunday night with homefolks here.

Teachers Attend Meeting

A number of the faculty members attended the Donley County Unit of the State Teacher's Association which was held at the Chamberlain school on Wednesday evening, November 6. The purpose of this meeting was to elect officers for this year; to plan for the annual county teacher and trustee get together; and to discuss some teacher problems which are to be issues at the state meeting in Fort Worth during Thanksgiving holidays. Mr. Drennan gave us a very interesting and instructive report of the meeting of superintendents and principals held in Amarillo recently.

Mr. Todd had arranged a very pleasant program, during which Miss Mathis played two numbers. All the teachers had the privilege of inspecting a 1000 point rural school system. This school has equipment which would be a credit to any city system.

Those who attended were Messrs. Payne, Gregg, Bullard, Misses Hawkins, Bishop, Mathis and Mrs. Owen.

Cotton Ginning Report

The three gins had ginned a total of 1548 bales of cotton this season up to noon Wednesday.

Rev. Patterson Moves to Wichita Falls

The following was taken from last Friday's Wichita Daily Times: Rev. Walter Patterson, formerly known as the "Cowboy Evangelist," has assumed the pastorate of the First Church of the Nazarene, Fifth and Burkbarnett roads, and will preach his first sermon here Sunday at 11 a. m.

Reverend Patterson and his family arrived here Tuesday and were honored at a reception by church members at the parsonage.

Before taking his position here Reverend Patterson was pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at Post and Hedley. Prior to his pastorate he was engaged in evangelistic work in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico.

He has a wife and a daughter, Eunice, 14, who is a talented musician. The Pattersons are making their home at 1106 Fifth.

M. L. Sims Jr. Receives West Point Appointment

His many friends here will be glad to learn that M. L. Sims Jr., who is at Ranpolph Field, San Antonio, at present, has received the following letter concerning his appointment to West Point:

It affords me much pleasure to advise that since your name headed my list of candidates for appointment to the Military Academy, I have today nominated you for such an appointment. The War Department will communicate with you in regard to this in the very near future. I am

Cordially yours,
Marvin Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Shaw spent last week end in Albuquerque.

Joe Everett and family of Pampano visited here Sunday and Monday.

WOMACK FUNERAL HOMES FIRST IN EVERYTHING

The Womack Funeral Homes of this trade territory are accorded of being first in everything that pertains to funeral arrangements. The Womack Funeral Home of Hedley was the first in this locality to bring Free Ambulance service to all their friends in Donley County. This Funeral Home was the first to bring a Burial Association offering a complete Funeral Service in their Burial Association. Thus, there are no extras in the Womack Service. Every detail of merchandise and service are provided for before you enter into any obligation with the Womack Burial Association. Their funerals are complete and there are no additional charges after your original decisions are made.

The burial suits and dresses and undergarments, funeral notices, acknowledgement cards and those little extras are taken care of in a Womack Funeral Policy. The Womack Funeral Homes have brought a squad equipment service to their cemetery services. Thus, the loneliness often witnessed at the grave has been taken from a Womack Service, the playing of Chimes, Vibra Harp and Organ Music can be heard during the entire service. These are only a few of the many reasons that the Womack Funeral Homes are the leading funeral homes and serving more friends in time of need.

Halloween Party

Mrs. Seales entertained her Sunday school class and other friends with a lovely Halloween party at her home on Tuesday night, Oct. 29. The group started out playing a guessing game and prizes were awarded to the winners. Numerous other games were enjoyed by the group and finally they were led on a treasure hunt through some dark rooms. Stumbling out of the last room the group got their treasure which was some popcorn balls. The following were then given apples and candy: Chansey Ruth Key, Jess Ruth Hall, Lois Rhodes, Margaret McClung, Jessie Plunk, Lavonia Grimsley, Mary Sue Seales, Gertrude Land, Walter Bill Wiggins, Billy Johnson, Billy Siffie, Keith Bain, Harold Clifton, Billy Allee, Loveday, Robert Grimsley, Glenn Cherry, Rev. and Mrs. Teaff and three children, and our host and hostess.

Clyde Medkist of Clovis visited here first of the week.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON (Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—This reporter was in Washington in June, 1931, when Pierre Laval made his visit to President Hoover in the interest of a debt adjustment. M. Laval quite innocently handed us a nice little nosegay of a story. The story withered and died because its publication might have been tactless at the time, when with psalter and harp we hymned a new international brotherhood. Today, however, the story seems pertinent to M. Laval's accurate appraisal in the Europe which we "see through a glass darkly."

The newspapers were making quite a fuss over M. Laval and his pretty daughter, Josette. When a grand limousine called to take him to the White House, he was done up in a morning suit and an ascot tie. There had been a mix-up in the chauffeur's orders and he had arrived far ahead of schedule. "How much time have we before we are due at the White House?" asked M. Laval. "A little over two hours," replied the chauffeur. That is time for a driver. Is there anything that you would particularly like to see?

M. Laval then said this a moment and then said: "Well, if we have all that time, I certainly would like to see Hollywood." M. Laval's ideas of geography may be more important now than they were then. As vice premier of France, he throws his weight with the Axis powers, which he frequently has done, in a general European hegemony under Germany. M. Laval's ideas of geography may have remotely influenced his decision. It's a small world—only a short drive to Hollywood. And, by the grace of Chancellor Hitler, he may be France's next strong man.

It was in the post-war years that Laval took his sharp swing to the right, moving along with Flandin, Tardieu, Francois-Poncet and others of the powerful cartelization and comite des forges groups, which sought financial accommodation with Germany, before and after the advent of Adolf Hitler.

DEMETRIOS SICLIANOS, the Greek minister at Washington, takes calmly the news of Italy's assault on Greece. This is perhaps understandable. Greek Minister at During his 35 Washington Leans years in the To the Long View diplomatic service of his country he has encountered not only wars, but periods of exile and jail, with everything coming out all right in the end, at least so far as he was concerned.

His occasional jail and exile troubles have been due to being temporarily on the wrong end of arguments involving the proper form of government for Greece. He is a staunch royalist and a firm believer in monarchical government, and is skeptical about the working of democracy in the United States, or elsewhere. But he makes it clear that he is not for dictatorship. He thinks freedom thrives best under a king. Siclianos is an optimist. Repeatedly in interviews he has set forth the unity and fellowship of the Balkans. Rumania, Yugoslavia, Turkey and Greece have been to him a solid front of brotherly interests "which not even Adolf Hitler will ever be able to break." He has denied allegations that Premier John Metaxas is a dictator, insisting that all of the traditional freedoms of the press, speech and assembly are still zealously guarded in Greece, with no invasion of personal liberties.

Lindsay C. Warren, former Representative from North Carolina, is pictured as he was sworn in as Comptroller General of the U. S. He replaces Fred Brown, former New Hampshire Senator, who retired due to illness. Warren was sworn in by Judge Vinson, U. S. Court of Appeals.

Senator Hattie Caraway (above), of Arkansas, acted as Senate Majority Leader in the absence of Senator Alben W. Barkley, regular Senate Majority Leader, thereby becoming the first woman to assume those duties in Capitol history.

GREECE:

A "Dark Hour" The stand that the Greeks were making against the Italian modern and mechanized army supported by distinctly a surprise in the war news of the week. Ioannina (Janina), far from falling a quick victim to the invaders, proved no easy nut to crack and instead of the Fascist troops falling over themselves on the road to Salonika, there were reports that Greeks had bayonet-charged their way into Albanian territory, capturing Biglista.

Whether or not the Italian invasion was bogging down, Count Galeazzo Ciano was rushed from Italy into Albania with instructions to speed up the Italian advance. At last reports the Turks were sharpening their tools of warfare, all army leaves were cancelled, and it looked very much as though Ankara was getting ready for immediate action in case any of the other Axis specters "piled on."

British aid was of a concrete nature, as forecast at the outset of the Rome-Athens difficulty. Islands of strategic import have been occupied by land forces, rushed from Egyptian bases. R. A. F. planes are aiding the Greeks in force, and the battle seems joined on a more equal footing. Where the Albanians stand is still a mystery. Rome has asserted that Albanian units are fighting with the Fascist legions. Greece simply refers to these troops as "irregulars."

British occupation of Crete is variously interpreted. Some observers saw in this move the bottling up by the British Mediterranean fleet not only the Adriatic, but also the approach to the Dardanelles.

ORDERS:

Moving Manpower The big lottery party in Washington put some 17,000,000 young men where the breeze of conscription could blow about 10 per cent of them into Uncle Sam's uniform for a year of military training.

Those who were carrying serial and order numbers around in their pocketbooks on little white cards were putting red rings around four dates on their calendars. First 30,000 will move toward "a year" and room and board for "a year."

Another group will have a date with their local boards early in December, and the third and fourth allotments will start for camp, according to present schedules, in January and February. It is taking higher mathematics to determine the ratio on which the various local boards will select their quotas. But the effort is to make it "even Stephen" according to number of registrants, each board permitted to subtract the numbers of volunteers, also those now serving in the army, navy, marine corps and the National Guard.

Of the 890,000 to be taken, 117,000 odd will come from New York state, but even the most sparsely populated sections of the nation will do their share.

How many will come back to civil life—how many will embrace the army as a permanent career—that is a big question. But the regular officers will do their best, when they find lads with a flair for the military life, to do a job of salesmanship. The officers' training schools will do their part. When a $20-a-week clerk finds he can bark commands and get a yellow bar on his shoulder and a company to order around, what kind of a bet is it that he will want to go back to his desk?

FIFTY-FIFTY: U. S. Aids British

Reports from London indicated that the pace of German air raids over that city and most of England had shown a decrease in numbers and intensity. Whether this slackening of pace was only temporary these reports could not predict. One thing was sure however: America's aid to Britain is not likely to soon slacken. Just before the election dust settled down, President Roosevelt, in one of his final campaign addresses, brought the war right into the battle as an issue, and there it stayed for the rest of the race. Americans were treated to the odd picture of campaign boosts for one side or the other coming, not from our own sidelines, but from across the pond via short-wave radio. When the Nazis issued a criticism of Roosevelt defense policies, that was translated by the candidates' supporters, from Flynn on down, as a message that the Nazis were rooting for the election of Willkie. And vice versa.

The war and peace issue, the question of taking sides with one or the other of the European combatants became a real issue. In the closing days Roosevelt startled the nation by announcing that Britain was getting, would continue to get, one of every two planes coming off American assembly lines. The U. S. bomb-sight turned out to be two bomb-sights, one better than any now in Europe, one belonging to the navy, one to the army. The latter, not quite so good as the former, was to be released to England, our nation hanging onto the latter, exclusively. The army bomb-sight was to be put on all planes delivered to Britain and the navy sight was to go on all our own army and navy ships.

AVIATION: Mishap

Ten persons were killed as an east-bound airliner crashed in a blinding snowstorm in the Wasatch mountains, ten miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. Bound to Salt Lake from San Francisco, the huge transport was carrying seven passengers and a crew of three. Air officials stated after their first investigation that the crash probably was due to the "failure of the range or radio beam." Last word from the plane came as the pilot radioed he was approaching the Salt Lake airport following the radio beam.

NIBLETS . . . of the week's news

Vichy, France, reports the birth of quintuplets to a French mother, four boys and a girl. The girl died, but the boys are said to be healthy, well-formed and likely to survive. A rare book sale was held in New York. An early Robert Burns edition brought $15,000, and a presentation copy of "Alice in Wonderland" by Lewis Carroll went for $15,300. In fall and winter storks migrate from Holland to South Africa. Johannesburg reports finding one that had eluded Nazi censorship. Attached to a leg was the message from a Dutch citizen: "We, inhabitants of Bergen-Op-Zoom tell you that life under Nazi occupation is hell." Another message said, "The Dutch people are dying under injustice."

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA YALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

THE Pennsylvania State Board of Censors recently banned Paramount's "The World in Flames," which is as hard to understand as their banning "The Ramparts We Watch." The official ruling—"In the judgment of the board this picture has a tendency to corrupt and debase morals, and it is not proper."

The picture is a factual record of the past 20 years, and stresses the need of our nation's preparedness. It had its first public showing in Washington, D. C., before an audience of high officials of the federal government, and received the unqualified approval of such national defense leaders as the secretary of the navy and the secretary of war.

Henry Fonda's all in favor of living in glass houses. The room he likes best in his own house is the breakfast room, which is built entirely of glass bricks. The light seems to flow from the walls in cheerful, spirit-boosting doses, and he's found it the best cure for before-breakfast blues, even when he has to get up at the crack of dawn to be at the studio on time. Fanny ("Baby Snooks") Brice straggles right along with him. She had a huge hole cut in one of the walls of her San Fernando valley home and filled it with glass blocks—they let in plenty of daylight, but they're non-transparent like goldfish.

Henry Fonda

It's news that Paramount won in the scramble to buy the screen rights to Ernest Hemingway's splendid novel, "For Whom the Bell Tolls"—the price was $100,000. It's a love story even more beautiful and thrilling than the one in "Farewell to Arms." The hero's role is perfect for Gary Cooper, who's had long discussions with the author about it.

"Land of Liberty," the feature picture which was the contribution of the motion picture industry to the New York World's fair and the San Francisco exposition, will be distributed nationally by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Plans call for donating the net amount derived from the release of the film to welfare work among soldiers and sailors by the American Red Cross and similar organizations.

Bette Davis

The picture tells the history of America from the days before the coming of the white men to modern times. Included in the list of stars appearing in individual sequences of the story are Bette Davis, Spencer Tracy, Claudette Colbert, James Stewart, George Arliss, Margaret Sullivan, Walter Houston, George Raft, and many other headliners.

It took a month for Paramount to persuade one of Detroit's huge automobile companies to let them use the interior of the plant to film scenes for "Reaching for the Sun," a story of the automotive industry. Joel McCrea and Ellen Drew are co-starred, and the cast includes Albert Dekker, Eddie Bracken and Billy Gilbert.

Just before Ray Heatherton went on the air for Westinghouse's "Musical Americana" somebody asked him who composed "Annie Laurie," which he was to sing. Somebody else piped up and said, "Robert Burns, of course." Heatherton would have won money on that question on a quiz program, for he happened to know that Burns was not a musician, and didn't even write the words of the popular old song.

Furthermore, he knew its history—that it developed as the result of a romance between William Douglas, a young Scotsman, and the real Annie Laurie; because her hard-hearted father objected to the romance, Douglas went off to the Flemish wars without claiming her as his bride. The verses, composed by Douglas, were found by Lady John Douglas Scott, who was a distant relative of Annie Laurie's, and she altered the words and composed the music. ODDS AND ENDS—Frances Langford's deep voice is attributed to the loss of her tonsils. The sponsors of the Tom Mix radio series will continue to, despite his death, as an inspiration to young Americans. "Boom Town" has been so successful that Metro is preparing "Leadville," starring Vivian Leigh, James Stewart and Clark Gable; it's laid in the Colorado mining camp in the 1870s. If you belong to a Kenny Baker fan club, get ready to celebrate Kenny Baker Day on November 20th. Approximately sixty of the fan clubs have set that day aside as his, and will give him a plaque at his broadcast.

ANTIQUE rag rugs have a special charm because their designs show so much individuality. The women who made them, planned their own designs and dyed the rags. To make a floral design, first make a spiral line in which becomes a rose. Two morning glories. The base leaves from plants and trees become tracing patterns for leaf designs. An oval cut from paper makes a pattern for a center medallion.

When making your own rag rug designs, always leave a hem allowance at least two inches wide to be turned under after the rug is hooked, and be sure to overcast the edge of the burlap when cut. Pin flowers and leaves cut out of paper onto the burlap, this way and that. When you get an arrangement that pleases, trace it to make your pattern.

NOTE: Mrs. Spear's Sewing Book 5, gives more rag hooking designs and further suggestions about how to draw your own flower designs. Also directions for a hook rug in the old-fashioned shelf design. No. 5 contains descriptions of the other numbers in the series. To get your copy, address:

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels

With herb laxative combined with syrup peppin to make it agreeable and easy to take. When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with good old Syrup Peppin to make your laxative more agreeable and easier to take. For years many Doctors have used peppin compounds, as agreeable carriers to make other medicines more palatable when your "taster" feels easily upset. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Peppin. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna, combined with Syrup Peppin. See how wonderfully its herb Laxative Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines, to bring welcome relief from constipation. And see how its Syrup Peppin makes Dr. Caldwell's medicine so smooth and agreeable to a touchy gut. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna at your druggist's today. Try one laxative that won't bring on violent diarrhea, even when you take it after a full meal.

THE HOOT

Basketball

The Hedley Owls started off their basketball season with regular workouts all this week.

Cosch Gregg has four first stringers back. They are V A Hansard, J B Long, Travis Alexander and J M Dickson. Along with these he also has four letter men, Billy Johnson, Bob Harrison, Keith Bala and Emory Stone. He also has nine squad men, Billie Biffle, Robert Grimsley, Truell Huffman, Johnny Phelan, C L McQueen, and those who came from the Junior team, R H Alexander, Billy Bridges, Willis Long and Granville Ivey.

Our first game will be some time near the end of this month.

Assembly

The assembly program for this week was divided into two parts. One part was announcements. Miss Cleek gave the announcement that grade school will put on a Thanksgiving Day Program next Thursday. Mr. Gregg gave a sketch of the Kid dy Kar basket ball game. The other part of the program was a talk on "Making Your Choice" by Rev. A. L. Teaff. Brother Teaff told us to choose worth while endeavors, then stick to our decisions. He told us not to be like the one frog that fell in the milk, give up too easily. The student body as well as the teachers enjoyed the lecture very much.

Mister X

Why Chanocy Ruth, Margaret and June are always seen in the Laboratory room from 8:30 till 9 o'clock every morning. Is it because you like to be with the boys who stay there?

Why Lavelle was so worried about Keith when she heard he was with another girl. Are you afraid you will lose him?

Why Billy Bridges doesn't get him some boxing gloves, if he intends to keep on pestering Colleen. It might be a good idea to take a few boxing lessons just to play safe, Billy.

Why Geraldine and Josie can't seem to do any better in civics.

Maybe it is because you can't get your civics lessons out of magazines.

Why Donald Bailey and Letha Bain talk so much in the study hall. Dan Cupid isn't at work is he?

What secrets Keith and Harold just have to tell Lavelle and Wanda at the study hall door when the bell rings at every period.

What Evr Jean dreams about in the study hall. Could it be that smile Bucky gives you so often?

Srs. Get Pictures Made

My! My! You should have seen these Seniors Wednesday morning. They sure did dress up and look nice. From outward appearance you might have thought they were trying out for a screen test but they were just getting their pictures taken. The following had their pictures taken: Johnny Phelan, Emory Stone, R H Alexander, Billy Johnson, Billy Biffle, V A Hansard, Keith Bain, Bruce Stewart, Robert Grimsley, Travis Alexander, Josie Plank, Geraldine Land, Ida Lou Johnson, Mattie Mobley, La Juana Davis, Peggy Doherty, Grace Randal, and Winifred Brewn. The proofs have come back and most of them are satis factory. It was the biggest thrill of over ten years of school work to get our pictures taken. We hope that you can see the big group picture when it comes out.

FHT Club

We had our regular club meeting November 8. The meeting was called to order by Ida Lou Jo Ann called the roll and read the secretary's minutes of our last meeting. Then the program was turned over to Margaret. The theme of our program was patriotism. We sang these patriotic songs "Star Spangled Banner", "God Bless America", "Texas our Texas", "Beautiful Texas" and "The Eyes of Texas". Then because Margaret McClung was having we presented to her a gift wrapped in white paper tied with red and blue ribbon. It was handkerchiefs from the members of the club. Bergner passed the candy and we ate candy while we sang "Blueberry Hill", "I'm Nobody's Baby", and "Dark Town Strutters Ball". Margaret sang "The Singing Hills" and "Sierra See" for us. To close our program the group sang "Good Night Ladies". The meeting was adjourned.

I had an idea what was coming, but I never batted an eye.

"I understand, Mr. Electric Light man," she said, "that you've been saying electric rates have been cut."

"Right," I said, "in fact, electric rates have been cut about 50% in the last ten years."

"Ha," she cried, "then maybe you can tell me why my electric bill runs higher now than it used to."

"Yes, madam," I said, "I can. Mine runs higher, too, and so, no doubt, does most everybody's in town. You see, all of us are using a whole lot more electricity now than we used to. Take your own case—I'll bet you've got a vacuum cleaner, a radio, an iron, maybe you're using those bigger and better light bulbs, and maybe you've got an electric ice box. The point is, you're probably using three or four times the electricity you did ten years ago."

"Hmmm," she said, "I hadn't thought of that."

"Few people do think of that," I said, "and here's another thing—our customers not only get twice as much electricity for their money —they get better service. We've got two and three plants on the line that brings electricity to your very house, so in case something happens in one point your service won't be crippled."

"Dear me," she said, "I never knew that either."

"And what does it cost?" I went on. "About a dime a day for most of our customers. Think of that—the convenience of electricity for less than most men spend on cigarettes."

I could see she was beginning to wilt, so I signed off with—"You not only get twice as much for your money, but you cut your own rate every time you use more. With our modern electric rates it's automatic—the more you use the lower the price."

She fished in her bag for her handkerchief and I thought maybe my oratory had moved her to tears! But she grinned and waved the handkerchief—

"Flag of truce," she cried. "I give up—electricity is a bargain all right."

HALLOWEEN PARTY SUGGESTIONS
 (See Recipes Below)

Halloween provides a good excuse for an unusual party. The theme you may select should be the basis around which the party is built. "Black Magic Party," "The Haunted House," "Buried Treasure Hunt," "The Witches' Rendezvous," "The Ghosts Gambol" are all suggestive names for the party you may be planning for All Hallows' eve.

A Halloween party without decorations just isn't a party. They may be so simple that it takes very little time to put them up; pumpkins, cornstalks, and lighted jack-o'-lanterns. Or you may decorate with witches, owls, black and orange crepe paper streamers, black and gray crepe paper moss dripping from the ceilings, or ghosts standing in spooky corners with eerie lights thrown upon them.

The invitations should, of course, be indicative of the type of party you are giving.

"On Halloween the ghosts will dance,
 The gnomes and goblins will sing and prance;
 So don your masks and costumes gay,
 To the Haunted House be on your way.
 The door will be open till the clock tolls eight,
 So take my advice and don't be late."

In keeping with Halloween we must not forget the traditional games and pranks. The chamber of horrors, with clanking chains, damp hands clutching the guests, and dark tunnels should put the guests into the spirit of the party.

Bobbing for apples, fortune telling and guessing games are all old favorites. These suggestions may bring to your mind others that may be old-time Halloween games.

Last, but not least, a party is never rightly ended without proper refreshments. If it is a small group, buffet supper may be served; and if it is a large group, simple, but delicious refreshments will finish the evening with the necessary zip!

Orange Date Cake.
 1/2 cup shortening
 1 cup brown sugar
 1 egg (well beaten)
 1 cup sour milk
 2 cups cake flour
 1 teaspoon soda
 1 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 cup dates
 1 whole orange

Cream shortening, add brown sugar slowly, and beat well. Add beaten egg and sour milk.
 Mix and sift flour, soda, baking powder, and salt. Grind dates and orange together through food chopper and add alternately with the sifted dry ingredients. Bake in a loaf pan in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 50 minutes.

Halloween Ice Cream Clowns.
 Place a ball of ice cream on a butter cookie and use raisins, tiny gumdrops or candied cherries to make the eyes, nose, and mouth in the ice cream. Place an ice cream cone upside down on the ice cream for a cap, and place a ruff of whipped cream on the cookie around the clown's neck.

Pumpkin Ice Cream.
 (Makes 1 quart)
 3/4 cup sugar
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon ginger
 Pinch of salt
 1 cup coffee cream
 2 egg yolks (beaten)
 1/2 cup pumpkin (canned)
 1/2 teaspoon orange rind (grated)
 1/2 cup pecan meats
 1/2 cup whipping cream

Combine the sugar, cinnamon, ginger and salt. Mix well. Add the cream slowly and scald over boiling water. Mix beaten egg yolks and pumpkin, and add to the cream mixture with the orange rind. Return to heat, and cook for 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Chill, fold in the

BETTER BAKING
 Most of us are prone to be a little inactive and unambitious during the warm summer months. Our appetites for heavy, hot foods become dull and we readily accept and enjoy cool, refreshing salads and beverages. Just as we put on heavier clothing when the temperature drops, so do we discard using salads as the main dish and dessert of the menu.

Miss Howe's book "Better Baking" includes many fine recipes, tested in her own kitchen. It will prove not only an incentive for "better baking" but also for better and more satisfying meals.

You may secure this book, "Better Baking," by writing to Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, enclosing 10 cents in coin.

nutmeats and whipped cream, and pour into the freezing container of an ice cream freezer, filling it not more than 3/4 full. Assemble and cover the freezer. Surround with a mixture of 3 parts of crushed ice to 1 part rock salt. Next turn the crank slowly and steadily until turning becomes difficult. When the mixture is frozen, carefully remove the dasher and pack down the cream with a spoon. Replace the cover, draw off the water, and replenish the ice and salt. Let stand for an hour.

Orange Sauce.
 1 tablespoon cornstarch mixed with
 1 tablespoon cold water
 5 tablespoons sugar
 5 tablespoons hot water
 5 tablespoons orange juice
 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
 1 teaspoon butter

Make a paste of the cornstarch and cold water. Add sugar and hot water and cook for 15 minutes, stirring frequently. Add fruit juices and butter.

Goblin's Dessert.
 (Serves 4 to 5)
 2 eggs (separated)
 7 tablespoons sugar
 1 tablespoon butter (melted)
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 3/4 cup orange juice
 1 1/4 cups stale bread (cut in pieces)

Beat egg yolks until very light, and gradually beat in the sugar. Add butter, salt and orange juice. Pour over the cubed bread. Beat egg whites until stiff, and fold into the first mixture. Pour into buttered baking dish and bake in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) for about 30 minutes.

Ginger Snap Pie Crust.
 (Makes 2 crusts)
 Make 3 cups ginger snap crumbs by rolling ginger snaps on bread board or crumbling through food chopper. Combine with 3/4 cup melted butter and blend lightly. Then press mixture into pie plate, shaping firmly all around, and place in refrigerator to chill until firm.

Pumpkin Chiffon Pie.
 (Makes 2 pies)
 3 tablespoons gelatin
 1/2 cup cold water
 6 eggs
 2 cups sugar
 2 1/2 cups strained pumpkin
 1 cup milk
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon ginger
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 1/2 teaspoon cloves
 1 cup whipping cream

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Separate eggs and beat egg yolks. Then combine 1 cup of the sugar, the strained pumpkin, milk, salt, and spices with the egg yolks and cook slowly, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove from fire, add gelatin, and stir until dissolved. Cool. When mixture begins to thicken, stir in the remaining cup of sugar and fold in the beaten egg whites. Pour filling in the chilled ginger snap pastry shells and chill in refrigerator until set. Before serving decorate pies with whipped cream faces, using chilled pastry tube.

Household News

By Eleanor Howe

It will soon be time for keeping open house, for the children will be home for the holidays, and friends will be dropping in at various and sundry hours. Great demands will be made upon your time, and even greater demands will be made upon your larder. Yet, you should be able to enjoy Thanksgiving with your family without becoming tired out.

A well-planned Thanksgiving dinner will insure an enjoyable and untiring day. Here is a menu you may like to use for your Thanksgiving dinner this year:

- Fruit Cocktail
- Olives Celery Pickled Onions
- Roast Turkey with Dressing
- Giblet Gravy
- Mashed Potatoes Baked Squash
- Cranberry Salad
- Hot Rolls Butter
- Hot Mincemeat Pie
- Coffee

In the days of the Pilgrim Fathers, and indeed not so many years ago, Thanksgiving was one day devoted not only to giving of thanks, but also to feasting. Not long ago I read of a menu that was served at a Thanksgiving feast. It contained not only roast turkey, but wild duck and several kinds of wild game. The vegetable dishes were innumerable, and even the desserts did not take a back seat when it came to quantity. With a menu such as this a good many hours were required for dining.

The simplified, modern version of the Thanksgiving feast is now just as thoroughly enjoyed. For it now leaves time for conversation and enjoyment; and the modern housewife enjoys this extra period of time for relaxation and visiting with friends and relatives.

Roast Turkey.
Allow 1/4 to 1 pound of turkey per person served. Dress and clean. Rub the inside cavity thoroughly with salt. Fill body and neck cavities loosely with stuffing. Truss. Brush well with unsalted fat and place on rack in large open roasting pan. (Store over night in refrigerator if desired).

The following time and temperature chart may be followed:

Weight of Bird	Oven Temperature	Approximate Cooking Time
Under 15 lbs.	325°-300°	2 1/2-4 hrs.
16-18 lbs.	300°-275°	4-5 hrs.
20-22 lbs.	275°-250°	5-8 hrs.

Dressing for Turkey.
10 cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup butter (melted)
1 tablespoon salt
1 cup parsley (chopped)
2 tablespoons poultry seasoning
Mix all ingredients thoroughly and use for stuffing the turkey. Note: This amount of dressing is sufficient for a 10-pound turkey. If a larger turkey is to be stuffed, the recipe should be increased proportionately.

Giblet Gravy.
Pour off liquid in pan in which turkey has been roasted. From liquid skim off 6 tablespoons fat; return fat to roasting pan and brown with 6 tablespoons flour. Add 3 cups stock in which giblets, neck, and tip of wings have been cooked; or if preferred, 3 cups milk may be substituted instead of the stock. Cook, stirring constantly, until thick; then season to taste with salt and pepper. Add giblets (cut in small pieces), heat well, and serve hot.

Cranberry Salad.
(Serves 10)

- 1 quart cranberries
 - 2 cups water (boiling)
 - 2 cups sugar
 - 2 1/2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
 - 1/2 cup cold water
 - 1/2 cup nut meats (cut fine)
 - 1/2 cup celery (cut fine)
 - 1/2 cup tart apple (cut fine)
- Wash cranberries. Place in saucepan, add boiling water and cook 10 minutes, or until cranberries are soft. Rub through sieve. Add sugar to the cranberry pulp. Return to saucepan and cook gently for 5 minutes longer, stirring frequently. Remove from range and add the gelatin, which has been softened in the cold water. Stir until dissolved and then chill until mixture just begins to thicken. Add nut meats, celery, and apple, and place in individual gelatin molds. Chill thoroughly, and serve in crisp lettuce cups.

Escalloped Oysters.
3 cups cracker crumbs (rolled fine)
1/2 cup butter (melted)
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 quart oysters
1 cup milk (approximately)

Mix cracker crumbs, butter, salt and pepper thoroughly. Spread layer of seasoned crumbs on bottom of buttered baking dish. Cover with half of oysters. Then add another layer of cracker crumbs, and the remaining oysters, and top with remaining cracker crumbs. Add sufficient milk to fill in all crevices and to bring liquid to surface of top cracker layer. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes to one hour. Serve very hot.

Honey Almond Sweet Potatoes.
(Serves 6)
6 small sweet potatoes
1/2 cup honey
1/4 cup hot water
1/2 cup almonds (ground)
1 tablespoon butter (melted)

Cook unpared sweet potatoes in boiling salted water until tender. Cool, peel, and cut into halves lengthwise. Then place, cut side up, in buttered baking dish. Combine honey and water; add two tablespoons of this mixture and the melted butter to the ground almonds. Pour remainder of honey mixture over sweet potatoes and then top with the honey almond mixture. Place in a moderate oven (350 degrees) and bake 35 to 40 minutes, or until brown.

Zucchini Squash With Tomatoes.
(Serves 6)
3 medium-sized zucchini squashes
3 slices bacon
1 medium-sized onion (cut in small pieces)
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1/4 teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste

Wash squashes and cut into 1/2-inch slices. Cook in boiling, salted water 8 to 10 minutes, or until tender. Drain. Cut bacon into small pieces and heat until fat is rendered. Add onion and saute until brown. Add tomatoes and simmer for 5 minutes. Add squash and simmer 5 minutes longer. Add salt and pepper, and serve.

Household Hints.

With the holiday seasons approaching, you are going to have more to do; new household tasks, more social obligations, and larger meals to plan and to prepare. You may often wonder where you will find the extra time to do these extra tasks.

Miss Howe's book, "Household Hints," is just the book to help you with these duties. Her time-savers will fit right into your everyday routine, leaving you more leisure time for the new activities which will come up during the holiday season.

You may secure her book by writing to "Household Hints," care of Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and enclosing 10 cents, in coin.

Gleaners Class

The Gleaners Class met Fri Nov 8, with Mrs. Marshall as hostess. We had a lovely dinner at the noon hour, with seven members and 2 visitors. Bro. Biggs and Mrs. Mendenhall. The day was spent in quilting. In the afternoon we had Mrs. E. P. Ford with us. We were so glad to have them with us.

We elected three new officers. Mrs. M. G. Whitfield as program committee, Mrs. Marshall as membership committee, and Mrs. Pyle as absent committee. Our next program will be for Thanksgiving so every one bring your part. We will meet with Mrs. H. L. Whitfield Nov 22 at the church, so every one be sure to come. These present were Mesdames Kendall, Pyle, M. G. Whitfield, Koeninger, Biggs, H. L. Whitfield and the hostess, and five children, Ora Lee and Merry Ruth Whitfield, John Charles Lomas and Neida Sue Marshall.

Card of Thanks

Even in our darkest hour of grief in the loss of our dear husband and father, we cannot but do our best to express to our many friends and neighbors our sincerest thanks and appreciation for all the many acts of sympathy and kindness of the last few weeks. We shall never forget those who have sought to lighten our burdens, and our burdens, and our prayer is that double kindness will come to you should you be called to pass through this valley of sorrow. We especially appreciate the silent tribute of the floral offering.

Yours in thankfulness,
Mrs. Moreman and Children

Alumni Banquet

The executive committee of the Hedley Alumni Organization met Tuesday, Nov. 5 at which time plans for the annual banquet were laid. The following committees were selected:

Invitation and Registration: Mrs. Ott Saunders, chrm., Jennie Marie Pickett, Ione Wall and Mrs. Vera Saunders

Program: Myrtle Reeves, chrm., Lois Rains and Don Pickett

Table: Charles Rains, chrm., Blaine Roberts, Leon Reeves and Fred Tidwell

Decorations: Jannette Clarke, chrm., Pauline Boliver and Mrs. Harrison Hall

In order to decrease expenses, invitations will not be mailed to local alumni; and we are asking your cooperation in helping us secure out of town alumni's addresses. If you know of any interested please call or see Mrs. Ott Saunders. Plans will be 50c, and the time will be 7:45 p. m. on the Saturday following the last Thursday in November, or Nov. 30. If you are a graduate of Hedley High School, this is your banquet, and let us know if you plan to attend.

Mrs. Ray Moreman, pres.
