Mrs. J. T. Bain Dies

Mrs. Alice Bain was born Oct. 29, 1877 in Tarrant County, Texas, and departed this life July 26, 1941 at Clarendon, at the age of 63 years, 8 months and 27 days. She was converted at the age of 12 and has been a member of the Methodist church and an active worker until she became an invalid.

She was married to John Thomas Bain Nov 24, 1895 at Decatur, Texas, and moved to Donley County in 1898 where she has lived since. To this union were born 11 children, 8 girls and 3 boys, G. W. and T. W. Bain both of Hedley, G. O. Bain of Dumas, J. G. Bain of Phillips, Mrs. A. B. Barnes of Sunray, Mrs. J. R. Hall of Clarendon, J. R. and K. E. Bain of Pacific Grove, California, and C. E. Bain of Wasco, California, all of whom were present at the time of her death except the three boys living in California. Two children preceded her in death, Raymond and Viola Bain.

Besides these children, surviving her are her husband, J. T. Bain, Clarendon, her mother, Mrs. O. C. Hill, Clarendon, two sisters in law, Mrs. J. C. Hill of Hedley and Mrs. Stella Hill of Amarillo, three brothers, one sister, twenty-five grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Patience, suffering, unselfish in all her thinking, this good wife, mother and friend has left memories that will live on and on. "Blessed in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

To all who mourn her loss, we would say, "Let not your hearts be troubled" she is at rest, happy in the home prepared for her by the Savior she delighted to serve. Follow her example in daily living so in that great day the family circle may be unbroken. That would be her greatest monument.

May her sweet influence hover about you and lead you in paths of righteousness and service.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church in Hedley by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, assisted by Rev. I. S. Biggs.

Pallbearers were Carl Naylor, Clayton Mann, Otis Owens, Ralph Davis, Arlie Wood and Hobart Moffitt. Honorary pallbearers were J. S. Hall, T. R. Moreman, Frank Kendall, J. B. Masterson, W. I. Rains and J. C. Heathington.

Interment was in Rowe cemetery under direction of Womack Funeral Home.

Aluminum Drive

Hedley is now taking part in the "Aluminum Drive" for national defense. A box has been placed on Main street in front of the postoffice, and all who have any old aluminum to contribute are requested to leave it there.

Do your part, however small, to help this worthy cause.

Revival

There will be a revival meeting at the West Baptist Church beginning August 1 and continuing through August 10. The pastor, Bro. Oneal Stout, will do the preaching. Morning services will begin at 10 o'clock and evening services at 8:30.

Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Old Settlers' Picnic

The annual Old Settlers Picnic will be Friday, Aug. 15, at Tate Grove near Hedley. All committees are working. The program committee has spent quite a lot of time planning a program they feel will be enjoyed. There will not be any prizes offered this year as the committee feels every one will be glad to help to make the best picnic possible for the pioneers.

As time will not permit long speeches each speaker will be allowed 10 minutes.

Everyone living in Donley County 20 years or over is eligible to become a member of this organization. Anyone may come to the picnic, but remember this is an old fashion basket picnic. Be sure to bring a well filled basket.

The program:
Master of Ceremonies, J. C. Estlack assisted by Clyde Bridges

30 min. Band Concert, Clarendon Band

Song, America by audience

Welcome Address by Judge R. Y. King

Response, Judge Moss

Music by Girls Quartet of Mc Knight

Tribute to Pioneers, Sam Braswell

Music, Childrens Chorus of Hedley

Memorial arranged by Rev. Patterson

Song arranged by Thava Crawford

Beautiful Texas, dedicated to the founder of the picnic, Mrs. W. I. Rains

Music by String Band

Prayer, Rev. Perry King

Noon

Band Concert

String Music, arranged by Jess Stiles

Quartet Singing and Group Singing

Anyone who has a number on program, please see Mr. J. N. Riley of Clarendon or Mrs. Clyde Bridges of Hedley.

Plenty of coffee and tea will be furnished by the picnic.

Committee to take care of Register is Mesdames Malcolm Glass, Claude Hill, Walter DeSord and John Dickson.

Warning

Postmaster Mabel E. Jones has received the following notice:

Mails are being flooded with letters relating to so called end less chain schemes soliciting defec savings stamps.

Patrons of all post offices should be warned that the sending of such matter through the mails is a violation of the postal fraud and lottery statutes. Notices are served upon persons participating in such schemes requiring them to show cause why fraud orders should not be issued against them. Such orders forbid delivery of any mail to the persons named therein.

Please call this notice to the attention of local newspapers so that it may be brought to the attention of the public.

Revival

A revival meeting will be held at the Church of Christ beginning July 31 and running through Aug 10. Bro. Claude G. Smith of Merkel will do the preaching. Morning services will begin at 10 o'clock, and night services at 8:30.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Germans Claim Deep Gains in Russia With Three Thrusts on 'Stalin' Line; New Japanese War Policy in Offing; British Push 'V' Propaganda Drive

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

RUSSIA: Line Pierced

Though claims of Russians and Germans continued to conflict, it was apparent that the Stalin line had been pierced at least three times, once each in the northern, central and southern fronts.

Thus it was evident that despite the huge numbers of troops involved, which lent a confused element to the picture, the Nazi technique of spearheads and pincer movements was working out inexorably, even though more slowly than the Nazis themselves had figured.

Some of the German claims met public denial from the British mission to Moscow, such as the assertion from Berlin that the Russian air fleet had been rendered useless in the face of German air attacks. The British in Moscow informed London that this claim was premature, that Russia still had a large and active air-force, and was dealing important damage to the Nazis.

Though perilous and daring, the spearhead technique which with equal armies might prove a terrible boomerang, especially if defenses as worked out by Weygand should be effectively carried out, was apparently beyond the Russian armies' ability to withstand.

The fall of Leningrad, Moscow and Kiev in many quarters was believed inevitable and perhaps imminent, and whether the Reds could get their armies back of the Moscow-Leningrad-Kiev line and go on fighting rear-guard actions seemed dubious in the extreme.

Still unconfirmed reports had Smolensk, vital city on the road to Moscow, in German hands or surrounded, and there were even reports from Sweden that Moscow was under terrific bombing and that the Kremlin had been "ruined."

This, however, the Germans did not claim, the high command simply stating that the Nazi forces would content themselves with the destruction of the effectiveness of the Russian troops before going on to Moscow.

With regard to Leningrad, the Germans said that their pincers were closing on the city, and that it was sure to fall soon.

As to Kiev, Nazi sources claimed their advance units were to the east of the city, having passed it to the south.

From the Russian viewpoint, all was not so hopeless, for while they admitted German advances on the central front, they claimed that the two pincer-heads attacking Leningrad were not moving through the Russian defenses, and that on the south the German-Rumanian armies were stalled also.

VOICE: With an Idea
Great Britain, after quietly and without much fanfare experimenting with a radio broadcaster who would give Europe something equal to or surpassing Germany's Lord Haw-Haw, came out boldly with "Colonel Britton," and polished off his opening broadcasts with a "V for Victory" day.

JAPAN: And Russia

Two things began to emerge out of the formation of a new Japanese government by the old premier, Prince Konoye.

1. The army and navy were to be in the saddle.
2. The attitude toward Russia is to be stiffened, probably including the breaking of the neutrality pact and possibly with some overt move either in Siberia or from Manchukuo toward the Siberian border.

Even the Chinese, apparently well-informed about Japanese intentions, failed to pierce the veil of mystery surrounding the new government's plans.

The Chinese called it a "water-bird" government, which meant that it would be calm on the surface, but that this calmness would mask a terrific activity soon to be launched.

Yet a report in Washington (coming from diplomatic quarters, back of which was that powerful figure Ambassador Grew) tended to indicate that the likeliest Japanese move would be toward the South Pacific, the direction in which Hitler is believed most anxious for Japan to turn.

Washington says that Japan's plan to "send a million men toward the north," ostensibly "disclosed" from Nipponese sources, is entirely too boldly and obviously displayed, and is intended to mask a move in the exact opposite direction.

The capital's viewpoint probably is most highly influenced by the doubt that Japan, faced by the never-ending war with China, is able to undertake any such major move as would be required to threaten Russia's Far-East armies, and that Nippon is much more apt to take the "soft touch" in the direction of Thailand and Indo-China.

DRAFT: Men, Business
The drawing for the second draft, that of 750,000 new 21-year-olds, came at a moment when the controversy was at its height over two other drafts—that of whether the older selectees and National Guardsmen should be kept in more than a year, and whether the bill calling for a "draft of business" if necessary, should be passed.

General Marshall had not pulled any punches in letting congress know his stand in the matter, which was to keep both guardsmen and selectees in over the time limit, and he had President Roosevelt apparently vigorously back of him.

Saved 'Eagle'

Shot down in a dogfight with Nazi planes over the English Channel Pilot Officer N. Maranz (above) of New York, a member of the U. S. "Eagle Squadron" of the British R.A.F., was feared dead. But now there is joy in the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Maranz in New York. For they have a letter from their son, telling of his battle and ultimate rescue by a German rescue boat. He is now a prisoner of war in Germany.

BELTS: Pulled In

Economists estimated that the United States' population, used to buying and having what it wanted, even if it took 18 months to a couple of years to pay for it, would have to do without about $2,000,000,000 worth of consumers' goods this coming year.

Biggest slices in what America is used to buying came in automobiles and mechanical refrigerators. With these naturally would come reductions in accessories like rubber tires, gasoline and oil and other commodities.

Washing machines were another item ordered cut to conserve the raw materials demands of the defense industries. In all of these items a 50 per cent cut in production for the coming year was ordered.

The curtailing program calls for no increase of prices at retail.

Mr. Henderson pointed out that the automobile, refrigerator and washing-machine industries were the largest, or close to the largest civilian consumers of common metals where shortages exist.

R. A. F. Results Noted

Most analysts agreed that if the bomb tonnage reported from R.A.F. sources as being dropped on objectives in occupied territories and in Germany was reasonably accurate, the damage must be terrific.

Perhaps outstanding of the British claims in this regard, however, was the toll of German shipping of coastwise nature. This claim ran 300,000 tons since the start of the Russo-German war, and all of it sunk by air action.

Also the R.A.F. directly claimed that at least one-third of the cities of Aschen and Muenster were destroyed or seriously damaged; that at least 301 Messerschmitts of two types had been downed; that 118 British fighters had been lost "over a country where an oil leak may mean a fighter has to bail out," but that 17 of the pilots had been saved.

But a New York Times correspondent in Ankara, quoting sources that had recently made it to Turkey from Berlin, painted a picture which covered broader and more important territory.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Nazis Employ Giant 'Pincer' Maneuver In Drive to Cut Russian Supply Line; Federal Agents Arrest 29 Persons In Largest U. S. Roundup of Spies

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

The figure in the lower left corner of the picture is an R.A.F. pilot, who seats on a rubber dinghy, dropped by the land plane overhead. The aviator, after being shot down by Nazis, was spotted by the English air sea rescue service, who radioed the high speed launch, shown just as it reached the scene. The plane hovered above, until rescue was completed, then sped away upon another mercy mission. These dramatic events are almost a daily occurrence in the battle of the Atlantic.

REDS: Fighting Hard

In spite of empty communiques from both Russian and German sources on the progress of the war on a 2,000-mile front between the two former allies, one thing was evident, that the Russians were fighting with all their might and main, but that they were being relentlessly pushed back before the fury of the German mechanized onslaught.

On the far north there was no discernible activity. This was the part which Germany hoped to invade by means of her occupation of Norway.

The northern front really began with the Finnish-Russian border, that part of it which lies to the southeast and separates old Finland from the road to Leningrad. Here the fighting was severe, but apparently was mostly in the air. Another portion of this front lay some what to the southward, and included the states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, and the Germans moving from East Prussia, were invading these territories only recently taken over by Russia, and were slowly forcing the Russians back into their own territory.

Here the fighting was extremely severe and the Russians were forcing the Nazis to advance slowly where at all.

The greatest Nazi advance was in the central front, with the rail center of Minsk, reputedly a "life-line" of Russian supply between south and north armies, as the prime apparent objective. Here the Germans were claiming their greatest success, and on the basis of meager dispatches, they had indeed covered the most mileage in this district.

Yet most observers believed the southern front, was the Germans coveted most. Yet this front that almost no had been made, the Russians claiming to hold the Prussian which was still a considerable distance from old Russian territory the old Nazi "pincers" technology was evident, as it was obvious the German defense army was divided into the Russian defending armies in two parts, and drive southward to surround and encircle the Ukraine and to do the same with the Baltic states with the northern borders.

ORALE: The Mental Side

As to the propaganda releases, which contained much more space and information than did the official news, there was every indication that both sides in the Russo-German war believed strongly that the other's inner morale was weak.

There were dozens of stories from sources telling of Nazi soldiers and aviators laying down their arms, saying, "we don't want to fight the Communists."

The Germans, on the other hand, did not make such claims, but took the line of telling the world what we and foolhardy fighters the Germans were, and by telling stories of an army suffering defeat, and letting its soldiers die even inside of burning buildings until all were killed. The purpose of each of these types of news was to impair morale. We have many observers to the outcome of the war, and expect a breach in the German side.

Great Career Ends

Sad news to the world of music was the death of Ignace Jan Paderewski, world famous musician and Polish patriot, who died in New York of pneumonia at the age of 80. The great pianist was ill only a few days. His long career was one of continued brilliance. At 9 he was a child prodigy and at 18 a professor of music. An accomplished concert pianist at 27, he later became a world recognized statesman and first prime minister of a free Poland.

Star Dust

By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

TESTING'S under way at Paramount for "For Whom the Bell Tolls"; Charles Laughton, Akim Tamiroff and Oscar Homolka have been considered for the role of "Pablo," but the burning question is—who'll play "Maria"? It calls for beauty, but even more for the ability to act.

We hear that Paulette Goddard heads the list of the girls to be tested; seems as if it would be a superb piece of miscasting if she got the part. Ingrid Bergman's our choice—and the author's.

Ginger Rogers has signed for three years more with RKO; she's been there for eight years. She did "Flying Down to Rio" then, and her dancing with Fred Astaire in that little number made them our leading dance team in pictures. She wisely insisted, at last, on acting as well, and worked up to "Kitty Foyle," which she didn't want to do, we hear, but which proved to be her greatest success. She's just finishing "Tom, Dick and Harry" now, and they say around the lot that it's a worthy successor to "Kitty Foyle."

Ginger Rogers

Orson Welles isn't making any announcements about his second picture for RKO Radio—he kept mum about "Citizen Kane" too, remember, and executives were pretty startled when they found out, too late, what it was all about and it looked as if they might have trouble if they released it. Instead of a trouble-maker, they had one of the best pictures of all time on their hands! Welles has admitted that he will write, produce and direct this new picture, and will star in it.

Joseph Pasternack, who guided Deanna Durbin through her successful screen career, has signed a contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer; it looks as if he might do for Kathryn Grayson what he did for Deanna.

Hollywood just didn't give a whoop about Victor Mature until he made a highly press-agented appearance in the New York stage success, "Lady in the Dark." He doesn't act much in the play, just looks tall, dark and handsome. Now it's announced that two motion picture companies want him; one, Twentieth Century-Fox, has bought half his contract from Hal Roach and will feature him in two pictures a year. The first will be "Bowery Nightingale," co-starring with Alice Faye.

Victor Mature

Old timers among the movie fans will remember Raymond Hatton; probably they'll also declare that "The Whispering Chorus," in which he starred for De Mille, was one of the best pictures ever made. Well, Hatton is working for his old boss again in "Reap the Wild Wind."

W. S. Van Dyke, the ace director, has been on active duty with the marine corps for the past year. Now he's returned to the Metro lot. And what do you suppose his first assignment will be? "The Female of the Species"—a long cry from the Marines!

Did you happen to hear "Man on the Street" on the "Manhattan at Midnight" radio show about a month ago? Within 24 hours after the sketch was presented five motion picture studios were after it. Paramount went out; Bing Crosby and Mary Martin will co-star. They've just completed "Birth of the Blues," with Carolyn Lee and Brian Donlevy.

People who've heard Bob Hope rave on the radio about Madeleine Carroll have decided that he must know her well enough to get autographed pictures of the blonde star for them. She's on location in the West Indies, so they've been pestering him for the photographs. He doesn't mind; he just got a lot of her pictures, autographed them with his own name, and had them mailed.

ODDS AND ENDS—Wayne Morris got leave from the Navy Department to finish "The Spilling Ghost" for Warner Bros. before he becomes an aviator. NBC is preparing a new series, "Boy Meets Band," for its singer-bandleader, Ted Steele, who used to be an NBC page boy. Though Bing Crosby can't read a note of music, the boys in John Scott Trotter's band say he's a swell conductor. Metro will push Harboe Hunt up the ladder to a result of her work in "Blossoms in the Dust." Service men who want to and can't see Hollywood stars broadcasting should apply to Charles Posner of the United Service Organizations.

PLANES: In Syria

Enthusiastic reports were beginning to come from Australians in the R. A. F. in Syria and northern Africa concerning the performance and maneuverability of American-built planes.

These reports constituted an oddity, however, with regard to the bombers and fighters. From northern Africa came glowing accounts of the performance of Martin-built bombers on the ever-growing strength of Britain there.

The bombers were fast, the sights were unusually good, and they were wreaking havoc with Nazi and Fascist planes in the air and on the ground.

The Curtiss-built Tomahawk fighter planes also came in for unstinted praise, not only on the North African front but in Syria as well.

But the Vichy French had the same Martin bombers that the Free French and British had in Syria, so it was Tomahawk against the U. S. heavier planes there.

The reports of victory were still optimistic in Syria, however, the airmen reporting that the Tomahawks shot down the U. S. Martins quite as well as they did the Junkers, Heinkels and Capronis in Africa.

"The fire power of these fighters is terrific and they have all the speed you want," said the pilots.

NOBODY: Satisfied

The passage by the house military affairs committee of a report condemning a long list of persons and agencies as having bungled the national defense showed a puzzled public that apparently nobody was satisfied with the way our preparations were being managed.

The house committee attacked the administration, the defense advisory commission, the army, the navy, OPM, the maritime commission and the state department and Secretary Ickes.

The President, it said, had been too prone, when new problems arose, just to name another board, with the result that endless complications and confusion had arisen to slow progress.

And harking back to the President himself, it was recalled that he, too, had declared himself far from pleased with the way things were going, just a day or two before the house committee reported.

William Knudsen, head of OPM, reported defense production lagging; Leon Henderson, price control man, was pegging the prices of tires and tubes and threatening in other directions; and the maritime commission was displeased with the ship owners and Secretary Ickes was having a hard time with the nation's oil men.

Defense plant workers, seeking places for their workers to live near their work, were falling out with the federal housing men, and it was hard to find anybody that was pleased with anything in the defense set-up—giving the press and speakers who were opposed to the New Deal handling of the whole show plenty of material for their attacks on his policies.

FIELD DAY: For Britain

As the Germans, led by Hitler in person, turned their backs on England, the British were having an aerial field day, running day and night air raids with minimal losses in men and ships and dealing out terrific blows to Nazi and occupied territory.

But the Britisher in the street was not satisfied. There was a growing demand for invasion of the Nazi-held lands. This spread far beyond the "man in the street" angle when one general suggested that the time had come for "hit and run" attacks on coastal points as a sure method of wrecking the Nazis' entire build-up for an attack on the British isles.

The general, J. F. C. Fuller, said he understood the British had amphibian tanks, and that if they did have them, now was the time to use them in cross-channel invasion attempts.

SPY: Roundup

In swift, secret moves, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation completed the greatest spy hunt in the nation's history and arrested 29 persons on espionage charges. Twenty-two of the group are natives of Germany.

For two years the FBI had been closing in on the spy ring which is specifically charged with conspiring "to engage in espionage activities" in the United States.

Warrants issued for the arrests charged the spies with giving information to foreign nations concerning cargoes of British-bound ships and with revealing new developments in U. S. naval, army and aircraft products.

BOMBER: U. S.' Biggest

The taking to the air of the B-19, a $3,000,000 airplane, and believed the biggest bomber in the world today, also the fastest and most powerful, was an event.

Yet it disclosed that bigger and faster ships are the rule of the future, and the not-far-distant-future at that.

Not so very long ago 400 miles an hour was a dream, and many experts declared that at 600 miles an hour, or 800 feet per second, the air resistance would burn up a plane.

This was exploded when the U. S. army announced that at Wright field a civilian test pilot dived a plane at the rate of 661 miles an hour, or 968 feet a second, which is losing altitude almost at the speed of sound, which travels only 1,120 feet a second.

The speed of the pilot, Bob Fausel, tester for the Wright company, was a mile every 5.44 seconds. Last year Andy McDonough, an air-line pilot and an air corps reservist, flew a Bell Airacobra in a dive at 620 miles an hour.

And Capt. Ben Kelsey had piloted a Lockheed from March field, Calif., to Mitchel field, L. I., in seven hours, at an average of 420 miles per hour. The tip-off as to the future came from Washington, for Langley field, already with a wind tunnel which will test ships designed for 300 miles an hour, is going to be revamped to test 500-mile-an-hour ships.

POWER: For F.D.R.?

There were two distinct schools of thought about the problem of granting President Roosevelt further additional personal powers in the emergency.

The war department, according to authorized sources in Washington, was putting pressure on congress to declare a state of unlimited national emergency, a step already taken by the President, but which would free his hands for considerable action now barred to him by the fact that congress has not given him the reins.

The isolationist press attacked his move instantly, and so did some congressional leaders who had generally been regarded as administration stalwarts.

BOOMED: Big Guns

The accuracy of American bombers from the air and the size of the bombs and bombs has caused the army chiefs to deem to obliterate the big railway guns, not to mention the big weapons fixed in coast guard positions.

Say the army chiefs; "These big guns cannot fire with early accuracy nor the effect of the big air bombers. The war department might as well abandon this weapon."

When frying don't put in the article to be fried until the fat is still and a faint smoke is seen rising from the pan.

A strong solution of borax and water boiled in the coffee pot occasionally will keep it sweet.

Cook linked sausages in a covered frying pan over a low fire. The fat will then cook out so slowly that the links will keep their shape and all the flavor will remain in the sausages.

Star Dust STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

IT LOOKS as if heroes of the sports world would come into their own on the motion picture screen with a vengeance in the near future. Columbia's already begun production on "Harmon of Michigan," with Tom Harmon himself appearing in the title role. Republic has signed Billy Conn, of the squared circle, to star in one picture. It will be "Kid Tinsel," based on the novel of that name by Octavius Roy Cohen.

Tom Harmon And David Selznick and Metro want to bring us a picture based on the life of the great Lou Gehrig of the baseball diamond. That one would be a little tougher assignment—imagine finding someone who'd be acceptable as Lou!

While we're on the subject of hero portrayals, Gary Cooper does a remarkably good job in "Sergeant York." The picture is one of those that you'll have to see, unless you want to sit by and suffer forever after while your friends tell you how good it was.

Most of the sequences of "Glamour Boy" show backstage scenes on the Paramount lot, so if you want to see what the inside of a motion picture studio really looks like, check this Jackie Cooper-Susanna Foster picture as one that you want to see. For one sequence, in a producer's office, Walter Abel and Jackie Cooper are doing a scene. Framed on the office wall are portraits of Madeline Carroll, Dorothy Lamour, Claudette Colbert, Mary Martin and Paulette Goddard.

Susanna Foster

"You seem to be nervous, Jackie," Abel commented. "What's the matter?" "Who wouldn't be nervous doing a scene with all those big stars watching?" Jackie demanded.

Deanna Durbin certainly is growing up; she's inherited a story that was originally bought for Margaret Sullivan. It's called "They Live Alone," and the Durbin role is that of a girl reporter who lives in New York. At present she's finishing "Almost an Angel," with Charles Laughton. The new picture postpones three others that were scheduled for her, so Universal must think it's good.

"Navy Blue and Gold" was characterized by the nation's critics as one of the finest service films ever made; naval officers have said that it is the most authentic story of Annapolis ever presented on the screen. So Metro is reissuing it, and we'll all have another chance to see James Stewart as he looked when he was a movie actor instead of a soldier.

Herbert Marshall has joined the all-star cast of the new Joan Crawford picture, "When Ladies Meet," which already included Greer Garson and Robert Taylor. Even before he joined it, Metro was announcing this as one of the most formidable star combinations of many months.

Richard Denning was Anne Shirley's West Pointer husband in "West Point Widow"; then he was Susan Hayward's brother-in-law in "Adam Had Four Sons." Paramount thinks so much of him that he's slated now to be Dorothy Lamour's leading man in "Her Jungle Mate." He's a white youth reared in the African jungle, according to the movie story (in reality he's just a home boy from Los Angeles), and is brought to America by a circus promoter as a rival to Miss Lamour, who's also been discovered in the wilds.

The members of 18 national fraternities voted Ann Sheridan their sweetheart, but she's a lot more excited over the fact that she has been given the most important role in her career. It's in "Whistling in the Dark." Red Skelton, the comedian, has his first starring role in this one.

ODDS AND ENDS—Bob Burcs will star in "The Wizard of Arkansas"—he'll be a rural sage, fairly bursting with homely wisdom. Columbia has acquired world rights to "Five Men," one of the most expensive British pictures ever made—Leslie Howard, Laurence Olivier and Raymond Massey are in the cast. For some reason Columbia seems to be impressed by the fact that its Edgar Buchanan used to be dentist; in their publicity he's always referred to as the dentist-actor. 20th Century-Fox hopes that "Swamp Water" will give Anne Baxter and June Andrews a boost toward stardom. Bessie Love returns to acting in the English "Atlantic"

LET'S HAVE AN ICE CREAM SOCIAL! (See Recipes Below)

ICE CREAM 'N CAKE

Shining in their starched dresses, the girls are ready "to recite their pieces," the boys, slicked and combed, are watching them shyly, and everyone's waiting for refreshment time to come. Of course, it's an ice cream social, that typically American festival to which homemakers bring their most delectable cakes and choicest ice cream. There, too, you'll find lemonade, "made in the shade by the old maid."

There was a time when an ice cream social, though as pleasant an affair as you'd find on the summer calendar, carried with it a great deal of careful preparation. Ice cream had to be kept in heavy containers which in turn were wrapped in blankets, and if the speaker and program lasted too long it was apt to be more melted than icy when you were finally served. But no longer do you have such a risk. The ice cream can be stored in your refrigerator and it will be kept really hard.

Making ice cream with the freezer method is fun, and usually the whole family gets together to do some of the cranking. The freezer has a wooden or metal bucket holding the ice and salt and a non-rusting metal container with a close-fitting cover for holding the mixture to be frozen. The mixture is stirred by a paddle attached to the crank which is operated by hand, and sometimes by a small electric motor.

Use three parts of ice to one part of salt. Turn the crank slowly at first for about five minutes or until the mixture stiffens, then as quickly as possible until it is difficult to turn. This takes about six minutes. Add more ice and salt if necessary. Pour off salt water, push down ice and salt being careful to get none in the can of ice cream.

Wipe top of can, uncover, take out the paddle, and beat the frozen mixture with a wooden spoon. Cover can with wax paper, and pack again. Let stand several hours to ripen.

If you would be famous for your ice creams and have them spoken of well at the social, follow directions to get the desirable smooth, creamy triumphs. Ice cream free from crystals and splinters will get first prize every time.

*Vanilla Ice Cream. (Makes 1 1/4 quarts) 1 1/2 cups sweetened condensed milk (15-oz. can) 2 cups thin cream 1 cup cold water 1 tablespoon vanilla Blend thoroughly the sweetened condensed milk, thin cream, cold

LYNN SAYS:

Did you know that: Ice creams should stand several hours to blend or ripen the many flavors combined in them? Each flavor will stand out separately if the mixture is not properly ripened.

Texture is affected by the method of freezing? Ice cream will be coarse and rough if frozen too quickly, whereas slower freezing improves texture. Before putting the cream in the freezer it should be properly whipped or it will be icy.

Richer mixtures give smoother textured ice creams? The amount of fat in the cream also affects the flavor. Richer ice creams have full bodied flavor.

Ice cream expands? If the ice cream is well made, it expands to at least one-third more than its original size, and that this has an important bearing on flavor. If frozen too rapidly, ice cream is prevented from increasing size.

Flavors should be lightly suggested, not pronounced? Amount and quality of extracts used are very apparent in the finished product.

THIS WEEK'S MENU

water and vanilla. Freeze in one-quart freezer. Remove dasher. Pack in ice and salt for one hour or more after freezing.

For Banana Ice Cream, use the above recipe, except to substitute 1 teaspoon of lemon extract in place of vanilla. Mash three bananas to a smooth pulp with a silver fork and add to ice cream after removing dasher.

Coffee Ice Cream: Proceed as for Vanilla Ice Cream, using 1 cup of cold black coffee in place of 1 cup of water and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla in place of 1 tablespoon of vanilla.

Maple Nut Ice Cream: One of the most requested flavors, made just like the vanilla except maple flavoring is substituted for vanilla, and 1/2 cup of chopped nuts is added just after removing the dasher.

If you like chocolate flavoring, here's a recipe I'm sure will please you. Rich and creamy, full of satisfying chocolate flavoring, it's one kind of ice cream of which there can never be too much made.

*Chocolate Ice Cream. 4 eggs separated 3/4 cup sugar 1 cup milk 1 teaspoon cornstarch 1 pint cream, whipped 1 1/2 ounces chocolate Mix cornstarch and sugar. Stir into well beaten yolks. Mix and blend with milk, heat in double boiler, and cook until thick. Add chocolate and cook till blended. Cool, fold in beaten egg whites and whipped cream. Freeze.

Among the pleasant surprises in appearance and in flavor among ice creams is this one called Tutti-Frutti. If you're longing for a change from familiar favorites this one leaves nothing to be desired. To make it really gaily for the youngsters, take a scoop of it, pop two raisins in for the eyes, a currant for the nose and a cherry for the mouth. It's a simple gesture but one which they'll appreciate for all its worth.

Tutti Frutti Ice Cream. (Serves 6) 3/4 cup sweetened condensed milk 1/2 cup water 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla 1 cup whipping cream 1/4 cup finely chopped maraschino cherries 1/4 cup seeded raisins, finely chopped

Mix sweetened condensed milk, water and vanilla. Chill. Whip cream to custard-like consistency. Fold into chilled mixture. Freeze in freezing unit of refrigerator till half frozen. Scrape from tray, beat until smooth but not melted. Add chopped fruit. Replace in freezing unit until frozen.

No social is completely a success without an array of freshly baked, nice smelling cakes with their swirls of frosting piled high to tempt. One cake which will really give you a new high in reputation is this Walnut Torte, an old-fashioned favorite with new found fame.

*Walnut Torte. 1 cup zwieback crumbs 1 teaspoon baking powder 1 cup chopped walnuts 4 eggs separated 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 pint cream, whipped

Crush the zwieback crumbs, mix with baking powder and nuts. Beat egg yolks thick and lemon color, beat in sugar, and then gradually, the crumb nut mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into two greased and floured tins and bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven 10 to 15 minutes. When mixture is light to touch and pulls from sides of pan it's done. Cool thoroughly. Put layers together with whipped cream and garnish with whole walnuts.

Baptist Church Notes

July 28, 1941
Tye, Texas

Dear Bro Beliver,
As I promised, here is a brief report. We began the revival last Friday night. The attendance and attention has been wonderful. We believe that God is going to give us a real revival of the old time type. The church with which we are working is my "old home church." It is the first church that I attended as a baby. Others arms I joined this church when twelve years old. It is the church that licensed and ordained me to preach. I love this church and its members. They say and act like they love me.
We are all well and feeling fine and are happy. We urge our Christian friends of Hedley to pray for us.
We want to emphasize the revival beginning in our church in Hedley, Sunday, August 17th.

We will be home, the Lord will be with us, for services Sunday, August 17th. We plan now to close this revival meeting next Sunday, August 18th, and go to the Friend ship church, near Post, to begin a few days of services on Monday morning, August 19th, and close our part of it Saturday night, August 24th. Pray for us, please

Two New Busses Added

Busen officials have announced that effective August 1st a new schedule will be added through Hedley, making a total of 6 departures each way daily. The new schedule will leave this city at 6:46 A.M. southbound for Memphis, Childress, Vernon, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and Dallas. This schedule will arrive at Wichita Falls at 11:59 A.M., Fort Worth at 2:20 P.M. and Dallas at 4:39 P.M., connecting at Dallas for Houston and points south.
Northbound, the new schedule will leave Hedley at 12:45 A.M. and arrive in Amarillo at 2:20 A.M., connecting there direct for California and Colorado points.
Complete information on other busen schedules may be obtained from the local bus terminal at the Phillips Service Station.

To Cotton Producers

Cotton market-d in excess of 1941 farm marketing quotas will be subject to a penalty of approximately 7 cents per pound, Walter J. Flynt county AAA secretary has announced.
In 1939 and 1940, Flynt continued, the penalty for excess cotton was 8 cents per pound and in 1938 the rate was 2 cents per pound. There will not be an increase however, in the total amount of penalties due on carry over: penalty cotton marketed in excess of the 1941 quota.
The higher penalty rate will be applied on only that portion of the carry over penalty cotton which would yield the same amount of penalties as all of the carry over cotton would have yielded under the former rates. The remainder of the carry over cotton would then become penalty free.

"To make my point clear", Flynt said, "suppose a farmer has 700 pounds of carry over: penalty cotton from 1940. Had he marketed the cotton last year, he would have paid a penalty of $21 which is the equivalent of 3 cents per pound. If he elects to carry over the cotton this year, however, the 7 cents per pound penalty would be in effect and he would pay 7 cents per pound penalty on only 300 pounds for the $21 total penalty since this is the amount of the total penalty for 1940. The remaining 400 pounds of cotton would then become penalty free."
