School Opens Aug. 25th Mrs. Pearl Pendergrass

The Hedley schools will open the 1941-42 session August 25. The opening exercises will be in the high school auditorium beginning at nine o'clock. Registration will be completed by noon and all children will be dismissed at that time. Buses will make their regular runs. All patrons are urged to attend the opening exercises and to visit with one another and the new teachers.

Since the loss of Mr. Gregg who recently resigned to take a place in the Happy schools, there will be four new teachers in the system this year. Your kindness shown by visiting with them will go a long way towards their having a successful year which will mean much to them and the children under their supervision.

Plans for the twelve year system have been completed by the Board. There will now be eight years of elementary school and four years of high school. The extra grade was placed as a new eighth. This means that those children who were in grade seven last year will be given another year of elementary work before entering high school. Thus all children who were in the elementary grades last year will have the advantages of twelve years of public school. All eight grades of the elementary system will be housed in the ward school building. It can be easily understood that some are going to be disappointed by the addition of the new grade and with its placement by the Board; but it is hoped that all will understand that all decisions were made for what was believed to be the greatest good for the most children.

NOTICE

We will have a complete line of school supplies again this year, and will appreciate your trade. See us for your needs.

Baptist Church Notes

The pastor was happy to be back in the pulpit of the local church after being away in two revivals during the past two weeks. He had the gracious privilege of being with his old home church for a ten day revival where the crowds were large. The Lord gave a good church revival. The members of that church were revived as well as the Christians from the other churches of the town. The last revival he was in lasted only six days but God saved several souls, revived others and several joined the church.

During a called conference last Sunday morning the local church voted to begin our revival on Friday night, Aug. 22. It is to be a ten day revival. Bro. S. R. McClung of Perryton will do the preaching and Bro. W. I. Taylor of Tuscola will lead the singing. We believe they will make a good team. They cannot bring a revival however. If we have one, God will have to give it to us. My people which are called by My name shall humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and forgive their sins and heal their land." II Chron. 7:14

A Special Notice: A social for the young people is being given at the Pastor and Mrs. Teaff's home on Thursday evening, Aug. 14 8:00 p. m. This is sponsored by the Training Union of the church but all the young people of our town and community are invited.

The women will have their regular missionary program meeting in the home of Mrs. Teaff next Monday, Aug. 18, at 4 p. m. All the women of the church are urged to be present and all others are welcome.

"Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." I Cor. 4:2. A steward is one who is intrusted with our lives and all the things we possess are many. We are stewards. It is required that we be faithful. "So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Rom. 14:12.

You are welcome to attend our services and worship with us.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

U. S. Counters Diplomatic Blitzkrieg With World-Wide Economic Warfare Having Trade Control as Objective; Russians Slow Tempo of Nazi Drive

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

NEW YORK CITY.—Here's an example of what the gas "curfew" along the eastern seaboard really means. Murray Jupiter, owner of the gas station, takes off his working clothes when night time comes around. Despite the piled up cars behind him he refused to sell to a customer in keeping with the recommendations of Secretary of Interior Ickes. The sign tells the story... "No Gas Till 7 a. m."

DIPLOMACY: War Bitter

It seemed hard to believe that with 9,000,000 to 11,000,000 human beings bitterly engaged in a death struggle on the Russo-German fronts, that battles of diplomats and economists could stand out in the important news of the day, but such indeed was the case.

Germany was engaged in a well-defined diplomatic blitzkrieg against Pan-American solidarity, and many believed that the entire fabric of Japanese moves in the South Pacific were not only Nazi-inspired, but executed unwillingly by Nippon in obedience to direct orders from Berlin.

The effort obviously seemed to be so to engage the attention of the United States at half a dozen different points that America's entry into the war would be postponed to the last possible moment.

Or, if that entry could not be avoided, the Axis intended that the first attention of the United States should be directed toward the East Indies, thus holding our feet away from the Atlantic.

There was conceded to be little change that the outbreak of border war between Peru and Ecuador, the attempted Nazi coup in Bolivia, the ditto in Argentina, and the strained relations with Mexico were not part and parcel of a gigantic diplomatic, propaganda and espionage campaign against Pan-American solidarity.

Though it might be said to have failed, it nevertheless engaged our attention for more than a month. Then came Dakar back onto the front pages again, with a Nazi demand upon Vichy which seemed not only aimed at bases in Dakar, but a new effort to enroll the French fleet as a direct German-Italian instrument of warfare.

These were big stakes, and the entire trend and sequence of them almost dwarfed the fighting on the Eastern front, particularly since it continued to be difficult to gain any accurate picture of what was going on in the active fighting.

ECONOMIC: War Outstanding

Hardly of secondary importance to the diplomatic blitzkrieg launched in the Far East and Pan-America by the Axis was the world-wide economic war engaged in by Pan-America, the United States and Britain against the Axis, now more sternly than ever against Japan.

There were analysts who felt that the outbreak of war between Germany and Russia was directly caused by the success of the economic blockade, plus the fact that Russia either would not or could not trans-ship sufficient needed goods from Japan, nor furnish enough of her own.

Despite the huge losses of the British at sea, it was pointed out that ships sent to the bottom simply meant goods not reaching England—it did not mean that any of this material was reaching Germany.

The economic war, therefore, not only launched the Russo-German war, but also the renewed move by Germany to attempt to corral the French fleet, to replace her surface raiders which were either sunk or bottled up, with which Germany might hope to reopen some trade route now that the Japan-Russia rail method had been halted by the war.

Other observers saw in the success of the economic war against Germany a definite sign that Germany could not win even if she won a complete victory over Russia without one further victory—an actual taking of the British Isles and with it the British fleet.

For as long, they said, as the sea-lanes were open only to British cargoes, and as long as Axis powers were denied the use of the oceans, then the needed materials never could be obtained, even by the utter conquest of the entire continent of Europe.

GASOLINE: Curfew Starts

The gasoline curfew, ordained by Secretary Ickes at the request and instance of the oil producers and dealers in the eastern United States, was started on short notice, but seemed doomed to failure, and some form of rationing seemed certain to be adopted.

Scarcely anybody except some few oil dealers and some government officials believed that the closing of gas stations from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. seven days a week would accomplish anything except two things:

It would throw out of their jobs some 100,000 filling station operatives and it would change the gasoline-buying habits of the people of the affected districts.

Trucks, many of them carting goods in the national defense, were to be exempted; also taxicabs, and the buses, most of which today are diesel-operated, nearly all carry 20 hours' supply of fuel, the curfew not hampering their operations whatever.

Ickes expressed hope that the curfew would make the populace conscious of the shortage, and hence inclined to co-operate in a restricted use of the fuel.

But most believed it would simply mean that those taking long trips would drive by day instead of at night; and that most city dwellers using their cars to and from work and for pleasure driving at night would see to it that they had a full tank on 7 p. m.

RUSSIANS: Slow Tempo

Most of those who conned the Russo-German war scene believed that the Russians had slowed the German advance down to less than a walk.

A realistic Russian source claimed 1,500,000 German casualties on the long war front since the attack started, and closed with these words: "and if our losses have been greater, what of it?"

That statement gave the picture of a nation of 172,000,000 people pretty well geared for war, willing to fight, and seemingly possessed of huge quantities of arms and ammunition.

It was nearly a repetition of the Chinese answer to Japan's attack, resulting in a stalemate war now well into its fifth year, with the present front little changed in a long time, and Chiang Kai-shek reputedly having a larger organized army on the front than the Japanese by two or three to one.

The Japanese casualties admittedly had been heavy, the Chinese' admittedly much heavier—"but what of it?"

Russian sources were, however, claiming much more than this. They were claiming not only the actual destruction of German divisions after division; they were asserting that there was a definite Nazi withdrawal in the central, or Smolensk region, made necessary by flanking and "cut-through" movements.

Gloomiest anti-war correspondents, some of them far from the front, pictured the German advance lines within 130 miles of Moscow, but few there were who believed that there was any real capture of territory as close to the capital as that, partly because of the complete failure of the Nazis to bomb Moscow with any effectiveness.

Russia claimed that some of the shot-down bombers showed a gasoline content that told of having come from far-distant bases. A real capture of territory within 130 miles of Moscow would make possible landings and take-offs and sustained flights over the capital.

There was a jubilant character in the Moscow dispatches that could not be overlooked, and the lack of detail from German sources, and the fact that the identical claims were put forth each day concerning the identical territories painted a picture of strong Russian resistance.

To Iceland

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Recently returned to the United States from service as minister to Greece, Lincoln MacVeagh (above) has now been named U. S. minister to Iceland, lately occupied by U. S. naval forces. This country has been represented in Iceland by a consul since last year.

SIGNS: Oj Revolt

Stockholm dispatches that Norway was practically in a state of siege because of serious outbreaks on the part of the people against German occupational control were taken to indicate that the pressure of the war on the Russian front was thinning out the German guards and giving the populations of occupied countries a chance to strike back.

Some analysts pointed to the fact that this report closely followed the intensification of the bombing of Germany and occupied territory by the R.A.F., and the opening of the "V for victory" campaign.

At all events the word from Sweden was that Norwegian courts had been put out of business, and that any offenders against the law were now being tried in German courts-martial.

The possibility that there might be a British invasion of Norway was seen in a Nazi order that all residents of coastal, frontier and certain key towns in the interior turn in their radio sets at once to the Germans.

Future building of radios or their sale to any but Germans was said to have been flatly forbidden.

JAPAN: Pours Men In

Creating the greatest army in point of numbers in her history, with 2,000,000 men reported called to the colors, Japan was warning of an imminent "explosion" in the Far East, and was pouring men and munitions into Indo-China.

It was pointed out that large sections of the Burma road, of Thailand, of the Dutch East Indies, and the whole of the Philippines were soon to be vulnerable to Japanese bombing raids as soon as the new air bases are established through the Franco-Japanese agreement.

The world repercussions were terrific, and to each of them Japan's apparent answer was to become more and more warlike, more and more apt to predict that only a military outcome could be looked for in view of the economic pressure being heaped upon her.

The OPM's dictum that the entire output of the silk industry would be needed by the army and navy, presumably for parachutes sent American women rushing to department stores to buy up all their stocks.

They asked the women of the nation to "give the producers of silk substitutes" a chance to get their supply lines organized. Meantime the hosiery industry faced a close-down, and it appeared that 175,000 workers might be thrown out of work.

With Britain, Canada, Australia, the Netherlands East Indies and Pan-America cracking down on trade with Japan, the crisis mounted at home and abroad, with the probability that Japan's mutterings might soon become something louder and plainer before long.

WELLES: Warns on Dakar

Sumner Welles as acting secretary of state, lashed out bitterly again at the Vichy government for having surrendered Indo-China to Japan, and at the same time warned France that if any effort is made by Germany to occupy Dakar the United States may beat the Nazi to it.

The Welles note, made public with the knowledge and after conference with the President, had been preceded by a meeting at which the British, Australian and African envoys were present.

DUKE: As dramatic in its way as the sudden flight of Hopkins across the Atlantic to England and Moscow was the journey by plane of the duke of Kent, brother of the king of England, to Canada and thence to the United States.

The duke, late this month, plans a five-day tour of American defense industries and a visit to the President at Hyde Park.

His visit was to be brief, but tremendous interest was expressed in the first announcements.

Traveler Had Route Map For All Who Would to See

The man sat still as the fortune-teller read his palm. "See that line?" asked the mystic, pointing to the fellow's palm. "Yes, I see it," he returned. "What does it mean?" "It means," said the fortune-teller, gravely, "that you are going to take a trip in the very near future. To Chicago, perhaps." Leaving the fortune-teller the man headed for the railway station. "A ticket to Chicago, please," he said. "Right, sir," replied the booking clerk. "Single or return?" The fellow stuck out his palm. "I don't know," he said. "Take a look!"

YOU BUY INCCULATION ON FAITH

Field tests have shown a big difference in the quality of inoculator brands on the market. You cannot see the legume bacteria you purchase. Immediate demonstration is impossible. What is the reputation and experience behind the inoculation you buy?

• NITRAGIN is the ORIGINAL LEGUME INOCULATOR, having served the farmers for over forty years. It won a GOLD MEDAL at the World's Fair, St. Louis, 1904.

• NITRAGIN is made in the most complete and modern laboratory of its kind in the world.

• NITRAGIN is the leader in its field by a big margin. NITRAGIN demand in the South has rapidly increased year after year. During the fall of 1940 the Southern shipments of NITRAGIN were for more than 45 million pounds of VETCH and WINTER PEAS. This large demand is due to many field tests carried on year after year. We prove by these facts that NITRAGIN is a good product.

Send for our booklet "Plant Legumes to Prosper," showing pictures of field tests and how NITRAGIN is made. The booklet also gives you valuable information regarding the inoculation of legumes. If your dealer does not have NITRAGIN in stock, have him get it for you. Insist on NITRAGIN inoculation.

What is a Firestone New-Tread? It's your smooth tire with a rugged, tough, long-wearing, non-skid tread applied over the old tread.

Will it give good mileage? The Firestone New-Tread is guaranteed and will deliver thousands of miles of safe, non-skid service.

How do we do this? Buff off the old tread and apply the New-Tread as shown below. Drive in today and let us look at your smooth tires and show you how the Firestone method will cut your tire costs.

Here's Why Firestone Can SERVE YOU BEST

For many years Firestone has been the leader in the development of New-Treads. All over the country Firestone has established Factory Controlled New-Tread Shops. Long experience in operating these shops has developed successful methods, materials and workmanship, which enable Firestone to give a guarantee with every tire. Come in today and let us show you the way to greater tire economy.

Inspecting The Tire
Your smooth tire is thoroughly inspected and we make sure the body is safe and sound.

Buffing The Tire
The tread is buffed, then the surface is roughened so that the New-Tread will adhere to it inseparably when cured.

Applying New-Tread
The New-Tread is made with the same Vitamic rubber compound which accounts for the amazingly long mileage of Firestone DeLuxe Champion Tires.

Curing The Tire
In the Firestone Factory Controlled Method of curing, no heat is applied to the shoulders or side-walls of the tire. This assures greater strength and longer mileage.

for MODERN living

In the early days, medicine show quacks sold crude oil for a dollar a bottle as a cure for all human ills.

Today hundreds of essentials for modern living are made from oil. It supplies heat for the home. It provides power for the Nation's machinery and transportation. It lubricates the gears of industry. It furnishes fuel for your car. It has shortened distances to make our Nation one big community.

America is safer today because of petroleum. The oil man's initiative and enterprise have made available to the United States the world's largest supply of petroleum.

In all this, Texas plays a leading part. Last year we supplied 36 per cent of all the Nation's oil, and now have over half of the Nation's oil reserves.

You and every American live more comfortably and safely today because of Texas petroleum.

Careful Planning

Protects Your NATURAL GAS SUPPLY!

★ It is natural for people to take for granted the comfort, convenience, and happiness made possible by Dependable Natural Gas Service. If this service were as easy to provide as it is to use and pay for, that viewpoint would be justified.

★ The fact is, however, our organization works many years ahead of the demand for Gas in the territories we serve. The job requires the energies of thousands of trained, skilled employes . . . more than 5,000 miles of carefully laid, welded and coated pipe lines as well as other extensive facilities . . . billions of feet of Natural Gas reserves . . . capable management by men who have had long and valuable experience in this business. All this activity doesn't just happen—it is, and has been for years, carefully planned.

★ This Company and associated Companies consider it part of their business to protect your Natural Gas supply . . . constantly to seek new Gas reserves . . . explore, drill and test . . . to plan ahead carefully and thoughtfully in order that our customers may receive this dependable service today, tomorrow, and in the years ahead.

J. Fuller Pep
By JERRY LINK

The widow Brown who's been sparkin' old Jed Moore says it isn't Jed's dancin' that fascinates her; it's his "pep appeal."

Which shows she's a discernin' woman, because Jed's a full-fledged vitamin fan and eats his KELLOGG'S PEP every morning.

PEP hasn't got all the vitamins, of course, but it's extra-long on the two that are extra-short in many people's meals—B, and D.* What's more, it's plumb delicious. Why not try it tomorrow?

FOR A REAL TASTE THRILL... COOK IT OUTSIDE
(See Recipes Below)

OUTDOOR SUPPERS

If you've a longing to do something different, an outdoor supper's the answer. Get the smell of woody smoke into your food, the crackle of burning embers for atmosphere, the sound of sizzling meat held over glowing flames during the supper hour and you'll experience a taste-thrill you'll long remember. Everything tastes better cooked outdoors!

Toss some cans of beans into a gay kerchief, wrap fruit, cookies, cake into waxed paper, whip up some barbecue sauce to use with the meat, and the meal is under way.

Outdoor cooking equipment may be as humble as a few large bricks, an iron grate, or an extra rack from the oven, a long handled fork for each member of the family. A light camping stove or a more elaborate grill such as a vertical or horizontal stove of sheet steel including drip and ashpans, a roasting spit, and warming shelves may also be used. Whatever you use, remember, it's the cooking outdoors which makes the meal.

You will want meat and plenty of it for fresh air whips up the appetite. The family will come back again and again for this delicious meat with a sauce all its own:

Tomato Horseradish Mustard Marinade.
For 3 pounds of spareribs or beef short ribs use:
2 tablespoons prepared horseradish mustard sauce
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
1 cup tomato juice
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
2 onions, chopped fine
Combine dry and liquid materials well and beat thoroughly. Place meat in a shallow bowl or glass dish and cover with the marinade. Turn every 3 or 4 hours and marinate in refrigerator for 48 hours. Drain meat well before barbecuing and baste frequently while cooking over coals. The marinade may be thickened and served as a sauce over the meat. Your barbecuing will be more successful if you marinate the meat. It's especially good on the less expensive cuts.

If you'd like a meal-in-one with a minimum of fuss but nourishment plus, try this potato salad made with frankfurters. If you're accustomed to your old and cherished potato salad recipe, I'm still sure that you'll like this one:

Frankfurter Potato Salad.
(Serves 6)
3 medium sized potatoes, cooked, diced
1 cup diced celery
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons minced parsley
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 pound frankfurters, skinned and sliced
1/2 cup salad dressing
French dressing
Marinate the potatoes in the french dressing. Combine all ingredients.

LYNN SAYS:
While cooking under the sky over hot coals you'll want to remember:
Charcoal burns to fine, lasting coals and gives a nice steady fire for barbecue cookery. For best results when using either charcoal or wood should be burned until the flames disappear. Then the meat should be placed 8 to 10 inches above the coals and turned every few minutes to insure even cooking.
Hard woods like oak, hickory, madrone manzanita and maple give a lasting glowing bed of coals. Soft pine is suitable for quick grilling like hamburger and hot dogs.
Whatever type of grill you use, pick a spot that's shady, not too far from the kitchen if you're doing it in the back yard and not too near heavy shrubbery.

dients and mix with potatoes. Chill 1 hour and serve with lettuce.

If you decide on hamburgers some night for your open grill stove try them this way: Add 15 per cent suet to your regular meat. Press the uncooked hamburger into thin flat cakes between waxed paper. Put two cakes together with a filling made from finely chopped raw onion mixed with steak sauce and rich prepared mustard, pressing the edges of the cakes firmly together. Broil quickly on both sides. Serve on large, toasted buns which have been buttered.

Here are two variations you may wish to follow if you serve baked beans often:

Maple Beans—Substitute 1/2 cup maple syrup or three tablespoons maple sugar for brown sugar and molasses.

Baked Beans with Sausage—Arrange parboiled beans and uncooked sausage in alternate layers; substitute 1 can tomato-soup for molasses and part of water.

Baked Campfire Coffee.
(1 quart)
4 heaping tablespoons coffee
4 cups boiling water
1 egg
Combine the coffee and egg in the pot and mix thoroughly. Pour in water and bring slowly to a full boil, stirring coffee down in a warm place for 3 to 5 minutes. Use 1/4 cup cold water to settle grounds.
Easy to make but easier to take is this cocoa cake made with sour cream. Even if you want to serve it with the richer ice creams you won't feel too stuffed with it because it is light textured and feathery. If there is no sour cream to be had sweet milk can be substituted, but use it with 2 teaspoons of baking powder instead of the soda.

Sour Cream Cocoa Cake.
(Makes 2 9-inch layers)
1/2 cup cocoa
1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 cup shortening
2 cups sugar
2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 egg whites
Mix cocoa in boiling water and stir until smooth. Cool. Cream shortening and sugar together until light, then add cocoa. Sift the dry ingredients and add alternately with cream to the first mixture. Beat until smooth after each addition. Add vanilla then fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour batter into pans lined with wax paper, and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 minutes. Put together with

Chocolate Icing.
2 cups confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons butter
2 ounces melted chocolate
Milk to moisten
Vanilla
Cream butter and sugar, add melted chocolate, milk, and vanilla and beat until smooth. Spread between layers and over cake.

Refrigerator Cookies.
(Makes 7 1/2 dozen)
1 cup butter
2 cups brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup oven popped rice cereal
3 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
Cream butter; add sugar gradually and beat until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in cereal. Sift flour with baking powder and work into first mixture, a small amount at a time. Knead and shape into rolls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter; wrap in waxed paper, covering ends so that dough will not dry out. Store in refrigerator until firm. Cut into thin slices and bake on ungreased cookie sheet in moderately hot oven (425 degrees) about 10 minutes.
