Caldwell-Harrison

Miss Ines Harrison and Robert S. Caldwell were united in marriage August 16 by Rev. E. E. Foster, pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Amarillo.

Mrs. Caldwell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davis Harrison of 409 N. Folk, Amarillo, Texas, formerly of Hedley.

Mr. Caldwell is the son of Mrs. Willie Mae Caldwell of 801 Mc Masters, Amarillo.

The couple are at home at 508 N. Taylor. Mr. Caldwell is employed by his brother as a cement finisher.

Fete Darnell and family of Breckenridge visited here last weekend.

Miss Mildred Cuiwell of Childress visited here last week.

Mrs. Hawkins returned Sunday from a two weeks visit with her daughter in Mobeetle.

Stephen Milner Killed

The many Hedley friends of the family were deeply shocked and grieved last Saturday to learn of the death of Stephen A. Milner of Canyon, who was killed Friday night in an automobile collision near Waco. Stephen and a friend Charles Francis, also of Canyon, had been attending the University of Texas and were returning home in a car driven by A. D. Powell of Cleburne, which crashed head on into a large truck. Both vehicles were demolished.

Stephen grew up in Hedley, and graduated from Hedley high school in 1937. The family moved to Canyon, where he attended West Texas State College, and was a very popular student, being chairman of the Student Senate, a member of the tennis team on the Baptist Student Union Council, and numerous other offices. He received his degree in 1940, and taught in the Hereford schools last year.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the First Baptist Church at Canyon by Rev. W. E. Barnes of Hereford. Interment was in Dreamland cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Milner, and one brother, Glenn.

The Informer joins their many friends here in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Parent-Teacher Ass'n.

The Hedley Parent Teacher Association started off with a bang. There were 37 paid members the first day of school. Our goal is 100. The first meeting will be Sept. 11.

Baptist Church Notes

The revival at the Baptist church is progressing nicely, good crowds are attending and much interest is being shown. Several additions to the church have been made.

Everyone is urged to attend these services.

McKnight Revival

Beginning Sunday Aug. 31 the Baptist revival at McKnight will be conducted by Rev. Alvin Hatten of Abilene. Everyone is invited to attend all services. Come and pray.

Stanley-Grissom

Miss Fay Grissom and O. E. Stanley Jr. of Abilene were united in marriage there Friday, Aug. 16, by Rev. Willis P. Gerhart, in an impressive lawn ceremony.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Stanley of Abilene and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Mereman of Hedley. He is a graduate of Texas University and the naval aviation school at Pensacola, Fla., where he received his commission as an ensign in the U. S. Navy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grissom, is a graduate of Stephens College at Columbia, Mo., and also attended S. M. U. at Dallas.

They will make their home at San Diego, Calif., where Mr. Stanley is stationed on the airplane carrier Saratoga.

Diek Vallance and family enjoyed a trip to Ft. Worth, Dallas and other points last week.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

World War II Enters Into New Phase As Roosevelt-Churchill Conferences Indicate Continued Soviet Resistance; Unrest Report in Occupied Nations

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Back in Washington after his momentous sea conferences with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill, President Roosevelt conferred immediately with Secretary of State Cordell Hull. The two are shown here in an auto leaving the railway station for the White House. Secretary Hull carried a number of important papers for the President and the Far East situation was said to be the vital topic of their first discussions.

WORLD WAR II: New Angle

The many-faceted chances of war, which had seen Hitler reaching another peak of successes, suddenly seemed to veer more to the British-American side following the dramatic conclusion of the Roosevelt-Churchill talks at sea.

Not only did the eight-point pact between the two executives strike with a powerful sound across the front pages of the globe, but the promise of aid to Russia was reportedly based on the assurance felt by Britain and the United States that the Soviet troops would be able to hold the Germans at bay throughout the winter.

Indeed, Mr. Roosevelt on his return to this country, made such a positive statement, declaring that "consumers' goods," such as food-stuffs, would be made available for Russia during the rest of the summer; that it was assumed the Russian winter would bring at least a partial halt to hostilities, and that there substantial aid could be made readily by Britain and the United States for the opening of the spring campaign.

All in all, there was a quiet confidence as to the outcome of the war, and its continuance through a considerable period of time, that was in sharp contrast to the feelings of menace and of instability that had been marking the news at the outset of the President's dramatic "vacation trip" on the Potomac.

Beside this sort of feeling throughout Britain and the United States, and particularly since the President said he did not believe this country was "any nearer in the war" than it was before the conference, the resulting criticism of congressmen and the byplay of press criticism over mere matters of pictures and the identity of reporters at the scene seemed "small potatoes."

Because Churchill presumably was being well informed by the British military mission in Moscow as to the real carrying on of the war in the East, and if the President was so broadly confident of the continuance of the Soviet defense, it was reasoned that he must have good authority.

THE PRESS: In Reaction The press reaction to the Roosevelt-Churchill conference and the eight-point statement was far from unanimously favorable. The criticisms, however, ranged all the way from an echoing of the British reaction that it was a "poor plagiarism on Wilson's 14 points," down to a milder reproach that Roosevelt should have risked his life on the battlefield of the Atlantic.

In the main, however, the leading independent papers of the country agree with the philosophy and the idealism of the statement, though almost all of them agreed that it was a carefully timed and dramatic staging of "counter peace offensives" against that expected to be launched by Hitler now that his campaign against Russia was about on third accomplished.

There were many smaller sidelings of criticism, however. Some papers had headlines about "one-way censorship" apparently believing that certain British newspapers and press associations had been permitted to be represented.

Just as this died a quick death when it appeared that the London papers were much upset by the fact that the American press, not represented by photographers, got the pictures first.

Whereas men expressed annoyance when these pictures showed a man in action, and the following day, when they saw the movie reels, they primly announced that they were a rotten job, the work of a "rank amateur" apparently—"Off center out of focus and under speed"—and that 1,800 out of 2,000 feet had to be thrown away.

NEW ROUTE: For Planes

What was declared by the White House to be "an important step to speed delivery of planes to the British forces in the Middle East" came when the President announced a new plan for ferrying aircraft to Africa.

Under terms of the arrangement worked out with Pan American Airways, planes needed by the British will be flown from the U. S. to Bermuda, thence to Natal, Brazil and across the Atlantic to Africa. Pan American will return the fliers to the United States.

It was pointed out in the President's statement that the route was so arranged that at no time would the U. S. fliers pass "through the zone of actual warfare."

UNREST: Taking Substance

The unrest stories from occupied portions of Europe, which had been largely couched in general terms, as though the writers of the reports, figuring that the Germans had removed large numbers of guards for the war with Russia, and had let their imaginations run riot, now began to take some real substance.

The stories came from Norway, from occupied France, and from within Germany itself, though the details in the latter had to be gleaned from the highly propagandized Russian war communiques and were somewhat discounted therefore.

The Norwegian story was that the Quisling government was tottering. These sources were Swedish newspaper stories, and the Swedes, though generally unfriendly to the Axis, were staggering along the fence of neutrality and so far had been able to keep their country uninvaded.

The Swedish stories had considerable detail. They told of Quisling himself doubling and trebling his bodyguard, and being on the verge of a nervous breakdown; of one of the cabinet ministers seeking to take poison and of others who had been ordered to take "rests" of three months because of the utter failure of their several objectives.

The French story also had substance and came from Nazi-captivated Vichy itself which, throwing off censorship, announced that the Paris police were offering a million francs' reward for information leading to the arrest of train wreckers who were menacing the food supply of the former capital of France.

Those commenting on the dispatch said it brought to mind the statement of Petain that he "felt an ill wind rising in many sections of France." The disorders, at first blamed in dispatches entirely on Communists and Jews, brought from General Stuepnagel, commander of the German armed forces, that if the train wrecking continued, the entire public of France would be held responsible.

This statement, added to the million-franc reward story, gave the unrest almost the tone of a revolution, and coming on the heels of the Petain-Darlan-Laval surrender to the Axis, made some think that perhaps loyal Frenchmen had been asked to surrender more than they would stand for.

JAPAN:

Official Washington was given a good idea of the narrow peace margin maintained by present Japanese-American relations when a ship sent to Japan for the purpose of evacuating somewhere between 120 and 420 American nationals was refused permission to enter a port.

The Japanese announced that they would let the ship in if its only purpose was to return the 20 U. S. officials involved, but that the private citizens and missionaries, would have to remain in Japan.

Courage Plus

HATTIESBURG, MISS.—When she was graduated from Mississippi Southern college this month, Miss Winnifred Moore (above), native of New Orleans, again proved the mastery of courage over handicap. Born blind, she has specialized in music and reads music in Braille with her toes while using her hands on the piano keys. Her constant companion is her dog Rex, shown here with her.

FORTRESS: In Battle

During the first few daylight bombings of Germany and occupied territory by the huge American flying fortresses, the stories were that the big planes flew so high and so silently that the Germans were not aware of their presence until the bombs began to fall, and that by that time the Nazi fighters could not get within reach of them.

Presumably, after unloading their bombs, the big ships were able to turn about and with their high speed, get back to England before the fighters could climb level with them.

Finally the report came of one of them being in a fight, and apparently suffering some damage. But the report told of one fortress bomber being attacked by seven Nazi fighting planes, and beating them all off and getting back, somewhat damaged, and with some casualties, to its base again.

This began to bear out what American flying officers had said about the B-19, still undelivered to Britain, and the huge Navy ship even bigger than the B-19, still untested at the Martin plant. Both of these, before many months, will be in the lease-lend program.

Flying officers had said that the four-motored American bombers, with their high speed and maneuverability, particularly after their bombs were dropped, and because of the number of their crew, their armament and its location at various parts of the plane, would be more than a match for enemy fighters.

Apparently none of them had believed one such bomber could fight off seven fighters, but all were surprised when they learned this had been accomplished, even though with casualties and damage.

The still larger bombers projected, they said, would be still more able to withstand and fight off attack.

The tale of the battle in the sky headlined a summing up of British air efforts in which it was stated that more than 1,000 British bombers had dropped over 2,000,000 pounds of bombs on enemy territory in four weeks, while in the same period only about 400 bombers from Germany had gotten over British territory.

LONDON:

Press comment revealed that the country is reconciled to a long war.

The Evening News said: "It is good that we should be told that a long war is now inevitable. It should silence those fallacious optimists who preach the fallacious doctrine that immediate 'shooting' by the United States would be certain to end the war next year."

The Express: "We are entitled to take new heart. We are not entitled to relax our efforts. Pessimism is idiotic. Optimism may be dangerous. Realism is what we need at this moment. Our position now is sound, if difficult. We want victory, not stalemate, and that is not yet. Only our utmost effort and sacrifice can give it to us."

SUIT:

London, always horror-struck at being badly dressed, is calmly considering a proposal for the mass production of a single-styled suit of clothing for all the civilians of Britain—one that will save cloth and labor.

DUKES:

With the duke of Kent in this country, and slated for an official visit to Washington, it was reported that his elder brother, the former king of England, duke of Windsor and governor of the Bahamas, would visit Washington at the same time.

In seven or eight kinds of a dither were the socially elite of Baltimore, 40 miles from the national capital, because of the fact that the duchess was born there, and might be "running over" to visit "old friends,"

Wasn't Asking for Trouble That Early in the Morning

Two travelers had just met. One was doing most of the talking. "Yes," he said, "I arrived home one morning after midnight and, as I opened the door, I saw a stranger kissing my wife. I closed the door softly and hurried downstairs. At 1 a. m. I came back. I opened the door softly—and there was the stranger, still kissing my wife. So I went downstairs again. At 1:15—" "Just a minute," interrupted the other man. "Why did you keep galloping downstairs? Why didn't you walk right into the room?" "What?" cried the talkative man. "And have my wife catch me coming home at that hour?"

Star Dust

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

SAMUEL GOLDWYN has a sure-thing combination in Bette Davis and Director William Wyler, who've just done "The Little Foxes" for him. They were responsible for "Jezebel," which won the second Academy Award for Bette, though a lot of people thought she'd given better performances in other pictures. They also did "The Letter," a hit film.

Bette Davis

Bette is working now in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," and likes it because it's legitimate comedy; the comedy she did with James Cagney, "The Bride Came C. O. D.," wasn't so much to her liking, because it was slapstick stuff.

And RKO, which releases "The Little Foxes," may have a sure thing on its hands in Terry Frost. He is the last of the three men who played "Killer Meats" in the stage version of "The Last Mile." Producer Bert Gilroy picked him for a part in Tim Holt's "Cyclone on Horseback," in which Frost will make his film debut after a wait of 11 years.

And—the other two men who played "Killer Meats" were Spencer Tracy and Clark Gable—and it was Gilroy who picked Gable for his first film, "Painted Desert." So, if good things come in threes, Terry Frost is headed straight for stardom.

A matrimonial expert, who's been asking American wives "What has Charles Boyer that your husband doesn't have?" maintains that 70 per cent of the country's married women are in love with male stars. One thing he's got is a beautiful and charming wife.

It's on again, off again with John Garfield and Warner Brothers. As previously reported here, he refused to do "New Orleans Blues," was suspended, and Richard Whorf, the very talented actor who has appeared so often on the stage with Lunt and Fontanne, replaced him. Garfield was assigned to "Bridges Are Built at Night," and all seemed well. But it wasn't, and now he's been suspended again, and again Whorf has replaced him. Seems to be becoming a habit. Maybe Garfield has forgotten the rumpuses Bette Davis and James Cagney had with the same studio—and that both of them went back to work at the same old stand when the fuss was finally settled.

John Garfield

Guy Lombardo has been having a lot of fun with those lyricized commercials, superimposed over a musical background, and radio audiences like them so much that he's decided to make them a regular feature of his Saturday evening programs.

Tom Hanlon, announcer on Gene Autrey's CBS Sunday program, "Melody Ranch," figures that he's on his way up, in motion pictures. He recently played a scene with Greta Garbo and Melvyn Douglas at the Metro studio. He did a commercial announcement which they were supposed to hear over the radio during an important sequence. But—he worked just out of camera range on the set with the Swedish star.

Red Skelton has already arrived at the top, if reports of what preview audiences thought of "Whistling in the Dark" are a prophecy. Seems he's going to give Bob Hope a run for Hope's laurels, and make all of us laugh our heads off while so doing.

It looks as if September 15 would be Orson Welles day in Hollywood. On that date he inaugurates his new variety broadcasts as star, producer, director and author with the Mercury players, and also starts the cameras grinding on his next RKO picture, "The Magnificent Ambersons." Between times he'll probably do card tricks; he's just mastered seven new ones.

ODDS AND ENDS—That man Rochester, Jack Benny's "Colonel" is the high spot of the new Mary Martin picture "Kiss the Boys Goodbye." . . . Practically all newspaper critics have thrown bouquets at "The Stars Look Down" . . . Walt Disney and some of his staff will journey to South America to get ideas for cartoons suitable for that market. . . . Charles Laughton will star in "Out of Gas," a Tahiti tale by the "Mutiny on the Bounty" authors. . . . Massacre O'Hara will have the lead opposite Tyrone Power in 20th Century-Fox's "Benjamin Blake" . . . There's a National Society of Hardy Families, not related to Metro's.

WEEK-END SUPPER IDEAS

Guests for the week-end? Or just the family? Whichever it is you'll want to take a brief vacation from the kitchen or it won't really be Labor day for you.

Here's how you do it: Bake the outbread in advance, it's better if it stands a day or so. Mix the meat and set in the refrigerator until ready to bake. As a vegetable you'll like tender corn with lots of butter, takes only a few minutes to cook, you know.

Your salad is simple and is tossed in a few seconds. Dessert, too, you can make the day before and just wait until you see what a lovely surprise it is, too. Cool and delicious, the orange freeze is tops.

A change in the meat course is the order of the day. A touch of fruit borrowed from a favorite cake and three of your favorite kinds of meat go to make up this:

- *Apricot Upside-Down Meat Loaf. (Serves 8 to 10)
- 1 pound smoked ham (ground twice)
- ½ pound beef (ground)
- ½ pound fresh pork (ground)
- 2 eggs
- ¾ cup cold water
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup cornflakes (crushed)
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 tablespoon onion (very finely minced)
- 4 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons brown sugar
- 18 dried apricot halves (cooked)
- Combine smoked ham, beef and pork with slightly beaten eggs, milk, water and cornflakes. Mix thoroughly and add Worcestershire sauce, pepper, mustard, and finely minced onion. Melt butter in bottom of a 9 by 5 by 3 loaf pan. Add brown sugar and heat until well blended. Arrange apricots, cut side up, on the bottom of the pan. Pack the meat mixture over the apricots. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 1½ hours.

You'll really approve of this new dessert idea, and since it's light it will be especially appropriate with a substantial main course:

- *Orange Freeze. (Makes 1½ quarts)
- ¾ cup sugar
- 1 cup water
- 1 package orange-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup orange juice
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 cups milk
- Combine sugar and water and boil 2 minutes. Remove from fire and dissolve gelatin in hot syrup. Add fruit juices. Turn into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting to coldest freezing temperature. When partially frozen, turn into cold bowl and beat with rotary beater until thick and fluffy. Add milk and beat until blended. Return to tray, stir every 30 minutes, and freeze until firm (5 to 6 hours).

Peach Shortcake. Since peaches are so very good this year, you'll want to make the most of them. This will win your

LYNN SAYS:

Vegetables with interesting background and good vitamin stories intrigue me. Take watercress, for instance. You may once have gathered this tender little green among brooks and runs, but its history harks back much longer than either you or I. Watercress is an excellent source of vitamin A which promotes growth, increases resistance to infective diseases and prevents eye diseases. Excellent too is watercress in vitamin C which is so essential to good bone and teeth formation.

Vitamin B, too, is found in its leaves, and that, you know, stimulates appetite and protects nerve and brain tissue and brain function. Its vitamin G content will help you have normal nutrition. The iron it contains in its copper and magnesium deposits helps make blood and nourish teeth.

THIS WEEK'S MENU

family's approval: (Serves 6 to 8)

- 2 cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- ½ cup milk
- ½ cup butter
- Mix dry ingredients, sift twice, work in butter, add milk slowly and toss on floured board. Divide into two parts, roll to a desired thickness and bake in hot oven (400 degrees) for 12 minutes or until done. Use a buttered baking pan for baking. Split biscuit when done and spread with butter.

Peel and slice fresh peaches fine (or pulp them), sprinkle with sugar to taste, let stand in refrigerator to chill. When ready to serve, place peaches between or on top or both, top the whole with whipped cream.

- Jellied Waldorf Salad.
- 1 package lemon gelatin
- 1½ cups hot water
- 1 cup diced tart apple
- ¾ cup diced pineapple
- ¾ cup diced celery
- ¾ cup chopped nuts or cherries
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- Dissolve the gelatin in the hot water and add the salt and lemon juice. Chill till the mixture begins to thicken and stir in the fruit and all other ingredients. Pour into molds and chill and serve.

- Chicken Filling.
- 1 cup ground chicken meat
- ½ cup ground almonds
- 2 to 4 tablespoons celery, chopped
- Lemon juice
- Salad dressing to moisten (cooked, french or mayonnaise)
- Salt
- Mix meat, celery and almonds. Season to taste with salt and lemon juice and add enough dressing to give a spreading consistency.

- Shrimp and Cucumber Filling.
- 1½ cups fresh cooked or canned shrimp
- 1 medium-sized cucumber
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- Paprika
- Chop shrimps to paste; peel, remove seeds from cucumber and chop very finely, squeezing out excess water. Combine with shrimps, seasonings and mayonnaise. Chill and spread between slices of bread, cut in fancy shapes.

To accompany these good-tasting, clever sandwiches, you'll undoubtedly want to serve a cool, refreshing beverage. Why not try:

- Coffee Frappe.
- 2 cups strong freshly brewed coffee
- ¼ cup cream
- ¼ cup powdered sugar
- ¼ teaspoon ground ginger
- 1 egg white

Place all ingredients and some cracked ice into a beverage shaker and shake well; or beat all ingredients together with egg beater and let stand in refrigerator to chill.

- Egg Nog.
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
- 1 to 2 teaspoons sugar
- ¼ teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup cold milk

Beat salt, egg and sugar. Add milk and vanilla, beating thoroughly; pour into tall glass and dust with nutmeg. Yield: 1 large serving.

Variations: two tablespoons chocolate syrup; 1 tablespoon malted milk—top with whipped cream.

Sometimes on a Sunday or holiday afternoon there comes a lull which a bit of refreshment seems to fill perfectly. For that I would suggest assorted sandwiches, cool drinks, jellied Waldorf salad, and peach shortcake. All of these recipes have the little added flavoring that make them company fare. Household Hints

Add raisins to your conserves, jams and chutney to give them pleasing chewiness.

To prevent silk dresses from slipping off wood and iron hangers, paste or sew a piece of velvet on each end of the hanger.

Before applying linseed oil to outside of soapstone sink or tubs, first go over with sandpaper to make them smooth.

Knitting needles that are not marked clearly with their size are difficult to distinguish once they have been laid aside. Collect several small corks. As soon as one pair of needles is finished with, dig the points into a cork and mark the size on the cork. Protection for the needles and a quick method of finding the right size when you need it again.

Colorful appetizers may be made by steaming dried fruits about 15 minutes and topping with well-seasoned cream or grated American cheese.

Chopped salted peanuts mixed with a little dark brown sugar give a crunchy coating to finger-lengths of cakes or to date, raisin or coconut sticks. Try this next time you are fixing up a tray of "goodies" for your tea table.

If you have any doubt about what to give a man in any of the nation's military or naval services, send a carton of cigarettes or a pouch tin of smoking tobacco. Tobacco rates first as a gift with them. And when you check up, actual sales records show that in Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard service stores (where the men buy their own) Camels outsell all other cigarettes. It is well-known that Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco is the "National Joy Smoke." Local tobacco dealers are now featuring Camel cartons and pouches as Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco number one gifts for men in Uncle Sam's services.—Adv.

Back Our Schools!

This week's issue of the paper carries an announcement of the opening of another term of school. Some of the children look forward to the opening of school with dread, but most of them are eager for the new experiences ahead for them. In "the good old days" that we hear the older people talk about, there were very few children who really liked school. Doesn't this change in attitude show that progress has been made in teaching methods? We are proud of our local school and its personnel. We believe and we know you believe that we should back our school and help the teachers in any way that we can.

Don Hickey of El Paso underwent an appendicitis operation there Wednesday of last week.

Harold McLaughlin is reported seriously ill in an Amarillo hospital.

John Blankenship and family returned this from a visit to Brawley, Calif.

Ivan Jones left last week for Amarillo, where he will be employed.

Report Your News Item!

It makes us feel good when some former Hedleyan returns for a visit and tells us how he has enjoyed keeping up with his old friends through the columns of The Informer. We appreciate knowing that someone enjoys reading what we print. We know sometimes people are disappointed because we fail to mention a trip they have made or some visitor they have had, or some other news item. When we do not mention these things it is because we do not know about them. We are always glad for you to give us your news items as that is the only way we have of finding out things.

We want to thank our friends and every one who helped in any way during our cotton last week. Your kindness and deeds done will never be forgotten.
