Henry Bly Simmons

Funeral services for Henry Bly Simmons, 73, retired Lella Lake farmer, were held Saturday from the First Baptist Church in Lella Lake. Mr. Simmons died of a heart attack early Thursday night near the Lella Lake school. He was known as Uncle Henry and had lived in Donley county for many years.

Rev. W. M. Hitt of the Baptist church in Lella Lake was in charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. O. Thomas of Berger. Burial was in the Citizens Cemetery in Clarendon under direction of the Womack Funeral Home.

Survivors were E. L. Lewis, Alvin Garner, Oliver Epp, Jim Warren, Barney Brews, and Perry Cruse. Survivors other than the widow are one son, Joe Simmons of Oklahoma City, and five daughters, Mrs. Devia Lane of Morgan, Mrs. Ethel Simmons and Lena Johnson, both of Berger, Mrs. Harriett Kilgore of Clarendon and Miss Laura Simmons of Lella Lake.

Baptist Church Notes

The revival services closed out in a great way last Sunday night. Bro. S. R. McClung brought his last message at the morning hour and Bro. W. I. Taylor, who led the singing preached at the evening hour. Surely all who heard these two men appreciated their work in helping us. During the ten days of services, fifteen professed their personal faith in Christ as savior and fifteen united with the church. Several confessed their sins and rededicated their lives to the Lord. Surely all of us who attended rededicated our lives again and again to Him who is our Master.

Two were baptized Sunday night. The others are to be baptized next Sunday morning.

A word of appreciation is due those who cooperated to make the revival the success it was.

A. L. Teaf, pastor

Picnic

Members of the Donley County Purchasing Ass'n. enjoyed an all day picnic last Friday at the Word ranch. About 120 families belong to the association, which for the present has been limited to F. S. A. borrowers.

E. R. Myers, Lella Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers of Balhart suffered cuts and bruises caused by a wreck on the Wellington highway in Hedley early Saturday night. They had been visiting relatives in Lella Lake and were on the way to Wellington at Clarendon in a Womack ambulance and were released in a few hours after they were given treatment.

Some of the finest watermelons we have seen this year were brought in Saturday by E. T. Everett. There were 12 of the melons averaging about 50 lbs. each.

Harold McLaughlin

Funeral services for Harold Franklin McLaughlin, 14 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McLaughlin, were held Saturday afternoon from the First Baptist church. The McLaughlin family were residents of Hedley until two weeks ago at which time they moved to a farm near Clarendon.

Tobacco tops the gift list with men in the service. They've said so themselves in surveys after survey. A gift of a carton of cigarettes or a tin of smoking tobacco is always welcome, and more than welcome the week before pay day. Actual sales records from service stores show the favorite cigarette with men in the Army, the Navy, the Marines, and the Coast Guard is Camel. Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco is another popular favorite. With these sales figures and preferences in mind, local dealers have been featuring Camels by the carton and Prince Albert in the big pound tin as gifts preferred by men in the service from the folks back home.—Adv.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strains on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feet constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

British-Russian Forces Invade Iran In Drive to Foil Alleged Nazi Coup; Navy Takes Over Shipbuilding Plant; Fierce Battle Marks Russo-Nazi War

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

COLOGNE, GERMANY.—This picture gives a dramatic view of a recent sensational daylight air raid by the British Royal Air force on a huge power station in the vicinity of Cologne. The bombers flew at a height of less than 100 feet at times. Much of the smoke was caused by air raid missiles and many direct hits were scored. The planes then swept lower still to get photographs like this.

PRODUCE: Or Else

While President Roosevelt struck out at critics who said that production was lagging, quoting chapter and verse, also war department figures to show Senator Byrd of Virginia that he had been misinformed, he also put the Kearny, N. J., shipyard back into production by ordering the navy to take over the plant.

Secretary Knox sent one of his admirals to take charge, and history, made when the army took over the North American Aviation plant, was repeated.

Yet there was said to be a difference in this latest plant seizure, in that the navy would not plan to relinquish it to the private owners after putting it in operation, but continue to operate it as a navy yard.

Thus the eventuality oddly enough sought by men and employer as well in this instance, was brought into being, an eventuality which the state authorities of New Jersey sought vainly and bitterly to prevent.

Sixteen thousand workers were affected, and the work on two cruisers, one almost ready for launching, six destroyers, three tankers and two freighters was halted, contracts adding up to $493,000,000, and awarded by the navy and the maritime commission.

The union was the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of the C.I.O.

IRAN: And Britain

The British demand on Iran that she expel all Nazi agents from her borders, and the Iranian refusal to obey, turned eyes again to the Middle East and Near East, and showed that Britain, conquerors of Syria with the aid of the Free French, realized the need of strengthening the position of her forces in that part of the world.

Few doubted the ability of the British, with the possible aid of the Russians, to take over little Persia, and present to the Nazis coming down from the Ukraine, or wishing to, a firmer front. It also would extend the common frontier with Turkey, and allow Ankara to have an excuse for maintaining a stronger pro-British neutrality.

Iran's fears were realized when British troops under the command of Gen. Archibald Wavell crossed into southern Iran and at the same time Soviet Russian forces moved into northern Iran from the Caucasus. There was resistance encountered, according to the early reports from the fighting fronts. London sources indicated that the movement into Iran came to foil a Nazi coup. The move was seen as a direct action to the refusal of the Iran to give a satisfactory reply to the British and Russian request that Germans be expelled from the country.

Iran was powerless militarily, though with an army technically measured at 120,000, to halt a British invasion in similar force to that which moved in on well-defended Syria, but she was in an important position geographically for Britain's Middle Eastern defense, believed one of the next tactical moves of the war, as the weather in northern Russia was about to tighten into winter temperatures and snows.

TRIPOLI:

The lengthening range of R.A.F. bombers was bringing the harbor of Tripoli, chief Mediterranean base for Nazi-Fascist operations in North Africa, more easily within reach.

Ports of the character of Tripoli being rare in northern Africa, the latest of these bombings, during which 35 tons of explosive were dropped, were said to show that the British are putting into effect a plan they believe utterly necessary—the preparation for the switching of a major Nazi offensive to Africa.

JAPAN: 'Not So Wide'?

The statement by Ambassador Nomura of Japan in Washington that the bridge between Japanese and American policy was not so wide that it could not be spanned was viewed as perhaps a sign of the weakening of Nippon.

It was recognized in both Britain and the United States that the far eastern menace of Japan was largely a war of nerves and a battle of bluff.

The Indo-China move both these nations could laugh off as a good joke provided it did not develop into one of two things—an invasion of Thailand, or a move against the Burma road.

Either of these eventualities, it was understood, could reasonably set fire to the powder magazine in the East, yet Japan made no such move, only issuing statements which were more and more bitter. Now Nomura was saying, after a 20-minute conference with Secretary Hull:

"He outlined the position of your government. I outlined the position of mine. No conclusions were reached.

"I believe the gap between the two can be bridged. It would be folly to do otherwise. I have a very strong conviction that it will be done, but I don't just know how."

And that, at least the "folly" part of it, was exactly what America and Britain had been preaching to Japan for weeks, since the start of the move into Indo-China. It offered room for hope that Japan might yet decline to be the Axis tool.

DEFENSE: Of Leningrad

The defense of Leningrad, which apparently was to be undertaken by the Russians despite the belief of most observers that a military involvement of the city could only end in its total destruction, drew the eyes of the world, heralded by the dramatic announcements of Soviet leaders preparing everyone for the imminence of battle.

There was only one way to read this situation, and that was to understand that the Russian army resistance on the Finnish front and against the pincers attack from Latvia and the south was crumbling, that the soldiers were fighting rear-guard actions and falling back on the Soviet's second city, and that the civilian population was being armed to fight it out.

Such a battle had been fought only once before in recent world history, and that was in Warsaw, and the pages of that battle were filled with stories of the glorious heroism of the defenders, and of the ruthless destruction of the city and thousands of its inhabitants in the course of the battle.

The story was to be even more bitter and terrible in Leningrad, not only, believed most observers, because of its greater size and population, but because of the fact that the German invaders undoubtedly were not so "hot" as they were before Warsaw, and the Leningraders were better prepared.

It seemed that the army retreating toward Leningrad was not, like the ill-fated Polish army, a rabble in a rout, but an orderly group whose losses might have been heavy, but which was moving backward slowly.

In fact, as the northern forces, under Voroshilov himself, were falling back, the Russian communiques told of encounters in the Smolensk area, although they had admitted the loss of the city days before, and some thought this might mean that the Reds were driving the Nazis back in the center.

On the southern front the Germans were consolidating their gains, and the battle of Odessa, sort of a foretaste of the battle-to-be at Leningrad, was admitted by the Germans to have been a hand-to-hand encounter of the bitterest sort.

FORMER

Country Invaded

This is Shah Mirza Riza Pahlavi, 63-year-old ruler of Iran, whose country has been invaded by British and Russian troops. These countries moved in, they say, to prevent Germany from taking over the country. Also, Iran has rich oil fields that would prove of immense benefit to the Nazi war machine.

UNREST: Growing in Europe

The picture of the growing unrest in Nazi-conquered Europe continued to be sketched in, with the reports ranging from the outbreaks in Vichy and Paris to the article written for the American Mercury by Otto Strasser, the "Black Front" leader, who declared there was more than a possibility of revolution within Germany during the coming winter.

Dramatic was the broadcast picked up from England in French to the people of France in which the British urged the saboteurs and revolters to hold back their chief revolt until a signal from Britain, and then to come out in force against the Nazis.

Their cue at present, the broadcast stated, was to continue to harass the war machine in small, secret ways, not in open, widespread revolt.

Yet the report was that the revolts were continuing, that Petain had set up courts-martial for saboteurs, and that opposition elements were being arrested by the thousands by Nazi soldiers and a corps of 16,000 French police.

Lieut. Gen. Von Schamburg, Paris commander, having taken thousands of civilians into custody as hostages, ordered that the prisoners be shot in numbers to correspond with the gravity of any offenses against the Nazi invaders.

Petain's courts-martial were invested with the right to give the death penalty, and the order was that such sentences be carried out immediately and without appeal rights for the prisoner involved.

Observers held that the severity of these measures was the true mark of the seriousness of the revolt. The Vichy courts were continuing to convict and sentence to death DeGaulle, although they were still at liberty, and fighting on one front or another.

GASOLINE: Rations

Most stations in the East were beginning to ration their gasoline customers in odd sorts of ways, so that the driver who wanted gasoline badly enough could get it, if only at the rate of five gallons here and five more there.

But New York surveyors of the field reported that even the 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. curfew was working pretty well, with 109 key stations reporting a 19.4 per cent reduction in sales.

The second method was also cutting sales, though how much remained a mystery. It was believed probable that the better method would be to enlist the co-operation of the bigger users of gasoline, such as the delivery truckers, bus operators, etc. and also to force some political jobholders to stop using their state and city-owned cars for pleasure driving.

KENT: A Junket

The duke of Kent, the king of England's younger brother, having flown the Atlantic, having flown from coast to coast over Canada, inspecting war work and training in the dominion, dropped in on President Roosevelt at Hyde Park, and then made a rapid trip over American defense centers.

His schedule brought him to New York, Hyde Park, Norfolk, Va., Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md., within a few days, and he reported himself vastly impressed with what he saw.

In the latter city, assembled and nearly ready for its test was a navy bomber so big that it made flying fortresses look like tugboats alongside an ocean liner.

Just as a pursuit ship could nestle under the wing of a medium two-motored bomber, the latter could sail under the wing of this new monster of the air, with a wingspread about a block long, and an ability to fly when and where it pleased, perhaps to fight its way successfully through a squadron of enemy fighters and come through still flying.

FAMOUS ALL-BRAN MUFFINS. EASY TO MAKE. DELICIOUS!

They really are the most delicious muffins that ever melted a pot of butter! Made with crisp, toasted shreds of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN, they have a texture and flavor that have made them famous all over America.

KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN MUFFINS
3 tablespoons 1/2 cup milk
shortening 1 cup flour
1/4 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg 2 1/2 teaspoons
1 cup All-Bran baking powder
Cream shortening and sugar; add egg and beat well. Stir in All-Bran and milk; let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Sift flour with salt and baking powder; add to first mixture and stir until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 30 minutes. Yield: 6 large muffins, 3 inches in diameter, or 12 small muffins, 2 1/2 inches in diameter.

Try these delicious muffins for dinner tonight or for tomorrow morning's breakfast. They're not only good to eat; they're mighty good for you as well. For several of these muffins will add materially to your daily supply of what physicians call "bulk" in the diet, and thus help combat the common kind of constipation that is due to lack of this dietary essential. Eat ALL-BRAN every day (either as a cereal or in muffins), drink plenty of water, and see if you don't forget all about constipation due to lack of "bulk." ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CAREY WILSON, producer of the Hardy Family pictures, was awarded a Master of Arts degree by the Colorado State College of Education recently, in recognition of his "artistic, creative and ethical contributions to the screen and because the Hardy pictures have made an outstanding contribution to clean, wholesome entertainment for the American people."

All of which is pretty impressive. But—right on the heels of all that, the National League of Decency cracked down on "Life Begins for Andy Hardy," the latest of the series, finding it objectionable for children!

Norma Shearer is back in Hollywood after a visit in New York, preparing for her first film since "Escape." It will be "We Were Dancing," based on a Noel Coward stage success, and Melvyn Douglas will be her romantic partner.

NORMA SHEARER

ner. He's now occupied with "The Twins," along with Greta Garbo and Constance Bennett—that's the one in which Garbo evidently does practically everything but walk a tight rope.

Lyle Moraine, who writes songs and works in pictures, was inspired by Bob Hope's "Caught in the Draft" to write "I've Been Drafted, Now I'm Drafting You," which Hope and Miss Lamour sang on the air. Moraine announced the other day on the "Louisiana Purchase" set that part of the title had been in the nature of a prophecy. He's set for a compulsory role in the army.

Dinah Shore, who sings "Yes My Darling Daughter" so effectively that it made her famous on the air, has had to defer her picture-making plans. She's been re-signed for the new Eddie Cantor program, which means that she'll remain in New York. Cantor is set to stay there; he's returning to the stage in the autumn in a musical comedy entitled "Banjo Eyes."

The Rudy Vallee program now has an impressively large production staff—six script writers and four song writers, to turn out the original music. All of which doesn't keep John Barrymore from ignoring the script and ad libbing occasionally.

Lana Turner's making it three in a row—three of Hollywood's most popular male stars. She did "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" with Spencer Tracy. Then came "Honky Tonk" with Clark Gable. Her next is "Johnny Eager," an underworld story, with Robert Taylor. That one sounds familiar—ex-convict, sordid on the world, and society darling who falls in love with him.

As was expected, Ellen Drew lost no time after doing location scenes in Nevada for "The Remarkable Andrew" before marrying Sy Bartlett in the same state. Paramount lost no time in putting her into "Prison Widows," a story of the women who wait outside prison gates for their men to return to them. She's being currently seen on the country's screens in "The Parson of Panamint."

Mildred Coles was heartbroken a while ago when, after a week's shooting in "Scattergood Pulls the Strings," she came down with acute appendicitis and Susan Peters had to take over her role. Now she's happy; she's leading lady in "Scattergood Meets Broadway."

ODDS AND ENDS—Ann Sheridan will be in two Warner pictures at the same time for the next two months—"The Man Who Came to Dinner" and "King of the Row" . . . The Mutual chain will bring five championship boxing bouts to the air this late summer and fall . . . White Hoyt never was afraid of anything when he played baseball—but now that he's broadcasting he's afraid of the word "particularly" . . . Betty Harrison, Donna Durbin's stand-in for five years, will appear on the screen for the first time in Deanna's "It Started With Adam" . . . Tyrone Power won new laurels recently when he returned to the stage at an eastern little theater.

ADD ZEST TO MEALS WITH JELLIES AND RELISHES (See Recipes Below)

LINE YOUR PANTRY SHELF!

As full of tang and zest as autumn are these recipes tailored to fit your canning cupboard. Crisp relishes, sparkling jellies, bright tomato catsup, and pickles of cucumber and peach—what a selection you'll have for making your meals a festive board!

Your pantry shelf lined with these sweet, spicy fruits and vegetables will be your line of defense, too, not only for meal planning but in working out a nutrition and food defense program. Generous supplies of fruits and vegetables now will assure you of plenty in fall and winter if you put them up.

Be sure to use a good quality cider vinegar to prevent pickles from becoming soft, tough, or shriveled. Good, full-bodied spices are also vital to successful canning.

*Bread and Butter Pickles.

(Makes 10 pints)
25 medium sized cucumbers
10 onions (medium-white)
1/4 cup salt
1 pint vinegar
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons mustard seed
2 tablespoons ginger
2 tablespoons turmeric

Let unpeeled cucumbers stand in water overnight. Then slice cucumbers and onions and place in pan with salt (no water). Let stand 1 hour, then rinse off salt, add vinegar, mustard seed, ginger and turmeric. Boil all ingredients until peel turns yellow (about 40 minutes). Pack pickles in sterilized jars. Seal and allow to stand 10 days before using.

*Watermelon Pickles.

Thinly cut the green rind from watermelon, removing soft part of pink meat. Cut in pieces and cover with salt water made from 1 cup salt to 4 cups water. Soak 12 hours, drain and cook in boiling water until half tender, about 10 minutes. For every pound of rind, allow a sauce made from:

1 3-inch stick of cinnamon
8 cloves without heads
2 cups sugar
1 cup water
1 cup vinegar

Tie spices in a cloth bag. Cook all ingredients 10 minutes. Add rind and slowly bring to a boil. Remove spices. Place rind in sterilized jars, cover with hot syrup and seal.

Spice the fruits from your orchard or carefully chosen material from the market and you will always have something of a surprise to add to mealtime. Served as a meat accompaniment, garnish or a relish whole, luscious fruit decorated demurely with

LYNN SAYS:

Cookbooks that will make a difference in your life and also a difference in your meals are worth looking into. Fall's a good time to look when you think of the many holidays in the months ahead and the entertaining you're going to do and the new ideas you'll need.

"June Platt's Party Cookbook," published by Houghton Mifflin, is a classic in that the recipes are given in a conversational sort of way as though your very best friend and best cook were giving you some of her favorite recipes. Here you'll find such treasures as corned beef and cabbage, veal kidneys in mustard, hot buttered scones, and strawberry and almond soufflé.

Dishes you've never thought of and touches that add real distinction to everyday food are given in "Mrs. Lang's Complete Menu Book," also published by Houghton Mifflin. Menus for every kind of occasion are given and recipes, too, for every one of them.

cloves, ripened and mellowed in heavy syrup, fills menu demands beautifully.

*Pickled Fruit.

(Makes 5 to 6 pints)
2 cups vinegar
5 cups brown sugar or
2 1/2 cups each, brown and white sugar
2 tablespoons whole cloves
2 sticks cinnamon
4 quarts peaches, pears, or crab-apples

Cook sugar, vinegar, spices 20 minutes. Select firm fruit, remove the thin skins from pears and peaches, if using them, but do not pare crabapples, rather leave them with skins on. Drop in fruits, few at a time, and cook until tender. Pack in hot sterilized jars, adding syrup within a half inch of the top. Seal and store in a cool, dry place.

Concord grapes, deep purple, velvety, and plump with juice are one of autumn's favorite fruits. They lend themselves nicely to jelly, either by themselves or in combination with other fruits. As conserves, too, they will help you make menu magic.

*Concord Grape Jelly.

(Makes 11 medium glasses)
3 pounds ripe Concord grapes
1/2 cup water
1/2 cups sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

Stem the grapes and crush them thoroughly. Add the water, bring to a boil, cover, simmer 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly bag and squeeze out juice (about 4 cups). Place sugar and fruit juice in large saucepan, mix, and bring to a boil over a very hot fire. Add pectin, stirring constantly, bring to a full rolling boil. Boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once.

*Grape Conserve.

(Makes 10 12-ounce glasses)
7 pounds Concord grapes
Sugar

2 pounds seedless white grapes
4 oranges, sliced thin
1 pound broken walnut meats
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
Stem the grapes; wash and mash slightly. Cook slowly until juice is free, about 15 minutes. Force through a sieve to remove seeds. Measure pulp. To every 4 cups pulp, add 3 cups sugar. Add white grapes, orange slices, cinnamon and nutmeg. Cook to the jelly stage. Remove from heat; add nutsmeats. Seal in hot, sterilized glasses.

Putting up a batch of tomato catsup offers pleasure in more ways than one. You enjoy the lusty, spicy odor of the cooking, and the fragrance seems to permeate the house for days. You'll enjoy seeing the jars of rich red fruit on the shelves, and then again you'll like tartness of the relish as part of your meals.

*Tomato Catsup.

(Makes 5 to 6 pints)
4 quarts of tomatoes, quartered
2 large onions, chopped
2 cups granulated sugar
2 cups vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons whole allspice
1/2 tablespoon whole cinnamon
2 tablespoons whole cloves
1 teaspoon whole black pepper
2 tablespoons paprika
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard

Simmer tomatoes, onions, sugar, and vinegar 2 hours. Tie the all-spice, pepper, cinnamon and cloves in a bag and add with the remaining ingredients, and continue cooking for another hour. Remove the bag of spices and force the vegetables through a sieve. Reheat to bubbling hot and pack in hot, sterile jars.

YOU BUY INOCULATION ON FAITH

Field tests have shown a big difference in the quality of inoculator brands on the market. You cannot see the legume bacteria you purchase. Immediate demonstration is impossible. What is the reputation and experience behind the inoculation you buy?

NITRAGIN is the ORIGINAL LEGUME INOCULATOR, having served the farmers for over forty years. It was a GOLD MEDAL at the World's Fair, St. Louis, 1904.

NITRAGIN is made in the most complete and modern laboratory of its kind in the world.
NITRAGIN is the leader in its field by a big margin. NITRAGIN demand in the South has rapidly increased year after year. During the fall of 1938 the Southern shipments of NITRAGIN were for more than 45 million pounds of VETCH and WINTER PEAS. This large demand is due to many field tests carried on year after year. We prove by these tests that NITRAGIN is a good product.

Send for our booklet "Plant Legumes to Prosper," showing pictures of field tests and how NITRAGIN is made. The booklet also gives you valuable information regarding the inoculation of legumes. If your dealer does not have NITRAGIN in stock, have him get it for you. Insist on NITRAGIN inoculation.
