TODAY'S popularity of Door's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions. These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Dosn's Pills as a good disvertic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urinastion asometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backsche, persistent headache, attacks of direiness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.

Roosevelt Asserts Positive Stand Against Appeasement as Lindbergh Sees Trouble With Great Britain: Diplomats Try Their Hand in Far East

(EDITOR'S NOTE-When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

PEOPLE:

And Realization

President Roosevelt, realizing that he was faced with a determined anti-intervention bloc, both in press and congress, which was taking as its theme "pooh-pooh, there's no danger," had been making strides in his effort to bring about in the American public a realization of what he considered to be the real seriousness of the international situation. Coupled with this was an effort he was making to have Americans also make a more realistic evaluation of their own blessings. In recent utterances, particularly in one from Hyde Park, he quoted at length from a personal letter to him

SEES PRESIDENT

Ambassador Nomura recently delivered a personal message to President Roosevelt from Prince Konoye, Japanese premier. This started rumors of "peace" negotiations for the Pacific.

from an unnamed mother, in which she said, in part:

"It is terrifying, coming from Europe, to realize that many of these people (in America) in their unruffled existence, seem to have no idea of what hangs over their heads today. "They put themselves in a posture where they cannot squawk about what they don't see. "They go about their ignoring the threatening heel of human beings who want to destroy the freedom, the normal life to which they have been accustomed. "In Europe there is not a nation of those who have suffered abuse whose people are not aware of what America stands for. They pray daily that America will save itself by helping greatly to defeat Hitlerism." The President, echoing her sentiments, said:

"That is a thought we all feel. We want to keep America so that in all the years to come, long after all of us here are gone, someone will be able to meet as we are doing, as we hope to meet next year."

And, later, in a message particularly to labor, along the line of urging America to consider its own blessings, he said:

"Only in a democracy could there be a day set aside for millions of workers, free men and women in a free country.

"Only in a democracy could they spend the day in free worship, en-joying the right to speak their minds, to read uncensored news and to hear uncensored radio programs. "Today we in America are faced with the great task of preserving that democracy and we, too, will offer our utmost in labor and sacrifice just as our fathers and our fathers' fathers did." His Labor day talk declared unequivocally for the defeat of Hitlerism and his refusal to become "a Benedict Arnold" by accepting appeasement and "crumbs" from Hitler's "peace" table.

LINDBERGH:

Sees New Menace

Charles A. Lindbergh, chief adminstration critic, enlivened the discussion of extended aid to Britain and Russia by turning on England, and warning the American people in an address that if we banked too much on the British, we might find ourselves in the same company with only three European nations not en-Finland and France.

Pointing out that these two nations, like this country, started out in their participation of the war as sides, with considerable "advice" as Pointing out that these two naallies of Britain, and now were to which side to take.

finding themselves at least technical ly enemies of the British. Lindbergh's speech was headlined in many newspapers as "Lindbergh Says British May Fight U. S.," and given prominent position. At about the same time Representative Cox of Georgia, bitterly denouncing the presidential shakeup of the defense production group, declared that the White House was letting the "left-wingers" take control of industry, and that the new alignment would "tie the hands" of William S. Knudsen, and "kick Stettinius out of the picture."

Yet on the same day Mr. Knudsen himself was quoted as saying: "I feel that the new arrangement will achieve splend results in increasing the rate of production." It was a succession of incidents like these which enlivened the American war effort at the same time confusing newspaper readers as to the thought of leaders on controversial subjects of how the effort should be conducted.

VICHY:

In Limelight The shooting of Pierre Laval and Marcel Deat by Paul Collette, a Norman youthful assassin who had to join the French Legion to fight the Soviet in order to get close to the Nazi collaborator with his pistol, turned eyes suddenly toward Vichy, and the double assassination attempt seemed confirmatory of previous reports of serious unrest. At almost the same time that stories were coming across the wires telling of the sudden arousal of sympathy for Collette, a New York newspaper writer uncovered a story about the operations in the United States of a clique of Vichy agents, working under the direct control of Gaston Henry-Have. French ambassador to the United States. It was a romantic yarn, telling how advance plans of General De-Gaulle's ill-fated expedition against Dakar were smuggled into the U.S. in the gasoline tank of an automobile shipped to Hoboken from London and on a Greek steamer.

The plans presumably were turned over to the Vichy government by agents here. The story, evidently the result of long and careful investigation by the writer for his newspaper, named more than a dozen names, including that of the ambassador himself, and created a profound sensation, certain to bring repercussions.

It was charged, among other things, that a secret French police agent had been sent here and had established the undercover organiza-

At the same time that Laval and Deat were near death from their wounds as a sort of culmination of French unrest and sabotage against the pro-Nazis, it was reported from Stockholm, mine of information about conditions in Norway, that Quisling himself had tried suicide by taking sleeping pills.

The Swedish sources stated in passing that their country, as well as Switzerland and Portugal, the gaged in the struggle one way or

JAPAN: And Roosevelt

A long conference between Ambassador Nomura and President Roosevelt, followed by the announcement from the White House that the President personally would attempt a peaceful solution of the Japanese-United States impasse brought hopes up high that the outcome might be the freeing of the Pacific fleet or a portion of it to aid in the battle of the Atlantic.

Nomura's attitude, following the conference, had been: "The gaps between the policy of our two nations are not so great but that they can be bridged peace-Almost immediately Prince Konoye, Japanese premier, issued a statement of aims in which two points stood out-a desire to "dispose of the Chinese affair"-and a wish "for lasting peace and prosperity in the Pacific.

Those were broad aims with which the United States had no quarrel. Yet a recent speech of Churchill was taken by some to mean that America was about to appease Japan by tossing China This the President swiftly denied and said it should not be read into the Churchill speech. However, that remained a chief For few could reconcile with President Roosevelt's general foreign policy the throwing over of a democratic oppressed nation to appease a nation already labeled by this country as "aggressor." Even a bigger obstacle, and one requiring most delicate handling was the question of lease-lend aid to Russia. Again, unless the President was to make a most drastic appeasement move, gasoline and oil would be going to the Soviet through Vladivostok, a pill Japan so far had announced itself unable to swallow.

Some observers saw these two items as insuperable obstacles to any rapprochement between the Japanese and Americans, and believed the Nomura statement and the Konoye message were simply further Japanese "stalling" and 'bluffing" to avoid becoming embroiled in any further warfare.

The Nazi announcements (and many believed the Japanese government was taking its dictation from Berlin) gave Japan no choice if it wanted to follow German leadership, stated flatly that they opposed oil shipping into Vladivostok, not only on their own part but on that of Japan, and sharply criticized President Roosevelt and

Churchill in these words: "The abyss separating the real future of our (Japan's and Germany's) common destiny from the propagandistic verbosity of Churchill and Roosevelt is clearly visible."

The Vladivostok plan was denounced as "plans to bring in foreign influences through such back doors to keep Bolshevism alive.

TAX BILL: Still Unsolved

As the senate made ready to act on the new tax, the situation was:

The house had pared about $300,-000,000 from what Secretary Morgenthau had asked for—about three and a half-billions. The house thought $3,200,000,000 enough. The senate finance committee on the other hand, set the American tax bill at $3,672,000,000, or about $172,-000,000 more than Secretary Morgenthau had asked in the first place. Thus the amount the pocketbooks of the country would provide toward meeting America's present war expenditure was still very much in doubt, and tied into this doubt were several features of the various taxes on which there was considerable difference of opinion.

Washington observers figured that out of the huddle and the debate would come a tax bill carrying something halfway between the decision of the two houses-or right close to Morgenthau's original figure, three and a half billions.

TAKES POISON Quisling has become a word synonymous with treachery. Quisling, Nazi intriguer, was put in charge of his native Norway when Hitler conquered it. Quisling was reported last week to have taken an overdose of sleeping pills—deliberately Op-position to Hitlerism has been growing in Norway.

Reliable Natural Gas for the Gulf South . . .

* Natural Gas keeps the wheels of Gulf South industries turning. It provides employment for a multitude of workers. It spells better living through the comfort, health and happiness it brings to thousands of homes in the Gulf South.

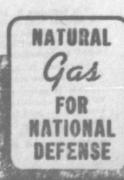

* This great service hasn't just happened. It had to be built and perfected, step by step, through many years. And it had to be made fool-proof, practical, dependable.

* All of the vast resources of this Company and associated Companies can be called upon to assure a continuously adequate supply of Natural Gas to factories and to the city gates of communities served. Gas from scores of fields and many hundreds of wells is regularly delivered through a more than 5,000-mile network of pipe lines to assure this reliable supply.

* Natural Gas ever at the burner tip when needed —morning, noon and night — that's dependability! And that's what we have done for the benefit of the territory we serve.

DEPENDABLE NATURAL GAS SERVICE DOESN'T JUST HAPPEN!

Solving Your Apron Problem

A PRON problem!! It is solved here with two exciting new motifs in the Accordion Flare and the Water Lily. Ingenious gores make the fetching style at lower left; an applique cactus is on the waistband, and rickrack trims. The softly flared apron at top is appliqued with huge water lilies.

After picking chickens, ducks or geese, rub them with a damp cloth dipped in cornmeal and see how well it cleans them.

As soon as you take a sponge cake from the oven, invert the pan on a cake rack until the cake is cool. This lets air circulate under the cake, helping to prevent gathering of moisture in the pan. When cake is cool loosen the sides with a spatula and slip the cake.

After you have washed small rugs, dry them on a flat surface. Then they will lay flat on the floor.

To steam bake means to place a pan of food in another shallow pan of hot water and then bake. This method is used for cooking souffles, timbales and other dishes requiring slow cooking.

Every two weeks your list of household tasks should include a thorough airing of the mattress. This can be done by opening the window wide.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR LEFTOVERS! (See Recipes Below)

TRIMMED TO TEMPT . . .

Leftovers on purpose! There are so many delicious ways of using leftovers, why not call them "planned aheads"? Casseroles, meat loaves, salads, soups and so on will do much to turn the tag ends of daybefore - yesterday's dinner into mealtime "comeons."

The trick is not to serve the same old hash or stew in the same old way, but to give leftover foods fresh faces with fresh recipes. Like many thrifty homemakers, you, too, can discover the economy, both in time and money, of buying and preparing a large roast, or more than enough vegetables, with leftovers in mind.

You can't always make mealtime foods come out even. So, let's be practical about the situation. If you serve roast chicken or baked salmon for Sunday dinner, plan to do all sorts of things with the leftover portions for weekday meals.

Here's a roll call of leftovers and how to fix them-proof that "dayafter" foods can be not only good, but delicious!

Summer Meat Pie.

(Serves 6) 2 pounds beef neck or shank

2½ cups leftover mest, cubed 3 tablespoons flour 2 tables ons lard

1 small onion, sliced green pepper, chopped 1 cup carrot slices Sliced mushrooms Salt and pepper

Have the beef neck or shank cut into 1-inch cubes. Dredge in flour, seasoned with salt and pepper. Brown meat in hot lard with onion and green pepper. Cover with hot water and let simmer 1 hour, with kettle tightly covered. Transfer to baking dish, add carrots and mushrooms. Thicken meat liquid, pour over meat and vegetables. Cook in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 40 minutes, then pipe a border of mashed potatoes around the edge, and bake till potatoes brown.

*Salmon a la Ring.

4 tablespoons butter

41/2 tablespoons flour

1½ cups milk 1/2 pimiento 1/2 small green pepper

2 cups flaked salmon

2 egg yolks 1/2 cup mayonnaise Salt and pepper to taste

Melt the butter, blend in flour, add the milk and cook slowly, stirring constantly until thickened and smooth. Add green pepper and pimiento cut into strips. Add flaked salmon. When hot, add egg yolks which have been beaten, cook a moment, then fold in mayonnaise and seasonings. Heat again and blend thoroughly. Serve this mixture in the center of a rice ring which has been turned out on a serving platter or chop plate. Garnish with the buttered peas and sprinkle with paprika.

LYNN SAYS:

When brown sugar hardens so that it cannot be measured accurately, spread it in a shallow pan and heat it slowly in a 275degree F. oven. If too high a heat is used, the sugar caramelizes. Stir and mash it with a fork. Only enough sugar to be used at one time should be softened, as it hardens again as soon as it is oven. Or you may want to add leftover meat or fish to your rice foundation. Try one or all-you'll find the combinations tempting.

To sour one cup of milk, put one tablespoon of vinegar in a cup and fill the cup with sweet milk. Stir well.

Romantie Meat Pie.

(Serves 6) A very nutritious kind of pie is this one, with crescent biscuits riding a sea of meat, vegetables and gravy. And it's an excellent way to serve left-over meat. Almost any of the thrift cuts can be used. You'll need;

4 tablespoons fat 3 tablespoons chopped onion

2 tablespoons green pepper

1/2 cup diced celery cup diced cooked meat

4 tablespoons flour 2 cups milk or meat stock

1/2 cup diced cooked carrots Slowly brown onions, pepper, celery and cooked meat in cooking fat, stirring often. Add flour slowly, stirring constantly until brown Add remaining ingredients. Heat thoroughly. Pour into well-greased baking dish and cover with baking powder biscuits which have been cut in crescent shapes. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 15 minutes, or until biscuits are browned. Why not try this sweet potato leftover which is sure to be a hit with either fish, fowl or meat: Mash the potatoes and shape into 1/2-inch cakes. Sprinkle with flour and brown quickly in hot fat. Then serve.

Sure, it's a big problem to figure ways of using assorted flakes and bits of yesterday's meal. But, don't eye them coldly-show them the heat again. Your family will love you for it!

2 cups scalded milk 3 tablespoons butter or other fat 3 tablespoons flour 1/2 cup bread crumbs 1/2 teaspoon salt Buttered bread crumbs 2 cups ground cooked ham

Ham Souffie.

Grated cheese

Make a cream sauce of milk, fat, flour and salt. Add bread crumbs and cook 3 minutes. Add ham and egg yolks and carefully fold in whites beaten until stiff. Turn into well-greased baking pan or casserole, spread top with buttered crumbs and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake about 30 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Serve at once.

Meals that follow holiday feasts can be made beguiling by clever use of foods left from the feasts themselves.

Salvage leftovers from the relish tray, grind or chop them, moisten with a little salad dressing and out comes a brand new sandwich filler. Spread some between hot toasted rolls or bread slices at snack time. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Being Happy

The world would be better and brighter if people were taught the duty of being happy, as well as the happiness of doing their duty. To be happy ourselves is a most effectual contribution to the hap-piness of others.—Sir John Lub-

The men in the service themhave solved the problem of what they want in the way of gifts from the folks back home. First hand information from en-listed men on shipboard, in camps and barracks indicate that tobacco is first choice in the gift line-up. Actual sales figures from service stores show that the favorite cigarette with men in the Army, Navy, Marines and Coast Guard is Camel. Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco is another special favo-rite. Local dealers feature Camels by the carton and Prince Albert in the pound tins as doubly welcome gifts to the men in the service from the folks back home.—
