Laurence-Culwell

Miss Mildred Culwell of Childress and John Robert Laurence of Hedley were united in marriage Sunday, Oct. 12, at the First Methodist church at Childress. The pastor, Rev. Carter, read the double ring ceremony. Attendants were Mrs. Fay Foster, Mrs. Nita Hilton, Miss Laverne Connelly, Virgil Gregg, Edgar and Paul Culwell.

Miss Sarah Hendricks sang "Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Miss Polly White at the piano.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the Childress Hotel. Mrs. G. L. Johnson presided over the bride's book, and Mrs. Frank Zedrow over the coffee table. After the bride had cut the first slice of wedding cake it was cut and served by Mrs. Clyde Adams to the large group of relatives and friends present.

Hedleyans attending included Messrs. and Mesdames G. L. Johnson, A. M. Saunders and Earl Tollett, Mrs. Ott Saunders, Jay Hunt, Misses Myrtle Willis and Willie Mae Greer.

Immediately after the reception the couple left for a trip to Oklahoma City. They will make their home in Hedley, where the groom is connected with the S&T Grocery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Culwell of Childress and attended the Hedley schools, graduating here in 1934. She also attended Bethany Peniel College at Bethany, Okla. She was formerly employed in the Wilson Drug Co.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Laurence of Claude. He was a member of the 1938 graduating class of Hedley high school.

The Informer joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Laurence.

Lunch Room Opened

The community lunch room is in operation Tuesday in the home Ec room of the high school building. The project is heartily endorsed and backed by the P. T. A. and all contributions of either food or money will be gratefully accepted.

Mrs. O. E. Bailey is in charge of the lunch room, with Frank Perkins and Wiley Kysar as assistants.

Clarence C. Phelps Dies

Funeral services for Clarence Charles Phelps who died early Friday morning were held Saturday from the First Baptist church of Clarendon. Rev. J. Perry King was in charge of the services at the church and the Masonic Lodge of Clarendon, of which Mr. Phelps was a member, had charge of the service at the grave. Burial was in the Ottumwa cemetery under the direction of the Womack Funeral Home.

Mr. Phelps had lived in Clarendon for 28 years. His home was west of Clarendon where the new Jerico road will pass. He was born June 25, 1890 in Cooke county, Texas. He is survived by his widow, three sons, Harold, Hugh and Haskell, three daughters, Mrs. David McClesky, Mildred Phelps and Mary Francis Phelps. Pallbearers were Masonic Lodge members, Dess Palmer, Vann Kennedy, Nolle Simmons, Thad Rogers, Bert Smith and Heckie Stark.

Let's Join P. T. A.!

The P. T. A. met in the regular meeting Oct. 9 with a good attendance. Mr. Riney, state highway patrolman gave a very helpful talk on Safety. His main thought was, "Safety is a mode of thinking applied to all phases of life and should begin at home."

Our governor issued a proclamation that Oct. 8-19 is Member ship Drive Week for P. T. A. We have 70 paid members.

The 1st grade received the dollar for having the most parents present.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Unrest in Nazi Dominated Nations Results in 'Front-Behind-Front'; Hitler's 'Victory' Speech Is Puzzle As Russia Claims Important Gains

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler is shown in the Sportsplatz in Berlin as he made his speech to open the annual drive for winter relief.

FRONT: (Behind Front)

The old cliché that "there is nothing new under the sun" was fairly routed by the oddest of all wars when the unrest which had been boiling for months in countries occupied by Nazi Germany had begun to flare into strange and more open warfare.

And it was a queer warfare, with ultimatums flying back and forth, and nations in exile passing decrees on conquered peoples with the threat of "death if we ever get back in our countries again."

It was no laughing matter, either, for the era of mass executions had been reached, with the possibility in some quarters that Germans would be slaughtered wholesale, just as the Nazis were slaughtering victims in other quarters.

In Jugoslavia

Guerrilla bands operating in the Serbian mountain districts, swooping down by night, had been capturing small detachments of Nazi soldiers, spiritng them away as captives, until they had amassed somewhere between 600 and 1,000 men, whom they were reported holding prisoners.

Came an ultimatum from guerrillas to the Nazi occupational officers to this effect: "Continue to shoot Jugoslav hostages, and we shall execute our prisoners."

The German answer (requiring the use of a considerable force which presumably had been taken from the Russian front) was the reported sending of a panzer division of 12,000 men and to head it toward Belgrade, the former capital of former Jugoslavia to deal summarily with these guerrilla bands.

In Norway

King Haakon (in exile in London) signed a decree providing the death penalty for crimes against the Norwegian state.

A counter-attack against this move had come from Josef Terboven, the Reich's commissar in Norway, who said: "Accept Germany's new order and regard Germany's enemies as yours, or face obliteration as a national state, and perhaps starvation."

This ultimatum was backed up, it had been reported, by the fact that more than 2,000 Norwegians were in concentration camps, many of them held as hostages.

The "new order" was the Quisling government, against which an underground and sometimes open revolt had been going on for two months or more.

And against this stood Haakon's decree, held a warning to any "tools" of the Nazis who might exert themselves to help the German authorities that if Norway regains its freedom they will face the death penalty.

In Bulgaria

While not occupied formally or as a result of warfare, Bulgaria was officially considered to be an Axis partner, and reports had emanated from Sofia, in the form of a victory dispatch, that Greek forces which had swooped over the borders into Bulgaria with rifles and machine guns seeking to organize a revolt among the Greek citizens.

BRIEFS:

Berlin: (by radio heard in New York) The world famous broadcaster "Lord" Haw-Haw, Nazi-minded Englishman, had been banned from the air.

Capetown, S. A.: Gen. Jan Christian Smuts again had called for America's entry into the war "hands and feet," to insure a quicker victory and save the world from exhaustion.

zens of the country, had been "annihilated."

In Belgium

A bomb explosion, it had been reported, in Brussels, had killed Jean Oederkerke, secretary of the Rexist (Fascist) forces.

In Czecho Slovakia

The wholesale executions in Bohemia and Moravia (home of the Czechs) followed revelations that there had been operating there schools for saboteurs and for learning improved methods of slowing down factory production.

And these evidences of the widespread revolt were in addition to similar events which had resulted in executions in occupied and unoccupied France and in Holland.

NEUTRALITY: Change Expected

Although it was recognized that President Roosevelt's request for changes in or repeal of the neutrality act would meet with determined opposition in senate and house, a poll of the chambers showed definitely that some modification, notably that of permitting arming of American merchant ships, would receive a congressional O. K.

This poll had been taken as Secretary of State Hull warned the Axis powers that American-owned ships (presumably wearing the Panamanian or other flag, were armed and had orders to defend themselves.

This statement itself had closely followed the sinking of a former American tanker 450 miles east of Recife, Brazil, with the loss of several American lives.

The tanker had originally been American, had been transferred to the British service, and was operating under the Panamanian flag with a crew largely composed of American citizens.

Between 12 and 20 such ships had already been armed, Mr. Hull said, and he characterized the sinkings of these vessels or of those of this type as a German effort at "frightfulness designed to drive us out of the Atlantic."

The senate poll showed 29 in favor of repeal or change; 20 opposed to any change, and most of the rest undecided, wanting more time to study, or out of the city and unavailable for comment.

HITLER: Puzzle

The first formal address by Hitler in 103 days of warfare with Russia rather left the world puzzled—for he claimed a total victory over the Reds at a time when Moscow was claiming the Leningrad push stopped, and continued advances in the center.

Also, the favorable report of the chancellor on the war situation came at a time when unrest behind the lines was assuming the proportions of a front, and at least one whole division had to be sidetracked to take care of one small sector of conquered territory.

Even more puzzling was his statement that he had ordered production of war materials restricted, because the Russians were no longer able to be a menace and that the war was, in effect "in the bag."

This was followed up by a warning in the Berlin Press to British and American mission members in Moscow to get out of the Russian capital because a head-on attack upon Moscow was planned.

It came at a time when Moscow itself was informing the British and Americans that there no longer was doubt that Russia could hold out through the winter, but that quantities of munitions and the machinery of war would be needed next spring.

It was hard to reconcile facts with speech or speech with facts.

It's All Over

Here is George Hopkins, with his parachute, in which he landed from an airplane atop Devil's Tower in Wyoming. After the better part of six days he was rescued by a crew of eight expert mountain climbers.

DEATH: To a Liberal

Louis Dembitz Brandeis, noted liberal jurist, and former Supreme court justice, died in his Washington home just on the night before a new Supreme court was meeting for its first 1941-42 session.

SPENDING: Will Triple

During the first World War, American spending at the height of the struggle reached something like $50,000,000 a day. Great Britain is way past that point now, and the expectation in Washington had been that within this fiscal year America's spending will come to about two billions a month, or about $70,000,000 a day.

That was the figure which U. S. Budget Director Smith estimated, and the bill would be 24 billions in the year, with an income of close to 12 billions from taxes and a deficit of about the same amount.

In this amount was included the lend-lease aid, but not the direct purchases by Britain, Russia, China or other sources.

The difference between the American and British rate of spending, Smith pointed out, was this—that two billions a month is about $135 a year for all the citizens of the nation, whereas Britain's spending constitutes about 40 per cent of the national income.

Smith went on to state that considering better employment conditions and the busy state of the nation, probably more dollars would be left for civilian use than in pre-defense years.

CHURCH: And the Reds

President Roosevelt had rammed himself into a hornet's nest with his discussion of Article 124 of the Russian constitution, which gave religious freedom guarantees to the people.

Churchmen of several faiths and congressmen took the President to task and later the President qualified his statement or explained it in the light of a hope that movements now on foot would bring religious freedom, under the constitution of Russia to her people.

This put a somewhat new light on the controversy, and the head of the Russian Orthodox church came forward to give the President support and to reveal his opinion that the days of church repression and antagonism in Russia were numbered.

The people were "turning to God" he said, and the government was not planning to prevent this uprising of the spirit in the face of the danger of death in war.

Myron Taylor was back from his visit to the Pope, and more light on the subject of religious freedom was expected from this source.

RUSSIA: Has 'Dunquerque'

Moscow had published the dramatic report that a large Red army unit reported trapped by the Finns on the shores of Lake Ladoga north of Leningrad had been saved by a "Dunquerque" retreat engineered by lake vessels.

The hero of the escape from the trap was Colonel Bondarev, who, with his men, had been battling for 45 days.

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

WENDY BARRIE and George Sanders were sort of rocked back on their heels recently on the set of RKO's "A Date With the Falcon."

John Boles is returning to the screen in Monogram's "Boy o' Mine." Remember John? He used to be one of the screen's most popular singing stars.

Robert Preston, who recently was chosen by vote of the nation's exhibitors as one of the top leading men in pictures (and that's the kind of selection that counts in Hollywood!) has been named by Paramount as the third member of the co-starring triumvirate of "This Gun for Hire." The other two stars are Veronica Lake—and we're told that she'll change her hair-do—and Alan Ladd. Ladd is a young character actor, of whom not much has been heard as yet; he won the role with a remarkable screen test.

Movie-goers will get their first glimpse of the technique of the underground revolt against Hitler, now spreading through Europe, in the newest March of Time film, "Norway in Revolt"; it also includes scenes of combined Norwegian and British naval raids on the coast of Norway, which resulted in the destruction of valuable Nazi war supplies.

Bette Davis is "The Most Regular Star" on the Warner Bros. lot, according to a poll conducted by the studio's 72 police officers. The honor was awarded because of her thoughtfulness, cheerfulness and her being, in general, "a regular guy."

Those who have forgotten that Bob Hope started his theatrical career as one-half of the hoofing team of Hope and Byrnes are going to be surprised when they see his song-and-dance version of the Irving Berlin number, "You Can't Brush Me Off" in Paramount's "Louisiana Purchase." He does a dance routine with a colored kid band and quartet that should make Rochester look to his laurels.

Did you know that Mickey Mouse was 13 years old the other day? Walt Disney named him Mortimer Mouse, but Mrs. Disney suggested the change to Mickey. He made his debut in the cartoon comedy, "Steamboat Willie," and was an instant success.

Everyone who enjoyed those radio presentations of outstanding pictures is delighted now that the Playhouse is back on the air. Dramatized versions of successful pictures are heard Monday through Friday in quarter-hour episodes.

ODDS AND ENDS—When he was in New York recently Joan Fontaine drove interviewers slightly mad by insisting on discussing fishing trips instead of fashions and pictures.

THE HOOT

The Ludicrous Deception

The cat was a black and white color with dark spots. As Fanny as the cat was called, was exceeding the twenty mile an hour speed limit. So was the black and white of some tain breed, which was chasing her at top speed, and seemed indefatigable.

Fanny had awakened, five minutes before, from a luxurious slumber and fled reluctantly, but wildly from the dog. She now led the dog on an erratic course across a vacant lot then two blocks down the sidewalk. Next he weaved in and out among the automobiles on main street and ended the bending of horns.

Seeing a large oak tree in a small park, Fanny came to a quick decision and as quickly disappeared behind the towering tree. The dog, following Fanny, was waiting behind the tree, as the cat disappeared.

She now walked completely around the tree. Still not seeing her he increased his pace and caught sight of what appeared to be the cat's tail. With a quick lunge the dog snapped his jaws shut on the tail, only to find it was his own. With a yell and a howl he fled as if from a thousand merciless demons.

That, thought Fanny from the top of the well foliaged oak, was the end of the deception.

China Relief Fund

Last week was reserved for China Relief week in schools all over Texas by Governor Coke R. Stevenson. This China Relief campaign was endorsed by President Roosevelt with Mrs. Roosevelt as the advisory chairman.

This relief campaign is attempting to raise $5,000,000 in America and Texas is asked to raise $200,000 of this amount. Every penny that is contributed to this fund counts, because as L. A. Woods, superintendent of Texas schools, has said, "One dollar will give a little Chinese refugee food, shelter and care for almost a month." This sounds rather fantastic to us, but a dollar will buy almost ten times as much in China as it will in the United States. Our donation box received $5.18 after the first two days.

All that was contributed was sent directly to Nathan Adams, president of the First National Bank at Dallas, who received and acknowledged all contributions. There was no overhead expense and every cent contributed was sent to China without delay.

If you have a relative or friend in the service and have any doubts about what to send him as gifts, your problems are over. The service men have solved it for you by naming tobacco as their first choice in gifts. Actual sales records show the favorite cigarette with men in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard is Camel. Prince Albert is the popular smoking tobacco. With these preferences in mind, local tobacco dealers feature Camels by the carton and Prince Albert in the pound tin as ideal gifts to the men in the service from the folks back home. —Adv.

Facts of ADVERTISING

• ADVERTISING represents the leadership of a nation. It points the way. We merely follow—follow to new heights of comfort, of convenience, of happiness.

As time goes on advertising is used more and more, and as it is used more we all profit more. It's the way advertising has—of bringing a profit to everybody concerned, the consumer included.

Rather Far-Fetched Was This Relationship

"You say, madam," said the barrister to the woman in the witness box, "that the defendant is a sort of relation of yours. Will you explain what you mean by that?" "Well, it's like this. His first wife's cousin and my second husband's first wife's aunt married brothers named Jones, and they were own cousins to my mother's own aunt. Then, again, his grandfather's on my mother's side, were second cousins, and his stepmother married my husband's stepfather, and his brother Joe and my husband's brother, Henry, married twin sisters. I've always looked on him as a sort of cousin."

"All the Traffic Would Bear"

• There was a time in America when there were no set prices. Each merchant charged what he thought "the traffic would bear." Advertising came to the rescue of the consumer. It led the way to the established prices you pay when you buy anything today.

NEW DESIGNS FOR YOUR COOKIE JAR (See Recipes Below)

COOKIE SURPRISES

All crisp, crunchy, and some slightly nutty, all of today's cookies are so fashioned as to send you on a real cookie-baking spree. Fill that lovely cookie jar of yours until the sides are fairly bulging with goodies so you can have cookies a-plenty to put in the children's lunch boxes, to serve as afternoon snacks, and as a pick-up for mealtime.

If you're doing some baking for a bazaar, there's nothing quite like plates of yummy cookies to put over the sales. Remember, you can sell a lot more, if you give out some samples. These can be set on plates with white paper doilies, for sampling, and those to be sold put in boxes already fixed. Cookies can be sold by the dozen if they're fancy and somewhat elaborate, by the pound if they're small drop cookies or squares.

Here's an interesting variation of the filled cookie, both dainty and delectable.

Corn Flake Filled Cookies. (Makes 36 medium-sized cookies)
1 cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
3 1/2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup water
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups cornflakes

Blend shortening and sugar thoroughly. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and add alternately with water and flavoring to first mixture. Stir in coarsely rolled corn flakes. Chill. Roll dough to 1/4 inch thickness. Cut with cookie cutter. Spread one round with filling, put on a second round and press edges together with a fork. Bake on a greased baking sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven about 12 minutes.

Filling.
1 1/2 cups chopped dates
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons water
2 tablespoons orange juice
1 tablespoon orange rind
Combine all ingredients together and cook until soft paste is formed. Cool before filling cookies.

These little butter balls make good nibbling and smart additions to your teatime table. Made with butter, their flavor will be something you'll find cherish and remember.

Butter Rolls. (Makes 7 dozen small cookies)
3/4 cup butter
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1/4 cup finely chopped nuts
Cream brown sugar and shortening. Add beaten eggs and vanilla. Add flour and baking powder. Roll into balls the size of marbles. Mix the granulated sugar and nuts and roll the balls in the mixture. Place on a greased baking sheet and bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 10 minutes. These cookies will flatten slightly.

LYNN SAYS:

An assortment of cookies, freshly baked and packed in tins with waxed paper between layers makes a delightful present for youngsters away at school and for friends you seldom see. When your own cookie jar has been filled to bulging, pack a few boxes from what you have and spread cheer to others, too.

Careful packing in tins with waxed paper will keep even small dainty cookies fresh for a long time. Some flavors like chocolate improve after they stand for some time. Chewy, nutty cookies are the more chewy and delicious after several days. Spicy cookies become moist and well flavored after standing.

Your cookie jar problem can be solved very neatly with toothsome oatmeal cookies with flecks of chocolate in them:

Oatmeal Cookies. (Makes 4 dozen)
1/2 cup butter or shortening
1 cup brown sugar
Grated rind of 1 orange
1 egg, unbeaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 1/2 cups fine rolled oats
7 ounces chocolate pieces

Cream butter and sugar. Add orange rind, egg, vanilla and beat well. Add salt and flour which has been mixed with the oats. Add chocolate pieces and work into batter. Drop by spoonfuls on greased cookie sheet. Bake 16 to 20 minutes in a moderate (375 degrees) oven.

Recommendations are in for the old favorites of which you never tire. If you want to make a pretty and at the same time, a very successful platter, you might try alternate rows of both these Ginger Cookies and

Brownies:

Soft Ginger Cookies. (Makes 5 dozen)
1 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1/4 cup molasses
3/4 cup evaporated milk
3 cups flour
2 teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon each, ginger, cinnamon

Cream sugar and shortening, add egg and molasses. Beat well, add milk and blend well. Mix dry ingredients and add to batter. Last add soda, dissolved in 2 tablespoons warm water. Drop by spoonfuls on greased baking sheet. Bake 15 minutes in a hot (375 degrees) oven.

Brownies. (Makes 2 dozen)
1/2 cup butter or shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
3/4 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla
Beat eggs and sugar together. Add to this melted butter and chocolate and blend. Add flour, baking powder, nuts, and beat well. Pour into a greased pan and bake 30 minutes in a 350-degree oven. Cool and cut in squares.

For a delicious variation of the brownie recipe, you'll like the addition of 3/4 cup of bran cereal in place of the chopped nuts. They'll give you a slightly different flavored cookie, but guaranteed to please you, just as well.

Meat-Macaroni Casserole.
1 package macaroni
1/4 cup salad oil
1 pound hamburger
1 dry onion, minced
1 green pepper, minced
1 clove garlic, if desired
1 can tomato soup
2 cups peas
2 cups corn
Salt and pepper

Cook the macaroni in plenty of boiling salted water and when tender, put in a sieve and rinse with cold water. Meanwhile fry the hamburger in the heated oil, stirring it occasionally to separate it. Skim out the meat and in the same fat cook onion, pepper and garlic till tender, but not browned. Garlic may be omitted entirely, and it is usually removed after the onion and pepper are cooked. Combine all ingredients and simmer 20 to 30 minutes to heat thoroughly and blend flavors, then serve.

Baptist Church Notes

All services were good the past Sunday, however, the attendance was down slightly. We were glad to welcome some new members in the Sunday School and Training Union and some visitors. The Sunday School study course which was held last week was really a success. The attendance and interest were good. There were 18 enrolled and 12 finished the course. Some 4 or 5 more are to finish their work this week. We studied the book, Building a Standard Sunday School. A standard Sunday school is a good school. We want a good school, therefore we are striving for a standard school. We want to have another study course before too long. Twelve women met Tuesday for an all day service of study and prayer for state missions. The field of state missions is so white and the laborers are so few. Sunbeams, awake and shine! Come out from behind the clouds of forgetfulness and shine at the meeting next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. God has given a beautiful harvest to our section. God can permit the gathering, but He can also withhold the sun shine. Do we want to harvest our crops to satisfy our selfish desires or to use the results for God's glory? To pay our debts? That is fine. But let us remember that God is the owner; that we are stewards; that we are in debt to God first. "More die with troubled hearts than with heart trouble." "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God, believe also in me (Jesus)." You are welcome to worship with us.
