Subject, Sunday 11 A. M.: Isa 55:6-11, "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found. Call ye upon him while he is near."

One of the characteristics of man which distinguishes him from the beast is his eternal desire for greater things. None of us are satisfied; all men are eternally seeking something. Some are seeking wealth, while if attained it can at best be enjoyed for a little while and vanishes with the using. There is no sacrifice too great for some in their quest for it. Then others are seeking health and would gladly part with every other possession in order to find it. Others are seeking political power and prestige; while still others willingly sacrifice all on the altar of social prominence, popularity and fame. None of these my friends, will yield lasting joy nor will they satisfy that inherent yearning and desire characteristic of the human soul. This truth is clearly exemplified in the experience of Solomon who sought satisfaction from every earthly source available to man, but found all vanity and vexation of spirit whose conclusion is, "fear God and keep his commandments for this is the whole duty of man. Eccl 12:13 'Seek ye out of the Book of the Lord and read.' Isa 24:16

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Army, Navy and Commercial Airlines Suffer in Series of Plane Crashes; 'Reuben James' Sinking, F.D.R. Speech Draw Formal Statement From Hitler

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Troops who took over the Bendix, N. J., plant of Air Associates, at the command of President Roosevelt are shown camping in a field near the plant. The order for the plant's occupation came in the interests of "national defense" according to official sources as Air Associates holds millions of dollars' worth of defense contracts for various kinds of aviation equipment. Production had been held up because of difficulty between the company and union leaders, but work got under way soon after the troops moved in.

FIRST LOSS: Sinking of 'James' First American naval loss of the war was the Reuben James, 1,000-ton destroyer, 20 years old, sent to the bottom of the Atlantic with an undetermined loss of life somewhere west of Iceland.

Details were shrouded with greatest secrecy by the navy, who finally disclosed that 44 men, apparently all enlisted men, were saved. Whether more would later be rescued was problematical.

She carried about 120 officers and men. Whether she had previously encountered and battled successfully with submarines was a matter of conjecture.

One news service had obtained a purported letter from one of the sailors on the Reuben James which stated that the vessel had sunk two submarines, "maybe more."

The writer was Leonidas C. Dickerson, a seaman, who wrote to his aunt in Danville, Va. "We've been at sea for 42 consecutive days, and I've lost lots of sleep. I'd be glad when we're through with this job and I can get some sleep again."

The letter, written several weeks before the sinking, said: "We have gotten two subs, maybe more. I have lots to tell you when I see you."

Another letter told of a submarine attack on the James. It had been written by Harold James Orange to his mother, Mrs. Marie Orange, in Chicago. He said: "I was up on the crow's nest on watch when we were nearing Iceland and I saw a torpedo. It was coming right for us. I gave the alarm and we started zig-zagging. It missed us, sped right by. I saw not one, but several submarines."

REACTION: In Many Quarters Following the sinking of the Reuben James the reactions followed swiftly, drawing certain powerful figures closer to the President's foreign policy, and bringing from Hitler's headquarters no other statement than that "people foolish enough to walk down a railroad track may expect to be run over."

Berlin issued a lengthy formal statement from Hitler, most of which was devoted to answering the President's Navy day address. He reiterated his statements that the South American map and the document purporting to reveal a Nazi plan to do away with all religion as "nonsensical" and "crude forgeries." He categorically denied that the Reich government had created either of these items.

The wording of the declarations from the German leader was scanned carefully by foreign correspondents, who saw in it the typical Nazi line of argument that their vessels had been attacked; that Germany was being attacked by the United States, that the U. S. was stamping itself as the aggressor.

These words were believed significant in that it was the usual German terminology preceding an open break between Germany and her Axis partners called for help in case any member of the three is attacked.

'Declaration'? Hitler, it was believed by the correspondents, was simply laying the usual groundwork for a definite hostile declaration against this country and its policies.

He said: "Herr Roosevelt has been placed before the tribunal for world judgment of his acts." The declaration attacked the truth of Roosevelt's statements that the Greer and the Kearny had been attacked by the Germans, and stamped both vessels as the attackers.

PLANES: Keep Crashing Started off by the crashing of five army pursuit planes, this disaster seemed the signal for a series of tragic losses, which had reached a new record for American aviation.

A Northwest Airlines plane dropped to earth in a fog, killing 14 persons and hurling the pilot clear. Within 24 hours a 21-passenger American Airlines plane, carrying 20 persons, plummeted to earth in a rainstorm near St. Thomas, Can., and burst into flames. All lost their lives.

Less than 48 hours later an army bomber, with five air corps men aboard, fell out of misty clouds into a cornfield near Findlay, Ohio, and burst into flames.

The five men were instantly killed. Then it was the navy's turn to announce a disaster. This was the crash of a huge bomber at sea with the loss of 12 lives. The plane was "operating in the Atlantic ocean area."

At nearly the same time a 22-year-old American of German extraction was arrested at the Glenn L. Martin plant in Baltimore, and confessed to be a saboteur of planes, having cut electrical wires in such a way that contacts would be broken at some later date.

His deeds had affected more than a hundred planes, though most, if not all of them, had been discovered. So cleverly did he hide his work that suspicion had been thrown on hundreds of other employees. It took the FBI agents from July until late October to catch him.

REDS: 'Reservoirs' Although the defense lines around Moscow had been bending now and then, the break had not come, and enormous reserves from "manpower reservoirs" in Siberia and other parts of the vast country were reported as having been hurled into the fray.

The United States heard that the first American planes had gone into battle, and had bombed Berlin, a fact which Berlin promptly denied. It was an unquestioned fact that the Reds had, however, some of the newest and largest American bombing planes, easily capable of flights over Berlin and back.

The Nazis had broken through into the Crimea, however, and the fall of the whole peninsula, thus opening one narrow and difficult road to the Caucasus, was believed certain.

NEUTRALITY: Battle With even its opponents admitting that victory was sure, and anti-administration editorial writers regarding it editorially as a fait accompli, there still was bitter fighting over the measure on the floor of the senate.

A notable acquisition of support, however, came when Senator Bridges of New Hampshire, long a foe of the administration's policy, switched over and spoke in behalf of the bill which would remove from the Neutrality act those measures which would prevent arming of merchant vessels, and would open all ports to the American flag ships.

Another indication of support was the agreement in the senate to push forward action on the bill. This had followed the sinking of the Reuben James.

Senator Ball of Minnesota, a Republican, held that freedom of the seas was necessary for the preservation of our liberties; while Senator Clark of Missouri was attacking the President, and daring him to ask for a formal declaration of war.

Clark said the measure was "intended to be and can only be an authorization for a state of war."

Another Shakeup

In the second of officer changes in the Russian army within a few weeks, Marshal Boris N. Shaposhnikov (above) has been named chief of the Soviet general staff. He succeeds Gen. Zhukov, who several weeks ago was named commander of Red armies on the central front. Shaposhnikov is a close personal friend of Josef Stalin.

JAPAN: Viewed Menace

Following the German declaration that she had been "attacked" by the United States, Washington was openly fearful that peace in the Pacific could no longer be maintained.

There were many signs, it was asserted, that Japan would receive a signal from Germany to open hostilities, thus to draw the American fleet strength into the Pacific, and remove some of the vessels, perhaps from North Atlantic convoy service.

It was significant that Hallett Abend should have sent a dispatch to the Times from Honolulu stating that the Japanese navy had been guilty of activities in American waters that verged closely on the commencement of hostilities.

The American navy has been watching the activity of a Japanese submarine, and while it had not taken any measures, much was learned of the Japanese tactics through American apparent indifference to what was going on.

A submarine had been observed in Hawaiian territorial waters, submerging by day and coming up only after nightfall.

This vessel had at all times been at the mercy of American naval vessels, but the naval officers laughed at it, saying that the Japs could not have observed anything worthwhile through their periscope.

Other fast Japanese subs have been cruising openly at all speed around Midway, Wake island, Johnson, Palmyra and other U. S. Pacific islands, always keeping just outside the territorial limits, Abend said.

Japan's comment on the James incident was that the United States was close to participation in the war. "Therefore," it continued, "the United States is making every effort to avoid a clash in the Pacific, which now seems inevitable. Tension is growing despite sincere efforts of Japan."

This was regarded as being written on an extremely menacing note.

CEILING: Prices, Note Wages

The drastic price control bill reported out by the house banking and currency committee had turned out to be one which set price tops, which forbid farm price ceilings below boom prices, and specifically exempted wages from government control.

The vote had been 18 to 5, but the session reportedly had been turbulent. There were some modified provisions for rent control. All rents in defense areas were to be subject to ceilings.

Farm prices were to have ceilings prohibited at any point lower than 110 per cent of parity, or at less than the average price between 1919 and 1929, the boom years.

Some of the administration experts, studying the bill, said that it would be impossible under it to control prices at less than 30 per cent above parity.

They cited the example of sugar, which now had a ceiling of $3.50 a hundred, and showed that it would, under the committee ruling, be permitted to rise to $5.84 per hundred before being pegged off.

A price administrator had been named in the bill with a salary of $10,000 a year to be named by the President and confirmed by the senate to administer the act with advisory councils from the various industries. The original draft did not require senate confirmation.

Ocean Their Mail Box

Because St. Kilda, an island off Scotland, was inaccessible most of the year, its citizens, before their evacuation about a decade ago, used to "post" their letters in sheepskin bags and toss them into the ocean. Some were picked up by ships, others were carried by a current 500 miles across the North sea to the coast of Norway, where they were found and their contents mailed.

THE HOOT

Colleen Baker Crowned Carnival Queen

The highlight of the annual P. T. A. Carnival Friday night was the coronation of the queen. There was more than the usual amount of secrecy attached to contest this year as only a few of the votes were posted. Each class was very much in the dark as to what every other class had on hand. The most exciting time of the entire contest was the last fifteen minutes before the final balloting at 10 p. m. Many could hardly believe their ears when it was announced that the Senior candidate, Colleen Baker, had won by the comfortable margin of 898 votes over the first grade candidate, Carolyn Reeves. The stage was unusually beautiful this year, having a throne and table of pale gold with a rich background of wine blue drapery behind it and green foliage across the stage. The entrance of the queen's attendants was announced by drummer, Wayne Ray, and heralds Jack Qilsenberry and Jack Morrison. Paul Dishman acted as trumpeter and master of ceremonies.

Each candidate with her escort entered the main entrance of the auditorium and marched to the center from where each couple was presented. The first to be announced was Jo Ann Shaw from the Junior class, in a dress of aqua blue net with her escort, Albert Martin. Next was Lou Ann Wall from the Sophomore class wearing heaven blue satin with her escort, Gene Davis. Letta Bain from the eighth grade wore white satin and was escorted by R. L. Beach. Joy Blankenship from the seventh grade wore white taffeta and was escorted by Truett Hall. Next was Esie Howell, the sixth grade candidate, dressed in aqua blue taffeta and with her escort Leon Doherty. Jimmie Nell Parker, wearing pink satin and from the fifth grade was escorted by Bob Everett. Next to enter was Martha Jo Alexander from the fourth grade dressed in white taffeta and escorted by Julian Hussack. Anita Bain dressed in white taffeta and escorted by Billy Dean Harris was from the third grade. Patricia Ann Porter, the second grade candidate was escorted by Bennie Ray Darnell and dressed in white taffeta. The last to enter was Carolyn Reeves dressed in blue taffeta and escorted by Bill Payne.

Our gracious queen, Colleen Baker, wore a beautiful dress of white taffeta cut on very simple lines. She was escorted by Truett Hoffman looking very handsome in a suit of dark brown. The queen's train was of royal purple trimmed in meek ermine. Don Reeves, dressed in a suit of white satin was crown bearer and Cherry Keith Vallance and Tommie Irene McDeugal were train bearers. Their costumes were of white tulle made with snug fitting waists and short full skirts.

Just as Truett placed the crown on the queen's head all lights went off in the auditorium and spot lights flooded the stage. Small wonder that the audience broke into spontaneous and sustained applause. Judging from this applause and the many favorable comments, I am sure everyone will be looking forward eagerly to the coronation in 1942.

Assembly

Rev. I. E. Biggs, Methodist pastor, conducted devotional for assembly Friday morning, Nov. 7 using, for his subject, "With out Counting the Cost." Rev. Biggs emphasized the fact that man should count the cost before he undertakes anything. Jesus said once, "If a man is going to build a house he should count the cost first." Man should stand steadfast for the right against the wrong. We should do the right thing regardless of the tendency of the crowd. He points out that there is also an inclination to "When in Rome do as the Romans do." This is all right as long as evil is not involved and while good principles are involved.

Rev. Biggs told of the Forty Good Soldiers of Christ. After the conquest Caesar returned to Rome and left the soldiers in camp. At this time a missionary visited the camp and a number of soldiers were converted. Caesar issued a decree that all should swear to him and worship him. A monument was erected and on a certain day soldiers were forced to march by and place incense on the altar in honor of Caesar. All but 40 did this, but they refused to worship anybody but God. The general loved the soldiers, but Caesar had spoken so he gave them another chance, but they stood steadfast for the right and chose to perish rather than turn against God. We need boys and girls who will stand steadfastly for the right.

Rev. Biggs pointed out that we have so much to be thankful for. We today need to be just as steadfast and faithful as those in the past have been; always against the wrong, thankful for the rich heritage left us, the greatest country of all. Boys and girls who stand for the right have part in making a greater country. Advancement has been made by the ones who were not afraid to step out from the crowd and stand for the right.

God gave unto us that perfect love that casteth out all fear. We should pray for courage to follow our Master, Jesus Christ.

The school wishes to express their thanks and appreciation to Rev. Biggs for the many things he has done for us. We are hoping that he will return.

Mrs. Snowden

A MILLION ACRES OF COMFORT!

● The early explorers who discovered what is now the Gulf South saw only the fields and the forests. They were seeking an empire. They found more than they knew!

● For under the earth they trod was another empire, rich in possibilities for comfort, convenience, and happiness, for the populations to come—the great Natural Gas fields of this area.

● Now a new kind of explorer has come to discover this hidden force and develop it into a great servant for the people of the Gulf South to use.

and do be careful!

"Five mornings a week, nine months a year, we mothers of Texas get our children ready for school. In our home and a million other Texas homes, that's one of the first and most important duties of a mother's day. Sometimes Dad finds out what a job it is when he has to do it by himself."

All of us want our children to have the best education possible. Most of us look to the public schools for this.

Fortunately, Texas has the best public schools in the South. Helping to build and operate them is the Texas petroleum industry which pays 24 million dollars a year in taxes for school purposes.

These petroleum taxes pay an average of one-fourth the cost of educating our children. Altogether, they meet the entire expense of schooling nearly 400,000 Texas boys and girls.

In addition, oil has contributed substantially to the 70 million dollar permanent school fund. Oil is also responsible for much of the 30 million dollar permanent university fund, which has made possible the expansion of the University of Texas and A. & M. College.

Furthermore, taxes on petroleum products add another 11½ million dollars a year for the schools of our State.

Our children get a better education today because of the Texas petroleum industry.

THANKSGIVING

This holiday is ours! As you bustle about and plan this year's Thanksgiving dinner, remember this is the day we give our thanks for the bounteous harvest of the year, for the peace and the prosperity, singularly ours. Remember, too, and cherish the foresight of the Pilgrims who had the courage to start carving out this land of ours!

Yes, this holiday is ours, so let it be filled with the spirit of the day and wholehearted thanks.

Some foods are synonymous with Thanksgiving without which the day wouldn't be complete, but don't get into a rut about having the same dinner every year, vary the trimmings a bit and fascinate the family.

Thin wisps of croutons will intrigue if you serve them in the oyster stew.

*Oyster Stew.

(Serves 6 to 8)
1 pint oysters
4 tablespoons butter
1 quart milk
Salt and pepper

Put cleaned oysters, oyster liquor strained, butter and seasonings in a saucepan and simmer gently until oysters curl at the edges. Heat the milk, add to the oysters and serve at once.

Has the family become a trifle weary of your old stuffing? Then try this savory new one—with yummy sausage flavoring which is right at home with either turkey, goose, duck or chicken. The sausage stuffing will do a proud job with stuffed veal, pork or shoulder of lamb:

*Sausage Stuffing.

(Makes 6 cups)
4 cups soft bread crumbs
½ cup butter
3 tablespoons chopped onion
½ teaspoon salt
Pepper
½ teaspoon sage or thyme
½ cup chopped celery
2 cups sausage in the bulk
Melt butter, add onion and cook until it becomes yellow. Add bread crumbs mixed with seasonings. Mix in chopped celery and sausage. Cook 2 minutes, stirring constantly.

*Turkey.

Small birds are allowed 25 to 30 minutes per pound for baking, large birds, 22 to 25 minutes per pound. Your oven should be set at 325 to 350 degrees.

*Sweet Potato Puff.

(Serves 10 to 12)
4 cups mashed sweet potato
2 tablespoons fat
1 egg

LYNN SAYS:

To clean the turkey, singe it first, then remove the pin feathers with tweezers. Scrub the outside with water. The inside should be wiped with a damp cloth. If there is any foreign odor, a half teaspoon of baking soda may be added to the water with which the turkey is scrubbed.

Allow 1 pound of turkey to each person. Allow 1 cup of stuffing to each pound of turkey. When stuffing, be sure to put some in the neck for this will give the bird a good full shape. Fasten the skin from the neck to the back. Stuff the cavity but do not pack since dressing swells.

For good roasting and easier carving truss the bird, by inserting a long needle through breast, through rib at the base of the thigh. Draw the cord through and bring the string across by pulling the cord through the openings formed by folding the wings triangularly onto the back. Tie the cords.

Insert the needle through the drumstick joints, bring the cord around the tail, through the backbone, and tie securely. Remove cord before serving.

THIS WEEK'S MENU

- *Oyster Stew Croutons
- *Roast Turkey
- *Sausage Stuffing
- *Cranberry Orange Relish
- *Sweet Potato Puff
- *Brussels Sprouts
- *Hot Rolls
- Celery Curls Pickled Beets
- *Pumpkin or Mincemeat Tarts
- Hot Coffee
- *Recipe Given

Salt and pepper
½ cup milk or ¼ cup evaporated milk and ¼ cup water.

Add the melted fat, seasonings and milk to the potatoes. Beat the egg separately, add yolk first and fold in white to the potato. Place in a buttered casserole dish, set in a pan containing hot water and bake 15 to 20 minutes at 375 degrees until light and puffy. Marshmallows may be placed on top of casserole during last 7 minutes of baking time.

With all the soft food of the meal, you'll want something crispy and tart as a relish.

*Cranberry-Orange Relish.

(Serves 12)
2 cups cranberries, cleaned, washed
2 oranges, whole
1 cup sugar

Grind all the fruit together by putting through a coarse food grinder. Mix the ground fruit with sugar and let stand about an hour before serving.

*Brussels Sprouts.

Brussels sprouts lend a bright touch of green when served plain with butter or crumbled, cooked chestnuts. Pick the dead leaves off the sprouts, then soak them in cold salted water for ½ hour. Wash and put in boiling water and let cook until just tender, about 15 to 17 minutes. Drain, reheat, and serve after seasoning.

*Magic Yeast Rolls.

3 cups bread flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup butter
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup sugar (rolled in later)
1 tablespoon sugar
1 cup chopped nuts
½ cup milk
¼ cup hot water
2 packages granular yeast

Sift flour. Add to 1½ cups of flour the salt and shortening. Combine as for pie crust. Combine milk and hot water. When luke-warm, add yeast and 1 tablespoon sugar. Combine with first mixture; beat until smooth. Cover and let stand 20 minutes. Add eggs, vanilla and the rest of the flour. Stir until it becomes a smooth, sticky dough, but stiff. Tie dough into a clean cloth (wring out in cold water first). Drop in a pail of cool water. In an hour the dough will rise to the top. Remove and turn on a platter and cut into pieces the size of an egg. Roll in sugar and nut mixture. Twist into figure eights. Shape and turn onto a greased pan. Let stand 5 minutes and bake 10 minutes at 425 degrees F.

Remember how mother used to make her pumpkin pie and tarts the day before and how good they always tasted after they stood in the cool pantry overnight? Why not try it this time? It'll save you a great deal of fuss on the big day itself besides giving the tarts a chance to mellow and ripen for extra good flavor.

*Pumpkin Filling.

(Makes 1 large pie or 10 to 12 tarts)
1½ cups prepared pumpkin
½ cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1½ cups milk

For fresh pumpkin, steam or bake until soft and put through a sieve. Add remaining ingredients in order given. Turn into crust lined pie tin or tart pans and bake first in a very hot (450 degrees) oven, then reduce temperature to 325 degrees and bake 25 minutes.

Ulster County Gazette

The Ulster County (New York) Gazette of January 4, 1800, became famous because it carried the first complete account of the death and funeral of George Washington. More than a million reproductions of that issue have been printed and sold, many still being regarded by their owners as historic treasures.

However, there are only two known original copies—one owned by the American Antiquarian society, Worcester, Mass., the other by the Library of Congress.

Household Hints

Never use a damp or wet cloth or holder in removing a hot dish from the oven or stove. A dry one prevents the heat from penetrating and scorching the fingers.

Powdered or confectioner's sugar that has become lumpy should be pressed through a fine-meshed sieve or rolled with a rolling pin.

Grease marks on pages of books may be removed by sponging them with benzine, placing them between two sheets of blotting paper and pressing them with a hot iron.

Place a piece of beeswax between two pieces of flannel and rub your iron on them occasionally; it will keep the iron clean and make it run smoothly.

New waffle irons should be washed with soap and rinsed carefully. If this is not done the first waffles are likely to be discolored.
