Methodist Conference

In the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference, which closed at Big Spring Sunday, several changes were made in appointments. Rev. I. E. Biggs was sent to Gruber, and O. R. Lamond was named pastor here. Rev. Biggs took an active part in community affairs, being president of the School Board and local chairman of the Red Cross. He and his family have made many friends during their stay here, and will be greatly missed by the community as well as the church.

Other appointments of interest to Hedleyans include: Clarendon, J. O. Quattlebaum; Memphis, E. L. Yeats; Estelina, A. V. Hendricks; Vega, R. S. Kendall.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Vermillion left Monday for Lawton, where they will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary together with their children.

Ellis-Horn

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Catherine Horn and Lester Ellis, both of Orange, which took place on Sept. 16 at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Orange. Rev. Geo. F. Cameron read the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Horn of Orange and the groom is the son of G. J. Ellis of Gilmer.

The Informer extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis.

Mrs. J. G. Coffey and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Masterson visited relatives in Dallas, Van Alstyne and McKinney last week end.

Church of Christ

Subject, Sunday 11 A. M.: The Importance of Salvation II Cor 6:3

What salvation implies: 1. It implies deliverance. 2. It implies deliverance.

Salvation is in Christ. In Him we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Eph. 1:7. Also Col. 1:14: "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness and hath translated us into the kingdom of His dear son, in whom we have redemption through His blood even the forgiveness of sins." II Tim. 2:10: "Therefore I endure all things for the elect sake that they may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory." Then we have redemption, forgiveness of sins, all spiritual blessings in Christ Jesus. Eph. 1:3. So if all spiritual blessings are in Christ there is none out of Christ. Then how important it is to learn how to come into Christ. Will you hear what the Lord says. Gal. 3:27, "For you are all the children of God, by faith in Christ Jesus, for as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. Rom. 8:34. J. H. Vermillion, minister.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Lin Sees Nazi Collapse Within Year Hitler Challenges British Invasion; Chinese Get Warning From Churchill at Involvement in War With U. S.

U.S. NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are the views of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

After a lengthy debate in the senate, that body passed the bill authorizing the arming of U. S. merchant vessels and following the 50-37 vote, the photographer got this picture. It shows left to right Sen. Millard Tydings, against the bill; Allen W. Barkley for the bill; Tom Connally, for the bill and Bennett Champ Clark who was against the bill.

HITLER: Talks Boldly

Adolf Hitler, exuding confidence with the passing of another of the anniversaries of the "beer cellar putsch," and having been congratulated on his excellent health and appearance, had made another address to his backers in which he defied the world.

The "Fuehrer" declared that he had created a united European front against communism, that the eastern front's successes were assured, and he dared England to attempt an invasion from the west.

"I have made such preparations in the west," he declared, "that the British can step up at any time. "If the English choose to undertake an offensive, whether it is in Norway, on our German coast or in Holland, Belgium or France, we can only say "step up, you will leave faster than you came."

Two years ago a bomb had wrecked the hall minutes after Hitler walked out of it. The assembled crowd did not know until the last minute this time whether he would appear or not.

He scorned direct reference to the might the United States was hurling into the picture, saying his orders had increased many fold the armament potential of Germany since the start of the war.

The speech ignored the unrest in Europe, the halting of the blitzkrieg in front of Moscow and Leningrad, the announced intention of the Finns to quit the war on Russia soon, the passage of the neutrality act revision bill by the senate, the recent utterances of Roosevelt and of Churchill.

There was no reference to the enormous German losses as outlined by Josef Stalin, nor to the growingly heavy attacks on the Reich by the Royal Air force of Britain.

He boldly declared his armies could defend Germany and all of occupied Europe, "despite American threats and plans for gigantic armaments." He was cheered to the echo.

STALIN: Celebrates

The anniversary of the October revolution was celebrated in Moscow with Stalin himself reviewing troops in front of the grim walls of the Kremlin, with hordes of Russian fighting planes wheeling overhead and less than 50 miles away the Red armies battling to hold back the Nazi hordes.

The Germans had boasted that the Russians would have been beaten to their knees long before the annual great Soviet holiday. Instead Stalin was in his country's capital city, reviewing the troops in the customary fashion, despite the war.

He declared that the Germans had lost 4,500,000 men in killed, wounded and captured since the start of the invasion of Russia, admitted that much territory had been lost while "Russia stood alone" against the invader, but promised his people that Germany was beaten and within a year would collapse under the weight of "its crimes."

There was a bitter note in Stalin's talk as to the lack of full British cooperation, though he did give thanks for the aid that had been received.

Yet there was a great deal of calm confidence, and he expressed his nation's willingness to fight on, come what may, until the collapse of Germany, regarded by him as inevitable, would take place.

PICTURE: Red Front

The ever-dubious picture of the Red front against the Nazis had begun to clarify itself somewhat, the general view being that the Russian armies were somewhat in jeopardy on the southern sector, though rapidly assuming the offensive in the north and central portions.

Attacks by the Red armies were cited at Kalinin, 95 miles northwest of Moscow; at Volokolamsk, 65 miles outside the city; at Mozhaisk, and at Maloyaroslavl.

CHURCHILL: And Roosevelt

As Hitler and Stalin were celebrating anniversaries, and each predicting the future with confidence, each from his own standpoint, Churchill hailed that "glorious warrior Stalin," told Britons that the entry of the U. S. naval vessels into the war left Britain no longer alone, and predicted that England had been rendered, by this aid, "once more masters of our own fate."

In another statement he warned that should the U. S. be forced into war with Japan, Britain would join in the fight against Nippon "within the hour."

Roosevelt, beset by strikes and threats of labor troubles, also meeting a determined challenge of his policy in the senate debate on the neutrality act revision, issued an appeal to labor to work for the national defense, and to place labor quarrels to one side.

There had been a momentary lull in sea-losses, though the dead in the Reuben James disaster had risen to 101. This loss stood as a silent speech-maker in the senate halls during the neutrality act debate, and was being used to show the people the all-out necessity of naval aid to America in "delivering the goods" where needed.

NEUTRALITY: New Phase

The relatively close senate action on the neutrality act revision did not change the situation as regarded the outcome, which meant the death of the final two parts of the measure placed in it at the beginning of the war at the insistence of the isolationists.

Their final fortresses had now fallen, and with the navy's range extended to every port in the world, and with American merchant vessels ready to move, armed for their own protection, into those same ports, the de facto complete entry of this country into the naval battle was considered a certainty.

Representative Bloom indicated that the full authority of the bill might not be used at once, might never be used. He said:

"The situation is tense throughout the world. This is true both on the Atlantic and the Pacific. It is better to have the power which the repeal gives the President and not to need it, than to need it and not to have it."

This seemed to be the attitude of many members of congress who were not anxious to see American ships in danger-laden and belligerent ports, but who deeply felt the need of an all-out American effort and the means to make it so if necessary.

PACIFIC: Threat Closer

The Clipper flight of special envoy Kuru to the United States apparently to make a final effort to "clarify" the Japanese position on the Pacific brought only gloomy predictions in Washington as to the mission's probable outcome.

Japanese position in the Orient and the British-American stand seemed poles apart, and little likelihood of betterment in the situation.

In fact, there had been a report "on excellent" authority that plans were well advanced for joint British and American action in the East.

There was sudden talk of "appeasement" when it was announced that the United States would withdraw its marines from the Orient, yet this had been promptly scotched by Secretary Hull, who stated that this was a long-considered policy and had nothing whatever to do with Japanese-American relations.

Both Britain and the United States had placed Japan on notice that neither nation would stand for any further expansion of the Japanese domain, and this apparently went for Siberia as well as for Indo-China.

Happy Birthday

COSTLY: British Raid

The biggest British raid on Germany had been carried out with a terrific cost of 37 of the newest bombers, and an estimated 200 fliers.

The ships lost included the new four-motored Stirlings and Halifaxes, the report said. The Germans claimed 14 more, thus putting the maximum loss at 51 planes in 24 hours.

The British reported that much of the loss might be attributed to bad weather conditions, thunderstorms and icing being found over the Reich and the German fighters being forced to keep the ground because of these facts.

It was regarded as the supreme R.A.F. offensive of the war, and was aimed at reducing the pressure on the Moscow and Leningrad fronts, at least from the air.

Hour after hour, even following the original loss of 37 bombers, the newest ships shot over the channel in a steady stream, fighting weather, German fighters, and hurling death and destruction not only on the Reich but on key points in Italy.

STRIKES: And Threats

Despite the truce in the steel strike and the personal victory for President Roosevelt in the express strike, in which the men agreed to return to work at his request, there were many labor troubles looming, chief among them the December 5 deadline for railway labor negotiations.

The strike of the teamsters union in Detroit was tied up with what was claimed to be a refusal of the railway clerks' union to submit to arbitration. It was one of the difficult jurisdictional questions out of which some of the most bitter strikes had come.

At the same time the congress, which had refused to include wage ceilings in its price control bill, was watching the strike situation, also the opening of the Canadian price-fixing act, which included wage ceilings based on a system of bonuses to cover increases in the cost of living.

COMMANDOS: New Shock Troops

The British Commandos (an old South African word meaning small, speedy bands of desperate troops) which for a long time had been reported to be carrying out successful raids on Italy and the occupied French and Norwegian coasts, are to be stressed and made larger in the future, the British had revealed.

They are being composed mostly, it is reported, by men who have lost everything that life holds dear, and who have left to them only a burning hatred for the enemy and a desire for vengeance.

They include Polish pilots who are so willing to die that they will drive their fighter planes head-on into German bombers and pursuit planes. They also include men of every nationality that has felt the Nazi yoke, including Englishmen, whose loved ones have been blown to bits during German bombings of British cities.

It was revealed that they have been attacking along the Mediterranean coast with terrific results.

MISCELLANY:

Washington: Army high officers revealed that the 1,500,000 American men now in the army would eat 750 tons of turkey Thanksgiving day.

Berlin: It was reported that the Germans jailed a Roman Catholic priest who had been accused of offering prayers for Jews against whom the government had initiated a new and intensive campaign.

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year. It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world, the feeling of being adequately prepared.

ASK ME ANOTHER? A General Quiz

The Questions

- 1. What country was known in olden times as Cathay?
2. Which is said to be the world's most beautiful harbor?
3. Where is the phrase "diminished fifth" most likely to be encountered?
4. The name metropolis is derived from a Greek word meaning what?
5. Approximately how tall is a male giraffe?
6. "Brother Jonathan" is a nickname once given to what country?
7. What is the estimated Jewish population of the world?
8. Why is the bow on a man's hat always worn on the left?

The Answers

- 1. China.
2. Rio de Janeiro.
3. In music.
4. Mother city.
5. Eighteen feet.
6. United States.
7. In 1939, 15,748,901, according to the American Jewish committee.
8. The bow on a man's hat is a link with the days when men wore long drooping plumes, and also carried swords. The long plumes were always worn on the left of the headgear, to keep them clear of the sword arm. When the plume gave way to a long ribbon bow, that remained on the left. Our conservatism has kept the neat bow of today on the same side.

Panholders Make Interesting News

PANHOLDER time is here—as transfer Z9364 illustrates. Two cute kittens with perky bows, a sunbonnet girl and her straw hat playmate, two cages holding applique birds, and a demure maiden with full panholder skirts—these are for kitchen decoration and your protection. The old-fashioned girl holder is cut from wood and painted, and two panholders hang from a hook at the waist to form her skirts.

Start with this transfer on panholders for gifts, bazaars and your own use. Transfer Z9364 is 15 cents. Send your order to:

A house-full of smoking pleasure is the gay, new Christmas gift package of Camel Cigarettes now being featured by local dealers. Designed in the shape of a house, trimmed even to the snow on the roof, this colorful package contains four "flat fifties"—200 Camel Cigarettes, America's favorite. No wrapping is needed. There is even a gift card printed right on the package. For those smokers on your Christmas list, give Camels and be sure your gift is appreciated. Camels are also available in the regular carton of ten packages of "20's"—200 cigarettes. The carton, too, is handsomely wrapped and ready to give.—Adv.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Full Hope and Trust
 Confidence is that feeling by which the mind embarks in great and honorable courses with a sure hope and trust in itself.—Cicero.

OVER 50? Constipated?

Most of us find that age and living habits bring on occasional bowel-lessness. These spells of constipation, with aggravating gas, may cause restless nights. ADLERIKA can help you face the future more cheerfully. Its ingredients attract to the bowels extra moisture which softens packed wastes and assists in comfortable bowel action. ADLERIKA helps to leave your bowels refreshed and clean. Next time constipation and gas threaten your comfort, try ADLERIKA. Druggists have it.

Imagination's Poetry
 Sentiment is the poetry of the imagination.—Lamartine.

Star Dust
 STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
 By VIRGINIA VALE
 (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

NOT content with having a very promising film career, Susan Hayward has turned actors' agent. Dining at a New Orleans hotel, she was impressed by the young singer and trumpet player with Chuck Foster's band; he stopped the show at every performance. So when he was brought over to meet her she questioned him. Why wasn't he in films? Nobody'd asked him to be. Where did he come from? Los Angeles, but he'd never been able to get near a film studio there!

So Susan placed him under contract, and arranged for his Hollywood debut at a cafe there. His name? Ray Robbins, professionally; in real life, it's Foster.

A new romantic duo makes its debut in RKO's comedy, "Obliging Young Lady," in the persons of Edmond O'Brien and Ruth Warrick.

RUTH WARRICK

He recently scored in "A Girl, a Guy and a Gob" and "Parachute Battalion." She made her film bow as Orson Welles' first wife in "Citizen Kane," the picture that's been a springboard to motion picture contracts for so many actors and actresses.

Robert Taylor has an exceptionally tough beard, and while he's being shaved talks about show horses, like his Arabian stallion; Clark Gable chats about guns and fish and venison, under the same conditions, and he also has a tough beard. Spencer Tracy yells wise-cracks at everybody while he's in the barber's chair. Bob Young makes a few remarks about his riding horses. Jimmy Stewart sits and says nothing. All this information from Jim Adamson, major domo of Metro's barber shop, who began snipping locks and news from movie stars way back in the days of Inceville—he's been at it for 2½ decades, and has his own Hollywood Who's Who.

We're told that Inez Cooper, a Hollywood new comer, looks so much like Hedy Lamarr that experts can't tell them apart. Miss Cooper has worked in "Unholy Partners" and "The Shadow of the Thin Man"; she's now appearing in "Mr. and Mrs. North," and is slated for a role in "I Married an Angel." None of these pictures have yet been released, yet she's already had a flourishing screen career.

People whose memories go way, way back will remember Harold Lockwood, one of the big stars of his time. His widow died recently, after having been a member of Paramount's make-up department for nine years. Today's movie stars are more foresighted financially than were those old-timers. For example—Joel McCrea is listed by the government not as an actor (though he's been making pictures for 11 years) but as a good producer, thanks to the annual profit of approximately $5,000 which he makes from his ranch.

Madeline Lee, who's "Genevieve Blue" on the "Amos and Andy" broadcasts, has found herself turning into a hat designer. She entered a hat designing class on a dare, found that she not only liked it but was good at it; now she makes all her own hats, and her friends besiege her to turn out little numbers for them.

Correction: Last week's item about "The Chocolate Soldier" was partly wrong; Metro's picture by that name includes only music from the operetta so known; the story is the one you're familiar with under the title of "The Guardsman."

ODDS AND ENDS—RKO has signed St. Brendan's Boys' choir of 20 boys for church sequences in "Jazz of Paris," which will star Michele Morgan, the new French star, and Paul Henreid. . . Bud Abbott and Lou Costello will play the leading comedy roles, and Kathryn Grayson and John Carroll will have the romantic singing leads in the new movie version of "Rio Rita" . . . Walter Pidgeon returns to his first career, that of a singer, in "Design for Scandal," which he has just completed with the newly wed Rosalind Russell. . . They sing "A Bicycle Built for Two" . . . Clive Brook's daughter Faith, makes her film debut in "Suspicion."

Chicken a la King for Fifty
 (See Recipes Below.)

Church Supper Ideas

What is so gay as a grand, big get-together full of informal fun, the hum of pleasant conversation and plenty of good food thrown into the bargain? A church supper, of course!

The fun will take care of itself and the food—well, almost if you get the right amount of it, for the cooking's as simple as only simple can be. Chicken's a treat any way you serve it, but very easy to prepare and serve if you do it this time-tried, old-fashioned, favorite way ladled out of a big kettle with plenty of cream sauce onto feathery light hot biscuits:

Chicken or Turkey a la King.
 (Serves 50)

- 4 4-pound chickens, stewed, then cut meat into pieces
 - Or
 - 1 18-pound turkey, stewed or roasted, meat diced
 - 1 pound fat (chicken or turkey fat and butter mixed)
 - 4 cups flour
 - 2 gallons scalded milk
 - 1 pound fresh mushrooms or 2 large cans
 - 2 tablespoons minced onion
 - ¼ teaspoon or more salt
 - ¼ teaspoon white pepper
 - ¼ teaspoon paprika
 - 2 sweet green peppers, chopped (optional)
 - 2 pimientos, chopped (optional)
 - ½ cup egg yolks (6 eggs)
- Melt about three-fourths of the fat, add the flour, and blend thoroughly; add scalded milk, stirring rapidly with a wire whisk to keep well mixed. Cook until starch taste is gone—about 10 minutes. Cook the mushrooms, sliced, in remaining fat, until delicately browned and add to sauce with the onion. Beat egg yolks and mix with a small amount of the hot mixture to blend and add to the sauce, stirring thoroughly. Cook 4 or 5 minutes more. Add turkey meat. Season to taste (with paprika and pepper mixed into salt). Add peppers and pimiento, if used. Serve on hot biscuits.

The simplest way to prepare the chickens is to cook them in seasoned water, to which a small onion, 2 carrots and a small bunch of celery are added. Chickens are handled best if disjointed and the breast and back sections cut into convenient-sized pieces.

Baking Powder Biscuits.
 (Serves 50)

- 4 pounds flour
 - ½ cup double-acting baking powder
 - 2 tablespoons salt
 - 1 pound shortening (2½ cups)
 - 5 cups milk
- Sift the dry ingredients together, add fat and mix lightly. Make a well in the center and add the milk.

LYNN SAYS:

Attractive salads pep up meals besides adding nourishment plus to menus. Salads in winter are a little hard to plan because of the scarcity of fresh fruits and vegetables, so I suggest you try these for solving your salad problem:

Prunes stuffed with cream cheese and nuts, served with orange sections and lettuce.
 Cooked beets and cooked carrots diced with celery, mixed with mayonnaise.
 Orange sections served with tiny cream cheese balls. Marinate oranges in french dressing first.

Canned pineapple and fresh oranges served in alternate sections on lettuce. Alternating orange and grapefruit sections are a good idea, too.

Chunks of lettuce with crumbled hard-cooked egg and a few leftover peas, tossed together with salad oil, salt, pepper, vinegar.

THIS WEEK'S MENU

- *Chicken a la King
 - *Scalloped Potatoes
 - *Sunset Salad
 - Bread and Butter
 - Assorted Cakes
 - *Coffee
- *Recipe given

Mix just until the dough holds together. Divide dough into fourths and make ¼ at a time. Roll on a floured board, pat to ½ inch thickness, cut and place on baking sheet. Bake 12 to 15 minutes in a hot (450 degree) oven until golden brown.

Scalloped Potatoes.
 (Serves 50)

- 10 pounds (6 quarts) sliced potatoes
 - 2 quarts hot milk
 - ½ cup flour
 - ½ cups butter
 - 3 tablespoons salt
 - 1 tablespoon pepper
- Peel potatoes before weighing. Before measuring, peel and slice. If large, cut in two lengthwise before slicing. Into six baking dishes put a layer of potato, then a slight layer of flour, and repeat until all potatoes are used. Dissolve salt, pepper and butter in hot milk. Pour over potatoes, cover and cook in slow oven for 1½ hours or until done.

Best idea for a salad is one that's made in advance and needs only to be sliced and placed on lettuce leaves for serving. It's as gay and colorful as the get-together itself.

Sunset Salad.

- 18 ounces lemon gelatin
 - 2½ quarts hot water and canned pineapple juice
 - 1½ quarts grated raw carrots
 - 1½ pints canned crushed pineapple, drained
 - 2 teaspoons salt
- Dissolve gelatin in hot water and pineapple juice which has been heated to 130 degrees F. Chill. Combine carrots, pineapple and salt. When mixture is slightly thickened, fold in carrot and pineapple mixture. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise and grated carrots. Makes 32 portions.

Just in case you want to make up a church supper menu of your own, I'm listing additional recipes:

Meat Loaf.

- 10 pounds ground round steak
 - 2 pounds ground pork or salt pork
 - 4 eggs
 - ½ pound bread crumbs
 - 2 onions
 - 2 tablespoons salt
 - 2 teaspoons pepper
 - 1 quart cold mashed potatoes
 - 1 quart milk or canned tomatoes
- Mix thoroughly, mold into five loaves, and bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees F., until done. Makes 50 servings.

Boiled Coffee.
 (Serves 50)

- 1½ pounds coffee (6¾ cups)
 - 2½ gallons water
 - 2 eggs
- Mix shells, whole eggs and 1 additional cup of cold water with coffee. When the water comes to a boil, add the coffee egg mixture which has been tied in a bag, to the boiling water, and boil for 3 to 5 minutes. Test for strength. When ready, remove bag, let coffee stand 10 to 15 minutes before serving.

The wife of one of our famous football coaches, Mrs. Lou Little, likes to serve a simple but hearty meal after the game. Jot this one down as an idea for an after the game supper or church supper idea: Hot mulled cider, casserole of pork and beans, buttered hot date-nut bread, celery, pickles, and chili sauce; jellied cole slaw; doughnuts and coffee.

For the casserole, use canned pork and beans with tomato sauce; heat in the oven about 20 minutes. As a decoration use half slices of date-nut bread. Put them around the top of the beans for 5 minutes before the casserole comes out from the oven.

The cast for "Bubbling Over," the hilarious new college comedy sponsored by the Fire Department, which is to be presented at the Hedley High School Auditorium on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov 26-27 for the benefit of fire fighting equipment.

Miss Patricia Wade, the director and the members of the casting committee, which includes Jack Marshall, Floyd Naylor, Lewis Simmonds and Myrtle Reeves has succeeded in securing the best talent in Hedley for this production.

Bob Preston, a young college student, who is continually broke is played by Don Pickett and his sweetheart, Carol Dorn is portrayed by Opal Key Bruce Brandon, Bob's roommate and so plotter played by Lewis Simmonds.

Judy Tilden who is determined to marry Bruce is played by Mrs. Dick Vallance. Jane Ruth Hall takes the part of the good natured housekeeper. Mrs. McDonough is the very studious student Tubby Potts, a freshman in college is played by Floyd Naylor. The stern and harsh professor is played by Charles Rains. Mrs. Charles Rains takes the part of Miss Deo little, who is the mathematic teacher of Bruce and Bob and also the school treasurer.

Watch for the popularity contest in the stores, which is being staged in connection with the showing of "Bubbling Over." It promises to be full of thrills and excitement. Who will be the two most popular children in town? The contestants are up to and including 7 years of age and it is a penny a vote.

There is plenty of fun connected with this contest. The winners are to be presented on Thursday night Nov 27 at the showing of "Bubbling Over." The contest starts Saturday and closes Wednesday at 4 p. m. Nov 25. Watch for the contain-ers and cast your votes for your favorites.

The cast has been working every night endeavoring to give Hedley the best production that has ever been staged here.
