Heart in Hand
I think that to have known one good, old man—one man, who, through the chances and mischances of a long life, has carried his heart in his hand, like a palm-branch, waving all discords into peace—helps our faith in God, in ourselves, and in each other more than many sermons.—G. W. Curtis.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Strike Situation and Japanese Crisis Prove Washington's Toughest Problems; Winter Closes In on Eastern Front As Russia Reports Taking Offensive

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.) (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

STRIKES

The passage of the Neutrality Act was a victory for the administration in that it freed the President's ground on which he was declining to meet the demands for legislation outlawing strikes and laws setting a ceiling on wages.

Yet the narrow margin in the house (20 votes) also was considered a severe rebuke to the President for his attitude, and there were signs in the press and in congress that legislators and editors were getting ready to kick over the traces.

Crucial situations had faced the President both over the strikes in captive coal mines owned by steel companies, largely occupied in defense work, and in the threatened railway strikes.

There had been little evidence that the White House was getting more in either struggle, though the President had made manifold efforts to dissuade John L. Lewis and the C. I. O. from going overboard.

This situation more than anything else has caused the demoralization of many administration supporters.

JOHN L. LEWIS The President made manifold efforts.

porters during the Neutrality act voting.

The "closed shop" issue in the mine strike, never very popular in circles not closely allied with labor unions, caused the outburst of anti-strike feeling to be particularly severe.

RUSSIANS: On Warpath

Long on the defensive, and having lost many thousands of square miles of territory, Russia had assumed the offensive all along the vast front. Moscow was reporting considerable success against the Nazis, and reported that the Germans had been suffering from frostbite, that they were exhausted and discouraged, but admitted that back of the front there were evidences that another offensive was being formed.

Those who believed Hitler would order any withdrawal because of the weather were having to revise their opinions. The Russian drive against the Germans was meeting with the same rugged resistance the Reds themselves had offered against the Nazis.

Successes were reported in the far north, where Kuibyshev dispatches declared 20 German transports had been sunk in what was to have been a major invasion attempt in the Murmansk sector.

Also 2,500 Italians had been reported "eliminated" in the Crimean sector, and victories also were claimed by Russia in the Donets basin area.

The Finns were being hurled back in front of Leningrad, and the general Russian tone was one of confidence, yet watchfulness, the latter being stressed because Red headquarters figured the Germans still had at least one more huge attack up their sleeves.

VICHY: To Join Hitler

Hardly unexpected at this time, and with the hostage-shooting matter being what it was, had come the report that Vichy was planning to "go the whole hog" and throw in with Hitler's "new order."

It had been known for a long time where the sympathies of Darlan and Laval had been, but Petain was supposed to have been more or less on the fence.

History one day might recount, observers felt, that there was some strange and mysterious connection between the fatal plane crash which killed General Hutzinger and the decision to join the Axis.

Hutzinger, minister of war, had just been to Africa, presumably conferring with Mystery Man Weygand and was on his way back home to a momentous meeting of the government when his plane fell and he was killed.

Many wondered what bearing this would have on the situation in Nazi-Vichy relations.

KURUSU: Last Try?

Most observers of the situation in the Pacific believed that with the arrival of Saburo Kurusu in Washington the last stage of the difficult effort of Japan and the United States to avoid war had been reached.

During his plane trip to this country there had been little of encouraging press comment, and the state department had again and again repeated its gloomy outlook.

Officials of the cabinet, particularly Secretary Knox of the Navy, had expressed this same view of depression over any chance of a peaceful settlement.

SABURO KURUSU "A gloomy outlook."

Still Kurusu had arrived, had been greeted with smiles by American diplomats, and the conversations were on.

Basic difficulty of solving an equation where Japan was at war with China and both Britain and America had declared this war an act of aggression and had been giving and promising aid to China was openly apparent.

Japan was urging the United States: "Leave us alone in China!"

The United States was demanding of Japan: "You let China alone!"

These points were poles apart.

ARK ROYAL: Finally Sunk

Most famous of the British aircraft carriers, Ark Royal, sunk several times according to Berlin dispatches, finally has been sent to the bottom, and is London, not Berlin, which announced it.

It sank 25 miles off Gibraltar, while in tow of other warships after a U-boat had torn a terrific hole in her side. Pumps were unavailing to repair the damage, and practically all of the 1,800 aboard her had been removed save just enough men to handle the towing lines.

Finally, when she was nearing shallow water at last, she suddenly turned over on her side like a "tired child" and went to the bottom. Only one man of her crew was reported lost.

It was regarded as probable that many of her planes had been able to fly ashore and make port. Thus went to the bottom of the Mediterranean the third aircraft carrier Britain had lost, the largest and newest, launched in 1933, of 22,000 tons.

TURKEY: An Offer

Axis sources were reported to have made Turkey an offer of Thrace as a last inducement to get the Turks to join the triple alliance.

The sudden interest in Turkey on the part of Germany, as borne out in reports from both Berlin and Bern was rather a puzzle to some, while others saw in it the possibility that Germany might, now that she was somewhat bogged down in Russia, be seeking a Turkish route to Russian oil wells.

Three possibilities were seen—that Turkey had already decided to throw in with the Axis—that increased pressure would be brought to bear on Turkey (in line with Bern's view of the situation) and third, that Germany might be satisfied to have Turkey neutral and aloof but fearing that American and British pressure from the south might turn her from her neutral course to a pro-British stand.

LIFE:

A picture of what life was like in Serbia following the collapse of resistance against the southward plunge of the Nazi war machine was painted by the refugee Yugoslav government.

Reports reaching it were that about 8,100 hostages, including intellectuals, priests and students, had been executed in three villages. The executions had been maintained, said Premier General Simovic, had been carried out at the rate of 100 to 1, in retaliation.

BRITISH: Restive

JOSEF STALIN Tribute from Mr. Churchill.

The British were exceedingly restive under the continued inaction except for heavy bombing raids over the channel. Many members of the house, especially the Laborite critics of Churchill, were loudly clamoring for the establishment of another front.

England, they said, was aware that a munitions race was going on in North Africa, with the Germans doing all they could to bolster their strength, and the British receiving vast supplies from the United States, and using their navy to attempt to break German communication lines.

But the house was demanding action on that front, being highly dissatisfied with the "stalemate" situation. Many believed it was not yet too late to start something on that front and drive the Nazis and Italians back on their heels into Libya again.

But the government was giving its critics little satisfaction, and was showing no inclination whatever to change the status quo. Churchill paid a tribute to that "great warrior Stalin," and said that all possible equipment and munitions would be sent to aid him.

He also said that Britain would firmly back up the United States in its attitude toward Japan. Beyond this he would not move a step, nor would he make cabinet changes.

AXIS: Blues

All was not rosy in Axis countries. dispatches had informed the world.

A New York Times correspondent, returning with his bride from Berlin, told of no rest, of constant harassments, of poor food, of no entertainment. The few passenger trains were so crowded that trips were extremely inconvenient, he reported, and said that he had lost 20 pounds due to poor food.

Eatable food only could be obtained in the most expensive restaurants, he added, and in the poorer ones the dinners "just wouldn't go down."

People are not told what kind of meat they are getting, he said, but it makes no difference as they all tasted the same.

London said Germany was desperate for oil, or she would have abandoned the Russian offensive for the winter, and be willing just to hang on.

A reliable source was quoted as saying that if the Russian oil fields were not conquered, Germany would be out of oil reserves by the winter of 1942.

The official German reports were beginning to tell the public of fierce Russian attacks, and the color of Berlin dispatches confirmed the fact that the Germans were on the defensive all along the front.

At the same time Italy coupled an announcement admitting severe and continued raids on Italian cities by British planes with the ousting of the chief of the Italian air force, General Pricolo, and his replacement by General Fougere.

MISCELLANY:

London: Arthur Greenwood declared that the United States' revision of the Neutrality act definitely assured a British-American victory in the battle of the Atlantic.

Cologne, Germany: The Reich's commissioner for The Netherlands said that following the war Dutchmen would be given full equality with Germans but that no nation in Europe would know full independence of the Reich again.

New York: A radio broadcast heard here revealed that Germany is planning an auto road from Ostend on the channel coast to the Dardanelles, and a canal connecting The Netherlands with the Black sea, using the Rhine, the Main and the Danube rivers.

Philadelphia: A former German priest, the Rev. Damasus Winzin, said that the Crucifix had been replaced in German state churches by the statue of an athlete.

Washington: The plane carrying Ambassador Steinhardt from Kuibyshev to Iran landed safely at Pahlevi, it was authoritatively reported. It was, however, a forced landing.

New York: The populace had been thrilled by a mock air raid, in which sirens wailed, flares sent up smoke, and pedestrians ran for cover as imaginary bombers passed over Union square.

Let's Be THANKFUL

for the TAXPAYER, too

WE in West Texas have much to be thankful for... bountiful crops, great herds of cattle, sheep and goats, the world's greatest reserve of gas and oil, a plentiful supply of cheap electric light and power, good schools and good highways. Our homes are modern and we enjoy an exceptionally high standard of living.

Yes, no part of the nation has benefited more from the American way of living, or enjoyed more fully the FREEDOM and DEMOCRACY that we now are waging a war to retain.

But West Texas' future prosperity, growth and development depend on what we do today.

Let us look ahead, then, and encourage tax-producing industries with which to pay the tremendous burden of debt now accumulating in astronomical figures and as a means of providing jobs for the many thousands of men and women left jobless when defense projects are at an end. Let's not forget that somebody must "pay the piper" for the years of boondoggling when this country should have been preparing for a war that long ago appeared inevitable.

On this Thanksgiving Day let's be thankful for the taxpayer too!

Pull the Trigger on Lazy Bowels, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many doctors have given pepsin preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Meet the Pot Roast—Juicy and Tender (See Recipes Below.)

Savory Meals

Pep up the personality of your meals by serving meats more often as the weather becomes frost-nipped and colder. Meats are synonymous with good, wholesome, hearty meals because they're satisfying and filling. Meat sets good tone to the meal and rounds it out to give you a sense of completeness when you've finished eating.

Meat is honest and straightforward both in flavor and purpose. Its abundance of vitamins and minerals really come through and give you sustaining energy. All in all meat contains nine out of the thirteen food essentials of a normal diet.

First is protein and meat's proteins are complete. They help to build or repair body tissues which you wear down every day and keep you on good maintenance level. It has iron the oxygen carrier, copper, iron's partner and the builder of hemoglobin.

Meat has phosphorus that helps calcium in building good teeth and bones and helps give you energy. Meat has fat, too, producer of more energy and heat.

As for vitamins, meat is an important source of four: vitamin A, the resistance and growth vitamin; thiamin (vitamin B1) which helps the body translate sugars and starches into energy; riboflavin, of which meat is the top source, that helps prevent nervous disorders, and finally nicotinic acid, which prevents a nervous digestive disorder known as pellagra.

Fortunately for economy's sake, the lower-priced cuts of meat are just as good for these minerals and vitamins as the higher-priced ones. Today's column gives you tricks and tips on how you can use them for savory meals and have them juicy, tender, and full of flavor.

First call is for pot roast which you can make just as desirable as the best steaks and chops:

*Pot Roast With Vegetables.

Wipe meat with a damp cloth. Brown in hot fat and add one or two small onions sliced to meat while it is browning. Season meat with salt and pepper. Combine 1/2 cup catsup with 1 cup hot water and add to meat. Place in a roaster or cast-iron skillet or pot, cover tightly, and allow to simmer gently 45 minutes to the pound. Add more water if necessary. Whole carrots and onions may be added to the meat and cooked with it the last 45 minutes of the cooking period.

LYNN SAYS:

You're going to sell nutrition to your family not just because of its virtues but by attractively garnished, well-cooked food. Here's how:

Whenever possible serve the vegetables with the meat, as browned potatoes, whole carrots, browned onions. These can be placed around the meat for effective coloring.

Radish roses with parsley brighten almost any kind of meat platter.

Spinach, chopped, seasoned and mixed with white sauce can be made into nests or mounds and served around meat.

Baby beets may be scooped and filled with green peas served around the meat or on a platter by themselves.

Ham can be scored in circles for a change by using a small cookie cutter and a maraschino cherry placed in each circle. Circles look best if they overlap.

Bananas or pineapple slices broiled make a tantalizing accompaniment to baked ham, roast beef or lamb chops.

Slices of orange topped with a smaller slice of jelly is excellent for meat platters.

Veal is tender and delicate and deserves careful cooking.

Breaded Veal Cutlets. (Serves 6)

- 2 pounds veal steak, cut in 6 pieces
 - 1 egg
 - Cornflake crumbs
 - 1 small onion, chopped
 - Salt and pepper
 - 4 tablespoons lard
 - 1 No. 2 1/2 can of tomatoes
- Dip pieces of meat into the egg and cornflake crumbs which have been seasoned with salt and pepper. Brown in hot lard on both sides, using a heavy trying pan or skillet. Add tomatoes and chopped onion, cover and cook slowly for 1 hour. Variation: Make as above omitting tomatoes and onion. Add 1 cup of sour cream after meat is browned and cook for 1 hour. Thicken the sour cream gravy with flour and water and serve.

A cut which you may not have used is lamb shanks, but I assure you they are simply delicious when braised. They'll be a good food dollar stretcher for you this season:

Braised Lamb Shanks. (Serves 6)

- 6 lamb shanks
 - 2 tablespoons lard
 - Salt and pepper
 - 1 cup celery
 - 1 cup carrots, cut fine, if desired
 - 1 cup green beans, cut fine, if desired
- Brown the lamb shanks in hot lard. Season with salt and pepper. If you're using vegetables, place them in the bottom of the casserole and add a small amount of water. Put in the lamb shanks. Cover and cook in a slow oven (300 degrees) 2 hours.
- Kidneys are right up there among the top-notchers as a source of riboflavin, preventer of nervous digestive diseases. They're good broiled with bacon and good also in this delicious savory loaf:

Kidney Loaf. (Serves 6)

- 1 pound of beef kidney
 - 1 cup milk
 - 8 slices bread
 - 1/4 cup bacon drippings
 - 3 slices bacon
 - 1 small can pimientos
 - Salt and pepper
 - 3 tablespoons grated onion
 - 1/2 teaspoon powdered sage, if desired
- Wash kidney in cold water. Drain well and grind, using internal fat. Pour milk over bread and soak. Combine all ingredients except bacon and mix thoroughly. Line bottom of pan with uncooked slices of bacon, add meat mixture and pack firmly. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 1 1/2 to 2 hours.
- What could be better than spareribs with barbecue sauce as a tasty meat dish on a cold night? Bake the spareribs brown and crisp and brush them with the sauce for a dish you'll long remember and enjoy looking at:

Barbecued Spareribs. (Serves 6)

- 5 pounds spareribs
 - Brown spareribs under broiler. Cover with the following sauce and bake about 2 hours in a covered pan in a slow (325 degrees) oven.
 - Barbecue Sauce.
 - 1 small onion chopped
 - 2 tablespoons lard
 - 2 tablespoons vinegar
 - 2 tablespoons brown sugar
 - 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 - 1/4 cup catsup
 - 1/4 cup water
 - Salt and pepper
 - 1 teaspoon paprika
 - Dash of ground cloves and cinnamon
- Brown onion in lard and add remaining ingredients. Brush over spareribs.

Star Dust
STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

PERHAPS it's Shirley Temple's glowing health that inspired the British Ministry of Foods to ask Walt Disney for help. Studio experts say that in all the years that she was making pictures for 20th Century-Fox she never suffered from the numerous ailments children usually have, and now that she's approaching 13 making sub-deb pictures for Metro she's still the wonder of the studios because she's so well. That means a lot in Hollywood, where a star's illness can be so expensive for a studio.

Well, Shirley's diet has always included plenty of vitamins and minerals. And—Walt Disney has created three new characters—Doctor Carrot, Clara Carrot and Carrot George, to be used in a drive to get the people of England to eat more carrots!

Young women workers in the nation's Capitol are about to be glorified on the screen; evidently the same idea hit several studios at once. Paramount's version of the life and times of the young ladies will be called "Washington Escapee." Metro bought a story called "White House Girl," by Ruth Finney, wife of a newspaper man.

Every so often somebody has to screen Rex Beach's "The Spoilers." It was done in 1925 with William Farnum and Tom Sanchey staging the fist fight that made it famous. Paramount did it in 1930 with Gary Cooper. Now Universal will make it once again—this time with Randolph Scott and John Wayne in the he-man roles, and Marlene Dietrich as the heroine.

Another re-make scheduled for the near future is "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which was last made by Paramount, in 1934, with W. C. Fields, Pauline Lord and Virginia Weidler. This time little Carolyn Lee will be the child lead.

That won't be just gibberish that you hear the actors speaking in RKO's "Valley of the Sun"; it's really Apache. Producer Graham Baker hired Chief Chris Willowbird to make phonograph records in which each speech was spoken first in English, then in Apache. Then James Craig, Antonio Moreno, Tom Tyler and other members of the cast settled down to study the records.

Elizabeth Bergner, one of the most famous European actresses to work in Hollywood, has just completed the first of her films to be made. It's "Paris Calling," a story of the betrayal and fall of France. Miss Bergner's European pictures include "Catherine the Great," "Escape Me Never," and "Dreaming Lips." She became famous as one of Europe's leading stage figures before she made pictures.

The movies are an old story to Frances Robinson; at the age of four she played Lillian Gish as a child in "Orphans of the Storm." More recently, she appeared in "Smiling Through." Now she's left pictures for the radio; she's the gaily debutante in the air's version of the delightful "My Man Godfrey."

A 19-year-old girl is in Alexandria, Va., getting background material for a murder trial. She's the daughter of Jane Crusinberry, who writes radio's "The Story of Mary Marlin," now in its eighth year. Mrs. Crusinberry is a stickler for accuracy, and the dramatized trial takes place in Alexandria, so young Jane was sent off with a condid camera and a notebook to help her mother out.

ODDS AND ENDS—Bob Hope has been away from home so much, making personal appearances, that he swears that his children haven't the slightest idea who he is. . . Jean Arthur, Cary Grant and Ronald Colman will head the cast of Columbia's "Mr. Twilght" . . . Phillip de Lacy, famous not so many years ago as a child star of the movies, is now producing commercial pictures for the March of Dimes company. . . Alice Faye will portray Helen Morgan in the picture based on the singer's life. . . Though they don't have night clubs in Iceland, Sonja Henie may be shown running one in her next Fox picture, which will probably play down her skating.

PATTER SEWING

RIGHT now, your tweed or camel's hair suit for fall will take a new lease on life brightened with this matching set of weskit, cap and mittens. Later you'll sport these with your ski suit or skating outfit, a gay trio which you can make in brightly colored wools, suede or felt. You can have loads of fun making these accessories, too, so much

Household Hints

If food burns in a pan, shake a generous amount of soda into it, fill with cold water and let stand on back of stove until pan can be easily cleaned.

Crocheted bedspreads can be washed, but they should be carefully spread out on a clean sheet to dry and not hung on a line.

When pressing men's suits always press over a damp cloth.

A teaspoon of baking powder in the water in which meat and vegetables are cooked will help make them tender.

Keep in mind that rubber darkens silverware, so never let anything with rubber on it remain in the silver drawers. Use cord or ribbon to hold silver together in its case—never fasten with rubber bands.

Leftover mashed potatoes can be fashioned into small cakes and used for holding creamed foods, shaped into flat cakes and browned, or then can be used for covering meat, fish or vegetable "pies."

Wise and Otherwise
THRIFT is so often the practice of pinching pennies so that someone else in the family can squander the dollars.

If every man were taken at his own valuation, there wouldn't be half enough halos to go around.

The simplest and most ordinary things are often the most difficult to grasp, says a writer. Such as the soap in the bath.

The more you gad about, the less chance there is of your being home when opportunity knocks at your door.

So many of the people who flatter themselves that they are dreamers are merely sleepers.
