Edwin W. Butler Dies

Funeral services for Edwin W. Butler, who passed away Friday at his home in Clarendon after a lengthy illness were held Saturday from the First Baptist church here. Rev. V. A. Hanzard conducted the service, assisted by Rev. A. L. Teaff.

Pallbearers were Bert Mayfield, G. R. Hunsicker, Bill Thompson, S. C. Richerson, Herbert Moffitt and Tom Lane.

Interment was made in Rowe cemetery under direction of Womack Funeral Home.

Mr. Butler was born Jan. 28, 1885, in New York. He came to this country about 45 years ago, and was employed on the J. A. Ranch. He later moved to Clarendon, where he was engaged in the restaurant business. He came to Hedley in about 1927 and operated a cafe here for 11 years, moving back to Clarendon about 3 years ago.

Survivors include his wife and two stepchildren, Bill Richardson of the J. A. Ranch and Mrs. A. R. Moore of Clarendon.

The Info-mer extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Ex-Senior Banquet

The Ex-Seniors of Hedley high school held their annual banquet and reunion last Friday night at Laure McOlellan. An innovation this year was the inviting of husbands, wives and dates and about 100 gathered to enjoy the occasion.

Miss Ruth Richerson made the opening address which was responded to by Mrs. Kent Bellish of Saint Jo. An impromptu program followed.

The oldest graduate present was Newt Waldron, of the class of 1914. Tom McDougal of the 1916 class coming next. The graduate who came the greatest distance to attend the banquet was Mrs. Louise Hurst of Dallas.

Following the banquet, a short business session was held, at which time all the officers were reelected. They are:

Miss Ruth Richerson, president
Winfield Mesley, vice pres.
Mrs. Von Bates, sec. treas.
Those present voted to have the banquet at McOlellan Lake again next year.

See O. O. Stanford for good seed and hand furniture.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Drive of British Troops Into Libya Forces Axis to Fight on Two Fronts; Peace Comes Again to U. S. Coal Fields As Miners Accept Plan for Mediation

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

BRITISH: Second Front

...d, bitterly de- front" in North Af- sen opened by the yprise attack of sur- and terrific impact German-Italian

...Libya. ...ilitary blow for a time an interest from the Russians were making, and presented Hitler's generals with the difficult problem of either conceding the Royal Air force complete mastery of the African skies or the withdrawal of many hundreds of planes from Germany or from the Russian front.

...Rapidly the British drive went 50, 60, 80 miles into Libya, and a glance at the maps had been sufficient to show that a typical Nazi blitz tactic was being employed.

...In a frontal attack against the south and shaved tank spear- in an enveloping action which shed Tobruk's garrison, that had put out into a sortie and were ally able to join hands with Ivancov comrades in arms

...trapped what the British ned as half the German tank s, (reckoned at two divisions) a triangular space bounded by Tobruk, Bardia and the Mediter- ranean coast.

...On this triangle the British were pouring all their fire, by land, sea and air, and battles were developing which might turn out to be the

...The first of these, Churchill said, would be half accomplished when the battle of the Tobruk triangle had resulted in a British victory. The second half would follow immediately, he added, indicating that there would be no slowing down of the drive.

...As to the second objective, it was not so obvious what the British plans were. Some felt certain that the British, once in undisputed possession of all North Africa save French territory, would launch an expedi- tionary invasion against Sicily, and then use it as a base for further in- vasion.

...Others felt sure that Britain's only idea was to hold its gains, and with the Mediterranean free of menace, to launch air attacks on all of Italy from the nearest points in Libya and Tripoli, and so to discourage Italians with the war that they would rise against it.

...The British felt sure that this would cause the Germans to attack Italy, just as the Germans turned against Russia, and that thus another problem of occupying a hostile country would arise to plague the Nazis.

...The sixth month of the Russian war found the Germans renewing an attack against Moscow at Moz- haisk, according to the Reds, who admitted that their troops had been forced to give ground.

TOKYO: Tinder Box

Oddest of all the potential volca- noes in the world had been the Far East situation, with Tokyo hard pressed by the Nazis to plunge ac- tively into the war on the theory that it would create a new front for the British and American navies to cope with.

But Kurusu had found Secretary Hull not at all frightened at the prospect, and with the exploratory talks quite in their midst, the head of the American state department had called a conference of the ABCD nations' (American, British, Chinese and Dutch) representatives from which the Chinese ambassador had emerged with a broad smile.

Coincidentally the British had renewed their blunt warnings to Japan not to plunge another area of the world into a "blood-bath," but to reflect that the personnel of the British navy had expanded 300 per cent, and that the navy now was in position to divert considerable of its forces to the Pacific.

At the same time it was evident that Tokyo itself was preparing its people for the worst. That Japa- nese leaders were badly frightened over the spot they were in was evi- dent, yet few of them could see a way out without war.

STRIKE: Sixth Appeal

The sudden end of the coal strike, and the answer of John L. Lewis that he was willing to accede to President Roosevelt's sixth appeal for labor peace in the captive coal mines brought a question to the fore in the strike crisis—who was the winner in this bitter battle, the Presi- dent or Lewis?

Some reporters described the sud- den ending of the strike as a dis- tinct victory for the President, in that Lewis had agreed to "binding arbitration" of the strike, something he had held out against since the fall-down of mediation board ef- forts to end it.

But when the personnel of the de- ciding committee became known, the matter of the President's vic- tory became dubious, because the committee included Dr. John R. Steelman, head of the conciliation service of the department of labor, representing the public; Mr. Lewis himself, representing the strikers; and Benjamin F. Fairless, president of U. S. Steel, representing the mine owners.

There was little question about the stand that Lewis should take in the fight for a closed shop contract for his members. That was a foregone conclusion. As to the other two, Dr. Steelman was generally given credit by labor for having won them the closed shop in commercial mines.

Looking at Mr. Fairless, it was generally believed by the union workers, and so stated by Lewis more than once that Mr. Fairless, during other conferences, had ap- parently been the only steel man willing to give in. In fact Lewis put the blame for the failure of pre- vious negotiations squarely upon Eu- gene G. Grace of Bethlehem Steel.

Lewis had declared that he faced the decision of the committee with the utmost confidence in the out- come. The ending of the strike was dramatic. The union policy com- mittee of 200 waited 2 1/2 hours for its meeting. They didn't know the rea- son but Lewis did. He was waiting for a letter from the President of the United States.

It was delivered. Lewis took it into his private office. He read it, came out again with his thumbs in the armbolts of his vest and de- scended into the cellar meeting hall. He posed for pictures, asked re- porters to leave, and the meeting opened. Fifteen minutes later the "end strike" call was sounded.

Lewis had submitted to arbitra- tion—an arbitration he was con- fident could only end in victory for his union. For the President? Per- haps, because his letter had ended the strike. For Lewis? At least Lew- is thought so.

PETAINE: On Spot

MARSHAL HENRI PETAINE How much would he promise?

Marshal Petain, head of the Vichy government, had been reliably re- ported as on his way to a confer- ence with, first, Hitler and then Mussolini as the hour drew near when the French would have to de- cide definitely whether to join the Axis as full partner or not.

The conference, according to the Rome radio, was "to be held soon somewhere in occupied France."

The increased pressure on France was seen as a sequel to the British offensive in Africa, and the sudden resignation of Marshal Weygand as commander of France in Africa was seen as part and parcel of the same reaction.

Germany, observers said, was prepared to offer Petain a full peace instead of an armistice, based en- tirely on how much increased aid the old marshal was willing to promise, thus making France an Axis ally in truth if not in name.

Even in Washington a presiden- tial source said that Germany was planning a general European con- ference in December of January, and that following it would probably come some "high-sounding scheme" for economic rehabilitation in the name of peace and order.

Two reports were current—one of them that the French had been asked to give naval convoy to Italian supply ships moving to north Africa and had refused; the other was that Germany was asking France for 300,000 soldiers to take over the policing of areas in occupied Rus- sia in the spring.

ALIEN HANDS: Helping Nazis

A Berlin dispatch, hence author- ized, declared that the labor prob- lem in Nazi war industries, now that most of the manpower was engaged in war with Russia, was being solved by the use of alien labor.

Aliens from occupied countries, largely Poles, had been recruited outside Germany and put into the factories, with Storm Trooper man- agers, and a plentiful sprinkling of police through the plants to discour- age breaking of time rules and sab- otage of other types.

Croats and other nationalities be- lieved friendly to Germany also are manning many plants, and are re- ported to be getting better food, pay, living conditions, etc., than the Poles, who get the least of all.

The Polish workers have yellow- bordered black "P's" on their left arms. Polish and Belgian men are quartered in dormitories, while those of so-called "friendly" nations are permitted to live in suburbs near their work.

RUSSIA: Saves Machines

A Walter Kerr dispatch from Kui- byshev had been enlightening on the subject of what Russia's losses had been in the area occupied by Ger- man troops.

S. A. Lovsky, Soviet spokesman, had declared that Russian factory equipment had been almost entire- ly evacuated from the occupied area.

Kerr, checking on this statement, wrote that he had made a 2,280- mile railroad trip from Archangel through the Soviet Union, and that machinery was being moved, and in quantities that would astonish most Americans.

His trip took 16 days because his passenger train was sidetracked often to permit trains carrying ma- chinery and workers eastward were given preference.

Day after day he saw an endless procession of freight trains of from 30 to 40 cars, drawn by one to two locomotives, carrying machinery, machine tools and skilled workmen.

He said he never saw a wreck nor evidence of a previous wreck. He also saw munitions being landed from America and Britain at the wharves of Archangel and moving rapidly on railroads to the interior of Russia. He said he did not dream that Russia had so much rolling stock, nor of such magnitude.

MISCELLANY:

Chicago: One thousand robbery victims faced two prisoners in a police station lineup, and officers later said that 800 of them were prepared to give positive identifications.

Star Dust STAGE SCREEN RADIO By VIRGINIA VALE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

"DR. BROADWAY" opens with a scene on a narrow ledge, supposedly 40 feet above the real Broadway. A girl, played by Jean Phillips, is pre- tending to be crazy, and is about to commit suicide. A man, played by Macdonald Carey, pretends that he also is crazy, in order to get her off the ledge. In the middle of the scene each discovers that the other is sane. And when Miss Phillips and Mr. Carey met for the first time, on the ledge, with cameras pointed at them, they discovered that they both hail from Sioux City, Iowa.

The story of the men in the army air service who operate the secret bomb sights and actually drop the bombs on targets from giant planes will be filmed by RKO Radio, with the co-operation of the United States army, it will be called "Bombardier."

Like the elephant, Richard Arlen never forgets. About five years ago he and Mary Carlisle made pictures together, and took daily turns buying the entire cast and crew ice cream. The other day they began work with Jean Parker and Phil Terry in "Torpedo Boat" at Para- mount. When the ice cream man came around Arlen tapped Mary on the shoulder. "It's your turn to buy," said he. "Remember, I bought the last time, five years ago." And Mary remembered, and treated.

Thanks to Barbara Stanwyck, Gene Krupa and his orchestra are featured in Samuel Goldwyn's "Ball of Fire." The Krupa band is her favorite one, so when she was asked to select one for her night club sing- ing sequences, Krupa got the vote.

Ever wonder where film com- panies get their ideas for shorts? Hal Peary, who's radio's "The Great Gildersleeve," did a hiccough routine in a recent broadcast. A Columbia Pictures executive heard him, liked the stunt—and it will be a "Screen Snapshot."

Betty Hutton went to Hollywood, fresh from Broadway's "Panama Hattie," to make her screen debut in "The Fleet's In." Bob Hope booked her for a guest appearance on his radio program—probably you heard it—and first thing she knew she was on it for keeps!

Rudy Vallee will have the second male lead in "The Palm Beach Story," the Preston Sturges picture starring Claudette Colbert and Joel McCrea, with no singing for Vallee.

New Orleans is certainly having its day in the movies! "Flame of New Orleans," "Lady From Louisi- ana," "Birth of the Blues," "Bits in the Night," "Louisiana Par- chase"—and before long Edna Fer- ber's new story, "Saratoga Trunk."

One of the war-time campaigns that has spread like wildfire is the "Shaves for the Boys" drive to ob- tain free minor necessities for the boys in the defense training camps. Constance Bennett is head of the movie stars' committee, which in- cludes Dorothy Lamour, Joan Fon- taine, Maureen O'Hara, Joan Blon- dell, Claire Trevor, Joan Bennett, Linda Darnell and Brenda Joyce.

Don Gordon, "Tom Mix Straight Shooters" announcer, says that the greatest compliment ever paid him came from an old couple who sent him $4,000 to invest for them be- cause he sounded so honest over the air. Back went the money, but he treasures the compliment.

ODDS AND ENDS—Connie Boswell has asked for her release from that Thurs- day night radio program, but will stick through 1941. Babe Ruth will play himself in the film of Lou Gehrig's life. Mothers of 200 Americans in the RAF will be Warners' guests when "Captains of the Clouds" is released. Eddie Al- bert's "Johnny Eager," his in the cast list will be starred for the first time in RKO's "Cheyenne." Mervyn Le Roy, four players whom he gave their start in pictures—Lana Turner, Edward Arnold, Glenda Farrell and Henry O'Neill. Eros Volusia, the rave of Rio de Janeiro, will dance in Metro's "Rio Rita."

The Children

No. Z9397

A WALKING duck, a hopping rabbit, clown ring toss toy and owl bookends—all come from your workshop to make some child happy. Each is traced to wood, cut out with jig, coping or keyhole saw and painted. Off center wheels make the rabbit hop merrily—feet on a disc turning in- side make the resplendent duck walk when pushed. The clown's long nose is an excellent target for catching the ring on the end of the string.

No. Z9397, 15 cents, brings cutting out- lines and directions for all four items. Send your order to:

Christmas givers who want to be sure their gift is well received have been turning more and more to cigarettes and smoking tobacco as gifts most appreciated by any smoker. Their welcome is always far greater than the modest cost involved. Naturally, Camels, as America's favorite cigarette, and Prince Albert, the world's largest-selling pipe tobacco, head the smoker's gift list. Camels have two gift packages—the carton of ten packages of "20's" specially wrapped, and a gay package containing four "flat fifties." Prince Albert is featured in the pound tin and the pound glass humidifier, both handsomely Christmas packed.—Adv.

LET US TELL YOU MORE ABOUT IT

...the attended M.I.T. two years, ashed at Harvard in 1882 and, after laying the foundation of his fortune manufacturing lamp black in Worthington, Pa., branched out in gases and car- bides. He has always insisted that democracy, to survive, must plow a lot of its gains back into the business—which he steadily does. His Latin-Ameri- can journalism awards are in honor of his late wife.

IN 1913, Carlos Davila covered murders and fires for El Mercurio of Santiago de Chile. He was a good reporter and told what hap- pened, rather than what ought to happen. Later, as president of Chile and am- bassador to Washington, he main- tained much of this same detachment.

Prize Journalist er than what Expounds Faith in the thought Militant Democracy ought to happen. Lat- er, as president of Chile and am- bassador to Washington, he main- tained much of this same detachment.

One thing that he observed in 1936 was that the world was going to hell in a hand-basket un- less there could be a successful collective "organization of peace." He also observed that it would be foolish to think that treaties would be an effective stopgap against the oncoming apocalypse. He was away out in front in urging bold affirma- tions and aggressive action, in- stead of pacifistic negotiations as the survival technique of de- mocracy—in which he is a ferv- ent believer.

One of the four Latin-American recipients of the Maria Moors Cabot prize in journalism, Dr. Davila has exemplified his faith in a militant and crusading democracy, which faith he expounds in the public func- tions attending the prize award. As editor of the Editors Press service, he is possibly the most important journalistic liaison in the new cul- tural and, to a degree, political entente between North and South America.

After becoming editor-in-chief of La Nacion, he came to Wash- ington as ambassador, in 1928 at the age of 34. He became president of Chile in 1932, in a period of political upheaval, helped incline his country to its present liberal trend and land- ed back in the United States where his daughters were edu- cated and which he considers "the world's hope for democratic leadership. It is doubtful whether we have in South America a U. S. A. citizen who can- rich Dr. Davila's penetration of the mind and institutions of another country.

Living in New York off and on for a few years now, he mixes and casually, knows a lot of peo- ple, demonstrates hemisphere soli- darity in his small, compact, alert person as few North or South Americans have ever done. Bombs and bullets were some- times an obligate to his rapid rise Chilean statesmanship. He helped the Chilean state and knows the democracy is not easily come we were soft, but are and getting back our and stoic fiber."

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—in the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strains on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up at night, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by practical users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Christmas Baking Begins With Luscious Fruit Cake!
(See Recipes Below.)

Holiday Fare

Christmas is something pretty special, I'm sure you'll agree, and as such deserves something pretty special in the way of food. To my notion the fruit cakes and plum puddings are that special something with their handsome brown, fruity richness and delectable flavors.

The charm of both these kinds of delicacies lies in their ripened, mellowed flavors which comes only with proper aging when the spices, fruits, nuts and butter blend themselves into mysterious goodness. So bake the fruit cakes and puddings in advance and give them a chance to acquire their best in flavor.

While you're about the big business of making a fruit cake, bake several small cakes in small glass or pottery dishes to give as gifts. Gaily decorated with sprigs of holly and mistletoe and holiday ribbons they make a perfect gift.

Dark Fruit Cake.
(Yields 10 to 12 pounds)

- 12 eggs
- 4 cups sifted flour
- 2 cups butter
- 1 pound brown sugar
- 2 pounds raisins
- 2 pounds currants
- 1 pound pecans
- 1 pound citron
- 1 pound almonds
- 1 teaspoon each, nutmeg, cinnamon, mace
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- ¼ cup canned peach juice
- 6-ounce glass jelly (blackberry, currant or grape)
- ½ cup cream

Wash and dry raisins and currants. Blanch almonds, drain and cut with pecans into quarters. Cut citron into thin slices. Place fruit in large mixing bowl. Sift flour, measure and sift with spices and mix with fruits until well-coated. Cream butter and sugar, add beaten eggs and jelly. Stir in flour and fruit alternately with fruit juice first, then cream.

Line pans with heavy waxed paper and butter slightly. Fill pans almost to the top. Bake small loaf cakes 3 to 3½ hours at 275 degrees. Bake large loaf cakes 4 to 4½ hours at 250 degrees. Cool.

Cool cakes on a rack. When cool, wrap in heavy waxed paper and store tightly.

If you prefer the lighter fruit cakes, why not try this less rich but just as elegant cousin of the Dark Fruit Cake:

Light Fruit Cake.
(Makes 3½ to 4 pounds)

- 1½ pounds mixed crystallized fruits (cherries, pineapple, etc.)
- ¼ pound mixed lemon, orange, citron peels
- ¼ pound blanched, chopped almonds
- 18 maraschino cherries
- ½ cup diced preserved ginger
- 2½ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder

LYNN SAYS:

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas if you didn't have good things like fruit cake and plum puddin' on hand. But since these take lots of time to make, plan to be in the process of making them for several days so one day won't tire you out.

Fruits and nuts can be cut and chopped several days in advance since they usually involve considerable time.

When putting the batter in the pans be sure that the corners are well filled with batter so you'll get a nice looking cake or pudding.

Store the cake or pudding in a cool dry place. Have it tightly covered preferably in a tin container. Sound apples may be kept in the container itself to keep cake or pudding moist, but must be replaced if they become decayed or shriveled.

THIS WEEK'S MENU

- Clear Vegetable Broth
- Lamb Shanks Lima Beans
- Mashed Potatoes
- Grated Carrot-Pineapple Salad
- Muffins Beverage
- Queen's Bread Pudding

- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 8 egg whites
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice

Cut fruits and peels in thin slices. Mix cherries and ginger with 1 cup flour and toss lightly. Cream, margarine with ½ cup sugar. Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt and beat into batter. Add floured fruits and nuts and mix thoroughly. Add lemon juice to egg whites and beat until stiff. Add remaining sugar and beat until smooth. Fold into batter. Turn into greased tube pans lined with waxed paper and bake in a slow (325 degree) oven for 3 hours.

To my mind there's nothing quite so festive as the plum pudding brought flaming to the table, and served with a rich sauce.

Plum Pudding.
(Makes 3½ pounds)

- 1 cup suet
- 1 cup molasses
- 2 cups bread crumbs
- 3 eggs, unbeaten
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 cup currants
- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon each, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves
- 1 tablespoon flavoring
- 1 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon soda

Mix well the suet and molasses. Add bread crumbs and mix in eggs one at a time. Add raisins and currants mixed with the flour and spices, then flavoring. Mix in milk and soda dissolved in 1 cup boiling water. Grease mold, put in pudding ¾ full and seal tight. Place in kettle of boiling water on a trivet or a rack and have the water come half way around the mold. Steam for three hours. Serve hot.

An excellent dessert for Christmas time or winter time is this old-fashioned suet pudding much akin to the plum pudding:

Suet Pudding.
(Serves 10)

- 1 cup suet, chopped fine
- 1 cup molasses
- 1 cup bread crumbs
- ¼ cup evaporated milk, mixed with ¼ cup water
- 1½ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup raisins or currants or preserved fruit

Mix all dry ingredients together, add fruit, then suet and milk. Turn into greased pudding mold, cups or cans, cover tightly with greased paper or fitted covers. Place on a rack in a kettle of boiling water which comes half way up to the molds. Cover kettle and steam 3 hours if in a mold, or 1 hour if in cups. Serve with hard sauce or Plum Pudding Sauce.

Sauce is to pudding as stuffing is to the turkey so make it good. For steamed puddings a hard sauce flavored with whatever you desire is excellent. If you'd like a hot, golden-hued sauce, meltingly delicious here's one that's tops:

Plum Pudding Sauce.

- ¼ cup butter
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 2 tablespoons cider or 1 tablespoon other flavoring
- 2 eggs
- ½ cup rich milk

Cream butter and powdered sugar. Add cider or flavoring, then well-beaten egg yolks. When well mixed, stir in milk. Cook in double boiler until thick as custard, then gradually pour in beaten egg whites, beating constantly.

Household Hints

Prunes, stuffed with cream cheese and put in the refrigerator early in the day make a perfect salad ingredient for dinner.

Mops, dustcloths and brooms give best results when they are kept clean. See that such equipment is thoroughly washed, rinsed and aired, frequently.

To keep brass or metal door knockers, doorknobs and andirons shiny, apply a thin coat of colorless wax to them. You can do the same to brass candlesticks and other ornaments.

When opening a new pattern write the number of the pattern on each piece. No matter how scattered the pieces may get, you will know to which pattern they belong.

Cauliflower perks up with a sprinkling of celery seed in a white sauce, with paprika dashed on liberally before serving.
