Oliver Judson Leveritt

Oliver Judson Leveritt, well known Amarilloan prominent in lodge circles and owner of Leveritt's Barber Shop, died early Sunday morning in an Amarillo hospital following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Leveritt, 67 years old, had lived in Amarillo the past 27 years.

Mr. Leveritt was a deacon in the First Baptist church. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Knave Shrine.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Josephine Leveritt and a son, O. J. Leveritt of Amarillo; a brother, A. G. Leveritt of Amarillo; and four sisters, Mrs. L. Mobley, San Bernardino, Cal.; Mrs. P. T. Boston, Shamrock; Mrs. O. L. Gola, Glendale, and Mrs. E. W. Howell, Brownfield.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the First Baptist Church of Amarillo.

W. O. Payne and several members of the Senior class took part in the Army Day parade at Glendon Monday, in which most of the county's schools were represented. A number of Hedleyans viewed the parade.

Rudy Simmonds of Glendale spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clarke.

Woman's Culture Club

"The Women's Culture Club" met with Miss Dorothy Land in the home of Mrs. R. W. Scales March 15th. Our roll call was "The changes in school since my day." Some of the answers given were the school ground equipment, the buses, the modern buildings and the athletics. Camilla Doherty, Jeanette Tipton, Imogene Fortenberry, Bertie Ruth Urey, Joan Shaw, Margie Bardine and Mardice Tipton gave a very interesting program which had been prepared by Mrs. Pitcock and Miss Hawkins.

Jeanette Tipton gave a talk on some of the things learned in "Some Economics about the art of home making." Four members of the Home Ec. Club, Imogene Fortenberry, Mardice Tipton, Jeanette Tipton, and Margie Bardine sang two of their club songs. Bertie Ruth Urey gave a talk on the commercial studies. She asked several questions concerning the proper way for the stenographer to apply herself to the business world. I am afraid that most of our members failed to pass the examination. Joan Shaw gave a brief outline of our United States history up to the present time. Margie Bardine outlined a year's work in English and how they studied it. Camilla Doherty, the leader, concluded the program with an outline of a poem by Milton.

The guests Mrs. Roscoe Land, Mrs. E. W. Scales, Mrs. Kent of Saint Jo, and the high school girls spent a very delightful social hour over their refreshments which carried out the Easter celebration.

Elections

In the city election Tuesday Leon Reeve was reelected mayor. Aldermen elected were Bill Johnson, Charlie Barnett, Dick Valance, Ross Adamson and W. M. Biddle.

In the school election Saturday Ted Dudley and Charles Raines were elected trustees.

First Baptist Church Notes

Sunday School begins at ten o'clock now and the preaching service begins at eleven o'clock. war time. Please note the change in time was late for Sunday School last Sunday.

The attendance at our services was down considerably, especially the morning services last Sunday. Sickness, death and Easter attractions were given as the reason. All of our people are urged to be faithful to their church and to their Savior. Every Sunday is The Lord's Day. The Lord's Day is a memorial to His resurrection. Why not honor the living Savior every Sunday by keeping His Day holy by being present at all of the services of your church?

The pastor's subject Sunday morning was "The Voice of the Empty Tomb", Luke 24:5-6. "Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen." At the evening service the subject was "Philip, the Soul Winner", Acts 8:35.

Plans are being made for a spring revival. We have nothing definite to announce yet. A committee to suggest a time and help has been named and a report is expected soon. May we see in prayer for God's leadership in this matter.

Training Union meets each Sunday evening at 8:00 and the evening preaching service begins at 9:00.

Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 8:00.

We welcome you to worship with us.

A. L. Toss, pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH

O. E. LeMond, Pastor

The Easter services at the Methodist church was well attended. The children had the opening service at Sunday school. There was a little larger attendance than usual and the church attendance was unusually good.

One baby was dedicated and the mother joined the church, her husband already being a member.

The night service was well attended. It was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Watkins and Miss Myrtle Reeves. This service was received with many expressions of appreciation.

Revival

The opening services of the revival at the Methodist church will be Friday night at 8:30 war time. Rev. V. S. Sherrill will be here for the first service.

Perry Leon Reeves Jr. is reported quite ill in a Memphis hospital.

Mrs. L. A. Snowden is reported doing nicely after an operation Saturday in a Pampa hospital. Mrs. Hobart Moffitt is taking her place in the Hedley school faculty.

Floyd Naylor and family visited in Portales, N. Mex., first of the week.

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on discomfort after meals, stomach bloating, dizzy spells, gas, constipation, and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lumpy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many Doctors have given Laxative Senna in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Look on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative Senna wakes up your nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable as to ease on your stomach. Even fussy children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin as directed on label or by your doctor's advice, and feel world's better. Get genuine Dr. Caldwell's.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS By Edward C. Wayne

Jap Failure to Overwhelm Australia Brings Revision of Pacific Timetable; Anti-War Feeling Grows in Bulgaria As Government Meets Nazi Demands

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

TIMETABLE: Revised

There had been much talk about the Japanese timetable being awry, but to the man in the street this was hard to believe, since the Japs had swept the East Indies, including Singapore, but excluding Bataan and Manila Bay fortresses, in the unbelievably short period since December 7.

However, it had become apparent that the Japanese plans to enter the Australian mainland had suffered a severe setback in the arrival of thousands of American troops on the continent, in the all-out plane attack on Jap concentrations in islands to the north of Australia, and in the reported reinforcements being received by the Aussies for their own blooded troops back from northern Africa.

These were signs all could read. The attacks on New Guinea had been going on far too long in comparison with those on other islands in the Indies without the Japs moving in for the Australian "kill."

It was inconceivable that the Japanese wanted to wait until the Americans and North African troops had landed, had become organized, they had not wanted MacArthur, and President Quezon to escape to the mainland.

Nor did they want their enemy to be holding onto Port Moresby at this late date, with its airfields and garrisons awaiting a Jap push over the almost impassable mountainsides to the southern part of the island.

Here, it was evident, the Japs had met serious delay. Many believed the attack on Australia was to be abandoned, thus setting the stage for a real Allied counter-offensive.

The Australians, however, particularly General Blamey, who had been placed in command of the Aussies under General MacArthur, believe that "We must arrange our strategy on the basis that the Japs are going to try an invasion."

BULGARS: Reported on Move

The Bulgarian army had been reported on the move to the German eastern front, the government having acceded to the Nazi demands that it furnish troops for the offensive against Russia.

But the move, highly disturbing to Turkey as well as to the bulk of the Bulgarian people, was without, almost sharp criticism from within, amounting to revolution.

An anti-war movement had been gaining in popularity, and when two divisions were withdrawn from the Turkish frontier, reportedly to move against Russia, one radio station kept broadcasting an appeal to the

INDIA: At Crossroads

While there had been no immediate indication that the Japs were to make India the supreme objective, and abandon any idea of an immediate invasion of Australia, the situation in Burma was serious enough to give poignancy to the visit of Sir Stafford Cripps and his offer of dominion status to India—after the war.

The sharp division of opinion in India placed three men and their followers in the forefront of the picture, Gandhi, Nehru and Jinnah. Gandhi, the Mahatma, leader of more Hindus than any other man, had been the first to confer with Cripps, and a two-hour conference had found the two men willing to admit that the basis of negotiations was "satisfactory."

But the handling of Nehru and Jinnah was a horse of another color. Despite the fact that Gandhi had been more than any other man the leader of resistance to British rule,

Jawaharlal Nehru

Mohandas K. Gandhi

he was regarded as more reasonable, more desirous of defending India than the other leaders.

Nehru, the congress chieftain, prior to talking with Cripps had said that anything less than a promise of complete independence would be inadequate.

"Japan is offering us that," he said boldly. While he professed no "love for the aggressor," he said that British failure to offer independence would leave India no recourse other than to adopt a passive resistance to the Japs, which he admitted would be no practical resistance at all.

Nehru frankly did not believe the British could achieve Indian unity, blaming Jinnah, the Moslem head. He said that Jinnah was insisting on a divided freedom for India, and that while he, Nehru, was willing to "go along" with any type of freedom, he doubted that England was going to accede to Jinnah's demands.

Relations were worse at the time of Cripps' arrival than at any time in history, Nehru said, talking darkly of civil war being "just around the corner," an eventuality which most observers believed would be suicidal with Japan knocking at the nation's eastern borders.

COMMANDOS: Hit Daring Blow

Britain's commandos, after a lull of several weeks during which they doubtless had been "cooking" another raid, had descended in full power on the German-held port of St. Nazaire, important submarine and naval base, with dire results.

Chief objective, outside of general demolition work around the port, had been the destruction of a huge dock, the only one on the European Atlantic coast capable of handling the 35,000-ton German battleship Von Tirpitz.

The commandos had attacked St. Nazaire under cover of an aerial bombing raid, using paratroops, destroyers, and motor torpedo boats. The Nazis denied all efficacy of the raid, but the British just as positively declared it to have been a huge success.

Chief item and most daring in the raid was the use of an overage U. S. destroyer as a swiftly moving bomb to ram the dock. The destroyer had been loaded with five tons of high explosive in its bow, fixed with a time fuse to permit the crew to get ashore and fight while the ship blew up.

British sources had reported that this was just what happened. The vessel rammed the dock and stuck there, later to blow up and put the structure out of commission.

The Germans said, however, that their coastal defense batteries struck the destroyer and caused her to blow up before reaching her objective.

The Germans, however, admitted that many of the raiders got ashore, but claimed they were all killed or captured. The British said there "were some casualties," but that the objectives were carried out, and that many members of the raiding forces returned in safety to England.

It was all part of the British spring offensive, which included practically non-stop raids against Germany and occupied France.

The U. S. destroyer found at her end a place in history along with the Vendictive and the blockships of Zebrugge fame.

BATAAN: More Bombs

MANUEL L. QUEZON
Relief not long in coming.

Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, picking up where General MacArthur left off, was continuing the Bataan campaign, and Corregidor had withstood the heaviest bombing attacks of the war.

The guns of Corregidor and her sister fortresses had hammered away at flights of Jap bombers, dropping four one day, two the next, with others "probably downed or damaged."

President Quezon, on his arrival with his family and cabinet in Australia, predicted that the iron stand of Wainwright's men soon would receive its reward, and that relief for the Philippine garrison would "not be long in coming."

The Filipino president had been variously reported as killed, dead of disease, and murdered on orders of General MacArthur. Actually, he had never left MacArthur's headquarters, and had flown to Australia to take his stand there again.

AMERICANS: Cupid 'Down Under'

Most interesting while the American troops were training in Australia, becoming acclimated, and "meeting the people" was the flood of romance sweeping over the continent.

Literally scores of marriages were being performed, causing all sorts of reactions. Some of the Aussie clergy deplored these "marriages in haste," and one cleric had the bad taste to say the "Americans came here to fight, not to get married."

The Australian public met the romances with whoops of joy, and the press was definitely on the side of young love.

One American commanding officer forbade his soldiers to get married, and drew down on himself howls of rage from the rank and file, and a reprimand from his superiors.

The war department in Washington capped this climax by issuing a statement that any American soldier had a perfect right to get married as long as he did his duty as a soldier, and obeyed the commands of his superiors—and was free to get married.

And that, after all, turned out to be the only major worry of those who watched Cupid's darts flying right and left in Australia—the fear that some enthusiastic lovers might forget that they had wives at home.

RUBBER-OIL: German Patents

Congressmen had been looking with a wary and angry eye at the Standard Oil group which, it had been publicly charged, had possession of a superior rubber-oil formula, and had been negotiating with it, and turning its patents over to a German concern even after December 7.

For a time things had looked most serious, with Senator Truman saying: "It looks like treason and I'm going to give the Standard officials a chance to show why it isn't," but this feature of the case simmered down a couple of days later when he said he was "willing to let bygones be bygones."

But the aftermath was that Standard and its process for making rubber out of oil was on the spot, and its every move was being watched. Truman said he didn't like the looks of the deal whereby the government was constructing plants for making aviation gasoline.

"It looks as though the big companies are freezing out the little ones, and that they will make enough profit out of their contracts to pay for the government buildings," he said.

Another aftermath of the congressional probe into conditions surrounding the rubber-making deals with German firms was that Truman said in the future no foreign pacts of any sort might be made without government scrutiny and approval.

Congress didn't want to be caught napping again.

OFFENSIVE:

The oft-repeated question "where will Hitler's spring offensive strike?" had been sufficiently answered by dispatches from Moscow.

Activity was definitely on the lull in North Africa.

Activity across the channel was largely from England to Germany, with the Nazis on the defensive. But on the Russian front, both at Murmansk and all along the whole 2,000-mile line, the Reds themselves were admitting widely increased German activity.

Yoke-Front Dirndl Frock.

A NEW and different yoke treatment brightens the top of the "teen-age" frock which we present today. A clever detail, this yoke carries a front opening for the bodice and in addition gives that originality which younger girls seek in their fashions! Pattern No. 1520-B is bound to be regarded highly by the younger set anyway, because it also presents that very popular feature—the dirndl skirt—in this case a dirndl skirt with a snug fitting belt which ties in back with sash ends.

Mose Knew Not What Lucy Talked Of, but How!

Before the court on wife-brought charges of desertion and non-support, Mose Brown meekly admitted his guilt and offered nothing in extenuation except that the lady talked too much.

"That's no excuse for desertion, Mose," said the judge. "The law gives a woman the right to talk all she wants to."

"Yassuh, Judge. I knows it do. Only Lucy she never stop talkin'." She keep it up stiddy, mo'nin', noon and night, till I can't stan' it no mo'."

"She does? What does she talk about?" inquired the court.

"Jedge, suh," Moses said, "she don't say."

THE HOOT

Appear on Club Program

Agood high school girls were guests at the Women's Culture Club luncheon of Mrs. Tipton on March 26. The girls appeared on the program representing English home economics, commercial and history departments.

Bertie Ruth Usher, from the commercial department, spoke on the importance of typewriting and of typing in our modern world. She named some of the positions for which high school students are trained and conducted a quiz on business etiquette. Jeannette Tipton from the business department, set forth the place of homemaking in the modern curriculum. Margi-Burdine, Imogene Fortenberry, Jeannette Tipton and Mardice Tipton sang Dietrich Meidies and our club song Work, Help and Serve. Camilla Doherty and Margi-Burdine, from the English department, explained the technique for outlining any poem and Camilla outlined in detail the poem, On His Blindness by John Milton. Jo Ann Shaw, from the history department spoke on money. She told a brief history of money and spoke of our financial problems of today involving inflation, price-pegging and wage control.

The girls all appreciated the privilege of attending the club meeting and of appearing on the program. Every one reported an enjoyable time.

Assembly

Since Brother Smith could not be with us Friday morning April 2, we did not have our usual devotion. Brother Tipton led us in prayer. The third grade had charge of the devotion.

with Anita Bain, Joan Ray, Moreman, Doris Tims, Ted Springs, Mary Alice Hunzicker, and Billy Dean Harris participating.

The sixth grade, under the direction of Miss Shearer, had charge of the main part of the program. They presented an interesting three act play, rich in both adventure and humor. It was entitled "How Boots Befooled the King" and told the story of a king who promised his daughter's hand to the man who could fool him. Of course, all the boys were interested in trying to win the fair maiden's hand. We were delighted that the winner was a poor boy whom everyone was inclined to ridicule. Every member of the sixth grade had a part in it and it was a decided success in spite of the fact that two of the characters were unexpectedly absent.

The Chatter Box

We Wonder:

If the boys should be permitted to join our knitting class.

If our teachers are being patriotic when they refuse to let us knit during class periods.

If I should believe that rumor that Chancy Ruth and Billy Bridges have been seen riding together.

Why Harold comes to school only in the afternoons.

What parts the high school will have in the program at the close of school.

How we happened to have only 4 boys in school Wednesday afternoon.

Why the teachers did not sign our excuse blanks on Thursday.

Why Lavelle is absent so much here lately.

Why certain sophomore boys remain in the fourth period study hall every day.

If Jane Ruth was as lonely as she appeared on last Wednesday. If the boys really believe their short hair cuts improve their looks.

When Buster is going to make good his promise to tell the English class all about that little fass he had.

Why it is reported that Peggy Nell wore her rabbit foot to the Senior party.

Why Ila Faye is receiving so many letters these days.

Why Dorothy Jean did not bring me a souvenir from Old Mexico.

Bingo Party

The P. T. A. honored the Seniors with a buffet supper and a bingo party at the home of Mrs. G. L. Johnson on the night of March 27.

We were greeted at the door by Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Bridges and Mrs. Moreman.

After everyone arrived the buffet supper was served. It consisted of chicken, gravy, creamed potatoes, green beans, salad, hot rolls, butter and iced tea. The dessert followed the patriotic decoration theme, angel food cake with red, white and blue ice cream.

The decorations were patriotic with red, white and blue balloons forming a large "V" for victory on the wall. The napkins were red and blue, the favors, small United States flags and the place cards were novel. A small name drawn on the card and the smoke from the airplane writing person's name. On the buffet was a mirror with airplanes covering it.

The bingo games followed. Each person who won a game of bingo was rewarded with a small piece of candy to save until the end of all the games. When all was finished, the person having

BOMBS! ... after 10 Years of Inaction

WASHINGTON is "concerned" because the country has not awakened to the danger of bombs!

And the people are concerned—nay, alarmed—because Washington has not awakened to the danger confronting the country!

For 10 years the average American has been exposed to perpetual emotion. Each so-called "emergency" has resulted in creation of some new alphabetical bureau or agency until today he has little sympathy for the inconveniences of an overcrowded Washington.

With patience exhausted, the average citizen now is demanding something more than words, something more than cajolery to build up his morale.

He wants examples, actions, in high places.

Why, he is asking, is his money (taxes, bonds and stamps) allowed to be wasted on non-essential activities while boys in the armed forces are dying for lack of guns, ships, tanks and planes?

He ordered fighting equipment to rain bombs on the Axis!

No other country can compare with America's potential war production. No other has the men, the machines—or the electric power.

America's electric companies, under trained and experienced business men, are supplying power for the vast wartime industries, in addition to your home and business, where it's needed when it's needed and in quantities greater than the combined total of all the enemy countries.

Last year they paid $510,000,000 in taxes—enough to equip 2,400,000* soldiers... enough money to build 9,273* pursuit planes, 2,429* light bombardment planes, or 1,522* flying fortresses!

Here's a business built the American way—by local enterprise and public individual investment—and regulated by the government and dedicated to defending America's freedom and democracy until the last dictator has fallen.

To clean enamel woodwork, melt one-half cup shaved soap in two cups of boiling water. Whip to a lather and apply with a sponge to a small space at a time. Wash, then wipe off the suds with a dry cloth and quickly rinse with a clean soft cloth. Proceed until all the woodwork has been cleaned. This method helps prevent streaking.

When you have many children's clothes to make, you can save time and effort if you use a sort of factory method. Cut out three or four dresses at a time (using different materials if you like). You can finish them in a variety of ways.

Scratches on furniture may be concealed by rubbing with good furniture polish, with lemon oil, or with linseed oil. Scratches on mahogany may be retouched with a little stain of the same color.

Disconnect electrical iron as soon as you have finished with it, thus preventing fires and the burning out of iron.

If you have trouble with the sugar in fruit or berry pies, try this: Put only half the required quantity of sugar in the pie at first. Mix the rest with half the quantity of water and boil it three minutes. When the pie has baked about 20 minutes, pour the syrup into the pie through a paper funnel stuck through one of the steam holes.

Simon Bolivar, Liberator

Simon Bolivar, the George Washington of South America, set up five independent nations in South America during the early part of the Nineteenth century: Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, and Venezuela. He was born in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1783, of a noble Basque family, and became interested in the cause of freedom as a youth studying in Europe.

In Rome he made a vow to liberate his country from Spain. His country was South America. His ideals were liberty without license and authority without tyranny, and he laid the foundation for those ideals in territory greater than the 13 colonies of 1776 and the one of the conquered territory of Napoleon.

Kidneys Must Work Well
For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.
If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.
Burning, stinging or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.
Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and helps them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

Star Dust

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

TAXICAB business boomed recently at one of Hollywood's major studios, unaffected by the rubber shortage. Richard Carlson and Martha O'Driscoll drove off in one to be married, with Cecil Kellaway at the wheel. That was in New York. Then Burgess Meredith and Louise Platt rode to a railway station in Newark, N. J., in the same cab. Finally Allan Ladd and Bonita Granville took the same cab to Brian Donley's home in a Middle Western city. Same cab—mounted on a fixed platform, never turning a wheel; it had no wheels!

In case you're interested, the pictures for which taxi worked so hard and so faithfully are "My Heart Belongs to Daddy," "Street of Chance," that being the new title for "The Black Curtain," and "The Glass Key."

Almost ten years ago Red Skelton played his first vaudeville act in Worcester, Mass. June Earle danced and played "straight man" for him. Tommy Mac was also in the act.

RED SKELTON

Now they're together in the new "Maisie" film, June and Mac doing the same skits they did then, and Red Skelton—or so he insists—telling the same jokes he told then. But he's now earning more than $7 a week for doing it!

Basil Rathbone has a new contract (with Metro, this time) but he'll continue being a villain. In "Crossroads," with William Powell and Hedy Lamarr, he holds the key to Powell's past, Powell being a French diplomat branded as a former underworld character.

Jean Atkinson, stand-in for Madeline Carroll for the last six years, has been called Hollywood's composite woman; she's been stand-in for Fay Wray, Vivien Leigh, Frances Farmer, Claire Trevor and many others, "because she looks like many actresses rolled into one." She's been a stand-in for ten years, and says that she has no ambitions to be an actress.

William Powell took time off from his work to give a farewell party for Richard Barthelmess, before the latter left for Norfolk, Va., to serve as a naval lieutenant. Years ago—long before they knew their present wives—those two and Ronald Colman were bosom companions.

With practically all of Hollywood doing some kind of war work, (and really doing it, too; no fooling) Hedy Lamarr got busy right on her own home grounds, when she saved her hairdresser, Eadie Hubner, from serious burns from an exploding gas stove.

Bob Hawk's having to do a lot of explaining. He decided to invest in a restaurant. Found one, signed a lease, and the sign painter went to work. The place was to be called "The Griddle"—but the painter made a mistake—and Hawk's explaining to friends that he isn't really in the griddle business.

Columns could be devoted to Norman Corwin. A newspaper man, five years ago he pursued major radio executives with program ideas to revolutionize the airwaves. Only a small independent station in New York would give him a chance. Today he's engaged by four major networks. He directs the government series, "This Is War," heard every Saturday. Many of his original radio dramas have been broadcast. His recently published broadcast, "We Hold These Truths," celebrating the 150th anniversary of the Bill of Rights, was heard by 80,000,000 people. He directs radio propaganda for the government. His "This Is War" is heard round the world.

ODDS AND ENDS—The U. S. navy likes Metro's two-reeler, "The Battle," so much that the picture will be used for recruiting purposes. . . . Director George Cukor's directing "Her Cardboard Lover" for the third time; once with Laurette Taylor, once with Jeanne Eagels, now with Norma Shearer and Robert Taylor. . . . Sidney Chaplin, Charlie's 15-year-old son, when interviewed by Vox Pop at his prep school, said he wants to act and direct, like his father. He weighs 175. . . . RKO suspended Lucille Ball from salary for refusing to play the second feminine lead in "Strictly Dynamite," for which they'd lent her to 20th Century-Fox.

Better Than the Candidate Spoke Direct From Heart

When Bill O'Dwyer was running for district attorney in Brooklyn he usually appeared on the platform with a piece of paper in his hand ostensibly covered with notes of the address he was about to make. He would look around the audience, say "Hello, Joe," to one listener, "Howya, Harry," to another. "I didn't know I would have so many friends here tonight. I don't need notes to talk to you people," and he'd throw away the paper. "To you I can speak from here," indicating his heart. A curious reporter one night picked up the discarded paper. It was an old laundry bill.

Honey Flavors This Fruit Bran Bread

Substitute Foods

Most vital question every homemaker is now facing is how to substitute certain available foods for shortages. Sugar shortages and reduced supplies of fats, oils and certain imports make it necessary for every one of you to revise your meals in some respects and use substitutes.

Although sugar rationing is to be in effect, you will still be able to get some of it. There are also good substitutes for it such as honey, molasses and corn syrup all of which may be used very easily for cooking and sweetening purposes. Still another excellent source of sugar is in the dried fruits which you can use for dessert to get your daily quota of sugar.

Select recipes which have less eggs, sugar and butter, for although there may not be an actual shortage of all these items, they may be expensive.

Fats are extremely valuable in the current emergency, and you are advised to save as much of fats and oils as you can. Be sure that your butcher puts in all the scraps of fat and trimmings off the meat you buy. You can take these pieces home and clarify them for use in frying, flavoring or actual cooking.

If you have blithely discarded the scraps of butter off the butter plates after dinner, lunch or breakfast, then remedy your habits immediately. Even if you do not use the butter scraps as table butter, these can be used for flavoring vegetables, or in larger amounts for cooking and baking purposes. Be sure the butter is kept in the icebox or at least in a cool place so it will not become rancid.

Butter and its substitutes will be available, but you should plan to use these foods sparingly. You can substitute the corn and vegetable or even mineral oil for salad dressings if you are unable to obtain olive oil.

Cheeses which have been formerly imported are available only in limited quantities, but American made cheeses are coming to the fore, the Bleu and Camembert cheeses being of excellent quality.

Soybeans are becoming a popular, nutritious food during the current emergency. Here is an excellent recipe for:

- Soy Bean Yeast Bread.
(Makes 1 loaf)
1 cup milk
1 cake compressed yeast
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon fat, melted
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 cups wheat flour
1/4 cup soy bean flour

Lynn Says:

With new equipment at a premium, you will be a wise homemaker if you give the best care possible to the pieces you already have.

Disconnect electric appliances by grasping the plug itself, not by pulling on the cord. When washing electrical equipment such as coffee pots or toasters or waffle irons, wipe with a cloth rather than immersing in water.

Scouring pots and pans with steel wool pads impregnated with soap, after each meal during which you use pots and pans, will keep them bright and shiny longer.

Keep sulphur away from silverware to prevent tarnish. Eggs, matches, salt, fruit juice and even rubber tarnish silver quickly. When washing cutlery with wooden handles, be careful not to let the handles stand in water or they will become loosened.

Grease new pans before putting them in the oven and they will never rust. For rusty pie tins, rub a raw potato with cleansing powder on it to get rid of the rust quickly.

To sharpen scissors cut a fine grained piece of sandpaper into strips.

This Week's Menu:

- *Old Fashioned Boiled Dinner
- *Pineapple-Nut Salad
- *Fruit Bran Bread
- *Baked Pears
- *Cookies
- *Coffee
- *Tea
- *Milk
- *Recipes Given

Scald milk and cool to lukewarm. Pour over yeast and sugar in mixing bowl and let stand for 1/2 hour. Add melted fat and salt and the flours, beating them in well. Knead the dough for about 10 minutes on a lightly floured board. Cover and let rise in a warm place for 1/2 hour, then knead again for 1 minute. Repeat the rising and kneading process twice more. Shape into a loaf and let rise again in a greased pan until double in bulk or about an hour. Bake in a hot (400-degree) oven about 50 minutes.

Honey or molasses along with fruits rich in carbohydrates contribute to the sugar content of this fruit bread.

- *Fruit Bran Bread.
1 egg
1/2 cup honey or molasses
1 cup buttermilk
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/2 cups bran cereal
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/4 cup chopped figs
1/2 cup chopped dates
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Beat egg well, add honey or molasses. Add bran and buttermilk. Sift the dry ingredients and add to first mixture with fruit and nuts. Stir only until flour disappears. Bake in a greased loaf pan with waxed paper placed at the bottom before the mixture is poured in. Set the oven at moderate (350 degrees) and bake bread for about 1 hour.

Simplicity will be the keynote of meals so in keeping with that theme, I am including two desserts using fruit flavored with honey.

Broiled Grapefruit.
Wash and dry grapefruit and cut in half crosswise allowing 1/4 grapefruit per person. With a sharp knife cut around and under the entire pulp being careful to leave all the membrane on the shell. Cut down each side of each section loosening each section completely. Lift out center section or core. This leaves only the separated sections in the shell. Spread the top of each half with honey and dot with butter. Place under a broiler flame in moderate oven until honey begins to caramelize and all ingredients are blended together. Serve hot.

- *Baked Pears.
(Serves 8)
8 pear halves
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup honey
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons butter

Arrange pears in a shallow baking dish. Pour over lemon juice and honey. Sprinkle with cinnamon and dot with butter. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven until tender, 20 minutes if uncooked pears are used.

- *Old Fashioned Boiled Dinner.
(Serves 8)
5 pounds corned beef brisket
1 white turnip
1 head of cabbage
8 onions
8 carrots
8 potatoes

Cover meat with cold water and heat rapidly to the boiling point, then remove scum and reduce heat. Simmer until tender 3 1/2 to 4 hours. Prepare vegetables, cutting turnip into eighths. Peel potatoes, carrots and onions. About 45 minutes before meat is done add vegetables and cook them until tender.

Serving Well Cooked Food.
Warm plates for hot main dishes and well chilled plates for cool salads and desserts can put over the simplest meal and make it a success. A few bits of canned leftover fruit with a dab of leftover jelly will make meat platters an attractive garnish, or sprigs of parsley, watercress, or celery tops for meat and vegetable platters do big things to tempt weary appetites.

The True Role

The true role in determining to embrace or reject anything, is not whether it has any evil in it, but whether it has more of evil than of good.

There are few things wholly evil or wholly good. Almost everything, especially of government policy, is an inseparable compound of the two, so that our best judgment of the preponderance between them is continually demanded.—A. Lincoln

True Greatness

It is great, and there is no other greatness—to make one nook of God's creation more fruitful, better, more worthy of God; to make some human heart a little wiser, manlier, happier, more blessed, less accursed.—Carlyle.

Nature Rewards

All those who love Nature she loves in turn, and will richly reward, not perhaps with the good things, as they are commonly called, but with the best things of this world—not with money and titles, horses and carriages, but with bright and happy thoughts, contentment and peace of mind.—John Lubbock.

12 pairs of pajamas. These mating pajamas were Mesdames:
Jack Cox Bob Newman, Merna-
Cooper, V Hawkins, Ralph Aie
wine, Claude Bain Frank Murray, Leo Kay, Hobart Moffitt and
Rose Admson and Misses Jessa
Davis, and Edna Ward

The knitting case is still knitting an afghan. We wish to say
"thank you" to the 1919 stud
Club, led by P. T. A., Mesdames
1 Rain, Ned Grimsley, Me-
Kes, Blankenship and Hester-
Johnson for thread donations.
Still we need thread, keep the donations going.

Our unit was represented by
Mrs. Johnson and Bridges in the Army Day Parade in Clarendon,
Monday our work was on display in county Red Cross room

If you knit come do your part.
When victory comes you will be much happier having done your bit. If you can't knit, buy thread
