Lions Club News

The local Lions Club plans to sponsor an Old Fiddlers Contest to be held Saturday night, May 22, for the benefit of the local Red Cross Room and compensate the club for funds expended on the High School Band. There will be no entrance fee for the contestants and the club would like to have as many fiddlers as possible to compete for the prizes which will be $10 for First, $7.50 for Second and $5 for Third prize. They plan to have music by the High School Band and other entertainment before the contest.

The Club meets this week and more details of the contest will be ironed out, and be in next week's issue of the Informer.

Several members of the club have expressed their intention of attending the War Conference of Lions Clubs of District T2 which meets at Lubbock May 16-17th.

The Club is very proud of the following letter received from J. E. Porter, County Chairman of the Second Loan Drive:

Mr. Ray Moreman, Pres., Hedley Lions Club, Hedley, Texas

Dear Sir:
As County Chairman for the Second Victory Bond Sales Drive I want to take this means of expressing to the Hedley Lions and each member of your Lions Club the thanks of the entire county and everyone connected with the sale of bonds for the wonderful work that is being done in reference to the sale of such bonds. Without your efforts the county could not have gone over its quota as it did. I think the club's handling this matter is one of the finest pieces of work that I have known of anywhere.

Again thanking you and the members of the club, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
J. E. Porter

Red Cross Notes

The Red Cross work was finished and sent in on time. It took hard work, but with Bray, Mc Knight and Hedley all working we have sent in 110 pairs men's pajamas, 76 night shirts, 3 quilts and quilts and 8 wool afghans.

This work has been done willingly, but we would like to express our thanks to everyone who has helped with the work. Especially do we thank McKnight and their chairman, Mrs. John Tate and Bray and their chairman, Mrs. Bill Gray, for the work done by them. Some who could not work have donated; cash by Mesdames McParson and Blackwell; quilt lining, Mrs. Tommy Bain; wool thread, Mrs. Hobart Moffitt and tailor work, Mrs. Mobley.

Since our women have used so much time away from home we will close our work room until June 5. Our summer work will be ready by that time. Seldor Kite will be our next work.

Thanks to each one who has helped in any way.

Red Cross Chairmen,
Mrs. Ulyde Bridges
Mrs. Alva Simmons

Out of town people who attended the funeral of Jimmy Duncan were Ed Kiehl, Noy Willis, John Cooper, B. W. Kinsey, John Skaggs all of Adrian and John Halbertson of Vega.

Rationing Board News

The Donley County War Price and Rationing Board set the opening date of the issuance of home canning sugar allotments as Thursday, May 6th. You may apply for this allotment at any time you have the fruit to can, either in person or by mail, to the local board on Thursday or Friday. Certificates for canning sugar will not be issued on any other day of the week.

At the present time the allotment per person is ten pounds per year. You may use one pound per person for ever four quarts of fruit up to ten pounds or you may use five pounds for canning and five pounds for jam, jellies, preserves, and fruit butter. Five pounds is the maximum per person per year for jam, jellies, preserves and fruit butter.

When applying for the canning allotment you must have War Ration Book 1 of each person for whom you are applying. Please bear in mind that the clerks can only issue these certificates for canning sugar on Thursday and Friday of each week.

On May 20 and 21 clerks will be in Hedley to issue certificates for canning sugar. The board urges everyone in or near Hedley to be there on the 20th and 21st as we are issuing all sugar at one time and therefore we will not make another trip to Hedley.

Senior Play

The Senior Class of 1943 will present their class play, "Belts and Nuts," Friday evening, May 14. The whole town, neighboring cities and the surrounding country are invited to attend. Come one—come all for a good two and a half hours' entertainment and fun. Music by the concert winners at intermissions.

The play is a comedy spelled with a Capital C, involving a "nut" factory (unstable asylum) and a missing fortune. Plenty of fun results when the nuts get mixed up with ghosts and mystery. Do not forget the date, May 14, Friday!

Boras Class Entertains

The Boras class of the First Baptist Church entertains their mothers and guests in the church basement. As the guests entered, corsages of red and white roses were pinned on them by Mesdames W. G. ### Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—all to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Allies Tighten Tunisia Trap on Axis; Russ Offensive in Caucasus Menaces Germans' Bridgehead at Novorossisk; FDR Envisions Postwar Youth Service

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Adm. William F. Halsey, commander of the U. S. naval forces in the South Pacific (right) is shown as he conferred with Hon. Walter Nash, New Zealand minister to the U. S., following Nash's arrival at Allied headquarters recently. Nash visited Halsey during an inspection tour of Pacific islands in which New Zealand troops are active.

TUNISIA: Smooth Teamwork

Irresistible the Allied offensive in North Africa had rolled on toward Tunis and Bizerte.

Like well-coordinated teams the various commands performed their tasks. Principal objective of the British First Army had been the Axis last mountain barrier before the plain of Tunis in the Medjez-El-Bab sector. Chief assignment of Lieutenant General Patton's American troops had been the overwhelming of three enemy hill positions on the road to Bizerte. And although the American forces ran into heavy counterblows in their enveloping tactics around Mateur and Tebourba, they had continued to drive ahead.

While these two strategic movements were being carried out as a prelude to a combined Allied assault, French troops in the south executed a maneuver that had cut the Pont-du-Fahs-Enfidaville road and exposed the flank of the Axis troops facing General Montgomery's Eighth army.

While the Germans faced the inevitable decision of final surrender or annihilation their commanders were using every possible device to slow down the Allied advance. Resistance against the British First Army had stiffened sharply at the crest of Bou Aoukaz mountain, overlooking the valley to Tunis.

RUSSIA: Battles in the Air

While Berlin reports announced that a large-scale Russian offensive had been undertaken against the Nazis' Kuban bridgehead in the Caucasus, Moscow communique said that aerial fighting was the principal activity along the far-flung front.

This aerial activity had various significances on various sectors. In the Caucasus, the Russian strategy was to wear down Nazi air power and thus enhance the Red army's efforts at dislodging the Germans from their bridgehead around Novorossisk.

In east Prussia, Red aerial bombing assaults were directed at breaking up concentrations of German troops and supplies being prepared for Hitler's spring invasion.

REFUGEES: U. S.—Britain to Aid

Plans to ease the plight of war refugees in areas outside of occupied Europe and to reject any measures that might involve bargaining with Germany were believed by observers to have been embodied in a set of recommendations agreed on by delegates to the Anglo-American conference on refugee problems, held in Hamilton, Bermuda.

Observers indicated that the conference's recommendations include the temporary relocation in Africa of 80,000 refugees now in neutral countries until the end of the war, as well as provisions for the feeding and care of refugees unable to leave neutral countries.

COAL SHOWDOWN: FDR Moves Swiftly

Blunt had been President Roosevelt's warning to John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, to end the tie-up in the nation's soft coal fields.

The need for blunt action, however, had been clearly evident, for even at the moment the President had threatened to use his powers as commander in chief to prevent interference with the war effort, 75,000 miners already were on strike and a walkout of the entire 450,000 bituminous miners had been threatened.

Termining the miners' walkout as "strikes against the U. S. government itself" the President said that such action was clearly a violation of labor's "no-strike" pledge.

JOBS VS. PAY: Essential Shifts OK

As the War Manpower commission extended its employment stabilization program to the entire nation, workers anywhere in the United States were permitted to shift from one essential job to another at higher pay, provided such transfers "enhance the war effort."

Previously such job shifts could take place only in 70 areas covered by the WMC's regional stabilization programs. The commission's action was taken after representatives of organized labor had protested that job transfers under the former regulations favored workers in the stabilization areas at the expense of workers in other regions.

Under the new plan, any worker in an essential industry may transfer to a higher-paying job in another essential industry if he obtains from his employer, from the U. S. employment service office in his area, or from his local WMC office, a "statement of availability" which declares that his transfer will benefit the war effort.

CHORES: Smith college students will be called upon to give one hour's service daily, without remuneration to the college in the hope of eliminating the necessity of an additional fee to meet rising cost, President Herbert Davis announced.

BEER: A beer rationing system limiting purchasers to 26 pints a month has been decided upon by the ### MEMOIRS: Paul Reynaud, former French premier now lodged in a small dark cell in a prison in the Pyrenees is spending his time writing memoirs.

MARKSMANSHIP: Allied medium bombers scored a direct hit on a 2,000-ton Japanese vessel in the Arara sea, north of Australia, the United Nations headquarters announced.

WITHHOLDING TAX: Painless Extraction

Soothing words to taxpayers faced with rising federal levies were spoken by Chairman Doughton of the house ways and means committee who declared that the 20 per cent withholding provision of the pending pay-as-you-go tax bills "will not result in a single extra dollar being taken from the taxpayers' pocket-book."

"The proposed 20 per cent withholding is only a method of collecting currently all or part of the taxes imposed by the existing tax laws," he said.

Mr. Doughton said that from some persons will be withheld more than is needed to pay their taxes and from others, less. Refunds will be made later if too much has been withheld.

"All salary and wage earners will be called upon to file a regular income tax return on March 15," he said. "The amount which has been withheld from their wages will be credited against the actual tax owed."

RUSS-POLES: Issue Is Territory

Territorial differences came to the fore as the principal issue at stake in the Polish-Soviet controversy, although the break in diplomatic relations had been caused by a demand of the Polish government-in-exile for an investigation of the alleged massacre by Russians of 10,000 Polish troops in the Smolensk region.

In a statement which neither opened nor closed the door to reconciliation, Premier Sikorski affirmed the Polish government's policy of aiming at friendly relations with Russia, but challenged the Soviet's right to claim the western Ukraine and western Belorussia.

The Poles demand a return of the eastern part of the territory they ruled before their 1939 collapse. The Russians who took this land over, and were in turn routed by the 1941 German invasion, say that the land is historically theirs.

Whether the controversy could be breached remained a problem for United Nations' chancelleries to worry about.

ALEUTIANS: RCAF Joins Raids

American airmen keeping up their marathon bombing tactics in the Aleutians were joined by Canadian pilots flying U. S. Warhawk fighters in attacks on Jap-held positions on Kiska.

Whether the bombings were a softening-up prelude to American land and naval action against the Aleutians or a diversion to hamper enemy activity observers did not know. But they were unanimous in their opinion that any assault on the Jap-held Aleutian positions would be considerably more difficult than had the American offensive against South Pacific Guadalcanal.

A naval communique said that the continuing raids, made by Liberator and Mitchell bombers and Warhawk and Lightning fighters scored damaging results on the main camp area and runway on Kiska.

MASSACRE: Japs Ape Nazis

Employing the same terroristic technique that their Nazi partners had used in massacring the inhabitants of Lidice, Czechoslovakia, Jap troops slaughtered every man, woman and child in the coastal areas of China where many of Maj. Gen. James H. Doolittle's fliers had landed after the bombing of Tokyo.

This latest sequel to the Japs' execution of some of the American fliers captured after the raid was related by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, in an address in San Francisco.

Reports covering the Chinese "Lidice" were received from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who declared that the Japs had reproduced on a wholesale scale the horrors which the Nazis had inflicted in Czechoslovakia.

BOOM: Postwar View Bright

A potential era of "unparalleled prosperity" faces the United States as soon as the war ends, the department of commerce reported.

"The major potentials," the report said, "will be present the day after victory is won—employment on an unprecedentedly high level, the greatest productive plant of all time, national income at a peak hardly dreamed of in pre-war years, with a large accumulated savings and an unmeasured demand for goods denied to the consumer by the war's exactions."

One "big problem," the department asserted, is to prepare now to so manage these factors as to translate potentials into realities, adding that this is "primarily the job of private enterprise, aided and supported by government."

TEEN-AGE: Workers Aid War

More than 3,000,000 boys and girls between 14 and 18 years of age will hold full or part-time jobs this summer, Katherine Lenroot, chief of the Children's Bureau of the department of labor, said.

Miss Lenroot urged local communities to protect the health of boys and girls of high school age who are combining school with part-time jobs, working through vacation entering full-time jobs.

"Hey, Mister,
You Dropped a Watt!"

REDDY: What on earth are you going to do with all those candles?
MAN: Light my home. I'm cutting down expenses.
REDDY: H-h-u-u-m-m. Then you need about 500 pounds of candles a month to give you the same kind of good light. D'you know what that'd cost?
MAN: Nope. But I guess it'd save me money.
REDDY: Well, let's do some figuring. That many candles would cost you about $200—
MAN: Wow! I couldn't afford that. My monthly electric bill is only three dollars or so.
REDDY: Well, that's just about average. But remember that only about 85c of it goes for light. The rest pays for electricity to run your radio and refrigerator—
MAN: Say, that's not so much when you come to think of it.
REDDY: Right! Electricity's cheaper than it's ever been. You're getting about twice as much for your money as just 10 or 15 years ago.
MAN: How can that be? My bill hasn't changed.
REDDY: Maybe not. Think of the bigger and better lamps you're using and the electric appliances you've added. Fifteen years ago, did you have an electric refrigerator?
MAN: No-o-o.
REDDY: Radio? Electric mixer? Air conditioner?
MAN: No... Say, how come I get so much more electricity for about the same money I used to pay?
REDDY: That's easy. Experience. Training. Well-balanced business methods.

MAN: I don't get it.
REDDY: It's like this. The men and women who run the West Texas Utilities know their job. That job is to give you the best possible service at the lowest possible cost. And they're doing it! Today—when most everything else is going up—ELECTRICITY IS STILL CHEAP!

New Tea Towels Add Gayety to the Kitchen

ANIMATED cutlery, dishes, glassware, pots and pans bring their infectious gaiety to a new set of tea towels. They offer a mixing bowl parade, a knife, fork and spoon dash, the soup spoon dance, and four more equally interesting tea towel designs, with a trio of teaspoons as motif for a matching panholder. Outline embroidery does the set in a jiffy—it could even be done in running stitch.

No. 23985, 15 cents, is a hot iron transfer of the eight motifs—the kind of transfer which may be stamped several times. Send your order to:

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS U. S. Food Payments Urged for Poor; Tunisia Trap Closes on Axis Armies; As Allied Air Blitz Destroys Ships; Truman Group Eyes Hoarding Charges

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

The toll of German prisoners has increased steadily as British and American forces have driven in on Rommel's cornered Axis forces in Tunisia. Typical of the multitude of captives is the above group of German prisoners taken in the British drive north of Gabes.

NORTH AFRICA: Axis Hold Shrinks Of key importance in heralding the possibility of an earlier-than-expected finish of the Tunisian campaign were reports that the harbor and shipping facilities of Gabes had been left undamaged by the Axis forces in their hasty retreat from Gen. Montgomery's onslaughts.

With Gabes functioning as an Allied supply port, the long overland haul of war materials from Tripoli or Benghazi far down the African coast in Libya could be avoided. Moreover, Allied sea and air power concentrated in Gabes could further harass the Axis forces.

The all-over battle for North Africa was not yet won, but steadily British armies from the north and south and American armies from the center were tightening the squeeze on the remaining Axis troops in Tunisia.

As Marshal Rommel's forces had made their last desperate effort to beat their way northward for a junction with Col. Gen. Von Arnim's troops in the Bizerte area, reports indicated that the Axis had blown fresh troops into Tunisia. To relieve the pressure on Rommel, Von Arnim's forces had staged a brief counter-offensive against British forces near Bizerte.

INVESTIGATION: Of U. S.-Held Foods Into a maze of charges and countercharges that the government itself had become No. 1 food hoarder, the senate's Truman investigating committee plunged in an effort to obtain the facts.

Chairman Harry S. Truman announced that a two-way investigation was in progress. One phase is to inquire into the amount of food held by government agencies. The other was to investigate the needs of the armed forces.

FOOD SUBSIDY: Urged to Aid Poor Suggesting that the government pay persons in low income groups special allowances to enable them to buy sufficient food, Roy P. Hendrickson, head of the Food Distribution Administration, declared he believed that otherwise these people would "find it tough to get food."

Emphasizing that his statements were his own personal views, Hendrickson declared that the plan he advocates would aid the farmer. Declaring the problem had to be "treated from both ends," he said that the farmer had become discouraged because food costs have gone so high while prices paid him have not risen in proportion.

POSTWAR PLANS: Poland Speaks Up With postwar peace plans gaining increased attention in Allied headquarters, the Polish government-in-exile served notice that Poles would resist "to the last man" any claims for any quarter aimed at the "sovereignty and integrity of Poland."

Spokesman for the Poles was Prime Minister Wladyslaw Sikorski, now a resident of London. Target of the statesman's remarks was Russia, since the Soviet government recently announced its intention of retaining the Polish Ukraine and the area bordering on White Russia which was taken from Poland under the German-Russian partition of Poland in 1939.

CIVILIAN GOODS: No Further Cuts? Taking stock of America's industrial power, Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board, declared that "Today we are turning out more goods for war than we ever produced for our peacetime needs, yet we have enough power left over to keep civilian standards of living at a high level."

Mr. Nelson predicted in an address in Chicago that the United States this year will turn out more than 80 billion dollars worth of goods for war purposes. The WPB chief's 1943 estimate compares with 48 billion in 1942, the first year after Pearl Harbor, 17 billion in 1941 and four billion in 1940, the year Germany smashed her way across Europe.

The figures will get even bigger, Mr. Nelson said, adding "as they grow the armies and cities of the Axis will feel an ever-fiercer flame, a more terrifying blast from the guns and bombs of America." Eventual victory, he declared, already is being foreshadowed in the "cold hard figures of production."

RUSSIA: Mud Unlimited

Yards rather than miles were the measure of Russian gains on the Smolensk sector as the thaw-soddened central front was further mired by heavy spring rains.

Further to the south, however, the Red forces menaced the steadily shrinking German bridgehead in the Northwest Caucasus by the capture of Anastasovskaya, 38 miles northwest of Novorossisk on the last highway link between Nazi forces north and south of the Kuban river.

Elsewhere, fresh German tank assaults against the Soviet line on the Donets river east of Kharkov were rolled back by the stout Red defenders. In the north the Germans tacitly reported a retreat near Staraya Russa, between Moscow and Leningrad, by admitting a "withdrawal to prepared positions."

TIRES: Synthetics O. K. Two events pointed to the conclusion that the nation's synthetic rubber producing program was proceeding successfully.

One was the appearance of Rubber Director William M. Jeffers before a senate committee with a heavy duty synthetic truck tire and his statement that the artificial elastic had been perfected "to the point where it will very nearly meet all requirements without mixing with natural rubber."

The other was the action of the rubber division and the department of agriculture in reducing the immediate planting of guayule, a rubber producing shrub from 53,000 acres to between 13,000 and 20,000 acres.

Jeffers warned, however, that the rubber situation was still critical.

SOUTH PACIFIC: Bombs Break Lull American bombs exploding on Kiska in the Aleutian Islands, Vila in the central Solomons, Kahli in the Shortlands and in Japanese holdings north of Australia broke the lull in the Pacific war theater.

While the foregoing raids had nuisance and punitive value, General MacArthur's fliers in New Guinea centered their attacks on enemy supply and communication lines between Wevok and Madana and strafed the entire Salamaua area.

A communique from Allied headquarters said that low-altitude raids in the Salamaua area with bombs, cannon and machine gun fire had subjected this front to the most intensive damage this Jap base had yet received.

Allied airmen continued their raids on the airbases at Lae and at Timika in Dutch New Guinea.

'AIR POLICE': To Insure Peace Air power as a police force preserving world peace after the war was envisioned by former President Herbert Hoover, who proposed that the United Nations strip the

HERBERT HOOVER

Axis powers of their airplane factories as a means of stopping ambitious militarists.

The former President declared that "planes alone" could do the job of maintaining international order, thus allowing extensive land and sea armament while the world moves peacefully into an era of "freedom-of-the-air."

DRAFT: Reaches War Plants As the need for military manpower increased a nation-wide search of war factories for men of draft age who could be replaced by women or older men was undertaken. So great is the need, Selective Service officials revealed, that the canvass of the war plants might result in calling for military service thousands of men now classified 2A and 2B—men actually producing tools of war or working in direct support of the war effort.

State directors of Selective Service, conferring in Washington with Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, draft director, surveyed the over-all operations covering inductions for the future.

Not only would practices governing the drafting of fathers be clearly defined, but under consideration were measures in connection with a compulsory labor draft, investigation of labor hoarding by war industries and the return to agricultural work of farm workers who have entered industry.

WAR ON ALL FRONTS A SERIES OF SPECIAL ARTICLES BY THE LEADING WAR CORRESPONDENTS

A Yank's Life In India By William Chaplin (WNU Feature—Through special arrangement with Woman's Home Companion.)

In the heart of New Delhi, capital of India, you will find the headquarters of the Tenth Air force of the American army. It is really a city of its own.

Before this war, there have been eight Delhis, six of which crumbled away with declining civilizations. Beginning of the war found still in existence the seventh Delhi, a typical teeming eastern city of rickshaws, sleeping coolies and wandering cows; and the eighth Delhi, a governmental suburb of broad streets and fine buildings known as New Delhi.

When my plane arrived in India I drove to the Imperial hotel, then the American headquarters, along streets my taxi shared with camel caravans, bullock carts, motor buses, bicycles and pony carts.

On broad tree-lined Queensway we ran between empty lots where ground was broken for construction projects.

Already masons were at work on fresh foundations and loose-limbed hill-women with rings in their noses and heavy silver anklets clanking above their bare feet were carrying bricks on their heads.

I stayed in India six months and long before I left the ninth Delhi was completed and occupied, with the American flag flying before the headquarters building and thousands of American soldiers comfortably installed in their new quarters.

Bomb Japs in Burma. As I write, British troops are still pouring across the Burma border and members of the American Tenth Air force are bombing Japanese installations in Burma. America didn't get into the war in time to give mass aid to preventing the loss of Burma, but by wise planning they got there in time to take part in its reconquest. Theirs is destined to be a vital part in turning the tide of war in the East.

The ninth Delhi, spread along both sides of Queensway for half a mile, comprises two-story barracks, officers' quarters, office buildings, hospital and post exchange. Last but far from least are the mess halls, where Yank soldiers eat as do few armies on either side of this war.

While the barrack room bearers are making the beds and comparing admiring notes on their new masters, the boys themselves are eating a breakfast that might just as well have been prepared in East Orange, N. J., or Terre Haute, Ind. Fruit, eggs, much of the meat and all the fresh vegetables are purchased locally, but there's a good sprinkling of canned and packaged goods brought through half a dozen submarine zones so the boys can have the kind of meals that mother used to make.

Yanks Eat American Style. The American soldiers in India are eating American style in the army mess halls, but healthy curiosity has led them to make a thorough investigation of Indian food as well.

The little restaurants are always crowded with them, nibbling strange curries, savoring hot spices, perhaps even trying a chew at the red betel nut the Indians think good for their digestion. And a particular favorite is a rich pastry covered with real silver leaf.

The Indians think silver is good for their insides. The Americans don't take much faith in that, but they do get a kick out of eating real silver. Some of them are writing home warning the folks to look up the family silver after the war; they say they might forget where they were and chew up Aunt Lou's best creamer or swallow these souvenir spoons from the World's fair.

These men of the Indian AEF are mechanics, clerks, cooks, technicians of a hundred different kinds, and they put in a full day at their appointed tasks unstayed by sun or dust storm or monsoon. But they have their fun while they can get it.

A tonga is a two-wheeled cart drawn by an undersized, mangy but spirited Indian pony. There is one broad seat, separated into two by a back rest running from side to side. This two passengers can ride facing forward and two facing backward.

The man who invented tongas didn't know much about the laws of balance. If two passengers take a tonga and sit in the back seat, the shafts go up in the air so high the pony has to walk on tiptoe. To counteract this the driver crawls out on the right shaft and operates as a sort of off-side jockey.

Sentinels of Health Don't Neglect Them! Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of all excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail in function, Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide disorders. One may suffer aching backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all with-out reason. Present, aching or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbances. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. The Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. BETTY HUTTON picked up a new honor the other day; the committee in charge of Dartmouth's spring party week asked her to attend as guest of honor, and told her that she'd been elected "the girl we would like to have Dartmouth co-eds resemble—if we had co-eds. You'll probably refuse the invitation," they added, "so will you kindly send us a dozen autographed pictures of yourself?" Betty certainly had to refuse; she's booked way ahead for pictures. The latest announcement is that she'll be teamed with Diana Lynn in "The Well-Groomed Bride."

A lot of people talk about doing something for American youth; Raymond Paige has gone ahead and done the young people a tremendous service by organizing the orchestra which you hear on the swell new radio program, "Salute to Youth" heard Tuesday evenings, on NBC. He has been working to assemble that orchestra for the last two years, and has done wonders with his young musicians.

There'll be a water ballet, staged by John Murray Anderson, in "Mr. Co-ed," so that Esther Williams can do her stuff. She's the former swimming champion who made her movie debut in "Andy Hardy's Double Life," with Mickey Rooney.

If you're interested in the radio actors who appear in the popular "Mr. District Attorney," you'll have a chance to see three of them in "Journey Into Fear"—Stefan Schnabel, who plays the ship's purser; Frank Readick, the henpecked husband, and Everett Sloane, the Turkish agent. In the radio serial they play practically everything.

Jon Hall, who has worn almost as many sarongs as Dorothy Lamour in pictures, gets a chance at a complete wardrobe, from polo outfit to white tie and tails, in "Lady in the Dark." He plays the movie star, the role Victor Mature did on the stage.

Every so often comes the report that a potential successor to Rudolph Valentino's fame as a romantic star has been discovered. The latest candidate is Arturo de Cordova, already a star in his native Mexico and in Latin America. You'll see him in "For Whom the Bell Tolls," when it's finally released, and C. B. DeMille is holding "Rurales" up till the public gets to know him.

Amos and Andy fans are cheering over the news that their favorites will return to the air this fall in a half-hour show. They'll have famous folk as guest stars.

Director Robert Z. Leonard has a "baby brigade" working for him in "The Man From Down Under"; there are 80 infants, who work in two shifts, which means that there are always 40 mothers, eight nurses and half a dozen supervisors on the board of education on hand. One end of the stage had been turned into a nursery. Charles Laughton, Binnie Barnes, Richard Carlson and Donna Reed find it a bit confusing. Leonard doesn't; he worked with 20 babies when he was making "Stand By for Action."

Six years ago Charles Bickford bought a South Sea Island. He was telling Laraine Day about it—she's Cary Grant's leading lady in "Mr. Lucky," in which Bickford appears—and said that it's now in Japanese hands. So she suggested that he raffle it off and buy a war bond with the proceeds. A studio electrician won the island, gave it to his daughter as a wedding present.

ODDS AND ENDS—RKO will make a two-reel picture, "America's Children," as a contrast to "Hitler's Children," intending it mainly for release in foreign countries. Alan Reed, who's the "Pinstaff" of Fred Allen's program, is going to work in "A Tale of Two Sisters" for Metro. Igor Gorin, the baritone, has been signed to appear on the June shows of CBS. Phil Baker's line on the "Take It or Leave It" program, re the Red Cross—it may be the buck that brings him back alive!—has been entered in the Congressional Record through the efforts of Congressman Clark

60 Was Basic Number Unit in Ancient Babylon

The ancient Babylonian numerical system had 60, not 10, for its basic unit, reports Dr. George C. Cameron, University of Chicago archeologist who has been deciphering thousands of clay tablets.

While 10 can be factored evenly only by one, two, five and itself, the Babylonian unit had the advantage that it could be factored by one, two, three, four, five, six, ten, twelve, fifteen, twenty, thirty and itself.

Youth Took Lesson to Heart With Feet Down!

"Charles," said the sharp-voiced woman to her husband on the train, "do you know you and I had a romance on a train?" "Never heard of it," said Charles. "Don't you remember it was a pair of slippers I presented to you the Christmas before we were married that led to our marriage? You remember how nicely they fit, don't you? We were going to a picnic, you had your feet on a seat, and when you weren't looking I took your measure. But for that pair of slippers I don't believe we'd ever been married." A young man sitting opposite with a girl, immediately removed his feet from the seat.

Since crisp cookies and crackers soften if kept with bread and cake, keep them in airtight tins or boxes of their own.

If the sugar in a pie is placed between two layers of fruit, the juice is less likely to boil over.

Do not wash eggs before putting them on ice as washing destroys the protective film that keeps out odors and air.

Is the number of your house clear and plain to the passing public? Perhaps it needs a freshening up with some black or gold paint and that is all that is wrong with it. Friends, delivery boys, and letter carriers will all appreciate a plain, easily found number. In some suburban districts the number is painted in white on the curb, making deliveries a simple matter.

When armored knights met, it was customary for each knight to raise the visor of his helmet as a means of identification. This gesture has come down through all armies in the form of the salute. Traditional, too, is the Army man's preference for Camel cigarettes. With men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard, actual sales records in their service stores show that Camel is the favorite. It's one of the favorite gifts with service men. And though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to men in the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard wherever they are.—Adv.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Airplanes now transport workers and supplies to South American rubber forests in hours. Until war placed rubber on the "have-not" list in the U. S., weeks and months were consumed in carrying supplies to the rubber tappers. When one considers that for more than 20 years our mail trucks were encouraged to abuse their time, through various forms of road laws and guarantees, it must be acknowledged that a laudable patriotism is being shown by them now in conserving their rubber supplies. Remember the days when 20 pounds pressure per cross section inch was the standard inflation recommendation? Rough riding and fast were the order of the day. A new highway has been constructed to the Meropala gold mines in Peru. But rubber is the most important item being carried over it.

You'd be surprised at how I keep thinking of things back home—little things like hamburger and onions, double malts and... my car—how I miss it and wonder if you've followed through like I asked. Do you drive her down every week, and are you keeping the engine oil-plates with Conoco Nth oil? I want to hit the road just as soon as I get back and, of course, it will have to be in this one, for the new cars won't be out for some time after we finish the job which, if the censor permits, I'll bet my bottom dollar will be
