METHODIST CHURCH

A. B. Cockrell, pastor
We appreciate the interest that is being shown by the people of the Methodist Church. However there is a great number who should be in our services. Our boys at the front are telling us to "keep the Churches going". They say that the missionary work is one of the greatest things to be seen in the South Sea Islands, as well as the other places where they have been. You can surely do no less than be at our place Sunday morning. You are welcome at the Methodist Church. Our McMurry Campaign is getting under way. People are becoming more and more interested in this cause of the Church. Buy an interest in the improvement of the youth of our land. Do our best for the Church. College now, for there will be a great responsibility upon you and the college in future days. This is one of the best ways of insuring a world of peace.

At present Hedley has only subscribed about one fourth of their quota to the Donley County Memorial Honor Roll Fund according to J. W. Neal, local chairman, while a good many of the other districts are nearing their quota.
E. M. Glass, Chairman of the Giles district reports Giles ever subscribed, W. H. Clay, Chairman of the Bray district and O. F. Messer, Chairman of the Mc Knight District have already turned in more than half of their quotas.
This is a very good move, something the boys will be proud of when they return and something that will help their morale now by just knowing that the folks at home are thinking of them and appreciate their efforts and it should be supported by every citizen of the country.
Delbert Kinsey of Hereford was a Hedley visitor Tuesday.
Carl Gerlach and family of Hobbs, N. Mex., are visiting here.
Mrs. A. B. Cockrell has been on the sick list this week.

Farmers' Tax Deadline Dec. 15

Farmers are required to file declarations of estimated 1943 income and victory tax and make a payment by, December 15. Farmers who elected to make declarations September 15 when most other persons made them, will need only to make an installment payment December 15. Persons who made declarations September 15 and wish to amend them or those who made no declarations but since have had a change in income to require them, also should file by December 15. Persons with tax installments due on that date will receive and have received bills from the local Collector of Internal Revenue.

Keep Draft Board Informed

A farm worker who fails to keep his local selective service board informed of a change of address or occupation may be reclassified or possibly inducted into the armed forces. Only the selective service board with who the individual has registered has authority to grant him a temporary release from non farm work which will protect his deferred classification.

Lions Club News

This week's meeting of the Lions Club should be very interesting as it has been set as a "come as you are" meeting. Each Lion to come as he was that afternoon or meet the consequences from Tallwater Owens. This will be the first meeting at 8:05 p. m. so a good many may have to come as they are to make it on time.
Last week at the directors meeting they recommended that the club donate $25.00 to the Donley County Memorial Fund. This is a very good cause and should be supported by all the organizations of the county.

The work on local Memorial Honor Roll Board is progressing nicely. It will be ready for the names in about a week or ten days. If your boys name did not appear in the Donley County Leader special edition be sure and turn in his name to Lion Secretary G. L. Johnson as we do not want to leave off the name of any local boy or girl that is now in or has been in service during this war.
The American Legion has agreed to put up a flag pole and fly a flag over the board and it is hoped that the city will furnish a light that the board may be seen at night.

Changes in Tire Regulations

Recent changes in tire rationing regulations announced by OPA are: (1) Resapping of tires for commercial vehicles with tread type camelback is no longer rationed; (2) Tires manufactured principally from reclaimed rubber (war tires) may now be bought by those persons previously eligible for used tires. Tire and tube rationing quotas for December are not greatly changed from those in November.

E. W. Oesthen of Clovis has been visiting here.

Jean Ruth Hall of Canyon spent the week end with home folks.

Mrs. Kent Bellah of Saint Jo visited here last week.

Reduce Meat Point Value

The entire list of rationed beef items has been cut two or three ration points, making the meat most available to civilians since rationing began late last March. Many pork cuts remain at the reduced value set by OPA in mid November, and point values of lamb, mutton and all veal remain unchanged. This means an increase of approximately 30 percent in the housewife's meat ration for December as compared with the ration set at the beginning of November.

Points Still Required On Pork Sold By Farmers

Lubbock, Texas—Lifting of restrictions on farm slaughterers of hogs, announced recently by the War Food Administration, does not in any way affect Office of Price Administration requirements for the collection of meat points in the transfer of meat, J. Doyle Settle, district Rationing Executive, announced today.
The War Food Administration announcement simply removes for a period of ninety days all restrictions on the slaughter of these hogs, Settle said.
Farmers killing their own hogs and desiring to market the meat should consult their local War Price and Rationing Board if they are not already registered as primary distributors of meat, the rationing executive said.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U. S. Forces Advance in South Pacific As New Air, Sea, Land Blows Hit Japs; 1944 Farm Machinery Output Doubled; Germany Stunned by Bombing of Berlin

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

SOUTH PACIFIC: Outposts Crumbling

Less than a week after U. S. forces swarmed onto the shores of the Gilbert islands of Makin, Tarawa and Apamama, the stars and stripes floated bravely over them and most of their 6,000 Japanese defenders lay dead.

Even as U. S. forces were mopping up the Gilberts, from which the enemy once menaced Allied supply lines to the southwest Pacific, American airmen struck another heavy blow at

Maj. Gen. Holland M. T. Smith

Jap naval forces serving their embattled troops on their last Solomon's holding of Bougainville island. Of a force of six Jap destroyers, two were sunk by torpedoes and two more by gunfire by a smaller squadron of U. S. warships.

In ground fighting on Bougainville, U. S. forces expanded their base of operations under support of heavy artillery barrage and bombing attacks of Mitchells and Venturas.

FARM MACHINERY: Doubling Output

Rationing of farm machinery will be reduced to 31 types next year as increased raw material allotments will allow the manufacture of almost twice as much equipment as was made in 1942 and about 80 per cent of the 1940 total. Production of repair parts will be unrestricted.

With sufficient carbon steel available, only uncertainty of supplies of anti-friction bearings, malleable castings and forgings is ruffling farm machinery manufacture. As in all mechanical production, bearings are the chief bottleneck.

Despite the improved outlook for farm machinery, difficulties may arise from the scarcity of hauling vehicles, including trucks, and in acquiring replacement tires for trucks now in operation.

LIVING COSTS: Up 23 Per Cent

While the War Labor board's "Little Steel" formula restricted wage increases to 15 per cent over the January, 1941, level, living costs have risen 23.4 per cent since then, according to figures of the department of labor.

Originally, WLB awards were based on a 15 per cent increase in living costs from January, 1941, to September, 1942. Since September, 1942, however, there has been another 5.6 per cent rise, with labor demanding a corresponding reduction in living costs or higher wages to equalize the present condition.

Further, labor charged that the government figures on living costs were inaccurate, and the President appointed a special committee to look into the subject.

WORKING WOMEN: More Needed

With 16 1/2 million women already at work, another million are needed to round out war production demands.

As of October, only 700,000 people remained unemployed, and with this sharp reduction in the number idle, it has been found necessary to call on women to fill in many jobs, especially in busy war production centers.

The extent to which women have been recruited for industry since the armament program got under way can be glimpsed by the fact that only 10,800,000 were working in October, 1940.

CONGRESS: Ban Subsidies

To the senate for approval went a house bill prohibiting payment of subsidies to reduce or maintain retail food prices and only allowing their use to stimulate agricultural production.

Championed by the administration as a means of keeping living costs down, retail subsidies were attacked in the house as inflationary, in that such savings to consumers only added to their purchasing power, and money borrowed for the purpose increased the national debt.

The administration is now spending approximately 800 million dollars annually on retail subsidies for meat, butter, milk, and other products. Under the house bill, subsidies would be continued only for domestic vegetable oils, fats and oil seeds.

In approving subsidy payments to stimulate production, the house voted to extend the life of the Commodity Credit corporation to June 30, 1945, and maintain its borrowing power at three billion dollars. CCC also was given permission to resell at a loss perishable fruits and vegetables bought to support prices.

Vote for Higher Taxes

Also to the senate went a house bill providing for 2 1/2 billion dollars in additional taxes, far below the 10 1/2 billion dollars requested by Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau.

Largest source of new revenue in the bill would be obtained from taxes on goods, such as beer, liquor, jewelry, luggage, bulbs and cosmetics, and from services such as telephones and telegraphs, amusements, transportation and club dues.

Adjustments in individual and corporate income taxes would provide substantial revenues, with approximately 600 million dollars being obtained from additional levies on business.

Local postal rates would be increased to three cents and charges would be raised on money orders and special deliveries.

EUROPE: Fortress Smolders

With its home front rocked by Berlin's devastation by 1,000 RAF bombers, Germany sought to bolster the southeastern flank of her smoldering Fortress Europe by turning to military maneuvers to influence wavering, neutral Turkey.

While Berlin's populace dug out of its ruins, Germany was reported moving troops through Sofia, Bulgaria, to the Grecian frontier, fronting Turkey. The moves closely followed the Nazis' recapture of the strategic Aegean islands of Kos, Leros and Samos, from where they could threaten Turkey's western coast.

The Germans' movements appeared to be their answer to Allied pressure on Turkey to cast her lot with the U. S., British and Russian cause. Under terms of the Turkish-British alliance of 1939, each country promises to come to the assistance of the other if attacked.

In Italy, Britain's 8th army occupied lowlands along the Adriatic coast, in preparation for an assault against the Nazis' mountain positions immediately to the north. U. S. casualties in Italy since September 8 were placed at 1,513 killed; 2,685 missing, and 6,361 wounded.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

SHIPS: Shipyards under management of Henry J. Kaiser have launched 1,087 vessels since January 1, 1941. Mr. Kaiser told the New York Economic club. Of these, 985 are Liberty ships, 40 or more are tank-landing ships, 40 are fast tankers, and 12 are aircraft carriers. "Two or three," he said, "are troop transports with seven decks, carrying 4,000 passengers."

CABLES: The navy will make it possible for naval personnel to receive cablegrams at most shore installations outside continental United States. Service will be expanded shortly after the first of the year. The army has forbidden fixed text holiday greetings to be transmitted to soldiers overseas between December 6 and 25, to prevent overtaxing of facilities.

WORLD RELIEF: Big 4 to Cooperate

In accordance with the principles of the Big Four pact of Moscow, the U. S., Britain, China and Russia will work together in the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration for obtaining supplies for the postwar's needy countries.

The U. S., Britain and Russia will co-operate in estimating the requirements of the different European peoples. To get the necessary supplies as speedily as possible, it was suggested that raw materials be especially allocated to pre-war industrial nations with available machinery for manufacturing goods.

United Nations not invaded are to contribute 1 per cent of their national income toward a fund for financing relief and rehabilitation operations.

Rationing After War

Because of prospective demands on U. S. food supplies for feeding other nations, rationing will not only continue but also may be more severe after the war, Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard told a senate committee.

Declaring that the time needed to feed other people will determine how long rationing will go on in this country, Wickard said the severity of the control will depend to a great degree on the supplies we have on hand when the war ends. All tillable land out of the 20,000,000 acres owned by the government should be returned to farming by sale or lease after the war, Wickard said.

WORLD BANK: For Reconstruction

To join with private capital in reconstruction and rehabilitation in the postwar era, the U. S. treasury has proposed a world bank and laid details before congressional committees for study.

Announced by the treasury's financial wizard, Harry D. White, the bank not only would help in advancing long term credit for rebuilding the shattered economies of nations, but in some cases it would also guarantee repayment of loans made by private capitalists.

U. S. contribution to the bank would amount to 700 million dollars at the start, and possibly 3 1/2 billion dollars in all. Great Britain would advance less than a billion dollars, Soviet Russia's share would be substantially less.

RUSSIA: Counter-Punches

Red armies launched a heavy attack on the northern sector of the 1,200 mile Russian front as German Marshal Fritz von Manstein's troops pecked out new gains in the vicinity of important railroad junctions to the west of Kiev.

In their drive in the north, the Reds took another step closer to the pre-war Polish border, and pressed against the upper section of the railroad system constituting the Nazis' last north-south rail link in Russia. After recapturing the rail hub of Zhitomir in a whirlwind comeback, the Nazi attack lost some of its impetus against stiffening Red resistance, and although the Germans beat forward for further gains and spread the scope of their drive northward to take in still another section of the rail line previously cut, their pace was slowed by concentrated Russian artillery fire.

U. S. SPENDING: Sees Need

Special advisor to the board of governors of the Federal Reserve bank, Economist Alvin H. Hansen proposed annual government expenditures at the rate of 15 to 18 billion dollars to prevent postwar depression.

Declaring that the last great depression was the result of a drop of 15 billion dollars in private investment between 1929 and 1932, Hansen said it was necessary for the government to develop a program for meeting such crisis, so as to halt big dips in consumer buying and attract capital back into business.

The present war will be followed by a period in which people will spend money for accumulated needs, Hansen said. But unless government stands by with some kind of program to take up the slack in employment that will follow the filling of all these orders, we might well run into another depression, Hansen asserted.

LIGHTING: A New Type

A new type of electric light that requires no wires, but obtains its current from a beam of high-frequency radio energy, was demonstrated recently in New York. Experts said that this will be the lighting of the future. Also shown were radiant heat lamps that gave off enough heat to cook food, and a mercury vapor lamp, the most brilliant known. It uses 10,000 watts, and produces a light one-fifth as bright as the surface of the sun, it was reported.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Military requirements take the major portion of available rubber supplies for tires (for planes, trucks, and other war vehicles), tanks for tanks, boats, balloons, raincoats, ponchos, shoes, surgical supplies, and hundreds of other essential military items. That's why patriotic civilians take the restrictions on their rubber use in an understanding spirit.

According to the court historian to Philip II, and recorded in 1615, Columbus was credited with having found natives bounding rubber play balls (1490-1500) and to have brought some back from Hispaniola to Queen Isabella.

More Farm Machinery In '44 Brown Points For Waste Fats

An improved outlook for new farm machinery in 1944 is foreseen by the War Food Administration. Raw materials authorized by WPA to make planting, tillage and harvesting equipment during the year provide for about twice the quantity produced in 1943 or a most 80 percent increase in production in 1940 a year in which manufacture was particularly large. The manufacture of repair parts will be unrestricted.

For every pound of fat a housewife tosses to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she will receive two brown points, beginning December 15. "But most important," Herbert M. Flint, Director of WPA's Salvage Division said, "Within a month the fat will be transformed into war materials and on the way to the fighting fronts." He reminded housewives to save grease from turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens for the manufacture of war products.

Who's News This Week

By Delos Wheeler Lovelace

Consolidated Features.—WNU Release.

NEW YORK.—In those days Detroit, Mich., was full of easy money. At the Central Drug store a boy from Cass high in short pants, could pick up $2.50 a week just To His 'Alexander' for delivering prescriptions—4 p. m. to 9 and every other Sunday off.

Irving Berlin, himself only 23 then, marked a whole high school generation with that enduring song. Other songs of his marked other generations, and two wars. And now "My British Buddy" is melodic quick silver in London where Berlin's "This Is the Army" repeats its American success.

Ever since he rose above the job of singing waiter, Berlin has composed in F sharp. That is a toughie, six black keys hard to pick out, and only two easy white fellows. But it hasn't lowered output of quality. And at 55, more nearly than any rival, he is the Stephen Foster of this day.

Luckier than Foster, he is rich. Instead of the 33 cents his first song earned, each one now nets baskets full of bills. His first wife died after his first success, but for 17 pleasant years he has been married to Ellin, daughter of the late, rocco Clarence H. Mackay. They have three girls.

He is a gloomy self-critic and his own list of his best 11 leaves out "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning," and "God Bless America." Cass high students of 1911 will be glad, however, to learn that it includes "Alexander."

IF Hubert Scott-Paine had been a little quicker at blocking uppercuts, maybe the Nazis would be doing better these days on the English channel.

Turned Face Away Their E-boats find From Uppercuts to Build Speedy Boats rough going against the British MTBs and MGBs, all Scott-Paine-designed. And he turned to such work only after a boxing tour with a French circus convinced him he was in a business in which a man rose only to fall again.

The turn, lucky for Britain, was made before the last war. First off Scott-Paine designed aircraft and through the war years he laid the foundation of a fortune so sizeable that 15 years ago he could plan to loaf the rest of his born days. He had a wife, a son, three daughters to enjoy them.

About then, however, he came upon a derelict Southampton shipyard, irresistible to a man who had always wanted to build a better marine engine. He set to work with the help of various men, including one long-jawed fellow called Shaw. This was really the incredible Lawrence of Arabia.

The Southampton yard after a time produced the fastest single-engine speedboat in the world. And in this war it sets the pattern for those terrific little motor torpedo and gun boats flying the Union Jack under Nazi noses. There will be no second retirement for Scott-Paine for a while. He isn't, of course, at retirement age even now. He is only 53.

SIR HERBERT EMERSON, a nearly perfect product of the British civil service, lays plans these days for cleaning up the polyglot mess that Hitler is about to leave in the Germany he once hoped to make pure Nordic.

With Peace, His Task Is to Return 30 Millions Home That hope must be thin today, with 9,000,000 drafted alien laborers in the country and Germany's own sons dying in far-away battle.

Sir Herbert heads up the intergovernmental Committee on Refugees. When peace comes he will direct and attempt to shift as nearly as possible back to their own homes 30,000,000 men, women and children uprooted by the war the Nazis forced upon Europe.

This isn't a bureaucrat's job, but it is probably one for a man who knows all the ways of snipping bureaucracy's red tape and on that count Emerson qualifies.

He triumphed over the maze of civil service to become one of India's chief administrators. He was Britain's top man in forested Bashahr, and again in fertile Mandi, and finally governor of all the Punjab with its five enriching rivers and its 30,000,000 or more souls. He has had his present post for nearly four years.

About then he came over here to consult with Washington, and turned out to be medium tall, fairly heavy, with a direct quizzical gaze, and a trick of taking off his glasses and twiddling them as he talked.

Star Dust

By VIRGINIA VALE

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

ONE of the air's best programs, "Shipmates Ashore," may soon be broadcast nationally; it's a variety show, done by British Broadcasting company, with an American star and an English one broadcasting from New York and two of the same from London. It goes to fighting men on the sever seas, and it's thrilling. Gertrude Lawrence went down to New York's Seamen's Church Institute on a bitter Saturday morning recently, to sing and to chat with Burgess Meredith in London; said he: "Tell Paul-ette I got her Christmas present."

GERTRUDE LAWRENCE

dith in London; said he: "Tell Paul-ette I got her Christmas present." Tried out on a local New York station, the program's been a great success, and an important part of the hands-across-the-sea movement.

Andrew Stone has cooked up something special for his "Sensations of 1944" (Eleanor Powell, W. C. Fields). He's concluded arrangements with the state of Colorado to have a man walk a tight-wire across the Royal Gorge. First off, he wanted to stage the act over Niagara Falls, but authorities on both the U. S. and Canadian sides of the falls have so far refused to play.

Marking the most important Pan-American alliance in the motion picture industry in recent years, United Artists has arranged to distribute in all Latin-American countries and in Spain the product of a new Mexican production company, Artistas Asociados, S. A.

When NBC was informed that Parks Johnson and Warren Hull of "Vox Pop" would be armchair detectives on an Ellery Queen Broadcast, an NBC executive asked "Who is Parks Johnson? Isn't he in radio?" "Vox Pop" was a popular NBC show for nearly five years before it switched to CBS! Incidentally, those two Vox Poppers should be decorated for the swell job they're doing these days.

Did you hear little Dickie Monahan when he covered himself with glory on the CBS "Big Town" program, playing a little blind boy whose dog was run over by gangsters? A Warner Bros. scout did, and promptly arranged to interview Dickie—object, a screen test.

To John Charles Thomas falls the distinction of occupying Radio City's famed Studio 8H, better known as the Toscanini studio, now that he is broadcasting his Sunday NBC program from New York for seven weeks, while making 21 Met Opera appearances.

Barbara Hale, former Chicago model who came to film prominence when she was picked to play opposite Frank Sinatra in "Higher and Higher," has been given another good role by RKO—the second feminine lead in the Pat O'Brien starrer, "Marine Raiders."

Jimmy Cash, singing star of the Burns and Allen CBS program, will make his picture debut in the Universal film tentatively titled "Cross Your Fingers." He gets a break; an original number, "A Dream Ago," has been written for him.

Time was when no Hollywood actress would admit that she ever lifted a finger around the house; now they pitch in and are proud of it. Dorothy Lamour and her mother did their own washing for five months a while ago. Jean Arthur, Joan Crawford, Ann Sheridan, Betty Grable—you can go right down the list, and find the girls proud of being able to cook, garden, do practically any chore and take pride in it. Claudette Colbert's butler once was one of her prizes—now she butlers, and very well, too!

ODDS AND ENDS—Heretofore confined to the screen, "The Adventures of Charlie Chan" will shortly take to the airwaves. Ruth Howard, daughter of quizmaster Tom Howard, helps write the scripts for "It Pays to Be Ignorant," the comedy-quiz show now heard on the CBS "Kate Smith Hour".... In years to come the Battle of Stalingrad will be studied in military academies through the medium of a documentary film edited by Paramount, now being shown in theaters as "The City That Stopped Hitler—Heroic Stalingrad".... Groucho Marx is a new uncle; his brother Harpo has adopted another child, named it for Alexander Woolcott.

Household Hints

Cooked chicken should be cooled as rapidly as possible and stored promptly in the coldest part of the refrigerator.

Storing kitchen knives in a rack helps to keep them sharp and makes them easy to find.

Never clean the toaster until it is cool and the cord has been disconnected from the outlet.

To make your extension cord last longer, coil it around a mailing tube when not in use.

When snap fasteners are ripped from old discarded clothing, save them for future use by punching a small hole in a card and snapping the fasteners in this. Thus matching pairs are kept together.

If the handle of your iron gets hot, cover it with a piece of corrugated cardboard held in place with strips of adhesive tape.

Plastic cups for furniture legs and casters will prevent dents in linoleum and make it wear longer.
